EFFECT: Specifies that the statements of financial affairs for current supervisors are due April 15 of each year. Clarifies that applicants for appointed supervisor positions must file statements of financial affairs. Provides that statements of financial affairs are filed with the conservation district, rather than the State Conservation Commission (SCC). Specifies that statements of financial affairs must be posted online within five business days after receipt, rather than two. Removes the responsibility for the SCC to enforce the filing requirement through fines, and instead requires the SCC to monitor compliance as part of its accountability program.
