

SB 5901 - DIGEST

(SUBSTITUTED FOR - SEE 1ST SUB)

Discontinues assistance from the working connections child care subsidy, after a minimum of three months, if there is a change in the ongoing status of the child's parent as working or attending a job training or education program that is not temporary.

Requires an applicant or a recipient, as a condition of receiving a child care subsidy or a working connections child care subsidy, to seek child support enforcement services from the department of social and health services, division of child support, unless the department finds that the applicant or recipient has good cause not to cooperate.

Revises the definition of "eligible child," for purposes of state-supported education and special assistance programs recognized by the department of early learning, to allow a three year old to be eligible if funding is provided in the omnibus appropriations act for this specific purpose.
