WAC 388-14A-3903 How does DCS decide whether to petition for modification of a support order? (1) The division of child support (DCS) petitions to modify a support order when DCS finds during the review that each of the following conditions are present:

- (a) The proposed change in child support based on the Washington state child support schedule:
 - (i) Is at least twenty-five percent above or below the current support obligation;
 - (ii) Is at least one hundred dollars per month above or below the current support obligation; and
 - (iii) Is at least a two thousand four hundred dollar change over the remaining life of the support order; or
 - (iv) Will provide enough income to:
 - (A) Make the family ineligible for public assistance if the noncustodial parent (NCP) pays the full amount due under the proposed order; or
 - (B) Allow a family, otherwise eligible for public assistance, to remain off of assistance.
- (b) The case meets the legal requirements for modification under RCW 26.09.170, 74.20A.059, or WAC 388-14A-3925.

(2) DCS may petition to modify the order without regard to subsection (1)(a) of this section when:

- (a) The order does not require the NCP to provide health insurance coverage for the children; and
- (b) Health insurance coverage is available through the NCP's employer or union at a reasonable cost; or
- (c) Both parties agree to an order modifying the support amount.

WAC 388-14A-3904 How do I find out the results of DCS' review for modification? After reviewing a case under WAC 388-14A-3903, the division of child support (DCS) notifies the parties of:

- (1) The findings of the review by regular mail at the parties' last known address;
- (2) The parties' right to challenge the review findings; and
- (3) The appropriate forum and procedure for challenging the review findings.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 45 CFR 302.70, 45 CFR 303.7, 45 CFR 303.8. 01-03-089, § 388-14A-3904, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-11-143.]

WAC 388-14A-3905 What if I don't agree with DCS' findings after review? (1) Except as provided under subsection (3) of this section, a party to the review process may contest DCS's review findings by requesting a modification conference within thirty days of the date of the notice of review findings.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 270]

(2) The modification conference is conducted by:

(a) DCS when the review findings indicate that the case is not appropriate for DCS to petition for modification under WAC 388-14A-3903;

(b) The county prosecutor, or the attorney general's office when DCS has referred the case to the prosecutor or attorney general's office as a result of a review conducted under this section.

(3) When DCS has petitioned for modification of:

(a) A superior court order, the prosecutor or attorney general's office may, in their discretion, allow the parties to contest the review findings in the modification proceeding, rather than a modification conference. The modification proceeding is the sole means to contest the review findings.

(b) An administrative order, the parties may contest the review findings in the modification proceeding. In this case, the modification proceeding is the sole means to contest the review findings.

(4) In a modification conference, DCS the prosecutor, or the attorney general's office:

- (a) Review all available income and asset information to determine if the review findings are correct; and
- (b) Advise the parties of the results of the modification conference.

(5) A modification conference is not an adjudicative proceeding under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW.

(6) This section does not limit the right of any party to petition for a modification of the support order independent from the review and modification process.

(7) The CP's refusal to accept a proposed agreed order modifying support does not constitute noncooperation for the purpose of WAC 388-14A-2075.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 45 CFR 302.70, 45 CFR 303.7, 45 CFR 303.8. 01-03-089, § 388-14A-3905, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-11-143.]

WAC 388-14A-3906 Are there times when DCS does not review an order which would otherwise qualify for review? The division of child support (DCS) does not review an order under this section when the community services office (CSO) has notified DCS that the custodial parent (CP) has claimed good cause under WAC 388-422-0020, unless the CP requests the review.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 45 CFR 302.70, 45 CFR 303.7, 45 CFR 303.8. 01-03-089, § 388-14A-3906, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-11-143.]

WAC 388-14A-3907 DCS uses the Washington state child support schedule for reviewing orders for modification. (1) DCS applies the Washington state child support schedule when reviewing support orders under this section. All deviations available under chapter 26.19 RCW are available in the review and modification process under this section.

(2) For the purpose of this section and WAC 388-14A-3900 through 388-14A-3906, the term "party" means a party to a superior court order, or a noncustodial parent or a custodial parent entitled to petition for modification under RCW 74.20A.059.

WAC 388-14A-3925 Who can ask to modify an administrative support order? (1) The division of child support (DCS), the custodial parent (CP) or the noncustodial parent (NCP) may request a hearing to prospectively modify an administrative order for child support. The request must be in writing and must state:

- (a) Any circumstances that have changed;
- (b) Any relief requested; and
- (c) The proposed new support amount.

(2) The petitioning party must file the request for modification with DCS.

(3) DCS serves a copy of the request for modification and notice of hearing on all other parties by first class mail at their address last known to DCS.

(4) DCS, the administrative law judge (ALJ), or the department review judge:

(a) Prospectively modifies orders according to the terms of chapter 26.19 RCW and RCW 74.20A.059; and

(b) May only modify an order issued by a tribunal in another state according to the terms of RCW 26.21A.550.

(5) A request to add a requirement for the custodial parent (CP) to provide health insurance coverage, or to add a provision in the order to include the CP's share of medical expenses, is not by itself a sufficient basis for modification of the order.

(6) If the nonpetitioning party fails to appear at the hearing, the ALJ issues a default order based on the Washington state child support schedule and the worksheets submitted by the parties, considering the terms set out in the request for modification.

(7) If the petitioning party fails to appear at the hearing, the ALJ enters an order dismissing the petition for modification.

(8) If the petition for modification does not comply with the requirements of subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section, the ALJ may:

(a) Dismiss the petition; or

(b) Continue the hearing to give the petitioning party time to amend according to WAC 388-14A-3275 or to complete the petition.

(9) The ALJ may set the effective date of modification as the date the order is issued, the date the request was made, or any time in between. If an effective date is not set in the order, the effective date is the date the modification order is entered.

PART D - HOW WE ENFORCE CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATIONS

WAC 388-14A-4000 When may the division of child support take collection action against a noncustodial parent? (1) Chapters 26.18, 26.23, 74.20 and 74.20A RCW authorize the division of child support (DCS) to take actions enforcing and collecting support obligations.

(2) DCS may take collection action against the noncustodial parent's income and assets to collect a support debt even if the NCP is making payments under a support order, unless DCS agrees in writing to limit collection action.

(3) If the NCP fails to make the total support payment under an administrative order when it is due:

(a) The entire support debt becomes due in full; and

(b) The portion of the administrative order requiring periodic payments on the support debt is automatically vacated without modifying the order.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 45 CFR 302.33 (a)(5). 01-03-089, § 388-14A-4000, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-11-170.]

WAC 388-14A-4010 Can I make the division of child support stop collection action against me? (1) Once a noncustodial parent (NCP) fails to make payments when due, an administrative law judge may not stop collection action by DCS.

(2) The NCP may contest collection action by:

(a) Filing an action in superior court under RCW 74.20A.200 or other applicable statutes; or

(b) Requesting a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400.

WAC 388-14A-4020 What collection tools does the division of child support use? The division of child support (DCS) uses any remedies available under state and federal law to enforce support obligations. These include, but are not limited to:

(1) Payroll deduction notice under RCW 26.23.060;

(2) Order to withhold and deliver under RCW 74.20A.-080;

(3) Wage assignment;

(4) License suspension (see WAC 388-14A-4500);

(5) The DCS most wanted internet site (see WAC 388-14A-4600);

(6) Federal income tax offset;

(7) Asset seizure;

(8) Liens;

(9) Medical insurance enrollment; and

(10) Contempt referral.

WAC 388-14A-4030 How can the division of child support collect child support from my wages or other income source? (1) The division of child support (DCS) uses a payroll deduction, order to withhold and deliver or wage assignment to collect support when the noncustodial parent (NCP) has a source of income.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 271]

(2) When an NCP does not have an identifiable employer or source of income, DCS uses any or all of the collection remedies available under chapters 26.23, 74.20 and 74.20A RCW.

(3) If the NCP's source of income is an Indian tribe or tribal enterprise, DCS may seek collection remedies through tribal court.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 45 CFR 302.33(a)(5), 01-03-089, § 388-14A-4030, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-11-170.]

WAC 388-14A-4040 DCS can serve some collection actions by electronic service. (1) An employer, or any other person, firm, corporation or political subdivision, or any department of the state or federal government may agree with the division of child support (DCS) to accept electronic data transmission (EDT) as service of the following documents:

- (a) Notice of payroll deduction under RCW 26.23.060;
- (b) Order to withhold and deliver under RCW 74.20A.-080;
- (c) Assignment of earnings under RCW 74.20A.240;
- (d) Notice of enrollment or National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) under RCW 26.18.170 (2)(a)(iv);
- (e) Releases of any of these collection documents; and
- (f) Amendments in the amount to be withheld under any of these collection documents.

(2) Agreements for service by EDT must be in writing. The employer, person, firm, corporation, political subdivision or department must agree to accept EDT as:

- (a) Personal service of the withholding documents; and
- (b) A written document for the purposes of chapters 26.23 and 74.20A RCW.

(3) DCS provides the party accepting EDT with copies of the current forms listed in subsection (2) above, as well as any updates to those forms. If DCS fails to provide an updated form, this does not excuse noncompliance with withholding documents served under the EDT agreement.

(4) An agreement to accept service by EDT does not alter the rights, duties and responsibilities related to income withholding action under chapters 26.23, 74.20 or 74.20A.

WAC 388-14A-4100 How does the division of child support enforce my obligation to provide health insurance for my children? (1) If a child support order requires the noncustodial parent (NCP) to provide health insurance for the children, the division of child support (DCS) attempts to enforce that requirement according to the terms of the order. The following subsections describe the different types of premium limitations that could apply to a support order.

(2) When DCS is enforcing a support order which contains a specific dollar limit for the cost of health insurance premiums or provides for coverage which is available at no cost to the NCP, DCS does not require the NCP to provide health insurance if coverage is not available within the limitations of the order.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 272]

(3) When DCS is enforcing a support order entered on or after May 13, 1989, unless the support order specifies differently, the NCP must provide health insurance for dependent children if coverage is:

- (a) Available or becomes available through the NCP's employment or union; and
- (b) Available at a cost of not greater than twenty-five per cent of the NCP's basic support obligation.

(4) When DCS is enforcing a support order entered prior to May 13, 1989, unless the support order specifies differently, the NCP must provide health insurance for dependent children if coverage is available or becomes available through the NCP's employment or union:

- (a) For a maximum of twenty-five dollars per month, if the order specifies that the NCP must provide coverage only if it is available at a reasonable cost; or
- (b) For any premium amount whatsoever, if the order does not specify reasonable cost.

(5) DCS serves a notice of intent to enforce a health insurance obligation if the support order:

- (a) Requires the NCP either to provide health insurance coverage or prove that coverage is not available; and
- (b) Does not inform the NCP that failure to provide health insurance or prove it is not available may result in enforcement of the order without notice to the NCP.

(6) DCS serves the notice of intent to enforce a health insurance obligation on the NCP by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service.

(7) The notice advises the NCP that the NCP must submit proof of coverage, proof that coverage is not available, or proof that the NCP has applied for coverage, within twenty days of the date of service of the notice.

(8) The notice advises the NCP that, if health insurance is not yet available, the NCP must immediately notify DCS if health insurance coverage becomes available through the NCP's employer or union.

(9) When DCS enforces an NCP's health insurance obligation, such enforcement may include asking the employer and the plan administrator to enroll the NCP in a health insurance plan available through the employer.

WAC 388-14A-4110 If my support order requires me to provide health insurance for my children, what do I have to do? (1) Once a support order is entered requiring health insurance, the obligated parent must take the following actions within twenty days:

- (a) Provide health insurance coverage; and
- (b) Provide proof of coverage to the division of child support (DCS), such as:
 - (i) The name of the insurer providing the health insurance coverage;
 - (ii) The names of the beneficiaries covered;
 - (iii) The policy number;
 - (iv) That coverage is current; and

(2009 Ed.)

(v) The name and address of the obligated parent's employer.

(2) If health insurance coverage that is accessible to the children named in the order is available, the obligated parent must:

(a) Provide for coverage for the children without waiting for an open enrollment period, as provided under RCW 48.01.235 (4)(a); and

(b) Submit proof of coverage as outlined in subsection (1)(b) above.

(3) If health insurance is not immediately available to the obligated parent, as soon as health insurance becomes available, the obligated parent must:

(a) Provide for coverage for the children named in the order; and

(b) Submit proof of coverage as outlined in subsection (1)(b) above.

(4) Medical assistance provided by the department under chapter 74.09 RCW does not substitute for health insurance.

(5) See WAC 388-14A-4165 for a description of what happens when the combined total of a noncustodial parent's current support obligation, arrears payment and health insurance premiums to be withheld by the employer exceeds the fifty per cent limitation for withholding.

[Statutory Authority: 2007 c 143, §§ 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, and 9. 08-12-029, § 388-14A-4110, filed 5/29/08, effective 7/1/08. WAC 388-14A-4112 When does the division of child support enforce a custodial parent's obligation to provide health insurance coverage? (1) A noncustodial parent (NCP) may file an application for full child support enforcement services and specifically request that the division of child support (DCS) enforce the health insurance obligation of the custodial parent (CP).

(2) DCS does not enforce a custodial parent's obligation to provide health insurance coverage when:

(a) The support order does not include a health insurance obligation for the CP.

(b) The NCP is already providing health insurance coverage for the children covered by the order.

(c) The amount that the CP would have to pay for the premium for health insurance exceeds the NCP's monthly support obligation for the children.

(d) The children are covered by health insurance provided by someone else.

(e) The children are receiving medicaid.

(f) The children are receiving TANF.

(g) The CP does not reside in Washington state.

(h) The CP is a tribal member living on or near the reservation.

(i) The CP is receiving child support enforcement services through a tribal IV-D program.

(3) If none of the conditions under subsection (2) exist, DCS may enforce the CP's obligation to provide health insurance coverage when the CP has health insurance available at a reasonable cost through the CP's employer or union.

(2009 Ed.)

(4) A "reasonable cost" for health insurance coverage is defined as twenty-five percent of the basic support obligation for the children covered by the order, unless the support order provides a different limitation.

[Statutory Authority: 2007 c 143, §§ 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, and 9. 08-12-029, § 388-14A-4112, filed 5/29/08, effective 7/1/08.]

WAC 388-14A-4115 Can my support order reduce my support obligation if I pay for health insurance? (1) Some support orders reduce the noncustodial parent's support obligation based on health insurance premiums paid by the NCP.

(2) An NCP is entitled to the reduction for premiums paid only if:

(a) NCP submits proof of coverage as provided in WAC 388-14A-4110 (1)(b); and

(b) NCP actually pays the required premium.

(3) If the NCP fails to submit proof or pay the premium, the division of child support (DCS) collects the NCP's adjusted basic support obligation without a reduction for health insurance premium payments.

WAC 388-14A-4119 How soon after a noncustodial parent is listed in the state directory of new hires must the division of child support send a National Medical Support Notice to the employer? The division of child support (DCS) must send a National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) to the employer of a noncustodial parent (NCP) within two business days of the date the NCP's information is entered into the state directory of new hires (SDNH).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.20A.310 and 45 C.F.R. 303.32, 45 C.F.R. 303.30, 45 C.F.R. 303.31. 05-08-060, § 388-14A-4119, filed 3/31/05, effective 5/1/05.]

WAC 388-14A-4120 DCS uses the National Medical Support Notice to enforce an obligation to provide health insurance coverage. (1) The division of child support (DCS) uses a notice of enrollment called the National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) to enforce an obligated parent's obligation to provide health insurance coverage under chapter 26.18 RCW.

(2) DCS sends the NMSN to the obligated parent's employer in one of the following ways:

(a) In the same manner as a summons in a civil action,

(b) By certified mail, return receipt requested,

(c) By regular mail, or

(d) By electronic means as provided in WAC 388-14A-4040 (1)(d).

(3) DCS sends the NMSN without notice to the obligated parent, who could be either the noncustodial parent (NCP) or the custodial parent (CP) when:

(a) A court or administrative order requires the obligated parent to provide insurance coverage for a dependent child;

(b) The obligated parent fails to provide health insurance (either by not covering the child or by letting the coverage lapse) or fails to provide proof of coverage;

(c) The requirements of RCW 26.23.050 are met; and

[Title 388 WAC—p. 273]

(d) DCS has reason to believe that coverage is available through the obligated parent's employer or union.

WAC 388-14A-4121 Can a Washington employer assume that every National Medical Support Notice that the employer receives is from the division of child support? (1) The National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) is a federally mandated form which is used by child support enforcement agencies all over the United States, not just the division of child support (DCS).

(2) Each NMSN form contains information advising the employer which child support enforcement agency sent the NMSN.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.20A.310, and 26.18.170, 42 U.S.C. 666 (a)(19), Child Support Performance and Incentives Act of 1998, 45 C.F.R. 303.31, and 45 C.F.R. 303.32. 04-17-119, § 388-14A-4121, filed 8/17/04, effective 9/17/04.]

WAC 388-14A-4122 What kind of information is included in the National Medical Support Notice? The National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) and its cover letter advise the obligated parent's employer and the plan administrator that:

(1) The obligated parent is required to provide health insurance coverage for the children named in the notice;

(2) Information regarding the custodial parent and children, especially address information, is confidential and may not be released to anyone, including the noncustodial parent (NCP);

(3) Within twenty business days of the date on the notice, the employer must either:

(a) Respond to the NMSN by completing the response form and returning it to DCS; or

(b) Forward Part B of the NMSN to the plan administrator.

(4) The employer or plan administrator is required to enroll the children in a health insurance plan offered by the employer or the union if insurance the children can use is or will become available as provided in WAC 388-14A-4130;

(5) The employer or plan administrator must provide:

(a) Information about the health insurance plan and policy as requested in the notice; and

(b) Any necessary claim forms or membership cards as soon as they are available.

(6) The employer or union must withhold premiums from the obligated parent's net earnings if the obligated parent is required to pay part or all of the premiums for coverage under the health insurance plan.

(7) Noncompliance with the NMSN subjects the employer or union to a fine of up to one thousand dollars under RCW 26.18.180. See WAC 388-14A-4123 for a description of noncompliance penalties.

WAC 388-14A-4123 What can happen if the employer fails to comply with the terms of the National Medical Support Notice? (1) If an employer fails to comply with the terms of a National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) sent by the division of child support (DCS), the employer may be liable for a fine of up to one thousand dollars under RCW 74.20A.350.

(2) DCS may take action under RCW 74.20A.350 to impose fines if the employer fails to comply with the terms of the NMSN. For each failure to comply, DCS may assess a fine of:

(a) Two hundred dollars for the first month in which the employer or union fails to comply;

(b) Three hundred dollars for the second month of non-compliance; and

(c) Five hundred dollars for the third month of non-compliance.

(d) The maximum fine based on a single notice of enrollment is one thousand dollars.

WAC 388-14A-4124 Who are the parties involved with the National Medical Support Notice? (1) The National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) is a federally mandated form used by child support enforcement agencies to enforce an obligated parent's medical support obligation. The division of child support (DCS) uses the NMSN as provided in WAC 388-14A-4120.

(2) DCS sends an NMSN when there is a support order requiring the obligated parent to provide health insurance coverage for the children.

(3) DCS sends the NMSN to the obligated parent's employer.

(4) If the employer provides health insurance coverage, the employer forwards the NMSN to the appropriate plan administrator.

(5) The plan administrator is the entity which handles the ministerial functions for the group health plan maintained by the employer or a group health plan to which the employer contributes.

(6) In some cases, the employer performs the duties of the plan administrator.

(7) In some cases, the obligated parent's union either acts as or contracts with the plan administrator.

(8) The plan administrator sends coverage information to both DCS and the custodial parent (CP). In cases where the CP is the obligated parent, DCS sends coverage information to the noncustodial parent (NCP).

WAC 388-14A-4125 What must an employer do after receiving a National Medical Support Notice? (1) Within twenty business days after the date on the National Medical Support Notice (NMSN), the employer must either send Part B to the plan administrator or send the employer response to the division of child support (DCS).

(2) The employer need take no action beyond responding to the NMSN if:

(a) The employer does not maintain or contribute to plans providing dependent or family health care coverage;

(b) The employee is among a class of employees (for example, part-time or nonunion) that are not eligible for family health coverage under any group health plan maintained by the employer or to which the employer contributes; or

(c) The employee either is no longer, or never has been, employed by this employer.

(3) If subsection (2) of this section does not apply, the employer must respond to the NMSN and must:

(a) Forward Part B of the NMSN to the plan administrator of each group health plan identified by the employer to enroll the obligated parent's eligible children (see WAC 388-14A-4130 for what the plan administrator must do after receiving an NMSN); and

(b) When notified by the plan administrator that the children are enrolled:

(i) Withhold any employee contributions required for health insurance premiums and transfer those premiums to the appropriate plan; or

(ii) Notify DCS that enrollment cannot be completed because the noncustodial parent's net earnings are not high enough to allow withholding of child support and health insurance premiums; in this situation, the employer must notify DCS of the amount of the premium required to cover the children.

(c) When notified by the plan administrator that the obligated parent is subject to a waiting period, notify the plan administrator when the obligated parent is eligible to enroll in the plan, and that the NMSN requires the enrollment of the children named in the NMSN.

WAC 388-14A-4126 What kind of help is available for an employer or plan administrator who has questions about the National Medical Support Notice? An employer or plan administrator who receives a National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) from the division of child support (DCS) may do one or more of the following to get help with the form:

(1) Visit the DCS internet web site at <http://www.dshs.wa.gov/dcs/employers.shtml>;

(2) Call the DCS Employer Hotline at 1-800-591-2760; or (3) Contact the DCS field office which issued the NMSN.

WAC 388-14A-4130 What must a plan administrator do after receiving a National Medical Support Notice from the division of child support? (1) A plan administrator who receives a National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) must respond to the NMSN within forty business days after the date on the NMSN.

(2) If the obligated parent and the children are to be enrolled in a health insurance plan, the plan administrator must:

(a) Notify the obligated parent, each child, and the custodial parent (CP) (if the obligated parent is not the CP) that coverage of the children is or will become available (notifying the CP is considered the same as notifying the child if they live at the same address); and

(b) If not previously provided, send the CP a description of the coverage available, including the effective date of coverage, a summary plan description and any forms or information necessary to start coverage, and information on how to submit claims for benefits.

(3) If there is more than one option available under the plan and the obligated parent is not yet enrolled, the plan administrator must:

(a) Provide to the division of child support (DCS) copies of applicable summary plan descriptions for available coverage, including the additional participant contribution necessary to obtain coverage for the children under each option and whether any option has a limited service area; and

(b) If the plan has a default option, enroll the children in the plan's default option if the plan administrator has not received DCS' election within twenty business days of the date the plan administrator returned the response to DCS; or

(c) If the plan does not have a default option, enroll the children in the option selected by DCS.

(4) If the obligated parent is subject to a waiting period that expires within ninety days from the date the plan administrator receives the NMSN, the plan administrator must enroll the children named in the NMSN immediately.

(5) If the obligated parent is subject to a waiting period that expires more than ninety days from the date the plan administrator receives the NMSN, the plan administrator must notify the employer, DCS, the obligated parent and the CP (if the obligated parent is not the CP) of the waiting period. When the waiting period has expired, the plan administrator must:

(a) Enroll the obligated parent and the children named in the NMSN, as provided in subsection (2) or (3) above; and

(b) Notify the employer of enrollment so that the employer may determine if the NCP's income is sufficient to withhold health insurance premiums, and then either withhold accordingly or notify DCS, as provided in WAC 388-14A-4125 (3)(b).

(6) If the obligated parent is subject to a waiting period whose duration is determined by a measure other than the passage of time (for example, the completion of a certain number of hours worked), the plan administrator must notify the employer, DCS, the obligated parent and the CP (if the CP is not the obligated parent) of the waiting period. When the waiting period has expired, the plan administrator must:

(a) Enroll the obligated parent and the children named in the NMSN, as provided in subsection (2) or (3) above; and

[Title 388 WAC—p. 275]

(b) Notify the employer of enrollment so that the employer may determine if the obligated parent's income is sufficient to withhold health insurance premiums, and then either withhold accordingly or notify DCS, as provided in WAC 388-14A-4125 (3)(b).

(7) If the plan administrator determines that the NMSN does not constitute a qualified medical child support order as defined by ERISA, the plan administrator must:

(a) Notify DCS using the part of the NMSN called the plan administrator response; and

(b) Notify the obligated parent, the CP (if the CP is not the obligated parent) and the children of the specific reasons for the determination. A copy of the plan administrator response is considered sufficient notice under this section.

WAC 388-14A-4135 What must the plan administrator do when the obligated parent has health insurance but the children are not included in the coverage? (1) If the obligated parent is enrolled in a health insurance plan through the employer but has not enrolled the children named in the National Medical Support Notice (NMSN), the plan administrator must follow the steps outlined in WAC 388-14A-4130(2) and:

(a) Enroll the child(ren) named in the NMSN under the obligated parent's health insurance plan; and

(b) Notify the employer and the division of child support (DCS) that the child(ren) have been enrolled.

(2) Under RCW 48.01.235 (4)(a), the plan administrator must enroll a child who is otherwise eligible for the coverage without regard to any enrollment season restrictions.

(3) WAC 388-14A-4145 discusses what the plan administrator must do if the obligated parent's health insurance plan is not accessible to the children.

WAC 388-14A-4140 What must the plan administrator do when the obligated parent is eligible for health insurance but is not yet enrolled? (1) If the obligated parent is eligible for health insurance through the employer but has not enrolled on his or her own, the plan administrator must proceed under WAC 388-14A-4130(3) and:

(a) Enroll the obligated parent and the children in the least expensive plan which provides accessible coverage for the children named in the National Medical Support Notice (NMSN); and

(b) Notify the employer and the division of child support (DCS) that the obligated parent and the children have been enrolled.

(2) The plan administrator notifies DCS of all health insurance plans for which the obligated parent is eligible, and notifies DCS which plan is the default option.

(3) If DCS does not specify otherwise within twenty business days of the date the plan administrator responds to DCS, the plan administrator must enroll the obligated parent and the children in the default plan.

(4) Under RCW 48.01.235 (4)(a), the plan administrator must enroll, under the family coverage, a child who is otherwise eligible for the coverage without regard to any enrollment season restrictions. In order to obtain coverage for the children, the plan administrator must enroll an otherwise eligible obligated parent without regard to any enrollment season restrictions.

WAC 388-14A-4143 What must the plan administrator do when the employer provides health insurance but the obligated parent is not yet eligible for coverage? If the obligated parent is subject to a waiting period before being eligible for coverage under a health insurance plan provided by the employer, the plan administrator must proceed as follows:

(1) If the obligated parent is subject to a waiting period that expires ninety days or less from the date of receipt of the National Medical Support Notice (NMSN), see WAC 388-14A-4130(4);

(2) If the obligated parent is subject to a waiting period that expires more than ninety days from the date of receipt of the NMSN, see WAC 388-14A-4130(5); and

(3) If the obligated parent is subject to a waiting period whose duration is determined by a measure other than the passage of time, see WAC 388-14A-4130(6).

WAC 388-14A-4145 What must the plan administrator do when the insurance plan in which the obligated parent is enrolled does not provide coverage which is accessible to the children? (1) If more than one insurance plan is offered by the employer or union, and each plan may be extended to cover the child, then the plan administrator must enroll the children named in the national medical support notice (NMSN) in the plan in which the obligated parent is enrolled.

(2) If the obligated parent's plan does not provide coverage which is accessible to the child, the plan administrator:

(a) May give the obligated parent the opportunity to change plans so that obligated parent and the children may be enrolled in a plan which provides accessible coverage for the children; but

(b) Is not required to change the obligated parent's plan to one which provides accessible coverage for the children.

[Statutory Authority: 2007 c 143, §§ 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, and 9. 08-12-029, § 388-14A-4145, filed 5/29/08, effective 7/1/08. Statutory Authority: RCW

WAC 388-14A-4150 What must the plan administrator do when the obligated parent has more than one family? (1) When an obligated parent has a health insurance obligation for more than one family, the division of child support (DCS) sends one National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) for each family to the obligated parent's employer.

(2) If the obligated parent is already enrolled in a health insurance plan, the plan administrator must attempt to enroll all children named in all of the NMSNs in the obligated parent's plan.

(3) If the obligated parent is not already enrolled in a health insurance plan, and the employer offers a health insurance plan which would cover all children named in all of the NMSNs, the plan administrator must enroll the children in that plan. See WAC 388-14A-4140.

(4) If the employer offers only one health insurance plan, or multiple plans which would cover some, but not all of the children named in the NMSNs, the plan administrator must so notify DCS.

(5) DCS chooses the appropriate health insurance plan by considering the following factors:

- (a) The wishes of the custodial parent of each family;
 - (b) The premium limits set by the support orders;
 - (c) The relative ages of all the children;
 - (d) How many of the obligated parent's children live in Washington and how many live elsewhere;
 - (e) How many of the obligated parent's children receive medicaid;
 - (f) How many of the obligated parent's children are already covered by private health insurance;
 - (g) Which plan covers the most children; and
 - (h) Other factors as may be developed in DCS policy.
- (6) The factors listed in subsection (5) are not exclusive, nor are they equally weighted.

(7) Nothing in this section requires the plan administrator to take action to change the obligated parent's plan unless the obligated parent requests a change.

WAC 388-14A-4160 Are there any limits on the amount an obligated parent may be required to pay for health insurance premiums? (1) The National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) advises the employer of any limitations on the amount an obligated parent may be required to pay for health insurance premiums to cover the children.

(2) Often the support order which contains the health insurance obligation determines the limitation on premium amounts, or states that there is no limitation. See WAC 388-14A-4100 for a discussion of premium limitation amounts.

(3) The premium limitation amount stated in the NMSN:

- (a) Describes the premium amount required to cover the children named in the notice; and

- (b) Does not include any amounts required to cover the obligated parent.

(2009 Ed.)

(4) Even if the medical insurance premium is within the limits set by the order or by WAC 388-14A-4100, the fifty percent limitation on withholding found in RCW 26.23.060 (3) still applies. See WAC 388-14A-4165 for a description of what happens when the fifty percent limitation is exceeded.

(5) When calculating the fifty percent limitation for withholding purposes:

- (a) The premium attributable to coverage for the children is always included in this calculation; but

- (b) The premium attributable to coverage for the obligated parent is included only when DCS requires the employer or plan administrator to enroll the obligated parent in a health insurance plan in order to obtain coverage for the obligated parent's children. See also WAC 388-14A-4165(3).

WAC 388-14A-4165 What happens when a noncustodial parent does not earn enough to pay child support plus the health insurance premium? (1) Under RCW 26.23.060(3), a payroll deduction may not exceed fifty percent of the noncustodial parent's disposable earnings in each pay period.

(2) When the division of child support (DCS) enforces a child support obligation through an income withholding action and also enforces a health insurance obligation, the noncustodial parent's employer often must withhold amounts for:

- (a) Current child support;
- (b) Child support arrears; and
- (c) Health insurance premiums.

(3) When the employer or plan administrator must enroll the noncustodial parent (NCP) in a health insurance plan in order to enroll the children (see WAC 388-14A-4140), the premium amount for the NCP's coverage is included in the amounts to withhold under subsection (2) above. If the NCP is already enrolled in a plan, the premium amount for the NCP's coverage is not included the amounts to withhold under that subsection.

(4) If the combined amounts for current support, support arrears and health insurance premiums are more than fifty percent of the noncustodial parent's disposable earnings, the employer must notify DCS immediately.

(5) In certain circumstances, DCS may adjust the amount to be withheld for support arrears so that the total amount withheld does not exceed fifty percent of the noncustodial parent's disposable earnings.

(6) If the noncustodial parent's current support obligation plus health insurance premiums exceeds fifty percent of the noncustodial parent's disposable earnings, DCS:

- (a) Enforces the child support obligation through income withholding; but
- (b) Is not able to enforce the noncustodial parent's health insurance obligation at that time.

WAC 388-14A-4170 How long does a National Medical Support Notice or other notice of enrollment remain in effect? (1) The National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) is a Qualified Medical Child Support Order.

(2) The NMSN or earlier notice of enrollment served by the division of child support (DCS) remains in effect until:

- (a) DCS withdraws the notice in writing; or
- (b) Health insurance coverage is no longer available through the employer or union.

WAC 388-14A-4175 Is an employer required to notify the division of child support when insurance coverage for the children ends? (1) Once the division of child support (DCS) has notified an employer that a parent is obligated by a support order to provide health insurance coverage for the children named in the order, the National Medical Support Notice (NMSN) or other notice of enrollment remains in effect as specified in WAC 388-14A-4170.

(2) If coverage for the children is terminated, the employer must notify DCS within thirty days of the date coverage ends.

WAC 388-14A-4180 When must the division of child support communicate with the DSHS health and recovery services administration? (1) The division of child support (DCS) must inform the DSHS health and recovery services administration (HRSA) of the existence of a new or modified court or administrative order for child support when the order includes a requirement for medical support. HRSA is the part of DSHS which provides services for the state of Washington under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act.

(2) DCS must provide HRSA with the following information:

- (a) Title IV-A case number, Title IV-E foster care case number, medicaid number or the individual's Social Security number;
- (b) Name of the obligated parent;
- (c) Social Security number of the obligated parent;
- (d) Name and Social Security number of the child(ren) named in the order;
- (e) Home address of the obligated parent;
- (f) Name and address of the obligated parent's employer;
- (g) Information regarding the obligated parent's health insurance policy; and
- (h) Whether the child(ren) named in the order are covered by the policy.

(3) DCS must periodically communicate with HRSA to determine if there have been any lapses (stops and starts) in the obligated parent's health insurance coverage for medicaid applicants.

WAC 388-14A-4200 Do I get credit for dependent disability payments paid on my behalf to my children? (1) When the department of labor and industries or a self-insurer pays compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW on behalf of or on account of the child or children of a noncustodial parent (NCP), the division of child support (DCS) treats the amount of compensation the department or self-insurer pays on behalf of the child or children as if the NCP paid the compensation toward the NCP's child support obligations.

(2) When the social security administration pays Social Security disability dependency benefits, retirement benefits, or survivors insurance benefits on behalf of or on account of the child or children of an NCP who is a disabled person, a retired person, or a deceased person, DCS treats the amount of benefits paid for the child or children as if the NCP paid the benefits toward the NCP's child support obligation for the period for which benefits are paid.

(3) Under no circumstances does the NCP have a right to reimbursement of any compensation paid under subsection (1) or (2) of this section.

(4) The NCP gets credit only for payments made to the custodial parent or the state. The NCP does not get credit for dependent payments made to the NCP.

WAC 388-14A-4300 What can I do if I think I'm paying more than the custodial parent is spending for day care or other special expenses for my child? (1) A noncustodial parent (NCP) who has paid child support under a court or administrative order and believes that day care or special child rearing expenses were not actually incurred in the amount of the order may file an application for an administrative hearing to determine if an overpayment of at least twenty per cent has occurred and how the overpayment should be reimbursed.

(a) A petition for reimbursement may cover a twelve-month period; and

(b) The twelve-month period may be:

- (i) A calendar year; or
- (ii) The twelve-month period following the anniversary date of the support order; or
- (iii) The twelve-month period following an adjudication under this section.

(c) Twelve-month periods under this section may not overlap.

(2) The application must be in writing and at a minimum state:

- (a) The twelve-month time period to be considered;
- (b) The date of the order requiring the payment of day care or special child rearing expenses;
- (c) The amounts required by the court or administrative order for day care or special child rearing expenses for that time period;

(d) The amounts actually paid by the NCP for that time period;

(e) The total amount of day care or special child rearing expenses which the NCP claims the custodial parent (CP) actually incurred for that time period;

(f) The NCP's proportionate share of the expenses actually incurred; and

(g) The amount of reimbursement for overpayment to which the NCP claims to be entitled for that time period.

(3) The effective date of a hearing request is the date DCS receives the written request.

(4) WAC 388-14A-4300 through 388-14A-4304 apply only to amounts paid during the twelve-month period ending May 31, 1996 or later.

WAC 388-14A-4301 Can I file a petition for reimbursement if I do not receive full support enforcement services? The division of child support (DCS) considers a petition for reimbursement or an application for hearing under WAC 388-14A-4300 to be an application for full support enforcement services if there is not already an open support enforcement case.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 34.05.220, 26.23.035, 74.20A.310. 01-03-089, § 388-14A-4301, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-14-376.]

WAC 388-14A-4302 Who participates in a hearing on petition for reimbursement? (1) The division of child support (DCS) sends notice of a hearing under this subsection to the noncustodial (NCP) and to the custodial parent (CP).

(2) The NCP and the CP participate in the hearing as independent parties with the same procedural rights.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 34.05.220, 26.23.035, 74.20A.310. 01-03-089, § 388-14A-4302, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-14-376.]

WAC 388-14A-4303 What happens at a hearing on petition for reimbursement? (1) The noncustodial parent (NCP) has the burden of proving the amounts actually paid by the NCP under the order.

(2) The custodial parent (CP) has the burden of proving the amounts actually incurred for day care and special child rearing expenses.

(3) The CP is not required to provide the address of the day care provider unless the administrative law judge (ALJ) finds that the information may be disclosed under the standards set forth in WAC 388-14A-2105 for the disclosure of the address of the CP.

(4) If the NCP fails to appear for the hearing, upon proof of service of the notice of hearing the ALJ issues an order of default against the NCP and dismisses the petition for reimbursement.

(5) If the CP fails to appear for the hearing, upon proof of service of the notice of hearing the ALJ issues an order of default against the CP and holds a hearing on the merits of the petition for reimbursement.

(6) A hearing under this subsection is for the limited purpose of determining whether the amount paid by the NCP exceeds the NCP's proportionate share of the amount actually incurred for day care and special child rearing expenses.

(2009 Ed.)

(a) If the ALJ determines that the overpayment amounts to twenty percent or more of the NCP's share of annual day care and special child rearing expenses, the ALJ enters an order stating:

(i) The twelve-month time period in question;

(ii) The amount of the overpayment; and

(iii) The method by which the overpayment shall be reimbursed by the CP.

(b) If the ALJ determines that the overpayment amounts to less than twenty percent of the NCP's share of annual day care and child rearing expenses, the ALJ enters an order stating:

(i) Whether the NCP has overpaid or underpaid the day care and special child rearing expenses;

(ii) If an overpayment has occurred, by what percentage of the annual proportionate share; and

(iii) That reimbursement under this section is denied for that twelve-month period.

WAC 388-14A-4304 What happens if the judge determines that I have paid too much for day care and special expenses? (1) If at a hearing under WAC 388-14A-4303, the administrative law judge (ALJ) decides that the custodial parent (CP) has not incurred costs in the amount paid by the noncustodial parent (NCP), any ordered overpayment reimbursement may be applied as an offset to any non-assistance child support arrears owed by the NCP on that case only. If there is no nonassistance debt owed on the case, the reimbursement must be in the form of a credit against the NCP's future child support obligation:

(a) Spread equally over a twelve-month period starting the month after the administrative order becomes final; or

(b) When the future support obligation will end under the terms of the order in less than twelve months, spread equally over the life of the order; or

(c) With the consent of the CP, in the form of a direct reimbursement by the CP to the NCP.

(2) The NCP may not pay more than his or her proportionate share of day care or other special child rearing expenses in advance and then deduct the overpayment from future support transfer payments unless:

(a) Specifically agreed to by the CP; and

(b) Specifically agreed to in writing by DCS for periods when the CP or the dependent child receives public assistance.

WAC 388-14A-4500 What is the division of child support's license suspension program? (1) RCW 74.20A.-320 provides that, in some circumstances, the division of child support (DCS) may certify for license suspension a noncustodial parent (NCP) who is not in compliance with a child support order. The statute calls the NCP the responsible parent.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 279]

(a) "Certify" means to notify the department of licensing or other state licensing entities that the NCP is not in compliance with a child support order and to ask them to take appropriate action against licenses held by the NCP. Before DCS can certify an NCP, DCS serves a notice on the NCP as described in WAC 388-14A-4505 and 388-14A-4510. This notice is called the notice of noncompliance and intent to suspend licenses, and is sometimes called the notice of noncompliance.

(b) "Responsible parent" is defined in 388-14A-1020. The responsible parent is also called the "noncustodial parent."

(2) "Noncompliance with a child support order" is defined in RCW 74.20A.020(18) and in WAC 388-14A-4510.

(3) When DCS certifies the NCP, the department of licensing or other licensing entities take action to deny, suspend, or refuse to renew the NCP's license, according to the terms of RCW 74.20A.320 (8) and (12).

(4) This section and sections WAC 388-14A-4505 through 388-14A-4530 cover the DCS license suspension program.

(5) DCS may certify an NCP who is not in compliance with a child support order to the department of licensing or any appropriate licensing entity. In determining which licensing entity receives the certification, DCS considers:

(a) The number and kind of licenses held by the parent; and

(b) The effect that suspension of a particular license will have in motivating the parent to pay support or to contact DCS to make appropriate arrangements for other relief.

(6) DCS may certify a parent to any licensing agency through which it believes the parent has obtained a license. DCS may certify a parent to as many licensing agencies as DCS feels necessary to accomplish the goals of the license suspension program.

(7) In certain circumstances spelled out in WAC 388-14A-4510 (2) and (3), DCS may serve the notice of noncompliance on a noncustodial parent but may stay the commencement of the twenty-day objection period in WAC 388-14A-4505 (4)(b).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.20A.320. 03-18-114, § 388-14A-4500, filed 9/2/03, effective 10/15/03. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.20A.-320. 01-03-089, § 388-14A-4500, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-14-510.]

WAC 388-14A-4505 The notice of noncompliance and intent to suspend licenses. (1) Before certifying a noncustodial parent (NCP) for noncompliance, the division of child support (DCS) must serve the NCP with a notice of noncompliance and intent to suspend licenses. This notice tells the NCP that DCS intends to submit the NCP's name to the department of licensing and any other appropriate licensing entity as a licensee who is not in compliance with a child support order.

(2) DCS must serve the notice by certified mail, return receipt requested. If DCS is unable to serve the notice by certified mail, DCS must serve the notice by personal service, as provided in RCW 4.28.080.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 280]

(3) The notice must include a copy of the NCP's child support order and must contain the address and phone number of the DCS office which issued the notice.

(4) The notice must contain the information required by RCW 74.20A.320(2), telling the NCP that:

(a) The NCP may request an administrative hearing, but that the hearing is limited in scope (see WAC 388-14A-4530);

(b) DCS will certify the NCP unless the NCP makes a request for hearing within twenty calendar days of the date of service of the notice, except when a longer period of time is given, as provided in WAC 388-14A-4510 (2) or (3);

(c) The NCP may avoid certification by agreeing to make timely payments of current support and agreeing to a reasonable payment schedule on the support debt;

(d) Certification by DCS will result in suspension or nonrenewal of the NCP's license by the licensing entity until DCS issues a release stating that the NCP is in compliance with the child support order;

(e) Suspension of a license may affect the NCP's insurance coverage, depending on the terms of any policy;

(f) Filing a petition to modify the support obligation may stay (or put a hold on) the certification process; and

(g) Even after certification, the NCP may obtain a release from certification by complying with the support order.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.20A.320. 03-18-114, § 388-14A-4505, filed 9/2/03, effective 10/15/03. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090. 01-03-089, § 388-14A-4505, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-14-520.]

WAC 388-14A-4510 Who is subject to the DCS license suspension program? (1) The division of child support (DCS) may serve a notice of noncompliance on a noncustodial parent (NCP) who is not in compliance with a child support order when:

(a) The NCP is required to pay child support under a court order or administrative order;

(b) The NCP is at least six months in arrears; and

(c) The NCP is not currently making payments to the Washington state support registry under a wage withholding action issued by DCS.

(2) DCS may serve a notice of noncompliance on an NCP who meets the criteria of subsection (1) above, even if the NCP is in jail or prison. Unless the NCP has other resources available while in jail or prison, DCS stays the commencement of the twenty-day objection period in WAC 388-14A-4505 (4)(b) until the NCP has been out of jail or prison for thirty days.

(3) DCS may serve a notice of noncompliance on an NCP who meets the criteria of subsection (1) above, even if the NCP is a public assistance recipient. DCS stays the commencement of the twenty-day objection period in WAC 388-14A-4505 (4)(b) until the thirty days after the NCP's cash assistance grant is terminated.

(4) "Noncompliance with a child support order" for the purposes of the license suspension program means a NCP has:

(a) Accumulated a support debt, also called an arrearage or arrears, totaling more than six months of child support payments;

(2009 Ed.)

(b) Failed to make payments under a written agreement with DCS towards a support debt in an amount that is more than six months' worth of payments; or

(c) Failed to make payments required by a court order or administrative order towards a support debt in an amount that is more than six months' worth of payments.

(5) There is no minimum dollar amount for the six months of arrears. The following are examples of when a NCP is at least six months in arrears:

(a) The child support order requires monthly payments of five hundred dollars. The NCP has not made a single payment since the order was entered seven months ago. This NCP is at least six months in arrears;

(b) The child support order requires monthly payments of one hundred dollars. The NCP has paid for the last few months, but owes a back debt of over six hundred dollars. This NCP is at least six months in arrears;

(c) The NCP owes a support debt according to a judgment, which requires payments of one hundred dollars per month. The NCP has not made payment for eight months. This NCP is at least six months in arrears; or

(d) The child support order required monthly payments of two hundred dollars, but the child is over eighteen so no current support is owed. However, the NCP has a debt of over twelve hundred dollars. This NCP is at least six months in arrears.

(6) For the purposes of the license suspension program, a NCP is in compliance with the child support order when the amount owed in arrears is less than six months' worth of support.

WAC 388-14A-4515 How do I avoid having my license suspended for failure to pay child support? (1) After service of the notice of noncompliance, DCS stays certification action if the noncustodial parent (NCP) takes the following action within twenty days of service of the notice:

(a) Requests an administrative hearing under WAC 388-14A-4530; or

(b) Contacts DCS to negotiate a reasonable payment schedule on the arrears and agrees to make timely payments of current support.

(i) The stay for negotiation may last a maximum of thirty calendar days after the NCP contacts DCS; and

(ii) If no payment schedule has been agreed to in writing after thirty calendar days have passed, DCS may proceed with certification of noncompliance;

(iii) A reasonable payment schedule is described in WAC 388-14A-4520, below; and

(iv) The NCP may request a conference board review under WAC 388-14A-6400 if the NCP feels that DCS has not negotiated in good faith.

(2) If the NCP files a court or administrative action to modify the child support obligation, DCS stays the certification action.

(3) The stay for modification action may not exceed six months unless DCS finds good cause to extend the stay.

(2009 Ed.)

(4) The NCP must notify DCS that a modification proceeding is pending and must provide a copy of the motion or request for modification to DCS.

(5) A stay of certification does not require DCS to withdraw the notice of noncompliance.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.20A.320, 03-18-114, § 388-14A-4515, filed 9/2/03, effective 10/15/03. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.20A.-320, 01-03-089, § 388-14A-4515, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-14-540.]

WAC 388-14A-4520 Signing a repayment agreement may avoid certification for noncompliance. (1) If a noncustodial parent (NCP) signs a repayment agreement, DCS stays the certification action. The NCP must agree to pay current support in a timely manner and make regular payments on the support debt.

(2) The repayment agreement must state that if the NCP fails to make payments under the terms of the agreement, DCS may resume certification action.

(3) The signing of a repayment agreement does not require DCS to withdraw the notice of noncompliance.

(4) In setting the repayment amount, DCS must take into account the financial situation of the NCP and the needs of all children who rely on the NCP for support. The NCP must supply sufficient financial information to allow DCS to analyze and document the NCP's financial situation and requirements, including normal living expenses and emergencies.

(5) A reasonable monthly arrears payment is defined as a percentage of the NCP's "adjusted net income," which is the NCP's net monthly income minus any current support obligation. The following table sets forth the suggested monthly payments on arrears:

Monthly adjusted net income (ANI)	Monthly arrears payment = Percentage of ANI
$1,000 or less	2%
$1,001 to $1,200	3%
$1,201 to $1,500	4%
$1,501 to $1,900	5%
$1,901 to $2,400	6%
$2,401 to $3,000	7%
$3,001 or more	8%

(6) Examples of how to calculate the arrears payment are as follows:

(a) Monthly net income	=	$1,500
Current support	=	$300
Adjusted net income	=	$1,200
Arrears payment = 3% of ANI ($1,200)	=	$36
(b) Monthly net income	=	$3,100
Current support	=	$-0-
Adjusted net income	=	$3,100
Arrears payment = 8% of ANI ($3,100)	=	$248

(7) The NCP must document any factors which make the NCP eligible for an arrears payment less than the amount shown in the table in subsection (5). Such factors include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Special needs children, or
- (b) Uninsured medical expenses.

(8) The custodial parent and/or DCS must document any factors which make the NCP eligible for an arrears payment higher than the amount shown in the table in subsection (5). Such factors include, but are not limited to the factors listed in RCW 26.19.075 for deviation from the standard calculation for child support obligations.

(9) If the NCP signs a repayment agreement under this section under the circumstances spelled out in WAC 388-14A-4510 (2) or (3), the NCP may make voluntary payments but DCS does not resume certification action until thirty days after NCP is released or stops receiving public assistance.

WAC 388-14A-4525 How to obtain a release of certification for noncompliance. (1) After DCS has certified a noncustodial parent (NCP) to a licensing entity, the NCP may obtain a release from DCS by taking the following actions:

(a) Paying the support debt in full; or

(b) Signing a repayment agreement under WAC 388-14A-4520 and paying the first installment due under the agreement. Signing a repayment agreement does not require DCS to withdraw the notice of noncompliance.

(2) DCS must provide a copy of the release to any licensing entity to which DCS has certified the NCP.

(3) The NCP must comply with any requirements of the licensing entity to get the license reinstated or reissued.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.20A.320. 03-18-114, § 388-14A-4525, filed 9/2/03, effective 10/15/03. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.20A.-320. 01-03-089, § 388-14A-4525, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-14-560.]

WAC 388-14A-4530 Administrative hearings regarding license suspension are limited in scope. (1) An administrative hearing on a notice of noncompliance under WAC 388-14A-4505 is limited to the following issues:

(a) Whether the person named in the child support order is the noncustodial parent (NCP);

(b) Whether the NCP is required to pay child support under a child support order; and

(c) Whether the NCP is at least six months in arrears.

(2) The administrative law judge (ALJ) is not required to calculate the outstanding support debt beyond determining whether the NCP is at least six months in arrears. Any debt calculation shall not be binding on the department or the NCP beyond the determination that there is at least six months of arrears.

(3) If the NCP requests a hearing on the notice, DCS stays the certification process until the hearing results in a finding that the NCP is not in compliance with the order, or that DCS is authorized to certify the NCP.

(4) If the NCP requests a hearing on the notice of noncompliance under the circumstances spelled out in WAC 388-14A-4510 (2) and (3), DCS asks the office of administrative hearings to schedule a hearing. If the hearing results in a finding that the NCP is not in compliance with the order, or that DCS is authorized to certify the NCP, DCS stays the certification process until thirty days after the NCP is released or stops receiving cash public assistance.

WAC 388-14A-4600 What is the division of child support's DCS most wanted internet site? (1) The division of child support (DCS) maintains the DCS most wanted internet site in an effort to:

(a) Locate noncustodial parents in order to establish or enforce a child support obligation; and

(b) Collect unpaid child support from noncustodial parents who have a support obligation.

(2) Anyone who has information concerning a noncustodial parent (NCP) is encouraged to provide that information to DCS.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 26.23.120(2). 01-03-089, § 388-14A-4600, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-11-320.]

WAC 388-14A-4605 Whose picture can go on the division of child support's DCS most wanted internet site? (1) If the child's custodial parent (CP) requests DCS to post the NCP to the DCS most wanted internet site (also called the "site"), the CP must:

(a) Have an open full support enforcement services case with DCS;

(b) Give written permission to DCS to post the NCP on the site; and

(c) Provide a photograph of the NCP.

(2) Only the NCP's photograph appears on the site. If the CP submits a group photograph, DCS edits out everyone except the NCP.

(3) DCS may post an NCP to the site when the NCP has made no payments in at least six months (intercepted IRS refunds are not considered to be payments for purposes of this section) and owes at least five thousand dollars in back child support.

(4) DCS may post an NCP to the site when DCS has been unable to locate the NCP after trying other means for at least twelve months, and:

(a) There is a valid support order; or

(b) There is a valid paternity affidavit filed for a child on the case, or

(c) The NCP is:

(i) The mother of the child(ren) on the case; or

(ii) The presumed father under RCW 26.26.320.

(5) If the NCP has more than one open DCS case, all custodial parents must provide written consent to the posting.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.23.120(2) and 74.08.090. 06-03-026, § 388-14A-4605, filed 1/6/06, effective 2/6/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.-090, 34.05.310 (4)(d) and 26.23.120(2). 03-20-072, § 388-14A-4605, filed 9/29/03, effective 10/30/03. WAC 388-14A-4610 How does a noncustodial parent avoid being posted on the DCS most wanted internet site?

(1) DCS mails a letter to the noncustodial parent's last known mailing address by first class mail before posting a noncustodial parent (NCP) on the site. The letter advises the NCP:

(a) Who cannot be located, to provide DCS with a current address and employer information.

(b) Who owes back support, to:

- (i) Pay the back support debt in full; or
- (ii) Sign a repayment agreement with DCS and make the first payment under that agreement.

(2) If the NCP does not comply within twenty days of the date on the letter, DCS may post the NCP to the site.

(3) If the NCP wishes to dispute the amount of the support debt, the NCP may request a conference board review under WAC 388-14A-6400. Such a request does not stay (stop) DCS from posting the NCP to the site.

(4) If the NCP files a court or administrative action to vacate or modify the support obligation, DCS stays the posting of the NCP to the site for up to six months. If DCS finds good cause, DCS may extend the stay.

(5) If the NCP enters into a repayment agreement, but then misses a payment under the agreement, DCS may post the NCP to the site without further notice to the NCP.

WAC 388-14A-4615 When does DCS remove a non-custodial parent from the DCS most wanted internet site?

(1) DCS must remove the noncustodial parent (NCP) from the site if:

- (a) The NCP pays the back support debt in full;
- (b) The NCP files a court or administrative action to modify or vacate the support obligation (subject to the limitations in WAC 388-14A-3700);
- (c) The NCP enters into a repayment agreement and makes the first payment under that agreement (subject to the limitations in WAC 388-14A-4520);
- (d) The CP withdraws permission for the posting.

(2) DCS may remove an NCP from the site even if the NCP has not complied with the requirements of this section.

(3) If an NCP receives a warning letter for locate purposes only, DCS must remove the NCP who provides a current address and employment information.

WAC 388-14A-4620 What information does the division of child support post to the DCS most wanted internet site?

(1) DCS may post to the site any information about the noncustodial parent (NCP) which may aid in locating the NCP or collecting child support from the NCP, such as:

- (a) Full name and aliases;
- (b) Photograph;
- (c) Physical description;
- (d) Birth date;
- (e) Last known address;
- (f) Usual occupation;
- (g) Number and ages of children;
- (h) Amount of back support owed; and
- (i) Ongoing monthly support obligation, if any.

(2) DCS does not post the names or photographs of the CP or the children.

WAC 388-14A-4700 How do I ask the division of child support to prorate a child support obligation? (1) As a general rule, if support is owed for any day of a given month, the entire monthly support obligation is owed for that month.

(2) Either party to a support order may request that the division of child support (DCS) prorate the monthly obligation under a child support order. The request must state the reason why the party is requesting proration of the monthly obligation.

(3) This request may be made in writing or orally, in person or by phone.

(4) DCS' response may be made in writing or orally, in person or by phone.

(5) This rule and WAC 388-14A-4705 through 388-14A-4715 apply only to the enforcement of a support obligation, not to the establishment of an obligation.

WAC 388-14A-4705 When does the division of child support prorate a monthly support obligation?

The division of child support (DCS) may prorate a monthly support obligation under the following circumstances:

(1) An order is entered terminating the noncustodial parent's (NCP's) support obligation and the order specifies that the NCP's obligation should be prorated;

(2) A superior or tribal court order is entered requiring that support for a given month be prorated; or

(3) When a conference board convened under WAC 388-14A-6400 decides that support for a given month should be prorated.

WAC 388-14A-4710 When does the division of child support not prorate a monthly support obligation?

(1) Unless a case fits the criteria outlined in WAC 388-14A-4705, the division of child support (DCS) does not prorate a monthly support obligation.

(2) When a support order provides that the noncustodial parent's support obligation for a particular child terminates as of the child's birthday or graduation date, the entire monthly support obligation is owed, no matter what day of the month the birthday or graduation falls on.

(3) If a conference board convened under WAC 388-14A-6400 decides that support for a given month should not be prorated, DCS does not prorate for that month.

WAC 388-14A-4715 What can I do if I don't agree with DCS' decision on whether or not to prorate support?

(1) If the noncustodial parent (NCP) or custodial parent (CP) asks the division of child support (DCS) to prorate support, DCS advises the parties of its decision whether to prorate or not to prorate support for a given month.

(2) If the NCP or the CP disagrees with DCS' decision, the aggrieved party may request a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400.

(3) Either the NCP or the CP may proceed in superior court to seek an order stating whether support should be pro-rated.

PART E - DISTRIBUTION ISSUES

WAC 388-14A-5000 How does the division of child support distribute support payments? (1) Under state and federal law, the division of child support (DCS) distributes support money it collects or receives to the:

(a) Department when the department provides or has provided public assistance payments for the support of the family;

(b) Payee under the order, or to the custodial parent (CP) of the child according to WAC 388-14A-5050;

(c) Child support enforcement agency in another state or foreign country which submitted a request for support enforcement services;

(d) Indian tribe which has a TANF program, child support program and/or a cooperative agreement regarding the delivery of child support services;

(e) Person or entity making the payment when DCS is unable to identify the person to whom the support money is payable after making reasonable efforts to obtain identification information.

(2) DCS distributes support based on the date of collection. DCS considers the date of collection to be the date that DCS receives the payment, no matter when the payment was withheld from the noncustodial parent (NCP).

(3) If DCS is unable to distribute support money because the location of the family or person is unknown, it must exercise reasonable efforts to locate the family or person. When the family or person cannot be located, DCS handles the money in accordance with chapter 63.29 RCW, the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act.

(4) WAC 388-14A-5000 and sections WAC 388-14A-5001 through 388-14A-5008 contain the rules for distribution of support money by DCS.

(5) DCS changes the distribution rules based on changes in federal statutes and regulations.

(6) DCS uses the fee retained under WAC 388-14A-2200 to offset the fee amount charged by the federal government for IV-D cases that meet the fee criteria in WAC 388-14A-2200(1).

[Statutory Authority: 2007 c 143, §§ 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, and 9. 08-12-029, § 388-14A-5000, filed 5/29/08, effective 7/1/08. WAC 388-14A-5001 What procedures does DCS follow to distribute support payments? When distributing support money, the division of child support (DCS) does the following:

(1) Records payments in exact amounts of dollars and cents;

(2) Distributes support money within two days of the date DCS receives the money, unless DCS is unable to distribute the payment for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) The location of the payee is unknown;

(b) DCS does not have sufficient information to identify the accounts against which or to which it should apply the money;

(c) An action is pending before a court or agency which has jurisdiction over the issue to determine whether support money is owed or how DCS should distribute the money.

(d) DCS receives prepaid support money and is holding for distribution in future months under subsection (2)(e) of this section;

(e) DCS mails a notice of intent to distribute support money to the custodial parent (CP) under WAC 388-14A-5050;

(f) DCS may hold funds and not issue a check to the family for amounts under one dollar. DCS must give credit for the payment, but may delay disbursement of that amount until a future payment is received which increases the amount of the payment to the family to at least one dollar. If no future payments are received which increase the payment to the family of at least one dollar, DCS transfers the amount to the department of revenue under RCW 63.29.130. This subsection does not apply to disbursements which can be made by electronic funds transfer (EFT), or to refunds of intercepted federal income tax refunds; or

(g) Other circumstances exist which make a proper and timely distribution of the money impossible through no fault or lack of diligence of DCS.

(3) Distribute support money based on the date DCS receives the money, except as provided under WAC 388-14A-5005. DCS distributes support based on the date of collection. DCS considers the date of collection to be the date that DCS receives the payment, no matter when the payment was withheld from the noncustodial parent (NCP).

WAC 388-14A-5002 How does DCS distribute support money in a nonassistance case? (1) A nonassistance case is one where the family has never received a cash public assistance grant.

(2) The division of child support (DCS) applies support money within each Title IV-D nonassistance case:

(a) First, to satisfy the current support obligation for the month DCS received the money;

(b) Second, to the noncustodial parent's support debts owed to the family;

(c) Third, to prepaid support as provided for under WAC 388-14A-5008.

(3) After DCS disburses at least five hundred dollars to the family on a case in a federal fiscal year, DCS may retain a twenty-five dollar annual fee for that case from a custodial parent who has never received AFDC, TANF or Tribal TANF. DCS gives the noncustodial parent credit against the child support debt for the amount retained for the fee.

WAC 388-14A-5003 How does DCS distribute money in an assistance case? (1) An assistance case is one where the family is currently receiving a cash public assistance grant.

(2) The division of child support (DCS) applies support money within each Title IV-D assistance case:

(a) First, to satisfy the current support obligation for the month DCS received the money (this money is kept by the state under WAC 388-14A-2035);

(b) Second, to satisfy support debts which are permanently assigned to the department to reimburse the cumulative amount of assistance which has been paid to the family (this money is kept by the state under WAC 388-14A-2035);

(c) Third, to satisfy support debts which are temporarily assigned to the department to reimburse the cumulative amount of assistance paid to the family (this money is kept by the state under WAC 388-14A-2035);

(d) Fourth, to satisfy support debts which exceed the cumulative amount of unreimbursed assistance which has been paid to the family (this money goes to the family);

(e) Fifth, to prepaid support as provided for under WAC 388-14A-5008.

WAC 388-14A-5004 How does DCS distribute money in a former assistance case? (1) A former assistance case is one where the family is not currently receiving a cash public assistance grant, but has at some time in the past.

(2) The division of child support (DCS) applies support money within each Title IV-D former-assistance case:

(a) First, to satisfy the current support obligation for the month DCS received the money;

(b) Second, to satisfy support debts which accrued after the family's most recent period of assistance;

(c) Third, to satisfy support debts which are temporarily assigned to the department to reimburse the cumulative amount of assistance which has been paid to the family;

(d) Fourth, to satisfy support debts which are permanently assigned to the department to reimburse the cumulative amount of assistance which has been paid to the family;

(e) Fifth, to satisfy support debts which exceed the cumulative amount of unreimbursed assistance which has been paid to the family; and

(f) Sixth, to prepaid support as provided for under WAC 388-14A-5008.

WAC 388-14A-5005 How does DCS distribute intercepted federal income tax refunds? (1) The division of child support (DCS) applies intercepted federal income tax refunds in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657, as follows:

(a) First, to support debts which are permanently assigned to the department to reimburse public assistance payments; and

(b) Second, to support debts which are temporarily assigned to the department to reimburse public assistance payments; and

(c) Third, to support debts that are not assigned to the department; and

(d) To support debts only, not to current and future support obligations. DCS must refund any excess to the noncustodial parent (NCP).

(2) DCS may retain the twenty-five dollar annual fee required under the federal deficit reduction act of 2005 and RCW 74.20.040 from federal income tax refunds applied to nonassistance support debts.

(3) When the Secretary of the Treasury, through the federal Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE), notifies DCS that a payment on behalf of an NCP is from an intercepted refund based on a joint return, DCS follows the procedures set forth in WAC 388-14A-5010.

WAC 388-14A-5006 How does DCS distribute support money when the paying parent has more than one case? Except as provided in WAC 388-14A-5005, when the NCP has more than one Title IV-D case, the division of child support (DCS) distributes support money:

(1) First, to the current support obligation on each Title IV-D case, in proportion to the amount of the current support order on each case; and

(2) Second, to the total of the support debts whether owed to the family or to the department for the reimbursement of public assistance on each Title IV-D case, in proportion to the amount of support debt owed by the NCP on each case; and

(3) Third, within each Title IV-D case according to WAC 388-14A-5002 or 388-14A-5003.

WAC 388-14A-5007 If the paying parent has more than one case, can DCS apply support money to only one specific case? (1) The division of child support (DCS) applies amounts to a support debt owed for one family or household and distributes the amounts accordingly, rather than make a proportionate distribution between support debts owned to different families, when:

(a) Proportionate distribution is administratively inefficient; or

(b) The collection resulted from the sale or disposition of a specific piece of property against which a court awarded the custodial parent (CP) a judgment lien for child support; or

(c) The collection is the result of a contempt order which provides that DCS must distribute the amounts to a particular case.

(2) If the collection is the result of an automated enforcement of interstate (AEI) transaction under RCW 74.20A.188, DCS applies the payment as provided in WAC 388-14A-5006, even if the requesting state wants the payment applied to a specific case.

WAC 388-14A-5008 Can the noncustodial parent prepay support? (1) If the division of child support (DCS) receives or collects support money representing payment on the required support obligation for future months, DCS must:

(a) Apply the support money to future months only if the support debt is paid in full;

(b) Distribute the support money on a monthly basis when payments become due in the future; and

(c) Mail a notice to the last known address of the person entitled to receive support money.

(2) The notice in subsection (1)(c) above informs the person entitled to receive support money that:

(a) DCS received prepaid support money;

(b) DCS intends to distribute the prepaid money as support payments become due in the future; and

(c) The person may request a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400 to determine if DCS should immediately distribute the prepaid support money.

(d) DCS does not mail the notice referred to in subsection (1)(c) of this section if the prepaid support is equal to or less than one month's support obligation.

WAC 388-14A-5009 What happens when an employer or other entity overcollects support from the noncustodial parent based on a DCS withholding order?

(1) When an employer or other entity overcollects support from a noncustodial parent (NCP) based on a withholding order issued by the division of child support (DCS), DCS evaluates what to do with the overpayment on a case by case basis.

(2) Depending on the facts of the case and the wishes of the NCP, DCS may take one of the following actions:

(a) Refund the excess money to the NCP upon request;

(b) Hold the excess money in suspense to be applied to the next month's support obligation; or

(c) Any other action which comports with the requirements of this chapter and the federal regulations concerning distribution of support payments.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.23.035, 74.08.090, 74.20A.310, and 45 C.F.R. 303.72 (h)(5), 05-06-014, § 388-14A-5009, filed 2/22/05, effective 3/25/05.]

WAC 388-14A-5010 How does the division of child support handle intercepted federal income tax refunds from a joint return?

(1) The division of child support (DCS) collects child support arrears through the interception of federal income tax refunds. This section deals with the issues that arise when the Secretary of the Treasury intercepts a refund based on a joint tax return filed by a noncustodial parent (NCP) and the NCP's spouse who does not owe child support.

(2) When the Secretary of the Treasury, through the federal Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE), notifies DCS that a payment on behalf of an NCP is from an intercepted refund based on a joint return, DCS may delay distribution of that payment for up to six months in case the NCP's spouse is entitled to a share of the federal income tax refund.

(3) DCS distributes fifty percent of the payment according to WAC 388-14A-5005.

(4) DCS holds the other fifty percent of the payment in suspense until the earlier of the following:

(a) DCS is notified by OCSE or the Secretary of the Treasury whether DCS must pay back the unobligated spouse's portion of the refund; or

(b) For a period not to exceed six months from notification of the offset.

(5) When DCS holds part of a payment under subsection (4) of this section, DCS applies the remainder of the payment to the NCP's back support obligations if DCS is not required to return the unobligated spouse's portion of the refund. The CP may:

(a) Request that DCS apply the payment to the NCP's back support obligation sooner upon a showing of hardship to the CP; and

(b) Request a conference board if the CP disagrees with DCS' denial of a hardship claim.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.23.035, 74.08.090, 74.20A.310, and 45 C.F.R. 303.72 (h)(5), 05-06-014, § 388-14A-5010, filed 2/22/05, effective 3/25/05.]

WAC 388-14A-5050 When does DCS send a notice of intent to distribute support money?

(1) The division of child support (DCS) may distribute support money to a custodial parent (CP) who is not the payee under the support order if the CP signs a sworn statement that:

(a) The CP has physical custody of and is caring for the child; and

(b) The CP is not wrongfully depriving the payee of physical custody.

(2) Before DCS begins distributing support money to a CP who is not the payee under the support order, DCS sends the payee under the support order and the noncustodial parent (NCP) a notice of intent to distribute support money and a copy of the sworn statement of the CP to their last known addresses by first class mail. The notice states:

(a) DCS intends to distribute support money collected under the support order to the CP; and

(b) The name of the CP.

(3) DCS distributes support money to the CP when the notice of intent to distribute support money becomes final.

(a) A notice of intent to distribute support money served in the state of Washington becomes final unless the payee under the support order, within twenty days of the date of mailing of the notice, files a request with DCS for a hearing under subsection (4) of this section. The effective date of a hearing request is the date DCS receives the request.

(b) A notice of intent to distribute support money served in another state becomes final according to WAC 388-14A-7200.

(4) A hearing on a notice of intent to distribute support money is for the limited purpose of resolving who is entitled to receive the support money.

(5) A copy of the notice of any hearing scheduled under this section must be mailed to the alleged CP at the CP's last known address. The notice advises the CP of the right to participate in the proceeding as a witness or observer.

(6) The payee under the support order may file a late hearing request on a notice of intent to distribute support money.

(a) The payee under the support order does not need to show good cause for filing a late hearing request.

(b) DCS may not reimburse the payee under the support order for amounts DCS sent to the CP before the administrative order on a late hearing request becomes final.

(7) The payee under the support order must give DCS and the CP notice of any judicial proceeding to contest a notice of intent to distribute support money.

(8) If the support order is a court order, DCS files a copy of the notice of intent to distribute support money or the final administrative order entered on a notice of intent to distribute support money with the clerk of the court where the support order was entered.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 26.23.035, 74.20A.057, 74.20A.310, 01-03-089, § 388-14A-5050, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-14-270 and 388-14-271.]

WAC 388-14A-5100 What kind of distribution notice does the division of child support send? (1) The division of child support (DCS) mails a distribution notice once each month, or more often, to the last known address of a person for whom it received support during the month, except as provided under subsection (6) of this section.

(2) DCS includes the following information in the notice:

(a) The amount of support money DCS received and the date of collection;

(b) A description of how DCS allocated the support money between current support and the support debt and any fees required by state or federal law; and

(c) The amount DCS claims as reimbursement for public assistance paid, if applicable.

(3) The person to whom a distribution notice is sent may file a request for a hearing under subsection (4) of this section within ninety days of the date of the notice to contest how

(2009 Ed.)

DCS distributed the support money, and must make specific objections to the distribution notice. The effective date of a hearing request is the date DCS receives the request.

(4) A hearing under this section is for the limited purpose of determining if DCS correctly distributed the support money described in the contested notice.

(a) There is no hearing right regarding fees that have been charged on a case.

(b) If a custodial parent (CP) wants to request a hardship waiver of the fee, the CP may request a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400.

(5) A person who requests a late hearing must show good cause for being late.

(6) This section does not require DCS to send a notice to a recipient of payment services only.

WAC 388-14A-5200 What is a "total versus total" notice? (1) The division of child support (DCS) identifies cases needing a "total versus total" calculation, which compares amounts of public assistance paid to the family with amounts of support collected and uncollected support debt. DCS performs a total versus total calculation upon the request of the custodial parent (CP) or a DCS field office, usually only after the assistance grant has ended.

(a) The total versus total calculation allocates the uncollected support debt between the state and the CP, based on the amounts of public assistance paid to the family.

(b) The total versus total calculation indicates the amounts of support paid by each noncustodial parent (NCP) and how DCS distributed the support.

(c) DCS may at any time review a case to determine if a total versus total calculation is appropriate.

(2) When DCS completes a total versus total calculation at the request of the CP, DCS mails a total versus total notice to the last known address of the former assistance recipient.

(3) The person to whom DCS sends a total versus total notice may, within ninety days of the date of the notice, file a request for a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400 to contest the distribution of support money and the allocation of uncollected support debt. The person must state specific objections to the total versus total notice. The effective date of a request conference board is the date DCS receives the request.

WAC 388-14A-5300 How does the division of child support recover a support payment which has already been distributed? (1) The division of child support (DCS) may serve a notice to recover a support payment on the person who received the payment when DCS:

(a) Distributed the money in error;

(b) Distributed the money based on a check that is later dishonored;

(c) Is required to refund or return the money to the person or entity that made the payment; or

(d) Distributed money under a support order that was later modified so as to create an overpayment.

(2) DCS serves a notice to recover a support payment like a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(3) In the notice, DCS must identify the support payment DCS seeks to recover.

(4) DCS may take action to enforce the notice to recover a support payment without further notice once the notice becomes final.

(a) A notice to recover a support payment becomes final unless the person who received the payment requests a hearing under subsection (5) of this section within twenty days of service of the notice to recover a support payment in Washington. The effective date of a hearing request is the date DCS receives the request.

(b) A notice to recover a support payment may be served in another state to recover a payment disbursed by DCS under RCW 26.21A.290. A notice to recover a support payment served in another state becomes final according to WAC 388-14A-7200.

(5) A hearing on a notice to recover a support payment is for the limited purpose of resolving the existence and amount of the debt DCS is entitled to recover.

(6) A person who files a late request for a hearing on a notice to recover a support payment must show good cause for being late.

(7) In nonassistance cases and payment services only cases, DCS may recover a support payment under a final administrative order on a notice to recover a support payment by retaining ten percent of current support and one hundred percent of amounts collected on arrears in addition to any other remedy authorized by law.

(8) If a public assistance recipient receives a support payment directly from a noncustodial parent (NCP) and fails to remit it to DCS as required, DCS recovers the money as retained support under WAC 388-14A-5500.

(9) DCS may enforce the notice to recover a support payment as provided in subsection (7), or may act according to RCW 74.20A.270 as deemed appropriate.

WAC 388-14A-5400 How does the division of child support tell the custodial parent when DCS adjusts the amount of debt owed on the case? (1) The division of child support (DCS) mails a debt adjustment notice to the payee under a court order within thirty days of the date DCS reduces the amount of the court-ordered support debt it intends to collect if that reduction was due to:

(a) A mathematical error in the debt calculation;

(b) A typographical error in the stated debt;

(c) Proof that DCS should have suspended the support obligation for all or part of the time period involved in the calculation; or

(d) Proof the noncustodial parent (NCP) made payments that DCS had not previously credited against the support debt.

(2) The debt adjustment notice must contain the following information:

(a) The amount of the reduction;

(b) The reason DCS reduced the support debt, as provided under subsection (1) of this section;

(c) The name of the NCP and a statement that the NCP may attend and participate as an independent party in any hearing requested by the payee under this section; and

(d) A statement that DCS continues to provide support enforcement services whether or not the payee objects to the debt adjustment notice.

(3) A debt adjustment notice served in Washington becomes final unless the payee, within twenty days of service of the notice in Washington, files a request with DCS for a hearing under subsection (4) of this section. The effective date of a hearing request is the date DCS receives the request.

(4) A debt adjustment notice served in another state becomes final according to WAC 388-14A-7200.

(5) A hearing under this section is for the limited purpose of determining if DCS correctly reduced the support debt as stated in the notice of debt adjustment.

(6) A payee who requests a late hearing must show good cause for filing a late hearing request if it is filed more than one year after the date of the notice of debt adjustment.

WAC 388-14A-5500 How does the division of child support collect support debts owed by someone other than a noncustodial parent? (1) Sections 17 and 18, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. (RCW 74.20.320 and 74.20A.-270), provide that a custodian of children or other person who receives support money which money was paid, in whole or in part, toward a support obligation under 42 U.S.C. 602 (a)(26)(A), sections 17 and 22, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess., or RCW 74.20A.030 must remit that money to the division of child support (DCS) within eight days of receipt, and is indebted to the department for this amount of money.

(2) By not remitting support money described in subsection (1) of this section, a custodial parent (CP) or other person makes, without the necessity of signing any document, an irrevocable assignment to the department of an equal amount of any support debt not already assigned to the department, but owing to the CP or other person, or an equal amount of any support debt which may accrue in the future. DCS may use the collection procedures of chapter 74.20A RCW to collect this assigned delinquency, to satisfy a debt owed under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) DCS may also make a set-off to pay the debt under subsection (1) of this section from support money in DCS' possession or in the possession of a county clerk or other forwarding agent if that money was paid to satisfy a support delinquency.

(4) DCS may take action alternatively or simultaneously under subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section but the department may not collect and retain more money than the debt described under subsection (1) of this section, refunding the excess, without deducting fees, to the CP.

(5) DCS must give the CP or other person an account of actions taken under subsections (2) or (3) of this section.

WAC 388-14A-5505 DCS uses a notice of retained support to claim a debt owed to DCS. The division of child support (DCS) serves a notice of retained support setting forth:

(1) The amount of support money claimed by the department as property of the department by assignment, subrogation or by operation of law or legal process under chapter 74.20A RCW;

(2) The legal basis for the claim of ownership by the department;

(3) A description of the person, firm, corporation, association, or political subdivision who is or has been in possession of the support moneys together with enough detail to identify the amounts in issue;

(4) A statement that, effective with the date of service of the notice, the department will impound and hold in trust all money not yet disbursed or spent and all similar money received in the future, pending answer to the notice and any hearing which is requested;

(5) A statement that the notice must be answered, under oath and in writing, within twenty days of the date of service of the notice;

(6) A statement that the answer to the notice must include true answers to the questions in the notice and must either acknowledge the department's right to the money or request an administrative hearing to determine ownership of the money;

(7) A statement that the burden of proof in a hearing on a notice of retained support debt under this section is on the department to establish ownership of the support money claimed;

(8) A statement that, if the person, firm, corporation, association, or political subdivision or officer or agent thereof does not answer or make a request for hearing in a timely manner, the department's claim will be assessed and determined and subject to collection action as a support debt according to chapter 74.20A RCW; and

(9) A statement that the department may collect a support debt, as assessed and determined, and that the property of the debtor, without further advance notice or hearing, is subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver to satisfy the debt. The department may not take collection action against a recipient of public assistance during the period of time the recipient remains on assistance except as provided in RCW 74.20A.-270 and WAC 388-14A-2040.

WAC 388-14A-5510 How does DCS serve a notice of retained support? The division of child support (DCS) serves the notice of retained support on the person, firm, corporation, association, or political subdivision or any officer or agent thereof in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action, or by certified mail, return receipt requested. The receipt is prima facie evidence of service.

WAC 388-14A-5515 What happens if I don't respond to a notice of retained support or request a hearing? (1)

After service of a notice of retained support under WAC 388-14A-5510, if the person, firm, corporation, association, or political subdivision or any officer or agent thereof fails to answer in a timely manner, the claim of the department is final and subject to collection action as a support debt according to chapter 74.20A RCW.

(2) To be timely, a hearing request or response must be received by the division of child support within twenty days of service of the notice.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 34.05.220, 01-03-089, § 388-14A-5515, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-13-040 and 388-13-110.]

