

HB 2220 - DIGEST

Requires certain mental health professionals to: (1) Complete training in suicide assessment, treatment, and management prior to licensure; and

(2) Engage in continued training in suicide assessment, treatment, and management as part of their continuing education requirements.