Background:

Economic Development Commission.

In 2002 Governor Locke created the Washington Economic Development Commission (Commission) through executive order as a means for business and labor leaders to assist in the improvement and development of the state's economy. The following year, the Legislature established the Commission in statute as an advisory body to the Department of Community, Trade, and Economic Development, now the Department of Commerce (Department).

The Commission assists the Governor and Legislature by providing leadership, direction, and guidance on a long-term and systematic approach to economic development. In 2011 the Commission was directed to concentrate its major efforts on strategic planning, policy research and analysis, advocacy, evaluation, and promoting coordination and collaboration.

The 24-member Commission consists of 15 voting members appointed by the Governor, plus five agency directors and four legislators who serve as nonvoting ex-officio members.

Global Health Technologies.

In 2010 legislation was enacted creating the Washington Global Health Technologies and Product Development Competitiveness Program, to be administered by a nonprofit organization with a 10-member board of directors appointed by the Governor. This entity is required to contract with the Department for management services. The board's duties include soliciting funds from businesses, foundations, and the federal government and making grants for development of global health technologies and products.

Grant award recipients must conduct their research, development, and production activities within Washington, except for clinical trials that must be carried out in developing countries.

The legislation also created the Washington Global Health Technologies and Product Development Account as a nonappropriated account in the custody of the State Treasurer to be funded with federal and state monies and used to support the grants for global health commercialization efforts.

The board submitted its first required annual report in 2012.

Washington Tourism Commission.

In 2007 legislation was enacted creating the Washington Tourism Commission (WTC) as the successor to the Tourism Development Advisory Committee.

The WTC and its activities and responsibilities were eliminated during the 2011-2013 fiscal biennium in the Omnibus Appropriations Act. The WTC accordingly ceased activity, but their responsibilities remain in statute. Among its statutory requirements are quarterly meeting requirements and a biennial report to the Legislature on tourism-related activities.

Microenterprise Development Program.

In 2007 legislation was enacted creating the Microenterprise Development Program in the Department to assist microenterprises in job creation by increasing the training, technical assistance, and financial resources available to them. The Department provides organizational support to a statewide microenterprise association and contracts with the association for the delivery of services and distribution of grants.