WAC 388-14A-5520 What happens if I make a timely objection to a notice of retained support? (1) Any debtor who objects to all or any part of a notice of retained support may, within twenty days from the date of service of the notice, file an application for an administrative hearing. An objection under this section is the same thing as a general denial of liability to the department.

(2) The notice of retained support does not become final until there is a final administrative order.

(3) If the objection is timely, the department serves the notice of hearing on the appellant or the appellant's representative by first class mail.

(4) The department must notify the appellant that it is the appellant's responsibility to notify the department of the appellant's mailing address at the time the application is filed and also of any change of address after filing the application. Mailing by first class mail to the last address provided by the appellant constitutes service under chapters 74.20A and 34.05 RCW.

WAC 388-14A-5525 What happens at the hearing on a notice of retained support? (1) An administrative hearing on a notice of retained support is limited to the determination of the ownership of the amounts claimed in the notice or the reasonableness of a repayment agreement offered to a public assistance recipient for recovering child support under RCW 74.20A.270 and WAC 388-14A-5505.

(2) The department has the burden of proof to establish ownership of the support money claimed, including but not limited to amounts not yet disbursed or spent.

(3) The administrative law judge (ALJ) must allow the division of child support (DCS) to orally amend the notice of retained support at the hearing to conform to the evidence. The ALJ may grant a continuance, if necessary, to allow the debtor additional time to present evidence or argument in response to the amendment.

(4) The ALJ serves a copy of the initial decision on DCS and the debtor or the debtor's representative by first class mail to the last address provided by each party.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 289]

(5) If the debtor fails to appear at the hearing, the ALJ, upon a showing of valid service of the notice of retained support, enters an initial decision and order declaring that the amount of the support money claimed in the notice, is subject to collection action under chapter 74.20A RCW.

WAC 388-14A-5530 Can I request a late hearing on a notice of retained support? (1) Within one year from the date the division of child support (DCS) serves a notice of retained support, the person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or any officer or agent thereof may petition DCS for a hearing, upon a showing of any of the grounds listed in RCW 4.72.010 or CR 60.

(2) A copy of the objection must be served by first class mail on the district field office of DCS.

(3) The filing of the petition does not stay any collection action that DCS has taken, but the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for an order staying collection action pending final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee or the courts on an appeal made under chapter 34.05 RCW.

(4) Any money held or taken by collection action before any such stay and any support money claimed by the department, including amounts to be received in the future, to which the department may have a claim, must be held in trust pending the final decision and appeal, if any, to be disbursed in accordance with the final decision.

(5) If someone files a petition for a hearing, the department serves the notice of hearing on the appellant, the appellant's attorney, or other designated representative by first class mail.

(6) The department notifies the appellant that the appellant must notify the department of the appellant's mailing address at the time the petition is filed and also of any change of address after filing the petition. Mailing by first class mail to the last address provided by the appellant constitutes service under chapters 74.20A and 34.05 RCW.

PART F - HEARINGS AND CONFERENCE BOARDS

WAC 388-14A-6000 Which statutes and regulations govern the division of child support's hearing process? (1) Hearings under this chapter are governed by:

(a) The Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW, RCW 74.20A.055; and

(b) Chapter 388-02 WAC.

(2) If any provision in this chapter conflicts with or is inconsistent with chapter 388-02 WAC, the provision in this chapter governs.

WAC 388-14A-6100 The division of child support accepts oral requests for hearing or conference board. (1) Except for the instances listed in subsections (8) and (9), the division of child support (DCS) accepts either a written or an oral request for hearing or conference board, even though other sections of this chapter or the relevant statutes may provide that objections and hearing requests should be in writing.

(2) The subject matter of the objection determines whether the matter is set as a conference board or hearing, unless there is a specific request for an administrative hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW.

(3) DCS processes oral and written requests for hearing in the same manner.

(4) An oral request for hearing is complete if it contains enough information to identify the person making the request, the DCS action, and the case or cases involved in the hearing request.

(5) The effective date of an oral request for hearing is the date that someone makes a complete oral request for hearing, to any DCS representative in person or by leaving a message on the automated voice mail system of any DCS field office.

(6) When making an oral request, you do not need to specify whether you want a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW or a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400.

(7) You can make an oral request for hearing or conference board on behalf of another person, if you have written authorization to act on their behalf. The effective date of an oral request for hearing or conference board made on behalf of another person is the later of the date of the complete oral request for hearing or the date that DCS receives the written authorization.

(8) There are two types of hearing requests which must be in writing:

(a) A petition for prospective modification under WAC 388-14A-3925; and

(b) A petition for reimbursement for day care expenses under WAC 388-14A-4300.

(9) You must also make the following requests in writing:

(a) A request for a determination of controlling order under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA), chapter 26.21A RCW, as described in WAC 388-14A-7305; and

(b) An objection to the determination of controlling order contained in a notice of support debt and registration issued by DCS under WAC 388-14A-7325. WAC 388-14A-7335 describes how to make this objection.

WAC 388-14A-6105 What is the difference between an initial order and a final order in a hearing involving the division of child support? (1) In an administrative hearing involving the DSHS division of child support (DCS), the administrative law judge (ALJ) enters either an initial order, which is subject to review, or a final order, which is not subject to review.

(2) The terms "initial order," "final order" and "review" are defined in WAC 388-02-0010, and those definitions are repeated here for ease of reference:

(a) "Initial order" is a hearing decision made by an ALJ that may be reviewed by a review judge pursuant to WAC 388-02-0215(4). An initial order is sometimes called an "initial decision."

(b) "Final order" means an order that is the final DSHS decision.

(c) "Review" means the act of reviewing initial orders and making the final agency decision as provided by RCW 34.05.464.

(3) WAC 388-14A-6110 and 388-14A-6115 describe how to determine what kind of order is entered. Whether the ALJ enters an initial order or a final order does not depend on the date the hearing is held or the date the order is entered.

(4) WAC 388-14A-6120 describes what you can do if you disagree with an initial order or final order.

(5) WAC 388-14A-6125 describes when DCS may take enforcement action on an initial order or final order.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.220(1), 74.08.090, 74.20A.056, 74.20A.-310, 26.26.315, 26.26.320, 26.26.330, 26.26.335, 74.20A.055, 2002 c 302, and 2002 c 199, 03-17-013, § 388-14A-6105, filed 8/12/03, effective 9/12/03.]

WAC 388-14A-6110 When must an ALJ enter an initial order in a DCS hearing proceeding? An administrative law judge (ALJ) must enter an initial order in a division of child support (DCS) hearing proceeding if:

(1) The case involves the disclosure of a party's address under WAC 388-14A-2114 through 388-14A-2140;

(2) A custodial parent (CP) or noncustodial parent (NCP) files a hearing request before November 15, 2002;

(3) A CP or NCP files a petition for modification with DCS or the office of administrative hearings (OAH) before November 15, 2002; or

(4) DCS petitions for modification of an administrative order, and either the NCP or the CP is served with the notice of hearing before November 15, 2002.

and 2002 c 199, 03-17-013, § 388-14A-6110, filed 8/12/03, effective 9/12/03.]

WAC 388-14A-6115 When must an ALJ enter a final order in a DCS hearing proceeding? Except for cases regarding address disclosure under WAC 388-14A-2114 through 388-14A-2140, an administrative law judge (ALJ) must enter a final order in a DCS hearing proceeding if:

(1) A custodial parent (CP) or noncustodial parent (NCP) files a hearing request on or after November 15, 2002;

(2) An NCP or CP files a petition for modification with DCS or the office of administrative hearings (OAH) on or after November 15, 2002;

(3) DCS petitions for modification of an administrative order, and neither the NCP nor the CP is served before November 15, 2002.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.220(1), 74.08.090, 74.20A.056, 74.20A.-310, 26.26.315, 26.26.320, 26.26.330, 26.26.335, 74.20A.055, 2002 c 302, and 2002 c 199, 03-17-013, § 388-14A-6115, filed 8/12/03, effective 9/12/03.]

WAC 388-14A-6120 What can I do if I do not agree with an initial order or final order entered by an administrative law judge? (1) Except for the DCS representative, any party to an initial order entered by an administrative law judge (ALJ) has the right to request review pursuant to chapter 388-02 WAC.

(2) No party may request administrative review of a final order entered by an ALJ.

(3) Any party to an initial order or a final order may petition to vacate an order of dismissal or default, pursuant to WAC 388-14A-3700 and 388-14A-6150.

(4) Any party to an initial order or final order may request correction of a clerical error in the order, pursuant to WAC 388-02-0540 through 388-02-0555.

(5) Any party to a final order may request reconsideration of the order, pursuant to WAC 388-02-0605 through 388-02-0635.

(6) Except for the DCS representative, any party to a final order may petition for judicial review, pursuant to RCW 34.05.510 through 34.05.598. You do not need to request reconsideration of the order before you petition for judicial review.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.220(1), 74.08.090, 74.20A.056, 74.20A.-310, 26.26.315, 26.26.320, 26.26.330, 26.26.335, 74.20A.055, 2002 c 302, and 2002 c 199, 03-17-013, § 388-14A-6120, filed 8/12/03, effective 9/12/03.]

WAC 388-14A-6125 When does an initial order or final order entered by an ALJ become enforceable? (1) If no party requests review within twenty-one days of the date OAH mailed an initial order, the DSHS division of child support (DCS) may take enforcement action on the twenty-second day after OAH mailed the order.

(2) DCS may take enforcement action on a final order immediately upon entry of the order.

(a) Even if a party files a request for reconsideration, a request to correct a clerical error, a petition to vacate, or a petition for judicial review, DCS does not stop enforcement of the order.

(b) To stop DCS from enforcing a final order, you must obtain a court order staying (stopping) enforcement of the order.

WAC 388-14A-6150 What can I do if there was a default order entered against me in an administrative hearing? (1) Any party against whom the administrative law judge (ALJ) has entered an initial decision and order on default may petition the DSHS board of appeals for vacation of the default order, subject to the provisions, including time limits, of civil rule 60.

(2) Specific rules on administrative support establishment notices are in WAC 388-14A-3700.

(3) Upon receipt of a request to vacate a default order, the department must ask the office of administrative hearings (OAH) to:

(a) Schedule a hearing to determine whether or not the petitioner has good cause for vacating the default order; and

(b) Give any other parties to the hearing notice of the time and date of the hearing. The notice is sent to the party's last known address.

(4) In a hearing under this section, the ALJ must first determine if the petitioner has good cause for vacating the default order by applying civil rule 60 to determine whether the petition has good cause, in making this determination, the ALJ must consider the following factors:

(a) Whether there is substantial evidence to support a prima facie defense to the notice which was the subject of the hearing;

(b) Whether the petitioner's failure to appear at the hearing was due to mistake, inadvertance, surprise or excusable neglect;

(c) Whether the petition to vacate has been brought in a timely manner; and

(d) Whether vacating the initial decision would result in a substantial hardship to the parent who did appear for hearing.

(5) If the ALJ finds good cause to vacate the default order, the ALJ:

(a) Must conduct a hearing on the merits of the petitioner's objection to the notice that was the basis for the hearing at which the petitioner failed to appear; and

(b) May stay any further collection to the extent provided for under the rules governing the notice the party originally objected to.

(6) If the parent who did not appear at the hearing is unsuccessful in the motion to vacate the default order, the ALJ may treat the petition as a petition to modify the support order.

WAC 388-14A-6200 What remedies are available to contest the division of child support's seizure of my bank account? (1) If the division of child support (DCS) takes collection action against a bank account, safe deposit box, or other property held by a bank, credit union or savings and loan (collectively, "the account"), the noncustodial parent (NCP) or the joint owner of record of the account may contest the action in a hearing.

(2) The effective date of a hearing request or objection is the date DCS receives the request.

(3) The NCP or the joint owner must file the objection within twenty days of the date DCS mailed a copy of the order to withhold and deliver to the NCP's last known address.

(4) The NCP or joint owner of record must state in the objection the facts supporting the allegation by the NCP or the joint owner that the account, or a portion of the account is exempt from satisfaction of the NCP's child support obligation.

(5) If either the NCP or the joint owner of record objects to the collection action, DCS schedules a hearing solely for the purpose of determining whether or not one of the following exemptions applies to the account attached by the order to withhold and deliver:

(a) Pursuant to RCW 26.16.200 and 74.20A.120, the property or funds in the community bank account, joint bank account, or safe deposit box, or a portion of the property or funds which can be identified as the earnings of the NCP's spouse who does not owe a support obligation to the NCP's child or children, are exempt from satisfaction of the child support obligation of the NCP.

(b) The funds in a bank account, or a portion of those funds can be identified as TANF, GA-U, GA-X, SSI benefits, or other kinds of funds which are legally exempt from collection action; or

(c) The funds or property attached by the order to withhold and deliver which can be identified as being solely owned by the joint owner of record of the bank account or safe deposit box who does not owe a child support obligation to the child or children of the NCP, are exempt from satisfaction of the NCP's child support obligation.

WAC 388-14A-6205 What happens at a hearing on an objection to seizure of a bank account? (1) If either the noncustodial parent (NCP) or the joint owner of record objects to a division of child support (DCS) collection action against a bank account, DCS schedules a hearing solely for the purpose of determining whether or not one of the following exemptions applies to the funds in the bank account, or to the other property attached by the order to withhold and deliver:

(a) Pursuant to RCW 26.16.200 and 74.20A.120, the property or funds in the community bank account, joint bank account, or safe deposit box, or a portion of the property or funds which can be identified as the earnings of the NCP's spouse who does not owe a support obligation to the NCP's child or children, are exempt from satisfaction of the child support obligation of the NCP.

(b) The funds in the bank account, or a portion of those funds can be identified as TANF, GA-U, GA-X, SSI benefits, or other kinds of funds which are legally exempt from collection action; or

(c) The funds or property attached by the order to withhold and deliver can be identified as being solely owned by the joint owner of record of the bank account or safe deposit box who does not owe a child support obligation to the child or children of the NCP and are exempt from satisfaction of the NCP's child support obligation.

(2) The person challenging the collection action has the burden of tracing the funds and proving the property or funds in the bank account, or property in a safe deposit box, are exempt from satisfaction of the NCP's child support obligation.

(3) The administrative law judge (ALJ) is limited to the determination of whether the funds in the bank account, or the other property attached by the order to withhold and deliver is exempt from satisfaction of the NCP's child support obligation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 26.23.035, 34.05.220, 74.20A.310, 45 CFR 303.106. 01-24-079, § 388-14A-6205, filed 12/3/01, effective 1/3/02.]

WAC 388-14A-6210 What happens to the seized money once an objection is filed? The division of child support (DCS) holds money or property withheld as a result of collection action taken against a bank account or safe deposit box and delivered to DCS at the time of an objection, pending the final administrative order or during any appeal to the courts.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 26.23.035, 34.05.220, 74.20A.310, 45 CFR 303.106. 01-24-079, § 388-14A-6210, filed 12/3/01, effective 1/3/02.]

WAC 388-14A-6215 What happens if the judge decides the seized money was exempt? If the final decision of the department or courts on appeal is that the division of child support (DCS) has caused money or property that is exempt from satisfaction of the NCP's child support obligation to be withheld by the bank or delivered to the department, DCS must:

- (1) Promptly release the order to withhold and deliver; or
- (2) Refund the proportionate share of the funds having been identified as being exempt. The department is not liable for any interest accrued on any money withheld under RCW 74.20A.080.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 26.23.035, 34.05.220, 74.20A.310, 45 C.F.R. 303.106. 01-24-079, § 388-14A-6215, filed 12/3/01, effective 1/3/02.]

WAC 388-14A-6220 What remedies are available to contest the division of child support's seizure of my DOC inmate account? If the division of child support (DCS) takes collection action against the inmate account of a noncustodial parent (NCP) who is an inmate of a department of corrections (DOC) facility, the NCP may contest the seizure of the inmate account in the same way an NCP could challenge a bank account seizure, as provided in WAC 388-14A-6200 through 388-14A-6215.

WAC 388-14A-6300 Duty of the administrative law judge in a hearing to determine the amount of a support obligation. (1) A support order entered under this chapter must conform to the requirements set forth in RCW 26.09.-105 and 26.18.170, and in RCW 26.23.050 (3) and (5). The administrative law judge (ALJ) must comply with the DSHS rules on child support and include a Washington state child support schedule worksheet when entering a support order.

(2) In hearings held under this chapter to contest a notice and finding of financial responsibility or a notice and finding of parental responsibility or other notice or petition, the ALJ must determine:

(a) The noncustodial parent's obligation to provide support under RCW 74.20A.057;

(b) The names and dates of birth of the children covered by the support order;

(c) The net monthly income of the noncustodial parent (NCP) and any custodial parent (CP);

(d) The NCP's share of the basic support obligation and any adjustments to that share, according to his or her circumstances;

(e) If requested by a party, the NCP's share of any special child-rearing expenses in a sum certain amount per month;

(f) A statement that either or both parents are obligated to provide medical support under RCW 26.09.105 and 26.18.170, including but not limited to the following:

(i) A requirement that either or both parents are obligated to provide health insurance coverage for the child covered by the support order if coverage that can be extended to cover the child is or becomes available through the parent's employment or union;

(ii) Notice that if proof of health insurance coverage or proof that the coverage is unavailable is not provided to DCS within twenty days, DCS may seek direct enforcement through the obligated parent's employer or union without further notice to the parent; and

(iii) The reasons for not ordering health insurance coverage if the order fails to require such coverage;

(g) A provision which determines the mother and the father's proportionate share of uninsured medical expenses;

(h) The NCP's accrued debt and order payments toward the debt in a monthly amount to be determined by the division of child support (DCS);

(i) The NCP's current and future monthly support obligation as a per month per child amount and order payments in that amount; and

(j) The NCP's total current and future support obligation as a sum certain and order payments in that amount.

(3) Having made the determinations required in subsection (2) above, the ALJ must order the NCP to make payments to the Washington state support registry (WSSR).

(4) The ALJ must allow DCS to orally amend the notice at the hearing to conform to the evidence. The ALJ may grant a continuance, when necessary, to allow the NCP or the CP additional time to present rebutting evidence or argument as to the amendment.

(5) The ALJ may not require DCS to produce or obtain information, documents, or witnesses to assist the NCP or CP in proof of defenses to liability. However, this rule does not apply to relevant, nonconfidential information or documents that DCS has in its possession.

(6) In a hearing held on a notice issued under WAC 388-14A-3312, the ALJ must determine the amount owed by the obligated parent to the other for unreimbursed medical expenses.

(a) The ALJ does not specify how the amount owed by the obligated parent should be paid.

(b) In the event that DCS has served a notice under WAC 388-14A-3312 on both the NCP and the CP, the ALJ must issue a separate administrative order for each notice issued, and may not set off the debts against each other.

WAC 388-14A-6400 The division of child support's grievance and dispute resolution method is called a conference board. (1) The division of child support (DCS) provides conference boards for the resolution of complaints and problems regarding DCS cases, and for granting exceptional or extraordinary relief. A conference board is an informal review of case actions and of the circumstances of the parties and children related to a child support case.

(a) The term conference board can mean either of the following, depending on the context:

(i) The process itself, including the review and any meeting convened; or

(ii) The DCS staff who make up the panel which convenes the hearing and makes factual and legal determinations.

(b) A conference board chair is an attorney employed by DCS in the conference board unit. In accordance with section WAC 388-14A-6415, the conference board chair reviews a case, and:

(i) Issues a decision without a hearing, or

(ii) Sets a hearing to take statements from interested parties before reaching a decision.

(2) A person who disagrees with any DCS action related to establishing, enforcing or modifying a support order may ask for a conference board.

(3) DCS uses the conference board process to:

(a) Help resolve complaints and problems over agency actions;

(b) Determine when hardship in the paying parent's household, as defined in RCW 74.20A.160, justifies the release of collection action or the refund of a support payment;

(c) Determine when hardship in the custodial parent's household justifies the waiver of any required fee;

(d) Set a repayment rate on a support debt; and

(e) Determine when it is appropriate to write off support debts owed to the department based on:

(i) Hardship to the paying parent or that parent's household;

(ii) Settlement by compromise of disputed claims;

(iii) Probable costs of collection in excess of the support debt; or

(iv) An error or legal defect that reduces the possibility of collection.

(4) A conference board is not a formal hearing under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW.

(5) A conference board does not replace any formal hearing right created by chapters 388-14A WAC, or by chapters 26.23, 74.20 or 74.20A RCW.

(6) This section and WAC 388-14A-6405 through 388-14A-6415 govern the conference board process in DCS cases.

[Statutory Authority: 2007 c 143, §§ 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, and 9. 08-12-029, § 388-14A-6400, filed 5/29/08, effective 7/1/08. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 26.23.035, 34.05.220, 74.20A.310, 01-03-089, § 388-14A-6400, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-14-385.]

WAC 388-14A-6405 How to apply for a conference board. (1) A person may request a conference board, orally or in writing, at any division of child support (DCS) office.

(2) Oral requests for conference boards are governed by WAC 388-14A-6100.

(3) DCS may start conference board proceedings in appropriate circumstances.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 26.23.035, 34.05.220, 74.20A.310, 01-03-089, § 388-14A-6405, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-14-386.]

WAC 388-14A-6410 Explanation of the conference board process. (1) An applicant for a conference board must make reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute with division of child support (DCS) staff before the conference board can act in the case.

(2) A conference board chair reviews each application to determine appropriate action:

(a) If there are questions of both law and fact or if the dispute involves only facts, the chair may schedule a conference board hearing to gather evidence;

(b) If the factual dispute would not provide a basis on which the conference board could grant relief, even if all facts were resolved in favor of the applicant, the chair may issue a decision without a hearing; or

(c) If the dispute can be resolved as a matter of law without relying upon disputed facts, the conference board chair may issue a decision without scheduling a hearing.

(3) If the conference board chair schedules a hearing, the conference board is made up of the conference board chair and staff from the DCS field office which handles the child support case, if needed.

(a) At the hearing, the conference board makes determinations of relevant disputed facts. Decisions on factual issues are made by a majority of the conference board.

(b) Decisions on issues of law are made by the conference board chair alone.

(c) The DCS worker regularly assigned to a case may not be part of a conference board dealing with that case.

(4) The conference board chair prepares a decision, if necessary, and provides that decision to the parties to the conference board, and to the DCS staff responsible for the case.

(5) The director of DCS, or a person designated by the director, may review conference board decisions, and may alter, amend, vacate or remand decisions that are inconsistent with Washington law or DCS policy, or are grossly unfair.

WAC 388-14A-6415 Scope of authority of conference board chair defined. The conference board chair has the authority to:

- (1) Subpoena witnesses and documents, administer oaths and take testimony;
- (2) Grant relief by setting payment plans, writing off debt owed to the department, waiving fees, or refunding collected money;
- (3) Adjust support debts based on evidence gathered during the conference board process;
- (4) Direct distribution of collected support; and
- (5) Take any action consistent with Washington law and DCS policy to resolve disputes, grant relief or address issues of equity.

WAC 388-14A-6500 Can I use equitable estoppel as a defense in a hearing with the division of child support?

(1) Equitable estoppel is available in adjudicative proceedings conducted under this chapter.

(2) When a party raises, or the facts indicate, a claim that equitable estoppel applies to a party to the proceeding, the administrative law judge (ALJ) must:

(a) Consider equitable estoppel according to the precedents set by reported Washington state appellate case law, where not contrary to public policy; and

(b) Enter findings of fact and conclusions of law sufficient to determine if the elements of equitable estoppel are met and apply.

(3) The party asserting, or benefitting from, equitable estoppel must prove each element of that defense by clear, cogent and convincing evidence.

(4) The ALJ must consider on the record whether a continuance is necessary to allow the parties to prepare to argue equitable estoppel when:

(a) A party raises equitable estoppel; or

(b) The facts presented require consideration of equitable estoppel.

(5) When the ALJ orders a continuance under subsection (4) of this section, the ALJ enters an initial decision and order for current support if:

(a) Current support is an issue in the proceeding; and

(b) The claim for current support is unaffected by the equitable estoppel defense.

(6) The defense of equitable estoppel is not available to a party when the:

(a) Party raises the defense against the department's claim for reimbursement of public assistance; and

(b) Act or representation forming the basis for an estoppel claim:

(i) Was made by a current or former public assistance recipient;

(2009 Ed.)

(ii) Was made on or after the effective date of the assignment of support rights; and

(iii) Purported to waive, satisfy, or discharge a support obligation assigned to the department.

PART G - INTERSTATE ISSUES

WAC 388-14A-7100 The division of child support may register an order from another state for enforcement or modification. (1) A support enforcement agency, or a party to a child support order or an income-withholding order for support issued by a tribunal of another state, may register the order in this state for enforcement pursuant to chapter 26.21A RCW.

(a) At the option of the division of child support (DCS), the support order or income-withholding order may be registered with the superior court pursuant to RCW 26.21A.505 or it may be registered with the administrative tribunal according to subsection (2) of this section. Either method of registration is valid.

(b) A support order or income-withholding order issued in another state is registered when the order is filed with the registering tribunal of this state.

(c) DCS may enforce a registered order issued in another state in the same manner and subject to the same procedures as an order issued by a tribunal of this state.

(d) DCS may assess and collect interest on amounts owed under support orders entered or established in a jurisdiction other than the state of Washington as provided in WAC 388-14A-7110.

(e) DCS may notify the parties that it is enforcing a non-Washington support order using the notice of support debt and demand for payment under WAC 388-14A-3304 or using the notice of support debt and registration as provided in this section and in WAC 388-14A-7110. Either method of notice is valid.

(2) DCS must give notice to the nonregistering party when it administratively registers a support order or income-withholding order issued in another state. DCS gives this notice with the Notice of Support Debt and Registration (NOSDR).

(a) The notice must inform the nonregistering party:

(i) That a registered order is enforceable as of the date of registration in the same manner as an order issued by a tribunal of this state;

(ii) That if a party wants a hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order, the party must request a hearing within twenty days after service of the notice on the nonregistering party within Washington state. If the nonregistering party was served with the notice outside of Washington state, the party has sixty days after service of the notice to request a hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order;

(iii) That failure to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner will result in confirmation of the order and enforcement of the order and the alleged arrearages and precludes further contest of that order with respect to any matter that could have been asserted;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 295]

(iv) Of the amount of any alleged arrearages, including interest, if interest is being assessed under WAC 388-14A-7110; and

(v) Whether DCS has made a determination of controlling order under chapter 26.21A RCW, as described in WAC 388-14A-7325.

(b) The notice must be:

(i) Served on the nonregistering party by certified or registered mail or by any means of personal service authorized by the laws of the state of Washington; and

(ii) Served on the registering party by first class mail at the last known address; and

(iii) Accompanied by a copy of the registered order and any documents and relevant information accompanying the order submitted by the registering party.

(c) The effective date of a request for hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order is the date DCS receives the request.

(3) A party or support enforcement agency seeking to modify, or to modify and enforce, a child support order issued in another state may register the order in this state according to RCW 26.21A.540 through 26.21A.550.

(a) The order must be registered as provided in subsection (1)(a) if the order has not yet been registered.

(b) A petition for modification may be filed at the same time as a request for registration, or later. The petition must specify the grounds for modification.

(c) DCS may enforce a child support order of another state registered for purposes of modification, as if a tribunal of this state had issued the order, but the registered order may be modified only if the requirements of RCW 26.21A.550 are met.

(4) Interpretation of the registered order is governed by RCW 26.21A.515.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.220(2), 43.20A.550, 74.04.055, 74.08.090, 74.20.040, 74.20A.310, 07-08-055, § 388-14A-7100, filed 3/29/07, effective 4/29/07. WAC 388-14A-7110 The division of child support may assess and collect interest on amounts owed under support orders entered or established in a jurisdiction other than Washington state. (1) The division of child support (DCS) may accept an interstate request to assess and collect interest when:

(a) The request is from:

(i) Another state's IV-D agency;

(ii) An Indian tribe;

(iii) A foreign country which has entered into a reciprocal agreement with the United States of America or with the state of Washington; or

(iv) A custodial parent (CP) or noncustodial parent (NCP) who resides outside of Washington state who has filed a petition under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA), chapter 26.21A RCW.

(b) The party requesting that DCS assess and collect interest provides a calculation of the interest claimed which has been certified by a IV-D agency or a certified public accountant (CPA); and

(c) The support order was entered or established in a jurisdiction other than Washington state.

(2) When a foreign support order has been submitted for enforcement under UIFSA, DCS may, at its option, either:

(a) Use the notice of support debt and demand for payment to assess and collect interest on an out-of-state support order. See WAC 388-14A-3304 for the rules regarding the notice of support debt and demand for payment; or

(b) Use a notice of support debt and registration to assess and collect interest on the foreign order. See WAC 388-14A-7100 for the rules regarding registration of a foreign order.

(3) When an out of state order has been submitted for registration for enforcement and modification under UIFSA, DCS uses a notice of support debt and registration to assess and collect interest on the out of state order. See WAC 388-14A-7100 for the rules regarding registration of a foreign support order.

(4) Any hearing held on a notice of support debt and registration which includes a claim for interest is conducted in accordance with WAC 388-14A-7125 and 388-14A-7115.

(a) WAC 388-14A-7135 describes the procedures for confirmation of the registered order.

(b) WAC 388-14A-7135 describes the effect of confirmation of the registered order.

(5) At any time after the notice of support debt and registration becomes a final administrative order, DCS may update the amount of interest as provided in WAC 388-14A-7120.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.220(2), 43.20A.550, 74.04.055, 74.08.090, 74.20.040, 74.20A.310, 07-08-055, § 388-14A-7110, filed 3/29/07, effective 4/29/07. Statutory Authority: RCW 26.21.016, 05-07-059, § 388-14A-7110, filed 3/11/05, effective 4/11/05.]

WAC 388-14A-7115 Are there special rules for a hearing on a notice seeking to assess and collect interest on a support order? (1) When the division of child support serves a notice of support debt and demand for payment or a notice of support debt and registration under WAC 388-14A-7110(2) and the notice becomes the subject of a hearing, this section applies to a determination of interest.

(2) The calculation of the amount of interest which has been certified by a IV-D agency or a CPA must be accepted as evidence at a hearing on a notice of support debt and demand for payment or on a notice of support debt and registration.

(a) Such certified calculation is prima facie evidence of the amount of interest owed by the NCP.

(b) Any party challenging the certified calculation has the burden of proving that the amount of interest claimed is incorrect.

(3) A party challenging the certified calculation may challenge the calculation for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) The amount of principal is incorrect because credit was not given for payments made;

(b) The amount of principal is incorrect because credit was given for payments which were not actually made; or

(c) The interest calculation was not properly done according to the law of the state issuing the order.

(4) If the administrative law judge (ALJ) finds that the party challenging the interest calculation has shown that the amount of principal is incorrect, the ALJ:

- (a) Enters an order stating the correct amount of principal;
- (b) Orders the party which submitted the original interest calculation to:
 - (i) Recalculate or have recalculated the interest based on the new principal amount; and
 - (ii) Submit the new certified calculation to the ALJ within a reasonable amount of time; and
- (c) After receiving the new certified calculation, enters an order determining the amount of debt, including interest, for the period claimed in the notice.

(5) If the ALJ orders a new certified calculation, DCS may enforce any amounts of principal the ALJ found to be due and owing under the support order while the administrative order under subsection (4)(c) of this section is pending.

(6) A claim that the interest calculation was not properly done must be supported by an interest calculation which is certified by a IV-D agency or a certified public accountant (CPA). The ALJ then determines which calculation is best supported by the evidence.

(7) The division of child support does not perform certified interest calculations for use in a hearing under this section.

WAC 388-14A-7117 Are there special rules for a conference board on a notice seeking to assess and collect interest on a support order? (1) When the division of child support serves a notice of support debt and demand for payment or a notice of support debt and registration under WAC 388-14A-7110(2) and the notice becomes the subject of a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400, this section applies to a determination of interest.

(2) The calculation of the amount of interest which has been certified by a IV-D agency or a CPA must be accepted as evidence at a conference board on a notice of support debt and demand for payment or on a notice of support debt and registration.

(a) Such certified calculation is prima facie evidence of the amount of interest owed by the NCP.

(b) Any party challenging the certified calculation has the burden of proving that the amount of interest claimed is incorrect.

(3) A party challenging the certified calculation may challenge the calculation for one or more of the following reasons:

- (a) The amount of principal is incorrect because credit was not given for payment made;
- (b) The amount of principal is incorrect because credit was given for payments which were not actually made; or
- (c) The interest calculation was not properly done.

(4) If the conference board determines that the amount of principal is incorrect, the conference board may request that the IV-D agency or a certified public accountant that performed the initial calculation provide a new calculation based on the new principal amount.

(2009 Ed.)

(5) DCS may collect undisputed amounts of principal while the final conference board decision is pending.

(6) A claim that the interest calculation was not properly done must be supported by an interest calculation which is certified by a IV-D agency or a certified public accountant. The conference board then determines which calculation is best supported by the evidence.

(7) The division of child support does not perform certified interest calculations for use in a conference board under this section.

(8) The conference board issues a decision, based on the evidence, determining the debt amount, including interest, for the period claimed in the notice.

WAC 388-14A-7120 When does DCS update the interest assessed on a case? (1) When the division of child support (DCS) accepts an interstate case for assessment of interest under WAC 388-14A-7110(1), DCS may, at any time after service of a notice of support debt and registration or a notice of support debt and demand for payment, update the amount of interest assessed on the case.

(2) To notify the parties to the order that DCS has updated the amount of interest, DCS uses a form called the Updated Interest Calculation Letter.

(a) The updated interest calculation letter is based upon a calculation of interest which has been certified by a IV-D agency or certified public accountant (CPA).

(b) DCS sends the updated interest calculation letter to the noncustodial parent (NCP), by first class mail to the NCP's last known address.

(3) The updated interest calculation letter advises the NCP of:

(a) The new, updated amount of interest owed for the arrears period; and

(b) The updated total amount of support owed, including interest.

(4) An NCP who objects to an updated interest calculation letter may request a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400 to dispute the terms of the letter.

(5) The calculation of the amount of interest which has been certified by a IV-D agency or CPA must be accepted as evidence at a conference board on an updated interest calculation letter.

(a) The certified calculation is prima facie evidence of the amount of interest owed by the NCP.

(b) Any party challenging the certified calculation has the burden of proving that the amount of interest claimed is incorrect.

WAC 388-14A-7125 What happens at a hearing on a notice of support debt and registration? A hearing under this section is for the limited purpose of determining if the nonregistering party can prove one or more of the defenses listed in RCW 26.21A.530(1).

(1) If the contesting party presents evidence establishing a full or partial defense under RCW 26.21A.530(1), the presiding officer may:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 297]

- (a) Stay enforcement of the registered order;
- (b) Continue the proceeding to allow the parties to gather additional relevant evidence; or
- (c) Issue other appropriate orders.

(2) DCS may enforce an uncontested portion of the registered order by all remedies available under the law of this state.

(3) If the contesting party does not establish a defense under RCW 26.21A.530(1) to the validity or enforcement of the order, the presiding officer must issue an order confirming the registered order.

(4) The custodial parent (CP) or payee of the order may participate as a party to any hearing under this section.

WAC 388-14A-7135 What is the effect of confirmation of a registered order on the finality of the support debt calculation? (1) Except as provided below in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, confirmation of a registered order precludes further contest of the order with respect to any matter that could have been asserted at the time of registration. Confirmation may occur:

(a) By operation of law upon failure to contest registration; or

(b) By order of the administrative law judge (ALJ).

(2) Confirmation of a registered order that does not include interest does not relieve the noncustodial parent (NCP) of any interest that may have accrued or may accrue under the confirmed order.

(a) If interest is later assessed, the NCP or the custodial parent (CP) may not dispute the confirmed amount of the support debt.

(b) The NCP or CP may dispute the amount of interest due and owing on that confirmed amount by requesting a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400.

(3) Confirmation of a registered order that does include interest confirms only the amount of debt, including interest, that is due and owing for the indicated time periods. Such confirmation does not relieve the NCP of any interest that may have accrued or may accrue for any other time period.

WAC 388-14A-7200 DCS can serve notices in other states under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act.

(1) Except as specified in WAC 388-14A-3105, where grounds for personal jurisdiction exist under RCW 26.21A.-100 or other Washington law, the division of child support (DCS) may serve the following legal actions in another state by certified mail, return receipt requested or by personal service, under chapter 26.21A RCW:

(a) A notice and finding of financial responsibility under WAC 388-14A-3115; and

(b) A notice and finding of parental responsibility under WAC 388-14A-3120;

(c) A notice of paternity test costs under WAC 388-14A-8300; or

(d) An affidavit of birth costs under WAC 388-14A-3555.

(2) A notice and finding of financial responsibility, a notice of paternity test costs, or an affidavit of birth costs becomes final and subject to immediate wage withholding and enforcement without further notice under chapters 26.18, 26.23, and 74.20A RCW unless the noncustodial parent (NCP), within sixty days of service in another state:

(a) Contacts DCS and signs an agreed settlement or consent order; or

(b) Files a written request for a hearing under:

(i) WAC 388-14A-3115 for a notice and finding of financial responsibility;

(ii) WAC 388-14A-3555 for an affidavit of birth costs; or

(iii) WAC 388-14A-8300 for a notice of paternity test costs.

(3) The effective date of a hearing request is the date DCS receives the hearing request.

(4) A notice and finding of parental responsibility becomes final and subject to immediate wage withholding and enforcement without further notice under chapters 26.18, 26.23, and 74.20A RCW unless the NCP, within sixty days of service in another state:

(a) Contacts DCS and signs an agreed settlement or consent order;

(b) Files a written request for a hearing under WAC 388-14A-3120 with DCS; or

(c) Files a written request for paternity testing under WAC 388-14A-8300 to determine if he is the natural father of the dependent child named in the notice and cooperates in the testing. A request for a hearing or paternity testing is filed on the date the request is received by DCS.

(5) If the results of paternity tests requested under subsection (4) of this section do not exclude the NCP as the natural father of the dependent child, the notice and finding of parental responsibility becomes final and subject to immediate wage withholding without further notice under chapters 26.18, 26.23, and 74.20A RCW unless the NCP, within sixty days of service of the paternity test costs in another state:

(a) Contacts DCS and signs an agreed settlement or consent order; or

(b) Files a written request for a hearing under WAC 388-14A-3120.

(6) Administrative law judges and parties must conduct administrative hearings on notices served in another state under this section under the special rules of evidence and procedure in chapter 26.21A RCW and according to chapter 34.05 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.220(2), 43.20A.550, 74.04.055, 74.08.090, 74.20.040, 74.20A.310. 07-08-055, § 388-14A-7200, filed 3/29/07, effective 4/29/07. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 34.05.220, 74.20A.055, 74.20A.056. 01-03-089, § 388-14A-7200, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-11-305 and 388-14-260.]

WAC 388-14A-7305 How do I ask DCS to do a determination of controlling order? (1) When there are multiple current support orders covering the same obligor and the same children, a party to a support order may request that the division of child support (DCS) make a determination of controlling order under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, chapter 26.21A RCW.

(2) A request for a determination of controlling order may be made at any time, unless there has already been a determination of controlling order for the same obligor and children.

(3) DCS can provide a form which contains all the required elements for a request for determination of controlling order. A request for a determination of controlling order:

(a) Must be in writing;

(b) Must contain copies of any child support orders known to the requesting party. DCS waives this requirement if DCS has a true copy of the order on file; and

(c) State the reason the requesting party thinks DCS is enforcing the wrong order.

(4) A request for determination of controlling order does not constitute a petition for modification of a support order.

WAC 388-14A-7315 When might DCS deny a request for a determination of controlling order? (1) The division of child support (DCS) may deny a request for determination of controlling order made by a party to a child support order or another state's IV-D agency for the following reasons:

(a) There is only one support order for the obligor and the children;

(b) There is no current support owing under any existing support order for the obligor and the children; or

(c) There has already been a determination of controlling order performed for the obligor and the children.

(2) The denial of a request for determination of controlling order does not:

(a) Stop the party or other state's IV-D agency from bringing an action in superior court.

(b) Give rise to a right to administrative hearing.

WAC 388-14A-7325 How does DCS notify the parties of its determination of the controlling order? (1) When the division of child support (DCS) decides that a determination of controlling order is required, DCS reviews the multiple child support orders for the same obligor and children to determine which order should be enforced.

(a) If DCS decides that the order that should be enforced is a Washington order, we immediately refer the matter to the superior court for a determination of controlling order proceeding under chapter 26.21A RCW.

(b) If we decide that the order that should be enforced is an order which was not entered in the state of Washington, DCS follows the procedures set out in subsections (2) through (4) of this section.

(2) DCS serves a notice of support debt and registration (NOSDR) as provided in WAC 388-14A-7100. DCS serves the NOSDR on the obligor, the obligee, and on all identified interested parties. The NOSDR includes a determination of controlling order.

(2009 Ed.)

(3) DCS serves the notice on the nonrequesting party by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service.

(4) DCS serves the notice on the requesting party and other interested parties by first class mail to the last known address.

WAC 388-14A-7335 What happens if someone objects to DCS' proposed determination of controlling order? (1) If any party objects to the proposed determination of controlling order issued under WAC 388-14A-7325, that objection must be in writing and signed under penalty of perjury. The division of child support (DCS) provides an objection form with the notice. The objection must contain:

(a) The reason the party objects to the determination of controlling order. Examples of reasons to object include, but are not limited to:

(i) There is another order that was not considered in making the determination;

(ii) The alleged controlling order has been vacated, suspended or modified by a later order, which is attached to the objection;

(iii) The issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction over the nonpetitioning party;

(iv) The order was obtained by fraud; or

(v) Any other legal defense available under chapter 26.21A RCW.

(b) A copy of the order which the party believes should be the controlling order, if that order was not included with the notice.

(c) A statement of facts in support of the party's objection.

(2) DCS refers the objection to the prosecuting attorney or attorney general to bring an action for determination of controlling order under RCW 26.21A.130 in the superior court.

WAC 388-14A-7345 What is the effect of a determination of controlling order on the finality of the debt calculation? As provided in RCW 26.21A.130, the final order in a proceeding for determination of controlling order operates as a final determination of the total amount of consolidated arrears and accrued interest, if any, under all of the support orders.

WAC 388-14A-7400 What can I do if I want to contest an interstate order to withhold income served on my employer? (1) RCW 26.21A.425 provides that a noncustodial parent (NCP) may contest the validity or enforcement of an income-withholding order issued in another state and received directly by an employer in this state.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 299]

(2) Acting as an administrative tribunal under chapter 26.21A RCW, the division of child support (DCS) does not have the authority to quash income-withholding orders.

(3) An NCP who seeks to contest an income-withholding order as described in subsection (1) must seek relief in the superior court under RCW 26.18.140.

WAC 388-14A-7500 What can I do if I am concerned about the release of my personal information in an interstate referral? (1) When the division of child support (DCS) refers a case to another state, DCS must provide personal information regarding the parties to that other state. DCS notifies the party residing in Washington that we are preparing to refer your case and that we must release your personal information.

(2) If you believe that it would be dangerous for DCS to release your personal information to the other state, you may make a request for nondisclosure of your personal information under RCW 26.21A.255.

(3) The way DCS handles your request for nondisclosure depends on what version of the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA) has been adopted by the state where DCS is referring your case.

(a) The state may have enacted a version of UIFSA which is similar to the version enacted by the state of Washington as chapter 26.21A RCW (known as "UIFSA 2001"); or

(b) The state may have enacted a version of UIFSA which is similar to the version which was formerly enacted by the state of Washington as chapter 26.21 RCW (known as "UIFSA 1996").

(4) If DCS is making a referral to another state which has enacted UIFSA 2001:

(a) DCS must disclose your personal information to the other state.

(b) DCS sends to the other state a declaration for nondisclosure of information which you have signed under penalty of perjury.

(c) The other state must seal your personal information and may not disclose that information to the other party or to the public unless a tribunal orders disclosure of the information in the interest of justice, after a hearing in which the tribunal considers your (or your child's) health, safety and liberty.

(5) If DCS is making a referral to another state which has enacted UIFSA 1996:

(a) DCS holds a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400.

(b) If the conference board finds that your (or your child's) health, safety or liberty would be unreasonably put at risk by the disclosure of the information, the conference board issues a nondisclosure finding.

(c) DCS does not disclose your personal information to the other state, and instead provides the other state with the nondisclosure finding.

PART H - MISCELLANEOUS

WAC 388-14A-8100 Are there special rules for setting child support for children in foster care? (1) Child support obligations for children in foster care are set according to the Washington state child support schedule (the WSCSS), found in chapter 26.19 RCW.

(2) When a child or children are placed in foster care, DCS may use the administrative process to set a support obligation:

(a) As a joint obligation for married parents who reside together;

(b) As two separate obligations for parents who do not reside together; or

(c) For just one parent, if:

(i) There is already a court or administrative order setting the support obligation of the other parent;

(ii) The other parent is dead; or

(iii) The other parent is unknown.

(3) When setting a support obligation for only one parent, DCS follows the procedure set out in WAC 388-14A-8125.

(4) When setting a joint support obligation for parents who are married and residing together, DCS follows the procedures set out in WAC 388-14A-8130.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.220(1), 74.08.090, 74.20A.055, 74.20A.056. 06-16-073, § 388-14A-8100, filed 7/28/06, effective 8/28/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 13.34.160(3), 13.34.270(7), 74.08.090, 74.13.-031(11), 74.13.350, 74.20A.030(4), and 74.20A.310. 05-12-135, § 388-14A-8100, filed 6/1/05, effective 7/2/05. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090. 01-03-089, § 388-14A-8100, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01.]

WAC 388-14A-8105 Does the cost of care affect how much child support I pay when my child is in foster care?

(1) Child support obligations for children in foster care are set according to chapter 26.19 RCW, without regard to how much the department is expending in foster care funds.

(2) The administrative law judge or review judge may not limit the noncustodial parent's support obligation to the amount the department expends each month for foster care.

WAC 388-14A-8110 What happens to the money if current support is higher than the cost of care?

(1) When the division of child support (DCS) collects child support from the parent(s) of a child in foster care, DCS sends the amounts collected to the division of child and family services (DCFS), which administers foster care funds.

(2) DCFS and its office of accounting services (OAS) apply child support payments collected by DCS.

(3) DCFS and/or OAS deposits in a trust account for the child any child support payments which they don't use to reimburse foster care expenses.

WAC 388-14A-8120 Are there special rules for collection in foster care cases?

(1) Whenever the department provides residential care ("foster care") for a dependent child or children, the noncustodial parent (NCP) or parents (NCPs) satisfy their obligation to support the child or children by paying to the department the amount specified in a court order or administrative order, if a support order exists.

(2) The division of child support (DCS) takes action under the provisions of chapters 74.20 and 74.20A RCW and this chapter to enforce and collect support obligations owed for children receiving foster care services.

(3) If, during a month when a child is in foster care, the NCP is the "head of household" with other dependent children in the home, DCS does not collect and retain a support payment if:

(a) The household's income is below the need standard for temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) (see WAC 388-478-0015); or

(b) Collection of support would reduce the household's income below the need standard.

(4) The NCP's support obligation for the child or children in foster care continues to accrue during any month DCS is prevented from collecting and retaining support payments under this section.

(5) If the department has collected support payments from the head of household during the months which qualify under section (3), the NCP may request a conference board in accordance with WAC 388-14A-6400.

(6) The NCP must prove at the conference board that the income of the household was below or was reduced below the need standard during the months DCS collected payments.

(7) If the conference board determines that DCS has collected support payments from the head of household that the department is not entitled to retain according to this section, DCS must promptly refund, without interest, any support payments, or the portion of a payment which reduced the income of the household below the need standard.

(8) This section does not apply to payments collected prior to August 23, 1983.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 01-03-089, § 388-14A-8120, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01. Formerly WAC 388-14-395.]

WAC 388-14A-8125 How does DCS complete the WSCSS worksheets when setting the child support obligation for one parent of a child in foster care? (1) When the division of child support (DCS) is setting a support obligation for only one parent, DCS follows the steps set out in this section.

(2) The noncustodial parent (NCP) for whom DCS is setting support is called the party NCP, because that parent is a party to the administrative action.

(3) The parent for whom DCS is not setting support is called the nonparty NCP, because that parent is not a party to the administrative action.

(4) DCS completes a Washington state child support schedule (WSCSS) worksheet using income information for both the party NCP and for the nonparty NCP, instead of setting support based solely on the income of the party NCP.

(5) DCS uses the best available information regarding the income of both the party NCP and the nonparty NCP, as provided in WAC 388-14A-3205.

(6) DCS does not include the income of a nonparty NCP in the worksheets if:

(a) Paternity has not been established for the child;

(b) The nonparty NCP's parental rights have been terminated; or

(c) The nonparty NCP is known but deceased.

(7) DCS determines the support obligation of the party NCP without regard to:

(a) The amount of the nonparty NCP's support obligation for the same child or children; or

(b) The cost of foster care placement, as provided in WAC 388-14A-8105.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.220(1), 74.08.090, 74.20A.055, 74.20A.-056, 06-16-073, § 388-14A-8125, filed 7/28/06, effective 8/28/06.]

WAC 388-14A-8130 How does DCS complete the WSCSS worksheets when setting a joint child support obligation when the parents of a child in foster care are married and residing together? (1) When the division of child support (DCS) is setting a joint support obligation for married parents who reside together, DCS follows the steps set out in this section for completing the worksheets under the Washington state child support schedule (WSCSS).

(2) DCS calculates each parent's income under the rules set out in WAC 388-14A-3205, and then calculates the income of the marital community by combining both parents' income in the "Father" column of the worksheet and does not put any income in the "Mother" column.

(3) DCS calculates the joint support obligation using the limitations contained in RCW 26.19.065:

(a) The joint child support obligation may not exceed forty-five percent of the net income of the marital community except for good cause.

(b) Even with the need standard limitation, there is a presumptive minimum obligation of twenty-five dollars per month per child.

(c) DCS or the administrative law judge (ALJ) may find reasons for deviation and must support those reasons with appropriate findings of fact in the support order.

(4) The support obligation in the "Father" column of the WSCSS worksheet is the joint support obligation of the parents. The support obligation in the "Mother" column of the WSCSS worksheet is irrelevant for purposes of this particular support calculation.

(5) DCS determines the joint support obligation of the parents without regard to the cost of foster care placement, as provided in WAC 388-14A-8105.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.220(1), 74.08.090, 74.20A.055, 74.20A.-056, 06-16-073, § 388-14A-8130, filed 7/28/06, effective 8/28/06.]

WAC 388-14A-8200 All Washington employers must report new hires to the Washington state support registry. (1) RCW 26.23.040 requires all employers doing business in the state of Washington to comply with the employer reporting requirements regarding new hires.

(2) The minimum information that an employer must report is the employee's name, date of birth, social security number and date of hire.

(3) An employer who submits a copy of the employee's completed W-4 form complies with the filing requirements of RCW 26.23.040(3).

(4) An employer may choose to voluntarily report the other statutory elements.

WAC 388-14A-8300 Who pays for genetic testing when paternity is an issue? (1) As provided in WAC 388-14A-3120(14), the noncustodial parent (NCP) and/or the mother of the child may request genetic testing, also called paternity tests, after the service of a notice and finding of parental responsibility.

(2) After receiving a request for paternity tests, the division of child support (DCS) must:

(a) Arrange and pay for the genetic testing, except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, with a laboratory under contract with the department; and

(b) Notify the NCP and the mother of the time and place to appear to give blood samples.

(3) After DCS receives the test results, DCS must:

(a) Mail a notice of the test results to the:

(i) NCP's last known address by certified mail, return receipt requested; and

(ii) Mother's and/or custodial parent's last known address by first class mail.

(b) Notify the NCP:

(i) Of the costs of the tests;

(ii) That an administrative order entered as a result of the notice and finding of parental responsibility will include the cost of the tests; and

(iii) That DCS may take collection action to collect the genetic testing costs twenty days after the date the NCP receives notice in Washington, or within the time specified in WAC 388-14A-7200, of the test results if the NCP fails to:

(A) Request either a hearing on the issue of reimbursement to DCS for genetic testing costs under WAC 388-14A-3120 or the initiation of a parentage action in superior court; or

(B) Negotiate an agreed settlement.

(iv) If the notice was served in another state, DCS may take collection action according to WAC 388-14A-7200.

(4) When the genetic tests do not exclude the NCP from being the father, the NCP must reimburse the department for the costs of the tests.

(5) When the paternity tests exclude the NCP from being the father, DCS must:

(a) File a copy of the results with the state center for health statistics;

(b) Withdraw the notice and finding of parental responsibility; and

(c) Request the dismissal of any pending action based on the notice and finding of parental responsibility.

(6) RCW 74.20A.056 does not require DCS to arrange or pay for genetic testing when:

(a) Such tests were previously conducted; or

(b) A court order establishing paternity has been entered.

WAC 388-14A-8400 Does the division of child support have the right to approve my child support order before the court enters it? (1) If the department is providing or has provided cash assistance to the family, parties to a court order must give the division of child support (DCS) twenty calendar days prior notice of the entry of any final order and five days prior notice of the entry of any temporary order in any proceeding involving child support or maintenance, because the department has a financial interest based on an assignment of support rights under RCW 74.20.330 or the state has a subrogated interest under RCW 74.20A.030.

(2) Either party may serve notice on DCS, by personal service on, or mailing by any form of mail requiring a return receipt to, the office of the attorney general.

(3) If you don't give sufficient notice before entering the support order, DCS may ask the prosecuting attorney or attorney general to vacate the terms of the support order.

(4) DCS or the department are not entitled to terms for a party's failure to serve the department within the time requirements for this section, unless the department proves that the party knew that the department had an assignment of support rights or a subrogated interest and that the failure to serve the department was intentional.

WAC 388-14A-8500 Can the division of child support issue subpoenas? (1) The division of child support (DCS) issues subpoenas requiring the production of documents or records, or appearance of witnesses, under RCW 34.05.588 and 74.04.290.

(2) Compliance with DCS subpoenas is enforced under RCW 34.05.588 and 74.20A.350.

WAC 388-14A-8600 Does the division of child support enforce interest on unpaid support arrears? (1) Under RCW 26.23.030(2), the division of child support (DCS) has the authority to assess and collect interest on unpaid child support that has accrued under any support order entered into the Washington state support registry (WSSR).

(2) DCS does not assess or collect interest on administrative or court orders for support entered in the state of Washington unless the amount of interest has been reduced to a judgment.

(3) DCS may assess and collect interest on support orders entered outside of Washington state as provided in WAC 388-14A-7110.

(4) DCS may update the interest assessed on a case as provided in WAC 388-14A-7120.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.21.016, 05-07-059, § 388-14A-8600, filed 3/11/05, effective 4/11/05.]

PART A—PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

WAC 388-15-001 What is the child protective services program? (1) Child protective services (CPS) means those services provided by the department of social and health services designed to protect children from child abuse and neglect and safeguard such children from future abuse and neglect, and conduct investigations of child abuse and neglect reports (RCW 26.44.020 (12) and (16)).

(2) CPS may include the following:

- (a) Investigation of reports of alleged child abuse or neglect.
- (b) Assessment of risk of abuse or neglect to children.
- (c) Provision of and/or referral to services to remedy conditions that endanger the health, safety, and welfare of children.
- (d) Referral to law enforcement when there are allegations that a crime against a child (RCW 26.44.030(4) and 74.13.031(3)) might have been committed.
- (e) Out of home placement and petitions to courts when necessary to ensure the safety of children.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-001, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-005 What definitions apply to these rules? The following definitions apply to this chapter.

"Abuse or neglect" means the injury, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, negligent treatment, or maltreatment of a child as defined in RCW 26.44.020 and this chapter.

"Administrative hearing" means a hearing held before an administrative law judge and conducted according to chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

"Administrative law judge (ALJ)" is an impartial decision-maker who presides at an administrative hearing. The office of administrative hearings, which is a state agency but not part of DSHS, employs the ALJs.

"Alleged perpetrator" means the person identified in a CPS referral as being responsible for the alleged child abuse or neglect.

"Alternative response system" means a contracted provider in a local community that responds to accepted CPS referrals that are rated low or moderately low risk at the time of intake.

"Appellant" means a person who requests an administrative hearing to appeal a CPS finding.

"Child protection team (CPT)" means a multidisciplinary group of persons with at least four persons from professions that provide services to abused or neglected children and/or parents of such children. The CPT provides confidential case staffing and consultation to children's administration.

"Child protective services (CPS)" means the section of the children's administration responsible for responding to allegations of child abuse or neglect.

"Children's administration (CA)" means the cluster of programs within DSHS that is responsible for the provision of child protective, child welfare, foster care licensing, group care licensing, and other services to children and their families.

"Department" or "DSHS" means the Washington state department of social and health services.

"Department of early learning (DEL)" means the Washington state agency responsible for licensing child care homes and child care facilities.

"Division of children and family services (DCFS)" means the division of children's administration that provides child protective, child welfare, and support services to children and their families.

"Division of licensed resources (DLR)" means the division of children's administration responsible for licensing group care and foster care facilities, and responding to allegations of abuse or neglect in such facilities.

"Finding" means the final decision made by a CPS social worker after an investigation regarding alleged child abuse or neglect.

"Founded" means the determination following an investigation by CPS that based on available information it is more likely than not that child abuse or neglect did occur.

"Inconclusive" means the determination following an investigation by CPS, prior to October 1, 2008, that based on available information a decision cannot be made that more likely than not, child abuse or neglect did or did not occur. Beginning October 1, 2008 the department will no longer make inconclusive findings, but shall retain such findings made prior to that date as provided in these rules.

"Mandated reporter" means a person required to report alleged child abuse or neglect as defined in RCW 26.44.030.

"Preponderance of evidence" means the evidence presented in a hearing indicates more likely than not child abuse or neglect did occur.

"Screened-out report" means a report of alleged child abuse or neglect that the department had determined does not rise to the level of credible report of abuse or neglect and is not referred for investigation.

"Unfounded" means the determination following an investigation by CPS that based on available information it is more likely than not that child abuse or neglect did not occur or there is insufficient evidence for the department to determine whether the alleged child abuse did or did not occur.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 08-18-040, § 388-15-005, filed 8/28/08, effective 10/1/08; 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-005, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-009 What is child abuse or neglect?

Child abuse or neglect means the injury, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation of a child by any person under circumstances which indicate that the child's health, welfare, or safety is harmed, or the negligent treatment or maltreatment of a child by a person responsible for or providing care to the child. An abused child is a child who has been subjected to child abuse or neglect as defined in this section.

(1) Physical abuse means the nonaccidental infliction of physical injury or physical mistreatment on a child. Physical abuse includes, but is not limited to, such actions as:

- (a) Throwing, kicking, burning, or cutting a child;
- (b) Striking a child with a closed fist;
- (c) Shaking a child under age three;
- (d) Interfering with a child's breathing;
- (e) Threatening a child with a deadly weapon;

(f) Doing any other act that is likely to cause and which does cause bodily harm greater than transient pain or minor temporary marks or which is injurious to the child's health, welfare or safety.

(2) Physical discipline of a child, including the reasonable use of corporal punishment, is not considered abuse when it is reasonable and moderate and is inflicted by a parent or guardian for the purposes of restraining or correcting the child. The age, size, and condition of the child, and the location of any inflicted injury shall be considered in determining whether the bodily harm is reasonable or moderate. Other factors may include the developmental level of the child and the nature of the child's misconduct. A parent's belief that it is necessary to punish a child does not justify or permit the use of excessive, immoderate or unreasonable force against the child.

(3) Sexual abuse means committing or allowing to be committed any sexual offense against a child as defined in the criminal code. The intentional touching, either directly or through the clothing, of the sexual or other intimate parts of a child or allowing, permitting, compelling, encouraging, aiding, or otherwise causing a child to engage in touching the sexual or other intimate parts of another for the purpose of gratifying the sexual desire of the person touching the child, the child, or a third party. A parent or guardian of a child, a person authorized by the parent or guardian to provide child-care for the child, or a person providing medically recognized services for the child, may touch a child in the sexual or other intimate parts for the purposes of providing hygiene, child care, and medical treatment or diagnosis.

(4) Sexual exploitation includes, but is not limited to, such actions as allowing, permitting, compelling, encouraging, aiding, or otherwise causing a child to engage in:

(a) Prostitution;

(b) Sexually explicit, obscene or pornographic activity to be photographed, filmed, or electronically reproduced or transmitted; or

(c) Sexually explicit, obscene or pornographic activity as part of a live performance, or for the benefit or sexual gratification of another person.

(5) Negligent treatment or maltreatment means an act or a failure to act, or the cumulative effects of a pattern of conduct, behavior, or inaction, on the part of a child's parent, legal custodian, guardian, or caregiver that shows a serious disregard of the consequences to the child of such magnitude that it creates a clear and present danger to the child's health, welfare, or safety. A child does not have to suffer actual damage or physical or emotional harm to be in circumstances which create a clear and present danger to the child's health, welfare, or safety. Negligent treatment or maltreatment includes, but is not limited, to:

(a) Failure to provide adequate food, shelter, clothing, supervision, or health care necessary for a child's health, welfare, or safety. Poverty and/or homelessness do not constitute negligent treatment or maltreatment in and of themselves;

(b) Actions, failures to act, or omissions that result in injury to or which create a substantial risk of injury to the physical, emotional, and/or cognitive development of a child; or

(c) The cumulative effects of a pattern of conduct, behavior or inaction by a parent or guardian in providing for the physical, emotional and developmental needs of a child's, or the effects of chronic failure on the part of a parent or guardian to perform basic parental functions, obligations, and duties, when the result is to cause injury or create a substantial risk of injury to the physical, emotional, and/or cognitive development of a child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.04.050, 74.13.031, chapter 26.44 RCW, and 2005 c 512. 07-14-011, § 388-15-009, filed 6/22/07, effective 7/23/07. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-009, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-011 What is child abandonment? (1) A Parent or guardian abandons a child when the parent or guardian is responsible for the care, education, or support of a child and:

(a) Deserts the child in any manner whatever with the intent to abandon the child;

(b) Leaves a child without the means or ability to obtain one or more of the basic necessities of life such as food, water, shelter, clothing, hygiene, and medically necessary health care; or

(c) Forgoes for an extended period of time parental rights, functions, duties and obligations despite an ability to exercise such rights, duties, and obligations.

(2) Abandonment of a child by a parent may be established by conduct on the part of a parent or guardian that demonstrates a substantial lack of regard for the rights, duties, and obligations of the parent or guardian or for the health, welfare, and safety of the child. Criminal activity or incarceration of a parent or guardian does not constitute abandonment in and of themselves, but a pattern of criminal activity or repeated or long-term incarceration may constitute abandonment of a child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-011, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-013 Who may receive child protective services? Children and families may receive child protective services when there is an allegation that a child has been abused or neglected:

(1) By a parent, legal custodian, or guardian of the child; or

(2) In a DSHS licensed, certified, or state-operated facility; or

(3) By persons or agencies subject to licensing under chapter 74.15 RCW, including individuals employed by or volunteers of such facilities.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050 and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-013, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-017 What is the responsibility of CPS regarding reports of abuse or neglect? (1) CPS must record a report from any source alleging child abuse or neglect.

(2) CPS must determine whether alleged incidents or conditions meet the definitions of child abuse or neglect in this chapter or in chapter 26.44 RCW.

(3) CPS must assess or investigate all reports of alleged child abuse or neglect that meet the definitions of child abuse or neglect contained in this chapter or in chapter 26.44 RCW.

(4) CPS must investigate anonymous reports only as provided in RCW 26.44.030(15).

(5) CPS must maintain a record of reports received that are not investigated because they do not meet the definitions of child abuse or neglect as defined in RCW or this chapter.

(6) CPS must report to law enforcement per RCW 26.44.030(4) and 74.13.031.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-017, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-021 How does CPS respond to reports of alleged child abuse or neglect? (1) CPS must assess all reports that meet the definition of child abuse or neglect using a risk assessment process to determine level of risk and response time.

(2) CPS must provide an in-person response to alleged victims and must attempt an in-person response to the alleged perpetrator of child abuse and neglect in referrals assessed at moderate to high risk.

(3) CPS may refer reports assessed at low to moderately low risk to an alternative response system.

(4) CPS may interview a child, outside the presence of the parent, without prior parental notification or consent (RCW 26.44.030(10)).

(5) Unless the child objects, CPS must make reasonable efforts to have a third party present at the interview so long as the third party does not jeopardize the investigation (RCW 26.44.030).

(6) CPS may photograph the alleged child victim to document the physical condition of the child (RCW 26.44.050).

(7) CPS must establish in procedure, timelines for the completion of investigations and standards for written findings.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050 and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-021, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-025 What special requirements must CPS follow for Indian children? (1) These special requirements apply to children defined as Indians in WAC 388-70-091.

(2) The DCFS social worker shall document in case records efforts to keep Indian families together and to avoid separating the Indian child from his parents, relatives, tribe or cultural heritage as per RCW 26.44.010 and WAC 388-70-093.

(3) In alleged child abuse and neglect situations, the DCFS social worker shall document in case records, efforts to utilize staff and services particularly capable of meeting the special needs of Indian children and their families, in consultation with the child's tribe and/or local Indian child welfare advisory committee per WAC 388-70-600 through 388-70-640.

(4) The DCFS social worker shall promptly advise the tribal council and the local Indian child welfare advisory committee that a child affiliated with the tribe is the victim of substantiated child abuse or neglect. The provisions of RCW 26.44.070, WAC 377-70-640, limiting who has access to confidential information, shall be followed in all cases.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-025, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-029 What information may CPS share with mandated reporters? (1) CPS in the conduct of ongoing case planning and consultation with those persons or agencies required to report alleged child abuse or neglect under RCW 26.44.030 and with consultants designated by CPS, may share otherwise confidential information with such persons, agencies, and consultants if the confidential information is pertinent to cases currently receiving child protective services.

(2) When CPS receives a report of alleged child abuse or neglect, mandated reporters, as identified in RCW 26.44.030, and their employees must provide upon request by CPS, all relevant records in their possession related to the child (RCW 26.44.030).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-029, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-033 When will CPS involve local community resources? (1) CPS may use local community resources to respond to reports of abuse or neglect when the department's assessment of risk determines that a community response is in the best interest of the child and family.

(2009 Ed.)

(2) CPS may involve local community resources in the planning and provision of services to help remedy conditions that contribute to the abuse or neglect of children.

(3) CPS must have community based child protective teams (CPT) available for staffing and consultation regarding cases of child abuse or neglect. CPS must present cases for staffing with the CPT in accordance with executive order 95-04 and department procedures.

(4) There are special requirements for staffing Indian children cases with the local Indian child welfare advisory committee (WAC 388-70-600).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-033, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-037 Under what circumstances may CPS place a child in out-of-home care? (1) When CPS determines that a child is at risk of serious harm in the care of the parent, legal custodian, or guardian CPS may seek an out-of-home placement for the child. Before placing a child in out-of-home care one of the following must be in place:

(a) A court order directing that the child be placed in out-of-home care (RCW 13.34.050); or

(b) A law enforcement officer placing the child in protective custody (RCW 26.44.050); or

(c) A physician or hospital administrator detaining a child and CPS assuming custody until a court hearing is held (RCW 26.44.056); or

(d) A voluntary placement agreement signed by the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian. Voluntary placements of Indian children must comply with RCW 13.34.245.

(2) CPS must attempt to place the child with a relative willing and available to care for the child, unless there is reasonable cause to believe that the health, safety and welfare of the child would be jeopardized or that efforts to reunite the parent and child will be hindered (RCW 13.34.060). If a relative appears suitable and competent with good character to provide adequate care, the background check of a relative shall be completed as soon as possible after the child is placed (RCW 74.15.030).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-037, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-041 When will CPS involve the juvenile court? CPS may file a dependency petition with the juvenile court when CPS determines that court intervention is necessary for protection of the child.

(1) CPS must file a dependency petition with the juvenile court when a child is to remain in out of home care beyond seventy-two hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) unless the child's parent or legal custodian signs a voluntary placement agreement.

(2) CPS must make reasonable efforts to notify both parents, guardians, and any legal custodian(s) that a dependency petition has been filed. The notice must inform these parties of the date, time, and location of the initial shelter care hearing and of the parent(s) and any legal custodian's legal rights. If the court has entered an order for the out-of-home placement of the child, a hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

(3) Whenever CPS assumes custody of a child from law enforcement, and places the child in out of home care, a court hearing must be held within seventy-two hours from the time the child is taken into protective custody, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

(4) Whenever CPS assumes custody from a physician or a hospital administrator and places the child in out-of-home care, a court hearing must be held within seventy-two hours from the time CPS assumes custody of the child, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-041, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-045 What are the department's responsibilities regarding notification of the parent or legal custodian in child protective services cases? CPS must notify the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a child at the earliest possible point that will not jeopardize the investigation or the safety or protection of the child when:

(1) CPS is investigating a report alleging an act or acts of child abuse or neglect, and:

(a) The child is alleged to be the victim; and/or

(b) CPS interviews a child in relation to an alleged act of child abuse or neglect.

(2) CPS takes a child into custody pursuant to a court order issued under RCW 13.34.050.

(3) CPS receives custody of a child from law enforcement pursuant to RCW 26.44.050.

(4) CPS files a dependency petition.

WAC 388-15-049 When must the department notify the parent, guardian or legal custodian of allegations of child abuse or neglect made against them? The department must notify the parent, guardian or legal custodian of a child of the allegations of child abuse or neglect made against that person at the initial point of contact with that person, in a manner consistent with the laws maintaining the confidentiality of the persons making the allegations. Investigations of child abuse and neglect should be conducted in a manner that will not jeopardize the safety or protection of the child or the integrity of the investigation process.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.04.050, 74.13.031, chapter 26.44 RCW, and 2005 c 512. 07-14-011, § 388-15-049, filed 6/22/07, effective 7/23/07. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-049, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-053 What steps must the department take to provide an opportunity for the parent(s), guardian, or legal custodian(s) to review case information? To provide an opportunity for the parent(s), guardian, or legal custodian(s) to review case information, CPS must give such person the opportunity to read or obtain relevant parts of the case record, provided the person or persons have requested access to the information and the law does not otherwise prohibit such access (RCW 13.50.100).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-053, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-057 What limitations does the department have on the disclosure of case information? Information obtained by CPS is confidential pursuant to federal and state law. The department may only disclose case record information as permitted by applicable statutes and the provisions of chapter 388-01 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-057, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

PART B—NOTIFICATION AND APPEAL OF FINDINGS

WAC 388-15-061 What is the purpose of these rules? The purpose of these rules is to describe:

(1) The procedures for notifying the alleged perpetrator of any findings made by a CPS social worker in an investigation of suspected child abuse or neglect; and

(2) The process for challenging a founded CPS finding of child abuse or neglect (RCW 26.44.100 and 26.44.125).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-061, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-065 Does CPS have to notify the alleged perpetrator of the results of CPS investigation? CPS has the duty to notify the alleged perpetrator in writing of any finding made by CPS in any investigation of suspected child abuse and/or neglect.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-065, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-069 How does CPS notify the alleged perpetrator of the finding? (1) CPS notifies the alleged perpetrator of the finding by sending the CPS finding notice via certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address. CPS must make a reasonable, good faith effort to determine the last known address or location of the alleged perpetrator.

(2) In cases where certified mailing may not be either possible or advisable, the CPS social worker may personally deliver or have served the CPS finding notice to the alleged perpetrator.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-069, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-073 What information must be in the CPS finding notice? The CPS finding notice must inform the alleged perpetrator of the department's investigative finding, including the legal basis for the findings and sufficient factual information to apprise the alleged perpetrator of the date and nature of the founded reports. The notice must also contain the following:

(1) The alleged perpetrator may submit to CPS a written response regarding the CPS finding. If a response is submitted, CPS must file this response in the department's records.

(2009 Ed.)

(2) Information in the department's records may be considered in later investigations or proceedings relating to child protection or child custody.

(3) Founded CPS findings may be considered in determining:

(a) If an alleged perpetrator is qualified to be licensed to care for children or vulnerable adults;

(b) If an alleged perpetrator is qualified to be employed by a child care agency or facility;

(c) If an alleged perpetrator may be authorized or funded by the department to provide care or services to children or vulnerable adults.

(4) The alleged perpetrator's right to challenge a founded CPS finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-073, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-077 What happens to unfounded CPS findings? (1) Beginning October 1, 2008 the department will no longer make inconclusive findings, but shall retain and destroy such findings made prior to that date as provided in these rules.

(2) An unfounded, screened out or inconclusive allegation of child abuse or neglect may not be disclosed to a child placing agency, private adoption agency, or any other provider licensed under chapter 74.15 RCW.

(3) At the end of three years from the receipt of a screened-out report that alleged child abuse or neglect, the department must destroy its records relating to that report.

(4) At the end of six years from the date of the completion of an investigation of a report of child abuse or neglect, the department must destroy records relating to unfounded or inconclusive reports, unless a prior or subsequent founded report has been received regarding the child who is the subject of the report, a sibling or half-sibling of the child, or a parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the child, before records are destroyed.

(5) The department shall retain records relating to founded reports of child abuse and neglect as required by DSHS records retention policies. If dependency is established under chapter 13.34 RCW as to a child who is subject of a report of child abuse or neglect, all records relating to the child or the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian, including any screened-out, unfounded or inconclusive reports not destroyed prior to the establishment of dependency or received after dependency was established, shall be retained as required by DSHS records retention policies regarding dependency records.

WAC 388-15-081 Can an alleged perpetrator challenge a CPS finding of child abuse or neglect? A person named as an alleged perpetrator in a founded CPS report made on or after October 1, 1998, may challenge that finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-081, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-15-085 How does an alleged perpetrator challenge a founded CPS finding? (1) In order to challenge a founded CPS finding, the alleged perpetrator must make a written request for CPS to review the founded CPS finding of child abuse or neglect. The CPS finding notice must provide the information regarding all steps necessary to request a review.

(2) The request must be provided to the same CPS office that sent the CPS finding notice within twenty calendar days from the date the alleged perpetrator receives the CPS finding notice (RCW 26.44.125).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-085, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-089 What happens if the alleged perpetrator does not request CPS to review the founded CPS finding within twenty days? (1) If the alleged perpetrator does not submit a written request within twenty calendar days for CPS to review the founded CPS finding, no further review or challenge of the finding may occur.

(2) If the department has exercised reasonable, good faith efforts to provide notice of the CPS finding to the alleged perpetrator, the alleged perpetrator shall not have further opportunity to request a review of the finding beyond thirty days from the time the notice was sent.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-089, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-093 What happens after the alleged perpetrator requests CPS to review the founded CPS finding of child abuse or neglect? (1) CPS management level staff or their designees who were not involved in the decision making process will review the founded CPS finding of child abuse or neglect. The management staff will consider the following information:

(a) CPS records;

(b) CPS summary reports; and

(c) Any written information the alleged perpetrator may have submitted regarding the founded CPS finding of abuse and/or neglect.

(2) Management staff may also meet with the CPS social worker and/or CPS supervisor to discuss the investigation/finding. After review of all this information, management staff decides if the founded CPS finding is correct or if it should be changed.

(3) Management staff must complete their review of the founded CPS finding within sixty calendar days from the date CPS received the written request for review.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-093, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-097 How does CPS notify the alleged perpetrator of the results of the CPS management review? CPS will notify the alleged perpetrator in writing of the results of the CPS management review. CPS will send this notice to the last known address of the alleged perpetrator by certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice of the

CPS management review decision will also contain information regarding how to request a hearing.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-097, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-101 What happens if CPS management staff changes the founded CPS finding? If CPS management staff changes the founded CPS finding, CPS notifies the alleged perpetrator that the department has changed the finding to either inconclusive or unfounded. CPS management staff or their designee must correct the department's records to show the changed finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-101, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-105 What happens if CPS management staff does not change the founded CPS finding? (1) If CPS management staff does not change the founded CPS finding, the alleged perpetrator has the right to further challenge that finding by requesting an administrative hearing.

(2) The request for a hearing must be in writing and sent to the Office of Administrative Hearings. WAC 388-02-0025 lists the current address.

(3) The office of administrative hearings must receive the written request for a hearing within thirty days from the date that the person requesting the hearing receives the CPS management review decision.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-105, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-109 What laws and rules will control the administrative hearings held regarding the founded CPS findings? Chapter 34.05 RCW, RCW 26.44.100 and 26.44.125, chapter 388-02 WAC, and the provisions of this chapter govern any administrative hearing regarding a founded CPS finding. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this chapter and chapter 388-02 WAC, the provisions of this chapter must prevail.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-109, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-113 What effect does a petition for dependency have on an administrative hearing? (1) If a dependency petition, based on chapter 13.34 RCW, regarding the alleged abuse or neglect has been filed, the administrative hearing must be stayed (postponed) until the superior court has entered an order and findings regarding the dependency petition.

(2) The ALJ must consider any superior court dependency findings and order relating to the alleged abuse or neglect.

(3) If the superior court has entered findings that the alleged perpetrator was the person responsible for the alleged child abuse or neglect, the ALJ must uphold the CPS finding. The ALJ must reiterate the court ruling and incorporate that ruling in the decision issued by the ALJ.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-113, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-117 What factors must the ALJ consider in order for the alleged abused and/or neglected child to testify at the administrative hearing? (1) The ALJ must give special consideration to any request by a party for the alleged abused or neglected child to testify in order to protect the physical and emotional well being of the child. For the protection of the child, the ALJ must determine:

(a) If compelling reasons exist to have the child testify. If compelling reasons do exist, the ALJ must consider alternative methods to in-person testimony by the child. Such methods may include, but are not limited to, having the child testify by telephone or videotape; or

(b) If the rights of a party (either the appellant or DSHS) would be prejudiced by not having the child testify in person. If a party's rights would be prejudiced, the ALJ must consider other methods to hear the child's testimony without having the child directly confront the alleged perpetrator.

(2) If the child does testify at the hearing, the ALJ must include a written finding in the administrative hearing decision regarding the compelling reasons for the child's testimony and what alternative methods to in-person testimony the ALJ considered.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-117, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-121 Are there issues the ALJ may not rule upon during an administrative hearing regarding a founded CPS finding? In any administrative hearing regarding a founded CPS finding, an ALJ may not rule upon the department's decisions regarding the following:

- (1) Placement of the alleged abused or neglected child;
- (2) Risk assessments used in making placement decisions regarding the alleged abused and/or neglected child; or
- (3) Service plans for the alleged perpetrator and/or alleged abused or neglected child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-121, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-125 Are the administrative hearings open to the public? Based on RCW 26.44.125, any administrative hearing regarding founded CPS findings is confidential and must not be open to the public.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-125, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-129 How does the ALJ make a decision regarding the founded CPS finding? (1) The ALJ must decide if a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record supports a determination that the alleged perpetrator committed an act of abuse or neglect of a child.

(2) If the ALJ determines that a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record supports the founded CPS finding, the ALJ must uphold the finding.

