

SB 5379 - DIGEST

Requires new public buildings that are twelve stories or less to be constructed with cross-laminated timber.

Allows the department of enterprise services to grant a waiver to a public agency or a municipality from the requirements mentioned above.