

SB 5767 - DIGEST

Requires a health care provider's office to post a statement on its web site and in locations accessible to and visible by patients or clients that a health care provider will not perform certain medical procedures or prescribe specific drugs because of his or her religious or philosophical beliefs.