(3) If the ALJ determines that the founded CPS finding is not supported by a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record, the ALJ must remand the matter to the department for a change of the finding consistent with the ruling of the ALJ.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-129, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-133 How will the appellant be notified of the ALJ's decision? After the administrative hearing, the ALJ will send a written decision to the appellant and the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-133, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-135 What if the appellant or the department disagrees with the decision? If the appellant or the department disagrees with the ALJ's decision, either party may challenge this decision according to the procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-135, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-141 What happens if the ALJ rules against the department? If the department challenges the ALJ's decision, the department will not change the finding in the department's records and the finding will remain in effect pending the final decision from the department's challenge. If the department does not challenge the ALJ's decision, the department will correct the finding in the department's records consistent with the ALJ's decision.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-141, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-240 Family planning. (1) Family planning services are those services which enable individuals including minors and handicapped persons, to make choices regarding the number and spacing of children. These services include outreach, information, referral, support services (such as transportation and child care), counseling, education, medical care and follow-up. Family planning medical services include physical examinations, lab tests, diagnosis, treatment, surgical procedures as appropriate, drugs, supplies, devices furnished, prescribed by or under the supervision of a physician.

(2) Goals for family planning shall be limited to those specified in WAC 388-15-010 (1)(a) through (e). Also see WAC 388-15-010(2).

(3) Family planning is a federally mandated service offered to all appropriate persons in the aid to families of dependent children program and also to any appropriate individual who meets the state's financial eligibility requirements (including anyone who within three months has been an applicant for or a recipient of AFDC (see WAC 388-15-020 (1)(e)(i))). Services will be provided promptly to all of the foregoing individuals who voluntarily request such services.

(b) "Basic requirements" means the needs essential to all persons; food, clothing, personal maintenance and necessary incidentals, shelter, and household maintenance.

(57) "Resource" means an asset, tangible or intangible, owned by or available to a client which can be applied toward meeting financial need, either directly or by conversion into money or its equivalent. Any resource obtained on or after the first of the month in which eligibility is determined is called "income."

(a) "Exempt resource" is a resource which by policy is not considered in computing financial need.

(b) "Nonexempt resource" means a resource which is not exempt, and the value of which is used to determine financial need.

(58) "Restitution" means repayment to the state of assistance paid contrary to law.

(59) "Separate property" means real or personal property which was acquired by either spouse before marriage, or as a result of gift or inheritance, or was acquired and paid for entirely out of income from separate property.

(60) "Statements in support of application" means any form or document required under department regulations.

(61) "Suspension" means a temporary discontinuance of a grant payment.

(62) "Terminate" means discontinuance of payment or suspension status.

(63) "Transfer" means reassignment of a case record from one CSO to another in accordance with a client's change of residence.

(64) "Underpayment" means the amount of public assistance financial payment an eligible assistance unit did not receive, but to which the assistance unit was otherwise entitled.

(65) "Unmarried parents" means a man and a woman not legally married who are the natural parents of the same child.

(66) "Value" means the worth of an item in money or goods at a certain time.

(a) "Ceiling value" means the limitation established by the department on the gross market value of nonexempt property.

(b) "Fair market value" means the price at which a seller willing, but not required to sell, might sell to a purchaser, willing but not required to purchase.

(c) "Quick-sale value" or "forced-sale value" is the value at which property can be converted into cash almost immediately, and without waiting for "the best offer."

(67) "Vendor payment" means an authorized payment to a person, corporation, or agency for goods furnished or services rendered to an individual eligible for public assistance.

(68) "Vocational training" means an organized curriculum in a school, training unit, or training program under recognized sponsorship with a specific vocational training objective.

(69) "Warrant" means the state treasurer's warrant issued in payment of a grant.

(70) "Warrant register" means the list of warrants issued specifying payee's name, amount of payment, warrant number, and for each AFDC payment the number of matchable persons whose need is met by the grant.

(a) "Regular warrant register" means the list of regular grants paid.

(b) "Supplemental warrant register" means the list of initial, adjusting, and one-time grants paid.

PART A: GENERAL

WAC 388-25-0005 What is the legal basis for the foster care program? RCW 74.13.020 authorizes the department to provide foster care placement services.

WAC 388-25-0010 What definitions apply to the foster care program? The following definitions are important:

"Alcohol affected infant" means a child age birth through twelve months who was exposed to alcohol in utero and may demonstrate physical, behavioral, or cognitive signs that may be attributed to alcohol exposure.

"Behavior rehabilitation services" (BRS) is a comprehensive program of positive behavioral support and environmental structure in a supervised group or family living setting. Resources are designed to modify a child's behavior or to appropriately care for a child's intensive medical condition. Services are tailored to each client's needs and offered in the least restrictive setting possible.

"Child placing agency" means a private licensed or certified agency that places a child or children for temporary care, continued care, or for adoption.

"Children's administration" (CA) means the cluster of programs within the department of social and health services responsible for the provision of child welfare, child protective, child care licensing, and other services to children and their families.

"Crisis residential center" (CRC) means a secure or semi-secure facility established under chapter 74.13 RCW.

"Department" means the department of social and health services (DSHS).

"Dependency guardian" means the person, nonprofit corporation, or Indian tribe appointed by the court pursuant to RCW 13.34.232 for the limited purpose of assisting the court in the supervision of the dependency.

"Division of children and family services" (DCFS) is the division of children's administration that provides child welfare, child protective, family reconciliation, and support services to children in need of protection and their families.

"Division of licensed resources" (DLR) is the division of children's administration responsible for licensing or certifying child care homes and facilities under the authority of chapter 74.15 RCW.

"Drug affected infant" means a child age birth through twelve months who was exposed to drugs or substances in utero and demonstrates physical, behavioral, or cognitive signs that can be attributed to exposure to drugs or substances.

"Early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment" (EPSDT), also known as "healthy kids," is a federal program for preventive health care for children and teens served by medicaid. The physical/well child examination helps find health problems early and enables the child to receive treatment for concerns identified in the examination.

"Foster care" means twenty-four-hour per day temporary substitute care for the child placed away from the child's parents or guardians and for whom the department or a licensed or certified child placing agency has placement and care responsibility. This includes but is not limited to placements in foster family homes, foster homes of relatives, licensed group homes, emergency shelters, staffed residential facilities, and preadoptive homes, regardless of whether the department licenses the home or facility and/or makes payments for care of the child.

"Foster care services" for the department include:

- (1) The determination of needs of the child;
- (2) The determination of need for foster care;
- (3) The placement of the child in the type of foster care setting that best meets the child's needs;
- (4) The referral of a child to a private child placement agency or institution to meet the child's specific needs;
- (5) Medical services according to the rules of the department's medical program;
- (6) Reimbursement for the care of a child in a licensed family foster home;
- (7) The purchase of care from a licensed private child placing agency, behavioral rehabilitation services provider, or maternity home;
- (8) Supervision of the foster care placement by direct supervision through departmental social work services; or indirect supervision through evaluation of periodic reports from private child placing agencies, rehabilitation services providers, or maternity homes with which the department has contractual arrangements.

"Foster home or foster family home" means person(s) regularly providing care on a twenty-four-hour basis to one or more children in the person's home.

"Group care" means a twenty-four-hour facility licensed or certified under chapter 388-148 WAC for more than six children. The facility provides the basic needs for food, shelter, and supervision. The facility also provides therapeutic services required for the successful reunification of children with the children's family resource or the achievement of an alternate permanent living arrangement.

"Independent living services" means the program services and activities established and implemented by the department to assist youth sixteen years or older in preparing to live on their own after leaving foster care.

"Overpayment" means any money paid by the department for services or goods not rendered, delivered, or authorized or where the department paid too much for services or goods or services rendered, delivered, or authorized.

"Regional support network" is an administrative body which oversees the funding for provision of public mental health services.

"Relative" means a person who is related as defined in RCW 74.15.020 (2)(a).

"Responsible parent" means a birth parent, adoptive parent, or stepparent of a dependent child or a person who has signed an affidavit acknowledging paternity that has been filed with the state office of vital statistics.

"Responsible living skills program" means an agency licensed by the secretary that provides residential and transitional living services to persons ages sixteen to eighteen who are dependent under chapter 13.34 RCW and who have been unable to live in his or her legally authorized residence and, as a result, lives outdoors or in another unsafe location not intended for use as housing.

"Staffed residential home" means a licensed home providing twenty-four-hour care for six or fewer children or expectant mothers. The home may employ staff to care for children or expectant mothers.

"Shelter care" means the legal status of a child at entry in foster care prior to a disposition hearing before the court.

"Vendor" means an individual or corporation that provides goods or services to or for clients of the department and that controls operational decisions.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0010, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

PART B: PLACEMENT AUTHORIZATION AND PAYMENT

WAC 388-25-0015 What are the department's placement priorities? Within the limits of available financial resources, the department provides placement services to children according to the following ordered priorities:

(1) The department must place children who urgently need protection from child abuse or neglect (CA/N) if the department has legal authority for placement consistent with WAC 388-25-0025.

(2) The department may place children whose mental, emotional, behavioral or physical needs present a risk to their safety and resources do not exist within the family to provide for those needs.

WAC 388-25-0018 What is the agency's goal as to the maximum number of children who remain in foster care in excess of twenty-four months? The placement goal for the foster care program is to limit the number of all children who remain in care in excess of twenty-four months to no more than thirty-five percent of the foster care population.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.353 and 74.13.055. 03-14-062, § 388-25-0018, filed 6/25/03, effective 7/26/03.]

WAC 388-25-0020 What are the department's limitations on placement? Children's administration (CA) social workers must place only those children who meet the criteria for child protective services (CPS), family reconciliation services (FRS), or child welfare services as defined in RCW 74.13.020. Children in situations outlined below do not meet those criteria:

(1) Children whom the CA social worker determines, after assessment, will not be helped in out-of-home care.

(2) Youths ages twelve through seventeen years of age in conflict with their parents and who have not received family reconciliation services, except families receiving adoption support that have already received extensive counseling services.

(3) Youths ages twelve through seventeen years of age whose family has received family reconciliation services and parents are unwilling to have the youths at home solely due to misbehavior.

(4) Youths for whom the primary placement issue is community protection, including sexual predators covered by the sexually aggressive youth (SAY) statute, RCW 74.13.-075.

(5) Youths who are unwilling to live in the home of parents who are willing to have them at home, when this is the only presenting problem.

(6) Youths who have a mental illness and are a danger to themselves or others as defined by a mental health professional (see chapter 71.34 RCW).

WAC 388-25-0025 When may the department or a child placing agency authorize foster care placement? The department or a child placing agency may place a child in foster care only under the following circumstances:

(1) The child has been placed in temporary residential care after having been taken into custody under chapter 13.32A RCW, Family Reconciliation Act, to alleviate personal or family situations that present an imminent threat to the health or stability of the child or family.

(2) The child, the child's parent(s), or the department has filed a petition requesting out-of-home placement for the child pursuant to RCW 13.32A.120 or 13.32A.140:

(a) Placement has been approved after a fact finding hearing under RCW 13.32A.170; or

(b) A child has been admitted directly to placement in a crisis residential center (CRC), and the parents have been notified of the child's whereabouts, physical and emotional condition, and the circumstances surrounding the child's placement.

(3) A child has been placed in shelter care under one of the following circumstances:

(a) The child has been taken into custody by law enforcement or through a hospital administrative hold and placed in shelter care; or

(b) A petition has been filed with the juvenile court alleging that the child is dependent; that the child's health, safety, and welfare will be seriously endangered if not taken into custody; and the juvenile court enters an order placing the child in shelter care (see RCW 13.34.050 and 13.34.060).

(4) A juvenile court has made a determination of dependency for a child and has issued a disposition order under RCW 13.34.130 that removes the child from the child's home.

(5) A juvenile court has terminated the parent and child relationship as provided in chapter 13.34 RCW and has placed the custody of the child with the department or with a licensed or certified child placing agency.

(6) The child's parent(s) or persons legally responsible to sign a consent for voluntary placement that demonstrates agreement with an out-of-home placement as described in RCW 74.13.031.

WAC 388-25-0030 When may the department serve a child through a behavior rehabilitation services program? (1) The department may serve a child through the behavior rehabilitation services (BRS) program only when the CA social worker has assessed the child's and family's needs and determined that rehabilitative services are necessary and that this is the most appropriate placement for the child.

(2) The department may only provide financial support for a child's BRS placement when the CA social worker has determined this level of care is necessary, the placement is in a licensed or certified home or facility, the provider meets the department's qualifications, and the department has contracted with the provider for that service.

WAC 388-25-0035 What is the department's authority to remove a child from a behavior rehabilitation services placement? The department has the authority to remove the child after at least seventy-two hours notice to the child care provider. The department may waive notice in emergency situations or when a court has issued an order changing a child's placement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0035, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0040 How long may a child served by the department remain in out-of-home placement before a court hearing is held? Within seventy-two hours after a child enters care, a shelter care hearing must be held. Saturdays, Sundays and holidays are excluded in the seventy-two-hour requirement. A court order must be obtained to keep a child in shelter care for longer than thirty days.

WAC 388-25-0045 Under what circumstances may a parent sign a consent for voluntary placement of a child in foster care with the department? (1) If alternative placement resources, including social supports in the family home, have been considered and eliminated; and

(2) The department agrees that the child needs to be placed; then

(3) A child's parent may sign a consent for voluntary placement of a child in foster care (if the child is Native American refer to the Indian Child Welfare Act):

[Title 388 WAC—p. 324]

(a) If the child and a parent cannot agree to the child's return home but do agree to the child's placement out of the home; or

(b) When a parent is unable to care for a child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0045, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0050 What must a parent do to place the child in foster care with the department? A child's parent may sign a Voluntary Placement Agreement (VPA), DSHS 09-004B(X), to voluntarily place a child in foster care. The consent for voluntary placement must agree with child welfare services as described under RCW 74.13.031. The consent becomes valid when signed by a representative of children's administration.

WAC 388-25-0055 How long may a voluntary placement last with the department? A voluntary placement must last no longer than one hundred eighty days. By the end of one hundred eighty days, the child must return to the child's parent or guardian unless the juvenile court has made a judicial determination that:

(1) Return to the parent or guardian is contrary to the welfare of the child; and

(2) Continued placement in foster care is in the best interest of the child.

WAC 388-25-0060 May the department grant an exception to the length of stay in voluntary placement? (1) The DCFS regional administrator or the regional administrator's designee may grant exceptions to the one hundred eighty-day limit on voluntary placements only:

(a) If the department conducts an administrative review fulfilling the requirements of title 42, United States Code (USC), chapter 675, section 475, and the review chairperson recommends continuation of voluntary placement; and

(b) If a specific date within six months is scheduled for the child to return home; or

(c) The child is seventeen years of age or older.

(2) Exceptions which cause the child to remain in care for longer than twelve months require a court review hearing that meets the dispositional and permanency plan hearing requirements of 42 USC 675, section 475.

WAC 388-25-0065 What are the department's placement procedures for an infant residing in foster care with the infant's teen parent? (1) When a teen parent and infant reside in the same facility, the infant's "home" is considered to be the infant's parent's home. Maintenance payments for the teen parent must be increased to provide for the maintenance of the infant. A legal authorization-to-be-placed is not required in order to include an amount sufficient for the infant's maintenance or to issue medical coupons for the infant.

(2) For protection of the infant, a dependency order placing the child in temporary custody of the department may be appropriate. Even if dependency is established, a legal authorization-to-be placed must be obtained to keep the infant in out-of-home care should the teen parent placement setting change so as not to include the infant.

WAC 388-25-0070 When does the department authorize foster care payments? The CA social worker authorizes foster care payments when:

(1) The CA social worker documents the need for the type and level of foster care; and

(2) The social worker has documentation showing the department's authority for the placement of the child in foster care as required by WAC 388-25-0025.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0070, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0075 To whom does the department make payment for foster care? (1) The department makes foster care payments only to persons and agencies the department has appropriately licensed and approved, or, if not subject to licensing, the department has certified as meeting the department's licensing requirements, or:

(a) If in another state, persons or agencies meeting the requirements of that state; or

(b) If in a tribal program, persons or agencies meeting the requirements of that tribal program.

(2) The department makes payment for out-of-state foster care placements only after approval from the two state offices involved (see WAC 388-25-0440).

(3) The department may make foster care payments to licensed or certified foster parents and to persons granted dependency guardianship, if the dependency guardians are licensed or certified as foster parents (see RCW 13.34.234).

WAC 388-25-0080 Are dependency guardians who are licensed foster parents able to receive payment from more than one source? (1) When the child is eligible for foster care payments and Social Security Act, Title XVI, Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments, or Social Security Act, Title II, Survivor's Benefits, Veterans' Administration (VA) benefits, or other sources of income, the dependency guardian may choose one payment source or the other, but not more than one.

(2) If the dependency guardian chooses to receive foster care payments rather than SSI payments or another source in behalf of the child, the department places SSI benefits or the other cited benefit in an account the department may use to meet the cost of care or special needs of the child in accordance with RCW 74.13.060.

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-25-0085 What happens if the dependency guardian receives payments from more than one source? If the dependency guardian has received payment from SSI or another source as well as foster care, an overpayment has occurred. The department must recover the foster care payments made to the dependency guardian for those months for which the dependency guardian also received SSI or other benefits, as well as foster care payments, in behalf of the child.

WAC 388-25-0090 What are the department's expectations for foster care providers to whom the department makes reimbursement for services? (1) Foster care providers are responsible for:

(a) Protecting and nurturing children in a safe, healthy environment that provides positive support and supervision for the child in care;

(b) Taking the child to a physician or nurse practitioner to complete an EPSDT (early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment) examination. EPSDT exams must be scheduled within one month of initial placement and annually thereafter.

(c) Reporting to the social worker the fact that an EPSDT examination took place and if the examination showed that further treatment is needed.

(d) Observing and sharing information about the child's behavior, school and medical status, response to parental visits, and the child's growth and development with persons designated by the assigned CA social worker (see chapter 388-148 WAC).

(e) Meeting the developmental needs of the child by:

(i) Teaching age appropriate skills;

(ii) Supporting cultural identity;

(iii) Helping the child attach to caring adults;

(iv) Building self esteem;

(v) Encouraging and modeling positive social relationships and responsibilities;

(vi) Supporting intellectual and educational growth;

(f) Supporting the permanent plan for the child;

(g) Participating as a member of the child's treatment team by taking part in the development of the service plan for the child and providing relevant information about the child's progress for court hearings;

(h) Providing assistance to the social worker, when working with the biological parents is part of the service plan, by assisting in family visitation and modeling effective parenting behavior for the family.

(2) Therapeutic foster care and rehabilitative service providers are responsible for additional therapeutic services as defined in their service agreements or contracts with the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0090, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0095 What are the requirements for release of foster parents' care records? Foster parent care records may be disclosed upon request in accordance with RCW 42.17.260.

WAC 388-25-0100 What are the department's responsibilities regarding financial assistance to support children in the department's foster homes and child placing agency foster homes? (1) The department pays only for placements and plans the department has approved.

(2) The department has final responsibility for determining initial and ongoing eligibility for financial support.

(3) Payment for children served through the behavior rehabilitation services program is limited to those children who are ages six to eighteen.

(4) The department maintains control and oversight of placements and payments through written agreements with the child placing agencies, quarterly reports, and planning meetings with the agency or facility.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0100, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0105 What is the effective date for payment of foster care? (1) The department begins foster care payment for a child on the date the department or its authorized designee places the child in the licensed foster home.

(2) The department pays for each night a child resides in foster care.

WAC 388-25-0110 What is the effective date for termination of foster care payments? (1) The department ends payment on the day before the child actually leaves the foster home or facility. The department does not pay for the last day that a child is in a foster care home or facility.

(2) The department terminates family foster care payments for children in family foster care effective the date:

(a) The child no longer needs foster care; or

(b) The child no longer resides in foster care except as provided in WAC 388-25-0180; or

(c) The child reaches the age of eighteen. If the child continues to attend, but has not finished, high school or an equivalent educational program at the age of eighteen and has a need for continued family foster care services, the department may continue payments until the date the child completes the high school program or equivalent educational or vocational program. The department must not extend payments for a youth in care beyond age twenty.

(3) The department must terminate foster care payments for children in the behavior rehabilitative services program effective the date:

(a) The child no longer needs rehabilitative services; or

(b) The child is no longer served through contracted rehabilitative services program except as provided in WAC 388-25-0030; or

(c) The child reaches the age of eighteen and continues to attend, but has not finished, high school or an equivalent educational program and has a need for continued rehabilitative treatment services, the department may continue payments until the date the youth completes the high school program or equivalent educational or vocational program. The department must not extend payments for a youth in care beyond age twenty.

WAC 388-25-0115 What are the department's general standards for family foster care reimbursement? (1) The standards of payment explained in WAC 388-25-0120 through 388-25-0215 are the basis for the reimbursement rates the department provides for care of children placed in licensed foster care under the department's direct supervision and those children under the supervision of child placing agencies.

(2) The CA social worker must determine the payment plan for all types of family foster care through a review of the needs and resources of each child and the activities of the foster parent which meet those needs.

(3) The CA social worker must discuss any plan above the basic foster care rate with the foster parent so that the foster parent knows:

(a) The basis for payment;

(b) Any increased expectations of the foster parent for service delivery or participation in the case plan for the child; and

(c) The amount included for each item of the child's care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0115, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0120 What is the department's reimbursement schedule for regular family foster care? (1) The foster care basic rate reimburses the foster parent for costs incurred in the care of the child for room and board, clothing, and personal incidentals. The amount of reimbursement varies according to the age of the child.

(2) The department's children's administration may approve exceptions to the basic rates.

(3) To determine the payment rates, the department considers the child's birth date to be the first day of the month in which the child's birthday occurs.

(4) The standard reimbursement rate allowed is limited to the scheduled rate in existence for the time period(s) in which the child was placed in the foster home.

(5) The department's foster care reimbursement rates are as follows:

Effective Date*

July 2000

Age	0-5	6-11	12 & Older
Totals	$351.31	$426.81	$499.95

*Schedule will be updated to comply with mandated changes.

Totals include room and board, clothing allowance, and personal incidentals.

WAC 388-25-0125 When may the department authorize a clothing allowance for a child in out-of-home care? When the department or a contracted child placing agency places a child in foster care or, at other times, the social worker may authorize a clothing allowance to supplement a child's clothing supply, when necessary. This allowance may not exceed two hundred dollars unless authorized by the DCFS regional administrator or the regional administrator's designee. The allowance must be based on the needs of the child and be provided within available funds. Clothing purchased becomes the property of the child and will be sent with the child if placement changes.

WAC 388-25-0130 What are the standards for use and reimbursement of receiving home care? The department or a child placing agency uses receiving homes to place a child in a licensed family foster home on a temporary, emergent, or interim basis to provide sufficient time for the development of a plan. This planning includes the involvement of the child, the child's parent(s), and the child's extended family whenever possible.

(1) A DCFS regional administrator must designate family foster homes which are to receive child placements twenty-four hours per day. These homes provide care for children on a temporary, emergent, or interim basis as regular or specialized receiving homes.

(2) If the regional administrator designates a receiving home to be available on a twenty-four-hour basis, the regional administrator must specify this designation in a written agreement with the foster parent. Regular foster homes may also agree to accept children on an emergent basis.

WAC 388-25-0135 What are the types of receiving homes and what children are served in them? There are two types of receiving homes: Regular and specialized. Each type of home provides the following services:

(1) Regular receiving homes for children age birth through age seventeen; and

(2) Specialized receiving homes for children who require more intensive supervision than normally provided to children in foster care. The child may require more intensive supervision due to behavioral problems, developmental disability, emotional disturbance, erratic and unpredictable behavior or medical condition (not on personal care or medically intensive DDD program).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0135, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0140 Who decides on the number of receiving homes needed in an area? Each DCFS regional administrator must decide on the number of receiving homes needed for the regional administrators' respective geographical areas.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0140, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0145 How long may a child stay in a receiving home? (1) The department limits a child's maximum length of stay in a receiving home:

(a) Maximum length of stay for regular receiving homes is thirty consecutive days per placement;

(2009 Ed.)

(b) Maximum length of stay for specialized receiving homes is fifteen-consecutive days per placement.

(2) The DCFS regional administrator or the administrator's designee may approve extensions of a child's stay in a licensed family foster home paid at a receiving care rate beyond the limits contained in subsection (1) of this section.

WAC 388-25-0150 What are the rates for reimbursement to receiving home providers? The current reimbursement rates, effective July 1, 2000, to receiving homes are:

Type of Home	Monthly Retention Fee - Per Bed	Daily Rate per Child in Care
Regular receiving (all ages)	$51.12	$19.06
Special receiving, ages 12-17	$102.99	$26.08

WAC 388-25-0155 How are rates authorized for reimbursement to receiving home providers? (1) The DCFS regional administrator or the administrator's designee may authorize payments in excess of the standard for individual child-specific situations. The department may, within available funds, purchase clothing and personal incidentals for the child in receiving home care as needed.

(2) The department does not pay the receiving home rate if the child is expected to stay in this placement for longer than thirty days.

(3) The department may make reimbursement for assessment and interim care through the behavior rehabilitative services program.

(4) The department may, at the direction of the DCFS regional administrator or designee, use qualified, contracted behavior rehabilitative services to provide assessment or interim care for children and youth requiring that level of care as determined by the CA social worker. Unless the department and the provider make an alternate agreement, the department must pay for contracted rehabilitative services at the facility's contracted daily rate for interim or assessment care.

WAC 388-25-0160 What are the reimbursement standards for payments above the basic foster care rate?

(1) In addition to the basic rate for regular family foster care specified in this chapter, the department may reimburse an additional amount for the specialized care of a child with special needs.

(2) For the child to be eligible for payment above the basic rate, the department's social worker must assess the child's behaviors, intellectual functioning, and/or physical disabilities and determine, with the child's foster parent or prospective foster parent, what services the foster parent will provide to meet the child's special needs.

WAC 388-25-0170 What other services and reimbursements may be provided for the support of children placed in foster care by the department? (1) The department may provide additional support services and reimbursements to meet specific needs of the child in care or of the family foster home provider. The department must approve all services and reimbursement amounts in advance of the service being provided. Services are subject to the availability of funds.

(2) Additional services may include the following:

(a) Receiving home contracted and noncontracted respite - This service for receiving homes includes child care, relief care, extra supervision for special activities, as well as basic respite care. Respite is subject to the availability of respite homes. Respite contracted but not available will be reimbursed to the regular foster parent.

(b) Receiving home transportation - This service reimburses receiving home parents for selected transportation costs, such as demands for training or special appointments for a child in care. The department makes direct payment to the receiving home parent.

(c) Receiving home contracted support services - These services are intended to enhance the capacity of regular and specialized receiving homes by increasing the skills of the provider to provide a stable emergency placement. The services include consultation for obtaining resources, training, case conferences, and visits to a child's parents' home by the receiving home provider.

(d) Receiving home ancillary support services - These services are reimbursements for activities or items enabling receiving homes to provide extra services to youth in care. Examples of such supports include craft items, recreational materials, and tickets to events.

(e) Hourly or daily foster care respite - Respite care by the hour or day for receiving and regular foster homes. The department may reimburse foster parents for relief supervision or additional supervision for special activities. The department defines "day" as either an eight-hour period or a block of time, up to twenty-four hours, paid as an eight-hour day. "Light" is defined as care provision that is not significantly different from that required by a child in the general population. However, the child may require some additional attention or assistance. The appropriate rate is determined after assessing the child's care requirement as either "light" or "heavy." "Heavy" is defined as care that requires the caregiver to provide intensive attention or total assistance. Regular intervention is needed to meet the needs of the child. Children having areas of need that are "light" in one area and "heavy" in another are assessed as "moderate."

(f) Hourly or daily agency foster care respite - Respite care by the hour or day for receiving and ongoing foster homes. Care may be child specific or related to all the children in the foster home. The department reimburses agencies for purchase of relief supervision and additional supervision for special activities.

(g) Foster care clothing and personal incidentals - The monthly rate that the department may reimburse to defray the cost of clothing and personal items for children in selected circumstances when the department is not paying for the child's board and room. The department makes reimbursement to the foster home or facility.

(h) Foster care personal incidentals - An amount to reimburse foster parents for purchase of personal items needed by a child in receiving care.

(i) Foster care medical services - Reimbursement arranged and made for medical services not covered by the department's regular health insurance program (e.g., orthodontia or corrective surgery) for a child in foster care placement.

(j) Foster care physical examination/report - This medical service is used after the decision to place the child has been made and if the child is ineligible for an EPSDT examination or does not have private medical insurance. The service includes arranging and making payment for a physical examination and/or report necessary for a child in or needing foster care placement.

(k) Foster care psychological evaluation and report - The department may arrange for this service and make payment to a psychologist, psychiatrist, or other appropriate person for an evaluation of a child, parent, or foster parent. The department authorizes this service to assist in preventing a foster care placement or making an appropriate placement to implement a permanent plan.

(l) Foster care psychological treatment and report - The department arranges this service and makes payment to a psychologist, a psychiatrist, or other appropriate person for treatment of a child and/or parent(s) necessary to assist in preventing out-of-home placement, making an appropriate out-of-home placement, or implementing a permanent plan. This service includes a written report of the treatment goals, progress and outcomes.

(m) Foster care transportation - Reimbursement for the cost of transportation by car and associated expenses incurred by or on behalf of a child in foster care, receiving family reconciliation services (FRS), adoption services, or for return of a runaway. The department makes reimbursement directly to a vendor or to a foster parent.

(n) Foster care business account transportation - Reimbursement for the cost of air and rail transportation and associated expenses incurred by or on behalf of a child in foster care, receiving family reconciliation services (FRS), adoption services, or for return of a runaway. The department makes reimbursement directly to a vendor and charges expenses to the business transportation account (BTA).

(o) Parent-child visitation - Transportation and visitation services for children in out-of-home care. Services include:

- (i) Transportation to and from scheduled visits;
- (ii) Monitoring and supervision of family visits; and
- (iii) Reports regarding the nature and progress of visits and the parent/child interaction.

(3) The rates for the specialized services described in this section are contained in the following table. The rates are effective July 1, 2000.

WAC 388-25-0175 Under what circumstances may the department provide foster care for educational purposes? (1) The department may provide licensed foster care for a child with physical or mental disabilities when requested by a school district and in concurrence with the wishes of the parents, in accordance with WAC 388-25-0030.

(2) The department will not make the payment when the only need for foster care arises from the need for an education. The department will only pay the cost of foster care when one of the conditions of WAC 388-25-0030 applies.

WAC 388-25-0180 Under what circumstances may the department provide reimbursement for foster care if the child is temporarily absent from the foster home or facility? (1) When a child is temporarily absent from a foster home or a facility to which the department is paying the cost of placement, the department may pay for the actual number of days absent, if the number of consecutive days of absence does not go over fifteen days within a thirty-day period. The care provider must notify the DCFS social worker of the absence and whether the absence is planned or unplanned.

(2) The following requirements apply to planned absences:
(a) The care provider must notify the DCFS social worker at least three days in advance of any planned absence. The notification must include the following information:
(i) Child's name;
(ii) The address the child will visit;
(iii) The reason for the visit;

(a) The care provider must notify the DCFS social worker at least three days in advance of any planned absence. The notification must include the following information:
(i) Child's name;
(ii) The address the child will visit;
(iii) The reason for the visit;

(iv) The planned beginning and ending dates of absence; and

(v) A statement as to whether or not the foster care provider will hold the child's unoccupied bed for the child's return to the home or facility.

(b) A private agency must report the frequency, duration, and reasons for visits to the responsible DCFS social worker or local office in the child's quarterly progress report prepared by the private agency.

(c) When there is a planned temporary absence of a child from a foster family home supervised by DCFS, the assigned social worker will participate in the plan.

(3) The following requirements apply to unplanned absence of children from out-of-home care:

(a) The foster care provider must notify the supervising DCFS social worker by the next working day or within eight hours following the child's unplanned absence. Notification may be by a telephone call to the DCFS social worker or the worker's supervisor. The written notification must provide the following information:

- (i) Child's name, age, and home address;
- (ii) Date and time the child left the premises;
- (iii) A statement as to whether the foster care provider is willing to accept the child back into the home or facility; and
- (iv) A statement as to whether or not the foster care provider will hold the child's unoccupied bed for the child's return to the home or facility.

(b) If the foster care provider is willing to accept the child back and holds a vacant bed for the child, the department may continue payment for fifteen days from the date of the child's departure.

(c) The foster care provider must notify the DCFS social worker or local office of the date of the child's return.

(4) In addition to the preceding requirements, the department places the following limitations on the payments for temporary absences of children from foster care:

(a) A child's cumulative total of forty-five days of absence within a six-month period is the maximum allowable for payment unless the DCFS regional administrator or the administrator's designee approves an exception request.

(b) The social worker must provide adequate justification of unusual circumstances to support a request for extension of the consecutive fifteen-day and cumulative forty-five-day limitations.

WAC 388-25-0185 May the department consider foster care payments to the foster family in determining eligibility for public assistance? When the department or a child placing agency places a child in foster care with a family receiving public assistance under 42 U.S.C. 601, et seq., the department must not consider payment received by the family for the foster child in determining the family's eligibility for public assistance. The department makes payments, including special or exceptional payments, for the child's board, clothing and personal incidentals.

WAC 388-25-0190 What are the department's standards for making foster care payment to a relative providing care to the child served by department? (1) A relative caregiver, licensed or certified as a family foster home under chapter 74.15 RCW and eligible for temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) in behalf of the child, may select either foster care or TANF payments in behalf of the child, but not both.

(2) A relative caretaker who is not related to the specified degree defined in RCW 74.15.020 by blood, marriage, or legal adoption may receive foster care payments in behalf of the child if licensed as a foster family home under chapter 74.15 RCW.

(3) A relative caretaker who is not licensed or certified for foster care may apply for TANF.

WAC 388-25-0195 How does the department make reimbursement for foster care for a child served by the department who moves out-of-state with the foster family? (1) A child may join a foster family in a move out-of-state only if this move supports achieving a permanency goal as outlined in the child's case plan.

(2) The department and the foster parent must follow CA requirements when a foster child and the licensed foster family moves out-of-state. This may include obtaining permission of the court before the move.

(3) When the foster family moves to another state, the department must arrange with the other state or local social service agency to license and supervise the home and the placement (see chapter 26.34 RCW). The department does not need to make such arrangements for supervision when the family leaves this state during a vacation.

(a) Before the foster family moves from Washington to the new state, the social worker or the foster parent may request a foster home license application from the new state.

(b) If the department and the foster parent are unable to obtain an application for license before the foster family leaves Washington, the foster parent must, upon arrival in the new state of residence, contact the local foster home licensing agency in the new state to apply for a license in that state.

(4) When the foster family moves to another state with a child in the department's custody, the child's DCFS social worker must submit necessary interstate compact on the placement of children (ICPC) application forms to the department's ICPC program manager. The social worker must do this as soon as the foster family has a new residence or address in the new state. The ICPC request must ask that the new state license the family as a foster home and provide ongoing supervision of the child in care.

(5) The department continues payments at the department's current rates until the other state fully licenses the home. After receiving a copy of the foster family home license from the other state, the DCFS supervising social worker authorizes payment at the receiving state's rates (see WAC 388-25-0195).

[Title 388 WAC—p. 330]

WAC 388-25-0200 What payment procedures must the department follow for children placed across state borders? (1) When the department places a child into a new placement with a family residing and licensed in another state, the DCFS social worker must obtain the payment rates from that state. Following receipt of the other state's rates, the department will pay that state's rates in accordance with ICPC procedures when:

- (a) Those rates are higher than Washington's rates; and
- (b) The other state identifies its rates to the department.

(2) When the child welfare department in another state places a child, who is a resident of the state of Washington, in foster care the department makes foster care payments at the rate requested by that state.

(3) The CA ICPC program manager must approve out-of-state placement before the department makes payment for foster care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0200, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0205 How does the department treat the earnings of a child in foster care? The department does not include the earnings of a child in out-of-home care when considering if a child is eligible for a particular funding source nor when determining a child's possible participation in the cost of care.

WAC 388-25-0210 How does the department treat resources and unearned income of a child in foster care?

(1) Unearned income includes Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance (RSDI), veteran's benefits, railroad retirement benefits, inheritances, or any other payments for which the child is eligible, unless specifically exempted by the terms and conditions of the receipt of the income. The department must use income not exempted to cover the child's cost of care, except for resources held in trust for an American Indian child.

(2) Any person, agency or court that receives payments on behalf of a child in out-of-home care must send the payments to the department's division of child support.

PART C: PARENTAL SUPPORT OBLIGATION

WAC 388-25-0215 What is the parents' obligation to support their child in foster care? Parents of children in foster care must provide financial support for their child in accordance with rules contained in chapter 388-14A WAC.

WAC 388-25-0220 Who has authority to recommend or negotiate amounts for parental participation in the cost of foster care? (1) The department's division of child support determines the amount of parental financial support, except when stated in a superior court order. Chapter 74.20A RCW and chapter 388-14A WAC provide the authority and procedures for the division of child support to collect financial support from the parent to pay for a child in foster care.

(2) Only the division of child support may recommend to the court, on behalf of the department, to establish, raise, lower, release, or forgive support payments for a child placed in foster care. No other agency or staff may make agreements with parent(s) or their representatives regarding this matter.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0220, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0225 What cases must be referred to the division of child support (DCS)? Each case where the department participates in the payment of foster care must be referred to the division of child support, except when:

(1) Collection would not be cost effective, including placements of seventy-two hours or less;

(2) Collection is exempt by law; or

(3) A child with developmental disabilities is eligible for admission to or discharged from a residential habilitation center as defined by RCW 71A.10.020(8), unless the child is placed as a result of an action taken under chapter 13.34 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 2004 c 183, 74.20.040, and 74.13.-020. 05-06-091, § 388-25-0225, filed 3/1/05, effective 4/1/05. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0225, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0226 Does children's administration refer foster care cases to the division of child support where good cause exists? The children's administration must refer to the division of child support foster care cases in which sufficient good cause exists to not pursue collection or establish support or paternity.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 2004 c 183, 74.20.040, and 74.13.-020. 05-06-091, § 388-25-0226, filed 3/1/05, effective 4/1/05.]

WAC 388-25-0227 What constitutes good cause for not pursuing the collection or establishment of child support or paternity? Children's administration uses the following criteria to determine whether sufficient good cause exists for requesting that DCS not pursue collection or establish child support or paternity on foster care cases:

(1) It is not in the child's best interest;

(2) The parent or other legally obligated person, or the parent or other person's child, spouse, or spouse's child was the victim of the offense for which the child was committed to the custody of the juvenile rehabilitation administration (JRA) and the child is being placed directly into foster care from a JRA facility until this placement episode closes;

(3) Adoption proceedings for the child are pending in court or the custodial parent is being helped by a private or public agency to decide if the child will be placed for adoption;

(4) The child was conceived as a result of incest or rape and establishing paternity would not be in the child's best interest;

(5) The juvenile or tribal court in the dependency proceeding finds that the parents will be unable to comply with an agreed reunification plan with the child due to the financial hardship caused by paying child support. The social worker also may determine that financial hardship caused by paying child support will delay or prevent family reunification; or

(6) The custodial parent and/or the child may be placed in danger as a result of the presence of or potential for domestic abuse perpetrated by the person that the division of child support would be pursuing for collection action.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 2004 c 183, 74.20.040, and 74.13.-020. 05-06-091, § 388-25-0227, filed 3/1/05, effective 4/1/05.]

WAC 388-25-0228 Does the division of child support pursue collection or establish child support or paternity on cases in which good cause has been determined? If children's administration determines that there is good cause the division of child support does not pursue collection or establish support or paternity on a foster care case.

WAC 388-25-0229 Who may request a good cause determination? The department or a parent, including an adoptive parent or legal guardian, may initiate a request for good cause determination at any time.

WAC 388-25-0231 When may a good cause determination be requested? A request for determination of good cause may be made at any time.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 2004 c 183, 74.20.040, and 74.13.-020. 05-06-091, § 388-25-0231, filed 3/1/05, effective 4/1/05.]

WAC 388-25-0235 To whom must parents' send child support payments for their child in foster care? The parents must make all payments for the benefit of the child and/or the costs for a child in out-of-home care to the division of child support, unless a court order directs payment through a clerk of the court. A clerk of the court must send payments, under a court order, to the division of child support.

WAC 388-25-0240 Under what circumstances must child care judgment and limited power of attorney for parental support payments be assigned to the department? (1) The department must advise any person or agency having custody of the child that court ordered child support payments are to be received by the department under RCW 74.20A.030 and 74.20A.250.

(2) The person or agency having custody must acknowledge this transferred right to the department by execution of an assignment of judgment and limited power of attorney, which must remain in effect as long as the child receives foster care assistance.

PART D: VETERANS' BENEFITS

WAC 388-25-0245 Who receives veterans' benefits for children in foster care? By agreement with the regional office of the veterans' administration, the department may receive benefits on behalf of children who have been placed by court order under the department's supervision or custody.

PART E: ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

WAC 388-25-0250 What limitations exist on administrative hearings regarding foster care payments? The foster care provider, the licensed or certified child placement or care agency, and the parents are not entitled to request an administrative hearing to dispute established rates. Chapters 34.05 and 43.20A RCW, chapters 388-01 and 388-148 WAC, and this chapter provide specific rights to administrative hearings.

WAC 388-25-0255 What standards must the department apply to contracted and noncontracted service providers and vendors when the department has identified an overpayment to the provider or vendor? (1) RCW 43.20B.675 provides that all vendors have the right to request a hearing if they have a bona fide overpayment dispute. The department must offer a prehearing conference to all clients and vendors that request an administrative hearing.

(2) Contracted and noncontracted service providers may seek dispute resolution through these rules, under the Administrative Procedure Act and RCW 43.20B.675, with respect to overpayments. However, the following limitations apply:

(a) The right of vendors to seek an administrative hearing to contest alleged overpayments applies only to overpayments for goods or services provided on or after July 1, 1998.

(b) These procedures do not create a right to a hearing where no dispute right previously existed except as provided in RCW 43.20B.675.

(c) These rules limit disputes for foster family and child day care providers to alleged overpayments. Homes and facilities licensed under chapter 74.15 RCW may appeal adverse licensing actions under the provisions of chapter 388-148 or 388-155 WAC, as applicable.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0255, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0260 Do vendor overpayment rules in this chapter also apply to adoptive parents? Adoptive parents who receive assistance through the adoption support program are not vendors within the meaning of the law and do not fall within the scope of this chapter.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0260, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0265 Are there time limitations on identifying and recovering an overpayment? There is no time limit on identifying and initiating recovery of overpayments.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0265, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 332]

WAC 388-25-0270 May overpayments be waived or forgiven? Children's administration employees do not have authority to forgive or waive overpayments nor to offset overpayments from future payments. All such authority rests with the department's office of financial recovery (OFR). Designated CA staff may mediate a disputed payment with the vendor, but final approval for any negotiated proposed settlement rests with OFR.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0270, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0275 Do other governmental organizations have the right to an adjudicative hearing? Governmental organizations, including Indian Tribes, with an inter-local agreement with the department do not have the right to an adjudicative hearing through the office of administrative hearings (OAH). The disputes process described in the agreement between the entity and the department governs the resolution process.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0275, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0280 What steps must a provider or vendor take when requesting an administrative hearing in regards to an overpayment? A provider or vendor must follow the procedure indicated on the department's Vendor Overpayment Notice, DSHS 18-398A(X), dated 07/1998.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0280, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0285 When is payment due on an overpayment? When a vendor files a timely and complete request for an administrative hearing, payment on the overpayment is not due on the amount contested until the office of administrative hearings or its designee makes a final decision about the vendor's liability and any amount due.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0285, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0290 Which is the deciding authority if another WAC rule or the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act conflict with the information in this chapter? The Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW, chapter 388-02 WAC, and this chapter govern the proceeding. The provisions in this chapter govern if a conflict exists in chapter 388-02 WAC. Chapter 34.05 RCW is the overall governing authority.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0290, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0295 Who establishes guidelines to identify overpayments and to mediate overpayment disputes? (1) Each DCFS regional administrator, division of licensed resources (DLR) regional manager, or CA division director, as applicable, must establish procedures to provide for consistency in the handling of provider or vendor disputes in accordance with the children's administration prehearing procedures and this chapter.

(2) Staff at the following organizational levels will handle disputes:

(a) The DCFS regional administrator is responsible for the dispute resolution process for:

(i) All payments authorized by local office social workers;

(ii) All payments authorized under regionally managed contracts and service agreements.

(b) Regional staff are responsible for the following activities to resolve disputes:

(i) Prehearing conferences;

(ii) Mediation activities;

(iii) Administrative hearings for payments authorized in local offices; and

(iv) Administrative hearings for regionally managed contracts.

(c) For CA child care subsidy program payment disputes, DLR office of child care policy (OCCP) headquarters staff is responsible for:

(i) Prehearing conferences;

(ii) Mediation activities; and

(iii) Administrative hearings.

(d) Assigned CA division of program and policy development or office of foster care licensing (OFCL) headquarters staff, as applicable, will handle disputes arising from headquarters-managed contracts and service agreements. These staff will handle:

(i) Prehearing conferences;

(ii) Mediation activities; and

(iii) Administrative hearings.

PART F: FOSTER PARENT LIABILITY FUND

WAC 388-25-0300 What is the foster parent liability fund? (1) The foster parent liability fund authorized under RCW 74.14B.080 allows for insurance coverage for foster parents licensed under chapter 74.15 RCW. The coverage includes personal injury and property damage caused by foster parents or foster children that occurred while the children were in foster care.

(2) Such insurance covers acts of ordinary negligence but does not cover illegal conduct or bad faith acts taken by foster parents in providing foster care. Moneys paid from liability insurance for any claim are limited to the amount by which the claim exceeds the amount available to the claimant from any valid and collectible liability insurance.

WAC 388-25-0305 What is the period of coverage for foster parent liability fund? Coverage under the foster parent liability fund is for valid claims arising out of occurrences on or after July 1, 1991.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0305, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0310 Who is eligible for coverage under the foster parent liability fund? A person eligible for foster parent liability fund coverage must be licensed or certified by the department or a child placing agency under chapter 74.15 RCW to provide foster family care.

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-25-0315 What are the limits of coverage under the foster parent liability fund? The limits of coverage under the foster parent liability are:

(1) Up to twenty-five thousand dollars per occurrence. "Occurrence" means, for purposes of this chapter, the incident which led to the claim.

(2) The claim must be for a third party personal injury or property damage arising from a foster parent's act or omission in the good faith provision of family foster care and supervision of a foster child.

(3) The department must not make a payment of claims from this liability fund if the foster parent is not liable to the third party or the foster child's birth or adoptive parent or guardian because of any:

(a) Immunities;

(b) Limitations; or

(c) Exclusions provided by law.

(4) The foster parent must, first, exhaust all monetary resources available from another valid and collectible liability insurance before seeking payment from this liability fund. Coverage under this foster parent liability fund must be in excess of any other available liability insurance.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0315, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0320 The department excludes what claims from coverage under the foster parent liability fund? The department excludes the following claims from coverage under the foster parent liability fund:

(1) Claims arising as a result of a foster parent's illegal conduct or bad faith acts in providing family foster care. Such conduct or act includes but is not limited to:

(a) Loss arising out of a dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or intentional act or omission;

(b) Loss arising out of licentious, immoral, or sexual behavior;

(c) Loss occurring because the foster parent provided a foster child with an alcoholic beverage or controlled substance, other than medication prescribed for the foster child in the amounts prescribed by a physician or other licensed or authorized medical practitioner;

(d) A judgment against the foster parent based on alienation of affection.

(2) Claims based on an occurrence not arising from the family foster care relationship. This includes a foster child's act occurring while the child was temporarily assigned outside the jurisdiction of the foster parent.

(3) Claims for a bodily injury or property damage arising out of the operation or use of any motor vehicle, aircraft, or water craft owned by, operated by, rented to, or loaned to any foster parent; or

(4) Claims for an injury or damage from an occurrence before July 1, 1991.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0320, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 333]

WAC 388-25-0325 What if there are multiple claims for one occurrence under the foster parent liability fund? The twenty-five thousand dollar limitation per occurrence must apply regardless of whether there are multiple claims arising from the same occurrence. The department will consider a claim by one or more foster parents occupying the same household a single claim.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0325, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0330 May another source be used to recover on the same claim paid by the liability fund? (1) If the liability fund pays for a claim, the foster parent must transfer to the department the foster parent's rights of recovery against any person or organization against whom the foster parent may have a legal claim.

(2) The foster parent must sign and deliver to the department any documents necessary to transfer such foster parent's rights to the state.

WAC 388-25-0335 What are the department's authority and the foster parent's responsibilities regarding investigation of claims? (1) The department may conduct an investigation of any foster parent liability fund claim.

(2) The foster parent must fully cooperate with the department for any liability fund claims filed against the foster parent.

PART G: FOSTER PARENTS PROPERTY DAMAGE REIMBURSEMENT

WAC 388-25-0340 What are the department's responsibilities and limitations for reimbursement for damage or loss caused by a child in family foster care? (1) Within available funds and subject to the conditions in this chapter, the department must reimburse family foster care providers who incur property damages, losses, and emergency medical treatment expenses that are caused by the foster child or respite care child during placement in the foster family's home.

(2) For occurrences on or after October 1, 1999, the department must reimburse the foster parent for the replacement value of any property covered under and subject to the limitations of this chapter (see RCW 74.13.335).

(3) For occurrences before October 1, 1999, the department will reimburse the depreciated value of any property covered under and subject to the limitations of the this chapter.

WAC 388-25-0345 What are the eligibility requirements for reimbursements to foster parents for damages? Foster parents are eligible for reimbursement if the foster parents are:

(1) Licensed by DSHS or certified by a child-placing agency and licensed by the department under chapter 74.15 RCW; and

(2) Providing approved DSHS-funded foster care to children in the care, custody, and supervision of DSHS or a licensed child placing agency; or

(3) Providing department-approved and funded respite care to children.

WAC 388-25-0350 What are the department's reimbursement limitations? The following reimbursement limitations apply for claims:

(1) The PER OCCURRENCE/TOTAL amount the department will pay as the result of any one occurrence must not exceed:

(a) Five thousand dollars for all property damages and losses; or

(b) One thousand dollars for all personal bodily injuries regardless of the number of foster parents or their household members who sustain property damages, losses, or personal bodily injuries.

(2) PROPERTY DAMAGE ITEMS are limited to the repair/cleaning cost or the replacement value. The department pays replacement value if the item cannot be repaired or cleaned as substantiated by a detailed retailer estimate or if the repair cost goes over the replacement value of the item. The department may request the final repair bill from foster parents for payment made from estimates provided for purposes of recovery.

(3) PROPERTY LOSS ITEMS are limited to the replacement value as substantiated by the original purchase receipt, if available, and two replacement estimates or replacement purchase receipt.

(4) PERSONAL BODILY INJURY claims are limited to the costs incurred for receiving emergency medical treatment services that is not payable or required to be provided under workmen's compensation, or disability benefits law, or under any similar law, or provided under a personal/business medical plan.

(5) For POLICY DEDUCTIBLES, foster parents must disclose if their property damages or losses were paid or will be paid under their homeowner, automobile, or other personal/business insurance policy. The department will then limit reimbursement to the policy deductible.

(6) DENTAL EXPENSES are limited to costs not payable under a dental plan. The department will pay comparable replacement of dental appliances up to the maximum per occurrence.

(7) VISION EXPENSES are limited to costs not payable under a medical plan.

(8) LABOR EXPENSES are limited to out-of-pocket costs (materials), incurred by foster parents and substantiated by a retailer. Items requiring installation are to be considered reimbursable expense.

(9) VETERINARY EXPENSES are limited to initial treatment expense incurred immediately following an occurrence up to five hundred dollars. Initial treatment expense is defined as emergent care and diagnosis. The department pays replacement value for a property loss sustained not to exceed the substantiated value of the animal or maximum per occurrence, whichever is less.

WAC 388-25-0355 What types of claims are specifically excluded from reimbursement? The department specifically excludes the following from reimbursement:

(1) Claims resulting from giving alcoholic beverage or other illegal substance, including tobacco products, to a foster child or respite care child for whatever reason.

(2) Claims resulting from violation of any statute, ordinance, or regulation by the foster child or respite care child.

(3) Claims resulting from failure of the foster parent to give directions, instructions, or to provide proper or adequate supervision to the foster child or respite care child.

(4) Claims resulting from the sexual abuse, or licentious, immoral, or other sexual behavior between foster children and/or respite care children or initiated by a foster parent.

(5) Follow-up medical treatment expenses incurred by foster parents or their household member for a personal bodily injury sustained as a result of an action of the foster/respite care child.

(6) Claims for items which belong to the foster child or respite care child.

(7) Claims resulting from acts of foster children that occur while the child is on a temporary planned, unplanned, or voluntary absence from the foster home.

(8) Claims for lost wages.

(9) Claims for property damages, losses, and emergency medical treatment costs arising out of an act of the foster/respite child, with or without the permission of the foster parent, related to the ownership, operation, or maintenance of any owned motor vehicle, including surface, air, or water.

(10) Claims filed by any person other than the foster parent or their household member.

(11) Claims for unsubstantiated property damages or losses alleged to have been caused by the foster child or respite care child.

(12) Claims not received by the department's office of risk management (ORM) within a year after the date of occurrence, regardless of the reason for the delay in filing the claim.

(13) Property damages or loss of items that do not depreciate, including but not limited to antiques, heirlooms, jewelry, figurines, and coin collections.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0355, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0360 What is the procedure for filing a claim? (1) Within thirty days of an occurrence of property damage, loss, or emergency medical treatment, the foster parent must:

(a) Request from the child's social worker a Foster Parent Reimbursement Plan Claim, DSHS 18-400(X) (Rev. 6/96) to file a claim;

(b) Submit the completed claim with all requested information plus any required substantiating documentation;

(2) The claimant must include a statement documenting the reasons for the delay in filing the claim on claims filed more than thirty days after an occurrence.

(2009 Ed.)

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0360, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0365 Which office within the department determines damage reimbursement? The department's office of risk management determines whether a claim will be paid.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0365, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0370 How are exception requests made? Written requests for exceptions to the terms, limitations, and exclusions specified in the foster parent reimbursement plan must be made to the ORM, Risk Management Administrator, P.O. Box 45844, Mailstop 45844, Olympia, WA 98504-5844. The request must include the justification for the request and alternatives explored. ORM staff will discuss and review requests for exceptions with the CA foster care program manager. Staff in the CA division of program and policy development make final decisions on exceptions.

WAC 388-25-0375 What claims may the department deny? The department must deny any claim in which any material fact or circumstance of a property damage, loss, or personal bodily injury is misrepresented or willfully concealed by the foster parent. The department is entitled to recover any payments made in these cases. Claims found to be fraudulent involving theft or collusion are subject to criminal investigation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0375, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0380 What must a foster parent do to have a denied claim reconsidered? The foster parent must submit a request for reconsideration in writing within thirty days of the previous decision to the claims program manager, DSHS Office of Risk Management (ORM), P.O. Box 45844, Mailstop 45844, Olympia, WA 98504-5844. The request must include information or documentation not previously provided. All determinations made by the risk management administrator are final and do not constitute a basis for requesting or obtaining an administrative fair hearing.

WAC 388-25-0385 Will the department investigate claims? The foster parent must permit the department, upon request, to inspect the damaged property. The department retains the authority to have an inspector of its choice make a damage estimate when, and as often, as the department may require.

PART H: FOSTER PARENT TRAINING

WAC 388-25-0390 What are the training requirements for licensed foster parents? See chapter 388-148 WAC for required training for licensed foster parents.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 335]

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0390, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

PART I: JUVENILE RECORDS

WAC 388-25-0395 What are the department's responsibilities for management of juvenile records? The department must comply with the requirements of chapter 13.50 RCW for management of juvenile records. The department's responsibilities for management of those records are:

- (1) To maintain accurate information and remove or correct false or inaccurate information;
- (2) To take reasonable steps to ensure the security of records and to prevent tampering;
- (3) To make every effort to ensure the completeness of records, including action taken by other agencies with respect to matters in its files; and
- (4) To facilitate inquiries concerning access to records.

WAC 388-25-0400 To whom may the department release records? Subject to review the department may release records to the following persons:

- (1) Other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile is being pursued by the other participants or when that participant is assigned the responsibility of supervising the juvenile. "Juvenile justice or care agency" means any of the following: Police, diversion units, court, prosecuting attorney, defense attorney, detention center, attorney general, the legislative children's oversight committee, the office of family and children's ombudsman, the department and its contracting agencies, schools; persons or public or private agencies having children committed to their custody; and any placement oversight committee created under RCW 72.05.415;
- (2) A contracting agency or service provider of the department that provides counseling, psychological, psychiatric, or medical services may release to the office of the family and children's ombudsman information or records relating to the provision of services to a juvenile who is dependent under chapter 13.34 RCW. The department may provide these records without the consent of the parent or guardian of the juvenile, or of the juvenile if the juvenile is under the age of thirteen, unless otherwise prohibited by law;
- (3) A juvenile, a juvenile's parents, the juvenile's attorney, and the juvenile's parent's attorney;
- (4) Any person who has reasonable cause to believe information concerning that person is included in the record;
- (5) A clinic, hospital, or agency which has the subject person under care or treatment;
- (6) Individuals or agencies engaged in legitimate research for educational, scientific, or public purposes when permission is granted by the court.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0400, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0405 Under what circumstances may the department exclude or deny information from release unless authorized by law or court order? The department may withhold the following information unless authorized or ordered by the court:

- (1) Information determined by the department to likely cause severe psychological or physical harm to the juvenile or the juvenile's parents;
- (2) Information obtained in connection with provision of counseling, psychological, psychiatric, or medical services to the juvenile, when the services have been sought voluntarily by the juvenile, and the juvenile has a legal right to receive those services without the consent of any person or agency. Such information may not be disclosed to the juvenile's parents without the informed consent of the juvenile.

WAC 388-25-0410 What may a juvenile or the juvenile's parent do if the department denies access to information? (1) A juvenile or the juvenile's parent may file a motion in juvenile court requesting access to the records.

- (2) The person making the motion must give reasonable notice of the motion to all parties.

PART J: CHILD PLACING AGENCIES

WAC 388-25-0415 What are the department's expectations for child placing agencies (CPA) to which the department makes reimbursement for services or administrative costs? (1) The department requires that the child placing agency (CPA) be licensed or certified under chapter 74.15 RCW and have a contract with the department for the provision of child placement and related services.

- (2) The CPA must document the services provided in a format described by the department in the contract.
- (3) When the department agrees to place a child with a CPA, the licensed or certified agency must maintain the license of the foster family home and provide support services to the foster parents. The department will only place and pay for services with an agency with which the department has a contract. The agency must provide payment to the foster family in accordance with this chapter.
- (4) The department requires that private agencies bringing children from other countries for adoption remain financially responsible for the child's placement costs if the adoption is not finalized, disrupts prior to finalization, or until the child reaches age eighteen.

WAC 388-25-0420 What steps must the department take when a child whose case management responsibility remains with the department is placed in a home certified by a CPA? (1) The DCFS social worker follows regionally designated procedures for accessing services and sharing responsibility for utilizing child placing agency foster homes.

- (2) The CPA and the DCFS social worker must sign a DSHS Private Child Placing Agency Agreement/Child in Foster Care, DSHS 15-190(X). The agreement designates which agency is responsible for case management services, support activities, and specific parts of the service plan while the child is placed in the CPA foster home. The agency representative and the department social worker must review and revise the agreement by mutual agreement at the request of either party.

(3) The CPA must provide the assigned DCFS social worker with quarterly progress reports for each child placed in homes certified by the CPA.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0420, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0425 What activities must a child placing agency provide in order to receive payment from the department? The CPA must undertake the following activities to receive payment from the department:

(1) Accept referrals of children and families from the department and negotiate a child-specific written service agreement with the department;

(2) Provide child and family case management and support activities as agreed;

(3) Document the case management and support activities as described in the contract between the department and the CPA;

(4) Provide adequate quarterly progress reports to the assigned social worker for each child whose placement or other services the department financially supports.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0425, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0430 Under what conditions and how much will the department reimburse to child placing agencies licensed or certified under chapter 74.15 RCW to provide care to children? (1) The CPA representative must discuss with the department social worker for the child the roles of the agency and the department in the placement, permanency planning, and supervision of the child. The agency representative and the department social worker must also discuss services the department or the agency will provide to the child's parents and extended family.

(2) The CPA must maintain the documentation required by contract to demonstrate all services provided to children in care and for whom the department makes payment.

(3) The department will pay a monthly administrative fee to a CPA if the agency, in addition to supervision of the child, provides services to the child or the child's family.

(4) If the department wants to borrow a CPA-certified home for placement of a child, the department pays the agency for the use of the CPA's foster home with approval of the agency. The department pays the borrowed home fee described in the contract between the department and the agency.

(5) The department will pay a set monthly fee to a child placing agency for a borrowed home if the agency provides supervision services only to the child and no services to the child's family. The department pays this fee only to enable the agency to maintain the foster care license and to provide any related licensing training and support services. This activity includes maintenance of a foster care license for foster parent dependency guardianships in the agency-certified home. The following conditions also apply:

(a) The department may pay for a maximum of two borrowed beds in one foster home.

(2009 Ed.)

(b) If one CPA borrows a bed from another CPA, the department will pay only one service fee to one agency for the child. The two private agencies and the department will mutually identify and agree upon the agency the department will pay.

(6) The department may enter into contracts with CPAs to provide intensive treatment and supervision services to children with behavioral, emotional, medical, or developmental disabilities. The department will assess the needs of the child, assign a service level, and pay the rate provided in the contract.

(7) Before making payment for care of a child, the department must determine initial and ongoing eligibility for financial support, approve the placement, and approve the case plan for care of the child and services to the family. The department will document this approval through written agreements, documentary reports, and supervisory conferences with the CPA.

WAC 388-25-0435 What steps may the department take if a child placing agency does not meet the requirements of this chapter? (1) In addition to any sanctions included in the department's contract with the CPA, the DCFS social worker must stop payment of the agency administrative fees in accordance with department procedures if the department does not receive the child's report in the time frame stipulated in WAC 388-25-0425.

(2) The DCFS social worker must inform the regional licenser and contracts coordinator when there are continuing problems with reports.

PART K: INTERSTATE PLACEMENTS

WAC 388-25-0440 What are the department's obligations regarding children placed by the department between states? The department must comply with the interstate compact on the placement of children (ICPC) in the interstate placement of children (see chapter 26.34 RCW).

PART L: RELATIVE PLACEMENT

WAC 388-25-0445 Under what circumstances does the department choose a relative as the placement for a child in need of out-of-home care? (1) When the department determines that a child needs to be placed outside the home, the department must search for appropriate relatives to care for the child before considering nonrelative placements. See RCW 74.15.020 for the definition of "relative."

(2) The department reviews and determines the following when selecting a relative placement:

(a) The child would be comfortable living with the relative;

(b) The relative has a potential relationship with the child;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 337]

(c) The relative is capable of caring for the child and is willing to cooperate with the permanency plan for the child;

(d) The relative is able to provide a safe home for the child;

(e) Each child has his or her own bed or crib if the child remains in the home beyond thirty days.

(3) The department may consider nonrelated family members as potential resources, if these family members become licensed to provide foster care (see RCW 74.15.030).

WAC 388-25-0450 Under what circumstances may a relative not be considered as a placement option for a child? The department may exclude relatives who have criminal histories as included in the Adoption and Safe Families Act (ASFA) regulations.

(1) If the department finds that, based on a criminal records check, a court of competent jurisdiction has determined that the relative or a member of the household has been convicted of a felony involving:

(a) Child abuse or neglect;

(b) Spousal abuse;

(c) A crime against a child or children (including child pornography); or

(d) Crimes involving violence, including rape, sexual assault, or homicide, but not including other physical assault or battery.

(2) The department may not approve a relative placement if the department finds the relative, or a member of the household, has, within the last five years, been convicted of a felony involving:

(a) Physical assault;

(b) Battery; or

(c) A drug related offense.

WAC 388-25-0455 What sources of financial support are available to a relative caring for a child that the department has placed in the relative's home? (1) For relatives needing financial support to care for the child, the social worker may assist the family to apply for temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) through the department's local community services office (CSO).

(2) Relatives who are licensed as foster parents may choose to receive foster care payments. The relative must not receive TANF benefits in behalf of the child in care while at the same time receiving foster care payments (see RCW 74.15.030).

(3) A relative who is not a licensed foster parent at the time of placement may apply to become a foster parent as described in chapter 388-148 WAC.

(4) The relative caring for the child in out-of-home placement may apply to be the representative payee for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Administration benefits for the related child living with the relative. However, if the child is a dependent of the state of Washington with custody assigned to the department by the court, the department will usually remain the payee in behalf of the child until the dependency is dismissed.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 338]

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0455, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

FAMILY SUPPORTS AND RELATIONSHIPS

WAC 388-25-0460 How does the department treat relatives of specified degree with legally free children? (1)

The department acknowledges a continuing relationship between relatives of specified degree and children who are legally free where the relatives choose to continue a relationship with the child and the continuing relationship is in the best interest of the child (see RCW 74.15.020 for the definition of relative of specified degree).

(2) Relatives of specified degree remain legal relatives when a child becomes legally free if those relatives wish to maintain a relationship with the child and the assigned social worker determines the continuing relationship is in the best interest of the child.

(3) Department staff must treat relatives of specified degree as the department treats all relatives under the rules of ICPC and the foster care and foster family home licensing programs.

The rights of the affected relatives of specified degree do not extend beyond adoption of the child except through an open adoption agreement (see RCW 26.33.295).

STATE SUPPLEMENTARY PAYMENT PROGRAM

WAC 388-25-1000 What is the state supplementary payment (SSP) that is administered by the children's administration (CA)? The children's administration state supplementary payment (CA/SSP) is a state-paid cash assistance program for specific eligible foster children with the children's administration. The CA/SSP program may be discontinued at any time and for any reason, and is limited to the funds available to children's administration for such payments. Receipt of a CA/SSP payment in any month does not guarantee payment for subsequent months even if all eligibility criteria remain met.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.600, 74.04.620, 74.13.031, and 2002 c 371. 07-23-004, § 388-25-1000, filed 11/8/07, effective 12/9/07. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031. 05-11-016, § 388-25-1000, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-25-1010 What are the eligibility requirements for the CA/SSP program? To be eligible to receive CA/SSP, you must meet all of the following eligibility requirements:

(1) Be a child who has entered foster care (Title 45 CFR 1355.20);

(2) Already receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits or have recently received notice of an award for such benefits; and

(3) Receive behavior rehabilitation services (BRS) for out-of-home placement services for all or part of a month; and

(4) Not receive foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 670).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.600, 74.04.620, 74.13.031, and 2002 c 371, 07-23-004, § 388-25-1010, filed 11/8/07, effective 12/9/07. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031, 05-11-016, § 388-25-1010, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-25-1020 When will my eligibility for CA/SSP be determined? The SSP eligibility verification and payment process is usually completed two months following the month of your potential eligibility for an SSP payment. You will receive an SSP payment when all of the eligibility criteria (WAC 388-25-1010) have been verified. Children who have recently received notice of an award for SSI will receive a CA/SSP payment beginning the month the Social Security Administration places them into pay status, if all other eligibility criteria are met for that month.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.600, 74.04.620, 74.13.031, and 2002 c 371, 07-23-004, § 388-25-1020, filed 11/8/07, effective 12/9/07. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031, 05-11-016, § 388-25-1020, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-25-1030 How will I know if I am eligible to receive a CA/SSP payment? Once you have been identified as eligible for a CA/SSP payment, CA will send out written notification to the current SSI representative payee.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.600, 74.04.620, 74.13.031, and 2002 c 371, 07-23-004, § 388-25-1030, filed 11/8/07, effective 12/9/07. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031, 05-11-016, § 388-25-1030, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-25-1040 Can I apply for the CA/SSP program if I am not identified by CA as eligible for the CA/SSP program? You can apply through children's administration to determine your eligibility for CA/SSP, but eligibility is limited to those meeting the eligibility requirements in WAC 388-25-1010.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031, 05-11-016, § 388-25-1040, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-25-1050 What are my appeal rights if CA determines that I am not eligible for CA/SSP? In the event that your eligibility for CA/SSP payments is denied or terminated, or the amount of such payments is reduced, you have the right to file an informal complaint pursuant to RCW 74.13.045 and chapter 388-39A WAC and to request a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC, except that there is no right to a hearing if the reason for the change is lack of funding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.600, 74.04.620, 74.13.031, and 2002 c 371, 07-23-004, § 388-25-1050, filed 11/8/07, effective 12/9/07. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031, 05-11-016, § 388-25-1050, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-27-0055 What is a voluntary adoption plan? A voluntary adoption plan (VAP) occurs when a parent(s) has agreed to the termination of parental rights and has proposed a specific adoptive placement for the child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0055, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-27-0060 When must the department follow a voluntary adoption plan? The department must follow the voluntary plan for adoption if:

(1) The prospective adoptive parents chosen by the parent are properly qualified to adopt in compliance with chapter 26.33 RCW or WAC 388-25-0025; and

(2) The court determines that this adoption is in the best interest of the child; and

(3) The VAP is proposed to the department before a petition for termination of the parent-child relationship has been filed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0060, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0065 Will the department consider a proposed voluntary adoption plan if a termination petition has already been filed at the request of the department? If the attorney general's office has filed a termination petition at the request of the department, the department must consider, but is not required to support, an adoptive resource proposed by the parent.

WAC 388-27-0070 What will the department do to implement a voluntary adoption plan? The department must take the following actions to implement a VAP:

(1) The assigned CA social worker must work with the parent to determine whether the parent will identify a preferred adoptive placement by name.

(2) If a parent identifies a preferred placement, the assigned social worker must advise the parent and the proposed adoptive parent(s) that an adoption home study must be completed. CA, a private agency, or a qualified individual may complete the adoptive home study (see RCW 26.33-190).

(3) If the proposed adoptive parent chooses to have an adoptive home study completed by a private agency or qualified individual, CA retains the right to do its own home study if CA has concerns regarding the recommendations contained in the nondepartmental home study.

(4) Using approved procedures for determining suitability to be an adoptive resource, the child's social worker and the social worker for the adoptive family must determine:

(a) That the preplacement investigation and report, as described in RCW 26.33.190, on the proposed family results in approval of the adoptive placement; and

(b) That this placement is in the best interest of the child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0070, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0075 What must the department do to maintain confidentiality of adoption records? (1) In accordance with chapter 26.33 RCW all records and information the department obtains in providing adoption services are confidential.

(2) To ensure that the department case file of an adopted child remains confidential, the CA local office must send the child's case file to CA headquarters for archiving upon the issuance of the decree of adoption.

WAC 388-27-0080 Under what conditions may the department reveal identifying information about the birth parent? When providing reports or information on the adoptive child to the prospective or actual adoptive parents, the department must not reveal the identity of the birth parents of the child, unless:

(1) There is a written open communication agreement where the identity of the birth parent(s) is known;

(2) The birth parent is already known to the adoptive family; or

(3) The birth parent has selected the adoptive family, and the birth parent's identity has already been established.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0080, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0085 What must the department, private practitioner, or child placing agency do to locate records and information relating to the birth parents and the child? (1) The social worker, child placing agency, or another assigned worker must make the following efforts to locate records and information relating to the birth parent and the child:

(a) Ask the birth parents, the child, and relatives, when available, for names of all:

(i) Physicians;

(ii) Treatment agencies for medical, psychological, or educational services that have seen the parent or child for examination, evaluation, or treatment; and

(iii) Schools attended by the child and the parent.

(2) The social worker, contractor, or another assigned worker must contact the children's administration Supplemental Security Income (SSI) facilitator to obtain medical, psychological, or social information gathered during any SSI screen or application process.

(3) The social worker, contractor, or another assigned worker must document efforts, including unsuccessful efforts, made to obtain information by:

(a) Placing the gathered records in the child's case file;

(b) Documenting the information on the child's health and education record;

(c) Documenting on the health and education passport in CAMIS;

(d) Maintaining copies of written requests to service providers for records in the child's case file;

(e) Documenting efforts on the Child's Medical and Family Background Report, DSHS 13-041(X), unless the information is already documented on the health and education passport in CAMIS.

WAC 388-27-0090 What information must the department or child placing agency provide to prospective adoptive parents about the child that is being considered for adoption? (1) The department or the child placing agency must provide a medical report containing all known and available information concerning the mental, physical, and sensory handicaps of an adopted child, or a child placed for adoption, to the adoptive or prospective adoptive parents under the authority of RCW 26.33.020, 26.33.340, 26.33.343 and 26.33.350.

(2) The department or the child placing agency worker must provide the Child's Medical and Family Background Report, DSHS 13-041(X), to the prospective adoptive parents. This report must include documentation of efforts made to obtain medical and social information on the child and birth parents.

(3) The department must provide a social history report on the child and birth family that includes, at a minimum in accordance with RCW 26.33.380:

(a) Circumstances of the child's birth;

(b) Chronological report of how the child came to be available for adoption;

(c) The child's placement history;

(d) All court reports pertaining to the dependency and custody of the child;

(e) The child's education history, including school reports and records; and

(f) The child's psychological and psychiatric reports and recommendations.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0090, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0100 What information must the department or child placing agency provide to prospective adoptive parents about the birth parent(s) of a child being considered for adoption? The department or the child placing agency must provide a nonidentifying report on the birth parent(s) that includes any known and available social and medical information on the child's birth parent(s) in accordance with RCW 26.33.380. This information regarding the birth parent(s) must include but is not limited to:

(1) First names only;

(2) Current age of parent(s);

(3) Heritage, including nationality, ethnic background, and race;

(4) General physical appearance, including height, weight, color of hair, eyes, and skin or other information of a similar nature;

(5) Education, including the number of years of school completed at the time of the adoption, and school report (if still attending), but not the name or location of the school;

(6) Religion or religious heritage;

(7) Occupation, but no specific titles or places of employment;

(8) Talents, hobbies, and special interests;

(9) Family history and circumstances leading to the adoption;

(10) Medical and genetic history including:

(a) Available psychiatric, psychological, and substance abuse reports;

(b) Available medical history including any acute or chronic conditions;

(c) Available medical history of the birth and pregnancy, including any known substance abuse by the birth mother while pregnant.

(11) First names other children of birth parents by age and sex;

(12) Available medical histories of other children;

- (13) Extended family of birth parents by age and sex;
- (14) Medical histories of extended family members, if known;
- (15) The fact of the death, age at death, and cause, if known, of a birth parent;
- (16) Photographs of child and birth family, if available; and
- (17) Name of agency or individual that facilitated the adoption.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0100, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0105 When will the department, private practitioner, or child placing agency disclose required information? The department, private practitioner, or child placing agency must disclose available child and birth family medical and social background information prior to the finalization of an adoption. Disclosure may occur:

- (1) Prior to the placement of a child into an adoptive home; or
- (2) At the time when a placement is identified as an adoptive placement.

WAC 388-27-0110 How does an adoptee, adoptive parent, or birth parent obtain nonidentifying information from an archived adoptive record? (1) Nonidentifying information about the birth parents, adoptee, or adoptive parent may be shared with persons identified in RCW 26.33.020 and 26.33.340.

(2) If the adoption was facilitated through the department, a request for information must be made in writing to the state office of Children's Administration, P.O. Box 45713, Olympia WA 98504-5713. The state office is the sole source for releasing information from an archived record.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0110, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0115 What is the department response to requests for public disclosure of an adoptive record? The department complies with the requirements for disclosure of public records in RCW 26.33.340.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0115, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

Part A: General

WAC 388-27-0120 What is the legal basis of the department's adoption support program? The legal authorities for the program are:

- (1) Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 74.13.100 through 74.13.159;
- (2) Chapter 42 United States Code (U.S.C.) 671-675; and
- (3) The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) policy guidelines for states to use in determining a child's eligibility for Title IV-E adoption assistance (contained in DHHS Policy Manual).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371 § 202(8), 42 U.S.C. 671-675. 04-06-024, § 388-27-0120, filed 2/23/04, effective 3/25/04.

WAC 388-27-0125 What is the purpose of the adoption support program? The adoption support program encourages the adoption of special needs children in the legal custody of public or private nonprofit child care agencies who would not be adopted if support for the child was not available.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0125, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0130 What definitions apply to the adoption support program? The following definitions apply to this chapter:

"Adoption" means the granting of an adoption decree consistent with chapter 26.33 RCW.

"Adoption support agreement" means a written contract between the adoptive parent(s) and the department that identifies the specific support available to the adoptive parent(s) and other terms and conditions of the agreement.

"Adoption support cash payment" means negotiated monthly cash payments paid pursuant to an agreement between the adoptive parent(s) and the department after the child's adoption.

"Applicant" means a person or couple applying for adoption support on behalf of a child the person or couple plans to adopt.

"Child placing agency" means a private nonprofit agency licensed by the department under chapter 74.15 RCW to place children for adoption or foster care.

"Department" means the department of social and health services.

"Extenuating circumstances" means a finding by an administrative law judge or a review judge that one or more certain qualifying conditions or events prevented an otherwise eligible child from being placed on the adoption support program prior to adoption.

"Medical services" means services covered by medic-aid (and administered by the medical assistance administration) unless defined differently in the adoption support agreement.

"Negotiation" means the process of working toward an agreement between the department and the adoptive parent on the terms of the adoption support agreement, including any amount of monthly cash payment.

"Nonrecurring costs" means reasonable, necessary, and directly related adoption fees, court costs, attorney fees, and other expenses the adoptive parent incurs when finalizing the adoption of a special needs child. Total reimbursement from the department may not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars.

"Placing agency" means the agency that has the legal authority to place the child for adoption. This may be the department or a private nonprofit child placing agency.

"Program" means the department's adoption support program.

"Reconsideration" means the limited state-funded support available to an eligible child whose adoption was finalized without a valid adoption support agreement in place.

"Resident state" (for purposes of the child's medicaid eligibility) means the state in which the child physically resides. In some cases this may be different from the state of the parent's legal residence.

"Special needs" means the specific factors or conditions that apply to the child and that may prevent the child from being adopted unless the department provides adoption support services. See WAC 388-27-0140 for a detailed description of the factors or conditions.

Part B: Eligibility

WAC 388-27-0135 What are the eligibility criteria for the adoption support program? For a child to be eligible for participation in the adoption support program, the department must first determine that adoption is the most appropriate plan for the child. If the department determines that adoption is in the child's best interest, the child must:

(1) Be less than eighteen years old when the department and the adoptive parents sign the adoption support agreement;

(2) Be legally free for adoption;

(3) Have a "special needs" factor or condition according to the definition in this rule (see WAC 388-27-0140); and

(4) Meet at least one of the following criteria:

(a) Is in state-funded foster care or child caring institution or was determined by the department to be eligible for and likely to be so placed (For a child to be considered "eligible for and likely to be placed in foster care" the department must have opened a case and determined that removal from the home was in the child's best interest.); or

(b) Is eligible for federally funded adoption assistance as defined in Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, the Code of Federal Regulations, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services establishing guidelines for states to use in determining a child's eligibility for Title IV-E adoption assistance.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371 § 202(8), 42 U.S.C. 671-675, 04-06-024, § 388-27-0135, filed 2/23/04, effective 3/25/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 01-08-045, § 388-27-0135, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0140 What constitutes a "special needs"? To be considered a child with special needs the following three statements must be true:

(1) One or more of the following factors or conditions must exist:

(a) The child is of a minority ethnic background;

(b) The child is six years of age or older at the time of application for adoption support;

(c) The child is a member of a sibling group of three or more or of a sibling group in which one or more siblings meets the definition of special needs;

(d) The child is diagnosed with a physical, mental, developmental, cognitive or emotional disability; or

(e) The child is at risk for a diagnosis of a physical, mental, developmental, cognitive or emotional disability due to prenatal exposure to toxins, a history of serious abuse or neglect, or genetic history.

