

HB 1978 - DIGEST

Requires the utilities and transportation commission to develop rules to improve railroad safety and operations.

Creates an advisory committee on railroad safety within the utilities and transportation commission to advise the commission as it develops the rules.

Provides a June 30, 2013, expiration for the committee.