By Senators Hobbs, Delvin, Honeyford, Sheldon, Tom, and Roach

Read first time 01/09/12. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

1            AN ACT Relating to extending the time to enforce civil judgments
2 for damages caused by impaired drivers; amending RCW 6.17.020, 3 4.16.020, 4.56.190, 4.56.210, 6.32.010, 6.32.015, 6.36.025, and 4 36.18.016; and adding a new section to chapter 6.17 RCW.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6            NEW SECTION.    Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 6.17 RCW 7 to read as follows:

8            (1) After the effective date of this section, a judgment creditor 9 or the assignee or current holder of a civil judgment for damages for 10 the death or personal injury caused by the judgment debtor's operation 11 of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or any drug may 12 petition the court for an order granting an extension to execute, 13 garnish, and have legal process issued upon the judgment. The order 14 granting an extension shall not specify an expiration date and shall 15 specify that the judgment is extended until the judgment is satisfied.

16            (2) A petition for an extension under this section may be filed at 17 any time before the expiration of the judgment. A judgment creditor or 18 the assignee or current holder of the judgment is not required to seek 19 a second ten-year extension under RCW 6.17.020 before petitioning the

1 court for an extension under this section as long as the petition for 2 an extension under this section is submitted before the expiration of 3 the judgment.

4 (3) The petition shall be filed with the court that rendered the 5 judgment or, if it is a foreign judgment, to the court where the 6 foreign judgment was filed. If a district court judgment of this state 7 is transcribed to a superior court of this state, the original district 8 court judgment shall not be extended and any petition under this 9 section to extend the judgment that has been transcribed to superior 10 court shall be filed in the superior court.

11 (4) The petitioner shall pay to the court a filing fee equal to the 12 filing fee for filing the first or initial paper in a civil action in 13 the court. In the case of district court judgments transcribed to 14 superior court, the filing fee shall be the fee for filing the first or 15 initial paper in a civil action in the superior court where the 16 judgment was transcribed.

17 (5)(a) The petition shall be granted as a matter of right, subject 18 to review for timeliness, factual issues of full or partial 19 satisfaction, or errors in calculating the judgment summary amounts.

20 (b) If necessary, the court may review any relevant records or 21 documents to determine if the judgment is a judgment for damages for 22 the death or personal injury caused by the judgment debtor's operation 23 of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or any drug.

24 (6) The order granting the petition shall contain an updated
25 judgment summary as provided in RCW 4.64.030. The filing fee required 26 under this section shall be included in the judgment summary and shall 27 be a recoverable cost.

28 (7) This section applies to all judgments currently in effect on or 29 after the effective date of this section, unless the judgment has been 30 satisfied, vacated, or quashed. To this extent, this section applies 31 retroactively, but in all other aspects it applies prospectively.

32 Sec. 2. RCW 6.17.020 and 2002 c 261 s 1 are each amended to read
33 as follows:

34 (1) Except as provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this 35 section and section 1 of this act, the party in whose favor a judgment 36 of a court has been or may be filed or rendered, or the assignee or the 37 current holder thereof, may have an execution, garnishment, or other

1 legal process issued for the collection or enforcement of the judgment 2 at any time within ten years from entry of the judgment or the filing 3 of the judgment in this state.

4 (2) After July 23, 1989, a party who obtains a judgment or order of 5 a court or an administrative order entered as defined in RCW 6 74.20A.020(6) for accrued child support, or the assignee or the current 7 holder thereof, may have an execution, garnishment, or other legal 8 process issued upon that judgment or order at any time within ten years 9 of the eighteenth birthday of the youngest child named in the order for 10 whom support is ordered.