(2) The state has determined that the child cannot or should not be returned to the home of the biological parent; and

(3) The department or child placing agency that placed the child for adoption must document that except where it would be against the best interests of the child the department or child placing agency had made a reasonable but unsuccessful effort to place the child for adoption without adoption support.

WAC 388-27-0145 What constitutes a reasonable effort to place a child for adoption without adoption support? Reasonable effort to place a child without adoption support includes:

(1) A child registered for three months with the Washington adoption resource exchange (WARE) without finding an adoptive family; or

(2) A child for whom a documented, formal agency search was conducted for three months, without finding a family who would adopt the child without adoption support services; or

(3) A child for whom the placing agency's selected prospective adoptive family is unable to adopt the child without assistance from the adoption support program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 01-08-045, § 388-27-0145, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0150 Under what circumstances would it be against the best interest of the child to search for a family that could adopt the child without adoption support? Searching for a family that could adopt the child without adoption support is against the best interest of the child when:

(1) A foster parent desires to adopt a child who:

(a) Has been in the foster parent's home for six months or more before that child becomes legally free for adoption; and

(b) The child has close emotional ties to the current foster parent which, if severed, may cause emotional damage to the child; and

(c) The foster parent is identified as the adoptive parent of choice by the department or agency staff having responsibility for the child (RCW 26.33.190 and 74.13.109(4)); or

(2) The adoptive parent is a relative of specified degree as defined in RCW 74.15.020 (4)(a) and has an approved adoptive home study per RCW 26.33.109 and 74.13.109(4).

WAC 388-27-0155 Are there other factors affecting a child's eligibility for adoption support? (1) A child is not eligible for adoption support program services and payments if the adopting parent is the birth parent or stepparent of the child.

(2) The department must not use the adoptive parents' income as a basis for determining the child's eligibility for the adoption support program, however, the department must consider income and other financial circumstances of the adopting family as one factor in determining the amount of any adoption support cash payments to be made. (See WAC 388-27-0230.)

Part C: Application

WAC 388-27-0160 How does a prospective adoptive parent apply for adoption support services? There are two ways a prospective adoptive parent (applicant) may apply for adoption support services:

(1) An applicant may apply through the social worker of the child to be adopted. The social worker must:

(a) Register the child with the adoption support program; and

(b) Submit the applicant's completed program application along with a completed worksheet used to assist the family and the department in determining services and amount of monthly cash payment, if needed, based on the needs of the child and family circumstances.

(2) An applicant may also apply directly to the adoption support program for adoption support services if:

(a) The child does not have an assigned social worker; or

(b) The applicant and the social worker have a dispute regarding the content of the program application.

WAC 388-27-0165 What requirements apply to an application for ongoing adoption support? (1) The application must include a copy of the child's medical and family background report signed by the adoptive parent(s) (DSHS 13-041 minus the attachments). It must also include copies of medical and/or therapist reports that document the child's physical, mental, developmental, cognitive or emotional disability or risk of any such disability.

(2) If the applicant is requesting a cash payment, the applicant and the department must mutually determine both the type and amount according to the requirements of WAC 388-27-0230.

(3) If the applicant is requesting reimbursement of non-recurring costs, the applicant must include this request in the application. (See WAC 388-27-0380 and 388-27-0385 for the type and amount of expenses the department may reimburse.)

(4) The applicant must furnish a copy of the applicant's most recently filed federal income tax return. If the applicant is not required to file a federal income tax return, the applicant must submit a financial statement with the applicant's adoption support application.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371 § 202(8), 42 U.S.C. 671-675. 04-06-024, § 388-27-0165, filed 2/23/04, effective 3/25/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0165, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

(2009 Ed.)

Part D: Agreement

WAC 388-27-0170 What is the nature and purpose of an adoption support agreement? The adoption support agreement is a binding contract between the adoptive parent(s) and the department that identifies the terms and conditions that both parties must follow.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0170, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0175 What must be included in an adoption support agreement? The adoption support agreement must:

(1) State the amount of cash payments (if any) the department must make to the adoptive parent(s) on behalf of the child;

(2) Include an itemized list of the additional services (including Title XIX medicaid and Title XX social services) for which the child is eligible;

(3) Contain statements that:

(a) Assure that participation in the adoption support program must continue, as long as the child is eligible, regardless of where the adoptive family resides;

(b) Inform the adoptive parent(s) of specific circumstances that may warrant further renegotiation and adjustment of the payment as agreed to by the adoptive parents and the department;

(c) Inform the adoptive parent(s) that the agreement must be reviewed every five years. Terms of the agreement may be modified according to WAC 388-27-0200;

(d) Inform the adoptive parent(s) that the department may suspend a child from the program within thirty days of any changes in circumstances (of the child or family) that affect the child's eligibility for program payments if the adoptive parent has failed to notify the department of the changes; and

(e) Define the circumstances under which the agreement may be terminated.

(4) Be signed by all relevant parties before the final adoption decree is issued (45 C.F.R. Sec. 1356.40).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371 § 202(8), 42 U.S.C. 671-675. 04-06-024, § 388-27-0175, filed 2/23/04, effective 3/25/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0175, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0180 If the adoptive family resides in or moves to another state, how is the child's participation in the adoption support services affected? If the adoptive family resides in or moves to another state the child's participation in the adoption support program is affected as follows:

(1) Social services (Title XX) become the responsibility of the new state of residence.

(2) Medical benefits (Title XIX medicaid) remain the responsibility of Washington state if the child is not eligible for federal Title IV-E adoption assistance. However, Washington state is no longer responsible if the child becomes eligible for the resident state's Title XIX program through the Interstate Compact on Adoption and medical assistance or other eligibility factors.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 347]

(3) Title XIX medicaid benefits become the responsibility of the resident state if the child receives Title IV-E adoption assistance.

(4) Medicaid benefits included in Washington state's medicaid plan, but not included in the resident state's plan, must remain the responsibility of Washington state and subject to Washington state plan limits.

(5) Washington state remains responsible for any cash payments made to the adoptive parent(s) on behalf of the child or any nonmedicaid counseling that has been preauthorized by the adoption support program per WAC 388-27-0245.

WAC 388-27-0185 When does the adoption support agreement become effective? (1) Unless otherwise stated in the adoption support agreement, an adoption support agreement takes effect on the first day of the month following the month in which the court finalizes the adoption.

(2) If the child to be adopted needs support benefits prior to finalization, the assigned regional adoption support program manager may arrange an early effective date. To be eligible for an early effective date, the applicant must:

(a) Have an adoption support agreement signed by all parties;

(b) Sign the child's medical and family background report (DSHS 13-041) and a statement of the applicant's intention to adopt; and

(c) Have the department's designee sign "an exception to policy" statement.

WAC 388-27-0190 If the department implements adoption support services prior to the adoption, may the adoptive parent(s) continue to receive department-funded foster care payments while also receiving adoption support payments? (1) The adoptive parent(s) may not continue to receive department-funded foster care payments for a child while also receiving adoption support payments for the same child.

(2) If the adoptive parent(s) receives department-funded foster care for the child to be adopted, the department's social worker assigned to the child must terminate that coverage on the last day of the month preceding the month in which the adoption support becomes effective.

(3) Foster care payments are paid after the month of service. Adoption support payments are paid prior to the month.

(4) The adoptive parent(s) may not receive foster care payments and adoption support cash payments for the same child for the same month.

(5) If the adoptive parent is adopting a relative child and has been receiving a nonneedy relative grant the adoptive parent must notify the community services office financial services specialist that the adoption has been finalized. The adoptive parent may not receive both the grant and adoption support payments for the same month for the same child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371 § 202(8), 42 U.S.C. 671-675. 04-06-024, § 388-27-0190, filed 2/23/04, effective 3/25/04.]

WAC 388-27-0195 May the adoptive parent(s) change the benefits contained in the adoption support program? The adoptive parent may submit a written request asking that the department renegotiate the benefits offered in the adoption support agreement whenever either the family's economic circumstances or the condition of the child changes.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371 § 202(8), 42 U.S.C. 671-675. 04-06-024, § 388-27-0195, filed 2/23/04, effective 3/25/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0195, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0200 When may the department modify the terms of the adoption support agreement? The department's adoption support program may modify the terms of an adoption support agreement:

(1) At the request of the adoptive parent(s);

(2) When specific circumstances warrant renegotiation and adjustment of monthly cash payment as agreed to by the adoptive parents and the department;

(3) When the department loses contact with the adoptive parent(s);

(4) When the child is placed outside of the adoptive parents' home at department expense;

(5) If the adoptive parent is no longer providing for the child's daily care and living expenses; or

(6) If the adoptive parent fails to notify the department's adoption support program within thirty days of a change of circumstance which affects the adopted child's continuing eligibility for adoption support program cash payments or services.

WAC 388-27-0205 Does the adoptive parent need to let the department know if the family's circumstances change? The adoptive parent must inform the department's adoption support program of circumstances that might make the parent and the adoptive child either ineligible for adoption assistance payments or benefits or eligible for adoption assistance payments or benefits in different amounts. Such changes include but are not limited to:

(1) A significant change in the child's condition;

(2) A change in the marital status of the adoptive parent(s);

(3) A change in the legal or physical custody of the child;

or

(4) A change in the adoptive family's mailing address.

WAC 388-27-0210 Under what circumstances would the adoption support agreement be terminated? The adoption support agreement is terminated according to the terms of the agreement or if any one of the following events occurs:

(1) The child reaches eighteen years of age; (if a child is at least eighteen but less than twenty-one years old and is a full-time high school student or working full time toward the completion of a GED (high school equivalency) certificate and continues to receive financial support from the adoptive parent(s), the department may extend the terms of the adoption support agreement until the child completes high school or achieves a GED. Under no circumstances may the department extend the agreement beyond the child's twenty first birthday.) Adoption support benefits will automatically stop on the child's eighteenth birthday unless the parent(s) requests continuation per this rule and have provided documentation of the child's continuation in school. To prevent disruption in services the parent should contact the adoption support program at least ninety days prior to the child's eighteenth birthday if continued services are to be requested.

(2) The adoptive parents no longer have legal responsibility for the child;

(3) The adoptive parents are no longer providing financial support for the child;

(4) The child dies; or

(5) The adoptive parents die. (A child who met federal Title IV-E eligibility criteria for adoption assistance will be eligible for adoption assistance in a subsequent adoption.)

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371 § 202(8), 42 U.S.C. 671-675. 04-06-024, § 388-27-0210, filed 2/23/04, effective 3/25/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0210, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

Part E: Services

WAC 388-27-0215 What benefits may the adoptive parent or child receive from the adoption support program? The adoption support program may provide one or more of the following benefits:

(1) Reimbursement for nonrecurring adoption finalization costs;

(2) Cash payments;

(3) Payment for counseling services as preauthorized (see WAC 388-27-0255 for conditions and terms); or

(4) Medical services through the department's medicaid program.

WAC 388-27-0220 What factors affect the amount of adoption support benefits a child receives? The department bases the amount of support it provides on the child's needs and the family's circumstances, but limits the cash payment to an amount that does not exceed the foster care maintenance rate the child would receive if the child was in a foster family home. Specific circumstances as agreed to by the adoptive parent and the department in the agreement, may warrant future renegotiation and adjustment of the payment determined in an assessment of the child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371 § 202(8), 42 U.S.C. 671-675. 04-06-024, § 388-27-0220, filed 2/23/04, effective 3/25/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0220, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0230 How does the department evaluate a request for adoption support monthly cash payments? (1) The amount of the adoption support monthly cash payment is determined through the discussion and negotiation process between the adoptive parents and representatives of the department based upon the needs of the child and the circumstances of the family. The payment that is agreed upon should combine with the parents' resources to cover the ordinary and special needs of the child projected over an extended period of time. Anticipation and discussion of these needs are part of the negotiation of the amount of the adoption assistance payment.

(2) Family circumstances to be considered include:

(a) Size, including the adopted child;

(b) Normal living expenses, including education and childcare expenses;

(c) Exceptional circumstances of any family member;

(d) Income;

(e) Resources and savings plans;

(f) Medical care and hospitalization needs;

(g) Ability to purchase or otherwise obtain medical care; and

(h) Additional miscellaneous expenses related to the adopted child.

(3) The department and the adoptive parents will jointly determine the level of adoption support cash payments needed to meet the basic needs of the child without creating a hardship on the family.

(4) Under no circumstances may the amount of the adoption support monthly cash payment the department pays for the child exceed the amount of foster care maintenance payment that would be paid if the child were in a foster family home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371 § 202(8), 42 U.S.C. 671-675. 04-06-024, § 388-27-0230, filed 2/23/04, effective 3/25/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0230, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0250 What specific department requirements apply to medical services? (1) While an adoption support agreement remains in effect, the department's medical program rules apply to the adopted child.

(2) The department must make all medical payments according to established department procedures and directly to the child's physician(s) or service provider(s).

WAC 388-27-0255 What specific department requirements apply to outpatient counseling and/or mental health services not covered by medicaid? When the department's adoption support program directly pays for a child's counseling and/or mental health services, the following conditions apply:

(1) The adoptive parent must obtain written authorization from the department's adoption support program before the service is rendered;

(2) The adoptive parents' primary health care coverage must be billed prior to billing the department's adoption support program;

(3) The department will pay the adoption support program's authorized rate minus any payment made by the primary (and other) insurer;

(4) The department may grant verbal authorization for no more than three counseling sessions prior to providing the required written authorization;

(5) The child's therapist or other treatment provider must submit a written treatment plan prior to authorization for continued treatment;

(6) The department may authorize counseling as follows:

(a) Up to six hours of outpatient counseling per month for up to twelve months; or

(b) Up to a total of twenty hours per quarter when critical need warrants;

(7) The department may extend the authorization for counseling (beyond the initial time period authorized) upon receipt of an updated treatment plan and documentation supporting the need for additional treatment from the treatment provider and a parent's request for continuing counseling (DSHS 10-214);

(8) The department may authorize this service for only one provider at a time unless a second provider is required for a different service.

(9) The department encourages adoptive parents to seek an annual assessment of the functioning of the adoptive child within the family to determine if there are mental health services needed to help maintain and/or strengthen the adoptive placement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0255, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0260 If the adoptive parent requests residential placement services for the parent's adopted child, what department requirements apply? (1) The adoption support program must not pay for residential treatment placements. See RCW 74.13.080 and WAC 388-25-0025.

(2) If the adoptive parent requests residential treatment services for a child:

(a) For treatment of a mental illness, the department must refer the family to the local regional support network (RSN);

(b) If a diagnosis of physical, mental, developmental, cognitive or emotional disability is present, department staff must refer the child to the division of developmental disabilities (DDD) to determine eligibility of services for which the child might be eligible; or

(c) For reasons other than treatment of mental illness or developmental disabilities, department staff must refer the adoptive parent to the child welfare services intake at the local office of the division of children and family services (DCFS).

(3) The adoption support program manager may assist the adoptive parent in arranging residential service for the child but must not be responsible for the child's placement or for the payment of the residential service.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0260, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0265 What are the consequences of the department placing the adopted child in foster care, group care, or residential treatment? (1) If a child is on active status with Washington state's adoption support program and the department places the child in foster care, group care, or residential treatment, the department may report to the division of child support that good cause exists for not pursuing collection of support payments.

(2) The department must review the adoption support agreement and must discontinue any cash payments to the adoptive parent during the child's out-of-home placement unless the adoptive parent(s) documents continuing expenses directly related to the child's needs.

Part F: Review

WAC 388-27-0275 When does the department review an adoption support agreement? (1) The adoption support program must review an agreement:

(a) At least once every five years; or

(b) When the adoptive parents request a change in the terms of the agreement.

(2) The department may review an adoption support agreement:

(a) Whenever variations in medical opinions, prognosis, or costs warrant a review; or

(b) At the department's request.

WAC 388-27-0280 What is involved in the review process? (1) The review process provides an opportunity for the adoptive parent to describe any changes in family circumstances or the child's condition and request a change in the terms of the adoption support agreement.

(2) The adoptive parent must provide supporting documentation upon department request.

(3) The department may request a copy of the adoptive parents' most recently filed IRS form 1040. If not required to file a federal tax return the adoptive parent(s) must submit a financial statement upon department request.

(4) The adoptive parent must request that the child's medical provider complete an EPSDT (early periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment) exam and submit a report of the results to the adoption support program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0280, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0285 What is the department's responsibility when the adoptive parent(s) requests a review of the adoption support agreement? The adoption support program must initiate a review of the adoption support agreement no later than thirty days after receiving the adoptive parents' request for review of the agreement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0285, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0290 What if the department does not respond to a request for a review of an adoption support agreement within thirty days? If the department does not respond to an adoptive parent's request for a review of an adoption support agreement within thirty days, the adoptive parent has the right to an administrative hearing (see RCW 74.13.127).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0290, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0295 What requirements apply to the review of a support agreement? (1) The adoptive parent and the department must negotiate any changes in the agreement that result from a review;

(2) Changes in the terms of the agreement may be retroactive to the date the department received the written request; and

(3) If the department modifies the terms of the agreement, the adoptive parent and the department must sign a new agreement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0295, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0300 After a review, what if the department and the adoptive parent cannot agree on the terms of the adoption support agreement? If the department proposes service changes without the adoptive parent's consent, the department must give written notification of those changes. In that notice, the department must clearly state the department's reasons for the proposed changes and inform the adoptive parent of the adoptive parent's right to an administrative hearing.

Part G: Post-Finalization Requests for Assistance

WAC 388-27-0305 May an adoptive parent apply for adoption support services after the adoption has been finalized? Federal and state laws and rules require that a prospective adoptive parent must apply for adoption assistance prior to adopting a special needs child and that the prospective adoptive parent must have a valid adoption support agreement, signed by all parties, before the adoption is finalized.

However, both state and federal governments have recognized that in some situations there may have been extenuating circumstances that prevented the child from being placed on the adoption support program prior to adoption. For these situations separate remedies have been created depending on which eligibility criteria are met by the child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0305, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0310 If a child met federal Title IV-E eligibility for adoption assistance before the adoption, but was not placed on the adoptive support program, what may the adoptive parent do after adoption finalization to obtain adoption support services for the adopted child? For a child who met the Title IV-E eligibility criteria for adoption assistance prior to adoption, federal rules allow for a possible finding of extenuating circumstances through an administrative hearing process. In these situations the adoptive parent must request a review by an administrative law judge or a review judge to obtain an order authorizing the department to enter into a post-adoption agreement to provide adoption support services to a special needs child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0310, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0315 What constitutes "extenuating circumstances"? An administrative law judge or a review judge may make a finding of extenuating circumstances if one or more of the following situations exist:

(1) Relevant facts regarding the child, the biological family or child's background were known by the agency placing the child for adoption and not presented to the adoptive parents prior to the legalization of the adoption;

(2) The department denied adoption assistance based upon a means test of the adoptive family;

(3) Erroneous determination or advice by the department or private child placing agency that a child is ineligible for adoption assistance; or

(4) Failure by the placing agency to advise adoptive parents of the availability of adoption assistance.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0315, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0320 What is the effective date of an adoption support agreement that results from a finding of extenuating circumstances? The effective date of an adoption support agreement the department and the adoptive parent have entered into as a result of a finding of extenuating circumstances may not be before the date the department received the written request from the adoptive parent for participation in the adoption support program. Under no circumstances may the department back date an adoption support agreement more than two years from the date of an order of an administrative law judge or review judge authorizing the department to enter an adoption support agreement after finalization of the adoption.

WAC 388-27-0325 If a child did not meet federal Title IV-E eligibility for adoption assistance before the adoption, what may the adoptive parent do after adoption finalization to obtain adoption support services for the adopted child? For children ineligible for federal Title IV-E Adoption Assistance, the department may provide limited support through the state-funded adoption support reconsideration program.

WAC 388-27-0330 What is the adoption support reconsideration program? (1) The adoption support reconsideration program allows the department to register an eligible adopted child for limited state-funded support (see RCW 74.13.150).

(2) The reconsideration program provides for payment of medical and counseling services to address the physical, mental, developmental, cognitive, or emotional disability of the child that resulted in the child's eligibility for the program.

(3) There is a twenty thousand dollar per child lifetime cap on this program.

(4) The program requires the adoptive parent and the department to sign an adoption support reconsideration agreement specifying the terms, conditions, and length of time the child will receive limited support.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0330, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0335 How does a child qualify for the adoption support reconsideration program? To be eligible for the adoption support reconsideration program, a child must:

(1) Have resided, immediately prior to adoption finalization, in a department funded pre-adoptive placement or in department funded foster care;

(2) Have a physical or mental handicap or emotional disturbance that existed and was documented before adoption or was at high risk for future physical or mental handicap or emotional disturbance due to conditions to which the child was exposed before adoption;

(3) Reside in Washington state with an adoptive parent who lacks the financial resources to care for the child's special needs; and

(4) Be covered by a primary basic health insurance program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0335, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0340 How does an adoptive parent apply for the adoption support reconsideration program? To apply, the adoptive parent must complete an application for adoption support reconsideration and attach:

(1) A written cost estimate of the child's proposed corrective-rehabilitative services;

(2) A current medical evaluation of the child including the cause(s) of the condition requiring corrective-rehabilitative services;

(3) A written statement explaining the child's current medical and counseling needs;

(4) A written statement giving the department permission to request and review pre-adoption information held by the adoption agency facilitating the child's adoption; and

(5) A copy of the adoptive parents' most recently filed IRS 1040 federal income tax form.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0340, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0345 What types of services does the department provide through the adoption support reconsideration program? The reconsideration program provides some support for counseling and medical services needed to treat the child's qualifying condition.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0345, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 352]

WAC 388-27-0350 What department requirements apply to adoption support reconsideration services? (1) The department must authorize, in writing, any services paid by the adoption support reconsideration program before the services are provided.

(2) The department must base the authorized level of service on the child's needs and must limit the level of service to established program rates.

(3) The department must limit medical services to those services that would be available to the child if the child were eligible for medicaid coverage.

(4) The department must make no cash payments to the family.

(5) The department must make payment directly to the provider of the authorized service.

(6) The adoptive parents' basic health insurance must provide primary coverage and must be used before billing the reconsideration program. The adoption support reconsideration program must be the secondary insurer.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0350, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0355 Under what conditions or circumstances would a child become ineligible for the adoption support reconsideration program? (1) Eligibility for adoption support reconsideration services ends according to the terms of the adoption support reconsideration agreement or when the child:

(a) Reaches eighteen years of age;

(b) Is eligible for the federal Title IV-E adoption assistance program and has been placed on that program;

(c) Has received twenty thousand dollars in department paid medical, dental, and/or counseling services; or

(d) Is no longer the financial responsibility of the adoptive parent(s).

(2) If the parent dies, the reconsideration agreement becomes invalid. Neither the agreement nor the child's eligibility for the program are transferable to a subsequent adoption.

(3) The department may suspend services when the child:

(a) Resides outside the adoptive parents' home for more than thirty continuous days; or

(b) Is no longer covered by primary basic health insurance.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0355, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0360 What happens if the state no longer funds the adoption support reconsideration program? If the department no longer has funds available for the program, a child's participation in the program will cease. The department will terminate the adoption support reconsideration agreement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0360, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

(2009 Ed.)

Part H: Appeal Rights

WAC 388-27-0365 Does an adoptive parent have the right to appeal department decisions regarding adoption support issues? (1) An adoptive parent has the right to an administrative hearing to contest the following department actions:

(a) Denial of a child's initial eligibility for the adoption support program or the adoption support reconsideration program;

(b) Failure to respond with reasonable promptness to a written application or request for services;

(c) Denial of a written request to modify the level of payment or service in the agreement;

(d) A decision to increase or decrease the level of the child's adoption support payments without the concurrence of the adoptive parent(s);

(e) Denial of a request for nonrecurring adoption expenses; or

(f) Termination from the program.

(2) The adoptive parent must submit a request for an administrative hearing to the office of administrative hearings within ninety days of receipt of the department's decision to deny a request or failure to respond to a request.

(3) The office of administrative hearings must apply the rules in WAC 388-27-0120 through 388-27-0390 as they pertain to the issues being contested.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0365, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0370 What information about adoption support agreements may be used in an administrative hearing? Adoption and adoption support files are confidential, and information contained in those files may not be disclosed without the consent of the person who is the subject of the file. By requesting an administrative hearing to challenge a department decision relating to adoption support the adoptive parent is agreeing that the department may release factual information about the case during the course of the proceedings. Actions taken by the department and decisions by administrative law judges or review judges in adoption support cases which do not directly involve the case being heard may not be cited or relied upon in any administrative proceeding (RCW 26.33.340 and 74.04.060).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0370, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

Part I: Nonrecurring Costs

WAC 388-27-0375 Will the department reimburse an adoptive parent for nonrecurring adoption expenses? The department will agree to reimburse some or all of an adoptive parent's nonrecurring adoption expenses if:

(1) The child has a qualifying factor or condition identified in WAC 388-27-0140(1);

(2) Washington state has determined that the child cannot or should not be returned to the home of the child's biological parent; and

(3) Except where it would be against the best interest of the child, the department or a child placing agency has made a reasonable but unsuccessful effort to place the child with appropriate adoptive parents without the benefit of adoption assistance; and

(4) The child has been placed for adoption according to applicable state and local laws or Tribal laws.

WAC 388-27-0380 What types of nonrecurring adoption expenses will the department reimburse? The department may reimburse:

(1) Court costs directly related to finalizing an adoption;

(2) Reasonable and necessary adoption fees;

(3) Reasonable and necessary attorney fees directly related to finalizing an adoption; and

(4) Costs associated with an adoption home study, including:

(a) Health and psychological examination;

(b) Placement supervision before adoption;

(c) Transportation, lodging, and food costs incurred by the adoptive parent(s) and child during pre-placement visits; and

(d) Other costs directly related to finalizing the legal adoption of the child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0380, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0385 Is there a limit to the amount of nonrecurring adoption expenses that the department will reimburse? Department reimbursement of nonrecurring adoption expenses must not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars per child.

WAC 388-27-0390 How does an adoptive parent get reimbursed for nonrecurring adoption expenses? (1) Before the adoption is finalized, the adoptive parent must sign an agreement with the department specifying the nature and amount of nonrecurring adoption expenses. This agreement may be part of an adoption support agreement or it may be a separate agreement specific to the reimbursement for nonrecurring adoption finalization costs. The department will make no reimbursement payments unless such an agreement exists.

(2) Upon finalization of the adoption, the adoptive parent may request reimbursement. A copy of the adoption decree and documentation supporting actual costs incurred must accompany the request for reimbursement.

(3) The department must reimburse documented actual costs or the amount specified in the signed agreement, whichever is less.

(4) The department will not reimburse nonrecurring adoption expenses that are reimbursable from other sources (for example: IRS, military, or the adoptive parent's employer).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0390, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

HOME SUPPORT SERVICES
BY CHILDREN'S ADMINISTRATION*WAC 388-32-0005 What are home support services?

The department's children's administration (CA) offers home support services (HSS), within available funds, to provide supportive, culturally appropriate, skill-building services in partnership with CA's client families. Only CA staff may provide the services in the family home or other appropriate setting and must provide the services as part of a comprehensive case plan. The department does not contract for this service.

(1) CA typically offers HSS during the normal work week but may provide HSS on weekends and beyond normal working hours.

(2) Child and family resource specialists (CFRS) have primary responsibility to provide HSS, which may include the following services:

(a) Teach and demonstrate basic physical and emotional care of children, including child development and developmentally appropriate child discipline;

(b) Teach homemaking and other life skills, including housekeeping, nutrition and food preparation, personal hygiene, financial budgeting, time management and home organization, with consideration given to the family's cultural environment;

(c) Help families obtain basic needs by networking families with appropriate supportive community resources; e.g., housing, clothing and food banks, health care services, and educational and employment services;

(d) Provide emotional support to families and build self-esteem in family members; aid family members in developing appropriate interpersonal and social skills;

(e) Provide client transportation/supervision of visits on a nonroutine, short-term basis;

(f) Observe family functioning, assisting the social worker to identify family strengths as well as areas needing intervention or improvement, providing reports and assessments to the assigned social worker on the family's progress in skill-building, family functioning, and other areas defined in the case plan;

(g) Participate in child protection teams, multidisciplinary teams, interagency case staffings, and family intervention meetings;

(h) Provide court testimony when requested by the attorney representing DSHS or when subpoenaed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-32-0005, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-32-0010 What are the eligibility criteria for HSS? Children's administration uses the following criteria to determine eligibility for HSS, within available funding:

(1) The family must be a current recipient of CA services.

(2) The case plan for the family must document the need for teaching, skill-building, community networking, or visitation.

(3) HSS does not provide long-term maintenance for a family, is not a housekeeping service, and is not interchangeable with CHORE services, which are provided by the department's aging and adult services administration.

HOME BASED SERVICES BY COMMUNITY PROVIDERS

WAC 388-32-0015 What are home based services and under what circumstances may the department provide the services to the child's parent or relative caregiver? (1) Home based services (HBS) are designed to prevent or improve conditions that may result in out-of-home placement. Children's administration (CA) provides these services in the context of a comprehensive case plan. CA purchases services from community providers within available funds for this purpose. Services may include:

(a) Basic goods and services; e.g., food, clothing, shelter, furniture, health care, utilities, transportation
(b) Paraprofessional services; e.g., parent aides;
(c) Parent training;
(e) In-home counseling or assistance to prevent out-of-home placement.

(2) For a family or individual to receive HBS, the following conditions must be met:

(a) The client has a case open for child protective services (CPS), child welfare services (CWS), or family reconciliation services (FRS);
(b) The department may provide services to the family of origin, relatives, or foster families when the intent of HBS is to maintain or reunify a permanent or long-term stable home for the child;

(c) The family is willing and able to cooperate with HBS services; and

(d) In the assigned social worker's judgment, the child may be safely maintained in the home or be safely returned to the home within the next three months with provision of HBS.

(e) The family is willing and able to cooperate with HBS services; and

(d) In the assigned social worker's judgment, the child may be safely maintained in the home or be safely returned to the home within the next three months with provision of HBS.

FAMILY RECONCILIATION SERVICES

WAC 388-32-0020 What is the purpose of the family reconciliation services program? (1) The purpose of family reconciliation services (FRS) is to achieve reconciliation between the parent and child, to reunify the family, and to maintain and strengthen the family unit to avoid the necessity of out-of-home placement of children.

(2) The department provides these services, within available funds, to:

(a) Alleviate personal or family situations that present a serious and imminent threat to the health or stability of the child or family and that do not meet the definition of child abuse or neglect; and

(b) Maintain families intact whenever possible.

WAC 388-32-0025 Who may receive FRS services?

(1) CA provides FRS to adolescents, thirteen through seventeen years of age, and their families, in instances where the adolescent has runaway and/or is in conflict with his/her family. These populations are defined as follows:

"Families in conflict" means families in which personal or family situations present a serious and imminent threat to the health or stability of the child, which may include an at-risk youth, or family.

"Runaways" means youths who are absent from home for a period of time without parental permission. Services are to actual runaways and not to threatened runaways, unless the threatened runaways meet the definition of families in conflict.

(2) FRS is not provided for any of the following situations, unless the family is seeking an at-risk youth or a child-in-need-of-services (CHINS) family assessment:

(a) The identified youth has not reached his/her thirteenth birthday, or the youth is eighteen years of age or older;

(b) Chronic or long-term multiproblem situations requiring long-term interventions;

(c) Custody and marital disputes unless the dispute creates a conflict between the child and parent with physical custody;

(d) Families currently receiving counseling services related to the parent-child conflict/relationship from other agencies;

(e) Child abuse and neglect cases, unless those cases meet the definition of family in conflict; or

(f) Youth receiving foster care or group care services or follow up to those services.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 13.32A RCW, RCW 74.08.090, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371. 03-19-051, § 388-32-0025, filed 9/11/03, effective 9/11/03. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-32-0025, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-32-0030 What FRS services does the department provide? The assigned social worker provides services to develop skills and supports within families to resolve family conflicts, achieve a reconciliation between parent and child, and to avoid out-of-home placement. The services may include, but are not limited to, referral to services for suicide prevention, psychiatric or other medical care, or psychological, financial, legal, educational, or other social services, as appropriate to the needs of the child and family. Typically FRS is limited to a ninety-day period. Children's administration (CA) provides intake/assessment services (IAS).

(1) Youth and/or their families who call or self-present at children's administration central intake or a local office requesting FRS services must be provided assistance in contacting the appropriate children's administration's intake services to make a formal request for FRS services.

(a) The FRS social worker must contact the family within twenty-four hours of their assignment to the case, to schedule an appointment to begin the phase I family interview process. These FRS phase I sessions are intended to defuse the immediate potential for violence, assess problems, and explore options leading to problem resolution.

(b) CA or its contractors may provide FRS phase II crisis counseling services.

(2) Families eligible for FRS phase II crisis counseling are those who, in the opinion of the family and the CA social worker, require more intensive services than those provided through phase I services.

(a) Families must make a commitment to participate in the FRS phase II crisis counseling service and must not concurrently be receiving similar counseling services through other agencies or practitioners. At a minimum, there must be a parent and a child willing to participate. FRS phase II crisis counseling assists the family to develop skills and supports in order to resolve conflicts.

(b) FRS phase II crisis counseling services may not exceed twelve hours within forty-five days unless it is provided using a CA approved model that is based on research demonstrating effectiveness.

(c) The assigned counselor helps the family develop skills and supports to resolve conflicts. The counselor may refer to resources including medical, legal, ongoing counseling and CPS for problem resolution.

(d) FRS phase II crisis counseling services are available a maximum of twice in a lifetime for any one family. The family must include a parent/guardian who has legal custody of the youth.

- 388-39A-055 What rights do complainants have under the complaint resolution process?
 388-39A-060 Do constituent relations staff only handle complaints?

WAC 388-39A-010 What definitions apply to the department's child welfare services complaint resolution process? "Children's administration" (CA) means the cluster of programs within the department of social and health services responsible for the provision of child welfare, child protective, child care licensing, and other services to children and their families.

"Complaints office" or "constituent relations" means the office within the children's administration responsible for handling complaints regarding child welfare services.

"Division of children and family services" (DCFS) means the division within the children's administration responsible for administering child welfare services programs.

"Division of licensed resources" (DLR) means the division within the children's administration responsible for licensing or certifying child care homes and facilities under the authority of chapter 74.15 RCW.

WAC 388-39A-030 How does the children's administration resolve complaints? Constituent relations staff assist clients, foster parents, and other affected individuals in resolving complaints and grievances regarding children's administration (CA) policies and procedures, or the application of a policy or procedure related to CA programs. Under RCW 74.13.045, constituent relations staff may inquire into, determine fact, and facilitate the resolution of disputes and complaints.

WAC 388-39A-035 What is the process for resolving complaints? (1) After making a reasonable effort to resolve a complaint with a social worker or licensor, a client, foster parent, or community member may contact the CA constituent relations office to request assistance.

(2) Constituent relations staff will assist the complainant in reviewing the complaint with the assigned social worker or licensor to arrive at a resolution.

(3) If the complaint cannot be resolved with the social worker or licensor, constituent relations staff will assist the complainant in reviewing it with the supervisor of the social worker or licensor for resolution.

(4) If the complaint cannot be resolved with the supervisor, constituent relations staff will assist the complainant in reviewing the complaint with the supervisor's area manager or regional manager for resolution.

(5) If the complaint cannot be resolved with the area manager or regional manager, constituent relations staff will assist the complainant in reviewing it with the area manager's regional administrator or the regional manager's office chief.

(6) If CA constituent relations staff determines at any time during the complaint resolution process that the administration's actions were consistent with agency policy and procedures based on complete and correct information regarding the complainant's situation, the constituent relations staff will terminate the resolution process and will close the complaint.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.045. 01-06-041, § 388-39A-035, filed 3/5/01, effective 4/5/01.]

WAC 388-39A-040 What happens if the complaint is not resolved at the regional level? (1) When constituent relations staff and local CA staff have made a reasonable attempt to resolve the complaint, the regional administrator, the office chief, or the constituent relations supervisor may convene a panel to review the complaint and make recommendations to the CA assistant secretary for resolution.

(2) The regional administrator or office chief and the constituent relations supervisor will determine the membership of the panel.

(3) The panel must consist of the following members:

(a) The regional administrator's or office chief's designee who must not be from the administrative unit where the complaint originated;

(b) A constituent relations staff person;

(c) A person who is not a CA employee; and

(d) If the complainant is a foster parent, a foster parent who is not involved in the complaint.

(4) The panel may examine the complaint, the complainant's file, and any additional relevant information, including information from the complainant, CA staff, or others.

(5) The panel must submit written findings and recommendations to the CA assistant secretary who will issue a final, written decision.

WAC 388-39A-045 Does the complaint resolution process apply to all complaints? (1) The complaint resolution process does not apply to complaints for which the complainant has the right to seek resolution through judicial review or an adjudicative proceeding under Title 13, 26, or 74 RCW.

(2) The process also does not apply to contract rate setting, contested rate payments, exceptional cost rates, disputes or decisions regarding written personal service contracts, or financial agreements.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.045. 01-06-041, § 388-39A-045, filed 3/5/01, effective 4/5/01.]

WAC 388-39A-050 Is the complaint resolution process the only way to resolve a complaint? Participation in the complaint resolution process does not affect the right of any person to seek other remedies.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.045. 01-06-041, § 388-39A-050, filed 3/5/01, effective 4/5/01.]

WAC 388-39A-055 What rights do complainants have under the complaint resolution process? (1) Under RCW 74.13.045, the complaint resolution process does not create substantive or procedural rights for any person.

(2) Participation in the complaint resolution process does not entitle any person to an adjudicative proceeding under chapter 34.05 RCW or to superior court review.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.045. 01-06-041, § 388-39A-055, filed 3/5/01, effective 4/5/01.]

WAC 388-39A-060 Do constituent relations staff only handle complaints? In addition to complaint resolution, CA constituent relations staff also provide information about children's administration programs, policies, and procedures and information about other complaint resolution resources, including the office of the family and children's ombudsman.

DEFINITIONS

WAC 388-60-0015 What definitions apply to this chapter? The following definitions are important to understand these rules:

"Corrective action" means the denial or suspension or revocation of certification, or the issuance of a written warning.

"Department" or "DSHS" means the department of social and health services.

"Participant" or "perpetrator" means the client enrolled in the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program. This client may be court-ordered to attend treatment or someone who chooses to voluntarily attend treatment.

"Program" or "treatment program" means a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program.

PURPOSE

WAC 388-60-0025 What is the purpose of this chapter? (1) This chapter establishes minimum standards for programs that treat perpetrators of domestic violence.

(2) These standards apply to any program that:

(a) Advertises that it provides domestic violence perpetrator treatment; or

(b) Defines its services as meeting court orders that require enrollment in and/or completion of domestic violence perpetrator treatment.

(3) These programs provide treatment only to perpetrators of domestic violence, including clients who are self-referred or those who are court-ordered to attend treatment.

(4) An agency may administer other service programs in addition to domestic violence perpetrator treatment services; however, the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program must be considered a separate and distinct program from all other services the agency provides.

WAC 388-60-0035 Must domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs be certified? All programs providing domestic violence perpetrator treatment services must:

- (1) Be certified by the department; and
- (2) Comply with the standards outlined in this chapter.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0035, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0045 What must be the focus of a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program? (1) A domestic violence perpetrator treatment program must focus treatment primarily on ending the participant's physical, sexual, and psychological abuse.

(2) The program must hold the participant accountable for:

- (a) The abuse that occurred; and
- (b) Changing the participant's violent and abusive behaviors.

(3) The program must base all treatment on strategies and philosophies that do not blame the victim or imply that the victim shares any responsibility for the abuse which occurred.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0045, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0055 What must be a treatment program's primary goal? The primary goal of a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program must be to increase the victim's safety by:

(1) Facilitating change in the participant's abusive behavior; and

(2) Holding the participant accountable for changing the participant's patterns of behaviors, thinking, and beliefs.

REQUIRED PROGRAM POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

WAC 388-60-0065 What steps must a treatment program take to address victim safety? (1) Each treatment program must have written policies and procedures that adequately assess the safety of the victims of the perpetrators enrolled in the treatment program.

(2) The treatment program must take the following steps to protect victims:

(a) Notify the victim of each program participant within fourteen days of the participant being accepted or denied entrance to the program that the participant has enrolled in or has been rejected for treatment services;

(2009 Ed.)

(b) Inform victims of specific outreach, advocacy, emergency and safety planning services offered by a domestic violence victim program in the victim's community;

(c) Encourage victims to make plans to protect themselves and their children;

(d) Give victims a brief description of the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program, including the fact that the victim is not expected to do anything to help the perpetrator complete any treatment program requirements; and

(e) Inform victims of the limitations of perpetrator treatment.

(3) The program must document in writing the program's efforts to notify the victim of the above requirements.

(4) The program cannot invite or require the victims of participants to attend perpetrator treatment program counseling sessions or education groups which the program requires participants to attend as a condition of their contracts.

WAC 388-60-0075 What must a treatment program require of its participants? (1) All participants must attend consecutive, weekly group treatment sessions. A program may develop policies which allow excused absences to be made up with the program director's approval.

Exception: Another type of intervention may be approved for certain documented clinical reasons, such as psychosis or other conditions that make the individual not amenable to treatment in a group setting.

(2) The program must assign each participant to a home group and the participant must be required to attend the same scheduled group each week. The program's director must authorize any exceptions to this requirement and document the reason for the exception.

(3) Each participant must sign all releases of information required by the treatment program, including those specified in WAC 388-60-0145.

(4) Each participant must sign a contract for services with the treatment program.

WAC 388-60-0085 What requirements apply to group treatment sessions? (1) The group sessions must be single gender.

(2) The group size is limited to a maximum of twelve participants, and a minimum of two participants.

(3) Group sessions must be at least ninety minutes in length.

(4) Group sessions must be closed to all persons other than participants, group facilitators, and others specifically invited by the group leaders. Others specifically invited by group leaders may include:

(a) Professionals in related fields;

(b) Persons offering interpretation services for the deaf and/or hearing impaired or language translation/interpretation; and

(c) Others bringing specific information critical to the group.

WAC 388-60-0095 May a participant be involved in more than one type of treatment while enrolled in a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program? (1) A program may allow a client to participate in other types of therapy during the same period the client is participating in the required weekly group treatment sessions.

(2) Any other type of therapy must support the goal of victim safety by facilitating change in the participant's abusive behavior without blaming the victim for the perpetrator's abuse.

(3) The program must determine that the participant is stable in the participant's other treatments before allowing the participant to participate in treatment for domestic violence.

(4) Other therapies including the following list may not be substituted for the required domestic violence perpetrator treatment sessions:

- (a) Individual therapy;
- (b) Marital or couples' therapy;
- (c) Family therapy;
- (d) Substance abuse evaluations or treatment; or
- (e) Anger management.

(5) A program may recommend marital or couples' therapy only after:

(a) The participant has completed at least six months of domestic violence perpetrator treatment services; and

(b) The victim has reported that the participant has ceased engaging in violent and/or controlling behaviors. However, this therapy may not take the place of domestic violence perpetrator treatment session.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0095, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0105 What requirements does the department have for treatment programs regarding non-discrimination? (1) A domestic violence perpetrator treatment program may not discriminate against any participant based on:

- (a) Race;
- (b) Age;
- (c) Gender;
- (d) Disability;
- (e) Religion;
- (f) Marital status or living arrangements;
- (g) Political affiliation;
- (h) Educational attainment;
- (i) Socio-economic status;
- (j) Ethnicity;
- (k) National origin; or
- (l) Sexual orientation.

(2) Program materials, publications, and audio-visual materials must be culturally sensitive and nondiscriminatory.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0105, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0115 Does a program have the authority to screen referrals? (1) A treatment program has the authority to accept or reject any referral for its program.

(2) The program must base acceptance and rejection of a client on written criteria the program has developed to screen potential participants.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 360]

(3) A treatment program may impose any conditions on participants that the program deems appropriate for the success of treatment.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0115, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0125 What rights do participants in a treatment program have? (1) A treatment program must provide each participant with the highest quality of service.

(2) Treatment program staff must establish a climate where all relationships with colleagues and participants are respectful.

(3) Each participant enrolled in a program must have the assurance that the program staff will conduct themselves professionally, as specified in RCW 18.130.180.

(4) Staff, board members, and volunteers working for a treatment program must not engage in or tolerate sexual harassment or exploitation of an employee, a program participant, or a victim of any program participant.

(5) Each participant must have a written contract signed by the participant and the treatment program staff which specifies the participant's rights and responsibilities while enrolled in the program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0125, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

CONFIDENTIALITY

WAC 388-60-0135 What information about the participant must the treatment program keep confidential?

(1) Treatment programs must follow the confidentiality requirements contained in chapter 18.19 RCW for registered counselors and certified professionals.

(2) All program participants and guests must agree in writing not to disclose the identity of group participants or personal information about the participants.

(3) A treatment program must keep all communications between the participant and direct treatment staff confidential unless:

- (a) The participant has signed a release of information; or
- (b) The program is legally required to release the information.

(4) The treatment program may audio or video tape group sessions only when all participants grant written consent that gives details about the specific uses for the tape. The program must obtain an additional consent statement from each participant to permit use of the tape for any purpose other than the purposes specified in the original consent.

WAC 388-60-0145 What releases must a program require a participant to sign?

For a treatment program to conduct case monitoring and periodic safety checks, the program must require all participants to sign the following releases which must remain in effect for the duration of the client's treatment:

(1) A release allowing the treatment program to notify the victim and/or the victim's community and/or legal advocates that the perpetrator has been accepted or rejected for treatment;

(2) A release allowing the program to provide the victim with periodic reports about the perpetrator's participation in the program;

(3) A release allowing the current domestic violence perpetrator treatment program access to information held by all prior and concurrent treatment agencies, including domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs, mental health agencies, and drug and alcohol treatment programs;

(4) A release allowing the treatment program to provide relevant information regarding the participant to each of the following entities:

- (a) Lawyers, including prosecutors;
- (b) Courts;
- (c) Parole officers;
- (d) Probation officers;
- (e) Child protective services, child welfare services, and other DSHS programs;
- (f) Court-appointed guardians ad litem;
- (g) DSHS certifying authorities; and
- (h) Former treatment programs that the participant has attended.

(5) A release for the program to notify any person whose safety appears to be at risk due to the participant's potential for violence and lethality. This includes, but is not limited to:

- (a) The victim;
- (b) Any children;
- (c) Significant others;
- (d) The victim's community and legal advocates; or
- (e) Police.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0145, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0155 Must a treatment program keep information provided by or about the victim confidential?

(1) A treatment program must treat all information the victim provides to the program as confidential unless the victim gives written permission for the program to release the information.

(2) Information must be kept separate from any files for perpetrators.

(3) If a victim tells the treatment program that the participant has committed a new offense, the treatment program must encourage the victim to contact:

- (a) Appropriate law enforcement agency; and
- (b) The local domestic violence victim's program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0155, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0165 What information must the treatment program collect and discuss with the client during the intake process or assessment interview?

(1) Treatment programs must conduct an individual, complete clinical intake and assessment interview with each perpetrator who has been accepted into the treatment program. The program staff must meet face-to-face with the program participant to conduct this intake and interview.

(2) During the intake interview, program staff must obtain the following information, at a minimum:

- (a) Current and past violence history;

- (b) A complete diagnostic evaluation;
- (c) A substance abuse screening;
- (d) History of treatment from past domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs;
- (e) History of threats of homicide or suicide;
- (f) History of ideation of homicide or suicide;
- (g) History of stalking;
- (h) Data to develop a lethality risk assessment;
- (i) Possession of, access to, plans to obtain, or a history of use of weapons;
- (j) Degree of obsessiveness and dependency on the perpetrator's victim;
- (k) History of episodes of rage;
- (l) History of depression and other mental health problems;
- (m) History of having sexually abused the battered victim or others;
- (n) History of the perpetrator's domestic violence victimization and/or sexual abuse victimization;
- (o) Access to the battered victim;
- (p) Criminal history and law enforcement incident reports;
- (q) Reports of abuse of children, elderly persons, or animals;
- (r) Assessment of cultural issues;
- (s) Assessment of learning disabilities, literacy, and special language needs; and
- (t) Review of other diagnostic evaluations of the participant.

(3) If the program cannot obtain the above information, the program client file must include documentation of the program's reasonable efforts to obtain the information.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0165, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0175 Who may complete the intake process or conduct the assessment interview?

(1) Only treatment staff who meet the minimum qualifications for direct treatment staff stated in chapter 388-60 WAC may complete the intake process or conduct the assessment interview.

(2) A trainee may not have sole responsibility for conducting an intake or assessment. If the staff conducting the intake/assessment is a trainee, the trainee must work in conjunction with additional staff in their program, and the trainee's program supervisor must review and sign off on the trainee's work.

WAC 388-60-0185 Must the program compile a written document based on information gathered in the intake/assessment process?

The program must compile a written document, which includes the information required to be gathered in the intake/assessment process.

WAC 388-60-0195 Must the treatment program develop an individual treatment plan for each participant? (1) The treatment program must develop a written treatment plan for each participant who is accepted into the domestic perpetrator treatment program.

(2) The treatment program must base the participant's treatment on the clinical intake/assessment which the program completed for the client.

(3) The treatment plan must adequately and appropriately address the needs of the individual participant.

WAC 388-60-0205 What must a treatment program consider when developing an individual treatment plan for a participant? (1) A treatment program must:

(a) Assess whether a participant should be required to engage in drug and alcohol, mental health, or other treatment services while they are participating in the treatment program;

(b) Decide which treatment gets priority for the participant if more than one treatment service is recommended;

(c) Determine the sequence of other services if concurrent treatment is not clinically appropriate; and

(d) Make appropriate referrals to outside agencies.

(2) A treatment program must consider issues relating to a participant's prior victimization when designing each treatment plan.

The program must consider the appropriateness of domestic violence victim services in lieu of perpetrator treatment for a participant who presents an extensive history of prior victimization.

WAC 388-60-0215 Must a program require a participant to sign a contract for services with the treatment program? A treatment program must require each participant to sign a formal contract for services.

WAC 388-60-0225 What must the treatment program include in the contract for each participant's treatment? The contract between each participant and the treatment program must include the following elements:

(1) A statement regarding the treatment program's philosophy that:

(a) The victim may not be blamed for the participant's abuse;

(b) The perpetrator must stop all forms of abuse;

(c) An abuser is to be held accountable for the abusers actions; and

(d) The program's primary concern is for the safety of victims.

(2) A statement requiring the participant to:

(a) Cooperate with all program rules;

(b) Stop violent and threatening behaviors;

(c) Be nonabusive and noncontrolling in relationships;

(d) Develop and adhere to a responsibility plan;

(e) Comply with all court orders;

(f) Cooperate with the rules for group participation; and

(g) Sign all required releases of information.

(3) A policy on attendance and consequences for inadequate attendance;

(4) A requirement that the perpetrator must actively participate in treatment, including sharing personal experiences, values, and attitudes, as well as completing all group activities and assignments;

(5) A policy regarding other program expectations, such as completion of written exams, concurrent treatment requirements, and possession of weapons as described under chapters 388-861 and 388-875 WAC;

(6) Written criteria for completion of treatment;

(7) A statement that group members must honor the confidentiality of all participants;

(8) A statement that the treatment program has the duty to warn and protect victims, law enforcement, and third parties of any risk of serious harm the program determines the participant poses to them;

(9) Requirements that the participant must either:

(a) Provide the program with the participant's arrest records, criminal history, and any information regarding treatment services previously received; or

(b) Identify the existence of and location of all service records, and authorize release of all such records to the domestic violence treatment program.

(10) The program's policy regarding the use of drugs and alcohol, including a provision that the participant must attend treatment sessions free of drugs and alcohol; and

(11) Fees and methods of payment for treatment.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0225, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0235 Must a treatment program follow an educational curriculum for each participant? A treatment program must follow a specific educational curriculum for all participants in the program.

WAC 388-60-0245 What topics must the treatment program include in the educational curriculum? The curriculum of the treatment program must include the following topics:

(1) Belief systems that allow and support violence against women;

(2) Belief systems that allow and/or support the use or threat of violence to establish power and control over an intimate partner;

(3) Definitions of abuse, battering, and domestic violence;

(4) Forms of abuse, including:

(a) Physical abuse;

(b) Emotional and sexual abuse;

(c) Economic manipulation or domination;

(d) Physical force against property or pets;

(e) Stalking;

(f) Terrorizing someone or threatening him or her; and

(g) Acts that put the safety of battered partners, children, pets, other family members, or friends at risk.

(5) The impact of abuse and battering on children and the incompatibility of domestic violence and abuse with responsible parenting;

(6) The fact that a participant is solely responsible for the participant's violent behavior, and must acknowledge this fact;

(7) The need to avoid blaming a victim for the participant's abusive behavior;

(8) Techniques to be nonabusive and noncontrolling;

(9) Negative legal and social consequences for someone who commits domestic violence;

(10) Why it is necessary to meet financial and legal obligations to family members;

(11) Opportunities for a participant to develop a responsibility plan:

(a) The treatment program may assist the participant in developing the plan.

(b) In the plan, the participant must make a commitment to giving up power and control over the victim.

(12) Education regarding individual cultural and family dynamics of domestic violence; and

(13) Washington state laws and practices regarding domestic violence, as described in chapters 10.31, 10.99, and 26.50 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0245, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0255 What is the minimum treatment period for program participants? (1) The minimum treatment period is the time required for the participant to fulfill all conditions of treatment set by the treatment program. Satisfactory completion of treatment is not based solely on a perpetrator participating in the treatment program for a certain period of time or attending a certain number of sessions.

(2) The program must require participants to attend treatment and satisfy all treatment program requirements for at least twelve consecutive months.

(3) The program must require the participant to attend:

(a) A minimum of twenty-six consecutive weekly same gender group sessions, followed by:

(b) Monthly sessions with the treatment provider until the twelve-month period is complete. These sessions must be conducted face-to-face with the participant by program staff who meet the minimum qualifications set forth in this chapter.

WAC 388-60-0265 What criteria must be satisfied for completion of treatment? (1) A treatment program must have written criteria for satisfactory completion of treatment.

(2) A program must require a participant to meet all of the following conditions in order for the program to state that the participant has completed treatment:

(a) Attend treatment sessions for the minimum treatment period;

(b) Attend all other sessions required by the program;

(c) Cooperate with all group rules and program requirements throughout the duration of treatment services;

(d) Stop the use of all violent acts or threats of violence;

(e) Stop using abusive and controlling behavior;

(2009 Ed.)

(f) Adhere to the participant's responsibility plan;

(g) Comply with court orders; and

(h) Comply with other conditions of the contract for treatment services, such as chemical dependency treatment.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0265, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0275 What must the treatment program do when a participant satisfactorily completes treatment? (1) A treatment program must notify the following people when a participant satisfactorily completes treatment:

(a) The court having jurisdiction, if the participant has been court-mandated to attend treatment; and

(b) The victim, if feasible.

(2) The program must document in writing its efforts to contact the victim.

(3) The program may specify only that the perpetrator has completed treatment based on adequate compliance with the participant's contract with the treatment program and any court order.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0275, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0285 Must a treatment program have policies regarding any reoffenses during treatment? A treatment program must establish and implement written policies that include consequences if a perpetrator reoffends during treatment or does not comply with program requirements.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0285, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0295 Does a program need guidelines for discharging participants who do not complete treatment? (1) A treatment program must have guidelines for discharging participants who do not satisfactorily complete the program.

(a) Discharge decisions must be uniform and predictable.

(b) Discrimination may not occur against any participant.

(2) A program may terminate a participant from treatment prior to completion of the program if the participant has not complied with the requirements set forth in the participant's contract with the program.

(3) If a program discharges a participant who does not complete treatment, the treatment program must document in writing that the participant has not complied with:

(a) The participant's contract with the treatment program;

(b) A court order;

(c) A probation agreement; or

(d) Group rules.

(4) If a program chooses not to discharge a participant who has reoffended, committed other acts of violence or abuse, or has not complied with any of subsection (3)(a) through (d) of this section, the program must note the reoffense and/or noncompliance in the client's progress notes, reports to the court, and reports to the victim (if feasible).

[Title 388 WAC—p. 363]

(5) The program must state in the client's record the program's rationale for not terminating the participant, and state what corrective action was taken.

(6) A program may discharge a participant if the treatment program cannot provide adequate treatment services to the participant because of the treatment program's current development.

WAC 388-60-0305 Who must the program notify when the program discharges a participant because of failure to complete treatment? A treatment program must notify the following parties in writing when the program discharges a participant from the program because of failure to complete treatment:

- (1) The court having jurisdiction, if the participant has been court-mandated to attend treatment;
- (2) The participant's probation officer, if any;
- (3) The victim of the participant, if feasible; and
- (4) The program must notify the above parties within three days of terminating the client.

TREATMENT STAFF QUALIFICATIONS

WAC 388-60-0315 What are the minimum qualifications for all direct treatment staff? (1) All staff with direct treatment contact with participants must be:

- (a) Registered as counselors or certified as mental health professionals as required under chapter 18.19 RCW; and
- (b) Free of criminal convictions involving moral turpitude.

(2) Each staff person providing direct treatment services to a participant must have a bachelor's degree.

(a) The department will review requests for an exception to this requirement on a case-by-case basis.

(b) In order to qualify for an exception, the employee must possess year-for-year professional level experience equivalent to a bachelor's degree. The department determines this equivalency at the discretion of the DSHS program manager responsible for monitoring domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs.

(3) Prior to providing any direct treatment services to program participants, each direct treatment staff person must have completed:

(a) A minimum of thirty hours of training about domestic violence from an established domestic violence victim program; and

(b) A minimum of thirty hours of training from an established domestic violence perpetrator treatment services program.

(i) If located within Washington state, the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program must be certified and meet the standards as outlined in this chapter.

(ii) If located out-of-state, the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program must meet the standards outlined in this chapter as well as chapter 26.50 RCW.

(4) All employees must complete all sixty hours of required training before the employee may begin to provide any direct services to group participants. Any work experience accrued prior to completion of the sixty hours of training will not count toward any requirement for work experience.

WAC 388-60-0325 Must a program notify the department when new direct treatment staff are added?

(1) At the time that the program adds new direct treatment staff, the program must submit documentation to DSHS which proves that the staff meets the minimum qualifications for all treatment staff stated in WAC 388-60-0315.

(2) Direct treatment staff may not provide services to perpetrators until the treatment staff's qualifications have been reviewed and approved by the DSHS program manager responsible for certification of domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs.

WAC 388-60-0335 Who is considered a trainee for domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs?

A trainee is a direct treatment staff person who has not accrued at least two hundred fifty hours of experience providing services to domestic violence perpetrators and domestic violence victims.

(1) At least one hundred twenty-five hours of this requirement must have been provision of supervised, direct treatment services to domestic violence perpetrators.

(2) The remainder of this requirement must have been provision of domestic violence victim advocacy services.

WAC 388-60-0345 May a trainee provide direct treatment services to participants?

(1) A trainee may serve as a co-facilitator of groups, but may not have sole responsibility for the group at any time.

(2) A trainee may not have sole responsibility for conducting an intake or assessment, or for terminating a participant from treatment.

WAC 388-60-0355 Do treatment programs need a supervisor?

Each treatment program must have at least one person providing supervision to paid and volunteer direct treatment staff.

WAC 388-60-0365 Who may provide supervision of direct treatment staff in a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program?

(1) In addition to possessing the basic qualifications required for all direct treatment staff, a program's supervisor must meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Have a minimum of three years of experience providing direct treatment services to perpetrators of domestic violence;

(b) Have a minimum of one year of experience providing victim advocacy services to domestic violence victims (this may be concurrent with (a) of this subsection);

(c) Have a minimum of one year of experience in facilitating domestic violence perpetrator treatment groups;

(d) Has completed at least five hundred hours of supervised direct treatment contact with both perpetrators and domestic violence victims:

(i) At least three hundred hours of this requirement must have been the provision of supervised, direct treatment services to domestic violence perpetrators.

(ii) The remainder of this requirement must have been the provision of domestic violence victim advocacy services.

(2) Each staff person providing supervision to direct treatment staff within a program must have a master's degree.

(a) The department's program manager [manager] will review requests for an exception to this requirement on a case-by-case basis.

(b) In order to qualify for an exception, the employee must possess year-for-year professional level experience equivalent to a master's degree. The department determines this equivalency at the discretion of the DSHS program manager responsible for monitoring domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs.

WAC 388-60-0375 Must a supervisor always be on the premises of the treatment program? A supervisor may be located either on or off-site unless direct treatment services are being provided only by employees who are considered trainees, as defined in these rules. If no other direct treatment staff besides the supervisor possesses at least two hundred fifty hours of experience providing direct treatment services to perpetrators, the supervisor must be present at all times that direct treatment services are being provided.

WAC 388-60-0385 Must the treatment program have staff supervision policies? A treatment program must develop and follow policies, procedures, and supervision schedules that provide adequate supervision for all treatment staff.

WAC 388-60-0395 What are the requirements for staff orientation? (1) A treatment program must have an orientation for any new staff, whether the staff are paid or volunteer.

(2) The purpose of the orientation must be to provide the staff with the program's philosophy, organization, curriculum, policies, procedures, and goals.

WAC 388-60-0405 What are the continuing professional education requirements for all direct treatment program staff? (1) All staff having direct treatment contact with participants must complete a minimum of twenty hours of continuing professional education each year after the program is certified, or each year after the staff person is added to the staff list. No more than five of those hours may be obtained by attending "in-house" training.

(2) Each staff person's continuing professional education must include four or more hours of training per year on issues of sexism, racism, and homophobia and their relationship to domestic violence.

(3) Continuing education training may be in the fields of alcohol/drug abuse, mental health, or other issues but all training must be related to the treatment of domestic violence perpetrators.

(4) The treatment staff may obtain continuing professional education through classes, seminars, workshops, video or audiotapes, or other self-study programs when approved in writing by the program supervisor. No more than five hours of video, audiotapes, or self-study program may be used toward the requirement of twenty hours of continuing education requirement. This includes correspondence courses.

(5) The staff must document all continuing education hours on DSHS approved forms.

(a) The form must be accompanied by completion certificates, course/workshop outline, and supervisor signature.

(b) The program must submit the form and documentation to the department at the time the program applies for re-certification.

WAC 388-60-0415 Is a treatment program required to cooperate with local domestic violence victim programs? A treatment program must establish and maintain cooperative relationships with domestic violence victim services programs located in their community.

WAC 388-60-0425 Does a treatment program need knowledge of the domestic violence laws and justice system practices? A treatment program must show evidence of an understanding of the laws pertaining to domestic violence and the operation of the justice system. At a minimum, a program must be familiar with:

(1) State laws regulating the response to domestic violence by the criminal justice system;

(2) Relief available to victims of domestic violence offered by:

(a) Washington domestic violence law and civil protection orders;

(b) Criminal no-contact orders; and

(c) Civil restraining orders.

(3) Local law enforcement, prosecution, and court and probation policies regarding domestic violence cases.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0425, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

CERTIFICATION PROCESS

WAC 388-60-0435 What is the process to apply for certification of a treatment program? (1) Any program wishing to provide treatment to perpetrators of domestic violence must request certification by completing an application available from the department. To request an application by mail, write to:

Domestic Violence Perpetrator Treatment Program
Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS)
Children's Administration
P.O. Box 45710
Olympia, Washington 98504-5710.

(2) The program must submit the application, application fee, and all documentation needed to prove that the program meets the requirements set forth in these standards.

(3) A program may not provide direct treatment services to domestic violence perpetrators without being certified by the department.

(4) If approved, the department grants certification for a two year period.

(5) The department considers each geographical location of a program an individual program, and must certify each program separately.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0435, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0445 What is the application fee for certification? (1) Application fee for either initial certification or recertification of a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program is one hundred dollars.

(2) The department publishes the application fee for certification of domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs in the application packet.

(3) If there is any change in the fee, the update will be done in July of each year.

WAC 388-60-0455 What documentation must a program submit before the department may certify the program? The program's director must submit the following documentation with the program's application:

(1) A written statement signed by the director that the program complies with the standards contained in this chapter;

(2) Results of current criminal history background checks conducted by the Washington state patrol for all current direct treatment program staff;

(3) A statement for each current paid or volunteer staff person whether or not the staff person has ever been a party to any civil proceedings involving domestic violence;

(4) Proof that each direct treatment staff is registered as a counselor or certified as a mental health professional with the department of health;

(5) Evidence that the program maintains cooperative relationships with agencies providing services related to domestic violence.

(a) This evidence must include, at a minimum:

(i) Three items of evidence that they have established and continue to maintain cooperative relationships with local domestic violence victim programs and other local agencies involved with domestic violence intervention.

(ii) Documentation that they have established a referral process between their program and the local domestic violence victim services programs.

(iii) Proof that they participate in a local domestic violence task force, intervention committee or workgroup if one exists in their community.

(b) The program may also submit evidence of the following:

(i) Participation in public awareness activities sponsored by the local domestic violence victim services agency.

(ii) Service agreements between the local domestic violence victim services agency(ies) and the treatment program.

(iii) Letters of support for the program from other agencies or parties involved in domestic violence intervention.

(6) Evidence that the program maintains cooperative relationships with agencies involved in domestic violence intervention.

WAC 388-60-0465 What happens after a program turns in an application to the department? (1) The department will review a certification application within thirty days after the application is received to decide if the domestic violence perpetrator program meets the program standards in this chapter.

(2) The department must notify the applicant whether or not the program meets these standards.

WAC 388-60-0475 Will a certificate be issued if the treatment program meets the standards? If a program meets the standards in this chapter, the department will issue the program a certificate of compliance.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0475, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0485 What happens if a treatment program does not meet the standards? (1) If a program does not meet the standards for certification or recertification, the department will provide the program with:

(a) A copy of the standards;

(b) A written notice containing the reasons for the determination of noncompliance; and

(c) The program standards relied upon for making the decision.

(2) Treatment programs have the right to a hearing if the program is denied certification under this chapter (chapter 388-02 WAC).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0485, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0495 What records must the department keep regarding certified domestic violence perpetrator programs? The department must maintain the following information:

- (1) A current record of all certified domestic violence perpetrator programs.
- (2) A current record of programs that:
 - (a) Are in the process of applying for certification;
 - (b) Have been denied certification;
 - (c) Have been notified that the department is revoking or suspending certification;
 - (d) Have had their certification revoked; and
 - (e) Are being investigated.

RECERTIFICATION

WAC 388-60-0505 How often must a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program reapply for certification? Each program certified under this chapter must reapply for certification every two years.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0505, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0515 What must a program do to apply for recertification of their domestic violence perpetrator treatment program? In order to be recertified, a program must submit a completed application packet to the department at least forty-five days prior to the expiration date of the previous certification period.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0515, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0525 What must the application packet for renewal of the certification of a domestic violence perpetrator program include? The packet must include the following:

- (1) A completed application form signed by the program director;
- (2) Payment of the application fee;
- (3) A listing of all direct treatment staff;
- (4) A statement of qualifications for any staff added since the last certification period;
- (5) Current results of criminal history background checks conducted by the Washington state patrol, and a statement regarding any involvement in civil proceedings involving domestic violence for each employee providing direct treatment services;
- (6) An update of continuing professional education hours for each direct treatment staff;
- (7) Evidence that the program maintains cooperative relationships with agencies providing services related to domestic violence.

(a) This evidence must include, at a minimum:

- (i) Three items of evidence that they have established and continue to maintain cooperative relationships with local domestic violence victim programs and other local agencies involved with domestic violence intervention.

(2009 Ed.)

(ii) Documentation that they have established a referral process between their program and the local domestic violence victim services programs.

(iii) Proof that they participate in a local domestic violence task force, intervention committee or workgroup if one exists in their community.

(b) The program may also submit evidence of the following:

(i) Participation in public awareness activities sponsored by the local domestic violence victim services agency.

(ii) Service agreements between the local domestic violence victim services agency(ies) and the treatment program.

(iii) Letters of support for the program from other agencies or parties involved in domestic violence intervention.

(8) Evidence that the program maintains cooperative relationships with agencies involved in domestic violence intervention; and

(9) All documentation needed to prove that the program continues to meet the standards for certification.

WAC 388-60-0535 How does the department decide that a program should continue to be certified? The department will continue to certify a program, or will review its certification, if:

(1) The department determines, based on the completed application, that the program continues to meet the standards and qualifications as outlined in this chapter; and

(2) The department determines that any complaint investigations from the previous certification period have been satisfactorily resolved.

WAC 388-60-0545 Is there a formal process if a treatment program wishes to appeal a denial of certification or recertification? If the department denies certification or recertification, the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program has a right to an administrative hearing under chapter 388-08 WAC.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

WAC 388-60-0555 Does the department have an advisory committee for domestic violence perpetrator treatment? The department will establish and appoint a volunteer group to serve as the Washington domestic violence perpetrator treatment program standards advisory committee.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0555, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0565 What is the role of the advisory committee? The role of the advisory committee is to:

(1) Advise the department regarding recommended changes to the program standards; and

(2) Provide technical assistance on program standards, implementation, and certification and recertification criteria.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 367]

WAC 388-60-0575 Who are the advisory committee members and how are they chosen? The advisory committee must include the following members:

(1) Four persons representing the perspective of victims of domestic violence. They will be chosen with input from the Washington State Coalition Against Domestic Violence (WSCADV);

(2) Four persons representing the perspective of state-certified domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs. They will be chosen with input from the Washington Association of Domestic Violence Intervention Professionals (WADVIP);

(3) Four persons representing the perspective of adult misdemeanor probation and Washington state courts of limited jurisdiction. They will be chosen with input from the Misdemeanor Corrections Association and the Washington State District and Municipal Court Judges Association;

(4) One person representing the department of corrections; and

(5) One person representing the office of the administrator for the courts.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0575, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0585 How long is the appointed term for an advisory committee member? Advisory committee members are appointed for two-year terms.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0585, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0595 May advisory committee members be replaced before their term expires? The department may replace committee members if the member misses two consecutive committee meetings.

WAC 388-60-0605 Are expenses for advisory committee members reimbursed? (1) If funds are available, the department will reimburse advisory committee members for travel and meal expenses related to service on the committee.

(2) Advisory committee members may not receive any other compensation for service on the committee.

COMPLAINTS AND THE INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS

WAC 388-60-0615 Does the department investigate complaints about domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs? DSHS investigates complaints regarding domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0615, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 368]

WAC 388-60-0625 Who may request an investigation of a certified domestic violence perpetrator treatment program? Any person may submit a written complaint to DSHS if the person has the following concerns about a certified program:

(1) The program has acted in a way that places victims at risk; or

(2) The program has failed to follow standards in this chapter.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0625, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0635 Does the department notify a treatment program that the department has received a complaint? Once it receives a complaint about a certified program, the department will:

(1) Determine that the complaint includes sufficient information to be deemed valid;

(2) Notify the program within fourteen days of the complaint being determined valid that the department has received a complaint about the program; and

(3) Notify the program that an investigation has been initiated.

WAC 388-60-0645 May DSHS begin an investigation of a treatment program without receiving a complaint? DSHS may begin an investigation of a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program without a written complaint if the department believes that the program:

(1) Has placed victims at risk; or

(2) Failed to follow the standards outlined in this chapter.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0645, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0655 What is included in an investigation? The investigation of a complaint against a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program may include:

(1) Contact with:

(a) The person making the complaint;

(b) Other persons involved in the complaint; or

(c) The treatment program.

(2) A request for written documentation of evidence; and/or

(3) An on-site visit to the program to interview program staff.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0655, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0665 Is there a time limit for the department to complete its investigation of a complaint? The department must complete its investigation within forty-five days of beginning the investigation, unless circumstances warrant a longer period of time.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0665, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATIONS

WAC 388-60-0675 Does the department put the results of the investigation in writing? (1) The department will prepare written results of the complaint investigation.

(2) If the department decides that the treatment program behaved in a way that placed victims at risk or failed to meet the standards outlined in this chapter, the written results must include a decision regarding the status of the program's certification.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0675, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0685 What action may the department take regarding a program's certification if a complaint is founded? If the department determines that a complaint against a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program is founded, the department may:

- (1) Revoke the treatment program's certification;
- (2) Suspend the treatment program's certification; or
- (3) Send a written warning to the treatment program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0685, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0695 Does DSHS notify a treatment program of its decision to take corrective action? DSHS must send the written results of its investigation to the program by certified mail, return receipt requested, within twenty days after completing the investigation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0695, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0705 What information must the department give a program if it takes action that affects the program's certification status? (1) If DSHS revokes a program's certification, the department must provide the program with:

- (a) The specific reasons for the revocation;
- (b) The WAC standards the revocation is based on; and
- (c) The effective date of the revocation.

(2) If DSHS suspends a treatment program's certification, DSHS must provide the treatment program with:

- (a) The specific reasons for the corrective action;
- (b) The WAC standards that the suspension is based on;
- (c) The effective date of the suspension;
- (d) Any remedial steps which the program must complete to the satisfaction of the department before the department will reinstate the program's certification and lift the suspension; and

- (e) The deadline for completion of any remedial steps.
- (3) If DSHS issues a written warning to a program, DSHS must provide the treatment program with:

- (a) The specific reasons for the written warning;
- (b) The WAC standards that the written warning is based on; and
- (c) Any remedial steps which the program must complete to the satisfaction of the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0705, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-60-0715 What happens if a treatment program refuses to remedy the problems outlined in the complaint findings? If the treatment program refuses or fails to remedy the problems outlined in the written warning, DSHS may revoke or suspend the certification of the program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0715, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0725 What if the director of a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program disagrees with the corrective action decision? (1) When DSHS revokes or suspends a program's certification, issues a written warning, or imposes corrective action, the department will notify the program director in writing of the program's right to request a hearing.

(2) The program director may request an administrative hearing from the office of administrative hearings pursuant to chapter 388-02 WAC.

NOTIFICATION OF RESULTS OF AN INVESTIGATION

WAC 388-60-0735 Does the department notify the person that made the complaint of the results of the investigation? DSHS will mail a copy of the written results of the investigation to the person who made the complaint against the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0735, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0745 What must the treatment program do after notification that its certification has been suspended or revoked? If DSHS revokes or suspends a program's certification, the program must:

(1) Take immediate steps to notify and refer current clients to other certified domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs;

Note: This must be done prior to the effective date of revocation or suspension.

(2) Cease accepting perpetrators of domestic violence into its treatment program;

(3) Notify victims, current partners of the participants, and any relevant agencies about the client referral; and

(4) Notify, in writing, the presiding judge and chief probation officer of each judicial district from which the treatment program receives court referrals.

WAC 388-60-0755 What happens if the program has other licenses or certificates? If a program also holds a license or certification from the state of Washington for other treatment modalities, DSHS may notify the appropriate licensing or certifying authority that the program's certification has been suspended or revoked.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0755, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

Chapter 388-61 WAC
FAMILY VIOLENCE

WAC

388-61-001 How does the Family Violence Amendment affect me if I am getting TANF/SFA?

WAC 388-61-001 How does the Family Violence Amendment affect me if I am getting TANF/SFA? The Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA), also known as the Welfare Reform Act, allowed every state to create a program addressing family violence for temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) recipients.

(1) For TANF/state funded assistance (SFA), family violence is when a recipient, or family member or household member has been subjected by another family member or household member as defined in RCW 26.50.010(2) to any of the following:

- (a) Physical acts that resulted in, or threatened to result in, physical injury;
 - (b) Sexual abuse;
 - (c) Sexual activity involving a dependent child;
 - (d) Being forced as the caretaker relative of a dependent child to engage in nonconsensual sexual acts or activities;
 - (e) Threats of or attempts at, physical sexual abuse;
 - (f) Mental abuse;
 - (g) Neglect or deprivation of medical care; or
 - (h) Stalking.
- (2) DSHS must:

(a) Screen and identify adults, minor teen parents, or emancipated teens getting TANF/SFA for a history of family violence;

(b) Notify in writing and verbally adults, minor teen parents, or emancipated teens getting TANF/SFA about the Family Violence Amendment;

(c) Maintain confidentiality as stated in RCW 74.04.060;

(d) Refer individuals needing counseling to supportive services;

(e) Waive WorkFirst requirements in cases where the requirements would make it more difficult to escape family violence, unfairly penalize victims of family violence or place victims at further risk of family violence. This may include:

- (i) Time limits for TANF/SFA recipients, for as long as necessary (after fifty-two months of receiving TANF/SFA);
- (ii) Cooperation with the division of child support.

(f) Develop specialized work activities for family violence clients, as defined in subsection (1) of this section if participation in work activities would place the recipients at further risk of family violence.

Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 2006 c 259, and federal PL 109-162.
388-61A-0190	Will I be notified if my funding has been suspended, revoked, or denied? [Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0190, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.] Repealed by 07-04-098, filed 2/6/07, effective 3/9/07. Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 2006 c 259, and federal PL 109-162.
388-61A-0195	How do I request an agency hearing? [Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0195, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.] Repealed by 07-04-098, filed 2/6/07, effective 3/9/07. Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 2006 c 259, and federal PL 109-162.

PURPOSE

WAC 388-61A-0005 What is the legal basis for the domestic violence shelter program? Chapter 70.123 RCW authorizes us to establish minimum standards for agencies that receive funding from the department of social and health services (DSHS) to provide domestic violence shelter and services.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0005, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0010 What is the purpose of having minimum standards for domestic violence shelters and services? The purpose of these rules is to have uniform statewide standards for domestic violence shelters and services funded by us. Minimum standards are necessary to provide rules for agencies that contract with us to provide shelter and services for domestic violence victims. These standards address issues such as adequate food, clothing, housing, safety, security, advocacy, and counseling for victims.

WAC 388-61A-0015 Is DSHS required to provide funding to any domestic violence service that requests funding? We are not obligated to disburse funds to all domestic violence services that may comply with the minimum standards set forth in this chapter. The goal of this program is to provide funding and support for the statewide development, stability, and expansion of shelter and services for victims of domestic violence. In support of that goal, if an agency applies to receive funding we will consider such things as:

- (1) Geographic location;
- (2) Population ratios;
- (3) Population need for services;
- (4) An agency's ability to provide services that comply with these minimum standards;
- (5) The availability of other domestic violence services in a community; and
- (6) The amount of funding we have available to support domestic violence services.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0015, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-61A-0020 What are the facility and service requirements for domestic violence services? In order for us to contract with an agency for domestic violence services, the agency must provide shelter and supportive services to victims of domestic violence. The agency must comply with the:

- (1) General facility requirements for shelters; and
- (2) Specific additional requirements for safe homes; or
- (3) Specific additional requirements for shelter homes; and
- (4) Requirements for supportive services and agency administration.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0020, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0025 What definitions apply to domestic violence shelters and services? "Advocacy-based counseling" means that the client is involved with an advocate counselor in individual, family, or group sessions with the primary focus on safety planning, empowerment, and education of the client through reinforcing the client's autonomy and self-determination.

