

SB 5390 - DIGEST

Allows employees of the Washington state ferries, who are covered by collective bargaining agreements that contain provisions in effect on June 30, 2017, and allow accrual of unused vacation leave not to exceed three hundred twenty hours, to be permitted to continue the higher accrual limit until the time those provisions are modified through collective bargaining or until the bargaining unit changes its exclusive representative or is decertified.