11 (3) After June 9, 1994, and except as provided in section 1 of this 12 act, a party in whose favor a judgment has been filed as a foreign 13 judgment or rendered pursuant to subsection (1) or (4) of this section, 14 or the assignee or the current holder thereof, may, within ninety days 15 before the expiration of the original ten-year period, apply to the 16 court that rendered the judgment or to the court where the judgment was 17 filed as a foreign judgment for an order granting an additional ten 18 years during which an execution, garnishment, or other legal process 19 may be issued. If a district court judgment of this state is 20 transcribed to a superior court of this state, the original district
21 court judgment shall not be extended and any petition under this 22 section to extend the judgment that has been transcribed to superior 23 court shall be filed in the superior court within ninety days before 24 the expiration of the ten-year period of the date the transcript of the 25 district court judgment was filed in the superior court of this state.
26 The petitioner shall pay to the court a filing fee equal to the filing 27 fee for filing the first or initial paper in a civil action in the 28 court, except in the case of district court judgments transcribed to 29 superior court, where the filing fee shall be the fee for filing the 30 first or initial paper in a civil action in the superior court where 31 the judgment was transcribed. The order granting the application shall 32 contain an updated judgment summary as provided in RCW 4.64.030. The 33 filing fee required under this subsection shall be included in the 34 judgment summary and shall be a recoverable cost. The application 35 shall be granted as a matter of right, subject to review only for 36 timeliness, factual issues of full or partial satisfaction, or errors 37 in calculating the judgment summary amounts.

1 (4) A party who obtains a judgment or order for restitution, crime
2 victims' assessment, or other court-ordered legal financial obligations 3 pursuant to a criminal judgment and sentence, or the assignee or the 4 current holder thereof, may execute, garnish, and/or have legal process 5 issued upon the judgment or order any time within ten years subsequent 6 to the entry of the judgment and sentence or ten years following the 7 offender's release from total confinement as provided in chapter 9.94A
8 RCW. The clerk of superior court, or a party designated by the clerk, 9 may seek extension under subsection (3) of this section for purposes of 10 collection as allowed under RCW 36.18.190, provided that no filing fee 11 shall be required.

12 (5) "Court" as used in this section includes but is not limited to 13 the United States supreme court, the United States courts of appeals, 14 the United States district courts, the United States bankruptcy courts, 15 the Washington state supreme court, the court of appeals of the state 16 of Washington, superior courts and district courts of the counties of 17 the state of Washington, and courts of other states and jurisdictions 18 from which judgment has been filed in this state under chapter 6.36 or 19 (~~6.40~~) 6.40A RCW.

20 (6) The perfection of any judgment lien and the priority of that 21 judgment lien on property as established by RCW 6.13.090 and chapter 22 4.56 RCW is not altered by the extension of the judgment pursuant to 23 the provisions of this section or section 1 of this act, and the lien 24 remains in full force and effect and does not have to be rerecorded 25 after it is extended. Continued perfection of a judgment that has been 26 transcribed to other counties and perfected in those counties may be 27 accomplished after extension of the judgment by filing with the clerk 28 of the other counties where the judgment has been filed either a 29 certified copy of the order extending the judgment or a certified copy 30 of the docket of the matter where the judgment was extended.

31 (7) Except as ordered in section 1 or this act, RCW 4.16.020 (2) or 32 (3), chapter 9.94A RCW, or chapter 13.40 RCW, no judgment is 33 enforceable for a period exceeding twenty years from the date of entry 34 in the originating court. Nothing in this section may be interpreted 35 to extend the expiration date of a foreign judgment beyond the 36 expiration date under the laws of the jurisdiction where the judgment 37 originated.

1 (8) The chapter 261, Laws of 2002 amendments to this section apply
2 to all judgments currently in effect on June 13, 2002, to all judgments
3 extended after June 9, 1994, unless the judgment has been satisfied, 4 vacated, and/or quashed, and to all judgments filed or rendered, or 5 both, after June 13, 2002.