"Advocate counselor" means a trained staff person who works in a domestic violence service and provides advocacy-based counseling, counseling, and supportive temporary shelter services to clients.

"Client" means a victim of domestic violence or dependent child of the victim.

"Cohabitant" means a person who is married or is living with a person as a husband or wife at the present time or at some time in the past. Any person who has one or more children in common with another person, regardless of whether they have been married or have lived together at any time, is considered a cohabitant.

"Confidential communication" means all information, oral, written or nonverbal, transmitted between a victim of domestic violence and a domestic violence advocate counselor in the course of their relationship and in confidence by means which, so far as the victim is aware, does not disclose the information to a third person.

"Confidential information" includes, but is not limited to, any information, advice, notes, reports, statistical data, memoranda, working papers, records or the like, made or given during the relationship between a victim of domestic violence and a domestic violence advocate counselor, however maintained. Confidential information specifically includes the name, address, telephone number, Social Security number, date of birth, nine-digit ZIP code, and other personally identifying information, physical appearance of, and case file or history of, any victim of domestic violence who seeks or has received services from a domestic violence advocate counselor or domestic violence service.

"Department" means the department of social and health services (DSHS).

"Domestic violence" includes, but is not limited to, the criminal offenses defined in RCW 10.99.020 when committed by one cohabitant against another.

"Domestic violence service" means an agency that provides shelter, advocacy, and counseling for domestic violence clients in a safe, supportive environment.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 371]

"Lodging unit" means one or more rooms used for a victim of domestic violence including rooms used for sleeping or sitting.

"Personally identifying information" includes, but is not limited to, first and last name, home or other physical address, telephone number, Social Security number, date of birth, nine-digit ZIP code, and other personally identifying information, physical appearance of, and case file or history of, any victim of domestic violence who seeks or has received services from a domestic violence advocate counselor or domestic violence service, or such other information which, taken individually or together with other identifying information, could identify a particular individual.

"Program" means the DSHS domestic violence program.

"Safe home" means a shelter that has two or less lodging units and has a written working agreement with a domestic violence service.

"Secretary" means the DSHS secretary or the secretary's designee.

"Shelter" means a safe home or shelter home that provides temporary refuge and adequate food and clothing offered on a twenty-four hour, seven-day-per-week basis to victims of domestic violence and their children.

"Shelter home" means a shelter that has three or more lodging units and either is a component of or has a written working agreement with a domestic violence service.

"Staff" means persons who are paid or who volunteer services and are a part of a domestic violence service.

"Victim" means a cohabitant who has been subjected to domestic violence.

"We, us and our" refers to the department of social and health services and its employees.

"You, I and your" refers to the domestic violence service or shelter.

GENERAL FACILITY REQUIREMENTS

WAC 388-61A-0030 What safety requirements is the shelter required to meet? You must keep your equipment and the physical structures in the shelter safe and clean for the clients you serve. You must:

- (1) Maintain the shelter, premises, equipment, and supplies in a clean, safe and sanitary condition, free of hazards, and in good repair;
- (2) Provide guard or handrails, as necessary, for stairways, porches and balconies used by clients;
- (3) Maintain swimming pools, wading pools, bathtubs, hot tubs, spas, and bathing beaches in a safe manner and in such a way that does not present a health hazard, safety problem, or nuisance;
- (4) Have a method for securing all windows, doors, and other building accesses to prevent the entry of intruders;
- (5) Provide a way for staff to enter any area occupied by clients should there be an emergency; and

[Title 388 WAC—p. 372]

(6) Secure all unused refrigerators and freezers accessible to children in such a way that prevents them from climbing in and becoming trapped.

WAC 388-61A-0035 What are the general requirements for bedrooms? Shelters must meet the following requirements for bedrooms:

- (1) You must provide a bed in good condition, with a clean and comfortable mattress to shelter residents.
- (2) If the shelter provides cribs or bassinets for infants, the shelter must follow each of these requirements:
 - (a) Cribs and bassinets must have clean, firm mattresses covered with waterproof material that is easily sanitized;
 - (b) Crib mattresses must fit snugly to prevent the infant from being caught between the mattress and crib side rails;
 - (c) Cribs must be made of wood, metal, or approved plastic with secure latching devices;
 - (d) Cribs must have no more than two and three-eighths inches space between vertical slats when used for infants under six months of age; and
 - (e) Bumper pad ties must be no longer than twelve inches in length.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0035, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0040 What kind of diaper changing area must I provide? You must provide a sanitary diaper changing area. In addition, you must develop and provide to clients, hygiene procedures for handling and storing diapers and sanitizing the changing area.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0040, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0045 What are the kitchen requirements? The following are the minimum general requirements for kitchen facilities:

- (1) A sink for dishwashing;
- (2) A refrigerator or other storage equipment capable of maintaining a temperature of forty-five degrees Fahrenheit or lower;
- (3) A range, stove, or hot plate;
- (4) Covered garbage container;
- (5) Eating and cooking utensils that are clean and in good repair; and
- (6) Counter surfaces that are clean and resistant to moisture.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0045, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0050 Are there any restrictions on food preparation? Food and beverages prepared by and for clients must be prepared, served and stored safely and in a sanitary manner. You must not serve home-canned, low-acid foods (e.g., meats and vegetables) to clients residing in a shelter.

WAC 388-61A-0055 What are the requirements for providing food and clothing to shelter residents? (1) The domestic violence service must provide appropriate food and beverages for the basic sustenance of shelter residents, unless other resources are immediately available.

(2) You should store appropriate food, including infant formula, at the shelter to provide to residents when other resources are not immediately available.

(3) Whenever possible, the shelter should provide food that is culturally appropriate.

(4) You must provide shelter residents with access to clean, adequate clothing. Clothing that you provide must be clean and have been stored in a sanitary manner.

WAC 388-61A-0060 What are the requirements for toilets, sinks, and bathing facilities? You must meet these requirements for toilets, sinks, and bathing facilities.

(1) You must provide at least one indoor flush-type toilet, one nearby handwashing sink with hot and cold running water, and a bathtub or shower facility. These facilities must be located within the shelter building premises.

(2) You must comply with all of the following requirements for toilet and bathing facilities:

(a) Toilet and bathing facilities must allow for privacy of shelter residents.

(b) Toilets, urinals, and handwashing sinks must be the appropriate height for the children served, or have a safe and easily cleaned step stool or platform that is water resistant.

(c) Handwashing and bathing facilities must be provided with hot and cold running water; the hot water must not exceed one hundred twenty degrees.

(d) Potty chairs and toilet training equipment for toddlers must be regularly maintained and kept in a sanitary condition. You must put potty chairs, when in use, on washable, water resistant surfaces.

(e) You must provide soap and clean washcloths and towels, disposable towels or other approved hand-drying devices to residents.

WAC 388-61A-0065 What types of linen do I need to provide to clients? (1) You must provide the following to clients residing in shelter:

(a) Bed linen, towels and washcloths that are clean and in good repair. After use by a client, bed linen, towels and washcloths must be laundered prior to use by another client.

(b) A clean liner for a sleeping bag unless the bag is cleaned between use by different clients.

(2) Clients residing in shelter must be provided with changes of clean bed linen, towels and washcloths upon their request.

WAC 388-61A-0070 What are the requirements for laundry facilities? We have specific requirements for laundry facilities at your shelter.

(2009 Ed.)

(1) You must provide adequate laundry and drying equipment, or make other arrangements for getting laundry done on a regular basis.

(2) You must handle and store laundry in a sanitary manner.

WAC 388-61A-0075 Are there requirements for drinking water? Water supplies to be used for human consumption must be from an approved public water system. If it is an individual system, the local health department must approve it as safe for human consumption.

WAC 388-61A-0080 What are the requirements for sewage and liquid wastes? You must discharge sewage and liquid wastes into a public sewer system or into a functioning septic system, approved by the local health authority or department.

WAC 388-61A-0085 What kind of heating system is required? (1) Rooms used by clients in a shelter must be equipped with a safe and adequate source of heat that can keep the room at a healthful temperature during the time the room is occupied.

(2) Gas-fired or oil-fired space heaters and water heaters must be safely vented to the outside.

WAC 388-61A-0090 How must I ventilate the shelter? (1) You must ensure that your shelter is ventilated for the health and comfort of the shelter residents. A mechanical exhaust to the outside must ventilate toilets and bathrooms that do not have windows opening to the outside.

(2) Bedrooms and communal living areas must have a window or opening to the outdoors that can be locked or secured from the inside.

WAC 388-61A-0095 How much lighting is required in the shelter? You must locate light fixtures and provide lighting that promotes good visibility and comfort for shelter residents.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0095, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0100 Are there any requirements about pets in the shelter? Pets are prohibited from the kitchen during food preparation.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0100, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0105 What first-aid supplies must I provide? You must keep first-aid supplies on hand for immediate use, including unexpired syrup of ipecac that is to be used only when advised by the poison control center. First-aid supplies must include at least the following: First-aid manual, band-aids, gauze, and adhesive tape.

WAC 388-61A-0110 What are the requirements for storing medications? (1) All medications, including pet medications and herbal remedies, must be stored in a way that is inaccessible to children.

(2) Pet and human medications must be stored separately.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0110, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0115 What measures must I take for pest control? You must make reasonable attempts to keep the shelter free from pests, such as rodents, flies, cockroaches, fleas and other insects.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0115, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0120 What are the requirements for labeling and storing chemicals and toxic materials? (1) Containers of chemical cleaning agents and other toxic materials must:

(a) Be clearly labeled with the contents; and
(b) Bear the manufacturer's instructions and precautions for use.

(2) You must store the following items in a place that is not accessible to children:

- (a) Chemical cleaning supplies;
- (b) Toxic substances;
- (c) Poisons;
- (d) Aerosols; and
- (e) Items with warning labels.

(3) You must store chemical cleaning supplies and toxic substances separately from food items, clothing, and bedding in order to prevent contamination.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0120, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0125 Where do I keep firearms and other dangerous weapons? (1) You must keep firearms and other dangerous weapons in a locked storage container, gun safe, or another storage area made of strong, unbreakable material.

(2) If the storage cabinet has a glass or another breakable front, you must secure the firearms with a locked cable or chain placed through the trigger guards.

(3) You must store ammunition in a place that is separate from the firearms or locked in a gun safe.

(4) You must allow access to firearms, weapons and ammunition only to authorized persons.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0125, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 374]

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR SAFE HOMES

WAC 388-61A-0130 What are the additional requirements for a safe home? Safe homes must meet the following additional requirements in order for a domestic violence service to contract with us:

(1) A safe home must complete a written application to a domestic violence service. The domestic violence service must approve the application and give training to the safe home staff before the home may receive clients.

(2) The domestic violence service must maintain a written record of all safe homes. The record must include:

(a) The name and address of the person operating the safe home or an identification code for the safe home;

(b) A written safe home application;

(c) Documentation that the safe home complies with the general facility and additional requirements for safe homes; and

(d) Verification that safe home staff received initial basic training as outlined in this WAC by the domestic violence service.

(3) You must have at least one telephone at the safe home for incoming and outgoing calls. You must provide the following information to residents:

(a) Emergency telephone numbers; and

(b) Instructions on how residents can access domestic violence service staff.

(4) When clients are residing in a safe home at least one domestic violence service staff member must be on-call to go to the safe home twenty-four-hours a day, seven-days-per-week.

(5) Safe homes must comply with the following general fire safety requirements:

(a) Every room used by children in the safe home must have easy entry and exit, including one of these features:

(i) Two separate doors;

(ii) One door leading directly to the outside; or

(iii) A window that opens to the outside and is large enough for emergency escape or rescue.

(b) Every occupied area must have access to at least one exit that does not pass through rooms or spaces that can be locked or blocked from the opposite side.

(c) No space may be lived in by a client that is accessible only by a ladder, folding stairs, or a trap door.

(d) Every bathroom door used by clients must be designed to permit the opening of the locked door from the outside.

(e) Every closet door latch must be designed to be opened from the inside.

(f) Stoves or heaters must not block escape or exit routes.

(g) Flammable, combustible, or poisonous material must be stored away from exits and away from areas that are accessible to children.

(h) Open-flame devices and fireplaces, heating and cooking appliances, and products capable of igniting clothing must not be left unattended or used incorrectly.

(i) Fireplaces, wood stoves and other heating systems that have a surface hot enough to cause harm must have gates or protectors around them when in use.

(j) Multilevel dwellings must have a means of escape from an upper floor. If a fire ladder is needed to escape from an upper story window, it must be stored in a location that is easily accessible to the clients who may need it.

(k) You must place a smoke detector in good working condition in each bedroom or in areas close to where children sleep, such as a hallway. If the smoke detector is mounted on the wall, it must be twelve inches from the ceiling and a corner.

(l) If questions arise concerning fire danger, the local fire protection authority must be consulted.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR SHELTER HOMES

WAC 388-61A-0135 What are the additional requirements for a shelter home? Shelter homes must meet the following additional requirements in order for a domestic violence service to contract with us:

(1) When a shelter home is not a component of a domestic violence service, the shelter home and domestic violence service must have a written working agreement before the shelter home receives clients from the domestic violence service. The written working agreement must include:

(a) Confirmation that the domestic violence service has inspected the shelter home and that the shelter home complies with the general facility and additional requirements for shelter homes;

(b) How the domestic violence service will provide supportive services to shelter home residents; and

(c) Verification that shelter home staff received initial basic training as outlined in this rule by the domestic violence service.

(2) Shelter homes must provide at least one toilet, sink, and bathing facility for each fifteen clients or fraction of this number. The floors of all toilet and bathing facilities must be resistant to moisture.

(3) You must have at least one telephone at the shelter for incoming and outgoing calls. Next to the telephone in shelter homes you must post:

(a) Emergency telephone numbers; and

(b) Instructions on how residents can access domestic violence service staff.

(4) In shelter homes all bathrooms, toilet rooms, laundry rooms, and janitor closets containing wet mops and brushes must have natural or mechanical ventilation in order to prevent objectionable odors and condensation.

(5) When staff serve food to clients in shelter homes, the staff must prepare the food in compliance with WAC 246-215-190, Temporary food service establishment.

(6) Shelter homes must develop and post hygiene procedures for handling and storing diapers and sanitizing the changing area.

(7) Shelter homes must request an annual fire and life safety inspection from their local fire department or fire marshal. The domestic violence service must maintain documentation of the request as well as any report issued as a result of the inspection. Any violations noted by the inspector must be immediately corrected by the domestic violence service.

(8) Shelter homes must meet the following requirements for bedrooms:

(a) Bedrooms must have a minimum ceiling height of seven and [one] half feet;

(b) Bedrooms must provide at least fifty square feet of usable floor area per bed; and

(c) Floor area where the ceiling height is less than five feet cannot be considered as usable floor area.

(9) When clients are residing in a shelter home at least one domestic violence service staff member must be present or on-call to go to the shelter home twenty-four-hours a day, seven-days-per-week.

SUPPORTIVE SERVICES

WAC 388-61A-0140 What supportive services are required to provide to clients? You must give clients an opportunity to receive supportive services and assistance during their stay in the shelter. Clients are not required to participate in these services as a condition of residing in the shelter. Supportive services must include:

(1) Twenty-four-hour, seven-day-per-week access to advocacy-based counseling;

(2) A safe, supportive environment that offers clients the opportunity to examine the events that led to the need for domestic violence services;

(3) A private area for counseling;

(4) Advocacy-based counseling with, and on behalf of, the client;

(5) Safety planning, problem solving and crisis intervention;

(6) Assistance with child care during individual and group counseling sessions;

(7) A minimum ratio of one group facilitator to eight group participants;

(8) Planned activities for children who are residents of the shelter;

(9) A day program or drop-in center to assist victims of domestic violence who have found other shelter but who have a need for supportive services; and

(10) Referrals to other appropriate services or domestic violence services when:

(a) Shelter homes or safe homes are full;

(b) A client must be transferred to another domestic violence service for reasons of safety of the client; or

(c) An inappropriate referral has been made to a domestic violence service; or

(d) The client has problems that require services of another agency or agencies before receiving domestic violence services.

WAC 388-61A-0145 What is advocacy-based counseling? Advocacy-based counseling means the involvement of a client with an advocate counselor in an individual, family, or group session with the primary focus on safety planning and on empowerment of the client through reinforcing the client's autonomy and self-determination. Advocacy-based counseling uses nonvictim blaming problem-solving methods that include:

- (1) Identifying the barriers to safety;
- (2) Developing safety checking and planning skills;
- (3) Clarifying issues;
- (4) Providing options;
- (5) Solving problems;
- (6) Increasing self-esteem and self-awareness; and
- (7) Improving and implementing skills in decision making, parenting, self-help, and self-care.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0145, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0146 What information must the domestic violence service keep confidential? (1) Agents, employees, and volunteers of a domestic violence service must maintain the confidentiality of all personally identifying information, confidential communications, and all confidential information as defined by WAC 388-61A-0025. Information which individually or together with other information could identify a particular victim of domestic violence must also be kept confidential.

(2) Any reports, records, working papers, or other documentation, including electronic files, maintained by the domestic violence service, including information provided to the domestic violence service on behalf of the client. Any information considered privileged by statute, rule, regulation or policy that is shared with the domestic violence service on behalf of the client shall not be divulged without a valid written waiver of the privilege that is based on informed consent, or as otherwise required by law.

(3) You must comply with the provisions of this section regarding confidential communications concerning clients regardless of when the client received the services of the domestic violence service.

WAC 388-61A-0147 What information can be disclosed? (1) You can disclose confidential information only when:

(a) The client provides informed, written consent to the waiver of confidentiality that relates only to the client or the client's dependents;

(b) Failure to disclose is likely to result in a clear, imminent risk of serious physical injury or death of the client or other person;

(c) Disclosure is required under chapter 26.44 RCW, Abuse of children;

(d) Release of information is made to an authorized person to the extent necessary for a management audit, financial audit, or program evaluation with the following restrictions:

(i) The authorized person shall sign a confidentiality agreement with the domestic violence service that demonstrates his or her acknowledgment of the requirement that client information be kept confidential;

(ii) No personally identifying information about the client can be copied or removed from the domestic violence service;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 376]

(iii) No copies of working papers or other documentation about the client can be removed from the domestic violence service; and

(iv) The client file cannot be removed from the premises of the domestic violence service.

(e) Release of information is otherwise required by law or court order, or following in-camera review pursuant to RCW 70.123.075, with the following additional requirements:

(i) The domestic violence service shall make reasonable attempts to provide notice to the person affected by the disclosure of the information; and

(ii) If personally identifying information is or will be disclosed, the domestic violence service shall take steps necessary to protect the privacy and safety of the persons affected by the disclosure of information.

(2) Any release of information subject to any of the exceptions set forth above shall be limited to the minimum necessary to meet the requirement of the exception, and such release does not void the client's right to confidentiality and privilege on any other confidential communication between the client and the domestic violence service.

(3) In the case of an unemancipated minor, the minor and the parent or guardian must provide the written consent. Consent for release may not be given by a parent who has abused the minor or the minor's other parent. In the case of a disabled adult who has been appointed a guardian, the guardian must consent to release unless the guardian is the abuser of the disabled adult.

(4) To comply with federal, state, tribal, or territorial reporting, evaluation, or data collection requirements, domestic violence programs may disclose nonpersonally identifying data in the aggregate regarding services to their clients and nonpersonally identifying demographic information.

(5) If requested, a copy of the disclosed information shall be provided to the client.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 2006 c 259, and federal PL 109-162, 07-04-098, § 388-61A-0147, filed 2/6/07, effective 3/9/07.]

WAC 388-61A-0148 What information needs to be included in a written waiver of confidentiality? (1) To be valid, a written waiver of confidentiality must:

(a) Be voluntary;

(b) Relate only to the client or the client's dependents;

(c) Clearly describe the scope and any limitations of the information to be released;

(d) Include an expiration date for the release; and

(e) Inform the client that consent can be withdrawn at any time whether it is made orally or in writing.

(2) If the written waiver of confidentiality does not include an expiration date, it shall expire ninety days after the date it was signed.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 2006 c 259, and federal PL 109-162, 07-04-098, § 388-61A-0148, filed 2/6/07, effective 3/9/07.]

WAC 388-61A-0149 What information must be provided to clients about their right to confidentiality? (1) You must provide each client with a written "notice of rights" at the time of initial and any subsequent intake into the domestic violence service. At a minimum, the notice of rights shall inform clients of the following:

(a) The client's right to privacy and confidentiality of the information shared with the domestic violence service;

(b) Exceptions to confidentiality as described in this chapter;

(c) That if the client signs a written waiver of confidentiality that allows their information to be shared with others, the client does not give up their right to have that information protected under other statutes, rules or laws;

(d) That the client has the right to withdraw a written waiver of confidentiality at any time; and

(e) That the domestic violence service will not condition the provision of services to the client based on a requirement that the client sign one or more releases of confidential information.

(2) Information on the "notice of rights" must be explained to the client at the time of intake into the domestic violence service and then again, at the time the client is considering whether to sign a written waiver of confidentiality.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 2006 c 259, and federal PL 109-162, 07-04-098, § 388-61A-0149, filed 2/6/07, effective 3/9/07.]

WAC 388-61A-0150 What type of training is required for staff of the domestic violence service? All staff providing direct services to domestic violence clients, and supervisors of direct service staff, must meet the following minimum training requirements.

(1) A minimum of twenty hours of initial basic training that covers at least the following topics:

(a) Theory and implementation of advocacy-based counseling;

(b) The history of domestic violence;

(c) Legal, medical, social service, and systems advocacy;

(d) Confidentiality and ethics;

(e) Client safety assessment;

(f) Planning, problem-solving, and crisis intervention;

(g) Providing services and advocacy to individuals from diverse communities;

(h) Policies and procedures of the domestic violence service; and

(i) Referrals and shelter resident transfers.

(2) In the year following the year in which they received their initial basic training, and every year thereafter, staff providing direct services, and supervisors of direct service staff, must attend a minimum of thirty hours of continuing education as follows:

(a) At least fifteen hours of continuing education must be training on advocacy-based counseling directly related to serving victims of domestic violence and their children.

(b) At least five hours of continuing education must be training on services and advocacy to individuals from diverse communities.

(c) Staff must devote not more than ten hours to video, audiotapes, or self-study as part of the overall thirty-hour continuing education requirement.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0150, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-61A-0155 Must supervisors of domestic violence service staff have specific experience and training? Supervisors of staff providing direct services to domestic violence clients must meet the following minimum experience and training requirements.

(1) At least two years' counseling experience with a domestic violence service; and

(2) Fifty hours of training on domestic violence issues and advocacy-based counseling within three years prior to providing staff supervision.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW, 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0155, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0160 What written policies and procedures do you need to have? The domestic violence service must have written policies and procedures that cover the following issues:

(1) Victims in immediate danger or at risk will receive first priority for shelter;

(2) Confidentiality of client records and communication;

(3) Nondiscrimination relating to staff, clients, and provision of services;

(4) The provision of bilingual and interpreter services to clients;

(5) Recruitment, hiring, periodic performance evaluation, promotion and termination of staff. Agencies must recruit, to the extent feasible, persons who are former victims of domestic violence to work as paid or volunteer staff;

(6) Job descriptions for all staff positions including volunteers;

(7) Reporting of child abuse as legally mandated;

(8) Clients access to their files;

(9) Grievance procedures for staff and clients;

(10) Procedures for making referrals to other community resources such as medical, community service offices, pastoral care, legal representation, and client transfers to another domestic violence service for reasons of safety of the client;

(11) Emergency procedures for fire, disaster, first aid, medical and police intervention;

(12) Appropriate documentation of domestic violence services and client files;

(13) Protection of agency and client records;

(14) Records retention;

(15) Appropriate accounting procedures;

(16) Personnel policies and procedures; and

(17) Administrative policies and procedures.

COMPLIANCE WITH STANDARDS

WAC 388-61A-0165 Will DSHS do an evaluation of the domestic violence service? (1) To measure compliance with our requirements we will conduct a biennial evaluation of each agency under contract with us to provide domestic violence service.

(2) We will inspect a random number of safe homes during biennial evaluations of domestic violence services to measure compliance with our requirements.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 377]

(3) If a lodging unit is occupied at the time of an evaluation, the domestic violence service must give the client an opportunity to leave the unit.

WAC 388-61A-0170 What will happen if I am out of compliance with my contract? (1) If we find that the domestic violence service, safe home, or shelter home is out of compliance with the standards specified in this chapter or the contract, we will give you written notice of the deficiencies. You must correct the deficiencies according to a plan of correction we approve.

(2) We may suspend or revoke the funding of a domestic violence service where a safe home, shelter home, or the domestic violence service itself is out of compliance with this chapter or the DSHS contract.

WAC 388-61A-0175 What will happen if there is a complaint to DSHS about the domestic violence service?

(1) If we receive a complaint that your domestic violence service is out of compliance with this chapter or the DSHS contract, we will notify you and we will initiate an investigation.

(2) If the investigation requires that we be on-site at your domestic violence service, you must give clients residing in lodging units an opportunity to leave the unit during the inspection.

(3) If we find that the domestic violence service, safe home, or shelter home has not complied with the standards specified in this chapter or the terms of the DSHS contract, we will give you written notice of the deficiencies. You must correct the deficiencies according to a plan of correction we approve.

(4) We may suspend or revoke the funding of a domestic violence service where a safe home, shelter home, or the service itself is out of compliance with this chapter or the DSHS contract.

WAC 388-61A-0180 Can DSHS waive any of the minimum standards of this chapter? Under certain conditions we may waive some of the rules contained in this chapter if you submit a written request that satisfactorily demonstrates that:

(1) The waiver will not place the client's safety or health in jeopardy and that:

(a) The domestic violence service is unable to meet the requirements of this chapter without the waiver; or

(b) The absence of the waiver will have a detrimental effect on the provision of services.

(2) Any substitutions of procedures, materials, or equipment from those specified in this chapter are at least equivalent to those required.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0180, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-70-091 Foster care planning for Indian children—Definitions. For the purposes of these rules, the term "Indian" includes the following groups:

- (1) An enrolled Indian:
 - (a) Any person who is enrolled or eligible for enrollment in a recognized tribe.
 - (b) Any person determined, or eligible to be found, to be an Indian by the Secretary of the Interior.
 - (c) An Eskimo, Aleut or other Alaskan native.
- (2) A Canadian Indian: Any person who is a member of a treaty tribe, Metis community or nonstatus Indian community from Canada.
- (3) An unenrolled Indian: A person considered to be an Indian by a federally or nonfederally recognized Indian tribe or urban Indian/Alaskan native community organization.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-091, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-092 Foster care for Indian children—Tribal sovereignty. Neither the licensing of Indian foster homes nor the placement and supervision of Indian children within the exterior boundaries of an Indian reservation, shall in any way abridge the sovereignty of an Indian nation or tribe nor shall compliance with these rules and regulations be deemed a relinquishment of sovereign authority by an Indian nation or tribe or by the state of Washington.

WAC 388-70-093 Foster care for Indian children—Services. Documented efforts shall be made to avoid separating the Indian child from his parents, relatives, tribe or cultural heritage. Consequently:

- (1) In the case of Indian children being placed in foster care by the department or for whom the department has supervisory responsibility, the local Indian child welfare advisory committee, predesignated by a tribal council, or appropriate urban Indian organization shall be contacted. Members of that committee will serve as resource persons for the purposes of cooperative planning and aid in placement.
- (2) The resources of the tribal government, department and the Indian community shall be used to locate the child's parents and relatives to assist in locating possible placement resources, and to assist in the development of a plan to overcome the problem that brought the child to the attention of the authorities and/or the department.
- (3) In planning foster care placements for Indian children, demonstrable consideration shall be given to tribal membership, tribal culture and Indian religions. The case record shall document the reasons and circumstances of case-work decisions and consideration in those regards.

(4) The following resources for foster home placement of Indian children will be explored and followed in the following order: Relatives' homes, homes of other Indian families of same tribe, other Indian foster parents and non-Indian foster homes specifically recruited and trained in cooperation with the local Indian child welfare advisory committee to meet the special needs of Indian foster children and in the geographic proximity that will insure continuation of the parent-child relationship. The training of non-Indian foster parents shall be designed and delivered in cooperation with the above committee and/or persons designated by the committee.

(5) For each Indian child who will be in care for more than 30 days, including those for whom adoption is planned, the ESSO shall make documented effort to complete two copies of the "family ancestry chart" (except in those cases where parents specifically indicate in writing they do not want the child enrolled). One copy will be retained in the child's file; the other will be forwarded to the bureau of Indian affairs office or the department of Indian affairs agency in Canada serving that child's tribe or band. The BIA of the department of Indian affairs agency will review the chart for possible enrollment eligibility in conjunction with the enrollment committee of the appropriate tribe or urban Indian community.

(6) The ESSO shall develop its social resources and staff training programs designed to meet the special needs of Indian children through coordination with tribal, Indian health service, bureau of Indian affairs social service staff, appropriate urban Indian and Alaskan native consultants, national, state and local Indian welfare organizations and ESSO child welfare advisory committees.

(7) The ESSO shall make diligent and demonstrable efforts to recruit facilities and/or homes particularly capable of meeting the special needs of Indian children with the assistance of the local Indian child welfare advisory committees.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-093, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-095 Foster care for Indian children—Serious injury, death, abandonment, child abuse, neglect, incarceration. When an Indian child in foster care dies, is seriously injured, abandoned or incarcerated, in addition to other appropriate notifications, the department shall promptly advise the ESSO Indian child welfare advisory committee and appropriate tribal council. WAC 388-15-131(4) provides for notification about child abuse/neglect incidents.

[Order 1255, § 388-70-095, filed 12/1/77; Order 1167, § 388-70-095, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-450 Adoptive planning for Indian children by department staff. (1) Definitions: For the purposes of these rules the term "Indian" includes the following groups:

- (a) Enrolled Indian
 - (i) Any person who is enrolled or eligible for enrollment in a recognized tribe.
 - (ii) Any person determined, or eligible to be found, to be an Indian by the secretary of the interior.
 - (iii) An Eskimo, Aleut or other Alaskan native.
- (b) Canadian Indian: A person who is a member of a treaty tribe, Metis community or nonstatus Indian community from Canada.
- (c) Unenrolled Indian: A person considered to be an Indian by a federally or nonfederally recognized tribe or urban Indian/Alaskan native community organization.

(2) An adoptive family shall be considered Indian if one or both parents are Indian by the above definitions.

(3) In adoptive planning for Indian children, the unique tribal, cultural and religious sovereignty of Indian nations, tribes and communities shall be recognized. When consistent with the wishes of the biological parents and/or the child, the adoption of Indian children by Indian families is the primary goal.

(4) Standards implementing the policy are:

(a) Adoption exchange. In the referrals for an Indian child, adoptive homes having the following characteristics shall be given preference in the following order, each category being allowed 30 days before proceeding to the next.

(i) An Indian family of the same tribe as the child.

(ii) A Washington Indian family considering tribal cultural differences.

(iii) An Indian family from elsewhere in the United States or Canada through the adoption resource exchange of North America. Attention shall be given to matching the child's tribal culture to that of the adoptive family.

(iv) Any other family which can provide a suitable home to an Indian child, as well as instill pride and understanding in the child's tribal and cultural heritage.

(b) Foster parent adoptions: As a part of the total evaluation for approving a foster parent adoption of an Indian child, ESSO service staff shall document the foster family's past performance and future commitment in exposing the child to its Indian tribal and cultural heritage. The child's wish to be involved in his Indian culture shall be considered.

(c) When an Indian child, in the custody of an out-of-state agency, is referred for potential adoptive parents residing in Washington, documentation shall be obtained that assures the department's standards for planning for Indian children have been complied with.

(5) Local staff shall consult with an Indian child welfare committee in planning for placement of Indian children.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-450, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-600 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Purpose. The intent of WAC 388-70-096, 388-70-450, and 388-70-600 through 388-70-640 is to ensure protection of the Indian identity of Indian children, their rights as Indian children, and the maximum utilization of available Indian resources for Indian children. To ensure the realization of this intent, information about each current and future case involving Indian children for whom the department of social and health services has a responsibility shall be referred to a local Indian child welfare advisory committee on an ongoing basis according to procedures which recognize the privacy rights of the families.

The purposes of local Indian child welfare advisory committees are:

(1) To promote relevant social service planning for Indian children.

(2) To encourage the preservation of the Indian family, tribe, heritage, and identity of each Indian child served by the department of social and health services.

(3) To assist in obtaining participation by representatives of tribal governments and Indian organizations in departmental planning for Indian children for whom the department has a responsibility.

(2009 Ed.)

[Order 1167, § 388-70-600, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-610 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Membership. Local Indian child welfare committees shall be established within each region. The number and locations of the local committees shall be mutually determined by the Indian tribal governments and urban Indian organizations served by that region and the DSHS regional administrator.

(1) The committee shall consist of representatives designated by tribal government and urban Indian organizations. The regional administrator shall appoint committee members from among those individuals designated by Indian authorities. These members should be familiar with and knowledgeable about the needs of children in general as well as the particular needs of Indian children residing in the service area.

(2) The committee may also include bureau of Indian affairs and/or Indian health service staff if approved by participating tribal councils and urban Indian organizations.

(3) The DSHS regional administrator and/or the ESSO administrator shall appoint a member of his child welfare supervisory staff as a liaison member of the committee.

(4) The local Indian child welfare advisory committee is an ad hoc advisory committee not specifically authorized by statute. As such its members are not entitled to per diem and travel expenses for the performance of advisory committee functions. This rule shall not be construed, however, to prohibit expense payments to members who are otherwise qualified for and perform services compensable under other programs such as the volunteer programs.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-610, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-615 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Subcommittees. Each committee may appoint a subcommittee of permanent members to participate in reviewing the situation of an individual child or children for the purpose of recommending future planning actions.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-615, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-620 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Functions. (1) The functions of the local Indian child welfare advisory committee are:

(a) Assistance to DSHS staff in cooperative planning for Indian children.

(b) Consultation to DSHS staff regarding the provision of adoption, foster care and child protective services on behalf of Indian children.

(c) Reviewing the situations of Indian children.

(d) Assisting in the implementation of recommended plans.

(e) Assisting in the recruitment of and making recommendations regarding the licensing of foster and adoptive homes for Indian children and providing culturally relevant services to Indian children.

(f) Requests the ESSO administrator to initiate reviews of casework decisions that the committee believes to be detrimental to the best interests of Indian children.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 383]

(g) Acts in an advisory capacity to the regional administrator and ESSO administrator regarding the department's implementation and monitoring of the rules related to foster care, child protection, and adoption services to Indian children and their families.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-620, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-630 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Meetings. Each committee and the regional administrator and/or ESSO administrator will mutually agree as to time, place and frequency and conduct of official committee meetings.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-630, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-640 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Confidentiality. The members of the local child welfare advisory committee shall agree to abide by RCW 74.04.060 and the rules of confidentiality binding the DSHS staff.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.15.030, 89-05-063 (Order 2743), § 388-70-640, filed 2/15/89; Order 1167, § 388-70-640, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-71-0105 What definitions apply to adult protective services? In addition to the definitions found in chapter 74.34 RCW, the following definitions apply:

"ADSA" means DSHS aging and disability services administration.

"ALJ" means an administrative law judge, an impartial decision-maker who is an attorney and presides at an administrative hearing. The office of administrative hearings (OAH), which is a state agency, employs the ALJs. ALJs are not DSHS employees or DSHS representatives.

"APS" means adult protective services.

"Basic necessities of life" means food, water, shelter, clothing, and medically necessary health care, including but not limited to health-related treatment or activities, hygiene, oxygen, and medication.

"BOA" means the DSHS board of appeals. The board of appeals consists of lawyers who are members of the Washington State Bar Association. An ALJ's decision can be appealed to the board of appeals, allowing a level of review before an appeal to the court system may be considered.

"DSHS" means the department of social and health services.

"Entity" means any agency, corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, sole proprietorship, for-profit or not-for-profit business that provides care and/or services to vulnerable adults under a license, certification or contract issued by DSHS or DSHS' contractor. An entity does not include a boarding home licensed under chapter 18.20 RCW, an adult family home licensed under chapter 70.128 RCW, or a nursing home licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW, but does include such facilities if they are required to be licensed but are not currently licensed.

"Facility" means a residence licensed as a boarding home under chapter 18.20 RCW, an adult family home under chapter 70.128 RCW, a nursing home under chapter 18.51 RCW, a soldier's home under chapter 72.36 RCW, a residential habilitation center under chapter 71A.20 RCW, or any other facility licensed by DSHS.

"Final finding" means the department's substantiated finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect is upheld through the administrative appeal process specified in WAC 388-71-01205 through 388-71-01280, or is not timely appealed to the office of administrative hearings. The alleged perpetrator can appeal a final finding to Superior Court and the Court of Appeals under the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW.

"Initial finding" means a determination made by the department upon investigation of an allegation of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect or self-neglect.

(1) If the department determines it is more likely than not the incident occurred, the department shall document the finding as "substantiated."

(2) If the department determines it is more likely than not the incident did not occur, the department shall document the finding as "unsubstantiated."

(3) If the department cannot make a determination about whether the incident occurred or did not occur on a more probable than not basis, the department shall document the finding as "inconclusive."

"Legal representative" means a guardian appointed under chapter 11.88 RCW.

"Person or entity with a duty of care" includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) A guardian appointed under chapter 11.88 RCW; or

(2) A person named in a durable power of attorney as the attorney-in-fact as defined under chapter 11.94 RCW.

(3) A person or entity providing the basic necessities of life to a vulnerable adult [adults] where:

(a) The person or entity is employed by or on behalf of the vulnerable adult; or

(b) The person or entity voluntarily agrees to provide, or has been providing, the basic necessities of life to the vulnerable adult on a continuing basis.

"Personal aide" as found in RCW 74.39.007.

"Self-directed care" as found in RCW 74.39.007.

"Willful" means the nonaccidental action or inaction by an alleged perpetrator that he/she knew or reasonably should have known could cause harm, injury or a negative outcome.

PART A—PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

WAC 388-71-0110 What is the purpose of an adult protective services investigation? The purpose of an adult protective services investigation is to:

(1) Investigate allegations of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect, or self-neglect.

(2) Provide protective services with the consent of the vulnerable adult or his or her legal representative when the allegation is substantiated, or prior to substantiation when it appears abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect or self-neglect may be occurring and protective services could assist in ending or preventing harm to the vulnerable adult.

(3) When an allegation is substantiated, APS may investigate whether other vulnerable adults may be at current risk of abuse, neglect, abandonment or financial exploitation by the person or entity.

WAC 388-71-0115 When is an investigation conducted? The department determines when an investigation is conducted [required]. The following criteria must be met:

(1) The reported circumstances fit the definition of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect, or self-neglect as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW; and

(2) The alleged victim is a vulnerable adult as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-0115, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.34.165, and 74.39A.050(9). 00-03-029, § 388-71-0115, filed 1/11/00, effective 2/11/00.]

Reviser's note: RCW 34.05.395 requires the use of underlining and deletion marks to indicate amendments to existing rules, and deems ineffectual changes not filed by the agency in this manner. The bracketed material in the above section does not appear to conform to the statutory requirement.

WAC 388-71-01201 What state-only funded services may be offered to a vulnerable adult victim of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect or self-neglect? (1) Subject to available funding, state-only funded in-home personal care/household services and state-only funded placement in a department licensed and contracted adult family home, boarding home or nursing facility may be offered without regard to the vulnerable adult's functional status or income/resources, if:

(a) The vulnerable adult is the subject of an open APS case involving an allegation of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect, and/or self-neglect;

(b) The services would help protect the vulnerable adult from harm;

(c) APS cannot verify alternative resources or options for payment for services available to the vulnerable adult at the time;

(d) Services are provided in the least restrictive and most cost effective setting available to appropriately meet the needs of the vulnerable adult;

(e) APS is actively pursuing other service alternatives and/or resolution of the issues that resulted in the need for protective services; and

(f) The state-only funded services are temporary and provided with the consent of the vulnerable adult or legal representative only until the situation has stabilized. State-only funded protective services are provided by DSHS on a discretionary basis and are not a benefit and not an entitlement. Termination of state-only funded temporary protective services is exempt from notification and appeal requirements.

(2) State-only funded services to an individual vulnerable adult shall be based on assessed need and limited to:

(a) Up to one hundred forty-three hours of in-home personal care/household services per month; and

(b) A cumulative maximum total of ninety days service in any twelve-month period of time, with nursing facility services not exceeding thirty days of the ninety-day total. An exception to rule cannot be used to grant an extension.

PART B—NOTIFICATION AND ADMINISTRATIVE APPEAL OF A SUBSTANTIATED FINDING

WAC 388-71-01205 When does APS notify the alleged perpetrator of the results of an APS investigation?

(1) APS will notify the alleged perpetrator in writing within ten working days of making a substantiated initial finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect of a vulnerable adult.

(2) The time frame for notification can be extended beyond ten working days to include the time needed to translate the notification letter or make provisions for the safety of the alleged victim.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01205, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01210 How may APS give the alleged perpetrator notice of the substantiated initial finding?

(1) APS shall notify the alleged perpetrator of a substantiated initial finding by sending a letter certified mail/return receipt requested and regular mail to the alleged perpetrator's last known place of residence. The duty of notification created by this section is subject to the ability of the department to ascertain the location of the alleged perpetrator. APS shall make a reasonable, good faith effort to determine the address of the last known place of residence of the alleged perpetrator; or

(2) APS shall have the written notice delivered or personally served upon the alleged perpetrator.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01210, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01215 When is notice to the alleged perpetrator complete? Notice is complete when:

- (1) Personal service is made;
- (2) Mail is properly stamped, addressed and deposited in the United States mail;
- (3) A parcel is delivered to a commercial delivery service with charges prepaid; or
- (4) A parcel is delivered to a legal messenger service with charges prepaid.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01215, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01220 What proves that APS provided notice of the substantiated initial finding to the alleged perpetrator? APS may prove notice was provided to the alleged perpetrator by any of the following:

- (1) A sworn statement or declaration of personal service;
- (2) The certified mail receipt signed by the recipient;
- (3) An affidavit or certificate of mailing; or
- (4) A signed receipt from the person who accepted the commercial delivery service or legal messenger service package.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01220, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 394]

WAC 388-71-01225 What information must not be in the APS finding notice to the alleged perpetrator? The identities of the alleged victim, reporter, and witnesses must not be included in the APS finding notice to the alleged perpetrator.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01225, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01230 Will APS notify anyone other than the alleged perpetrator of the finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect? (1) In a manner consistent with confidentiality requirements concerning the vulnerable adult, witnesses, and reporter, APS may provide notification of a substantiated initial finding to:

- (a) Other divisions within the department;
- (b) The agency or program identified under RCW 74.34.068 with which the alleged perpetrator is associated as an employee, volunteer or contractor;
- (c) Law enforcement;
- (d) Other investigative authority consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW; and
- (e) The facility in which the incident occurred.

(2) In the notification APS will identify the finding as an initial finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01230, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01235 Can an alleged perpetrator challenge an APS finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect? An alleged perpetrator of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect may request an administrative hearing to challenge a substantiated initial finding made by APS on or after the effective date of this rule.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01235, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01240 How does an alleged perpetrator request an administrative hearing to challenge an APS finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect?

(1) To request an administrative hearing the alleged perpetrator must send, deliver, or fax a written request to the office of administrative hearings. OAH must receive the written request within thirty calendar days of the date the department's letter of notice is mailed or personally served upon the alleged perpetrator, whichever occurs first. If the alleged perpetrator requests a hearing by fax, the alleged perpetrator must also mail a copy of the request to OAH on the same day.

(2) The alleged perpetrator must complete and submit the form to request an administrative hearing provided by APS or submit a written request for a hearing that includes:

- (a) The full legal name, current address and phone number of the alleged perpetrator;
- (b) A brief explanation of why the alleged perpetrator disagrees with the substantiated initial finding;
- (c) A description of any assistance needed in the administrative appeal process by the alleged perpetrator, including a foreign or sign language interpreter or any accommodation for a disability;

(d) The alleged perpetrator should keep a copy of the request.

WAC 388-71-01245 What laws and rules will control the administrative hearings held regarding substantiated APS findings? Chapters 34.05 and 74.34 RCW, chapter 388-02 WAC, and the provisions of this chapter govern any administrative hearing regarding a substantiated APS finding. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this chapter and chapter 388-02 WAC, the provisions of this chapter shall prevail.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01245, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01250 How is confidential information protected in the appeal process? (1) All information and documents provided by the department to the alleged perpetrator shall be used by the alleged perpetrator only to challenge the findings in the administrative hearing.

(2) Confidential information such as the name and other personal identifying information of the reporter and the vulnerable adult shall be redacted from documents and the parties shall use means in testimony to protect the identify of such persons, unless otherwise ordered by the ALJ consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW and other applicable state and federal laws.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01250, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01255 How does the administrative law judge make a decision regarding the substantiated APS finding? (1) The ALJ shall decide if a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record supports a determination that the alleged perpetrator committed an act of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect of a vulnerable adult.

(2) If the ALJ determines that a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record supports the substantiated APS finding, the ALJ shall uphold the finding.

(3) If the ALJ determines that the substantiated APS finding is not supported by a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record, the ALJ shall remand the matter to the department to modify the finding consistent with the initial decision of the ALJ.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01255, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01260 How is the alleged perpetrator notified of the administrative law judge's decision? After the administrative hearing, the ALJ will send a written decision to the alleged perpetrator and the department within ninety calendar days after the record is closed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01260, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01265 What if the alleged perpetrator or the department disagrees with the decision? If the alleged perpetrator or the department disagrees with the ALJ's decision, either party may challenge this decision by filing a petition for review with the department's board of appeals consistent with the procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-71-01270 What happens if the administrative law judge rules against the department? If the department appeals the ALJ's decision, the department will not modify the finding in the department's records until a final hearing decision is issued. If the department does not appeal the ALJ's initial decision, the department will modify the finding in the department's records consistent with the ALJ's initial decision and document the ALJ's decision in the record.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01270, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01275 When does the APS substantiated initial finding become a final finding? A substantiated initial finding becomes a final finding when:

(1) The department gives the alleged perpetrator notice of the substantiated initial finding pursuant to WAC 388-71-01210 and the alleged perpetrator does not request an administrative hearing as set forth in WAC 388-71-01240; or

(2) The ALJ dismisses the hearing following default or withdrawal by the alleged perpetrator, or issues an initial order upholding the substantiated finding and the alleged perpetrator fails to file a request for review of the ALJ's initial decision with the department's board of appeals consistent with the procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC; or

(3) The board of appeals issues a final order upholding the substantiated finding when a request for review to the department's board of appeals is made consistent with the procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

(4) The final finding will remain as substantiated in the department's records unless the final finding is reversed after judicial review.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01275, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01280 Does the department disclose information about final findings of abuse, abandonment, neglect and financial exploitation? The department will maintain a registry of final findings and, upon request of any person, the department may disclose the identity of a person or entity with a final finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01280, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-0500 What is the purpose of WAC 388-71-0500 through [388-71-05952] [388-71-05909]? A client/legal representative may choose an individual provider or a home care agency provider. The intent of WAC 388-71-0500 through [388-71-05952] [388-71-05909] is to describe the:

(1) Qualifications of an individual provider, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 395]

(2) Qualifications of a home care agency provider, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010 and chapter 246-336 WAC;

(3) Conditions under which the department or the area agency on aging (AAA) will pay for the services of an individual provider or a home care agency provider;

(4) Training requirements for an individual provider and home care agency provider.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, 05-11-082, § 388-71-0500, filed 5/17/05, effective 6/17/05. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.090, 02-21-098, § 388-71-0500, filed 10/21/02, effective 11/21/02. Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.39A RCW and 2000 c 121, 02-10-117, § 388-71-0500, filed 4/30/02, effective 5/31/02. WAC 388-71-0515 What are the responsibilities of an individual provider or home care agency provider when employed to provide care to a client? An individual provider or home care agency provider must:

(1) Understand the client's plan of care that is signed by the client or legal representative and social worker/case manager, and translated or interpreted, as necessary, for the client and the provider;

(2) Provide the services as outlined on the client's plan of care, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010;

(3) Accommodate client's individual preferences and differences in providing care;

(4) Contact the client's representative and case manager when there are changes which affect the personal care and other tasks listed on the plan of care;

(5) Observe the client for change(s) in health, take appropriate action, and respond to emergencies;

(6) Notify the case manager immediately when the client enters a hospital, or moves to another setting;

(7) Notify the case manager immediately if the client dies;

(8) Notify the department or AAA immediately when unable to staff/serve the client; and

(9) Notify the department/AAA when the individual provider or home care agency will no longer provide services. Notification to the client/legal guardian must:

(a) Give at least two weeks' notice, and

(b) Be in writing.

(10) Complete and keep accurate time sheets that are accessible to the social worker/case manager; and

(11) Comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

WAC 388-71-0540 When will the department, AAA, or managed care entity deny payment for services of an individual provider or home care agency provider? The department, AAA, or managed care entity will deny payment for the services of an individual provider or home care agency provider who:

(1) Is the client's spouse, per 42 C.F.R. 441.360(g), except in the case of an individual provider for a chore services client. Note: For chore spousal providers, the department pays a rate not to exceed the amount of a one-person standard for a continuing general assistance grant, per WAC 388-478-0030;

(2) Is the natural/step/adoptive parent of a minor client aged seventeen or younger receiving services under medicaid personal care;

(3) Is a foster parent providing personal care to a child residing in their licensed foster home;

(4) Has been convicted of a disqualifying crime, under RCW 43.43.830 and 43.43.842 or of a crime relating to drugs as defined in RCW 43.43.830;

(5) Has abused, neglected, abandoned, or exploited a minor or vulnerable adult, as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW;

(6) Has had a license, certification, or a contract for the care of children or vulnerable adults denied, suspended, revoked, or terminated for noncompliance with state and/or federal regulations;

(7) Does not successfully complete the training requirements within the time limits required in WAC 388-71-05665 through 388-71-05865;

(8) Is already meeting the client's needs on an informal basis, and the client's assessment or reassessment does not identify any unmet need; and/or

(9) Is terminated by the client (in the case of an individual provider) or by the home care agency (in the case of an agency provider).

In addition, the department, AAA, or managed care entity may deny payment to or terminate the contract of an individual provider as provided under WAC 388-71-0546, 388-71-0551, and 388-71-0556.

WAC 388-71-0546 When can the department, AAA, or managed care entity reject the client's choice of an individual provider? The department, AAA, or managed care entity may reject a client's request to have a family member or other person serve as his or her individual provider if the case manager has a reasonable, good faith belief that the person will be unable to appropriately meet the client's needs. Examples of circumstances indicating an inability to meet the client's needs could include, without limitation:

(1) Evidence of alcohol or drug abuse;

(2) A reported history of domestic violence, no-contact orders, or criminal conduct (whether or not the conduct is disqualifying under RCW 43.43.830 and 43.43.842;

(3) A report from the client's health care provider or other knowledgeable person that the requested provider lacks the ability or willingness to provide adequate care;

(4) Other employment or responsibilities that prevent or interfere with the provision of required services;

(5) Excessive commuting distance that would make it impractical to provide services as they are needed and outlined in the client's service plan.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, 74.39A.010 and 74.39A.020, 06-05-022, § 388-71-0546, filed 2/6/06, effective 3/9/06. WAC 388-71-0551 When can the department, AAA, or managed care entity terminate or summarily suspend an individual provider's contract? The department, AAA, or managed care entity may take action to terminate an individual provider's contract if the provider's inadequate performance or inability to deliver quality care is jeopardizing the client's health, safety, or well-being. The department, AAA, or managed care entity may summarily suspend the contract pending a hearing based on a reasonable, good faith belief that the client's health, safety, or well-being is in imminent jeopardy. Examples of circumstances indicating jeopardy to the client could include, without limitation:

(1) Domestic violence or abuse, neglect, abandonment, or exploitation of a minor or vulnerable adult;

(2) Using or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs during working hours;

(3) Other behavior directed toward the client or other persons involved in the client's life that places the client at risk of harm;

(4) A report from the client's health care provider that the client's health is negatively affected by inadequate care;

(5) A complaint from the client or client's representative that the client is not receiving adequate care;

(6) The absence of essential interventions identified in the service plan, such as medications or medical supplies; and/or

(7) Failure to respond appropriately to emergencies.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, 74.39A.010 and 74.39A.020, 06-05-022, § 388-71-0551, filed 2/6/06, effective 3/9/06. [Title 388 WAC—p. 397]

WAC 388-71-0556 When can the department, AAA, or managed care entity otherwise terminate an individual provider's contract? The department, AAA, or managed care entity may otherwise terminate the individual provider's contract for default or convenience in accordance with the terms of the contract and to the extent that those terms are not inconsistent with these rules.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, 74.39A.010 and 74.39A.020. 06-05-022, § 388-71-0556, filed 2/6/06, effective 3/9/06. WAC 388-71-0560 What are the client's rights if the department denies, terminates, or summarily suspends an individual provider's contract? If the department denies, terminates, or summarily suspends the individual provider's contract, the client has the right to:

(1) A fair hearing to appeal the decision, per chapter 388-02 WAC, and

(2) Receive services from another currently contracted individual provider or home care agency provider, or other options the client is eligible for, if a contract is summarily suspended.

(3) The hearing rights afforded under this section are those of the client, not the individual provider.

WAC 388-71-05665 What definitions apply to WAC 388-71-05670 through 388-71-05909? "Client" means an individual age eighteen or older, receiving in-home services through medicaid personal care, COPEs, MNIW, or Chore programs.

"Competency" means the minimum level of information and skill trainees are required to know and be able to demonstrate.

"DSHS" refers to the department of social and health services.

"Learning outcomes" means the specific information, skills and behaviors desired of the learner as a result of a specific unit of instruction, such as what they would learn by the end of a single class or an entire course. Learning outcomes are generally identified with a specific lesson plan or curriculum.

"Routine interaction" means contact with clients that happens regularly.

ORIENTATION

WAC 388-71-05670 What is orientation? Orientation provides basic introductory information appropriate to the in-home setting and population served. The department does not approve specific orientation programs, materials, or trainers for home care agencies. Department-developed orientation materials must be used for orientation of individual providers. No test is required for orientation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.050, 2003 c 140, chapters 18.79, 18.88A RCW. 04-02-001, recodified as § 388-71-05670, filed 12/24/03, effective 1/24/04. Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.39A RCW and 2000 c 121. 02-10-117, § 388-71-05911, filed 4/30/02, effective 5/31/02.]

WAC 388-71-05675 What content must be included in an orientation? Orientation may include the use of videotapes, audiotapes, and other media if the person overseeing the orientation is available to answer questions or concerns for the person(s) receiving the orientation. Orientation must include introductory information in the following areas:

- (1) The care setting;
- (2) The characteristics and special needs of the population served;
- (3) Fire and life safety, including:
 - (a) Emergency communication (including phone system if one exists);
 - (b) Evacuation planning (including fire alarms and fire extinguishers where they exist);
 - (c) Ways to handle client injuries and falls or other accidents;
 - (d) Potential risks to clients or providers (for instance, aggressive client behaviors and how to handle them); and
 - (e) The location of agency policies and procedures, when orientation takes place in a home care agency.
- (4) Communication skills and information, including:
 - (a) Methods for supporting effective communication among the client/guardian, the provider, and family members;
 - (b) Use of verbal and nonverbal communication;
 - (c) Review of written communications and/or documentation required for the job, including the client's service plan; and
 - (d) Whom to contact about problems and concerns.
- (5) Universal precautions and infection control, including:
 - (a) Proper hand washing techniques;
 - (b) Protection from exposure to blood and other body fluids;
 - (c) Appropriate disposal of contaminated/hazardous articles;

(d) Reporting exposure to contaminated articles, blood, or other body fluids; and

WAC 388-71-05830 Who is required to complete nurse delegation core training, and when? Before performing any delegated nursing task, individual providers and home care agency providers must:

- (1) Successfully complete DSHS-designated nurse delegation core training;
- (2) Be a nursing assistant registered or certified under chapter 18.88A RCW; and
- (3) If a nursing assistant registered, successfully complete basic training.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.050, 2003 c 140, chapters 18.79, 18.88A RCW. 04-02-001, § 388-71-05830, filed 12/24/03, effective 1/24/04.]

SAFETY TRAINING

WAC 388-71-05832 What is safety training? Safety training and applicable requirements are defined in WAC 257-05-020 through 257-05-240.

COMPETENCY TESTING

WAC 388-71-05835 What is competency testing? Competency testing, including challenge testing, is evaluating a trainee to determine if they can demonstrate the required level of skill, knowledge, and/or behavior with respect to the identified learning outcomes of a particular course.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.050, 2003 c 140, chapters 18.79, 18.88A RCW. 04-02-001, recodified as § 388-71-05835, filed 12/24/03, effective 1/24/04. Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.39A RCW and 2000 c 121. 02-10-117, § 388-71-05938, filed 4/30/02, effective 5/31/02.]

WAC 388-71-05840 What components must competency testing include? Competency testing must include the following components:

- (1) Skills demonstration of ability to perform and/or implement specific caregiving approaches, and/or activities as appropriate for the training;
- (2) Written evaluation to show knowledge of the learning outcomes included in the training; and
- (3) A scoring guide for the tester with clearly stated scoring criteria and minimum proficiency standards.

WAC 388-71-05855 How must competency test administration be standardized? To standardize competency test administration, testing must include the following components:

- (1) An instructor for the course who meets all minimum qualifications for the course he or she teaches must oversee all testing; and
- (2) The tester must follow DSHS guidelines for:
 - (a) The maximum length of time allowed for testing;
 - (b) The amount and nature of instruction given to students before beginning a test;
 - (c) The amount of assistance to students allowed during testing;
 - (d) The accommodation guidelines for students with disabilities; and
 - (e) Accessibility guidelines for students with limited English proficiency.

WAC 388-71-05860 What form of identification must providers show a tester before taking a competency or challenge test? Providers must show a tester photo identification before taking a competency test (or challenge test, when applicable) for basic training, modified basic training, or nurse delegation core training.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.050, 2003 c 140, chapters 18.79, 18.88A RCW. 04-02-001, amended and recodified as § 388-71-05860, filed 12/24/03, effective 1/24/04. Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.39A RCW and 2000 c 121. 02-10-117, § 388-71-05943, filed 4/30/02, effective 5/31/02.]

WAC 388-71-05865 How many times may a competency test be taken? (1) A competency test that is part of a course may be taken twice. If the test is failed a second time, the person must retake the course before any additional tests are administered.

(2009 Ed.)

(2) If a challenge test is available for a course, it may be taken only once. If the test is failed, the person must take the classroom course.

INSTRUCTOR QUALIFICATIONS

WAC 388-71-05870 What are an instructor's or training entity's responsibilities? The instructor or training entity is responsible for:

- (1) Coordinating and teaching classes;
- (2) Assuring that the curriculum used is taught as designed;
- (3) Selecting qualified guest speakers where applicable;
- (4) Administering or overseeing the administration of DSHS competency and challenge tests;
- (5) Maintaining training records including student tests and attendance records for a minimum of six years;
- (6) Reporting training data to DSHS in DSHS-identified time frames; and
- (7) Issuing or reissuing training certificates to students.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.050, 2003 c 140, chapters 18.79, 18.88A RCW. 04-02-001, recodified as § 388-71-05870, filed 12/24/03, effective 1/24/04. Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.39A RCW and 2000 c 121. 02-10-117, § 388-71-05945, filed 4/30/02, effective 5/31/02.]

WAC 388-71-05875 Must instructors be approved by DSHS or an AAA? (1) DSHS must approve any instructor under contract with DSHS to conduct basic training, modified basic training, or nurse delegation core training classes using the training curricula developed by DSHS. DSHS may select contracted instructors using any applicable contracting procedures. Contractors must meet the minimum qualifications for instructors under this chapter and any additional qualifications established through the contracting procedure.

(2) DSHS contracts with area agencies on aging (AAA) or other entities to conduct orientation, basic, modified basic, nurse delegation core training, and continuing education training programs for individual providers and home care agency providers. The training entity must approve any instructor under contract with the entity to conduct training programs. The entity's contractors must meet the minimum qualifications for instructors under this chapter and any additional qualifications established through the entity's contracting procedures.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.050, 2003 c 140, chapters 18.79, 18.88A RCW. 04-02-001, amended and recodified as § 388-71-05875, filed 12/24/03, effective 1/24/04. Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.39A RCW and 2000 c 121. 02-10-117, § 388-71-05946, filed 4/30/02, effective 5/31/02.]

WAC 388-71-05880 Can DSHS or the AAA deny or terminate a contract with an instructor or training entity? (1) DSHS or an area agency on aging (AAA), as applicable, may determine not to accept an offer by a person or organization seeking a contract with DSHS or the AAA to conduct training programs. No administrative remedies are available to dispute DSHS' or the AAA's decision not to accept an offer, except as may be provided through the contracting process.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 403]

(2) DSHS or the AAA may terminate any training contract in accordance with the terms of the contract. The contractor's administrative remedies shall be limited to those specified in the contract.

WAC 388-71-05885 What is a guest speaker, and what are the minimum qualifications to be a guest speaker for basic training? Guest speakers for basic training programs teach a specific subject in which they have expertise, under the supervision of the instructor. The guest speaker must have, as minimum qualifications, an appropriate background and experience that demonstrates that the guest speaker has expertise on the topic he or she will teach. The instructor must select guest speakers that meet the minimum qualifications, and maintain documentation of this background. DSHS does not approve guest speakers.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.050, 2003 c 140, chapters 18.79, 18.88A RCW. 04-02-001, recodified as § 388-71-05885, filed 12/24/03, effective 1/24/04. Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.39A RCW and 2000 c 121. 02-10-117, § 388-71-05948, filed 4/30/02, effective 5/31/02.]

WAC 388-71-05890 What are the minimum qualifications for an instructor for basic, modified basic or nurse delegation core training? An instructor for basic, modified basic, or nurse delegation core training must meet the following minimum qualifications:

- (1) General qualifications:
 - (a) Twenty-one years of age;
 - (b) Has not had a professional health care or social services license or certification revoked in Washington state (however, no license or certification is required).
- (2) Education and work experience:
 - (a) Upon initial approval or hire, must have:
 - (i) A high school diploma and one year of professional or caregiving experience within the last five years in an adult family home, boarding home, supported living through DDD per chapter 388-820 WAC, or home care setting; or
 - (ii) An associate degree in a health field and six months of professional or caregiving experience within the last five years in an adult family home, boarding home, supported living through DDD per chapter 388-820 WAC, or home care setting.
- (3) Teaching experience:
 - (a) Must have one hundred hours of experience teaching adults on topics directly related to the basic training; or
 - (b) Must have forty hours of teaching while being mentored by an instructor who meets these qualifications, and must attend a class on adult education that meets the requirements of WAC 388-71-05899.
- (4) The instructor must be experienced in caregiving practices and capable of demonstrating competency with respect to the course content or units being taught;
- (5) Instructors who will administer tests must have experience or training in assessment and competency testing; and
- (6) If required under WAC 388-71-05730 or 388-71-05760, instructors must successfully complete basic or modified basic training prior to beginning to train others.

WAC 388-71-05905 What physical resources are required for basic, modified basic, or nurse delegation core classroom training and testing? (1) Classroom facilities used for basic, modified basic, or nurse delegation core classroom training must be accessible to trainees and provide adequate space for learning activities, comfort, lighting, lack of disturbance, and tools for effective teaching and learning such as white boards and flip charts. Appropriate supplies and equipment must be provided for teaching and practice of caregiving skills in the class being taught.

(2) Testing sites must provide adequate space for testing, comfort, lighting, and lack of disturbance appropriate for the written or skills test being conducted. Appropriate supplies and equipment necessary for the particular test must be provided.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.050, 2003 c 140, chapters 18.79, 18.88A RCW. 04-02-001, amended and recodified as § 388-71-05905, filed 12/24/03, effective 1/24/04. Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.39A RCW and 2000 c 121. 02-10-117, § 388-71-05951, filed 4/30/02, effective 5/31/02.]

WAC 388-71-05909 What standard training practices must be maintained for basic, modified basic, or nurse delegation core classroom training and testing? The following training standards must be maintained for basic, modified basic, or nurse delegation core classroom training and testing:

- (1) Training, including all breaks, must not exceed eight hours within one day;
- (2) Training provided in short time segments must include an entire unit, skill or concept;
- (3) Training must include regular breaks; and

(2009 Ed.)

(4) Students attending a classroom training must not be expected to leave the class to attend to job duties, except in an emergency.

ADULT DAY SERVICES

WAC 388-71-0702 Purposes and definitions. (1) WAC 388-71-0702 through 388-71-0776 contain the eligibility requirements for medicaid-funded adult day care and adult day health services. These rules also contain the requirements that apply to adult day care or day health centers that contract with the department, an area agency on aging, or other department designee to provide medicaid services to department clients. Nothing in these rules may be construed as requiring the department, area agency on aging, or other designee to contract with an adult day care or day health center.

(2) An adult day services program is a community-based program designed to meet the needs of adults with impairments through individual plans of care. This type of structured, comprehensive, nonresidential program provides a variety of health, social, and related support services in a protective setting. By supporting families and caregivers, an adult day services program enables the person to live in the community. An adult day services program assesses the needs of the persons served and offers services to meet those needs. The persons served attend on a planned basis. Nothing in this generic description of adult day services may be construed to modify the specific services or eligibility requirements referenced in the definition of adult day care and adult day health.

(3) The following definitions apply under WAC 388-71-0702 through 388-71-0774:

(a) "Adult day care" means the services under WAC 388-71-0704 that are provided to clients who meet the eligibility requirement under WAC 388-71-0708.

(b) "Adult day center" means an adult day care or adult day health center. A day care or day health center for purposes of these rules is a center operating in a specific location, whether or not the center's owner also operates adult day centers in other locations.

(c) "Adult day health" means the services under WAC 388-71-0706 that are provided to clients who meet the eligibility requirements under WAC 388-71-0710.

(d) "Adult day services" is a generic term referring to adult day care and adult day health services.

(e) "Client" means an applicant for or recipient of medicaid-reimbursed adult day services.

(f) "Participant" means clients and other persons receiving adult day services at an adult day center.

WAC 388-71-0704 Adult day care—Services. Adult day care is a supervised daytime program providing core services as defined in WAC 388-106-0800. Core services are appropriate for adults with medical or disabling conditions that do not require the intervention or services of a registered nurse or licensed rehabilitative therapist acting under the supervision of the client's physician. The adult day care center must offer and provide on site the following core services. These core services must meet the level of care needed by the client as assessed by the department case manager for waiver funded clients and do not exceed the scope of services that the adult day care center is able to provide.

(1) Assistance with activities of daily living:

(a) Locomotion outside of room, locomotion in room, walk in room;

(b) Body care;

(c) Eating;

(d) Repositioning;

(e) Medication management that does not require a licensed nurse;

(f) Transfer;

(g) Toileting;

(h) Personal hygiene at a level that ensures client safety while in attendance at the program; and

(i) Bathing at a level that ensures client safety and comfort while in attendance at the program.

(2) Social services on a consultation basis, which may include:

(a) Referrals to other providers for services not within the scope of medicaid reimbursed adult day care services;

(b) Caregiver support and education; or

(c) Assistance with coping skills.

(3) Routine health monitoring with consultation from a registered nurse that a consulting nurse acting within the scope of practice can provide with or without a physician's order. Examples include:

(a) Obtaining baseline and routine monitoring information on client health status, such as vital signs, weight, and dietary needs;

(b) General health education such as providing information about nutrition, illnesses, and preventative care;

(c) Communicating changes in client health status to the client's caregiver;

(d) Annual and as needed updating of the client's medical record; or

(e) Assistance as needed with coordination of health services provided outside of the adult day care program.

(4) General therapeutic activities that an unlicensed person can provide or that a licensed person can provide with or without a physician's order. These services are planned for and provided based on the client's abilities, interests, and goals. Examples include:

(a) Recreational activities;

(b) Diversionary activities;

(c) Relaxation therapy;

(d) Cognitive stimulation; or

(e) Group range of motion or conditioning exercises.

(5) General health education that an unlicensed person can provide or that a licensed person can provide with or without a physician's order, including but not limited to topics such as:

(a) Nutrition;

(b) Stress management;

(c) Disease management skills; or

(d) Preventative care.

(6) A nutritional meal and snacks every four hours, including a modified diet if needed and within the scope of the program, as provided under WAC 388-71-0768;

(7) Supervision and/or protection if needed for client safety;

(8) Assistance with arranging transportation to and from the program; and

(9) First aid and provisions for obtaining or providing care in an emergency. NOTE: If the client requires the intervention or services of a registered nurse or licensed rehabilitative therapist acting under the supervision of a physician, consider adult day health services.

WAC 388-71-0706 Adult day health—Services. Adult day health is a supervised daytime program providing skilled nursing and rehabilitative therapy services in addition to core services. Adult day health services are only appropriate for adults with medical or disabling conditions that require the intervention or services of a registered nurse or licensed rehabilitative therapist acting under the supervision of the client's physician.

The adult day health center must offer and provide on site the following services:

(1) All core services under WAC 388-71-0704;

(2) Skilled nursing services other than routine health monitoring with nurse consultation;

(3) At least one of the following skilled therapy services: physical therapy, occupational therapy, or speech-language pathology or audiology, as defined under chapters 18.74, 18.59 and 18.35 RCW; and

(4) Psychological or counseling services, including assessing for psycho-social therapy need, dementia, abuse or neglect, and alcohol or drug abuse; making appropriate referrals; and providing brief, intermittent supportive counseling.

WAC 388-71-0712 Adult day health—Skilled nursing. (1) Skilled nursing services are medically necessary services provided directly or indirectly by a registered nurse under physician supervision, or by a licensed practical nurse under physician or registered nurse supervision, that a licensed nurse acting within the scope of practice can provide or supervise. Physician orders must be obtained when required by applicable state practice laws for licensed nurses.

(2) Skilled nursing services must exceed the level of routine health monitoring, general health education, and general therapeutic activities as defined in WAC 388-71-0704, and must be provided with the reasonable expectation that the services will improve, restore, or maintain function as defined in WAC 388-71-0710 (1)(c). Skilled nursing services are:

(a) Specific to a client diagnosis;

(b) Individualized to the client with planned measurable outcomes; and

(c) Evaluated every ninety days for effect on improvement of health status or prevention of decline.

(3) Skilled nursing services, including the initial client nursing assessment and development of the nursing plan of care, must be provided or supervised by a registered nurse in accordance with nursing practice standards under chapter 246-840 WAC.

(4) A skilled nursing service is not a qualifying adult day health service merely because the service is ordered by a physician or is provided by a nurse. If, by way of example, the service can be performed by the client or at the client's direction by a person other than a licensed nurse, or the client does not meet eligibility criteria, it is not a qualifying adult day health service.

(5) Skilled nursing services must be medically necessary as defined under WAC 388-500-0005. Medically necessary skilled nursing services may, but do not necessarily, include:

(a) Care and assessment of an unstable or unpredictable medical condition, with time limited measurable treatment goals, requiring frequent intervention by a registered nurse or by a licensed practical nurse under the supervision of a registered nurse according to WAC 246-840-705;

(b) Evaluation and management of the care plan when unstable medical conditions or complications require complex nonskilled care and skilled nurse oversight to ensure that the nonskilled care is achieving its purpose;

(c) Time-limited training by licensed nursing staff to teach the client and/or the client's caregiver self-care for newly diagnosed, acute, or episodic medical conditions that require the skills of a licensed nurse to teach, and that will optimize client function, as illustrated by the following examples:

(i) Self administration of an injection;

(ii) Prefilling insulin syringes;

(iii) Irrigating a catheter;

(iv) Caring for a colostomy or urostomy;

(v) Wound dressing changes or aseptic technique; or

(vi) Disease self-management.

(d) Skilled interventions provided directly by a licensed nurse such as:

- (i) Inserting or irrigating a catheter;
- (ii) Administering medications or oxygen;
- (iii) Administering and managing infusion therapy; or
- (iv) Treating decubitus ulcers, or other types of wound care.

(6) Medically necessary skilled nursing services, by way of example, do not include:

- (a) Reminding or coaching the client;
- (b) Monitoring of a medical condition that does not require frequent skilled nursing intervention or a change in physician treatment orders, or where there is no reasonable expectation that skilled services will maintain, improve, or slow the effect of a progressive disabling condition on the pain, health or functioning of a client;

(c) Medication assistance when the client is capable of self-administration or is having this need met through paid or unpaid caregivers;

(d) Evaluation and management of the care plan when the complexity of care to be provided by nonskilled persons does not require skilled nurse oversight beyond routine health monitoring;

(e) Continued training by nursing staff to teach self-care for newly diagnosed, acute, or episodic medical conditions when it is apparent that the training should have achieved its purpose or that the client is unwilling or unable to be trained;

(f) Core services that can be provided by an adult day care center, such as routine health monitoring, general health education, or general therapeutic activities; or

(g) Group therapy or training where three or more clients are being simultaneously treated or trained by the nurse.

(7) Skilled nursing services must be documented as provided under WAC 388-71-0746 and chapter 388-502 WAC.

WAC 388-71-0714 Adult day health—Rehabilitative therapy. (1) Skilled rehabilitative therapy services are medically necessary services provided by or under the supervision of a licensed physical, occupational, or speech-language pathology or audiology therapist that the therapist acting within the scope of practice can provide or supervise directly or indirectly. Physician orders must be obtained when required by applicable state practice laws for licensed therapists.

(a) Persons that can provide rehabilitative care under the direction and supervision of a licensed therapist include occupational therapy aides, occupational therapy assistants, physical therapy aides, physical therapy assistants, and nurses within their respective scopes of practice. Adult day health program aides, specifically trained in rehabilitative techniques, may also provide care under the direction and supervision of a licensed therapist.

(b) Services, group or individual, must be related to an active written plan of care with time limited measurable treatment goals approved by the physician;

(c) Services, group or individual, must require the assessment, knowledge and skills of a licensed therapist; and

(2009 Ed.)

(d) Services, group or individual, must be provided with the reasonable expectation that the services will improve, restore, or maintain function, or slow decline. Rehabilitative services are:

- (i) Specific to a client diagnosis;
- (ii) Individualized to the client with planned, measurable outcomes; and
- (iii) Evaluated every ninety days for effect on improvement of health status or prevention of decline.

(2) Skilled rehabilitative therapy is not a qualifying adult day health service merely because the therapy is ordered by a physician or is provided by a therapist or under the supervision of a therapist. If, by way of example, the therapy can be performed independently by the client or at the client's direction by a person other than a licensed therapist, or the client does not meet eligibility criteria, it is not a qualifying adult day health service.

Skilled rehabilitative therapy services must be medically necessary as defined under WAC 388-500-0005.

(3) Medically necessary physical therapy services may, but do not necessarily include:

- (a) Assessing baseline mobility level, strength, range of motion, endurance, balance, and ability to transfer;
- (b) One to one and group treatment to relieve pain or develop, restore, or maintain functioning, with individualized and measurable client treatment goals;

(c) Establishing a maintenance or restorative program with measurable treatment goals, and providing written and oral instruction to the client, caregivers, or program staff as needed to assist the client in implementing the program;

(d) Training the client or the client's caregivers in the use of supportive, adaptive equipment or assistive devices;

(e) Evaluation and management of the care plan when medical conditions or complications require complex non-skilled care and skilled therapist oversight to ensure that the nonskilled care is achieving its purpose; or

(f) Providing other medically necessary services that can only be provided by or under the direct or indirect supervision of a physical therapist acting within the therapist's scope of practice.

(4) Medically necessary occupational therapy services may, but do not necessarily include:

(a) Administering a basic evaluation to determine baseline level of functioning, ability to transfer, range of motion, balance, strength, coordination, activities of daily living and cognitive-perceptual functioning;

(b) Teaching and training the client, caregivers, or program staff in the use of therapeutic, creative, and self care activities to improve or maintain the client's capacity for self-care and independence, and to increase the range of motion, strength and coordination;

(c) One to one and group treatment to develop, restore, or maintain functioning with individualized and measurable client treatment goals;

(d) Training the client or the client's caregivers in the use of supportive, adaptive equipment or assistive devices;

(e) Evaluation and management of the care plan when medical conditions or complications require complex non-skilled care and skilled therapist oversight to ensure that the nonskilled care is achieving its purpose; or

(f) Providing other medically necessary services that can only be provided by or under the direct or indirect supervision of an occupational therapist acting within the therapist's scope of practice.

(5) Medically necessary speech-language pathology or audiology services may, but do not necessarily include;

(a) Assessing baseline level of speech, swallowing, auditory, or communication disorders;

(b) Establishing a treatment program to improve speech, swallowing, auditory, or communication disorders;

(c) Providing speech therapy procedures that include auditory comprehension tasks, visual and/or reading comprehensive tasks, language intelligibility tasks, training involving the use of alternative communication devices, or swallowing treatment;

(d) Training the client or the client's caregivers in methods to assist the client in improving speech, communication, or swallowing disorders;

(e) Evaluation and management of the care plan when medical conditions or complications require complex non-skilled care and skilled therapist oversight to ensure that non-skilled care is achieving its purpose; or

(f) Providing other medically necessary services that can only be provided by or under the direct or indirect supervision of a speech-language pathology or audiology therapist acting with the therapist's scope of practice.

(6) Medically necessary skilled rehabilitative therapy services, by way of example, do not include:

(a) Reminding or coaching the client in tasks that are not essential to the skilled therapy or intervention in the client's service plan;

(b) Monitoring of a medical condition that does not require frequent skilled therapist intervention or a change in physician treatment orders, or where there is no reasonable expectation that skilled services will maintain, improve, or slow the effect of a progressive disabling condition on the pain, health or functioning of a client;

(c) Massage therapy;

(d) Evaluation and management of the care plan when the complexity of the care to be provided by non-skilled persons does not require the skills of a licensed therapist for oversight;

(e) Continued training by therapy staff to teach self-care for newly diagnosed, acute, or episodic medical conditions when it is apparent that the training should have achieved its purpose or that the client is unwilling or unable to be trained;

(f) Core services that can be provided by an adult day care center, such as routine health monitoring, general health education, or general therapeutic activities; or

(g) Group therapy or training where the ratio of licensed therapists and assisting program staff to clients is inadequate to ensure that:

(i) The group activity contributes to the individual client's planned therapy goals; and

(ii) The complexity of the individual client's need can be met.

(7) Skilled therapy services must be documented as provided under WAC 388-71-0746 and chapter 388-502 WAC.

