

SB 5829 - DIGEST

Allows school districts to have limited authority to waive the hour and day requirements found in the state's basic education definition in order to use state resources in the most efficient manner to provide instruction in the essential academic learning requirements.