6 Sec. 3. RCW 4.16.020 and 2002 c 261 s 2 are each amended to read
7 as follows:

8 The period prescribed for the commencement of actions shall be as 9 follows:

10 Within ten years:

11 (1) For actions for the recovery of real property, or for the 12 recovery of the possession thereof; and no action shall be maintained 13 for such recovery unless it appears that the plaintiff, his or her 14 ancestor, predecessor or grantor was seized or possessed of the 15 premises in question within ten years before the commencement of the 16 action.

17 (2) For an action upon a judgment or decree of any court of the 18 United States, or of any state or territory within the United States, 19 or of any territory or possession of the United States outside the 20 boundaries thereof, or of any extraterritorial court of the United 21 States, unless the period is extended under section 1 of this act, RCW 22 6.17.020, or a similar provision in another jurisdiction.

23 (3) Of the eighteenth birthday of the youngest child named in the 24 order for whom support is ordered for an action to collect past due

26 1989, by any of the above-named courts or that has accrued under an 27 administrative order as defined in RCW 74.20A.020(6), which is issued 28 after July 23, 1989.

29 Sec. 4. RCW 4.56.190 and 2011 c 106 s 4 are each amended to read
30 as follows:

31 The real estate of any judgment debtor, and such as the judgment 32 debtor may acquire, not exempt by law, shall be held and bound to 33 satisfy any judgment of the district court of the United States 34 rendered in this state and any judgment of the supreme court, court of 35 appeals, superior court, or district court of this state, and every 36 such judgment shall be a lien thereupon to commence as provided in RCW

1 4.56.200 and to run for a period of not to exceed ten years from the 2 day on which such judgment was entered unless the ten-year period is 3 extended in accordance with section 1 of this act or RCW 6.17.020(3), 4 or unless the judgment results from a criminal sentence for a crime
5 that was committed on or after July 1, 2000, in which case the lien
6 will remain in effect until the judgment is fully satisfied. As used 7 in this chapter, real estate shall not include the vendor's interest 8 under a real estate contract for judgments rendered after August 23, 9 1983. If a judgment debtor owns real estate, subject to execution, 10 jointly or in common with any other person, the judgment shall be a 11 lien on the interest of the defendant only.

12 Personal property of the judgment debtor shall be held only from 13 the time it is actually levied upon.

14 Sec. 5. RCW 4.56.210 and 1995 c 75 s 1 are each amended to read as 15 follows:

18 judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered in this state, it shall cease 19 to be a lien or charge against the estate or person of the judgment 20 debtor. No suit, action or other proceeding shall ever be had on any 21 judgment rendered in this state by which the lien shall be extended or 22 continued in force for any greater or longer period than ten years.

23 (2) An underlying judgment or judgment lien entered after the 24 effective date of this act for accrued child support shall continue in 25 force for ten years after the eighteenth birthday of the youngest child 26 named in the order for whom support is ordered. All judgments entered 27 after the effective date of this act shall contain the birth date of 28 the youngest child for whom support is ordered.

29 (3)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, a lien based 30 upon an underlying judgment continues in force for an additional ten-31 year period if the period of execution for the underlying judgment is 32 extended under RCW 6.17.020.

33 (b) A lien based upon an underlying judgment that has been extended 34 under section 1 of this act continues in force until the judgment is 6 application by the judgment creditor such court or judge may, by an 7 order, require the judgment debtor to appear at a specified time and 8 place before the judge granting the order, or a referee appointed by 9 the judge, to answer concerning the same; and the judge to whom 10 application is made under this chapter may, if it is made to appear to 11 him or her by the affidavit of the judgment creditor, his or her agent 12 or attorney that there is danger of the debtor absconding, order the 13 sheriff to arrest the debtor and bring him or her before the judge 14 granting the order. Upon being brought before the judge, he or she may 15 be ordered to enter into a bond, with sufficient sureties, that he or 16 she will attend from time to time before the judge or referee, as shall 17 be directed, during the pendency of the proceedings and until the final 18 termination thereof. If the judgment debtor or other persons against 19 whom the special proceedings are instituted has been served with these 20 proceedings, the plaintiff shall be entitled to costs of service,