WAC 388-71-0716 Adult day care—Assessment and service plan. (1) The department or an authorized case manager must perform a CARE assessment to determine a client's need for adult day care, per WAC 388-106-0065. Based on the assessment, the case manager determines whether the client should be referred for day care services or whether the client's needs can be met in other ways.

(2) If the case manager determines an unmet need for a core service that may be provided at a day care center, the case manager works with the client and/or the client's representative to develop a service plan that documents the needed services and the number of days per week that the services are to be provided. The case manager refers the client to a waiver-contracted day care center that the client and the case manager agree can potentially meet the client's needs.

(3) Clients receiving adult day care services must be reassessed at least annually.

WAC 388-71-0718 Adult day care—Negotiated care plan. (1) Upon referral of a COPES eligible client by the case manager, the day care center must conduct an intake evaluation based on an interview with the client and/or the client's representative to assess the center's ability to meet the client's needs as identified in the department service plan. The case manager will provide the client's service plan to the adult day care provider within five working days after the client or client's representative has signed it.

(2) Within two working days of the referral, the day care center must respond to the referral and notify the case manager of its ability to process and evaluate the referral.

(3) Within ten working days of the initial date of client attendance at the day care center, the center must determine whether it can meet the client's needs, how those needs will be met, and whether to accept the client to the program. The center must not accept a client whose needs the center cannot meet.

(4) Within thirty days of acceptance into the program, the day care center must develop a negotiated care plan signed by the client or the client's representative and the day care center. The care plan must:

(a) Be consistent with the department-authorized service plan and include all day care services authorized in the service plan;

(b) Document the client's needs as identified in the service plan, the adult day care services that will be provided to meet those needs, and when, how, and by whom the services will be provided;

(c) Document the client's choices and preferences concerning the provision of care and services, and how those preferences will be accommodated;

(d) Document potential behavioral issues identified in the assessment, service plan, or through the intake evaluation, and how those issues will be managed;

(e) Document contingency plans for responding to a client's emergent care needs or other crises; and

(f) Be approved by the client's case manager.

(5) The adult day care center must keep the negotiated care plan in the client's file, must offer a copy of the plan to the client or client representative, and must provide a copy to the client's case manager. The case manager must review the negotiated care plan for inclusion of services that are appropriate and authorized for the client's care needs.

(6) The negotiated care plan must limit the frequency of services to the number of days authorized in the department-authorized service plan.

(7) The day care center must review each service in the negotiated care plan if the client's condition changes, and determine if the care plan continues to meet the client's needs. Changes in the client's condition or unanticipated absences of more than three consecutive days of scheduled service must be reported to the client's case manager within one week. Unanticipated absences by way of example may include absences due to client illness or injury, or a change in transportation access. The case manager may follow-up with the client and determine if any updates to the assessment, service plan, and service authorization are needed.

WAC 388-71-0720 Adult day health—Assessment and service plan. (1) The department or an authorized case manager must perform a CARE assessment to determine a client's need for adult day health, per WAC 388-106-0065. Based on the assessment, the case manager determines whether the client should be referred for day health services or whether the client's needs can be met in other ways.

(2) If the client has a department or area agency on aging case manager, the adult day health center or other referral source must notify the case manager of the client's potential adult day health service need. The case manager must assess the client's need for skilled nursing or skilled rehabilitative therapy within the department's normal time frames for client reassessments.

(3) If the client does not have a department or area agency on aging case manager, the adult day health center or other referral source must notify the department of the referral and the client's potential adult day health service need, or refer the client to the department for intake. The department's assigned case manager must assess the client's need for adult day health services within the department's normal time frames for initial client eligibility assessments.

(4) The case manager may consult with the client's practitioner, department or area agency on aging nursing services staff, or other pertinent collateral contacts, concerning the client's need for skilled nursing or rehabilitative therapy.

(5) If the department or area agency on aging case manager determines and documents a potential unmet need for day health services, the case manager works with the client and/or the client's representative to develop a service plan that documents the potential unmet needs and the anticipated number of days per week that the services are needed. The case manager refers the client to a department contracted day health center for evaluation and the development of a preliminary negotiated plan of care.

(6) The department or area agency on aging case manager must reassess adult day health clients at least annually.

(2009 Ed.)

Clients must also be reassessed if they have a break in service of more than thirty days. The adult day center must inform the case manager of the break in service so payment authorization can be discontinued.

(7) Recipients of adult day health services must be assessed by the department or an authorized case manager for continued or initial eligibility as follows:

(a) Annual reassessment for department clients;

(b) Adult day health quarterly review for current nondepartmental clients as resources allow; and

(c) New referrals for adult day health services are to be forwarded to local department offices for intake and assessment for eligibility.

(8) The department or area agency on aging case manager must review a client's continued eligibility for adult day health services every ninety days, coinciding with the quarterly review completed by the adult day health program. At the case manager's discretion, additional information will be gathered through face to face, collateral or other contact methods to determine continued eligibility. Services will be continued, adjusted, or terminated based upon the case manager's determination during the eligibility review.

WAC 388-71-0722 Adult day health—Negotiated care plan. (1) Upon referral of a client by the department or an authorized case manager, the day health center must conduct an intake evaluation and multidisciplinary assessment based on an interview with the client or the client's representative to determine the center's ability to meet the client's core service needs and potential adult day health needs as identified in the preliminary department service plan. The case manager will provide the client's service plan to the day health center within five working days after the client or client's representative has signed it. The day health center must evaluate the client's skilled and core service needs, and may provide up to ten days of paid service to complete the evaluation and develop a preliminary or negotiated plan of care to be provided to the client and the case manager.

(2) Within two working days of the referral, the day health center must respond to the referral and notify the case manager of its ability to process and evaluate the referral.

(3) Within ten paid days of service, the day health center must determine whether it can meet the client's needs, how those needs will be met, and whether to accept the client to the program. The center must not accept a client whose needs the center cannot meet. The center will be reimbursed under WAC 388-71-0724 for any service days provided from the start of the evaluation if the case manager has authorized services. The evaluation includes acceptance of the client to the center, the development of the initial assessment, and the preliminary negotiated plan of care.

(4) Upon approval by the case manager of the adult day health preliminary or negotiated care plan, the day health center multidisciplinary team must obtain and provide to the case manager any required practitioner's orders for skilled nursing and rehabilitative therapy along with a copy of the negotiated plan of care, according to department documentation requirements. Orders must indicate how often the client is to be seen by the authorized practitioner. The case manager or nursing services staff may follow up with the practitioner or other pertinent collateral contacts concerning the client's need for skilled services. Services may not be authorized for payment without current practitioner orders and the client's consent to follow up with the practitioner.

(5) Within thirty days of the client's acceptance into the program, the day health multidisciplinary team must work with the client to develop a negotiated care plan signed by the client or the client's representative and the day health center. The care plan must:

(a) Be consistent with the department-authorized service plan and include all day health services authorized in the service plan;

(b) Include an authorized practitioner's order(s) for skilled nursing and/or skilled rehabilitative therapy according to applicable state practice laws for licensed nurses or therapists;

(c) Document that the client or the client's representative has consented to follow up with the primary authorizing practitioner;

(d) Document the client's needs as identified in the service plan, the authorized services that will be provided to meet those needs, and when, how, and by whom the services will be provided;

(e) Establish time-limited, client specific, measurable goals, not to exceed ninety days from the date of signature of the negotiated care plan, for accomplishing the objectives of adult day health skilled services and/or discharging or transitioning the client to other appropriate settings or services;

(f) Document the client's choices and preferences concerning the provision of care and services, and how those preferences will be accommodated;

(g) Document potential behavioral issues identified in the assessment, service plan, or through the intake evaluation, and how those issues will be managed;

(h) Document contingency plans for responding to a client's emergent care needs or other crises; and

(i) Be approved by the case manager.

(6) The adult day health center must keep the negotiated care plan in the client's file, the plan to the client or client representative, and must provide a copy to the client's case manager, including any required authorizing practitioner orders. The department case manager must review the negotiated care plan for inclusion of services that are appropriate and authorized for the client's care needs.

(7) The negotiated care plan must limit the frequency of department-funded services to the number of days in the department-authorized service plan.

(8) The day health center must review each service in the negotiated care plan every ninety days or more often if the client's condition changes, or if the client is reassessed for eligibility after a break in service of more than thirty days. Changes in the client's condition or unanticipated absences of more than three consecutive days of scheduled service must be reported to the client's case manager within one week. Unanticipated absences by way of example may include absences due to client illness or injury. The case manager may follow-up with the client and determine if any updates to the assessment, service plan, and service authorization are needed.

WAC 388-71-0724 Adult day services—Contracting and rates.

(1) The department, or an area agency on aging (or other department designee) as authorized by the department, must determine that the adult day care or day health center meets the applicable adult day care or day health requirements and any additional requirements for contracting with the area agency on aging through a COPES contract or with the department through a medicaid provider contract. If a center is contracting for both day care and day health, requirements of both adult day services must be met.

(a) A prospective provider desiring to provide adult day services shall be provided an application form from the department or the area agency on aging.

(b) The prospective provider will provide the area agency on aging with evidence of compliance with, or administrative procedures to comply with, the adult day service rules under this chapter.

(c) The area agency on aging will conduct a site inspection of the adult day center and review of the requirements for contracting.

(d) Within thirty days of completing the site visit, the area agency on aging will advise the prospective provider in writing of any deficiencies in meeting contracting requirements.

(e) The area agency on aging will verify correction of any deficiencies within thirty days of receiving notice from the prospective provider that deficiencies have been corrected, before contracting can take place.

(f) The area agency on aging will provide the department with a written recommendation as to whether or not the center meets contracting requirements.

(2) Minimum application information required to apply for contract with the department, or an area agency on aging includes:

(a) Mission statement, articles of incorporation, and bylaws, as applicable;

(b) Names and addresses of the center's owners, officers, and directors as applicable;

(c) Organizational chart;

(d) Total program operating budget including all anticipated revenue sources and any fees generated;

(e) Program policies and operating procedure manual;

(f) Personnel policies and job descriptions of each paid staff position and volunteer position functioning as staff;

(g) Policies and procedures meeting the requirements of mandatory reporting procedures as described in chapter 74.34 RCW to adult protective services for vulnerable adults and local law enforcement for other participants;

(h) Audited financial statement;

(i) Floor plan of the facility;

(j) Local building inspection, fire department, and health department reports;

(k) Updated TB test for each staff member according to local public health requirements;

(l) Sample client case file including all forms that will be used; and

(m) Activities calendar for the month prior to application, or a sample calendar if the day service provider is new.

(3) The area agency on aging or other department designee monitors the adult day center at least annually to determine continued compliance with adult day care and/or adult day health requirements and the requirements for contracting with the department or the area agency on aging.

(a) The area agency on aging will send a written notice to the provider indicating either compliance with contacting requirements or any deficiencies based on the annual monitoring visit and request a corrective action plan. The area agency on aging will determine the date by which the corrective action must be completed

(b) The area agency on aging will notify the department of the adult day center's compliance with contracting requirements or corrected deficiencies and approval of the corrective action plan for continued contracting.

(4) Adult day care services are reimbursed on an hourly basis up to four hours per day. Service provided four or more hours per day will be reimbursed at the daily rate.

(5) Payment rates are established on an hourly and daily basis for adult day care centers as may be adopted in rule. Rate adjustments are determined by the state legislature. Providers seeking current reimbursement rates can refer to SSPS billing instructions.

(6) Rates as of July 1, 2002, are as follows:

Counties	COPES Adult Day Care
	Daily Rate	Hourly Rate
King	$36.48	$9.10
Benton, Clark, Franklin, Island, Kitsap, Pierce, Snohomish, Spokane, Thurston, Whatcom, & Yakima	$32.45	$8.11
All other counties	$30.75	$7.69

(7) Payment rates are established on a daily basis for adult day health centers as may be adopted in rule. Rate adjustments are determined by the state legislature. Providers seeking current reimbursement rates can refer to MAA billing instructions or <http://maa.dshs.wa.gov>.

(8) Rates as of July 1, 2002, are as follows:

Counties	Day Health Daily
King	$47.48
Benton, Clark, Franklin, Island, Kitsap, Pierce, Snohomish, Spokane, Thurston, Whatcom, & Yakima	$43.06
All other counties	$40.68

A one-time only initial intake evaluation provided by an adult day health center, including development of a negotiated care plan, is reimbursed at an established rate as may be adopted in rule. The rate as of July 1, 2002 is eighty-nine dollars and thirty-eight cents. Rate adjustments are determined by the state legislature. Separate reimbursement is not available for subsequent evaluations.

(9) Transportation to and from the program site is not reimbursed under the adult day care rate. Transportation arrangements are made with locally available transportation providers or informal resources.

(10) Transportation to and from the program site is not reimbursed under the adult day health rate. Transportation arrangements for eligible medicaid clients are made with local medicaid transportation brokers, informal providers, or other available resources per chapter 388-546 WAC.

WAC 388-71-0726 Adult day health transportation.

The following rules apply if medicaid transportation services are requested:

(1) The day health center must refer the client to a local medicaid transportation broker. The broker may consult with the client, the client's physician, family, case manager, or day health center as needed in making any transportation arrangements.

(2) In referring the client to a day health center, the case manager may consider: The frailty and endurance of the client, the client's skilled nursing or rehabilitative therapy needs, and a reasonable round-trip travel time that may not exceed two hours, unless there is no closer center that can meet the client's skilled care needs. Documentation of language barriers may be considered on an exception to rule basis by the case manager.

(3) All brokered transportation under this subsection is subject to the requirements of chapter 388-546 WAC or its successors. In the case of any conflicts, the provisions of chapter 388-546 WAC take precedence.

WAC 388-71-0728 Coordination of services.

(1) A COPES-eligible client may receive adult day care services on some days and adult day health services on different days if the service plan documents which level of service is to be provided on which days. However, core services must be provided on all days that adult day health skilled services are provided, and reimbursement is limited to the day health rate on days that day health services are provided.

(2) Clients receiving services from the department in an adult family home, boarding home, or other licensed community residential facility may not receive COPES-funded adult day care, but may receive medicaid adult day health services when the skilled nursing or rehabilitative services are approved by the client's case manager as part of the client's service plan.

(3) A licensed boarding home providing department-approved day care under chapter 388-78A WAC is subject to any applicable provisions of that chapter and is also subject to the rules under this chapter if the facility contracts with an area agency on aging or the department to provide COPES or other medicaid-funded adult day services.

WAC 388-71-0730 Senior Citizens Services Act/Respite care. (1) Except as provided under this section, the adult day services rules under this chapter do not apply to adult day care or day health services funded under chapters 74.38 and 74.41 RCW.

(2) An area agency on aging that elects to provide adult day services using Senior Citizens Services Act funding under chapter 74.38 RCW or respite care funding under chapter 74.41 RCW must contract with an adult day center that meets all administrative and facility requirements under WAC 388-71-0736 through 388-71-0774.

(3) The adult day care or day health services funded under chapters 74.38 or 74.41 RCW must be the same as the day care services required under WAC 388-71-0704 or the day health services required under WAC 388-71-0706. The area agency on aging may require additional services by contract.

(4) The area agency on aging may, by contract, establish eligibility and assessment requirements for day care or day health services in accordance with locally identified needs. However, funding provided under chapters 74.38 or 74.41 RCW may only be used to meet the needs of individuals who are not eligible for adult day care under WAC 388-71-0708 or for adult day health under WAC 388-71-0710, or who are eligible for those services and are not receiving them because of funding limitations.

(5) Nothing in this section or chapter may be construed as requiring an area agency on aging to contract with an adult day center, whether or not the center has a COPEs or other medicaid contract. Nor may anything in this section or chapter be construed as creating an entitlement to state-funded adult day services authorized under chapters 74.38 and 74.41 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0730, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0732 Hearing rights. (1) If the department or area agency on aging denies, terminates, or reduces an individual client's adult day care or day health services, the client has the right to a fair hearing as provided under chapter 388-02 WAC.

(2) An adult day care or day health center has those hearing or dispute resolution rights that are afforded under RCW 43.20B.675 and the center's contract with the area agency on aging or the department. An adult day health center has any other applicable hearing or dispute resolution rights under chapter 388-502 WAC.

(3) Adult day health centers are subject to all applicable provisions of chapter 388-502 WAC, and the department's aging and adult services administration may exercise the department's authority under that chapter to the same extent as the medical assistance administration.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0732, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0734 Limiting expenditures. (1) In order to provide adult day services within the limits of available funding, the department may limit services when program expenditures exceed the budget appropriation or when limiting services is required to prevent expenditures from exceeding the appropriation.

(2) When adult day health program expenditures exceed available funding, the department may limit adult day health services based on the four care level system as determined through the established department assessment and described in chapter 388-105 WAC.

(a) Using the care level determined by the department assessment tool, the department will limit adult day services on a statewide basis to clients whose total scores exceed the assessed need level identified by the department as necessary to provide adult day health services to the extent of available funding.

(b) At least thirty days before implementing the limitation on services under this subsection, the department will notify the area agencies on aging, adult day health centers, and the affected adult day health clients that services are being limited and for what period of time the limitation is estimated to remain in effect.

(c) For purposes of RCW 74.08.080, the reduction in services shall be deemed an assistance adjustment for an entire class of recipients that is required by state laws prohibiting the department from expending funds in excess of appropriations.

(3) The department may adopt additional or alternative rules to control costs, such as, but not limited to, imposing a moratorium on contracting with new adult day centers, limiting services to clients based on level of care need, or reducing the numbers of days per week that clients may receive services.

WAC 388-71-0736 Adult day centers—Administrative policies and procedures. (1) Adult day centers must have written policies, procedures, and documentation of the organizational structure and administration of the program.

(2) Administrative policies and procedures must include:

(a) Mission statement;

(b) Articles of incorporation and bylaws, as applicable;

(c) Current business license;

(d) Names and addresses of the center's owners, officers, and directors, as applicable;

(e) Certificates of insurance, including but not limited to property and general liability insurance; business auto if the center uses vehicles to transport clients; professional liability; workers' compensation; employers' liability if applicable; coverage for acts and omissions of employees and volunteers; and certificates of insurance for any subcontractors;

(f) Minutes of last three meetings of the board of directors, if applicable, and the advisory committee;

(g) Role and functions of an advisory committee, which must meet at least twice a year and which must be representative of the community and include family members of current or past clients and nonvoting staff representatives (When an adult day center is a subdivision of a multifunction organization, a committee or subcommittee of the governing body of the multifunction organization may serve as the advisory committee. A single purpose agency may utilize its governing board as an advisory committee.);

(h) An organizational chart illustrating the lines of authority and communication channels of the center, which must be available to all staff and clients;

(i) A calendar of programming (or sample calendar if the center is new);

(j) A monthly menu (or sample menu if the center is new);

(k) Current building, health, food service and fire safety inspection reports, and food handler permits, as applicable; and

(l) Quality improvement plans and results.

WAC 388-71-0738 Adult day centers—Operating policies and procedures. (1) All policies and procedures must be reviewed on a regular basis, at least annually by the advisory committee, and conform to the requirements outlined in WAC 388-71-0702 through 388-71-0774, as applicable.

(2) Policies and procedures must include:

(a) Core values and mission of the organization;

(b) Ethical standards of the center and professional standards of conduct;

(c) Short- and long-range program goals;

(d) Definition of the target population, including number, age, and needs of participants;

(e) Geographical definition of the service area;

(f) Hours and days of operation (Centers or a combination of centers under single ownership must operate at least three days a week for four consecutive hours, with each center providing at least four hours of programming a day.);

(g) Description of basic services and any optional services;

(h) Description of service delivery;

(i) Procedures for assessments, reassessments, and the development of a negotiated care plan with clients and/or representatives, including provisions for the utilization of a multidisciplinary team for this process;

(j) If applicable, research procedures that comply with chapter 388-04 WAC;

(k) Staffing pattern;

(l) A plan for utilizing community resources;

(m) Gift policy;

(n) Marketing plan;

(o) Contracting for services; and

(p) Grievance and complaint processes for staff and participants.

WAC 388-71-0740 Adult day centers—Fiscal operations. (1) Adult day centers must demonstrate fiscal responsibility by using generally accepted accounting principles. Fiscal policies, procedures, and records must be developed to enable the administrator to meet the fiscal reporting needs of the governing body.

(2009 Ed.)

(2) Adult day centers must develop a plan to address the future financial needs of the center. The plan must include projected program growth, capital purchases, projected revenue, projected expenses, and plans for fund raising, if applicable.

(3) Adult day centers must create a total center operating budget, including all revenue sources and participant fees generated annually.

(4) A financial statement or the latest audit report of the organization by a certified public accountant must be available.

(5) A statement of charges for services, including private pay rates and/or ancillary charges for additional services outside the scope of these rules, must be available.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0740, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0742 Adult day centers—Client policies and procedures. (1) Center policies must define admission criteria, discharge criteria, Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) policies, medication policy, participant rights and responsibilities, fee schedule, confidentiality, and grievance procedures.

(2) The center must comply with all applicable nondiscrimination laws, including but not limited to age, race, color, gender, religion, national origin, creed, marital status, Vietnam era or disabled veteran's status, or sensory, physical, or mental handicap.

(3) A participant bill of rights describing the client's rights and responsibilities must be developed, posted, distributed to, and explained to participants, families, staff, and volunteers. Participants will be provided the bill of rights in the language understood by the individual upon request.

(4) The center must have an advance directive policy as required by the Patient Self Determination Act of 1990 (see 42 C.F.R. § 489.102 and chapter 70.122 RCW).

(5) Discharge policies must include specific criteria that establish when the participant is no longer eligible for services and under what circumstances the participant may be discharged for other factors, unless the discharge is initiated by the client's department or authorized case manager, the center must notify the client, client representative if applicable, and case manager in writing of the specific reasons for the discharge. The center must also provide the client with adequate information about appeal and hearing rights. Discharge may occur due to client choice, other criteria as defined in the center's policy such as standards of conduct or inappropriate behavior, or changes in circumstances making the client ineligible for services under WAC 388-71-0708 or 388-71-0710.

(6) Incident report policies must include investigation and reporting of any neglect, abuse, exploitation, accident, or incident jeopardizing or affecting a participant's health or safety. The policy must include how the center will determine the circumstances of the event, restrictions on staff or clients during the investigation, how similar future situations will be prevented or decreased, and the location of incident reports. The center must keep a log of all reported incidents, participant grievances, complaints, and outcomes.

WAC 388-71-0748 Adult day centers—Record retention. (1) The adult day center must maintain a secure client record system to ensure confidentiality for all records, whether paper or electronic, in accordance with state and federal laws, including but not limited to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).

(2) The adult day center must maintain a permanent registry of all clients with dates of admission and discharge.

(3) The adult day center must have written policies concerning:

(a) Confidentiality and the protection of records that define procedures governing the use and removal, and conditions for release of information contained in the records;

(b) The release of client information and circumstances under which a signed authorization from the client or client representative is required; and

(c) The retention and storage of records for at least six years from the last date of service to the client, including contingency plans in the event the center discontinues operation.

(4) Client records maintained on the center's premises must be in a secure storage area that includes locking cabinets or storage. Computerized records must be backed up weekly and stored off-site.

WAC 388-71-0750 Adult day centers—Personnel policies and procedures. (1) Personnel policies and procedures must be in place to ensure that staff are trained and knowledgeable to provide quality services in a safe environment. Policies must include at least the following:

(a) The center must have policies concerning the recruitment, orientation, training, evaluation, and professional development of staff and volunteers.

(b) The center must have job descriptions for each paid staff and volunteer position that are in accordance with ADA requirements and that specify qualifications for the job, delineation of tasks, and lines of supervision and authority.

(c) Each employee must receive, review, and sign a copy of the job description at the time of employment and whenever job descriptions are modified. Volunteers who function as staff must receive written descriptions of responsibilities.

(d) Probationary evaluations and annual performance evaluations, in accordance with job descriptions, must be conducted and must conform to the policy of the funding or parent organization. Both the employee and supervisor will sign the written evaluation. Copies will be kept in locked personnel files.

(e) Each staff person is to have a tuberculin test within thirty days of employment. If a test has been performed within twelve months of employment, the results of that test may be accepted. Tuberculin tests will be repeated according to local public health requirements.

(f) The center must have policies to restrict a staff person or participant's contact with clients when the staff person or participant has a known communicable disease in the infectious stage that is likely to spread in the center.

(g) Policies must also be established concerning hand washing, universal precautions, infection control, infectious waste disposal, bloodborne pathogens, and laundry and handling of soiled and clean items.

(2) The center must have policies and procedures concerning suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation reporting that include provisions preventing access to any participant until the center investigates and takes action to assure the participant's safety.

(3) The center must not interfere with the lawful investigation of a complaint, coerce a participant, or conceal evidence of alleged improprieties occurring within the center.

(4) The center must have policies that meet the requirements of mandatory reporting procedures as described in chapter 74.34 RCW to adult protective services for vulnerable adults and to local law enforcement for other participants.

(5) Each employee must receive or have access to a copy of the program's personnel policies at the time of employment.

(6) Whenever volunteers function in the capacity of staff, all applicable personnel policies must pertain.

(7) The center must conform to federal and state labor laws and be in compliance with equal opportunity guidelines.

WAC 388-71-0752 Adult day center—Staffing requirements. (1) Staff selection is dependent on participant needs, program design, and contracting requirements. The center must have the proper balance of professionals and paraprofessionals or nonprofessionals to adequately meet the needs of participants. Services must be delivered by those with adequate professional training. A staff person can have multiple functions, such as an administrator who is also responsible for providing nursing services or social services.

(2) To ensure continuity of direction and supervision, there must be a clear division of responsibility between the governing body and the adult day center administrator.

(3) The administrator must be given full authority and responsibility to plan, staff, direct, and implement the program. The administrator must also have the responsibility for establishing collaborative relations with other community organizations to ensure necessary support services to participants and their families/caregivers.

(4) The administrator must be on site to manage the center's day-to-day operations during hours of operation. If the administrator is responsible for more than one site, or has duties not related to adult day center administration or provision of services, a program director must be designated for each additional site and must report to the administrator.

(5) The administrator must be responsible for the development of a written plan of operation with approval of the governing body and the development, coordination, supervision, fiscal control, and evaluation of services provided through the adult day center.

(6) A nurse or personnel trained in first aid and CPR must be on hand whenever participants are present.

(7) Background checks pursuant to RCW 43.43.830 and 43.43.832 must be performed for all applicants hired, existing employees, and volunteers. Unsupervised access to participants is prohibited until a background check has been completed and the employee's suitability for employment has been determined.

(8) Required credentials must be verified to ensure that they are current and in good standing for licensed and certified staff.

(9) Adult day centers may utilize a range of staff under contract or consulting from a larger parent organization or from a private entity to provide services.

(10) Staff commonly utilized by both adult day care and adult day health centers must meet the following requirements:

(a) An activity coordinator must have a bachelor's degree in recreational therapy or a related field and one year of experience (full-time equivalent) in social or health services; or an associate degree in recreational therapy or a related field plus two years of appropriate experience; or three years of paid experience in an activity program and expertise with the population served at the center.

(b) The nurse must be a registered nurse (RN) with valid state credentials and have at least one-year applicable experience (full-time equivalent). In addition to a registered nurse, an adult day center can utilize a licensed practical nurse (LPN), but the LPN must be supervised in compliance with all applicable nurse practice acts and standards. The LPN must have valid state credentials and at least one-year applicable experience (full-time equivalent).

(c) The social services professional must have a master's degree in social work, gerontology, or other human services field, or counseling and at least one year of professional work experience (full-time equivalent), or a bachelor's degree in social work, counseling, or a related field and two years of experience in a human services field.

(d) Program assistant/aides or personal care aides must have one or more years of experience (full-time equivalent) in working with adults in a health care or social service setting.

(e) Consultants from a larger parent organization without formal contracts may be utilized whenever the center is part of a larger organization that has the ability to provide professional services within the larger framework.

(f) Consultants, with appropriate, valid state credentials may be utilized as needed to meet the requirements outlined in this chapter.

(g) Secretary/bookkeepers must have at least a high school diploma or equivalent and skills and training to carry out the duties of the position.

(h) If the adult day center provides transportation drivers must have a valid and appropriate state driver's license, a safe driving record, and training in first aid and CPR. The driver must meet all state requirements for licensure or certification.

(i) Volunteers may be individuals or groups who desire to work with adult day center clients and must take part in program orientation and training. Volunteers and staff must mutually determine the duties of volunteers. Duties to be performed under the supervision of a staff member must either supplement staff in established activities or provide additional services for which the volunteer has special talents. Volunteers will be included in the staff ratio only when they conform to the same standards and requirements as paid staff, meet the job qualification standards of the organization, and have designated responsibilities.

(j) Dietitians must be certified with valid state credentials and have a minimum of one year applicable experience (full-time equivalent).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0752, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0754 Staffing ratios. (1) Staffing levels in adult day centers will vary based upon the number of participants and the care provided.

(2) The staffing level must be sufficient to serve the number and functioning levels of adult day center participants, meet program objectives, and provide access to other community resources.

(3) There must be sufficient maintenance and house-keeping personnel to assure that the facility is clean, sanitary, and safe at all times.

(4) To ensure adequate care and safety of participants, there must be provision for qualified substitute staff.

(5) As the number of participants with functional impairments, skilled nursing or skilled rehabilitative therapy needs increases, the required staff-participant ratio must be adjusted accordingly.

(6) All centers must have written policies regarding staff-participant ratios. The ratio must be a minimum of one staff to six participants. The provider must ensure that appropriate professionals provide needed services to the participants based upon the participants' service and care plans. The center is also required to employ sufficient staff to meet the needs of the participants.

(7) Staff counted in the staff-participant ratio are those who provide direct service to participants. When there is more than one participant present, there must be at least two staff members on the premises, one of whom is directly supervising the participants.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0754, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0756 Adult day care—Staffing requirements. (1) Minimum staffing requirements for adult day care centers include an administrator/program director, activity coordinator, a consulting registered nurse, and a consulting social worker.

(2) The administrator/program director must have a master's degree and one year of supervisory experience in health or social services (full-time equivalent); or a bachelor's degree in health, social services or a related field, with two years of supervisory experience (full-time equivalent) in a social or health service setting; or a high school diploma or equivalent and four years of experience in a health or social services field, of which two years must be in a supervisory position, and have expertise with the populations served at the center.

WAC 388-71-0758 Adult day health—Staffing requirements. (1) Minimum staffing requirements for adult day health centers include an administrator, program director, registered nurse, activity coordinator, a PT/OT or speech therapist, and a social worker. The administrator and program director may be the same person.

(2) The program administrator must have a master's degree and one year of supervisory experience in health or social services (full-time equivalent), or a bachelor's degree and two years of supervisory experience in a social or health service setting. The degree may be in nursing.

(3) The program director must have a bachelor's degree in health, social services or a related field with one year of supervisory experience (full-time equivalent) in a social or health service setting. Upon approval by the department, a day health center may request an exception for an individual with an associate's or vocational degree in health, social services, or a related field with four years of experience in a health or social service setting, of which two years must be in a supervisory position.

(4) Therapists, regardless of specific expertise, such as physical therapists, occupational therapists, speech therapists, recreation therapists, mental health therapists, or any other therapists used, must have valid state credentials and one year of experience in a social or health setting.

(5) Rehabilitative therapeutic assistants must be certified with valid state credentials, have at least one year of applicable experience (full-time equivalent), and meet the requirements of chapter 246-915, 246-847, or 246-828 WAC.

(6) A certified or registered nursing assistant must meet the requirements of RCW 18.88A.020.

WAC 388-71-0760 Adult day centers—Employee records. (1) Each employee must have an individual file containing the employee's application, verification of references, TB status, signed job description, and all performance evaluations. Copies of current license or certificate and verification of current good standing, and certification of CPR and first aid training, if applicable, must also be in the file.

(2) Centers must maintain employee records for the duration of staff employment and at least seven years after termination of employment.

(3) Employee records must contain all records of training, such as staff orientation and training pertinent to duties or regulatory compliance, including CPR, first aid, and universal precautions training.

(4) Employee records must contain criminal history disclosure and background checks.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0760, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0762 Adult day centers—Education and training. (1) Provision must be made for orientation of new employees, contractors, and volunteers.

(2) All staff, contractors, and volunteers must receive, at a minimum, quarterly in-service training and staff development that meets their individual training needs to support program services. This must be documented and readily accessible in the personnel file and in a general file.

(3) Staff, contractors, and volunteers must receive training about documentation, reporting requirements, and universal precautions.

(4) At a minimum, one staff person per shift must be trained and certified in CPR.

(5) Staff and volunteers must receive training on all applicable policies and procedures.

WAC 388-71-0764 Adult day centers—Medication.

(1) The center must develop written medication policies that are explained and accessible to all staff, contractors, volunteers, and participants that have responsibility in this area. At a minimum, policies must meet the following requirements:

(a) Medications must be kept in locked storage. If medications need to be refrigerated, they should be in a locked box, if not in a separate refrigerator dedicated to medication refrigeration.

(b) Medication policies must describe:

(i) Under what conditions licensed program staff will administer medications;

(ii) How medications brought to the program by a client must be labeled;

(iii) How nonprescription medications such as aspirin or laxatives are to be used;

(iv) How the administration of medications will be entered in participant case records as described in WAC 388-71-0744(4); and

(v) Medication policies must be consistent with laws governing medication administration under RCW 69.41.010 and chapter 246-888 WAC.

(2) Participants who need to take medications while at the center, and who are able to self medicate, must be encouraged and expected to bring and take their own medications as prescribed. Some participants may need assistance with their medications, and a few may need to have their medications administered by qualified program staff.

(3) In order for center staff to administer any prescribed medication, there must be a written authorization from the participant's authorizing practitioner stating that the medication is to be administered at the program site.

(4) Staff must be trained to observe medication usage and effects, and to document and report any concerns or difficulties with medications.

WAC 388-71-0766 Adult day centers—Facility. (1)

Selection of a location for a center must be based on information about potential participants in the service area and be made in consultation with other agencies, organizations, and institutions serving older individuals and those with functional impairments, as well as considering the availability of a suitable location.

(2) Centers must have available a current floor plan of the facility indicating usage of space with interior measurements, building inspection report, fire department inspection report, and the local health department inspection report if operating a kitchen.

(3) The facility must comply with applicable state, county, and local building regulations, zoning, fire, and health codes or ordinances.

(4) When possible, the facility should be located at street level. If the facility is not located at street level, it is essential to have a ramp and/or elevators. An evacuation plan for relocation of participants must also be in place in the event of an emergency.

(5) Each adult day center co-located in a facility housing other services must have its own separate identifiable space for main activity areas during operational hours. Certain space can be shared, such as the kitchen and therapy rooms.

(6) Each center must provide appropriate hardware on doors of storage rooms, closets, bathrooms, and other rooms to prevent participants from being accidentally locked in.

(7) When possible, the location should be within a transit authority's core service area.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0766, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0768 Adult day centers—Physical environment requirements. (1) The facility must have sufficient space to accommodate the full range of program activities and services.

The facility must be adaptable to accommodate variations of activities (group and/or individual) and services. The program must provide and maintain essential space necessary to provide services and to protect the privacy of the participants receiving services. There must be sufficient private space to permit staff to work effectively and without interruption. There must be sufficient space available for private discussions.

(2) The facility must provide at least sixty square feet of program space for multipurpose use for each day center participant. In determining adequate square footage, only those activity areas commonly used by participants are to be included. Dining and kitchen areas are to be included only if these areas are used by clients for activities other than meals. Reception areas, storage areas, offices, restrooms, passageways, treatment rooms, service areas, or specialized spaces used only for therapies are not to be included when calculating square footage.

(3) Storage space.

(a) There must be adequate storage space for program and operating supplies.

(b) Toxic substances, whether for activities or cleaning, must be stored in an area not accessible to participants. Substances must be clearly marked, the contents identified, and stored in original containers.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 417]

(4) Restrooms.

(a) The facility's restrooms must be located as near the activity area as possible, preferably no more than forty feet away. The facility must include at least one toilet for every ten participants.

(b) Programs that have a large number of participants who require more scheduled toileting or assistance with toileting must have at least one toilet for every eight participants.

(c) The toilets shall be equipped for use by mobility-limited persons and easily accessible from all program areas. One toilet area should be designed to allow assistance from one or two staff. More accessible units may be required based upon the needs of the participants.

(d) Each restroom must contain an adequate supply of soap, toilet tissues, and paper towels.

(e) Showers are to be accessible to those who require bathing as a core service.

(5) Rest area.

(a) In addition to space for program activities, the facility must have a rest area and designated areas to permit privacy and to isolate participants who become ill or disruptive, or who may require rest.

(b) The rest area must be located away from activity areas and near a restroom and the nurse's office. There must be at least one bed, couch, or recliner for every ten participants that can be used for resting or the isolation of a participant who is ill or suspected of coming down with a communicable disease.

(c) If beds are used, the mattresses must be protected and linens changed after each use by different participants.

(6) Loading zones/parking/entrances/exits.

(a) A loading zone with sufficient space for getting in and out of a vehicle must be available for the safe arrival and departure of participants and the use of emergency personnel.

(b) There must be sufficient parking available to accommodate family caregivers, visitors, and staff.

(c) When necessary, arrangements must be made with local authorities to provide safety zones for those arriving by motor vehicle and adequate traffic signals for people entering and exiting the facility.

(d) Adequate lighting must be provided in all loading and parking zones, entrances, and exits.

(e) An adult day center must be visible and recognizable as a part of the community. The entrance to the facility must be clearly identified. The center must also be appealing and protective to participants and others.

(f) At least two well-identified exits must be accessible from the building.

(7) Atmosphere and design.

(a) The center's design must facilitate the participants movement throughout the facility and encourage involvement in activities and services.

(b) The environment must reinforce orientation and awareness of the surroundings by providing cues and information about specific rooms, locations, and functions that help the participant to get his/her orientation to time and space.

(c) A facility must be architecturally designed in conformance with the requirements of section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act to accommodate individuals with a disability and meet any state and local barrier-free requirements.

(d) Illumination levels in all areas must be adequate, and careful attention must be given to avoiding glare. Attention must be paid to lighting in transitional areas, such as outside to inside and between different areas of the facility.

(e) Sound transmission must be controlled. Excessive noise, such as fan noise, must be avoided.

(f) Comfortable conditions must be maintained within a comfortable temperature range. Excessive drafts must be avoided uniformly throughout the facility.

(g) Sufficient furniture must be available for the entire population present. Furnishings must accommodate the needs of participants and be attractive, comfortable, sturdy, and safe. Straight-backed chairs with arms must be used during activities and meals.

(h) A telephone must be available for participant use. Local calls are to be available at no cost to the participant.

(8) Safety and sanitation.

(a) The facility and grounds must be safe, clean, and accessible to all participants, and must be designed, constructed, and maintained in compliance with all applicable local, state, and federal health and safety regulations.

(b) Nonslip surfaces or bacteria-resistant carpets must be provided on stairs, ramps, and interior floors.

(c) Alarm/warning systems are necessary to ensure the safety of the participants in the facility in order to alert staff to potentially dangerous situations. It is recommended that call bells be installed or placed in the rest areas, restroom stalls, and showers.

(d) An evacuation plan/disaster plan must be strategically posted in each facility.

(e) The facility must be free of hazards, such as high steps, steep grades, and exposed electrical cords. Steps and curbs must be painted and the edges of stairs marked appropriately to highlight them. All stairs, ramps, and bathrooms accessible to those with disabilities must be equipped with securely anchored handrails.

(f) Emergency first-aid kits must be visible and accessible to staff. Contents of the kits must be replenished after use and reviewed as needed.

(g) Maintenance and housekeeping must be carried out on a regular schedule and in conformity with generally accepted sanitation standards, without interfering with the program.

(h) If smoking is permitted, an adequately ventilated area away from the main program area must be provided and supervised.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0768, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0770 Adult day center—Food and nutrition services. Centers must provide meal service to all participants as outlined in WAC 388-71-0704 and 388-71-0706

(1) All meals provided are to meet one-third of the minimum required daily allowance or dietary reference intake as determined by the Food and Nutrition Board of the Institute of Medicine.

(2) The center must ensure that food served meets nutritional needs, takes into consideration individual and ethnic preferences to the extent reasonably possible, caloric need, special dietary requirements, and any physical condition making food intake difficult.

(3) The center must provide a variety of foods and not repeat menus for a minimum of three weeks.

(4) Participant input must be gathered when planning meals.

(5) Menus must be posted at least one week in advance; indicate the date, day of the week, month and year; and include all food and snacks served that contribute to nutritional requirements.

(6) Nutrient concentrates, supplements, and dysphagia-modified diets related to a choking or aspiration risk, are to be served only with the written approval of the participant's physician.

(7) Safe and sanitary handling, storage, preparation, and serving of food must be assured. If meals are prepared on the premises, kitchen appliances, food preparation area, and equipment must meet state and local requirements.

(8) All staff and volunteers handling or serving meals must have the appropriate food handler's permits, if applicable.

(9) In the event meals are prepared at a separate kitchen facility, the adult day center must ensure that persons preparing food have a food handler's permit and that the food is transported in airtight containers to prevent contamination.

(10) The center must ensure that the food is transported and served at the appropriate and safe temperature.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0770, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0772 Adult day centers—Emergency procedures. (1) A written emergency/disaster/earthquake plan must be posted at each program site and in all program owned vehicles. Staff must be trained to ensure smooth implementation of the emergency plan.

(2) All staff and volunteers must be trained in evacuation/fire safety procedures.

(3) A written illness/injury/medical emergency/death procedure must be followed in the event a participant becomes ill, is injured, or dies. The procedures must be posted in at least one visible location at all program sites and must be explained to staff, volunteers, and participants. The procedures must describe arrangements for hospital inpatient and emergency room service and include directions on how to secure ambulance transportation and complete incident reports.

(4) Procedures for fire safety as approved by the local fire authority must be adopted and posted, including provisions for fire drills, inspection and maintenance of fire extinguishers, and periodic inspection and training by fire department personnel. The center must conduct and document quarterly fire drills and document the center's ability to meet procedures. Improvements must be based on the fire drill evaluation. Smoke detectors must also be used.

(5) Each center must provide adequate emergency lighting or flashlights in all areas.

(2009 Ed.)

(6) Each center must provide and maintain first aid kits in adequate numbers to meet the needs of the participant and staff.

(7) Each center must ensure, in accordance with local emergency procedures, that supplies, food, water and equipment are available in the event power, heat and/or electricity are not available during an emergency.

DEFINITIONS

WAC 388-76-10000 Definitions. "Abandonment" means action or inaction by a person or entity with a duty of care for a frail elder or vulnerable adult that leaves the vulnerable person without the means or ability to obtain necessary food, clothing, shelter, or health care.

"Abuse" means the willful action or inaction that inflicts injury, unreasonable confinement, intimidation, or punishment on a vulnerable adult:

(1) In instances of abuse of a vulnerable adult who is unable to express or demonstrate physical harm, pain, or mental anguish, the abuse is presumed to cause physical harm, pain or mental anguish; and

(2) Abuse includes sexual abuse, mental abuse, physical abuse, and exploitation of a vulnerable adult, which have the following meanings:

(a) "Sexual abuse" means any form of nonconsensual sexual contact, including but not limited to unwanted or inappropriate touching, rape, sodomy, sexual coercion, sexually explicit photographing, and sexual harassment. Sexual abuse includes any sexual contact between a staff person, who is not also a resident or client, of a facility or a staff person of a program authorized under chapter 71A.12 RCW, and a vulnerable adult living in that facility or receiving service from a program authorized under chapter 71A.12 RCW, whether or not consensual.

(b) "Physical abuse" means a willful action of inflicting bodily injury or physical mistreatment. Physical abuse includes, but is not limited to, striking with or without an object, slapping, pinching, choking, kicking, shoving, prodding, or chemical restraints unless the restraints are consistent with licensing requirements, and includes restraints that are otherwise being used inappropriately.

(c) "Mental abuse" means any willful action or inaction of mental or verbal abuse. Mental abuse includes, but is not limited to, coercion, harassment, inappropriately isolating a vulnerable adult from family, friends, or regular activity, and verbal assault that includes ridiculing, intimidating, yelling, or swearing.

(d) "Exploitation" means an act of forcing, compelling, or exerting undue influence over a vulnerable adult causing the vulnerable adult to act in a way that is inconsistent with relevant past behavior, or causing the vulnerable adult to perform services for the benefit of another.

"Adult family home" means:

(1) A residential home in which a person or entity are licensed to provide personal care, special care, room, and board to more than one but not more than six adults who are not related by blood or marriage to the person or persons providing the services; and

(2) For the purposes of this chapter, any person or entity who has been granted a license to operate an adult family home.

NEGOTIATED CARE PLAN

WAC 388-76-10355 Negotiated care plan. The adult family home must use the resident assessment and preliminary service plan to develop a written negotiated care plan. The home must ensure each resident's negotiated care plan includes:

(1) A list of the care and services to be provided;

(2) Identification of who will provide the care and services;

(3) When and how the care and services will be provided;

(4) How medications will be managed, including how the resident will get their medications when the resident is not in the home;

(5) The resident's activities preferences and how the preferences will be met;

(6) Other preferences and choices about issues important to the resident, including, but not limited to:

(a) Food;

(b) Daily routine;

(c) Grooming; and

(d) How the home will accommodate the preferences and choices.

(7) If needed, a plan to:

(a) Follow in case of a foreseeable crisis due to a resident's assessed needs;

(b) Reduce tension, agitation and problem behaviors;

(c) Respond to resident's special needs, including, but not limited to medical devices and related safety plans;

(d) Respond to a resident's refusal of care or treatment, including when the resident's physician or practitioner should be notified of the refusal;

(8) Identification of any communication barriers the resident may have and how the home will use behaviors and nonverbal gestures to communicate with the resident;

(9) A statement of the ability for resident to be left unattended for a specific length of time; and

(10) A hospice care plan if the resident is receiving services for hospice care delivered by a licensed hospice agency.

CARE AND SERVICES

WAC 388-76-10390 Admission and continuation of services. The adult family home must only admit or continue to provide services to a person when:

- (1) The home can safely and appropriately meet the assessed needs and preferences of the person:
 - (a) With available staff; and
 - (b) Through reasonable accommodation.
- (2) Admitting the resident does not negatively affect the ability of the home to:
 - (a) Meet the needs and does not endanger the safety of other residents; or
 - (b) Safely evacuate all people in the home during an emergency.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10390, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10395 Emergency admissions. (1) The adult family home may only admit a resident to the home without an assessment or a preliminary service plan if a true emergency exists.

(2) To establish that a true emergency exists, the home must verify that the resident's life, health or safety is at serious risk due to circumstances in the resident's current place of residence or harm to the resident has occurred.

(3) After establishing that a true emergency exists, the home must:

(a) Ensure the assessment and preliminary service plan are completed within five working days after admitting the resident, if the resident pays for services with private funds; or

(b) Obtain approval from an authorized department case manager before admission if the resident's care and services are paid by the department; and

(c) If approval is obtained verbally, document the time, date, and name of the case manager who gave approval.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10395, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10400 Care and services. The adult family home must ensure each resident receives:

(1) The care and services identified in the negotiated care plan.

(2) The necessary care and services to help the resident reach the highest level of physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being consistent with resident choice, current functional status and potential for improvement or decline.

(3) The care and services in a manner and in an environment that:

(a) Actively supports, maintains or improves each resident's quality of life;

(b) Actively supports the safety of each resident; and

(c) Reasonably accommodates each resident's individual needs and preferences except when the accommodation endangers the health or safety of the individual or another resident.

(4) Services by the appropriate professionals based upon the resident's assessment and negotiated care plan, including nurse delegation if needed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10400, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10405 Nursing care. If the adult family home identifies that a resident has a need for nursing care and the home is not able to provide the care per chapter 18.79 RCW, the home must:

- (1) Contract with a nurse currently licensed in the state of Washington to provide the nursing care and service; or
- (2) Hire or contract with a nurse to provide nurse delegation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10405, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10410 Laundry services. The adult family home must:

- (1) Provide laundry services as needed; and
- (2) Launder sheets and pillowcases weekly or more often if soiled.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10410, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

FOOD SERVICES

WAC 388-76-10415 Food services. The adult family home must:

- (1) Ensure the provider, entity representative and all staff meet the safe food handling training requirements of chapter 388-112 WAC; and
- (2) Serve meals:
 - (a) In the home where each resident lives; and
 - (b) That accommodate each resident's:
 - (i) Preferences;
 - (ii) Food allergies and sensitivities;
 - (iii) Caloric needs;
 - (iv) Cultural and ethnic background; and
 - (v) Physical condition that may make food intake difficult such as being hard for the resident to chew or swallow.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10415, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10420 Meals and snacks. The adult family home must:

- (1) Serve at least three meals:
 - (a) In each twenty-four hour period;
 - (b) At regular times comparable to normal meal times in the community; and
 - (c) That meet the nutritional needs of each resident.
- (2) Make nutritious snacks available to residents:
 - (a) Between meals; and
 - (b) In the evening.
- (3) Get input from residents in meal planning and scheduling;
- (4) Serve nutrient concentrates, supplements, and modified diets only with written approval of the resident's physician;
- (5) Only serve pasteurized milk; and
- (6) Process any home-canned foods served in the home, according to the latest guidelines of the county cooperative extension service.

WAC 388-76-10425 Off-site food preparation. The adult family home must ensure:

- (1) Persons preparing food, at a location separate from the home, have a current food handler's permit issued by the department of health;
- (2) Prepared food transported to the home is in airtight containers; and
- (3) Food stays at the appropriate and safe temperature:
 - (a) During transportation; and
 - (b) When served.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10425, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

RESIDENT MEDICATIONS

WAC 388-76-10430 Medication system. (1) If the adult family home admits residents who need medication assistance or medication administration services by a legally authorized person, the home must have systems in place to ensure the services provided meet the medication needs of each resident and meet all laws and rules relating to medications.

(2) When providing medication assistance or medication administration for any resident, the home must ensure each resident:

- (a) Assessment indicates the amount of medication assistance needed by the resident;
 - (b) Negotiated care plan identifies the medication service that will be provided to the resident;
 - (c) Medication log is kept current as required in WAC 388-76-10475;
 - (d) Receives medications as required.
- (3) Records are kept which include a current list of prescribed and over-the-counter medications including name, dosage, frequency and the name and phone number of the practitioner as needed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10430, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10435 Medication refusal. (1) Each resident has the right to refuse to take medications.

(2) If the adult family home is assisting with or administering a resident's medications and the resident refuses to take or does not receive a prescribed medication:

- (a) The home must notify the resident's practitioner; unless
- (b) The provider, entity representative, resident manager or caregiver is a nurse or other health professional, acting within their scope of practice, is able to make a judgment about the impact of the resident's refusal.

(3) If the home becomes aware that a resident who self-administers, or takes their own medications, refuses to take a prescribed medication:

- (a) The home must notify the practitioner; unless
- (b) The provider, entity representative, resident manager or caregiver is a nurse or other health professional, acting within their scope of practice, is able to make a judgment about the impact of the resident's refusal.

WAC 388-76-10440 Medication—Assessment—Identification of amount of assistance needed when taking medications. (1) The adult family home must:

(a) Ensure each resident assessment identifies the amount of assistance the resident needs when taking medications; and

(b) Let the practitioner know when the following may affect the resident's ability to take their medications:

- (i) Resident's physical or mental limitations; and
- (ii) The setting or environment where the resident lives.

(2) The amount of assistance needed by a resident when taking their medications is as follows:

(a) Independent self-administration is when the resident does not need help taking medications and is able to directly take medications by eating or drinking, inhaling, by shot, through the skin or other means;

(b) Self-administration with assistance, as described in chapter 246-888 WAC, is when a resident is assisted in taking their medication by a nonpractitioner; and

(c) Medication administration is when medications are administered to the resident by a person legally authorized to do so, such as but not limited to a physician, nurse or pharmacist or through nurse delegation.

(3) The home must contact the resident's practitioner who will decide if a reassessment is necessary when:

(a) The resident has a change in the health status, medications, physical or mental limitations, or environment that might change the resident's need for medication assistance; or

(b) There is a need for a resident to have more than one type of medication assistance.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10440, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10445 Medication—Independent—Self-administration. The adult family home must ensure residents who have medication assistance assessed as independent self-administration:

(1) Administer their own medications; and

(2) Are allowed to keep their prescribed and over-the-counter medications securely locked in either their room or another agreed upon area if documented in the resident negotiated care plan.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10445, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10450 Medication—Self-administration with assistance. (1) For the purposes of this section "enabler" means a physical device used to facilitate a resident's self-administration of a prescribed or over-the-counter medication. Physical devices include, but are not limited to a medicine cup, glass, cup, spoons, bowl, prefilled syringes, syringes used to measure oral liquids, specially adapted table surfaces, drinking straw, piece of cloth, and the resident's hand.

(2) The adult family home must ensure that the resident can:

- (a) Put the medication into their own mouth; or
- (b) Apply, inject, or instill the medications.

(2009 Ed.)

(3) The home must:

(a) Provide set-up assistance just before the resident takes or applies the medication; or

(b) Only give oral medications through a gastrostomy or "g-tube" when ordered by the practitioner; and

(c) Ensure the resident is aware they are taking a medication, however the resident does not have to name the medication, effects or side effects.

(4) Self-administration with assistance:

(a) Does not include shots or intravenous medications as defined in WAC 246-888-020, except for a prefilled insulin syringe;

(b) May include steadying or guiding a resident's hand while applying or instilling medications such as ointments, eye, ear and nasal preparations, but does not include the practice of "hand-over-hand" (total physical assistance) administration;

(c) May include transferring the medications from one container to another to make a single dose such as pouring a liquid from the medication container to a calibrated spoon or measuring cup;

(d) May include reminding or coaching the resident to take their medication;

(e) Does not include direct assistance with intravenous and injectable medications except the home may carry a prefilled insulin syringe which the resident can administer;

(f) May include using an enabler; and

(g) Could include delivering a prefilled insulin syringe to the resident if the resident independently self-administers the injection per WAC 246-888-020.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10450, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10455 Medication—Administration.

For residents assessed with requiring the administration of medications, the adult family home must ensure medication administration is:

(1) Performed by a person as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW; or

(2) By nurse delegation per WAC 246-840-910 through 246-840-970; unless

(3) Done by a family member or legally appointed resident representative.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10455, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10460 Medication—Negotiated care plan. The adult family home must ensure that each resident's negotiated care plan addresses:

(1) The amount of medication assistance needed by each resident, including but not limited to:

(a) The reasons why a resident needs that amount of medication assistance; and

(b) When there is a need for the resident to have more than one type of medication assistance.

(2) How the resident will get their medications when the resident is away from the home or when a family member or resident representative is assisting with medications is not available.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10460, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10465 Medication—Altering—Requirements. (1) For the purposes of this section "altering a medication" means the alteration of prescribed or over the counter medications and includes, but is not limited to crushing tablets, cutting tablets in half; opening capsules and mixing powdered medications with food or liquids.

(2) The adult family home must consult with the practitioner or pharmacist before altering a medication and if the practitioner or pharmacist agrees with altering a medication, record the:

- (a) Time;
- (b) Date; and
- (c) Name of the person who provided the consultation.

(3) The home must ensure the resident is aware that a medication is:

- (a) Altered; and/or
- (b) Put in the resident's food or drink.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10465, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10470 Medication—Timing—Special directions. (1) The adult family home must ensure medications are given:

(a) At the specific time(s) ordered by the practitioner; and

(b) As follows, when the practitioner does not order a medication to be given at a specific time:

(i) One time per day, approximately every twenty four hours;

(ii) Two times a day, approximately twelve hours apart;

(iii) Three times a day, approximately six hours apart; and

(iv) Four times a day, approximately four hours apart.

(2) The home must ensure all directions given by the practitioner are followed when assisting or giving each resident medication. This includes but is not limited to:

- (a) Before meals;
- (b) After meals;
- (c) With or without food; and
- (d) At bed time.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10470, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10475 Medication—Log. The adult family home must:

(1) Keep an up-to-date daily medication log for each resident except for residents assessed as medication independent with self-administration.

(2) Include in each medication log the:

- (a) Name of the resident;
- (b) Name of all prescribed and over-the-counter medications;
- (c) Dosage of the medication;
- (d) Frequency which the medications are taken; and
- (e) Approximate time the resident must take each medication.

(3) Ensure the medication log includes:

(a) Initials of the staff who assisted or gave each resident medication(s);

(b) If the medication was refused and the reason for the refusal; and

[Title 388 WAC—p. 448]

(c) Documentation of any changes or new prescribed medications including:

(i) The change;

(ii) The date of the change;

(iii) A logged call requesting written verification of the change; and

(iv) A copy of written verification of the change from the practitioner received by the home by mail, facsimile, or other electronic means, or on new original labeled container from the pharmacy.

(4) Ensure that the changed or new medication is received from the pharmacy.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10475, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10480 Medication organizers. The adult family home must ensure:

(1) A licensed nurse, pharmacist, the resident or the resident's family member fills a resident's medication organizer;

(2) Prescribed and over-the-counter medications placed in a medication organizer come from the original container labeled for the resident by the pharmacist or pharmacy service;

(3) Each resident and anyone giving care to a resident can readily identify medications in the medication organizer;

(4) Medication organizer labels clearly show the following:

(a) The name of the resident;

(b) A list of all prescribed and over-the-counter medications;

(c) The dosage of each medication;

(d) The frequency which the medications are given.

(5) The person filling the medication organizer updates the labels on the medication organizer when the practitioner changes a medication.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10480, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10485 Medication storage. The adult family home must ensure all prescribed and over-the-counter medications are stored:

(1) In locked storage;

(2) In the original container with legible and original labels; and

(3) Appropriately for each medication, such as if refrigeration is required for a medication and the medication is kept in refrigerator in locked storage.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10485, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10490 Medication disposal—Written policy—Required. The adult family home must have and implement a written policy addressing the disposition of resident prescribed medications that are unused, leftover, or remaining after the resident leaves the home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10490, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10980 Remedies—Specific—Stop placement—Admissions prohibited. (1) The department may order stop placement and prohibit the admission of residents if the home does not meet the requirements of chapters 70.128, 70.129, 74.32 RCW or this chapter.

(2) Once imposed, the adult family home must not admit any person until the stop placement order is terminated.

(3) If the home requests, the department may approve readmission of a resident to the home from a hospital or nursing home during the stop placement.

(4) The department must end the stop placement when the department finds the:

(a) Deficiencies necessitating the stop placement have been corrected; and

(b) Home can show it has the capacity to maintain adequate care and service.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10980, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

WAC 388-76-10985 Remedies—May extend to multiple homes. (1) When the department finds that a licensed provider or entity representative also operates an unlicensed adult family home, the department may impose a remedy or remedies listed in WAC 388-76-10940 on the provider or entity representative and the provider's or entity representative's licensed adult family home or homes.

(2) When the department finds that violations existing in an adult family home are of such nature as to present a serious risk or harm to residents of other homes operated by the same provider or entity representative, and after the department investigates other homes licensed by the same provider or entity representative the department may impose remedies on those other homes.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 07-21-080, § 388-76-10985, filed 10/16/07, effective 1/1/08.]

INFORMAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION, NOTICE AND APPEALS

WAC 388-76-10990 Informal dispute resolution (IDR). (1) When a provider or entity representative disagrees with the department's finding of a violation under this chapter, the provider or entity representative shall have the right to have the violation reviewed by the department under the department's dispute resolution process.

(2) The purpose of the review is to give the provider or entity representative an opportunity to present information which might warrant modification or deletion of a finding of a violation.

(3) The provider or entity representative may submit a written statement for review.

(4) In addition to a written statement, the provider or entity representative may ask to present the information in person to a department designee.

(5) Requests for review must be made in writing to the department at the address provided in the department's certified letter within ten working days of receipt of the written finding of a violation.

(6) When requested by the provider or entity representative, the department must expedite the dispute resolution process to review violations upon which a department order imposing license suspension, revocation, stop placement, or condition on a license is based.

(7) Orders of the department imposing license suspension, stop placement, or conditions on a license are effective immediately upon notice and shall continue pending dispute resolution.

WAC 388-76-10995 Notice, hearing rights, and effective dates relating to imposition of remedies. (1) Chapter 34.05 RCW applies to department actions under this chapter and chapter 70.128 RCW, except that orders of the department imposing license suspension, stop placement, or conditions on license are effective immediately upon notice and must continue pending a final administrative decision.

(2) A provider contesting any decision by the department to impose a remedy must within twenty-eight days of receipt of the decision:

(a) File a written application for an adjudicative proceeding by a method showing proof of receipt with the board of appeals at the mailing address contained in WAC 388-02-0030; and

(b) Include in or with the application:

(i) The reasons for contesting the department decision; and

(ii) A copy of the contested department decision.

(3) Administrative proceedings are governed by chapter 34.05 RCW, RCW 43.20A.215, where applicable, this section, and chapter 388-02 WAC. If any provision in this section conflicts with chapter 388-02 WAC, the provision in this section governs.

RESIDENT PROTECTION PROGRAM

WAC 388-76-11000 Resident protection program—Investigation of reports. (1) The department may investigate allegations of abandonment, abuse, neglect, exploitation, and financial exploitation of a resident.

(2) A department investigation may include an investigation of allegations about one or more of the following:

- (a) A provider;
- (b) Employee of the adult family home;
- (c) Entity representative;
- (d) Anyone affiliated with a provider; and
- (e) Caregiver.

WAC 388-76-11005 Resident protection program—Notice of preliminary finding. (1) The department will notify the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident in writing within ten working days of making a preliminary finding of abandonment, abuse, neglect, exploitation, or financial exploitation of a resident. The written notice:

(a) Will not include the identities of the alleged victim, reporter and witnesses; and

(b) Will include the necessary information for the individual to ask for an administrative hearing to challenge the preliminary finding.

(2) The department must make a reasonable, good faith effort to find the last known address of the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident.

(3) The department may extend the time frame for notification beyond ten working days for good cause.

(4) The department will serve notice of the preliminary finding as provided in chapter 388-02 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-098, § 388-76-11005, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-76-11010 Resident protection program—Reporting preliminary finding. (1) In a manner consistent with confidentiality requirements concerning the resident, witnesses, and reporter, the department may provide notification of a preliminary finding to:

- (a) Other divisions within the department;
- (b) The agency or program identified under RCW 74.34.068 with which the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident is associated as an employee;
- (c) The employer or program that is currently associated with the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident, if known;
- (d) Law enforcement; and
- (e) Other investigative authorities consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 464]

(2) The notification will identify the finding as a preliminary finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-098, § 388-76-11010, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-76-11015 Resident protection program—Disputing a preliminary finding. (1) The individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident may request an administrative hearing to challenge a preliminary finding made by the department.

(2) The request must be made in writing to the office of administrative hearings.

(3) The office of administrative hearings must receive the individual's written request for an administrative hearing within thirty calendar days of the date written on the notice of the preliminary finding.

(4) The written request for a hearing must include:

(a) The individual's full legal name, current mailing address and telephone number;

(b) A brief explanation of why the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident disagrees with the preliminary finding;

(c) A description of any assistance needed in the administrative appeal process by the individual, including a foreign or sign language interpreter or any reasonable accommodation for a disability; and

(d) The individual's signature.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-098, § 388-76-11015, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-76-11020 Resident protection program—Hearing procedures to dispute preliminary finding. (1) Chapters 34.05 and 74.34 RCW, chapter 388-02 WAC, and the provisions of this chapter govern any appeal regarding a preliminary finding.

(2) If a conflict exists between the provisions of this chapter and chapter 388-02 WAC, the provisions of this chapter prevail.

(3) If an administrative law judge within the office of administrative hearings determines that a preponderance of the evidence supports the preliminary finding that the individual abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident, then the administrative law judge will issue an initial order.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-098, § 388-76-11020, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-76-11025 Resident protection program—Finalizing a preliminary finding. (1) A preliminary finding becomes a final finding when:

(a) The department notifies the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident there is a preliminary finding pursuant to WAC 388-76-11005; and

(b) The individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident does not ask for an administrative hearing; or

(c) The administrative law judge:

(2009 Ed.)

(i) Dismisses the hearing following withdrawal of the appeal or default; or

(ii) Issues an initial order upholding the finding and the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident fails to appeal the initial order to the department's board of appeals; or

(d) The board of appeals issues a final order upholding the finding.

(2) A final finding is permanent.

(3) A final finding will only be removed from the department or agency list of individuals found to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a vulnerable adult if it is rescinded following judicial review.

(4) The department may remove a single finding of neglect from its records based upon a written petition by the individual found to have neglected a resident provided that at least one calendar year must have passed between the date a request was made to remove the finding of neglect and the date the final finding was finalized and recorded.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-098, § 388-76-11025, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-76-11030 Resident protection program—Appeal of administrative law judge's initial order or finding. (1) If the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident or the department disagrees with the administrative law judge's decision, either party may challenge this decision by filing a petition for review with the department's board of appeals under chapter 34.05 RCW, Administrative Procedure Act, and chapter 388-02 WAC.

(2) If the department appeals the administrative law judge's decision, the department will not change the finding in the department's records until a final hearing decision is issued.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-098, § 388-76-11030, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-76-11035 Resident protection program—Reporting final findings. The department will report a final finding of abandonment, abuse, neglect, exploitation, and financial exploitation within ten working days to the following:

(1) The individual found to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident and for whom there is a final finding;

(2) The provider or entity representative that was associated with the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident during the time of the incident;

(3) The adult family home or program that is currently associated with the individual, if known;

(4) The appropriate licensing, certification or registration authority;

(5) The federal or state department or agency list of individuals found to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a vulnerable adult; and

(6) The findings may be disclosed to the public upon request subject to applicable public disclosure laws.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-098, § 388-76-11035, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-76-11040 Resident protection program—Disclosure of investigative and finding information. (1) Confidential information about residents and mandated reporters received from the department may only be used by the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident to challenge findings through the appeals process.

(2) Confidential information such as the name and other personal identifying information of the reporter, witnesses, or the resident will be redacted from documents unless release of that information is consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW and other applicable state and federal laws.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapters 70.128 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-098, § 388-76-11040, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

GENERAL

WAC 388-78A-2010 Purpose. This chapter is written to implement chapter 18.20 RCW, to promote the safety and well-being of boarding home residents, to specify standards for boarding home operators, and to further establish requirements for the operation of boarding homes.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2010, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2020 Definitions. "Abandonment" means action or inaction by a person with a duty of care for a vulnerable adult that leaves the vulnerable person without the means or ability to obtain necessary food, clothing, shelter, or health care.

"Abuse" means the willful action or inaction that inflicts injury, unreasonable confinement, intimidation, or punishment on a resident. In instances of abuse of a resident who is unable to express or demonstrate physical harm, pain, or mental anguish, the abuse is presumed to cause physical harm, pain, or mental anguish. Abuse includes sexual abuse, mental abuse, physical abuse, and exploitation of a resident, which have the following meanings:

(1) "Mental abuse" means any willful action or inaction of mental or verbal abuse. Mental abuse includes, but is not limited to, coercion, harassment, inappropriately isolating a resident from family, friends, or regular activity, and verbal assault that includes ridiculing, intimidating, yelling, or swearing;

(2) "Physical abuse" means the willful action of inflicting bodily injury or physical mistreatment. Physical abuse includes, but is not limited to, striking with or without an object, slapping, pinching, choking, kicking, shoving, prodding, or the use of chemical restraints or physical restraints;

(3) "Sexual abuse" means any form of nonconsensual sexual contact, including, but not limited to, unwanted or inappropriate touching, rape, sodomy, sexual coercion, sexually explicit photographing, and sexual harassment. Sexual abuse includes any sexual contact between a staff person and a resident, whether or not it is consensual;

(4) "Exploitation" means an act of forcing, compelling, or exerting undue influence over a resident causing the resident to act in a way that is inconsistent with relevant past behavior, or causing the resident to perform services for the benefit of another.

"Activities of daily living" means the following tasks related to basic personal care: Bathing; toileting; dressing; personal hygiene; mobility; transferring; and eating.

"Adult day services" means care and services provided to a nonresident individual by the boarding home on the boarding home premises, for a period of time not to exceed ten continuous hours, and does not involve an overnight stay.

"Ambulatory" means capable of walking or traversing a normal path to safety without the physical assistance of another individual:

(1) "Nonambulatory" means unable to walk or traverse a normal path to safety without the physical assistance of another individual;

(2) "Semiambulatory" means physically and mentally capable of traversing a normal path to safety with the use of mobility aids, but unable to ascend or descend stairs without the physical assistance of another individual.

"Applicant" means the person, as defined in this section, that has submitted, or is in the process of submitting, an application for a boarding home license.

"Basic services" means housekeeping services, meals, nutritious snacks, laundry, and activities.

"Bathing fixture" means a bathtub, shower or sit-down shower.

"Bathroom" means a room containing at least one bathing fixture.

"Boarding home" means any home or other institution, however named, which is advertised, announced, or maintained for the express or implied purpose of providing housing, basic services, and assuming general responsibility for the safety and well-being of the residents, and may also provide domiciliary care, consistent with this chapter to seven or more residents after July 1, 2000. However, a boarding home that is licensed for three to six residents prior to or on July 1, 2000, may maintain its boarding home license as long as it is continually licensed as a boarding home. "Boarding home" does not include facilities certified as group training homes pursuant to RCW 71A.22.040, nor any home, institution or section thereof which is otherwise licensed and regulated under the provisions of state law providing specifically for the licensing and regulation of such home, institution or section thereof. Nor shall it include any independent senior housing, independent living units in continuing care retirement communities, or other similar living situations including those subsidized by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. "Boarding home" may also include persons associated with the boarding home to carry out its duties under this chapter.

"Building code" means the building codes and standards adopted by the Washington state building code council.

"Caregiver" means anyone providing hands-on personal care to another person including, but not limited to: Cuing, reminding or supervision of residents, on behalf of a boarding home, except volunteers who are directly supervised. Direct supervision means oversight by a person who has demonstrated competency in the basic training (and specialty training if required), or who has been exempted from the basic training requirements, is on the premises, and is quickly and easily available to the caregiver.

"Construction review services" means the office of construction review services within the Washington state department of health.

"Continuing care contract" means, as stated in RCW 70.38.025, a contract providing a person, for the duration of that person's life or for a term in excess of one year, shelter along with nursing, medical, health-related, or personal care services, which is conditioned upon the transfer of property, the payment of an entrance fee to the provider of such services, or the payment of periodic charges for the care and services involved. A continuing care contract is not excluded from this definition because the contract is mutually terminable or because shelter and services are not provided at the same location.

"Continuing care retirement community" means, as stated in RCW 70.38.025, an entity which provides shelter and services under continuing care contracts with its members and which sponsors or includes a health care facility or a health service.

"Contractor" means an agency or person who contracts with a licensee to provide resident care, services or equipment.

"Crimes relating to financial exploitation" means the same as "crimes relating to financial exploitation" as defined in RCW 43.43.830 or 43.43.842.

"Department" means the Washington state department of social and health services.

"Dietitian" means an individual certified under chapter 18.138 RCW.

"Document" means to record, with signature, title, date and time:

(1) Information about medication administration, medication assistance or disposal, a nursing care procedure, accident, occurrence or change in resident condition that may affect the care or needs of a resident; and

(2) Processes, events or activities that are required by law, rule or policy.

"Domiciliary care" means:

(1) Assistance with activities of daily living provided by the boarding home either directly or indirectly; or

(2) Health support services, if provided directly or indirectly by the boarding home; or

(3) Intermittent nursing services, if provided directly or indirectly by the boarding home.

"Enforcement remedy" means one or more of the department's responses to a boarding home's noncompliance with chapter 18.20 RCW and this chapter, as authorized by RCW 18.20.190.

"Financial exploitation" means the illegal or improper use of the property, income, resources, or trust funds of the vulnerable adult by any person for any person's profit or advantage other than for the vulnerable adult's profit or advantage.

"Food service worker" means according to chapter 246-217 WAC an individual who works (or intends to work) with or without pay in a food service establishment and handles unwrapped or unpackaged food or who may contribute to the transmission of infectious diseases through the nature of his/her contact with food products and/or equipment and facilities. This does not include persons who simply assist residents with meals.

"General responsibility for the safety and well-being of the resident" means the provision of the following:

(1) Prescribed general low sodium diets;

(2) Prescribed general diabetic diets;

(3) Prescribed mechanical soft foods;

(4) Emergency assistance;

(5) Monitoring of the resident;

(6) Arranging health care appointments with outside health care providers and reminding residents of such appointments as necessary;

(7) Coordinating health care services with outside health care providers consistent with WAC 388-78A-2350;

(8) Assisting the resident to obtain and maintain glasses, hearing aids, dentures, canes, crutches, walkers, wheelchairs, and assistive communication devices;

(9) Observation of the resident for changes in overall functioning;

(10) Blood pressure checks as scheduled;

(11) Responding appropriately when there are observable or reported changes in the resident's physical, mental, or emotional functioning; or

(12) Medication assistance as permitted under RCW 69.41.085 and as described in RCW 69.41.010 and chapter 246-888 WAC.

"Harm" means a physical or mental or emotional injury or damage to a resident including those resulting from neglect or violations of a resident's rights.

"Health support services" means any of the following optional services:

- (1) Blood glucose testing;
- (2) Puree diets;
- (3) Calorie controlled diabetic diets;
- (4) Dementia care;
- (5) Mental health care; or
- (6) Developmental disabilities care.

"Independent living unit" means:

- (1) Independent senior housing;
- (2) Independent living unit in a continuing care retirement community or other similar living environments;
- (3) Boarding home unit where domiciliary services are not provided; or
- (4) Boarding home unit where one or more items listed under "general responsibilities" are not provided.

"Independent senior housing" means an independent living unit occupied by an individual or individuals sixty or more years of age.

"Infectious" means capable of causing infection or disease by entrance of organisms into the body, which grow and multiply there, including, but not limited to, bacteria, viruses, protozoans, and fungi.

"Licensee" means the person, as defined in this chapter, to whom the department issues the boarding home license.

"Licensed resident bed capacity" means the resident occupancy level requested by the licensee and approved by the department. All residents receiving domiciliary care or the items or services listed under general responsibility for the safety and well-being of the resident as defined in this section count towards the licensed resident bed capacity. Adult day services clients do not count towards the licensed resident bed capacity.

"Majority owner" means any person that owns:

- (1) More than fifty percent interest; or
- (2) If no one person owns more than fifty percent interest, the largest interest portion; or
- (3) If more than one person owns equal largest interest portions, then all persons owning those equal largest interest portions.

"Manager" means the person defined in this chapter, providing management services on behalf of the licensee.

"Management agreement" means a written, executed agreement between the licensee and the manager regarding the provision of certain services on behalf of the licensee.

"Mandated reporter":

- (1) Is an employee of the department, law enforcement officer, social worker, professional school personnel, individual provider, an employee of a facility, an operator of a facility, an employee of a social service, welfare, mental health, adult day health, adult day care, home health, home care, or hospice agency, county coroner or medical examiner, Christian Science practitioner, or health care provider subject to chapter 18.130 RCW; and

(2) For the purpose of the definition of mandated reporter, "Facility" means a residence licensed or required to be licensed under chapter 18.20 RCW (boarding homes), chapter 18.51 RCW (nursing homes), chapter 70.128 RCW (adult family homes), chapter 72.36 RCW (soldiers' homes), chapter 71A.20 RCW (residential habilitation centers), or any other facility licensed by the department.

"Maximum facility capacity" means the maximum number of individuals that the boarding home may serve at any one time, as determined by the department.

(1) The maximum facility capacity includes all residents and respite care residents and adult day services clients.

(2) The maximum facility capacity is equal to the lesser of:

(a) The sum of the number of approved bed spaces for all resident rooms (total number of approved bed spaces), except as specified in subsection (3); or

(b) Twice the seating capacity of the dining area(s) consistent with WAC 388-78A-2300 (1)(h); or

(c) The number of residents permitted by calculating the ratios of toilets, sinks, and bathing fixtures to residents consistent with WAC 388-78A-3030; or

(d) For boarding homes licensed on or before December 31, 1988, the total day room area in square feet divided by ten square feet, consistent with WAC 388-78A-3050; or

(e) For boarding homes licensed after December 31, 1988, the total day room area in square feet divided by twenty square feet, consistent with WAC 388-78A-3050.

(3) For the purposes of providing adult day services consistent with WAC 388-78A-2360, one additional adult day services client may be served, beyond the total number of approved bed spaces, for each additional sixty square feet of day room area greater than the area produced by multiplying the total number of approved bed spaces by twenty square feet, provided that:

(a) There is a [at] least one toilet and one hand washing sink accessible to adult day services clients for every eight adult day services clients or fraction thereof;

(b) The total number of residents and adult day services clients does not exceed twice the seating capacity of the dining area(s) consistent with WAC 388-78A-2300 (1)(h); and

(c) The adult day services program area(s) and building do not exceed the occupancy load as determined by the local building official or state fire marshal.

"Medication administration" means the direct application of a prescribed medication whether by injection, inhalation, ingestion, or other means, to the body of the resident by an individual legally authorized to do so.

"Medication assistance" means assistance with self-administration of medication rendered by a nonpractitioner to a resident of a boarding home in accordance with chapter 246-888 WAC.

"Medication organizer" means a container with separate compartments for storing oral medications organized in daily doses.

"Medication service" means any service provided either directly or indirectly by a boarding home related to medication administration, medication administration provided through nurse delegation, medication assistance, or resident self-administration of medication.

"Neglect" means:

(1) A pattern of conduct or inaction resulting in the failure to provide the goods and services that maintain physical or mental health of a resident, or that fails to avoid or prevent physical or mental harm or pain to a resident; or

(2) An act or omission that demonstrates a serious disregard of consequences of such a magnitude as to constitute a clear and present danger to the resident's health, welfare, or safety, including but not limited to conduct prohibited under RCW 9A.42.100.

"Nonresident individual" means an individual who resides in independent senior housing, independent living units in continuing care retirement communities, or in other similar living environments or in a boarding home and may receive one or more of the services listed in WAC 388-78A-2030 (2)(a) through (g). A nonresident individual may not receive domiciliary care as defined in this section, directly or indirectly by the boarding home, and may not receive the items or services listed under general responsibility for the safety and well-being of the resident as defined in this section, except during the time the person is receiving adult day services as defined in this section.

"Nonpractitioner" means any individual who is not a practitioner as defined in WAC 388-78A-2020 and chapter 69.41 RCW.

"Nurse" means an individual currently licensed under chapter 18.79 RCW as either a:

(1) "Licensed practical nurse" (LPN); or

(2) "Registered nurse" (RN).

"Over-the-counter (OTC) medication" means any medication that may be legally purchased without a prescriptive order, including, but not limited to, aspirin, antacids, vitamins, minerals, or herbal preparations.

"Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, joint stock association or any other legal or commercial entity.

"Physician" means an individual licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

"Prescribed medication" means any medication (legend drug, controlled substance, and over-the-counter) that is prescribed by an authorized practitioner.

