Hearing Date: 1/20/14

Staff: Marsha Reilly (786-7135).

Background:

In 2011 a bill was enacted to reorganize and streamline the central service functions, powers, and duties of state government. Briefly, the bill did the following:

- created the Department of Enterprise Services (DES);
- created the Office of the Chief Information Officer within the Office of Financial Management (OFM);
- created a Technology Services Board;
- abolished the Department of General Administration and transferred its duties to the DES;
- abolished the Department of Personnel and transferred its policy-making functions to the OFM and its operating functions to the DES;
- abolished the State Printer and transferred its functions to the DES;
- transferred the risk management and personal service contracts functions from the OFM to the DES; and
