

HB 3094 - DIGEST

Authorizes school districts to apply, and the office of the superintendent of public instruction to select up to five school district applicants, to participate in a six-year attendance and graduation coach demonstration project to reduce truancy.

Terminates the project September 1, 2016.