"Prescriber" means a health care practitioner authorized by Washington state law to prescribe drugs.

"Problem" means a violation of any WAC or RCW applicable to the operation of a boarding home:

(1) "Recurring problem" means, for all purposes other than those described in RCW 18.20.400, that the department has cited the boarding home for a violation of WAC or RCW and the circumstances of (a) or (b) of this subsection are present:

(a) The department previously imposed an enforcement remedy for a violation of the same section of WAC or RCW for substantially the same problem following any type of inspection within the preceding thirty-six months; or

(b) The department previously cited a violation under the same section of WAC or RCW for substantially the same problem following any type of inspection on two occasions within the preceding thirty-six months.

(c) If the previous violation in (a) or (b) of this subsection was pursuant to WAC or RCW that has changed at the time of the new violation, citation to the equivalent current WAC or RCW section is sufficient.

(d) When there is a change in licensees between the first and the second or third citations, the new licensee must accept, and the department will consider, the prior licensee's compliance and enforcement record as part of the new licensee's compliance record at that boarding home if any person affiliated with the new licensee was affiliated with the prior licensee at the same boarding home. A person is considered affiliated with the licensee if the person is an applicant for the boarding home license, or is listed on the license application as a partner, officer, director, or majority owner of the applicant.

(2) "Serious problem" means:

(a) There has been a violation of a WAC or RCW; and

(b) Significant harm has actually occurred to a resident; or

(c) It is likely that significant harm or death will occur to a resident.

(3) "Uncorrected problem" means the department has cited a violation of WAC or RCW following any type of inspection and the violation remains uncorrected at the time the department makes a subsequent inspection for the specific purpose of verifying whether such violation has been corrected. When a change in licensees occurs, the new licensee is responsible for correcting any remaining violations that may exist, including complying with any plan of correction in effect immediately prior to the change in licensees.

"Prospective resident" means an individual who is seeking admission to a licensed boarding home and who has completed and signed an application for admission, or such application for admission has been completed and signed in their behalf by their legal representative if any, and if not, then the designated representative if any.

"Reasonable accommodation" and "reasonably accommodate" have the meaning given in federal and state antidiscrimination laws and regulations which include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Reasonable accommodation means that the boarding home must:

(a) Not impose admission criteria that excludes individuals unless the criteria is necessary for the provision of boarding home services;

(b) Make reasonable modification to its policies, practices or procedures if the modifications are necessary to accommodate the needs of the resident;

(c) Provide additional aids and services to the resident.

(2) Reasonable accommodations are not required if:

(a) The resident or individual applying for admission presents a significant risk to the health or safety of others that cannot be eliminated by the reasonable accommodation;

(b) The reasonable accommodations would fundamentally alter the nature of the services provided by the boarding home; or

(c) The reasonable accommodations would cause an undue burden, meaning a significant financial or administrative burden.

"RCW" means Revised Code of Washington.

"Records" means:

(1) "Active records" means the current, relevant documentation regarding residents necessary to provide care and services to residents; or

(2) "Inactive records" means historical documentation regarding the provision of care and services to residents that is no longer relevant to the current delivery of services and has been thinned from the active record.

"Resident" means an individual who:

(1) Chooses to reside in a boarding home, including an individual receiving respite care;

(2) Is not related by blood or marriage to the operator of the boarding home;

(3) Receives basic services; and

(4) Receives one or more of the services listed under general responsibility for the safety and well-being of the resident, and may receive domiciliary care or respite care provided directly, or indirectly, by the boarding home.

"Resident's representative" means:

(1) The legal representative who is the person or persons identified in RCW 7.70.065 and who may act on behalf of the resident pursuant to the scope of their legal authority. The legal representative shall not be affiliated with the licensee, boarding home, or management company, unless the affiliated person is a family member of the resident; or

(2) If there is no legal representative, a person designated voluntarily by a competent resident in writing, to act in the resident's behalf concerning the care and services provided by the boarding home and to receive information from the boarding home if there is no legal representative. The resident's representative may not be affiliated with the licensee, boarding home, or management company, unless the affiliated person is a family member of the resident. The resident's representative under this subsection shall not have authority to act on behalf of the resident once the resident is no longer competent. The resident's competence shall be determined using the criteria in RCW 11.88.010 (1)(e).

"Respite care" means short-term care for any period in excess of twenty-four continuous hours for a resident to temporarily relieve the family or other caregiver of providing that care.

"Restraint" means any method or device used to prevent or limit free body movement, including, but not limited to:

(1) Confinement, unless agreed to as provided in WAC 388-78A-2370;

(2) "Chemical restraint" which means a psychopharmacologic drug that is used for discipline or convenience and not required to treat the resident's medical symptoms; and

(3) "Physical restraint" which means a manual method, obstacle, or physical or mechanical device, material, or equipment attached or adjacent to the resident's body that restricts freedom of movement or access to his or her body, is used for discipline or convenience, and not required to treat the resident's medical symptoms.

"Room" means a space set apart by floor to ceiling partitions on all sides with all openings provided with doors or windows.

(1) "Sleeping room" means a room where a resident is customarily expected to sleep and contains a resident's bed.

(2) "Resident living room" means the common space in a resident unit that is not a sleeping room, bathroom or closet.

"Significant change" means a change in the resident's physical, mental, or psychosocial status that causes either life-threatening conditions or clinical complications.

"Special needs" means a developmental disability, mental illness, or dementia.

"Staff person" means any boarding home employee or temporary employee or contractor, whether employed or retained by the licensee or any management company, or volunteer.

"State fire marshal" means the director of fire protection under the direction of the chief of the Washington state patrol.

"Toilet" means a disposal apparatus used for urination and defecation, fitted with a seat and flushing device.

"Volunteer" means an individual who interacts with residents without reimbursement.

"Vulnerable adult" includes a person:

(1) Sixty years of age or older who has the functional, mental, or physical inability to care for himself or herself; or

(2) Found incapacitated under chapter 11.88 RCW; or

(3) Who has a developmental disability as defined under RCW 71A.10.020; or

(4) Admitted to any facility, including any boarding home; or

(5) Receiving services from home health, hospice, or home care agencies licensed or required to be licensed under chapter 70.127 RCW; or

(6) Receiving services from an individual provider.

(7) For the purposes of requesting and receiving background checks pursuant to RCW 43.43.832, it shall also include adults of any age who lack the functional, mental, or physical ability to care for themselves.

"WAC" means Washington Administrative Code.

"Willful" means the deliberate, or nonaccidental, action or inaction by an alleged perpetrator that he/she knows or reasonably should have known could cause a negative outcome, including harm, injury, pain or anguish.

"WISHA" means the Washington Industrial Safety and Health Act, chapter 49.17 RCW administered by the Washington state department of labor and industries.

WAC 388-78A-2030 Applicability. (1) A person must have a boarding home license issued by the department under chapter 18.20 RCW and this chapter, except as otherwise exempted by RCW 18.20.170 and subsection (2) of this section, if the person advertises as, or operates, or maintains a facility that meets the definition of a "boarding home" in this chapter, within Washington state and provides housing, one or more basic services, and one or more of the following:

- (a) Assumes general responsibility for the safety and well-being of the residents;
- (b) Provides assistance with activities of daily living, either directly or indirectly;
- (c) Provides health support services, either directly or indirectly;
- (d) Provides intermittent nursing services, either directly or indirectly.

(2) A boarding home license is not required for one or more of the following services that may be provided to a non-resident individual. These services may not include continual care or supervision of a nonresident individual without a boarding home license:

- (a) Emergency assistance provided on an intermittent or nonroutine basis to any nonresident individual; or
- (b) Systems employed by independent senior housing, or independent living units in continuing care retirement communities, to respond to the potential need for emergency services for nonresident individuals; or
- (c) Infrequent, voluntary, and nonscheduled blood pressure checks for nonresident individuals; or
- (d) Nurse referral services provided at the request of a nonresident individual to determine whether referral to an outside health care provider is recommended; or
- (e) Making health care appointments at the request of nonresident individuals; or
- (f) Preadmission assessment, at the request of the non-resident individual; or
- (g) Services customarily provided under landlord tenant agreements governed by the Residential Landlord-Tenant Act, chapter 59.18 RCW; or
- (h) Housing nonresident individuals who, without ongoing assistance from the boarding home, initiate and arrange for services with a practitioner licensed under Title 18 RCW or a home health, hospice, or home care agency licensed under chapter 70.127 RCW, or other persons as permitted by the boarding home.

(3) This section does not prohibit a boarding home from furnishing written information concerning available community resources to nonresident individuals or the individual's family members or legal representatives. However, the boarding home may not require the use of any particular service provider.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2030, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2040 Other requirements. (1) The boarding home must comply with all other applicable federal, state, county and municipal statutes, rules, codes and ordinances, including without limitations those that prohibit discrimination.

(2) The boarding home must have its building approved by the Washington state fire marshal in order to be licensed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2040, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2050 Resident characteristics. The boarding home may admit and retain an individual as a resident in a boarding home only if:

(1) The boarding home can safely and appropriately serve the individual with appropriate available staff providing:

- (a) The scope of care and services described in the boarding home's disclosure information, except if the boarding home chooses to provide additional services consistent with RCW 18.20.300(4); and
- (b) The reasonable accommodations required by state or federal law, including providing any specialized training to caregivers that may be required according to WAC 388-78A-2490 through 388-78A-2510;

(2) The individual does not require the frequent presence and frequent evaluation of a registered nurse, excluding those individuals who are receiving hospice care or individuals who have a short-term illness that is expected to be resolved within fourteen days as long as the boarding home has the capacity to meet the individual's identified needs; and

(3) The individual is ambulatory, unless the boarding home is approved by the Washington state director of fire protection to care for semiambulatory or nonambulatory residents.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090. 06-01-047, § 388-78A-2050, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2050, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

ASSESSMENT AND MONITORING

WAC 388-78A-2060 Preadmission assessment. The boarding home must conduct a preadmission assessment for each prospective resident that includes the following information, unless unavailable despite the best efforts of the boarding home:

- (1) Medical history;
- (2) Necessary and contraindicated medications;
- (3) A licensed medical or health professional's diagnosis, unless the individual objects for religious reasons;
- (4) Significant known behaviors or symptoms that may cause concern or require special care;
- (5) Mental illness diagnosis, except where protected by confidentiality laws;
- (6) Level of personal care needs;
- (7) Activities and service preferences; and
- (8) Preferences regarding other issues important to the applicant, such as food and daily routine.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2060, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2070 Timing of preadmission assessment. (1) Unless there is an emergency, the boarding home must complete the preadmission assessment of the prospective resident before each prospective resident moves into the boarding home.

(2) The boarding home must ensure the preadmission assessment is completed within five calendar days of the resident moving into the boarding home when the resident moves in under emergency conditions.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "emergency" means any circumstances when the prospective resident would otherwise need to remain in an unsafe setting or be without adequate and safe housing.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2070, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2080 Qualified assessor. The boarding home must ensure the person responsible for completing a preadmission assessment of a prospective resident:

- (1) Has a master's degree in social services, human services, behavioral sciences or an allied field and two years social service experience working with adults who have functional or cognitive disabilities; or
- (2) Has a bachelor's degree in social services, human services, behavioral sciences, or an allied field and three years social service experience working with adults who have functional or cognitive disabilities; or
- (3) Has a valid Washington state license to practice nursing, in accordance with chapters 18.79 RCW and 246-840 WAC; or
- (4) Is a physician with a valid state license to practice medicine; or
- (5) Has three years of successful experience acquired prior to September 1, 2004, assessing prospective and current boarding home residents in a setting licensed by a state agency for the care of vulnerable adults, such as a nursing home, boarding home, or adult family home, or a setting having a contract with a recognized social service agency for the provision of care to vulnerable adults, such as supported living.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2080, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2090 Full assessment topics. The boarding home must obtain sufficient information to be able to assess the capabilities, needs, and preferences for each resident, and must complete a full assessment addressing the following, within fourteen days of the resident's move-in date, unless extended by the department for good cause:

- (1) Individual's recent medical history, including, but not limited to:
 - (a) A licensed medical or health professional's diagnosis, unless the resident objects for religious reasons;
 - (b) Chronic, current, and potential skin conditions; or
 - (c) Known allergies to foods or medications, or other considerations for providing care or services.
- (2) Currently necessary and contraindicated medications and treatments for the individual, including:
 - (a) Any prescribed medications, and over-the-counter medications commonly taken by the individual, that the individual is able to independently self-administer, or safely and accurately direct others to administer to him/her;
 - (b) Any prescribed medications, and over-the-counter medications commonly taken by the individual, that the individual is able to self-administer when he/she has the assistance of a caregiver; and
 - (c) Any prescribed medications, and over-the-counter medications commonly taken by the individual, that the individual is not able to self-administer, and needs to have administered to him or her.
- (3) The individual's nursing needs when the individual requires the services of a nurse on the boarding home premises.

- (4) Individual's sensory abilities, including:
 - (a) Vision; and
 - (b) Hearing.
- (5) Individual's communication abilities, including:
 - (a) Modes of expression;
 - (b) Ability to make self understood; and
 - (c) Ability to understand others.
- (6) Significant known behaviors or symptoms of the individual causing concern or requiring special care, including:
 - (a) History of substance abuse;
 - (b) History of harming self, others, or property; or
 - (c) Other conditions that may require behavioral intervention strategies;
 - (d) Individual's ability to leave the boarding home unsupervised; and
 - (e) Other safety considerations that may pose a danger to the individual or others, such as use of medical devices or the individual's ability to smoke unsupervised, if smoking is permitted in the boarding home.
- (7) Individual's special needs, by evaluating available information, or if available information does not indicate the presence of special needs, selecting and using an appropriate tool, to determine the presence of symptoms consistent with, and implications for care and services of:
 - (a) Mental illness, or needs for psychological or mental health services, except where protected by confidentiality laws;
 - (b) Developmental disability;
 - (c) Dementia. While screening a resident for dementia, the boarding home must:
 - (i) Base any determination that the resident has short-term memory loss upon objective evidence; and
 - (ii) Document the evidence in the resident's record.
 - (d) Other conditions affecting cognition, such as traumatic brain injury.
- (8) Individual's level of personal care needs, including:
 - (a) Ability to perform activities of daily living;
 - (b) Medication management ability, including:
 - (i) The individual's ability to obtain and appropriately use over-the-counter medications; and
 - (ii) How the individual will obtain prescribed medications for use in the boarding home.
 - (9) Individual's activities, typical daily routines, habits and service preferences.
 - (10) Individual's personal identity and lifestyle, to the extent the individual is willing to share the information, and the manner in which they are expressed, including preferences regarding food, community contacts, hobbies, spiritual preferences, or other sources of pleasure and comfort.
 - (11) Who has decision-making authority for the individual, including:
 - (a) The presence of any advance directive, or other legal document that will establish a substitute decision maker in the future;
 - (b) The presence of any legal document that establishes a current substitute decision maker; and
 - (c) The scope of decision-making authority of any substitute decision maker.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2090, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2100 On-going assessments. The boarding home must:

- (1) Complete a full assessment addressing the elements set forth in WAC 388-78A-2090 for each resident at least annually;
- (2) Complete an assessment specifically focused on a resident's identified problems and related issues:
 - (a) Consistent with the resident's change of condition as specified in WAC 388-78A-2120;
 - (b) When the resident's negotiated service agreement no longer addresses the resident's current needs and preferences;
 - (c) When the resident has an injury requiring the intervention of a practitioner.
- (3) Ensure the staff person performing the on-going assessments is qualified to perform them.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090, 06-01-047, § 388-78A-2100, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2100, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2110 Resident participation in assessments. The boarding home must directly involve each resident or prospective resident, to the extent possible, along with any appropriate resident representative to the extent he or she is willing and capable, in the preadmission assessment and on-going assessment process.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2110, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2120 Monitoring residents' well-being. The boarding home must:

- (1) Observe each resident consistent with his or her assessed needs and negotiated service agreement;
- (2) Identify any changes in the resident's physical, emotional, and mental functioning that are a:
 - (a) Departure from the resident's customary range of functioning; or
 - (b) Recurring condition in a resident's physical, emotional, or mental functioning that has previously required intervention by others.
- (3) Evaluate, in order to determine if there is a need for further action:
 - (a) The changes identified in the resident per subsection (2) of this section; and
 - (b) Each resident when an accident or incident that is likely to adversely affect the resident's well-being, is observed by or reported to staff persons.
- (4) Take appropriate action in response to each resident's changing needs.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090, 06-01-047, § 388-78A-2120, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2120, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

NEGOTIATED SERVICE AGREEMENT

WAC 388-78A-2130 Service agreement planning. The boarding home must:

- (1) Develop an initial resident service plan, based upon discussions with the resident and the resident's representative if the resident has one, and the preadmission assessment of a qualified assessor, upon admitting a resident into a boarding home. The boarding home must ensure the initial resident service plan:

- (a) Integrates the assessment information provided by the department's case manager for each resident whose care is partially or wholly funded by the department;
 - (b) Identifies the resident's immediate needs; and
 - (c) Provides direction to staff and caregivers relating to the resident's immediate needs, capabilities, and preferences.
- (2) Complete the negotiated service agreement for each resident using the resident's preadmission assessment, initial resident service plan, and full assessment information, within thirty days of the resident moving in;
- (3) Review and update each resident's negotiated service agreement consistent with WAC 388-78A-2120:
- (a) Within a reasonable time consistent with the needs of the resident following any change in the resident's physical, mental, or emotional functioning; and
 - (b) Whenever the negotiated service agreement no longer adequately addresses the resident's current assessed needs and preferences.
- (4) Review and update each resident's negotiated service agreement as necessary following an annual full assessment;
- (5) Involve the following persons in the process of developing and updating a negotiated service agreement:
- (a) The resident;
 - (b) The resident's representative to the extent he or she is willing and capable, if the resident has one;
 - (c) Other individuals the resident wants included;
 - (d) The department's case manager, if the resident is a recipient of medicaid assistance, or any private case manager, if available; and
 - (e) Staff designated by the boarding home.
- (6) Ensure:
- (a) Individuals participating in developing the resident's negotiated service agreement:
 - (i) Discuss the resident's assessed needs, capabilities, and preferences; and
 - (ii) Negotiate and agree upon the care and services to be provided to support the resident; and
 - (b) Staff persons document in the resident's record the agreed upon plan for services.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2130, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2140 Negotiated service agreement contents. The boarding home must develop, and document in the resident's record, the agreed upon plan to address and support each resident's assessed capabilities, needs and preferences, including the following:

- (1) The care and services necessary to meet the resident's needs, including:
 - (a) The plan to monitor the resident and address interventions for current risks to the resident's health and safety that were identified in one or more of the following:
 - (i) The resident's preadmission assessment;
 - (ii) The resident's full assessments;
 - (iii) On-going assessments of the resident;
 - (b) The plan to provide assistance with activities of daily living, if provided by the boarding home;
 - (c) The plan to provide necessary intermittent nursing services, if provided by the boarding home;

(d) The plan to provide necessary health support services, if provided by the boarding home;

(e) The resident's preferences for how services will be provided, supported and accommodated by the boarding home.

(2) Clearly defined respective roles and responsibilities of the resident, the boarding home staff, and resident's family or other significant persons in meeting the resident's needs and preferences. Except as specified in WAC 388-78A-2290 and 388-78A-2340(5), if a person other than a caregiver is to be responsible for providing care or services to the resident in the boarding home, the boarding home must specify in the negotiated service agreement an alternate plan for providing care or service to the resident in the event the necessary services are not provided. The boarding home may develop an alternate plan:

(a) Exclusively for the individual resident; or

(b) Based on standard policies and procedures in the boarding home provided that they are consistent with the reasonable accommodation requirements of state and federal law.

(3) The times services will be delivered, including frequency and approximate time of day, as appropriate;

(4) The resident's preferences for activities and how those preferences will be supported;

(5) Appropriate behavioral interventions, if needed;

(6) A communication plan, if special communication needs are present;

(7) The resident's ability to leave the boarding home premises unsupervised; and

(8) The boarding home must not require or ask the resident or the resident's representative to sign any negotiated service or risk agreement, that purports to waive any rights of the resident or that purports to place responsibility or liability for losses of personal property or injury on the resident.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2140, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2150 Signing negotiated service agreement. The boarding home must ensure that the negotiated service agreement is agreed to and signed at least annually by:

(1) The resident, or the resident's representative if the resident has one and is unable to sign or chooses not to sign;

(2) A representative of the boarding home duly authorized by the boarding home to sign on its behalf; and

(3) Any public or private case manager for the resident, if available.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2150, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2160 Implementation of negotiated service agreement. The boarding home must provide the care and services as agreed upon in the negotiated service agreement to each resident unless a deviation from the negotiated service agreement is mutually agreed upon between the boarding home and the resident or the resident's representative at the time the care or services are scheduled.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2160, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

BOARDING HOME SERVICES

WAC 388-78A-2170 Required boarding home services. (1) The boarding home must provide housing and assume general responsibility for the safety and well-being of each resident, as defined in this chapter, consistent with the resident's assessed needs and negotiated service agreement.

(2) The boarding homes must provide each resident with the following basic services, consistent with the resident's assessed needs and negotiated service agreement:

(a) Activities - Arranging for activities in accordance with WAC 388-78A-2180;

(b) Housekeeping - Providing a safe, clean and comfortable environment for each resident, including personal living quarters and all other resident accessible areas of the building;

(c) Laundry - Keeping the resident's clothing clean and in good repair, and laundering towels, washcloths, bed linens on a weekly basis or more often as necessary to maintain cleanliness;

(d) Meals - Providing meals in accordance with WAC 388-78A-2300; and

(e) Nutritious snacks - Providing nutritious snack items on a scheduled and nonscheduled basis, and providing nutritious snacks in accordance with WAC 388-78A-2300.

(3) The boarding home must:

(a) Provide care and services to each resident by staff persons who are able to communicate with the resident in a language the resident understands; or

(b) Make provisions for communications between staff persons and residents to ensure an accurate exchange of information.

(4) The boarding home must ensure each resident is able to obtain individually preferred personal care items when:

(a) The preferred personal care items are reasonably available; and

(b) The resident is willing and able to pay for obtaining the preferred items.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2170, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2180 Activities. The boarding home must:

(1) Provide space and staff support necessary for:

(a) Each resident to engage in independent or self-directed activities that are appropriate to the setting, consistent with the resident's assessed interests, functional abilities, preferences, and negotiated service agreement; and

(b) Group activities at least three times per week that may be planned and facilitated by caregivers consistent with the collective interests of a group of residents.

(2) Make available routine supplies and equipment necessary for activities described in subsection (1) of this section.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2180, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2190 Activities of daily living. Assistance with activities of daily living is an optional service that the boarding home may provide.

(2009 Ed.)

(1) If a boarding home chooses not to provide assistance with activities of daily living:

(a) The boarding home must admit or retain only those residents who are independent in activities of daily living; except that

(b) A resident, or the resident's representative, may independently arrange for outside services to assist with activities of daily living.

(2) When a boarding home chooses to provide, either directly or indirectly, assistance with activities of daily living, the boarding home must provide that assistance consistent with the reasonable accommodation requirements in state and federal laws.

(3) When a boarding home chooses to provide, either directly or indirectly, assistance with activities of daily living, the boarding home must provide to each resident, consistent with the resident's assessed needs, minimal assistance with the following activities of daily living:

(a) Bathing: Minimal assistance with bathing means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminding or cuing to wash and dry all areas of the body as needed;

(ii) Stand-by assistance getting into and out of the tub or shower; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during the activity.

(b) Dressing: Minimal assistance with dressing means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminding or cuing to put on, take off, or lay out clothing, including prostheses when the assistance of a licensed nurse is not required;

(ii) Stand-by assistance during the activity; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during the activity.

(c) Eating: Minimal assistance with eating means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminding or cuing to eat and drink; and

(ii) Physical assistance limited to cutting food up, preparing food and beverages, and bringing food and fluids to the resident.

(d) Personal hygiene: Minimal assistance with personal hygiene means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminding and cuing to comb hair, perform oral care and brush teeth, shave, apply makeup, and wash and dry face, hands and other areas of the body;

(ii) Stand-by assistance during the activity; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during the activity.

(e) Transferring: Minimal assistance in transferring means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminders or cuing to move between surfaces, for example to and from the bed, chair and standing;

(ii) Stand-by assistance during the activity; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during self-transfers.

(f) Toileting: Minimal assistance in toileting means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminders and cuing to toilet, including resident self-care of ostomy or catheter, to wipe and cleanse, and to change and adjust clothing, protective garments and pads;

(ii) Stand-by assistance during the activity; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during the activity.

(g) Mobility: Minimal assistance in mobility means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminding or cuing to move between locations on the boarding home premises;

(ii) Stand-by assistance during the activity; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during the activity.

(4) The boarding home may choose to provide more than minimal assistance with activities of daily living consistent with state and federal law.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2190, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2200 Health support services. Health support services are an optional service that the boarding home may provide. The boarding home may choose to provide any of the following health support services; however, a boarding home may or may not need to provide additional health support services to comply with the reasonable accommodation requirements in federal and state law. The boarding home may provide:

(1) Blood glucose testing;

(2) Puree diets;

(3) Calorie controlled diabetic diets;

(4) Dementia care;

(5) Mental health care; and

(6) Developmental disabilities care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2200, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

Respite

WAC 388-78A-2202 Respite—General. A boarding home:

(1) May provide short term respite care;

(2) Must limit the length of stay for an individual on respite to thirty calendar days or less; and

(3) Must not use respite as a placement pending the resident's admission to the boarding home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090, 2008 c 146, and chapter 18.20 RCW. 09-01-079, § 388-78A-2202, filed 12/15/08, effective 1/15/09.]

WAC 388-78A-2204 Respite—Information. When a boarding home provides respite care, before or at the time of admission, the boarding home must obtain sufficient information about the individual to meet the individual's anticipated needs. That information must include at a minimum:

(1) The resident's legal name;

(2) The name, phone number and address of the resident's representative, if applicable;

(3) The name and address of the adult family home, boarding home, or other location where the resident normally lives, with the name of a contact person and the contact person's phone number;

(4) The name, address, and telephone number of the resident's attending physician, and alternate physician if any;

(5) Medical and social history, which may be obtained from a respite care assessment and respite service plan performed by a case manager designated by an area agency on aging under contract with the department, and mental and physical assessment data; and

(6) Physician's orders for diet, medication, and routine care consistent with the resident's status on admission.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090, 2008 c 146, and chapter 18.20 RCW. 09-01-079, § 388-78A-2204, filed 12/15/08, effective 1/15/09.]

WAC 388-78A-2206 Respite—Assessment. The boarding home must ensure that any individual on respite has assessments performed, where needed, and if the assessment of the individual shows symptoms of:

(1) Tuberculosis, follow required tuberculosis testing requirements; and

(2) Other infectious conditions or diseases, follow the appropriate infection control processes.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090, 2008 c 146, and chapter 18.20 RCW. 09-01-079, § 388-78A-2206, filed 12/15/08, effective 1/15/09.]

WAC 388-78A-2208 Respite—Negotiated service agreement. With the participation of the individual, and where appropriate their representative, the boarding home must develop a negotiated service agreement, to maintain or improve the individual's health and functional status during their stay in the boarding home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090, 2008 c 146, and chapter 18.20 RCW. 09-01-079, § 388-78A-2208, filed 12/15/08, effective 1/15/09.]

Medications

WAC 388-78A-2210 Medication services. (1) A boarding home providing medication service, either directly or indirectly, must:

(a) Meet the requirements of chapter 69.41 RCW Legend drugs—Prescription drugs, and other applicable statutes and administrative rules; and

(b) Develop and implement systems that support and promote safe medication service for each resident.

(2) The boarding home must ensure the following residents receive their medications as prescribed, except as provided in WAC 388-78A-2230 and 388-78A-2250:

(a) Each resident who requires medication assistance and his or her negotiated service agreement indicates the boarding home will provide medication assistance; and

(b) If the boarding home provides medication administration services, each resident who requires medication administration and his or her negotiated service agreement indicates the boarding home will provide medication administration.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2210, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2220 Prescribed medication authorizations. (1) Before the boarding home may provide medication assistance or medication administration to a resident for prescribed medications, the boarding home must have one of the following:

(a) A prescription label completed by a licensed pharmacy;

(b) A written order from the prescriber;

(c) A facsimile or other electronic transmission of the order from the prescriber; or

(d) Written documentation by a nurse of a telephone order from the prescriber.

(2) The documentation required above in subsection (1) of this section must include the following information:

(a) The name of the resident;

(b) The name of the medication;

(c) The dosage and dosage frequency of the medication; and

(d) The name of the prescriber.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2220, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2230 Medication refusal. (1) When a resident who is receiving medication assistance or medication administration services from the boarding home chooses to not take his or her medications, the boarding home must:

(a) Respect the resident's right to choose not to take medication;

(b) Document the time, date and medication the resident did not take;

(c) Notify the physician of the refusal and follow any instructions provided, unless there is a staff person available who, acting within his or her scope of practice, is able to evaluate the significance of the resident not getting his or her medication, and such staff person;

(i) Conducts an evaluation; and

(ii) Takes the appropriate action, including notifying the prescriber or primary care practitioner when there is a consistent pattern of the resident choosing to not take his or her medications.

(2) The boarding home must comply with subsection (1) of this section, unless the prescriber or primary care practitioner has provided the boarding home with:

(a) Specific directions for addressing the refusal of the identified medication;

(b) The boarding home documents such directions; and

(c) The boarding home is able to fully comply with such directions.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2230, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2240 Nonavailability of medications. When the boarding home has assumed responsibility for obtaining a resident's prescribed medications, the boarding home must obtain them in a correct and timely manner.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2240, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2250 Alteration of medications. The boarding home must generally provide medications in the form they are prescribed when administering medications or providing medication assistance to a resident. The boarding home may provide medications in an altered form consistent with the following:

(1) Alteration includes, but is not limited to, crushing tablets, cutting tablets in half, opening capsules, mixing powdered medications with foods or liquids, or mixing tablets or capsules with foods or liquids.

(2) Residents must be aware that the medication is being altered or added to their food.

(3) A pharmacist or other practitioner practicing within their scope of practice must determine that it is safe to alter a medication.

(4) If the medication is altered, documentation of the appropriateness of the alteration must be on the prescription container, or in the resident's record.

(5) Alteration of medications for self-administration with assistance is provided in accordance with chapter 246-888 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2250, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2260 Storing, securing, and accounting for medications. (1) The boarding home must secure medications for residents who are not capable of safely storing their own medications.

(2) The boarding home must ensure all medications under the boarding home's control are properly stored:

- (a) In containers with pharmacist-prepared label or original manufacturer's label;
- (b) Together for each resident and physically separated from other residents' medications;
- (c) Separate from food or toxic chemicals;
- (d) In a locked compartment that is accessible only to designated responsible staff persons; and
- (e) In environments recommended on the medication label.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2260, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2270 Resident controlled medications. (1) The boarding home must ensure all medications are stored in a manner that prevents each resident from gaining access to another resident's medications.

(2) The boarding home must allow a resident to control and secure the medications that he or she self-administers or self-administers with assistance if the boarding home assesses the resident to be capable of safely and appropriately storing his or her own medications and the resident desires to do so.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090. 06-01-047, § 388-78A-2270, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2270, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2280 Medication organizers. (1) The boarding home must ensure no staff person other than a nurse or licensed pharmacist fills medication organizers for residents.

(2) The boarding home must ensure that any nurse who fills a medication organizer for a resident labels the medication organizer with:

- (a) The name of the resident;
- (b) The name of the medications in the organizer; and
- (c) The frequency of the dosage.

WAC 388-78A-2290 Family assistance with medications and treatments. (1) A boarding home may permit a resident's family member to administer medications or treatments or to provide medication or treatment assistance, including obtaining medications or treatment supplies, to the resident.

(2) The boarding home must disclose to the department, residents, the residents' legal representatives, if any, and if not the residents' representative if any, and to interested consumers upon request, information describing whether the boarding home permits such family administration or assistance and, if so, the extent of any limitations or conditions.

(3) If the boarding home allows family assistance with or administration of medications and treatments, and the resident and a family member(s) agree a family member will provide medication or treatment assistance, or medication or treatment administration to the resident, the boarding home must request that the family member submit to the boarding home a written plan for such assistance or administration that includes at a minimum:

- (a) By name, the family member who will provide the medication or treatment assistance or administration;
- (b) A description of the medication or treatment assistance or administration that the family member will provide, to be referred to as the primary plan;
- (c) An alternate plan if the family member is unable to fulfill his or her duties as specified in the primary plan;
- (d) An emergency contact person and telephone number if the boarding home observes changes in the resident's overall functioning or condition that may relate to the medication or treatment plan; and
- (e) Other information determined necessary by the boarding home.

(4) The plan for family assistance with medications or treatments must be signed and dated by:

- (a) The resident, if able;
- (b) The resident's representative, if any;
- (c) The resident's family member responsible for implementing the plan; and
- (d) A representative of the boarding home authorized by the boarding home to sign on its behalf.

(5) The boarding home may, through policy or procedure, require the resident's family member to immediately notify the boarding home of any changes in the medication or treatment plans for family assistance or administration.

(6) The boarding home must require that whenever a resident's family provides medication assistance or medication administration services, the resident's significant medications remain on the boarding home premises whenever the resident is on the boarding home premises.

(7) The boarding home's duty of care shall be limited to: Observation of the resident for changes in overall functioning consistent with RCW 18.20.280; notification to the person or persons identified in RCW 70.129.030 when there are observed changes in the resident's overall functioning or condition, or when the boarding home is aware that both the pri-

Food

WAC 388-78A-2300 Food and nutrition services. (1)

The boarding home must:

- (a) Provide a minimum of three meals a day:
 - (i) At regular intervals;
 - (ii) With no more than fourteen hours between the evening meal and breakfast, unless the boarding home provides a nutritious snack after the evening meal and before breakfast.
 - (b) Provide sufficient time and staff support for residents to consume meals;
 - (c) Ensure all menus:
 - (i) Are written at least one week in advance and delivered to residents' rooms or posted where residents can see them, except as specified in (f) of this subsection;
 - (ii) Indicate the date, day of week, month and year;
 - (iii) Include all food and snacks served that contribute to nutritional requirements;
 - (iv) Are kept at least six months;
 - (v) Provide a variety of foods; and
 - (vi) Are not repeated for at least three weeks, except that breakfast menus in boarding homes that provide a variety of daily choices of hot and cold foods are not required to have a minimum three-week cycle.
 - (d) Prepare on-site, or provide through a contract with a food service establishment located in the vicinity and that meets the requirements of chapter 246-215 WAC, palatable, attractively served meals and nourishments that meet the current recommended dietary allowances established by the Food and Nutrition Board, National Research Council, adjusted for:
 - (i) Age, gender and activities, unless medically contraindicated; and
 - (ii) Individual preferences to the extent reasonably possible.
 - (e) Substitute foods, when changes in the current day's menu are necessary, of equal nutrient value and record changes on the original menu;
 - (f) Make available and known to residents alternate choices in entrees for midday and evening meals that are of comparable quality and nutritional value. The boarding home is not required to post alternate choices in entrees on the menu one week in advance, but must record on the menus the alternate choices in entrees that are served;
 - (g) Develop, make known to residents, and implement a process for residents to express their views and comment on the food services; and
 - (h) Maintain a dining area or areas approved by the department with a seating capacity for fifty percent or more of the residents per meal setting, or ten square feet times the licensed resident bed capacity, whichever is greater.
 - (2) The boarding home must plan in writing, prepare on-site or provide through a contract with a food service establishment located in the vicinity that meets the requirements of chapter 246-215 WAC, and serve to each resident as ordered:

- (a) Prescribed general low sodium, general diabetic, and mechanical soft food diets according to a diet manual. The boarding home must ensure the diet manual is:
 - (i) Available to and used by staff persons responsible for food preparation;
 - (ii) Approved by a dietitian; and
 - (iii) Reviewed and updated as necessary or at least every five years.
 - (b) Prescribed nutrient concentrates and supplements when prescribed in writing by a health care practitioner.
 - (3) The boarding home may provide to a resident at his or her request and as agreed upon in the resident's negotiated service agreement, nonprescribed:
 - (a) Modified or therapeutic diets;
 - (b) Nutritional concentrates or supplements.

- (1) Manage food, and maintain any on-site food service facilities in compliance with chapter 246-215 WAC, Food service;
- (2) Ensure employees working as food service workers obtain a food worker card according to chapter 246-217 WAC; and
- (3) Ensure a resident obtains a food worker card according to chapter 246-217 WAC whenever:
 - (a) The resident is routinely or regularly involved in the preparation of food to be served to other residents;
 - (b) The resident is paid for helping to prepare food; or
 - (c) The resident is preparing food to be served to other residents as part of an employment-training program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090. 06-01-047, § 388-78A-2305, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06.]

Intermittent Nursing Services and Resident-Arranged Services

WAC 388-78A-2310 Intermittent nursing services.

- (1) Intermittent nursing services are an optional service that the boarding home may provide.
- (2) The boarding home may choose to provide any of the following intermittent nursing services through appropriately licensed and credentialed staff; however, the facility may or may not need to provide additional intermittent nursing services to comply with the reasonable accommodation requirements in federal or state law:
 - (a) Medication administration;
 - (b) Administration of health treatments;
 - (c) Diabetic management;
 - (d) Nonroutine ostomy care;
 - (e) Tube feeding; and
 - (f) Nurse delegation consistent with chapter 18.79 RCW.
 - (3) The boarding home must clarify on the disclosure form any limitations, additional services, or conditions that may apply under this section.

(4) In providing intermittent nursing services, the boarding home must observe the resident for changes in overall functioning and respond appropriately when there are observable or reported changes in the resident's physical, mental or emotional functioning.

(5) The boarding home may provide intermittent nursing services to the extent permitted by RCW 18.20.160.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2310, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2320 Intermittent nursing services systems. (1) When a boarding home provides intermittent nursing services to any resident, either directly or indirectly, the boarding home must:

(a) Develop and implement systems that support and promote the safe practice of nursing for each resident; and

(b) Ensure the requirements of chapters 18.79 RCW and 246-840 WAC are met.

(2) The boarding home providing nursing services, either directly or indirectly, must ensure that the nursing services systems include:

(a) Nursing services supervision;

(b) Nurse delegation, if provided;

(c) Initial and on-going assessments of the nursing needs of each resident;

(d) Development of, and necessary amendments to, the nursing component of the negotiated service agreement for each resident;

(e) Implementation of the nursing component of each resident's negotiated service agreement; and

(f) Availability of the supervisor, in person, by pager, or by telephone, to respond to residents' needs on the boarding home premises as necessary.

(3) The boarding home must ensure that all nursing services, including nursing supervision, assessments, and delegation, are provided in accordance with applicable statutes and rules, including, but not limited to:

(a) Chapter 18.79 RCW, Nursing care;

(b) Chapter 18.88A RCW, Nursing assistants;

WAC 388-78A-2330 Tube feeding. (1) Tube feeding services are an optional service that a boarding home may provide.

(2) The boarding home must provide intermittent nursing services to develop and implement the nursing component of the negotiated service agreement, administer feedings and necessary medications, and provide routine care of the tube insertion site whenever any resident requiring tube feeding is not able to:

(a) Independently and safely manage:

(i) Maintenance of the tube insertion site;

(ii) Necessary medication administration through the tube; and

(iii) Feeding administration through the tube.

(b) Arrange for an outside resource to provide:

(i) Maintenance of the tube insertion site;

(ii) Necessary medication administration through the tube; and

(iii) Feeding administration through the tube.

(3) The boarding home is not required to provide nursing services to a resident simply because the resident requires tube feeding if the resident can either independently manage or arrange for an outside resource to perform the tasks specified in subsection (2)(a) and (b) of this section.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2330, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2340 Resident-arranged services. (1) The boarding home must allow a resident to arrange to receive on-site care and services from:

(a) A practitioner, licensed under Title 18 RCW regulating health care professions; and

(b) A home health, hospice, or home care agency licensed under chapter 70.127 RCW.

(2) The boarding home may permit the resident or the resident's legal representative, if any, to independently arrange for other persons to provide on-site care and services to the resident.

(3) The boarding home is not required to supervise the activities of a person providing care or services to a resident when the resident or resident's representative has independently arranged for or contracted with the person.

(4) The boarding home may establish policies and procedures that describe reasonable limitations, conditions, or requirements that must be met prior to an outside service provider being allowed on-site.

(5) When the resident or the resident's representative, if any, independently arranges for outside services under subsection (1) of this section, the boarding home's duty of care, and any negligence that may be attributed thereto, shall be limited to: The responsibilities described under subsection (3) of this section; observation of the resident for changes in overall functioning, consistent with RCW 18.20.280; notification to the person or persons identified in RCW 70.129.030 when there are observed changes in the resident's overall functioning or condition; and appropriately responding to obtain needed assistance when there are observable or reported changes in the resident's physical or mental functioning.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2340, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2350 Coordination of health care services. (1) The boarding home must coordinate services with external health care providers to meet the residents' needs, consistent with the resident's negotiated service agreement.

(2) The boarding home must develop, implement and inform residents of the boarding home's policies regarding how the boarding home interacts with external health care providers, including:

(a) The conditions under which health care information regarding a resident will be shared with external health care providers, consistent with chapter 70.02 RCW; and

(b) How residents' rights to privacy will be protected, including provisions for residents to authorize the release of health care information.

(3) The boarding home may disclose health care information about a resident to external health care providers without the resident's authorization if the conditions in RCW 70.02.050 are met.

(4) If the conditions in RCW 70.02.050 are not met, the boarding home must request, but may not require, a resident to authorize the boarding home and the external health care provider to share the resident's health care information when:

(a) The boarding home becomes aware that a resident is receiving health care services from a source other than the boarding home; and

(b) The resident has not previously authorized the boarding home to release health care information to an external health care provider.

(5) When a resident authorizes the release of health care information or resident authorization is not required under RCW 70.02.050, the boarding home must contact the external health care provider and coordinate services.

(6) When authorizations to release health care information are not obtained, or when an external health care provider is unresponsive to the boarding home's efforts to coordinate services, the boarding home must:

(a) Document the boarding home's actions to coordinate services;

(b) Provide notice to the resident of the risks of not allowing the boarding home to coordinate care with the external provider; and

(c) Address known associated risks in the resident's negotiated service agreement.

(7) When coordinating care or services, the boarding home must:

(a) Integrate relevant information from the external provider into the resident's preadmission assessment and reassessment, and when appropriate, negotiated service agreement; and

(b) Respond appropriately when there are observable or reported changes in the resident's physical, mental, or emotional functioning.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2350, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

Service Delivery and Monitoring

Adult Day Services

WAC 388-78A-2360 Adult day services. (1) The boarding home may, but is not required to, provide an adult day services program for nonresidents.

(2) If adult day services are provided, the boarding home must:

(a) Ensure each adult day services client receives appropriate supervision and agreed upon care and services during the time spent in the day services program;

(b) Ensure the care and services provided to adult day services clients do not compromise the care and services provided to boarding home residents;

(c) Ensure the total number of residents plus adult day services clients does not exceed the boarding home's maximum facility capacity;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 488]

(d) Only accept adult day services clients who are appropriate for boarding home care and services, consistent with WAC 388-78A-2050;

(e) Provide sufficient furniture for the comfort of day services clients, in addition to furniture provided for residents;

(f) Notify appropriate individuals specified in the client's record and consistent with WAC 388-78A-2640 when there is a significant change in the condition of an adult day services client;

(g) Investigate and document incidents and accidents involving adult day services clients consistent with WAC 388-78A-2700;

(h) Maintain a separate register of adult day services clients; and

(i) Maintain a record for each adult day services client.

Dementia Care

WAC 388-78A-2370 Dementia care. (1) The boarding home must, to the fullest extent reasonably possible, obtain for each resident who has symptoms consistent with dementia as assessed per WAC 388-78A-2090(7):

(a) Information regarding the resident's significant life experiences, including:

(i) Family members or other significant relationships;

(ii) Education and training;

(iii) Employment and career experiences;

(iv) Religious or spiritual preferences;

(v) Familiar roles or sources of pride and pleasure.

(b) Information regarding the resident's ability or inability to:

(i) Articulate his or her personal needs; and

(ii) Initiate activity.

(c) Information regarding any patterns of resident behavior that express the resident's needs or concerns that the resident is not able to verbalize. Examples of such behaviors include, but are not limited to:

(i) Agitation;

(ii) Wandering;

(iii) Resistance to care;

(iv) Social isolation; and

(v) Aggression.

(2) The boarding home, in consultation with the resident's family or others familiar with the resident, must evaluate the significance and implications of the information obtained per subsection (1) of this section and integrate appropriate aspects into an individualized negotiated service agreement for the resident.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2370, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2380 Restricted egress. A boarding home must ensure all of the following conditions are present before moving residents into units or buildings with exits that may restrict a resident's egress:

(1) Each resident, or a person authorized under RCW 7.70.065 to provide consent on behalf of the resident, consents to living in such unit or building.

(2) Each resident assessed as being cognitively and physically able to safely leave the boarding home is able to do so independently without restriction.

(3) Each resident, assessed as being cognitively able to safely leave the boarding home and who has physical challenges that make exiting difficult, is able to leave the boarding home when the resident desires and in a manner consistent with the resident's negotiated service agreement.

(4) Each resident who is assessed as being unsafe to leave the boarding home unescorted is able to leave the boarding home consistent with his or her negotiated service agreement.

(5) Areas from which egress is restricted are equipped throughout with an approved automatic fire detection system and automatic fire sprinkler system electrically interconnected with a fire alarm system that transmits an alarm off site to a twenty-four hour monitoring station.

(6) Installation of special egress control devices in all proposed construction issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, must conform to standards adopted by the state building code council.

(7) Installation of special egress control devices in all construction issued a project number by construction review services before September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, must conform to the following:

(a) The egress control device must automatically deactivate upon activation of either the sprinkler system or the smoke detection system.

(b) The egress control device must automatically deactivate upon loss of electrical power to any one of the following:

- (i) The egress control device itself;
- (ii) The smoke detection system; or
- (iii) The means of egress illumination.

(c) The egress control device must be capable of being deactivated by a signal from a switch located in an approved location.

(d) An irreversible process which will deactivate the egress control device must be initiated whenever a manual force of not more than fifteen pounds is applied for two seconds to the panic bar or other door-latching hardware. The egress control device must deactivate within an approved time period not to exceed a total of fifteen seconds. The time delay must not be field adjustable.

(e) Actuation of the panic bar or other door-latching hardware must activate an audible signal at the door.

(f) The unlatching must not require more than one operation.

(g) A sign must be provided on the door located above and within twelve inches of the panic bar or other door-latching hardware reading:

"Keep pushing. The door will open in fifteen seconds. Alarm will sound."

The sign lettering must be at least one inch in height and must have a stroke of not less than one-eighth inch.

(h) Regardless of the means of deactivation, relocking of the egress control device must be by manual means only at the door.

(2009 Ed.)

(8) The boarding home must have a system in place to inform and permit visitors, staff persons and appropriate residents how they can exit without sounding the alarm.

(9) Units or buildings from which egress is restricted are equipped with a secured outdoor space for walking which:

- (a) Is accessible to residents without staff assistance;
- (b) Is surrounded by walls or fences at least seventy-two inches high;
- (c) Has areas protected from direct sunshine and rain throughout the day;
- (d) Has walking surfaces that are firm, stable, slip-resistant and free from abrupt changes and are suitable for individuals using wheelchairs and walkers; and
- (e) Has suitable outdoor furniture.

Resident Records

WAC 388-78A-2390 Resident records. The boarding home must maintain adequate records concerning residents to enable the boarding home:

- (1) To effectively provide the care and services agreed upon with the resident; and
- (2) To respond appropriately in emergency situations.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2390, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2400 Protection of resident records. The boarding home must:

- (1) Maintain a systematic and secure method of identifying and filing resident records for easy access;
- (2) Maintain resident records and preserve their confidentiality in accordance with applicable state and federal statutes and rules, including chapters 70.02 and 70.129 RCW;
- (3) Allow authorized representatives of the department and other authorized regulatory agencies access to resident records;
- (4) Provide any resident or other individual or organization access to resident records upon written consent of the resident or the resident's representative, unless state or federal law provide for broader access;
- (5) Allow authorized agents, such as a management company, to use resident records solely for the purpose of providing care and services to residents and ensure that agents do not disclose such records except in a manner consistent with law; and
- (6) Maintain ownership and control of resident records, except that resident records may be transferred to a subsequent person licensed by the department to operate the boarding home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2400, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2410 Content of resident records. The boarding home must organize and maintain resident records in a format that the boarding home determines to be useful and functional to enable the effective provision of care and services to each resident. Active resident records must include the following:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 489]

(1) Resident identifying information, including resident's:

- (a) Name;
- (b) Birth date;
- (c) Move-in date; and
- (d) Sleeping room identification.

(2) Current name, address, and telephone number of:

- (a) Resident's primary health care provider;
- (b) Resident's representative, if the resident has one;
- (c) Individual(s) to contact in case of emergency, illness or death; and

(d) Family members or others, if any, the resident requests to be involved in the development or delivery of services for the resident.

(3) Resident's written acknowledgment of receipt of:

(a) Required disclosure information prior to moving into the boarding home; and

(b) Information required by long-term care resident rights per RCW 70.129.030.

(4) The resident's assessment and reassessment information.

(5) Clinical information such as admission weight, height, blood pressure, temperature, blood sugar and other laboratory tests required by the negotiated service agreement.

(6) The resident's negotiated service agreement consistent with WAC 388-78A-2140.

(7) Any orders for medications, treatments, and modified or therapeutic diets, including any directions for addressing a resident's refusal of medications, treatments, and prescribed diets.

(8) Medical and nursing services provided by the boarding home for a resident, including:

(a) A record of providing medication assistance and medication administration, which contains:

(i) The medication name, dose, and route of administration;

(ii) The time and date of any medication assistance or administration;

(iii) The signature or initials of the person providing any medication assistance or administration; and

(iv) Documentation of a resident choosing to not take his or her medications.

(b) A record of any nursing treatments, including the signature or initials of the person providing them.

(9) Documentation consistent with WAC 388-78A-2120 Monitoring resident well-being.

(10) Staff interventions or responses to subsection (9) of this section, including any modifications made to the resident's negotiated service agreement.

(11) Notices of and reasons for relocation as specified in RCW 70.129.110.

(12) The individuals who were notified of a significant change in the resident's condition and the time and date of the notification.

(13) When available, a copy of any legal documents in which:

(a) The resident has appointed another individual to make his or her health care, financial, or other decisions;

(b) The resident has created an advance directive or other legal document that establishes a surrogate decision maker in the future and/or provides directions to health care providers; and

(c) A court has established guardianship on behalf of the resident.

WAC 388-78A-2420 Record retention. (1) The boarding home must maintain on the boarding home premises in a resident's active record(s) all relevant information and documentation necessary for meeting a resident's current assessed needs.

(2) The boarding home may remove outdated information from the resident's active records that is no longer significant or relevant to the resident's current assessed service and care needs, and maintain it in an inactive record that must remain on the boarding home premises as long as the resident remains in the boarding home.

(3) The boarding home must maintain all documentation filed in a closed resident record, on the boarding home premises for six months after the date the resident leaves the boarding home and on the boarding home premises or another location for five years after the date the resident leaves the boarding home.

(4) All active, inactive, and closed resident records must be available for review by department staff and other authorized persons.

(5) If a boarding home ceases to operate as a licensed boarding home, the most recent licensee must make arrangements to ensure that the former residents' records are retained according to the times specified in this section and are available for review by department staff and other authorized individuals.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2420, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2430 Resident review of records. (1) The boarding home must assemble all records pertaining to a resident and make them available to a resident within twenty-four hours of the resident's or the resident's representative's request to review the resident's records per RCW 70.129.030.

(2) The boarding home must provide to the resident or the resident's representative, photocopies of the records or any portions of the records pertaining to the resident, within two working days of the resident's or resident's representative's request for the records.

(a) For the purposes of this section, "working days" means Monday through Friday, except for legal holidays.

(b) The boarding home may charge the resident or the resident's representative a fee not to exceed twenty-five cents per page for the cost of photocopying the resident's record.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2430, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2440 Resident register. (1) The boarding home must maintain in the boarding home a single current roster of all boarding home residents, their roommates and identification of the rooms in which such persons reside or sleep.

(2) The boarding home must make this roster immediately available to:

- (a) Authorized department staff;
- (b) Representatives of the long-term care ombudsman's office; and
- (c) Representatives of the Washington state fire protection bureau when conducting fire safety inspections.

(3) The boarding home must maintain a readily available permanent, current book, computer file, or register with entries in ink or typewritten, of all former boarding home residents within the past five years, including:

- (a) Date of moving in;
- (b) Full name;
- (c) Date of birth;
- (d) Date of moving out;
- (e) Reason for moving out; and
- (f) New address if known.

ADMINISTRATION

Staff

WAC 388-78A-2450 Staff. (1) Each boarding home must provide sufficient, trained staff persons to:

- (a) Furnish the services and care needed by each resident consistent with his or her negotiated service agreement;
- (b) Maintain the boarding home free of safety hazards; and

(c) Implement fire and disaster plans.

(2) The boarding home must:

(a) Develop and maintain written job descriptions for the administrator and each staff position and provide each staff person with a copy of his or her job description before or upon the start of employment;

(b) Verify staff persons' work references prior to hiring;

(c) Verify prior to hiring that staff persons have the required licenses, certification, registrations, or other credentials for the position, and that such licenses, certifications, registrations, and credentials are current and in good standing;

(d) Document and retain for twelve weeks, weekly staffing schedules, as planned and worked;

(e) Ensure all resident care and services are provided only by staff persons who have the training, credentials, experience and other qualifications necessary to provide the care and services;

(f) Ensure at least one caregiver, who is eighteen years of age or older and has current cardiopulmonary resuscitation and first-aid cards, is present and available to assist residents at all times:

(i) When one or more residents are present on the boarding home premises; and

(ii) During boarding home activities off of the boarding home premises.

(g) Ensure caregiver provides on-site supervision of any resident voluntarily providing services for the boarding home;

(h) Provide staff orientation and appropriate training for expected duties, including:

(i) Organization of boarding home;

(ii) Physical boarding home layout;

(iii) Specific duties and responsibilities;

(iv) How to report resident abuse and neglect consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW and boarding home policies and procedures;

(v) Policies, procedures, and equipment necessary to perform duties;

(vi) Needs and service preferences identified in the negotiated service agreements of residents with whom the staff persons will be working; and

(vii) Resident rights, including without limitation, those specified in chapter 70.129 RCW.

(i) Develop and implement a process to ensure caregivers:

(i) Acquire the necessary information from the preadmission assessment, on-going assessment and negotiated service agreement relevant to providing services to each resident with whom the caregiver works;

(ii) Are informed of changes in the negotiated service agreement of each resident with whom the caregiver works; and

(iii) Are given an opportunity to provide information to responsible staff regarding the resident when assessments and negotiated service agreements are updated for each resident with whom the caregiver works.

(j) Ensure all caregivers have access to resident records relevant to effectively providing care and services to the resident.

(3) The boarding home must:

(a) Ensure that staff persons meet the training requirements specified in chapter 388-112 WAC;

(b) Protect all residents by ensuring any staff person suspected or accused of abuse does not have access to any resident until the boarding home investigates and takes action to ensure resident safety;

(c) Not interfere with the investigation of a complaint, coerce a resident or staff person regarding cooperating with a complaint investigation, or conceal or destroy evidence of alleged improprieties occurring within the boarding home;

(d) Prohibit staff persons from being directly employed by a resident or a resident's family during the hours the staff person is working for the boarding home;

(e) Maintain the following documentation on the boarding home premises, during employment, and at least two years following termination of employment:

(i) Staff orientation and training pertinent to duties, including, but not limited to:

(A) Training required by chapter 388-112 WAC, including as appropriate for each staff person, orientation, basic training or modified basic training, specialty training, nurse delegation core training, and continuing education;

(B) Cardiopulmonary resuscitation;

(C) First aid; and

(D) HIV/AIDS training.

(ii) Criminal history disclosure and background checks as required in WAC 388-78A-2470; and

(iii) Documentation of contacting work references and professional licensing and certification boards as required by subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The boarding home is not required to keep on the boarding home premises, staff records that are unrelated to staff performance of duties. Such records include, but are not limited to, pay records, and health and insurance benefits for staff.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2450, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2460 Quality assurance committee.

(1) To ensure the proper delivery of services and the maintenance and improvement in quality of care through self-review, any boarding home licensed under this chapter may maintain a quality assurance committee that, at a minimum, includes:

(a) A licensed registered nurse under chapter 18.79 RCW;

(b) The administrator; and

(c) Three other members from the staff of the boarding home.

(2) When established, the quality assurance committee shall meet at least quarterly to identify issues that may adversely affect quality of care and services to residents and to develop and implement plans of action to correct identified quality concerns or deficiencies in the quality of care provided to residents.

(3) To promote quality of care through self-review without the fear of reprisal, and to enhance the objectivity of the review process, the department shall not require, and the long-term care ombudsman program shall not request, disclosure of any quality assurance committee records or reports, unless the disclosure is related to the committee's compliance with this section, if:

(a) The records or reports are not maintained pursuant to statutory or regulatory mandate; and

(b) The records or reports are created for and collected and maintained by the committee.

(4) If the boarding home refuses to release records or reports that would otherwise be protected under this section, the department may then request only that information that is necessary to determine whether the boarding home has a quality assurance committee and to determine that it is operating in compliance with this section. However, if the boarding home offers the department documents generated by, or for, the quality assurance committee as evidence of compliance with boarding home requirements, the documents are not protected as quality assurance committee documents when in the possession of the department.

(5) Good faith attempts by the committee to identify and correct quality deficiencies shall not be used as a basis for sanctions.

(6) Any records that are created for and collected and maintained by the quality assurance committee shall not be discoverable or admitted into evidence in a civil action brought against a boarding home.

(7) Notwithstanding any records created for the quality assurance committee, the facility shall fully set forth in the resident's records, available to the resident, the department, and others as permitted by law, the facts concerning any incident of injury or loss to the resident, the steps taken by the facility to address the resident's needs, and the resident outcome.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2460, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2470 Criminal history disclosure and background checks.

(1) This section applies to any individual associated with the licensee or boarding home who may have unsupervised access to residents, including but not limited to:

(a) Employees;

(b) Managers;

(c) Volunteers who are not residents;

(d) Contractors; and

(e) Students.

(2) The boarding home must:

(a) Ensure any individual associated with the licensee or boarding home who may have unsupervised access to residents has had a background check of conviction records, pending charges and disciplinary board decisions completed within the past two years, and is repeated every two years thereafter, and that individual has not been:

(i) Convicted of a crime against children or other persons as defined in RCW 43.43.830 or 43.43.842;

(ii) Convicted of crimes relating to financial exploitation as defined in RCW 43.43.830 or 43.43.842;

(iii) Found in any disciplinary board final decision to have abused a vulnerable adult as defined in RCW 43.43.830;

(iv) The subject in a protective proceeding under chapter 74.34 RCW;

(v) Convicted of criminal mistreatment; or

(vi) Found by the department to have abandoned, abused, neglected or exploited a minor, or abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a vulnerable person, provided the individual was offered an administrative hearing to contest the finding, and the finding was upheld, or the individual failed to timely appeal the finding.

(b) Not hire or retain, directly or by contract, or accept as a volunteer, any individual prohibited from having unsupervised access to residents under (a) of this subsection, except as provided in subsection (6) of this section and RCW 43.43.842.

(3) Prior to first starting his or her duties, the boarding home must:

(a) Require each prospective employee, manager, volunteer, contractor and student associated with the licensee or boarding home who may have unsupervised access to residents to disclose, consistent with RCW 43.43.834(2), whether he or she:

(i) Has been convicted of a crime, including any of the following as defined in RCW 43.43.830:

(A) All crimes against children or their persons;

(B) All crimes relating to financial exploitation; and

(C) All crimes relating to drugs;

(ii) Has had findings made against him or her in any civil adjudicative proceeding as defined in RCW 43.43.830; or

(iii) Has both convictions for (i) and findings made against him or her under (ii).

(b) Require each individual making the disclosures required in subsection (3)(a) of this section:

- (i) To make the disclosures in writing;
- (ii) To swear under penalty of perjury that the contents of the disclosure are accurate; and
- (iii) To sign the disclosure statement.

(4) Prior to first starting his or her duties, the boarding home must take one or more of the following three actions for each prospective employee, manager, volunteer, contractor and student associated with the licensee or boarding home who may have unsupervised access to residents:

(a) Initiate a background check on the individual through the department, which includes taking the following actions:

(i) Informing the individual that a background check is required.

(ii) Requiring the individual to complete and sign a DSHS background authorization form prior to the individual having unsupervised access to residents;

(iii) Submitting all background check authorization forms to the department's:

(A) Aging and disability services administration with the initial application for licensure; and

(B) Background check central unit for currently licensed boarding homes.

(iv) Verbally informing the named individual of his/her individual background check results and offering to provide him or her a copy of the background check results within ten days of receipt.

(b) Obtain from the individual's prior employer a copy of the completed criminal background inquiry information for the individual, subject to the following conditions:

(i) The prior employer was a nursing home licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW, a boarding home licensed under chapter 18.20 RCW, or an adult family home licensed under chapter 70.128 RCW;

(ii) The nursing home, boarding home or adult family home providing completed criminal background inquiry information for the individual is reasonably known to be the individual's most recent employer;

(iii) No more than twelve months has elapsed from the date the individual was employed by the nursing home, boarding home or adult family home and the date of the individual's current application;

(iv) The background inquiry for the individual is no more than two years old; and

(v) The boarding home has no reason to believe the individual has or may have a disqualifying conviction or finding as described in RCW 43.43.842.

(c) When using staff persons from a home health, hospice, or home care agency licensed under chapter 70.127 RCW, or a nursing pool registered under chapter 18.52C RCW, the boarding home must establish, maintain and follow a written agreement with the agency or pool to ensure the requirements of subsection (2) of this section are met for the agency or pool staff who may work in the boarding home.

(5) The boarding home must ensure that all disclosure statements, and background check results obtained by the boarding home, are:

(a) Maintained on-site in a confidential and secure manner;

(b) Used for employment purposes only;

(c) Not disclosed to any individual except:

(i) The individual named on the background check result;

(ii) Authorized state and federal employees;

(iii) The Washington state patrol auditor; and

(iv) As otherwise authorized in chapter 43.43 RCW.

(d) Retained and available for department review:

(i) During the individual's employment or association with a facility; and

(ii) At least two years following termination of employment or association with a facility.

(6) The boarding home may conditionally hire, directly or by contract, an individual having unsupervised access to residents pending a background inquiry, provided the boarding home:

(a) Obtains a criminal history background check authorization form from the individual prior to the individual beginning work;

(b) Submits the criminal history background check authorization form to the department no later than one business day after the individual started working; and

(c) Has received three positive references for the individual.

(7) The department may require the boarding home or any other individual associated with the boarding home who has unsupervised access to residents to complete additional disclosure statements or background inquiries if the department has reason to believe that offenses specified under RCW 43.43.830 have occurred since completion of the previous disclosure statement or background inquiry.

WAC 388-78A-2480 TB tests. (1) The boarding home must ensure each staff person, except for volunteers and contractors, is screened for tuberculosis, as follows:

(a) Except when a staff person provided the boarding home with documentation of a previous positive Mantoux skin test, a staff person hired before September 1, 2004 must have had:

(i) A tuberculin skin test by the Mantoux method within six months preceding the date of employment in the boarding home; and

(ii) A second tuberculin skin test within one to three weeks after a negative Mantoux test if the staff person was thirty-five years of age or older at the time of hiring.

(b) A staff person hired on or after September 1, 2004 must have a baseline two-step skin test initiated within three days of being hired unless the staff person meets the requirements in (c) or (d) of this subsection. The skin tests must be:

(i) Given no less than one and no more than three weeks apart;

(ii) By intradermal (Mantoux) administration of purified protein derivative (PPD);

(iii) Read between forty-eight and seventy-two hours following administration, by trained personnel; and

(iv) Recorded in millimeters of induration.

(c) A staff person needs to have only a one-step skin test within three days of being hired if:

(i) There is documented history of a negative result from previous two-step testing; or

(ii) There was a documented negative result from one-step skin testing in the previous twelve months.

(d) A staff person does not need to be skin tested for tuberculosis if he/she has:

(i) Documented history of a previous positive skin test consisting of ten or more millimeters of induration; or

(ii) Documented evidence of adequate therapy for active disease; or

(iii) Documented evidence of adequate preventive therapy for infection.

(e) If a skin test results in a positive reaction, the boarding home must:

(i) Ensure that the staff person has a chest X ray within seven days;

(ii) Report positive chest X rays to the appropriate public health authority; and

(iii) Follow precautions ordered by a physician or public health authority.

(2) The boarding home must:

(a) Keep in the boarding home for the duration of the staff person's employment, and at least two years following termination of employment, records of:

(i) Tuberculin test results;

(ii) Reports of X-ray findings; and

(iii) Physician or public health official orders.

(b) Provide staff persons with a copy of the records specified in (a) of this subsection:

(i) During the time the staff person is employed in the boarding home, limited to one copy per report; and

(ii) When requested by the staff person.

(3) The boarding home must ensure that caregivers caring for a resident with suspected tuberculosis comply with the WISHA standard for respiratory protection.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2570, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2580 Use of home health/home care. If a boarding home licensee also has a home health or home care license, the licensee may not provide care or services to nonresident individuals living in independent living units on the boarding home premises under the home health or home care license if:

(1) The licensee assumes general responsibility for the safety and well-being of the individual;

(2) The individual requiring such services is not able to receive them in his or her own home and is required to move to another room as a condition for receiving such services;

(3) The individual receiving such services is required to receive them from the licensee as a condition for residing in the building, and is not free to receive such services from any appropriately licensed provider of his or her choice; or

(4) The licensee provides other care or services to the individual that falls under the jurisdiction of boarding home licensing and this chapter.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2580, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

Management Agreements

WAC 388-78A-2590 Management agreements. (1) If the licensee uses a manager, the licensee must have a written management agreement approved by the department that is consistent with this section.

(2) The licensee may enter into a management agreement only if the management agreement creates a principal/agent relationship between the licensee and the manager.

(3) The licensee must ensure the manager acts in conformance with a department-approved management agreement with the boarding home licensee.

(4) A licensee must not delegate the following to a manager:

(a) The licensee's responsibility to ensure that the boarding home is operated in a manner consistent with all laws and rules applicable to boarding homes;

(b) The licensee's responsibility to review, acknowledge and sign all boarding home initial and renewal license applications.

(5) The licensee must ensure that its manager does not represent itself as, or give the appearance that it is the licensee.

(6) A duly authorized manager may execute resident leases or agreements on behalf of the licensee, but all such resident leases or agreements must be between the licensee and the resident.

(7) The licensee must notify the department of its use of a manager and provide a copy of any written management agreement to the department upon the following:

- (a) Initial application for a license;
- (b) Retention of a manager following initial application;
- (c) Change of managers; or
- (d) Modification of existing management agreement.

Policies and Procedures

WAC 388-78A-2600 Policies and procedures. (1) The boarding home must develop and implement policies and procedures in support of services that are provided and are necessary to:

(a) Maintain or enhance the quality of life for residents including resident decision-making rights;

(b) Provide the necessary care and services for residents, including those with special needs;

(c) Safely operate the boarding home; and

(d) Operate in compliance with state and federal law, including, but not limited to, chapters 7.70, 11.88, 11.92, 11.94, 69.41, 70.122, 70.129, and 74.34 RCW, and any rules promulgated under these statutes.

(2) The boarding home must develop, implement and train staff persons on policies and procedures to address what staff persons must do:

(a) Related to suspected abandonment, abuse, neglect, exploitation, or financial exploitation of any resident;

(b) When there is reason to believe a resident is not capable of making necessary decisions and no substitute decision maker is available;

(c) When a substitute decision maker is no longer appropriate;

(d) When a resident stops breathing or a resident's heart appears to stop beating, including, but not limited to, any action staff persons must take related to advance directives and emergency care;

(e) When a resident does not have a personal physician or health care provider;

(f) In response to medical emergencies;

(g) When there are urgent situations in the boarding home requiring additional staff support;

(h) In the event of an internal or external disaster, consistent with WAC 388-78A-2700;

(i) To supervise and monitor residents, including accounting for residents who leave the premises;

(j) To appropriately respond to aggressive or assaultive residents, including, but not limited to:

- (i) Actions to take if a resident becomes violent;
- (ii) Actions to take to protect other residents; and
- (iii) When and how to seek outside intervention.

(k) To prevent and limit the spread of infections consistent with WAC 388-78A-2610;

(l) To manage residents' medications, consistent with WAC 388-78A-2210 through 388-78A-2290; sending medications with a resident when the resident leaves the premises;

(m) When services related to medications and treatments are provided under the delegation of a registered nurse consistent with chapter 246-840 WAC;

(n) Related to food services consistent with chapter 246-215 WAC and WAC 388-78A-2300;

(o) Regarding the safe operation of any boarding home vehicles used to transport residents, and the qualifications of the drivers;

(p) To coordinate services and share resident information with outside resources, consistent with WAC 388-78A-2350;

(q) Regarding the management of pets in the boarding home, if permitted, consistent with WAC 388-78A-2620;

(r) When receiving and responding to resident grievances consistent with RCW 70.129.060; and

(s) Related to providing respite care services consistent with RCW 18.20.350, if respite care is offered.

(3) The boarding home must make the policies and procedures specified in subsection (2) of this section available to staff persons at all times and must inform residents and residents' representatives of their availability and make them available upon request.

toll-free telephone number for reporting resident abuse and neglect.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2630, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2640 Reporting significant change in a resident's condition. (1) The boarding home must consult with the resident's representative, the resident's physician, and other individual(s) designated by the resident as soon as possible whenever:

(a) There is a significant change in the resident's condition;

(b) The resident is relocated to a hospital or other health care facility; or

(c) The resident dies.

(2) The boarding home must notify any agency responsible for paying for the resident's care and services as soon as possible whenever:

(a) The resident is relocated to a hospital or other health care facility; or

(b) The resident dies.

(3) Whenever the conditions in subsection (1) or (2) of this section occur, the boarding home must document in the resident's records:

(a) The date and time each individual was contacted; and

(b) The individual's relationship to the resident.

(4) In case of a resident's death, the boarding home must notify the coroner if required by RCW 68.50.010.

WAC 388-78A-2650 Reporting fires and incidents. The boarding home must immediately report to the department's aging and disability services administration:

(1) Any accidental or unintended fire, or any deliberately set but improper fire, such as arson, in the boarding home;

(2) Any unusual incident that required implementation of the boarding home's disaster plan, including any evacuation of all or part of the residents to another area of the boarding home or to another address; and

(3) Circumstances which threaten the boarding home's ability to ensure continuation of services to residents.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2650, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

Resident Rights

WAC 388-78A-2660 Resident rights. The boarding home must:

(1) Comply with chapter 70.129 RCW, Long-term care resident rights;

(2) Ensure all staff persons provide care and services to each resident consistent with chapter 70.129 RCW;

(3) Not use restraints on any resident;

(4) Promote and protect the residents' exercise of all rights granted under chapter 70.129 RCW;

(5) Provide care and services to each resident in compliance with applicable state statutes related to substitute health care decision making, including chapters 7.70, 70.122, 11.88, 11.92, and 11.94 RCW;

(2009 Ed.)

(6) Reasonably accommodate residents consistent with applicable state and/or federal law; and

(7) Not allow any staff person to abuse or neglect any resident.

WAC 388-78A-2670 Services by resident for boarding home. If a resident performs services for the boarding home, the boarding home must ensure:

(1) The resident freely volunteers to perform the services without coercion or pressure from staff persons;

(2) The resident performing services does not supervise, or is not placed in charge of, other residents; and

(3) If the resident regularly performs voluntary services for the benefit of the boarding home, the volunteer activity is addressed in the resident's negotiated service agreement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2670, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2680 Electronic monitoring equipment—Audio monitoring and video monitoring. (1) Except as provided in this section or in WAC 388-78A-2690, the boarding home must not use the following in the facility or on the premises:

(a) Audio monitoring equipment; or

(b) Video monitoring equipment if it includes an audio component.

(2) The boarding home may video monitor and video record activities in the facility or on the premises, without an audio component, only in the following areas:

(a) Entrances and exits as long as the cameras are:

(i) Focused only on the entrance or exit doorways; and

(ii) Not focused on areas where residents gather.

(b) Areas used exclusively by staff persons such as, medication preparation and storage areas or food preparation areas, if residents do not go into these areas;

(c) Outdoor areas not commonly used by residents, such as, but not limited to, delivery areas; and

(d) Designated smoking areas, subject to the following conditions:

(i) Residents have been assessed as needing supervision for smoking;

(ii) A staff person watches the video monitor at any time the area is used by such residents;

(iii) The video camera is clearly visible;

(iv) The video monitor is not viewable by general public; and

(v) The facility notifies all residents in writing of the use of video monitoring equipment.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.20 and 74.34 RCW, 09-01-052, § 388-78A-2680, filed 12/10/08, effective 1/10/09. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2680, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2690 Electronic monitoring equipment—Resident requested use. (1) The boarding home must not use audio or video monitoring equipment to monitor any resident unless:

(a) The resident has requested the monitoring; and

(b) The monitoring is only used in the sleeping room of the resident who requested the monitoring.

(2) If the resident requests audio or video monitoring, before any electronic monitoring occurs, the boarding home must ensure:

(a) That the electronic monitoring does not violate chapter 9.73 RCW;

(b) The resident has identified a threat to the resident's health, safety or personal property;

(c) The resident's roommate has provided written consent to electronic monitoring, if the resident has a roommate; and

(d) The resident and the boarding home have agreed upon a specific duration for the electronic monitoring and the agreement is documented in writing.

(3) The boarding home must:

(a) Reevaluate the need for the electronic monitoring with the resident at least quarterly; and

(b) Have each reevaluation in writing, signed and dated by the resident.

(4) The boarding home must immediately stop electronic monitoring if the:

(a) Resident no longer wants electronic monitoring;

(b) Roommate objects or withdraws the consent to the electronic monitoring; or

(c) The resident becomes unable to give consent.

(5) For the purpose of consenting to video electronic monitoring without an audio component, the term "resident" includes the resident's surrogate decision maker.

(6) For the purposes of consenting to any audio electronic monitoring, the term "resident" includes:

(a) The individual residing in the boarding home; or

(b) The resident's court-appointed guardian or attorney-in-fact who has obtained a court order specifically authorizing the court-appointed guardian or attorney-in-fact to consent to electronic monitoring of the resident.

(7) If a resident's decision maker consents to audio electronic monitoring as specified in (6) above, the boarding home must maintain a copy of the court order authorizing such consent in the resident's record.

Safety and Disaster Preparedness

WAC 388-78A-2700 Safety measures and disaster preparedness. (1) The boarding home must take necessary action to promote the safety of each resident whenever the resident is on the boarding home premises or under the supervision of staff persons, consistent with the resident's negotiated service agreement.

(2) The boarding home must:

(a) Maintain the premises free of hazards;

(b) Maintain any vehicles used for transporting residents in a safe condition;

(c) Investigate and document investigative actions and findings for any alleged or suspected neglect or abuse or exploitation, accident or incident jeopardizing or affecting a resident's health or life. The boarding home must:

- (i) Determine the circumstances of the event;
- (ii) When necessary, institute and document appropriate measures to prevent similar future situations if the alleged incident is substantiated; and
- (iii) Protect other residents during the course of the investigation.
- (d) Provide appropriate hardware on doors of storage rooms, closets and other rooms to prevent residents from being accidentally locked in;
- (e) Provide, and tell staff persons of, a means of emergency access to resident-occupied bedrooms, toilet rooms, bathing rooms, and other rooms;
- (f) Provide emergency lighting or flashlights in all areas of the boarding home. For all boarding homes first issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, the boarding home must provide emergency lighting in all areas of the boarding home;
 - (g) Make sure first-aid supplies are:
 - (i) Readily available and not locked;
 - (ii) Clearly marked;
 - (iii) Able to be moved to the location where needed; and
 - (iv) Stored in containers that protect them from damage, deterioration, or contamination.
 - (h) Make sure first-aid supplies are appropriate for:
 - (i) The size of the boarding home;
 - (ii) The services provided;
 - (iii) The residents served; and
 - (iv) The response time of emergency medical services.
- (i) Develop and maintain a current disaster plan describing measures to take in the event of internal or external disasters, including, but not limited to:
 - (i) On-duty staff persons' responsibilities;
 - (ii) Provisions for summoning emergency assistance;
 - (iii) Plans for evacuating residents from area or building;
 - (iv) Alternative resident accommodations;
 - (v) Provisions for essential resident needs, supplies and equipment including water, food, and medications; and
 - (vi) Emergency communication plan.

Disclosure

WAC 388-78A-2710 Disclosure of services. (1) The boarding home must disclose to residents, the resident's representative, if any, and interested consumers upon request, the scope of care and services it offers, on the department's approved disclosure forms. The disclosure form shall not be construed as an implied or express contract between the boarding home and the resident, but is intended to assist consumers in selecting boarding home services.

(2) The boarding home must provide the services disclosed.

(3) The boarding home must provide a minimum of thirty days written notice to the residents and the residents' representatives, if any:

(a) Before the effective date of any decrease in the scope of care or services provided by the boarding home, due to circumstances beyond the boarding home's control; and

(b) Before the effective date of any voluntary decrease in the scope of care or services provided by the boarding home, and any such decrease in the scope of services provided will not result in the discharge of one or more residents.

(4) The boarding home must provide a minimum of ninety days written notice to the residents and the residents' representative, if any, before the effective date of any voluntary decrease in the scope of care or services provided by the boarding home, and any such decrease in the scope of services provided will result in the discharge of one or more residents.

(5) If the boarding home increases the scope of services that it chooses to provide, the boarding home must promptly provide written notice to the residents and residents' representative, if any, and must indicate the date on which the increase in the scope of care or services is effective.

(6) When the care needs of a resident exceed the disclosed scope of care or services that a boarding home provides, the boarding home may exceed the care or services disclosed consistent with RCW 70.129.030(3) and 70.129.110(3)(a).

(7) Even though the boarding home may disclose that it can provide certain care or services to residents or prospective residents or residents' representative, if any, the boarding home may deny admission to a prospective resident when the boarding home determines that the needs of the prospective resident cannot be met, as long as the boarding home operates in compliance with state and federal law, including reasonable accommodation requirements and RCW 70.129.030(3).

(8) The boarding home must notify prospective residents of their rights regarding health care decision making consistent with applicable state and federal laws and rules, before or at the time the individual moves into the boarding home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2710, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2720 Timing of disclosure. (1) The boarding home must provide the disclosure form completed by the boarding home:

(a) In response to a request by a prospective resident or his or her representative, if any, for written information about the boarding home's services and capabilities; or

(b) At the time the boarding home provides an application for residency, an admission agreement or contract, if not previously received by the prospective resident or his or her representative, if any.

(2) The boarding home is not required to provide the disclosure of care and services contained on the department's approved disclosure forms:

(a) In advertisements;

(b) In general marketing information to the public; or

(c) To persons seeking general information regarding residential care resources in the community.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2720, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

Licensing

WAC 388-78A-2730 Licensee's responsibilities. (1)

The boarding home licensee is responsible for:

- (a) The operation of the boarding home;
 - (b) Complying at all times with the requirements of this chapter, chapter 18.20 RCW, and other applicable laws and rules; and
 - (c) The care and services provided to the boarding home residents.
- (2) The licensee must:
- (a) Maintain the occupancy level at or below the licensed resident bed capacity of the boarding home;
 - (b) Maintain and post in a size and format that is easily read, in a conspicuous place on the boarding home premises:
 - (i) A current boarding home license, including any related conditions on the license;
 - (ii) The name, address and telephone number of:
 - (A) The department;
 - (B) Appropriate resident advocacy groups; and
 - (C) The state and local long-term care ombudsman with a brief description of ombudsman services.
 - (iii) A copy of the report, including the cover letter, and plan of correction of the most recent full inspection conducted by the department.
 - (c) Ensure any party responsible for holding or managing residents' personal funds is bonded or obtains insurance in sufficient amounts to specifically cover losses of resident funds; and provides proof of bond or insurance to the department.
 - (3) The licensee must not delegate to any person responsibilities that are so extensive that the licensee is relieved of responsibility for the daily operations and provisions of services in the boarding home.
 - (4) The licensee must act in accord with any department-approved management agreement, if the licensee has entered into a management agreement.
 - (5) The licensee must appoint the boarding home administrator consistent with WAC 388-78A-2520.

WAC 388-78A-2740 Licensee qualifications. The department must consider separately and jointly as applicants each person named in the application for a boarding home license.

- (1) If the department finds any person unqualified as specified in WAC 388-78A-3190, the department must deny, terminate, or not renew the license.
- (2) If the department finds any person unqualified as specified in WAC 388-78A-3170, the department may deny, terminate, or not renew the license.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2740, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-78A-2750 Application process. To apply for a boarding home license, a person must:

- (1) Submit to the department a complete license application on forms designated by the department at least ninety days prior to the proposed effective date of the license;
- (2) Submit all relevant attachments specified in the application;
- (3) Submit criminal history background requests as required in WAC 388-78A-2470;
- (4) Sign the application;
- (5) Submit the license fee as specified in WAC 388-78A-3230;
- (6) Submit verification that construction plans have been approved by construction review services;
- (7) Submit a revised application before the license is issued if any information has changed since the initial license application was submitted;
- (8) Submit a revised application containing current information about the proposed licensee or any other persons named in the application, if a license application is pending for more than one year; and
- (9) If the licensee's agent prepares an application on the licensee's behalf, the licensee must review, sign and attest to the accuracy of the information contained in the application.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2750, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2760 Necessary information. In making a determination whether to issue a boarding home license, in addition to the information for each person named in the application, the department may review other documents and information the department deems relevant, including inspection and complaint investigation findings for each facility with which the applicant or any partner, officer, director, managerial employee, or owner of five percent or more of the applicant has been affiliated.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2760, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2770 Change in licensee. (1) The licensee of a boarding home must change whenever the following events occur, including, but not limited to:

- (a) The licensee's form of legal organization is changed (e.g., a sole proprietor forms a partnership or corporation);
- (b) The licensee transfers ownership of the boarding home business enterprise to another party regardless of whether ownership of some or all of the real property and/or personal property assets of the boarding home is also transferred;
- (c) The licensee dissolves, or consolidates or merges with another legal organization and the licensee's legal organization does not survive;
- (d) If, during any continuous twenty-four-month period, fifty percent or more of the "licensed entity" is transferred, whether by a single transaction or multiple transactions, to:
 - (i) A different person (e.g., new or former shareholders or partners); or
 - (ii) A person that had less than a five percent ownership interest in the boarding home at the time of the first transaction.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 501]

(e) Any other event or combination of events that results in a substitution, elimination, or withdrawal of the licensee's control of the boarding home. As used in this section, "control" means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct the management, operation and/or policies of the licensee or boarding home, whether through ownership, voting control, by agreement, by contract or otherwise.

(2) The licensee is not required to change when the following, without more, occur:

(a) The licensee contracts with a party to manage the boarding home enterprise for the licensee pursuant to an agreement as specified in WAC 388-78A-2590; or

(b) The real property or personal property assets of the boarding home are sold or leased, or a lease of the real property or personal property assets is terminated, as long as there is not a substitution or substitution of control of the licensee or boarding home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2770, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2780 Requirements to change boarding home licensee. (1) In order to change the licensee of a boarding home, the current licensee must notify the department and all residents of the proposed change in licensee at least ninety days prior to the proposed date of change, including the following information:

(a) Name of the present licensee and prospective licensee;

(b) Name and address of the boarding home for which the licensee is being changed;

(c) Date of proposed change; and

(d) If the boarding home contracts with the department or other public agencies that may make payments for residential care on behalf of residents, the anticipated effect the change of licensee will have on residents whose care and services are supported through these contracts.

(2) The prospective licensee must, at least ninety days prior to the proposed date of change:

(a) Sign the application;

(b) Submit the annual license fee, if a license fee is due;

(c) Submit evidence of control of the real estate on which the boarding home is located, such as a purchase and sales agreement, lease contract, or other appropriate document;

(d) Submit a revised application if any information included on the original application is no longer accurate; and

(e) Complete and submit a revised application if requested by the department.

(3) Send a letter to the department stating the licensee's intent to relinquish the boarding home license on the effective date of change in licensee.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2780, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2790 Annual renewal. To renew a boarding home license, the boarding home must:

(1) Submit a completed license renewal application on forms designated by the department, at least thirty days prior to the license expiration date;

(2) Sign the application;

(3) Submit the annual license fee as specified in WAC 388-78A-3230; and

[Title 388 WAC—p. 502]

(4) If the licensee's agent prepares a renewal application on the licensee's behalf, the licensee must review, sign and attest to the accuracy of the information contained on the renewal application.

WAC 388-78A-2800 Changes in licensed bed capacity. To change the licensed bed capacity in a boarding home, the boarding home must:

(1) Submit a completed request for approval to the department at least one day before the intended change;

(2) Submit the prorated fee required according to WAC 388-78A-3230; and

(3) Post an amended license obtained from the department, indicating the new bed capacity.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2800, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2810 Criteria for increasing licensed bed capacity. Before the licensed bed capacity in a boarding home may be increased, the boarding home must:

(1) Obtain construction review services' review and approval of the additional rooms or beds, and related auxiliary spaces, if not previously reviewed and approved; and

(2) Ensure the increased licensed bed capacity does not exceed the maximum facility capacity as determined by the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2810, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2820 Building requirements and exemptions. (1) To get a building approved for licensing, a person must:

(a) Design plans according to the building code, local codes and ordinances, and this chapter;

(b) Submit construction documents, including any change orders and addenda to:

(i) Construction review services per WAC 388-78A-2850 and include:

(A) A minimum of two sets of final construction drawings complying with the requirements of this chapter, stamped by a Washington state licensed architect or engineer; and

(B) A functional program description; and

(ii) Local county or municipal building departments per local codes to obtain necessary building permits.

(c) Conform to the approved construction documents during construction in accordance with chapter 18.20 RCW;

(d) Obtain written approval from construction review services prior to deviating from approved construction documents;

(e) Provide construction review services with a:

(i) Written notice of completion date;

(ii) Copy of reduced floor plan(s); and

(iii) Copy of certificate of occupancy issued by the local building department; and

(f) Obtain authorization from the department prior to providing boarding home services in the new construction area.

(2009 Ed.)

(2) The department may exempt the boarding home from meeting a specific requirement related to the physical environment if the department determines the exemption will not:

- (a) Jeopardize the health or safety of residents;
- (b) Adversely affect the residents' quality of life; or
- (c) Change the fundamental nature of the boarding home operation into something other than a boarding home.

(3) A boarding home wishing to request an exemption must submit a written request to the department, including:

- (a) A description of the requested exemption; and
- (b) The specific WAC requirement for which the exemption is sought.

(4) The boarding home may not appeal the department's denial of a request for an exemption.

(5) The boarding home must retain a copy of each approved exemption in the boarding home.

WAC 388-78A-2830 Conversion of licensed nursing homes. (1) If a person intends to convert a licensed nursing home building into a licensed boarding home, the building must meet all boarding home licensing requirements specified in this chapter and chapter 18.20 RCW unless the licensee has a contract with the department to provide enhanced adult residential care services in the boarding home per RCW 18.20.220.

(2) If the licensee provides contracted enhanced adult residential care services in the building converted from a licensed nursing home into a licensed boarding home, the boarding home licensing requirements for the physical structure are considered to be met if the most recent nursing home inspection report for the nursing home building demonstrates compliance, and compliance is maintained, with safety standards and fire regulations:

(a) As required by RCW 18.51.140; and

(b) Specified in the applicable building code, as required by RCW 18.51.145, including any waivers that may have been granted, except that the licensee must ensure the building meets the licensed boarding home standards, or their functional equivalency, for:

(i) Resident to bathing fixture ratio required per WAC 388-78A-3030;

(ii) Resident to toilet ratio required per WAC 388-78A-3030;

(iii) Corridor call system required per WAC 388-78A-2930;

(iv) Resident room door closures; and

(v) Resident room windows required per WAC 388-78A-3010.

(3) If the licensee does not continue to provide contracted enhanced adult residential care services in the boarding home converted from a licensed nursing home, the licensee must meet all boarding home licensing requirements specified in this chapter and chapter 18.20 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2830, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2840 Licenses for multiple buildings.

(1) The licensee may have multiple buildings operating under a single boarding home license if:

(a) All of the buildings are located on the same property with the same legal description; or

(b) All of the buildings are located on contiguous properties undivided by:

(i) Public streets, not including alleyways used primarily for delivery services or parking; or

(ii) Other land that is not owned and maintained by the owners of the property on which the boarding home is located.

(2) The licensee must have separate boarding home licenses for buildings that are not located on the same or contiguous properties.

(3) Buildings that construction review services reviewed only as an addition to, or a remodel of, an existing boarding home must not have separate boarding home licenses.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2840, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2850 Required reviews of building plans. (1) A person or boarding home must notify construction review services of all planned construction regarding boarding homes prior to beginning work on any of the following:

(a) A new building or portion thereof to be used as a boarding home;

(b) An addition of, or modification or alteration to an existing boarding home, including, but not limited to, the boarding home's:

(i) Physical structure;

(ii) Electrical fixtures or systems;

(iii) Mechanical equipment or systems;

(iv) Fire alarm fixtures or systems;

(v) Fire sprinkler fixtures or systems;

(vi) Carpeting;

(vii) Wall coverings 1/28 inch thick or thicker; or

(viii) Kitchen or laundry equipment.

(c) A change in the department-approved use of an existing boarding home or portion of a boarding home; and

(d) An existing building or portion thereof to be converted for use as a boarding home.

(2) A person or boarding home does not need to notify construction review services of the following:

(a) Repair or maintenance of equipment, furnishings or fixtures;

(b) Replacement of equipment, furnishings or fixtures with equivalent equipment, furnishings or fixtures;

(c) Repair or replacement of damaged construction if the repair or replacement is performed according to construction documents approved by construction review services within eight years preceding the current repair or replacement;

(d) Painting; or

(e) Cosmetic changes that do not affect resident activities, services, or care and are performed in accordance with the current edition of the building code.

(3) The boarding home must submit plans to construction review services as directed by construction review services and consistent with WAC 388-78A-2820 for approval prior to beginning any construction. The plans must provide an analysis of likely adverse impacts on current boarding home residents and plans to eliminate or mitigate such adverse impacts.

WAC 388-78A-2860 Relocation of residents during construction. (1) Prior to moving residents out of the boarding home during construction, the boarding home must:

(a) Notify the residents and the residents' representatives at least thirty days prior to the anticipated move date, of the required move and their options consistent with chapter 70.129 RCW;

(b) Notify the department at least thirty days prior to the anticipated move date, of the boarding home's plans for relocating residents, including:

(i) The location to which the residents will be relocated;

(ii) The boarding home's plans for providing care and services during the relocation;

(iii) The boarding home's plans for returning residents to the building; and

(iv) The projected time frame for completing the construction.

(c) Obtain the department's approval for the relocation plans prior to relocating residents.

(2) If the boarding home moves out all of the residents from the boarding home without first obtaining the department's approval of the relocation plans, the boarding home is closed for business and the department may revoke the licensee's boarding home license.

WAC 388-78A-2890 Time frame for approval. (1) A person or the licensee must:

(a) Obtain approval by construction review services, of final construction documents prior to starting any construction, except for fire alarm plans, fire sprinkler plans, and landscaping plans.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 504]

(b) Obtain approval by construction review services, of landscaping, fire alarm and fire sprinkler plans prior to their installation.

(2) The department will not issue a boarding home license unless:

(a) Construction review services:

(i) Notifies the department that construction has been completed; and

(ii) Provides the department:

(A) A copy of the certificate of occupancy granted by the local building official;

(B) A copy of the functional program; and

(C) A reduced copy of the approved floor plan indicating room numbers or names and the approved use; and

(b) The state fire marshal has inspected and approved the boarding home for fire protection.

WAC 388-78A-2920 Area for nursing supplies and equipment. (1) If the boarding home provides intermittent nursing services, the boarding home must provide on the boarding home premises for the safe and sanitary:

(a) Storage and handling of clean and sterile nursing equipment and supplies; and

(b) Cleaning and disinfecting of soiled nursing equipment.

(2) For all boarding homes first issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, in which intermittent nursing services are provided, or upon initiating intermittent nursing services within an existing boarding home, the boarding home must provide the following two separate rooms in each boarding home building, accessible only by staff persons:

(a) A "clean" utility room for the purposes of storing and preparing clean and sterile nursing supplies, equipped with:

(i) A work counter or table;

(ii) A handwashing sink, with soap and paper towels or other approved hand-drying device; and

(iii) Locked medication storage, if medications are stored in this area, that is separate from all other stored items consistent with WAC 388-78A-2260.

(b) A "soiled" utility room for the purposes of storing soiled linen, cleaning and disinfecting soiled nursing care equipment, and disposing of refuse and infectious waste, equipped with:

(i) A work counter or table;

(ii) A two-compartment sink for handwashing and equipment cleaning and sanitizing;

(iii) A clinical service sink or equivalent for rinsing and disposing of waste material;

(iv) Soap and paper towels or other approved hand-dry device; and

(v) Locked storage for cleaning supplies, if stored in the area.

WAC 388-78A-2930 Communication system. (1) The boarding home must:

(a) Provide residents and staff persons with the means to summon on-duty staff assistance:

(i) From resident units;

(ii) From common areas accessible to residents;

(iii) From corridors accessible to residents; and

(iv) For boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, all bathrooms, all toilet rooms, resident living rooms and sleeping rooms.

(b) Provide residents, families, and other visitors with a means to contact a staff person inside the building from outside the building after hours.

(2) The boarding home must provide one or more non-pay telephones:

(a) In each building located for ready access by staff persons; and

(b) On the premises with reasonable access and privacy by residents.

(3) In boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, the boarding home must equip each resident room with two telephone lines.

(4) If a boarding home that is issued a project number by construction services on or after September 1, 2004 chooses to install an intercom system, the intercom system must be equipped with a mechanism that allows a resident to control:

(a) Whether or not announcements are broadcast into the resident's room; and

(b) Whether or not voices or conversations within the resident's room can be monitored or listened to by persons outside the resident's room.

WAC 388-78A-2990 Heating-cooling—Temperature. The boarding home must:

(1) Equip each resident-occupied building with an approved heating system capable of maintaining a minimum temperature of 70°F per the building code. The boarding home must:

- (a) Maintain the boarding home at a minimum temperature of 60°F during sleeping hours; and
- (b) Maintain the boarding home at a minimum of 68°F during waking hours, except in rooms:
 - (i) Designated for activities requiring physical exertion; or

(ii) Where residents can individually control the temperature in their own living units, independent from other areas.

(2) Equip each resident-occupied building with a mechanical air cooling system or equivalent capable of maintaining a temperature of 75°F in communities where the design dry bulb temperature exceeds 85°F for one hundred seventy-five hours per year or two percent of the time, as specified in the latest edition of "Recommended Outdoor Design Temperatures—Washington State," published by the Puget Sound chapter of the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration, and Air-Conditioning Engineers;

(3) Equip each boarding home issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, with a backup source of heat in enough common areas to keep all residents adequately warm during interruptions of normal heating operations;

(4) Prohibit the use of portable space heaters unless approved in writing by the Washington state director of fire protection; and

(5) Equip each resident sleeping room and resident living room in boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, with individual temperature controls located between thirty and forty-eight inches above the floor capable of maintaining room temperature plus or minus 3°F from setting, within a range of minimum 60°F to maximum 85°F.

WAC 388-78A-3010 Resident room—Room furnishings-storage. (1) The boarding home must ensure each resident has a sleeping room that has:

- (a) Eighty or more square feet of usable floor space in a one-person sleeping room;
- (b) Seventy or more square feet of usable floor space per individual in a sleeping room occupied by two or more individuals, except:
 - (i) When a resident sleeping room is located within a private apartment; and
 - (ii) The private apartment includes a resident sleeping room, a resident living room, and a private bathroom; and
 - (iii) The total square footage in the private apartment equals or exceeds two hundred twenty square feet excluding the bathroom; and
 - (iv) There are no more than two residents living in the apartment; and
 - (v) Both residents mutually agree to share the resident sleeping room; and

(vi) All other requirements of this section are met, then the two residents may share a sleeping room with less than one hundred forty square feet.

(c) A maximum sleeping room occupancy of:

(i) Four individuals if the boarding home was licensed before July 1, 1989, and licensed continuously thereafter; and

(ii) Two individuals if the boarding home, after June 30, 1989:

(A) Applied for initial licensure; or

(B) Applied to increase the number of resident sleeping rooms; or

(C) Applied to change the use of rooms into sleeping rooms.

(d) Unrestricted direct access to a hallway, living room, outside, or other common-use area;

(e) One or more outside windows with:

(i) Window sills at or above grade, with grade extending horizontally ten or more feet from the building; and

(ii) Adjustable curtains, shades, blinds, or equivalent for visual privacy.

(f) One or more duplex electrical outlets per bed if the boarding home was initially licensed after July 1, 1983;

(g) A light control switch located by the entrance for a light fixture in the room;

(h) An individual towel and washcloth rack or equivalent, except when there is a private bathroom attached to the resident sleeping or living room, the individual towel and washcloth rack may be located in the attached private bathroom;

(i) In all boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, and when requested by a resident in a boarding home licensed on or before September 1, 2004, provide a lockable drawer, cupboard or other secure space measuring at least one-half cubic foot with a minimum dimension of four inches;

(j) Separate storage facilities for each resident in or immediately adjacent to the resident's sleeping room to adequately store a reasonable quantity of clothing and personal possessions;

(k) A configuration to permit all beds in the resident sleeping room to be spaced at least three feet from other beds unless otherwise requested by all affected residents.

(2) The boarding home must ensure each resident sleeping room contains:

(a) A comfortable bed for each resident, except when two residents mutually agree to share a bed. The bed must be thirty-six or more inches wide for a single resident and fifty-four or more inches wide for two residents, appropriate for size, age and physical condition of the resident and room dimensions, including, but not limited to:

(i) Standard household bed;

(ii) Studio couch;

(iii) Hide-a-bed;

(iv) Day bed; or

(v) Water bed, if structurally and electrically safe.

(b) A mattress for each bed which:

(i) Fits the bed frame;

(ii) Is in good condition; and

(iii) Is at least four inches thick unless otherwise requested or necessary for resident health or safety.

(c) One or more comfortable pillows for each resident;

(d) Bedding for each bed, in good repair; and

(e) Lighting at the resident's bedside when requested by the resident.

(3) The boarding home must not allow a resident sleeping room to be used as a passageway or corridor.

(4) The boarding home may use or allow use of carpets and other floor coverings only when the carpet is:

(a) Securely fastened to the floor or provided with non-skid backing; and

(b) Kept clean and free of hazards, such as curling edges or tattered sections.

(5) The boarding home must ensure each resident has either a sleeping room or resident living room that contains a sturdy, comfortable chair appropriate for the age and physical condition of the resident. This requirement does not mean a boarding home is responsible for supplying specially designed orthotic or therapeutic chairs, including those with mechanical lifts or adjustments.

WAC 388-78A-3030 Toilet rooms and bathrooms. (1)

The boarding home must provide private or common-use toilet rooms and bathrooms to meet the needs of each resident.

(2) The boarding home must provide each toilet room and bathroom with:

(a) Water resistant, smooth, low gloss, nonslip and easily cleanable materials;

(b) Washable walls to the height of splash or spray;

(c) Grab bars installed and located to minimize accidental falls including one or more grab bars at each:

(i) Bathing fixture; and

(ii) Toilet.

(d) Plumbing fixtures designed for easy use and cleaning and kept in good repair; and

(e) Adequate ventilation to the outside of the boarding home. For boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, must provide mechanical ventilation to the outside.

(3) The boarding home must provide each toilet room with a:

- (a) Toilet with a clean, nonabsorbent seat free of cracks;
- (b) Handwashing sink in or adjacent to the toilet room.

For boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, the handwashing sink must be in the toilet room or in an adjacent private area that is not part of a common use area of the boarding home; and

(c) Suitable mirror with adequate lighting for general illumination.

(4) For boarding homes approved for construction or initially licensed after August 1, 1994, the boarding home must provide a toilet and handwashing sink in, or adjoining, each bathroom.

(5) When providing common-use toilet rooms and bathrooms, the boarding home must provide toilets and handwashing sinks for residents in the ratios of one toilet and one handwashing sink for every eight residents or fraction as listed in the following table:

(7) When providing common-use toilet rooms and bathrooms, the boarding home must:

(a) Designate toilet rooms containing more than one toilet for use by men or women;

(b) Designate bathrooms containing more than one bathing fixture for use by men or women;

(c) Equip each toilet room and bathroom designed for use by, or used by, more than one person at a time, in a manner to ensure visual privacy for each person using the room. The boarding home is not required to provide additional privacy features in private bathrooms with a single toilet and a single bathing fixture located within a private apartment;

(d) Provide a handwashing sink with soap and single use or disposable towels, blower or equivalent hand-drying device in each toilet room, except that single-use or disposable towels or blowers are not required in toilet rooms or bathrooms that are located within a private apartment;

(e) Provide reasonable access to bathrooms and toilet rooms for each resident by:

(i) Locating a toilet room on the same floor or level as the sleeping room of the resident served;

(ii) Locating a bathroom on the same floor or level, or adjacent floor or level, as the sleeping room of the resident served;

(iii) Providing access without passage through any kitchen, pantry, food preparation, food storage, or dishwashing area, or from one bedroom through another bedroom; and

(f) Provide and ensure toilet paper is available at each common-use toilet.

(8) In boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, the boarding home must ensure twenty-five percent of all the bathing fixtures in the boarding home are roll-in type showers that have:

(a) One-half inch or less threshold that may be a collapsible rubber water barrier;

(b) A minimum size of thirty-six inches by forty-eight inches; and

(c) Single lever faucets located within thirty-six inches of the seat so the faucets are within reach of persons seated in the shower.

WAC 388-78A-3152 Plan of correction—Required.

(1) The boarding home must comply with all applicable licensing laws and regulations at all times.

(2) When the department finds the boarding home out of compliance with any licensing law or regulation the department will send the home an inspection report with an attestation of correction statement for each cited deficiency.

(3) The boarding home must complete an attestation of correction for any inspection report as the department requires.

(4) For purposes of this section an "attestation of correction statement" means a statement developed by the department and signed and dated by the home, that the home:

- (a) Has or will correct each cited deficiency; and
- (b) Will maintain correction of each cited deficiency.

(5) The home must be able to show to the department, upon request, that, for each deficiency cited, the home has:

- (a) A plan of correction and maintaining correction;
- (b) Corrected or is correcting each deficiency; and
- (c) Maintained or is maintaining compliance.

(6) On each attestation of correction statement, the home must:

- (a) Give a date, approved by the department, showing when the cited deficiency has been or will be corrected; and
- (b) By signature and date showing that the home has or will correct, and maintain correction, of each deficiency.

(7) The home must return the inspection report, with completed attestation of correction statements, to the department within ten calendar days of receiving the report.

WAC 388-78A-3160 Authorized enforcement remedies. (1) Whenever the circumstances in WAC 388-78A-3170(1) are present, the department may impose any enforcement remedies authorized by RCW 18.20.050(4), 18.20.185 (7) and 18.20.190 on a boarding home, including:

- (a) Denying a boarding home license;
- (b) Suspending a boarding home license;
- (c) Revoking a boarding home license;
- (d) Refusing to renew a boarding home license;
- (e) Suspending admissions to a boarding home;
- (f) Suspending admissions to a boarding home of a specific category or categories of residents as related to cited problems;

(2009 Ed.)

(g) Imposing conditions on the boarding home license; and/or

(h) Imposing civil penalties of not more than one hundred dollars per day per violation.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the department may impose a civil penalty on a boarding home of up to three thousand dollars per day per violation for interference, coercion, discrimination and/or reprisal by a boarding home as set forth in RCW 18.20.185(7).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-3160, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-3170 Circumstances resulting in enforcement remedies. (1) The department is authorized to impose enforcement remedies described in WAC 388-78A-3160 if any person described in subsection (2) of this section is found by the department to have:

(a) A history of significant noncompliance with federal or state laws or regulations in providing care or services to frail elders, vulnerable adults or children, whether as a licensee, contractor, managerial employee or otherwise. Evidence of significant noncompliance may include, without limitation:

(i) Citations for violation of laws or regulations imposed by regulating entities;

(ii) Sanctions for violation of laws or regulations imposed by regulating entities;

(iii) Involuntary termination, cancellation, suspension, or nonrenewal of a medicaid contract or medicare provider agreement, or any other agreement with a public agency for the care or treatment of children, frail elders or vulnerable adults;

(iv) Been denied a license relating to the care of frail elders, vulnerable adults or children; or

(v) Relinquished or failed to renew a license relating to care of frail elders, vulnerable adults or children following written notification of the licensing agency's initiation of denial, suspension, cancellation or revocation of a license.

(b) Failed to provide appropriate care to frail elders, vulnerable adults or children under a contract, or having such contract terminated or not renewed by the contracting agency due to such failure;

(c) Been convicted of a felony, or a crime against a person, if the conviction reasonably relates to the competency of the person to operate a boarding home;

(d) Failed or refused to comply with the requirements of chapter 18.20 RCW, applicable provisions of chapter 70.129 RCW or this chapter;

(e) Retaliated against a staff person, resident or other individual for:

(i) Reporting suspected abuse or other alleged improprieties;

(ii) Providing information to the department during the course of the department conducting an inspection of the boarding home; or

(iii) Providing information to the department during the course of the department conducting a complaint investigation in the boarding home.

(f) Operated a facility for the care of children or adults without a current, valid license or under a defunct or revoked license;

(g) Been convicted of a crime committed on a boarding home premises; knowingly permitted, aided or abetted an illegal act on a boarding home premises; or engaged in the illegal use of drugs or the excessive use of alcohol;

(h) Abused, neglected or exploited a vulnerable adult or knowingly failed to report alleged abuse, neglect or exploitation of a vulnerable adult as required by chapter 74.34 RCW;

(i) Failed to exercise fiscal accountability and responsibility involving a resident, the department, public agencies, or the business community; or to have insufficient financial resources or unencumbered income to sustain the operation of the boarding home;

(j) Knowingly or with reason to know, made false statements of material fact in the application for the license or the renewal of the license or any data attached thereto, or in any matter under investigation by the department;

(k) Willfully prevented or interfered with or attempted to impede in any way any inspection or investigation by the department, or the work of any authorized representative of the department or the lawful enforcement of any provision of this chapter;

(l) Refused to allow department representatives or agents to examine any part of the licensed premises including the books, records and files required under this chapter;

(m) Moved all residents out of the boarding home without the department's approval and to be no longer operating as a boarding home; or

(n) Demonstrated any other factors that give evidence the applicant lacks the appropriate character, suitability and competence to provide care or services to vulnerable adults.

(2) This section applies to any boarding home:

(a) Applicant;

(b) Partner, officer or director;

(c) Manager or managerial employee; or

(d) Majority owner of the applicant or licensee:

(i) Who is involved in the management or operation of the boarding home;

(ii) Who may have direct access to boarding home residents;

(iii) Who controls or supervises the provision of care or services to boarding home residents; or

(iv) Who exercises control over daily operations of the boarding home.

(3) For other circumstances resulting in discretionary enforcement remedies, see WAC 388-78A-3200.

WAC 388-78A-3180 Required enforcement remedies. The department must impose an appropriate remedy consistent with RCW 18.20.125 and as otherwise authorized by RCW 18.20.185 or 18.20.190 whenever the department finds a boarding home has:

(1) A serious problem, a recurring problem, or an uncorrected problem;

(2) Created a hazard that causes or is likely to cause death or serious harm to one or more residents;

(3) Discriminated or retaliated in any manner against a resident, employee, or any other person because that person or any other person made a complaint or provided information to the department, the attorney general, a law enforcement agency, or the long-term care ombudsman; or

(4) Willfully interfered with the performance of official duties by a long-term care ombudsman.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-3180, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-3190 Denial, suspension, revocation, or nonrenewal of license statutorily required. (1) The department must deny, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew a boarding home license if any person described in subsection (2) of this section who has unsupervised access to residents, is:

(a) Convicted of a crime against children or other persons or crimes relating to financial exploitation as defined under RCW 43.43.830 or 43.43.842; or

(b) Found by a court in a protection proceeding or in a civil damages lawsuit under chapter 74.34 RCW to have abused, neglected, abandoned or exploited a vulnerable adult; or

(c) Found in any dependency action under chapter 13.34 RCW to have sexually assaulted, neglected, exploited, or physically abused any minor; or

(d) Found by a court in a domestic relations proceeding under Title 26 RCW to have sexually abused, exploited, or physically abused any minor; or

(e) Found in any final decision issued by a disciplinary board to have sexually or physically abused or neglected or exploited any minor or any vulnerable adult, or has a stipulated finding of fact, conclusion of law, an agreed order, or finding of fact, conclusion of law, or final order issued by a disciplining authority, a court of law, or entered into a state registry finding him or her guilty of abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment of a minor or a vulnerable adult as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW.

(2) This section applies to any boarding home:

(a) Applicant;

(b) Partner, officer or director;

(c) Manager or managerial employee; or

(d) Owner of five percent or more of the applicant:

(i) Who is involved in the operation of the boarding home; or

(ii) Who may have direct access to the boarding home residents; or

(iii) Who controls or supervises the provision of care or services to the boarding home residents; or

(iv) Who exercises control over daily operations.

WAC 388-78A-3200 Progression of enforcement remedies. (1) When the department cites a boarding home for an initial problem that does not represent a recurring problem, serious problem or uncorrected problem, and that results in minimal or moderate harm that is limited in scope, the department may:

(a) Require a plan of correction from the boarding home;

(b) Impose conditions on the boarding home license; and/or

(c) Impose a civil penalty.

(2) The department may take any of the actions specified in subsection (1) of this section and/or impose a stop-placement or limited stop-placement on a boarding home when:

(a) There is a reasonable probability, at the time the stop-placement or limited stop-placement is imposed, at least a moderate degree of harm will occur or recur as a result of a single problem or by a combination of problems; and

(b) The threatening problem is more than an isolated event or occurrence.

(3) The department may take any of the actions specified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section and/or summarily suspend a boarding home's license when:

(a) There is an imminent threat that a serious degree of harm may occur to residents as a result of a single problem or a combination of problems; and

(b) The threatening problem is more than an isolated event or occurrence.

(4) The department may take any of the actions specified in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section and/or revoke a boarding home's license when:

(a) The department has cause to summarily suspend the boarding home's license;

(b) There is a current problem with the boarding home and the boarding home has a history of having enforcement remedies imposed by the department;

(c) There is a current problem with the boarding home and the boarding home has a history of noncompliance representing problems that were at least moderate in nature and moderate in scope;

(d) The boarding home has moved all residents out of the boarding home without the department's approval and is no longer operating as a boarding home; or

(e) There is a serious current problem, which may not warrant a summary suspension, with the boarding home that does not have a history of noncompliance. Examples of the types of serious current problems that may warrant license revocation include, but are not limited to:

(i) The licensee has been found or convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction to have engaged in fraudulent activity; or

(ii) The licensee is experiencing significant financial problems resulting in poor care or jeopardizing the care and services that can be provided to residents, and possible business failure; or

(f) The boarding home fails to cooperate with the department during any inspection or complaint investigation.

WAC 388-78A-3220 Appeal rights. (1) An applicant or boarding home:

(a) May contest an enforcement remedy imposed by the department pursuant to RCW 18.20.190 according to the provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW and chapters 10-08 and 388-02 WAC;

(b) Must file any request for an adjudicative proceeding with the office of administrative hearings at the mailing address specified in the notice of imposition of an enforcement remedy within twenty-eight days of receiving the notice.

(2) Orders of the department imposing licensing suspension, stop-placement, or conditions for continuation of a license are effective immediately upon notice and shall continue pending any hearing.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090. 06-01-047, § 388-78A-3220, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-3220, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-3230 Fees. The boarding home must:

(1) Submit an annual license fee of seventy-nine dollars per bed of the licensed resident bed capacity as determined by and in accordance with RCW 18.20.050;

(2) Submit an additional one hundred fifty dollars when billed by the department for:

(a) A third on-site visit required by the boarding home's failure to adequately correct problems identified in a statement of deficiencies; and

(b) A full out-of-sequence inspection resulting from information gathered during a complaint investigation.

(3) Submit an additional late fee in the amount of ten dollars per day from the license renewal date until the date of mailing the fee, as evidenced by the postmark; and

(4) Submit to construction review services a fee for the review of the construction documents per the review fee schedule that is based on the project cost.

WAC 388-78A-3410 Notice of preliminary finding.

(1) The department will notify the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident in writing within ten working days of making a preliminary finding of abandonment, abuse, neglect, exploitation, or financial exploitation of a resident. The written notice:

(a) Will not include the identities of the alleged victim, reporter and witnesses; and

(b) Will include the necessary information for the individual to ask for an administrative hearing to challenge the preliminary finding.

(2) The department must make a reasonable, good faith effort to find the last known address of the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident.

(3) The department may extend the time frame for notification beyond ten working days for good cause.

(4) The department will serve notice of the preliminary finding as provided in chapter 388-02 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 and chapters 18.20 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-099, § 388-78A-3410, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-78A-3420 Reporting preliminary findings.

(1) In a manner consistent with confidentiality requirements concerning the resident, witnesses, and reporter, the department may provide notification of a preliminary finding to:

(a) Other divisions within the department;

(b) The agency or program identified under RCW 74.34.068 with which the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident is associated as an employee;

(c) The employer or program that is currently associated with the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident, if known;

(d) Law enforcement; and

(e) Other investigative authorities consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW.

(2) The notification will identify the finding as a preliminary finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 and chapters 18.20 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-099, § 388-78A-3420, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-78A-3430 Disputing a preliminary finding. (1) The individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident may request an administrative hearing to challenge a preliminary finding made by the department.

(2) The request must be made in writing to the office of administrative hearings.

(3) The office of administrative hearings must receive the individual's written request for an administrative hearing within thirty calendar days of the date written on the notice of the preliminary finding.

(4) The written request for a hearing must include:

(a) The individual's full legal name, current mailing address and the telephone number;

(b) A brief explanation of why the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident disagrees with the preliminary finding;

(c) A description of any assistance needed in the administrative appeal process by the individual, including a foreign or sign language interpreter or any reasonable accommodation for a disability; and

(d) The individual's signature.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 and chapters 18.20 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-099, § 388-78A-3430, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-78A-3440 Hearing procedures to dispute preliminary finding. (1) Chapters 34.05 and 74.34 RCW, chapter 388-02 WAC, and the provisions of this chapter govern any appeal regarding a preliminary finding.

(2) If a conflict exists between the provisions of this chapter and chapter 388-02 WAC, the provisions of this chapter prevail.

(3) If an administrative law judge within the office of administrative hearings determines that a preponderance of the evidence supports the preliminary finding that the individual abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident, then the administrative law judge will issue an initial order.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 and chapters 18.20 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-099, § 388-78A-3440, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-78A-3450 Finalizing a preliminary finding. (1) A preliminary finding becomes a final finding when:

(a) The department notifies the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident there is a preliminary finding pursuant to WAC 388-78A-3410; and

(b) The individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited or financially exploited a resident does not ask for an administrative hearing; or

(c) The administrative law judge:

(i) Dismisses the hearing following withdrawal of the appeal or default;

(ii) Dismisses the appeal for failure to comply with time limits under WAC 388-78A-3430; or

(iii) Issues an initial order upholding the finding and the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident fails to appeal the initial order to the department's board of appeals.

(d) The board of appeals issues a final order upholding the finding.

(2) A final finding is permanent.

(3) A final finding will only be removed from the department or agency list of individuals found to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a vulnerable adult if it is rescinded following judicial review.

(4) The department may remove a single finding of neglect from its records based upon a written petition by the individual found to have neglected a resident provided that at least one calendar year must have passed between the date a request was made to remove the finding of neglect and the date the final finding was finalized and recorded. If the department denies the petition, its decision may not be appealed.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.20 and 74.34 RCW. 09-01-052, § 388-78A-3450, filed 12/10/08, effective 1/10/09. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 and chapters 18.20 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-099, § 388-78A-3450, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-78A-3460 Appeal of administrative law judge's initial order. (1) If the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident or the department disagrees with the administrative law judge's decision, either party may challenge this decision by filing a petition for review with the department's board of appeals under chapter 34.05 RCW, Administrative Procedure Act, and chapter 388-02 WAC.

(2) If the department appeals the administrative law judge's decision, the department will not change the finding in the department's records until a final hearing decision is issued.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.20 and 74.34 RCW. 09-01-052, § 388-78A-3460, filed 12/10/08, effective 1/10/09. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 and chapters 18.20 and 74.34 RCW. 08-05-099, § 388-78A-3460, filed 2/15/08, effective 3/17/08.]

WAC 388-78A-3470 Reporting final findings. The department will report a final finding of abandonment, abuse, neglect, exploitation and financial exploitation within ten working days to the following:

(1) The individual found to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident and for whom there is a final finding;

(2) The boarding home licensee or entity representative that was associated with the individual alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a resident during the time of the incident;

(3) The employer or program that is currently associated with the individual, if known;

(4) The appropriate licensing, certification or registration authority;

(5) The federal or state department or agency list of individuals found to have abandoned, abused, neglected, exploited, or financially exploited a vulnerable adult; and

(6) The findings may be disclosed to the public upon request subject to applicable public disclosure laws.

Chapter 388-79 WAC

GUARDIANSHIP FEES FOR CLIENTS OF THE DEPARTMENT

WAC

388-79-010	Purpose.
388-79-020	Definitions.
388-79-030	Maximum fees and costs.
388-79-040	Procedure to revise award letter after June 15, 1998, but before September 1, 2003.
388-79-050	Procedure for allowing fees and costs from client participation after September 1, 2003.

(2009 Ed.)

WAC 388-79-010 Purpose. These rules implement RCW 11.92.180 and 43.20B.460 to the extent that those statutes require the department to establish by rule the maximum amount of guardianship fees and additional compensation for administrative costs that may be allowed by the court for a guardian or limited guardian of an incapacitated person who is a Medicaid client of the department and is thus required by federal law to contribute to the cost of the client's long-term care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 11.92.180, 43.20B.460, 03-16-022, § 388-79-010, filed 7/28/03, effective 8/28/03; 98-10-055, § 388-79-010, filed 4/30/98, effective 5/31/98.]

WAC 388-79-020 Definitions. "Administrative costs" or "costs" means necessary costs paid by the guardian including attorney fees.

"Client" means a person who is eligible for and is receiving Medicaid-funded long-term care.

"Guardianship fees" or "fees" means necessary fees charged by a guardian for services rendered on behalf of a client.

"Participation" means the amount the client pays from current monthly income toward the cost of the client's long-term care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 11.92.180, 43.20B.460, 03-16-022, § 388-79-020, filed 7/28/03, effective 8/28/03; 98-10-055, § 388-79-020, filed 4/30/98, effective 5/31/98.]

WAC 388-79-030 Maximum fees and costs. The superior court may allow guardianship fees and administrative costs in an amount set out in an order. For orders entered after June 15, 1998, where the order establishes or continues a legal guardianship for a department client, and requires a future review or accounting; then unless otherwise modified by the process described in WAC 388-79-040:

(1) The amount of guardianship fees shall not exceed one hundred seventy-five dollars per month;

(2) The amount of administrative costs directly related to establishing a guardianship for a department client shall not exceed seven hundred dollars; and

(3) The amount of administrative costs shall not exceed a total of six hundred dollars during any three-year period.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 11.92.180, 43.20B.460, 03-16-022, § 388-79-030, filed 7/28/03, effective 8/28/03; 98-10-055, § 388-79-030, filed 4/30/98, effective 5/31/98.]

WAC 388-79-040 Procedure to revise award letter after June 15, 1998, but before September 1, 2003. After June 15, 1998, but before September 1, 2003, where a department client is subject to a guardianship then the department shall be entitled to notice of proceedings as described in RCW 11.92.150.

(1) The notice shall be given to the appropriate regional administrator of the program serving the department client. A list of the regional administrators will be available upon request.

(2) If the fees and costs requested and established by the order are equal to or lower than the maximum amount set by this rule then the award letter or document setting the department's client's participation shall be adjusted to reflect that amount upon receipt by the department of the court order setting a monthly amount.

(3) Should fees and costs above those requested in WAC 388-79-030 be requested:

(a) The appropriate regional administrator will be given notice of the hearing as described in RCW 11.92.150, and provided with copies of all supporting documents filed with the court.

(b) Should the court determine after consideration of the facts, law and evidence of the case, that fees and costs higher than normally allowed in WAC 388-79-030 are just and reasonable and should be allowed then the award letter or document setting the department client's participation shall be adjusted to reflect that amount upon receipt by the department of the court order setting a monthly amount.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 11.92.180, 43.20B.460. 03-16-022, § 388-79-040, filed 7/28/03, effective 8/28/03; 98-10-055, § 388-79-040, filed 4/30/98, effective 5/31/98.]

WAC 388-79-050 Procedure for allowing fees and costs from client participation after September 1, 2003.

(1) After September 1, 2003, where a client is subject to a guardianship the department shall be entitled to notice of proceedings as described in RCW 11.92.150.

(2) The notice must be served to the department's regional administrator of the program that is providing services to the client. A list of the regional administrators will be furnished upon request.

(3) If the fees and costs requested and established by the order are equal to or less than the maximum amounts allowed under WAC 388-79-030, then the department will adjust the client's current participation to reflect the amounts allowed upon receipt by the department of the court order setting the monthly amounts.

(4) Should fees and costs in excess of the amounts allowed in WAC 388-79-030 be requested:

(a) At least ten days before filing the request with the court, the guardian must present the request in writing to the appropriate regional administrator to allow the department an opportunity to consider whether the request should be granted on an exceptional basis.

(b) In considering a request for extraordinary fees or costs, the department must consider the following factors:

(i) The department's obligation under federal and state law to ensure that federal medicaid funding is not jeopardized by noncompliance with federal regulations limiting deductions from the client's participation amount;

(ii) The usual and customary guardianship services for which the maximum fees and costs under WAC 388-79-030 must be deemed adequate for a medicaid client, including but not limited to:

- (A) Acting as a representative payee;
- (B) Managing the client's financial affairs;
- (C) Preserving and/or disposing of property;
- (D) Making health care decisions;
- (E) Visiting and/or maintaining contact with the client;
- (F) Accessing public assistance programs on behalf of the client;
- (G) Communicating with the client's service providers; and

(H) Preparing any reports or accountings required by the court.

(iii) Extraordinary services provided by the guardian, such as:

- (A) Unusually complicated property transactions;
- (B) Substantial interactions with adult protective services or criminal justice agencies;
- (C) Extensive medical services setup needs and/or emergency hospitalizations; and
- (D) Litigation other than litigating an award of guardianship fees or costs.

(c) Should the court determine after consideration of the facts and law that fees and costs in excess of the amounts allowed in WAC 388-79-030 are just and reasonable and should be allowed, then the department will adjust the client's current participation to reflect the amounts allowed upon receipt by the department of the court order setting the monthly amounts.

(5) In no event may a client's participation be prospectively or retrospectively reduced to pay fees and costs incurred before the effective date of the client's medicaid eligibility; or during any subsequent time period when the client was not eligible for, or did not receive long-term care services; or after the client has died. There is no client participation towards DDD certified and contracted supported living services under chapter 388-820 WAC, so the department has no responsibility to reimburse the client for guardianship fees when those fees result in the client having insufficient income to pay their living expenses.

(6) If the court at a prior accounting has allowed the guardian to receive fees and costs from the client's monthly income in advance of services rendered by the guardian, and the client dies before the next accounting, the fees and costs allowed by the court at the final accounting may be less than, but may not exceed, the amounts advanced and paid to the guardian from the client's income.

(7) Guardians must furnish the regional administrator with complete packets to include all documents filed with the court and with formal notice clearly identifying the amount requested.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 11.92.180, 43.20B.460. 03-16-022, § 388-79-050, filed 7/28/03, effective 8/28/03.]

WAC 388-96-010 Definitions. Unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply in this chapter.

"Accounting" means activities providing information, usually quantitative and often expressed in monetary units, for:

- (1) Decision making;
- (2) Planning;
- (3) Evaluating performance;
- (4) Controlling resources and operations; and
- (5) External financial reporting to investors, creditors, regulatory authorities, and the public.

"Administration and management" means activities used to maintain, control, and evaluate the efforts and resources of an organization for the accomplishment of the objectives and policies of that organization.

"Allowable costs" means documented costs that are necessary, ordinary, and related to the care of medicaid recipients, and are not expressly declared nonallowable by this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW. Costs are ordinary if they are of the nature and magnitude that prudent and cost conscious management would pay.

"Allowable depreciation costs" means depreciation costs of tangible assets, whether owned or leased by the contractor, meeting the criteria specified in RCW 74.46.330.

"Assignment of contract" means:

- (1) A new nursing facility licensee has elected to care for medicaid residents;
- (2) The department finds no good cause to object to continuing the medicaid contract at the facility; and
- (3) The new licensee accepts assignment of the immediately preceding contractor's contract at the facility.

"Capitalized lease" means a lease required to be recorded as an asset and associated liability in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

"Cash method of accounting" means a method of accounting in which revenues are recorded when cash is received, and expenditures for expense and asset items are not recorded until cash is disbursed for those expenditures and assets.

"Change of ownership" means a substitution, elimination, or withdrawal of the individual operator or operating entity contracting with the department to deliver care services to medical care recipients in a nursing facility and ultimately responsible for the daily operational decisions of the nursing facility.

(1) Events which constitute a change of ownership include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Changing the form of legal organization of the contractor, e.g., a sole proprietor forms a partnership or corporation;

(b) Transferring ownership of the nursing facility business enterprise to another party, regardless of whether ownership of some or all of the real property and/or personal property assets of the facility are also transferred;

(c) Dissolving of a partnership;

(d) Dissolving the corporation, merging the corporation with another corporation, which is the survivor, or consolidating with one or more other corporations to form a new corporation;

(e) Transferring, whether by a single transaction or multiple transactions within any continuous twenty-four-month period, fifty percent or more of the stock to one or more:

(i) New or former stockholders; or

(ii) Present stockholders each having held less than five percent of the stock before the initial transaction;

(f) Substituting of the individual operator or the operating entity by any other event or combination of events that results in a substitution or substitution of control of the individual operator or the operating entity contracting with the department to deliver care services; or

(g) A nursing facility ceases to operate.

(2) Ownership does not change when the following, without more, occurs:

(a) A party contracts with the contractor to manage the nursing facility enterprise as the contractor's agent, i.e., subject to the contractor's general approval of daily operating and management decisions; or

(b) The real property or personal property assets of the nursing facility change ownership or are leased, or a lease of them is terminated, without a substitution of individual operator or operating entity and without a substitution of control of the operating entity contracting with the department to deliver care services.

"Charity allowance" means a reduction in charges made by the contractor because of the indigence or medical indigence of a patient.

"Component rate allocation(s)" means the initial component rate allocation(s) of the rebased rate for a rebase period effective July 1. If a month and a day, other than July 1, with a year precedes "component rate allocation(s)," it means the initial component rate allocation(s) of the rebased rate of the rebase period has been amended or updated effective the date that precedes it, e.g., October 1, 1999 direct care component rate allocation.

"Contract" means an agreement between the department and a contractor for the delivery of nursing facility services to medical care recipients.

"Cost report" means all schedules of a nursing facility's cost report submitted according to the department's instructions.

"Courtesy allowances" means reductions in charges in the form of an allowance to physicians, clergy, and others, for services received from the contractor. Employee fringe benefits are not considered courtesy allowances.

"Donated asset" means an asset the contractor acquired without making any payment for the asset either in cash, property, or services. An asset is not a donated asset if the contractor:

(1) Made even a nominal payment in acquiring the asset; or

(2) Used donated funds to purchase the asset.

"Equity capital" means total tangible and other assets which are necessary, ordinary, and related to patient care from the most recent provider cost report minus related total long-term debt from the most recent provider cost report plus working capital as defined in this section.

"Fiscal year" means the operating or business year of a contractor. All contractors report on the basis of a twelve-month fiscal year, but provision is made in this chapter for reports covering abbreviated fiscal periods. As determined by context or otherwise, "fiscal year" may also refer to a state fiscal year extending from July 1 through June 30 of the following year and comprising the first or second half of a state fiscal biennium.

"Gain on sale" means the actual total sales price of all tangible and intangible nursing facility assets including, but not limited to, land, building, equipment, supplies, goodwill, and beds authorized by certificate of need, minus the net book value of such assets immediately prior to the time of sale.

"Intangible asset" is an asset that lacks physical substance but possesses economic value.

"Interest" means the cost incurred for the use of borrowed funds, generally paid at fixed intervals by the user.

"Multiservice facility" means a facility at which two or more types of health or related care are delivered, e.g., a hospital and nursing facility, or a boarding home and nursing facility.

"Nonadministrative wages and benefits" means wages, benefits, and corresponding payroll taxes paid for nonadministrative personnel, not to include administrator, assistant administrator, or administrator-in-training.

"Nonallowable costs" means the same as "unallowable costs."

"Nonrestricted funds" means funds which are not restricted to a specific use by the donor, e.g., general operating funds.

"Nursing facility occupancy percentage" is determined by multiplying the number of calendar days for the cost report period by the number of licensed beds for the same cost report period. Then, the nursing facility's actual resident days for the same cost report period is divided by the product. When the nursing facility under chapter 70.38 RCW reinstates or reduces the number of licensed beds, then under WAC 388-96-708 or 388-96-709 the number of licensed beds after reinstatement or reduction will be used. In all determinations that require a nursing facility occupancy percentage, the department will use the greater of either a nursing facility's occupancy percentage or eighty-five percent.

"Per diem (per patient day or per resident day) costs" means total allowable costs for a fiscal period divided by total patient or resident days for the same period.

"Prospective daily payment rate" means the rate assigned by the department to a contractor for providing service to medical care recipients prior to the application of settlement principles.

"Recipient" means a medicaid recipient.

"Related care" includes:

- (1) The director of nursing services;
- (2) Activities and social services programs;
- (3) Medical and medical records specialists; and
- (4) Consultation provided by:
 - (a) Medical directors; and
 - (b) Pharmacists.

"Relative" includes:

- (1) Spouse;
- (2) Natural parent, child, or sibling;
- (3) Adopted child or adoptive parent;
- (4) Stepparent, stepchild, stepbrother, stepsister;
- (5) Father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law;
- (6) Grandparent or grandchild; and
- (7) Uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, or cousin.

"Start up costs" means the one-time preopening costs incurred from the time preparation begins on a newly constructed or purchased building until the first patient is admitted. Start up costs include:

- (1) Administrative and nursing salaries;
- (2) Utility costs;
- (3) Taxes;
- (4) Insurance;
- (5) Repairs and maintenance; and
- (6) Training costs.

Start up costs do not include expenditures for capital assets.

"Total rate allocation" means the initial rebased rate for a rebase period effective July 1. If a month and a day, other than July 1, with a year precedes "total rate allocation," it means the initial rebased rate of the rebase period has been amended or updated effective the date that precedes it, e.g., October 1, 1999 direct care component rate allocation.

"Unallowable costs" means costs which do not meet every test of an allowable cost.

"Uniform chart of accounts" means a list of account titles identified by code numbers established by the department for contractors to use in reporting costs.

"Vendor number" means a number assigned to each contractor delivering care services to medical care recipients.

WAC 388-96-020 Prospective cost-related payment.

The nursing facility medicaid payment system is the system used by the department to pay for nursing facility services provided to medical care recipients. Payment for nursing facility care shall be determined in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW. The provisions of chapter 74.46 RCW are incorporated by reference in this chapter as if fully set forth.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.800. 98-20-023, § 388-96-020, filed 9/25/98, effective 10/1/98. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.09.120 and 74.46.800. 85-13-065 (Order 2245), § 388-96-020, filed 6/18/85. WAC 388-96-026 New contractors. (1) For purposes of administering the payment system, the department shall consider a "new contractor" as one who receives a new vendor number and:

(a) Builds from the ground-up a new facility; and operates the new facility with completely new staff, administration and residents. If the "new contractor" operated a nursing facility immediately before the opening of the new facility, then the "new contractor" must operate the new facility with:

(i) Staff and administration that are substantially to completely different than the previous operation of the "new contractor"; and

(ii) A resident population that is substantially to completely different than the residents residing in the previous nursing facility; or

(b) Currently operates, acquires, or assumes responsibility for operating an existing nursing facility that was not operated under a medicaid contract immediately prior to the effective date of the new medicaid contract; or

(c) Purchases or leases a nursing facility that, at the time of the purchase or lease, was operated under a medicaid contract.

(2) A new contractor shall submit:

(a) At least sixty days before the effective date of the contract or assignment, a statement disclosing the identity of individuals or organizations who:

(i) Have a beneficial ownership interest in the current operating entity or the land, building, or equipment of the facility; or

(ii) Have a beneficial ownership interest in the purchasing or leasing entity.

(b) By March 31st of the following year, a cost report for the period from the effective date of the contract or assignment through December 31st of year the contract or assignment was effective.

WAC 388-96-107 Requests for extensions. (1) A contractor may request in writing an extension for submitting cost reports. Contractor requests shall:

(a) Be addressed to the manager, residential rates program;

(b) State the circumstances prohibiting compliance with the report due date; and

(c) Be received by the department at least ten days prior to the due date of the report.

(2) The department may grant two extensions of up to thirty days each, only if the circumstances, stated clearly, indicate the due date cannot be met and the following conditions are present:

(a) The circumstances were not foreseeable by the provider; and

(b) The circumstances were not avoidable by advance planning.

WAC 388-96-117 Certification requirement. The contractor as defined in RCW 74.46.020(13) must certify under penalty of perjury that the cost report or an amendment to it is a true, correct, and complete representation of actual costs related to patient care prepared in accordance with applicable instructions provided by the department, chapter 388-96 WAC, and chapter 74.46 RCW. Further, where other costs not related to patient care are shown, they are classified as unallowable.

WAC 388-96-119 Reports—False information. (1) If a contractor knowingly or with reason to know files a report containing false information, such action constitutes good cause for termination of its contract with the department.

(2) In accordance with RCW 74.46.531, the department will make adjustments to payment rates because a false report was filed.

(3) Contractors filing false reports may be referred for prosecution under applicable statutes.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.46 RCW as amended by 1998 c 322 §§ 19(11) and 31 and RCW 74.46.800. 98-20-023, § 388-96-119, filed 9/25/98, effective 10/1/98; Order 1262, § 388-96-119, filed 12/30/77.]

WAC 388-96-122 Amendments to reports. (1) For the purpose of determining allowable costs, the department shall consider an amendment to an annual report only if filed by the provider before the receipt by the provider of the notification scheduling the department's audit. The contractor may file an amendment subsequent to such notification and pursuant to the provisions of RCW 74.46.531 to adjust a payment rate allocation because of an error or omission. When the provider files an amendment, the department shall consider it only if significant errors or omissions are discovered. The department shall deem errors or omissions "significant" when the errors or omissions would mean a net difference of two cents or more per patient day or one thousand dollars or more in reported costs, whichever is higher, in any component rate allocation. To file an amendment, only those cost report pages where changes appear need to be filed, together with the certification required by WAC 388-96-117.

(2) If an amendment is filed, a contractor shall also submit with the amendment an account of the circumstances relating to and the reasons for the amendment, along with supporting documentation. The department shall refuse to consider an amendment resulting in a more favorable settlement or payment rate allocation to a contractor if the amendment is not the result of circumstances beyond the control of the contractor or the result of good-faith error under the system of cost allocation and accounting in effect during the reporting period in question.

(3) Acceptance or use by the department of an amendment to a cost report shall in no way be construed as a release of applicable civil or criminal liability.

WAC 388-96-202 Scope of audit or department audit. (1) The department will review the contractor's record-keeping and accounting practices and, where appropriate, make written recommendations for improvements.

(2) The department's audit will result in a schedule of summarizing adjustments to the contractor's cost report. The schedule will show whether such adjustments eliminate costs reported or include costs not reported. Each adjustment listed will include an explanation for the adjustment, the cost report account, and the dollar amount. In accordance with chapter 74.46 RCW, the department will comply with the purpose of department audits by verifying that:

(a) Supporting records are in agreement with reported data;

(b) Only those assets, liabilities, and revenue and expense items the department has specified as allowable have been included by the contractor in computing the costs of services provided under its contract;

(c) Allowable costs have been accurately determined and are necessary, ordinary, and related to resident care;

(d) Related organizations and beneficial ownerships or interests have been correctly disclosed;

(e) Home office or central office costs have been reported and allocated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW;

(f) Recipient and nonmedicaid resident trust funds have been properly maintained and disbursed;

(g) Facility receivables do not include benefits or payments to which the provider is not entitled; and

(h) The contractor is otherwise in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(3) In complying with the purpose of department audits in chapter 74.46 RCW, the department may select any or all schedules of a facility's cost report. The department will audit cost reports, resident trust fund accounts, and facility receivables of each nursing facility participating in the medicaid payment system as determined necessary by the department.

(4) When determining the contractor's final settlement, the department will apply to reported costs adjustments written under subsection (2), whether used for the purpose of establishing component rate allocations as described in chapter 74.46 RCW or to ascertain contractor compliance with subsection (2).

WAC 388-96-217 Civil fines. (1) When the department finds that a current or former contractor, or any partner, officer, director, owner of five percent or more of the stock of a current or former corporate contractor, or managing agent has failed or refused to comply with any requirement of chapters 74.46 RCW or 388-96 WAC, the department may assess monetary penalties of a civil nature not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation. Every day of noncompliance with any requirement of chapters 74.46 RCW or 388-96 WAC is a separate violation.

(2) The department may fine a contractor or former contractor or any partner, officer, director, owner of five percent or more of the stock of a current or former corporate contractor, or managing agent for the following but is not limited to the following in its fine assessments:

(a) Failure to file a mathematically accurate and complete cost report, including a final cost report, on or prior to the applicable due date established by this chapter or authorized by extension granted in writing by the department; or

(b) Failure to permit an audit authorized by this chapter or to grant access to all records and documents deemed necessary by the department to complete such an audit.

(3) The department shall send notice of a fine assessed under subsection (2) of this section by certified mail return receipt requested to the current contractor, administrator, or former contractor informing the addressee of the following:

(a) The fine shall become effective the date of receipt of the notice by the addressee; and

(b) If within two weeks of the date of receipt of the notice by the addressee, an acceptable cost report is received by the department; an audit is allowed; or access to documentation is allowed, as applicable, the department may waive the fine.

(4)(a) The department may fine a current or former contractor, or any partner, officer, director, owner of a current or former corporate contractor, or managing agent for failure to comply with RCW 74.46.630.

(b) The department shall send notice of a fine assessed under (a) of this subsection by certified mail, to the current contractor, administrator, or former contractor informing the addressee that the fine shall become effective upon receipt of notice by the addressee.

WAC 388-96-218 Proposed, preliminary, and final settlements. (1) For each component rate, the department shall calculate a proposed, preliminary or final settlement at the lower of prospective payment rate or audited allowable costs, except as otherwise provided in this chapter [and chapter 74.46 RCW].

(2) As part of the cost report, the proposed settlement report is due in accordance with RCW 74.46.040. In the proposed preliminary settlement report, a contractor shall compare the contractor's payment rates during a cost report period, weighted by the number of resident days reported for the same cost report period to the contractor's allowable costs for the cost report period. [In accordance with RCW 74.46.-

100, 74.46.155 and 74.46.165] the contractor shall take into account all authorized shifting, retained savings, and upper limits to rates on a cost center basis.

(a) The department will:

(i) Review the proposed preliminary settlement report for accuracy; and

(ii) Accept or reject the proposal of the contractor. If accepted, the proposed preliminary settlement report shall become the preliminary settlement report. If rejected, the department shall issue, by component payment rate allocation, a preliminary settlement report fully substantiating disallowed costs, refunds, or underpayments due and adjustments to the proposed preliminary settlement.

(b) When the department receives the proposed preliminary settlement report:

(i) By the cost report due date specified in RCW 74.46.040, it will issue the preliminary settlement report within one hundred twenty days of the cost report due date; or

(ii) After the cost report due date specified in RCW 74.46.040, it will issue the preliminary settlement report within one hundred twenty days of the date the cost report was received.

(c) In its discretion, the department may designate a date later than the dates specified in subsection (2)(b)(i) and (ii) of this section to issue preliminary settlements.

(d) A contractor shall have twenty-eight days after receipt of a preliminary settlement report to contest such report under WAC 388-96-901 and 388-96-904. Upon expiration of the twenty-eight day period, the department shall not review or adjust a preliminary settlement report. Any administrative review of a preliminary settlement shall be limited to calculation of the settlement, to the application of settlement principles and rules, or both, and shall not encompass rate or audit issues.

(3) The department shall issue a final settlement report to the contractor after the completion of the department audit process, including exhaustion or termination of any administrative review and appeal of audit findings or determinations requested by the contractor, but not including judicial review as may be available to and commenced by the contractor.

(a) The department shall prepare a final settlement by component payment rate allocation and shall fully substantiate disallowed costs, refunds, underpayments, or adjustments to the cost report and financial statements, reports, and schedules submitted by the contractor. The department shall take into account all authorized shifting, savings, and upper limits to rates on a component payment rate allocation basis. For the final settlement report, the department shall compare:

(i) The payment rates it paid the contractor for the facility in question during the report period, weighted by the number of allowable resident days reported for the period each rate was in effect to the contractor's;

(ii) Audited allowable costs for the reporting period; or

(iii) Reported costs for the nonaudited reporting period.

(b) A contractor shall have twenty-eight days after the receipt of a final settlement report to contest such report pursuant to WAC 388-96-901 and 388-96-904. Upon expiration of the twenty-eight day period, the department shall not review a final settlement report. Any administrative review of a final settlement shall be limited to calculation of the settlement, the application of settlement principles and rules, or both, and shall not encompass rate or audit issues.

(c) The department shall reopen a final settlement if it is necessary to make adjustments based upon findings resulting from a department audit performed pursuant to RCW 74.46-100. The department may also reopen a final settlement to recover an industrial insurance dividend or premium discount under RCW 51.16.035 in proportion to a contractor's medicare recipient days.

(4)(a) In computing a preliminary or final settlement, a contractor must comply with the requirements of RCW 74.46.165 (2), (3), and (4) for retaining or refunding to the department payments made in excess of the adjusted costs of providing services corresponding to each component rate allocation.

(b) The facility shall refund all amounts due the department within sixty days after the date of decision or termination plus interest on any unpaid balance after sixty days will accrue at one percent per month. Repayment will be without prejudice to obtain review of the settlement determination pursuant to WAC 388-96-901 and 388-96-904. After an administrative hearing and/or judicial review, if the payment obligation is reduced, then the department will rescind the difference between the accrued interest on the payment obligation and the interest that would have accrued on the reduced payment obligation from the date interest began to accrue on the original payment obligation.

(5) In determining whether a facility has forfeited unused rate funds in its direct care, therapy care and support services component rates under authority of RCW 74.46.165, the following rules shall apply:

(a) Federal or state survey officials shall determine when a facility is not in substantial compliance or is providing substandard care, according to federal and state nursing facility survey regulations;

(b) Correspondence from state or federal survey officials notifying a facility of its compliance status shall be used to determine the beginning and ending dates of any period(s) of noncompliance; and

(c) Forfeiture shall occur if the facility was out of substantial compliance more than ninety days during the settlement period. The ninety-day period need not be continuous if the number of days of noncompliance exceed ninety days during the settlement period regardless of the length of the settlement period. Also, forfeiture shall occur if the nursing facility was determined to have provided substandard quality of care at any time during the settlement period.

(6)(a) For calendar year 1998, the department will calculate two settlements covering the following periods:

(i) January 1, 1998 through September 30, 1998; and

(ii) October 1, 1998 through December 31, 1998.

(b) The department will use medicare rates weighted by total patient days (i.e., medicare and non-medicare days) to divide 1998 costs between the two settlement periods identified in subsection (6)(a) of this section.

(c) The department will net the two settlements for 1998 to determine a nursing facility's 1998 settlement.

Reviser's note: RCW 34.05.395 requires the use of underlining and deletion marks to indicate amendments to existing rules, and deems ineffectual changes not filed by the agency in this manner. The bracketed material in the above section does not appear to conform to the statutory requirement.

WAC 388-96-310 Interest on other excess payments.

(1) Any contractor obtaining benefits or payments under the medical assistance program to which such contractor is not entitled or in an amount to which such contractor is not entitled, shall be liable for such benefits or payments received and for interest on the amount of benefits or payments from the date of receipt until repayment is made to the department at the rate of one percent per month, unless the contractor establishes the overpayment was the result of errors made by the department.

(2) Interest charged by the department or interest expense incurred by the contractor, from whatever source, in making refund to the department shall not be reimbursable by the department as an allowable cost. The contractor may, by payment of a disputed settlement in whole or in part, stop accrual of interest on the amount paid. Such payment will be without prejudice to obtain review of a settlement determination.

WAC 388-96-366 Facility records and handling of resident moneys. (1) A nursing facility may not require residents to deposit personal funds with the facility. A facility may hold a resident's personal funds only if the resident or resident's guardian provides written authorization.

(2) Once a nursing facility accepts the written authorization of the resident or resident's guardian, the facility shall hold, safeguard, and account for such personal funds under an established system in accordance with this chapter. The nursing facility shall establish and maintain as a service to the residents a bookkeeping system, incorporated in the business records and adequate for audit, for all resident moneys received by the facility.

(3) The nursing facility shall maintain the resident's or guardian's written authorization in the resident's file. The facility shall deposit any resident's personal funds in excess of fifty dollars in an interest-bearing resident personal fund account or accounts, separate from any of the facility's operating accounts, and credit all interest earned on an account to the account. With respect to any other personal funds, the facility shall keep such funds in a noninterest-bearing account or petty cash fund maintained for residents.

(4) The facility shall give the resident at least a quarterly reporting of all financial transactions involving personal funds held for the resident by the facility. The facility shall send the representative payee, the guardian, or other designated agents of the resident a copy of the quarterly accounting report.

(5) The nursing facility shall further maintain a written record of all personal property deposited with the facility for safekeeping by or for the resident. The facility shall issue or obtain written receipts upon taking possession or disposing of such property and retain copies and/or originals of such receipts. The facility shall maintain records adequate for audit.

(6) The facility shall purchase a surety bond, or otherwise provide assurances or security satisfactory to the department, to assure the security of all personal funds of residents deposited with the facility.

WAC 388-96-369 The nursing facility shall maintain a subsidiary ledger with an account for each resident for whom the facility holds money.

(1) The facility shall assure a full and complete separate accounting of each resident's personal funds. Each account record and related supporting information and documentation shall:

- (a) Be maintained at the facility;
- (b) Be kept current;
- (c) Be balanced each month; and
- (d) Show in writing and in detail, with supporting verification, all moneys received on behalf of the individual resident and the disposition of all moneys so received.

(2) Each account shall be reasonably accessible to the resident or the resident's guardian or legal representative and shall be available for audit and inspection by a department representative. Each account shall be maintained for a minimum of four years. A medicaid provider shall notify each Title XIX medicaid recipient or guardian and the home and community services office of the department that serves the area when the amount in the account of any Title XIX medicaid recipient reaches two hundred dollars less than the applicable dollar resource limit for supplemental security income (SSI) eligibility set forth in Title XVI of the Social Security Act.

(3) When notice is given under subsection (2) of this section, the facility shall notify the recipient or guardian that if the amount in the account, in addition to the value of the recipient's other nonexempt resources, reaches the dollar resource limit determined under Title XVI, the recipient may lose eligibility for SSI medical assistance or benefits under Title XVI.

(4) After the recipient's admission to the facility, accumulation toward the Title XVI limit is permitted only from the clothing and personal incidentals allowance and other income that the department specifically designates as exempt income.

(5) No resident funds may be overdrawn (show a debit balance). If a resident wants to spend an amount greater than the facility is holding for the resident, the home may provide money from its own funds and collect the debt by installments from that portion of the resident's allowance remaining at the end of each month. No interest may be charged to residents for such loans.

(6) The facility may not impose a charge against the personal funds of a medicare or medicaid recipient for any item or service for which payment is made under the Title XVIII medicare program or the Title XIX medicaid program. In order to ensure that medicaid recipients are not charged for services provided under the Title XIX program, any charge for medical services otherwise properly made to a recipient's personal funds shall be supported by a written denial from the department.

(a) Mobility aids including walkers, wheelchairs, or crutches requested for the exclusive use by a medicaid recipient shall have a written denial from the department of social and health services before a recipient's personal funds may be charged.

(b) Requests for medically necessary services and supplies not funded under the provisions of chapter 388-96 WAC or chapter 388-86 WAC (reimbursement rate or coupon system) shall have a written denial from the department before a medicaid recipient's personal funds may be charged.

(c) A written denial from the department is not required when the pharmacist verifies that a drug is not covered by the program, e.g., items on the FDA list of ineffective or possible effective drugs, nonformulary over-the-counter (OTC) medications. The pharmacist's notation to this effect is sufficient.

WAC 388-96-372 The nursing facility may maintain a petty cash fund originating from resident personal funds of an amount reasonable and necessary for the size of the facility and the needs of the residents. (1) This petty cash fund shall be an imprest fund limited to one thousand dollars unless the facility demonstrates good cause for the department to grant a higher limit. All moneys over and above the petty cash limit shall be deposited intact in an interest bearing account or accounts maintained for resident personal funds, separate and apart from any other bank account of the facility or other facilities. All interest earned on an account containing resident personal funds shall be credited to such account.

(2) Cash deposits of recipient allowances must be made intact to the resident personal fund account within one week from the time that payment is received from the department, Social Security Administration, or other payer.

(3) Any related bankbooks, bank statements, checkbook, check register, and all voided and cancelled checks, shall be made available for audit and inspection by a department representative, and shall be maintained by the home for not less than four years.

(4) No service charges for such checking account shall be paid by residents or deducted from resident personal funds.

(5) The resident personal fund account or accounts per bank shall be reconciled monthly to the resident personal funds per resident ledgers.

WAC 388-96-375 Resident personal funds control/disbursement. Personal funds shall be held and used for the benefit of the resident and are not to be turned over to anyone other than the resident or the resident's guardian without the written consent of the resident, the resident's designated agent as appointed by power of attorney, or appropriate department of social and health services personnel as designated by the CSO administrator.

(1) When money is received, a receipt shall be filled out in duplicate:

(a) One copy shall be given to the person making payment or deposit; and

(b) The other copy shall be retained in the receipt book for easy reference.

(2) Checks received by residents shall be endorsed by the resident. Schedule I-A(6e) of the agreement states in part: "Each patient receiving a check or state warrant is responsible for endorsement by his own signature. Only when the patient is incapable of signing his name may the Provider assume the responsibility of securing the patient's mark "X" followed by the name of the patient and the signature of two witnesses."

(3) If both a facility operating account and a resident personal fund account are at the same bank, the resident portion of checks which include care payments can be deposited directly to the resident account by including a resident account deposit slip for the correct amount with the checks and the operating account deposit slip.

(4) The resident's ledger sheet shall be credited with the allowance received. This shall be referenced with the receipt number and shall be supported by a copy of the deposit slip (one copy for all deposits made).

WAC 388-96-384 Liquidation or transfer of resident personal funds. (1) Upon the death of a resident, the facility shall promptly convey the resident's personal funds held by the facility with a final accounting of such funds to the department or to the individual or probate jurisdiction administering the resident's estate.

(a) If the deceased resident was a recipient of long-term care services paid for in whole or in part by the state of Washington then the personal funds held by the facility and the final accounting shall be sent to the state of Washington, department of social and health services, office of financial recovery (or successor office).

(b) The personal funds of the deceased resident and final accounting must be conveyed to the individual or probate jurisdiction administering the resident's estate or to the state of Washington, department of social and health services, office of financial recovery (or successor office) no later than the thirtieth day after the date of the resident's death.

(i) When the personal funds of the deceased resident are to be paid to the state of Washington, those funds shall be paid by the facility with a check, money order, certified check or cashier's check made payable to the secretary, department of social and health services, and mailed to the Office of Financial Recovery, Estate Recovery Unit, P.O. Box 9501, Olympia, Washington 98507-9501, or such address as may be directed by the department in the future.

(ii) The check, money order, certified check or cashier's check or the statement accompanying the payment shall contain the name and social security number of the deceased individual from whose personal funds account the moneys are being paid.

(c) The department of social and health services shall establish a release procedure for use of funds necessary for burial expenses.

(2) In situations where the resident leaves the nursing home without authorization and the resident's whereabouts is unknown:

(a) The nursing facility shall make a reasonable attempt to locate the missing resident. This includes contacting:

- (i) Friends,
- (ii) Relatives,
- (iii) Police,
- (iv) The guardian, and
- (v) The home and community services office in the area.

(b) If the resident cannot be located after ninety days, the nursing facility shall notify the department of revenue of the existence of "abandoned property," outlined in chapter 63.29 RCW. The nursing facility shall deliver to the department of revenue the balance of the resident's personal funds within twenty days following such notification.

(3) Prior to the sale or other transfer of ownership of the nursing facility business, the facility operator shall:

(a) Provide each resident or resident representative with a written accounting of any personal funds held by the facility;

(b) Provide the new operator with a written accounting of all resident funds being transferred; and

(c) Obtain a written receipt for those funds from the new operator.

WAC 388-96-505 Offset of miscellaneous revenues.

(1) The contractor shall reduce allowable costs whenever the item, service, or activity covered by such costs generates revenue or financial benefits (e.g., purchase discounts, refunds of allowable costs or rebates) other than through the contractor's normal billing for care services; except, the department shall not deduct from the allowable costs of a nonprofit facility unrestricted grants, gifts, and endowments, and interest therefrom.

(2) The contractor shall reduce allowable costs for hold-bed revenue in the support services, operations and property rate components only. In the support services rate component, the amount of reduction shall be determined by dividing a facility's allowable housekeeping costs by total adjusted patient days and multiplying the result by total hold-room days. In the operations rate component, the amount of the reduction shall be determined by dividing a facility's allowable operation costs by total adjusted patient days and multiplying the result by total hold-room days. In the property rate component, the amount of reduction shall be determined by dividing allowable property costs by the total adjusted patient days and multiplying the result by total hold-room days.

(3) Where goods or services are sold, the amount of the reduction shall be the actual cost relating to the item, service, or activity. In the absence of adequate documentation of cost, it shall be the full amount of the revenue received. Where financial benefits such as purchase discounts, refunds of allowable costs or rebates are received, the amount of the reduction shall be the amount of the discount or rebate. Financial benefits such as purchase discounts, refunds of allowable costs and rebates, including industrial insurance rebates, shall be offset against allowable costs in the year the contractor actually receives the benefits.

(4) Only allowable costs shall be recovered under this section. Costs allocable to activities or services not included in nursing facility services, e.g., costs of vending machines and services specified in chapter 388-86 WAC not included in nursing facility services, are nonallowable costs.

WAC 388-96-534 Joint cost allocation disclosure (JCAD). (1) The contractor shall disclose to the department:

(a) The nature and purpose of all costs representing allocations of joint facility costs; and

(b) The methodology of the allocation utilized.

(2) The contractor shall demonstrate in such disclosure:

(a) The services involved are necessary and nonduplicative; and

(b) Costs are allocated in accordance with benefits received from the resources represented by those costs.

(3) The contractor shall make such disclosure not later than September 30th for the following year; except, a new contractor shall submit the first year's disclosure together with the submissions required by WAC 388-96-026. Within this section, the meaning of the:

(a) "Effective date" is the date the department will recognize allocation per an approved JCAD; and

(b) "Implementation date" is the date the facility will begin or began incurring joint facility costs.

(4) The department shall determine the acceptability of the JCAD methodology not later than December 31 of each year for all JCADs received by September 30th.

(a) The effective date of an acceptable JCAD that was received by September 30th is January 1st.

(b) The effective date of an acceptable JCAD that was received after September 30th shall be ninety days from the date the JCAD was received by the department.

(5) The contractor shall submit to the department for approval an amendment or revision to an approved JCAD methodology at least thirty days prior to the implementation date of the amendment or revision. For amendments or revisions received less than thirty days before the implementation date, the effective date of approval will be thirty days from the date the JCAD is received by the department.

(6) When a contractor, who is not currently incurring joint facility costs, begins to incur joint facility costs during the calendar year, the contractor shall provide the information required in subsections (1) and (2) of this section at least ninety days prior to the implementation date. If the JCAD is not received ninety days before the implementation date, the effective date of the approval will be ninety days from the date the JCAD is received by the department.

(7) Joint facility costs not disclosed, allocated, and reported in conformity with this section are nonallowable costs. Joint facility costs incurred before the effective dates of subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this section are unallowable.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 533]

Costs disclosed, allocated, and reported in conformity with a department-approved JCAD methodology must undergo review and be determined allowable costs for the purposes of rate setting and audit.

WAC 388-96-535 Management agreements, management fees, and central office services. (1) The contractor shall disclose to the department the nature and purpose of the management agreement, including an organizational chart showing the relationship between the contractor, management company and all related organizations. The department may request additional information or clarification.

(2) Acceptance of a management agreement may not be construed as a determination that all management fees or costs are allowable in whole or in part. Management fees or costs not disclosed or approved in conformity with chapter 74.46 RCW and this section are unallowable. When necessary for the health and safety of medical care recipients, the department may waive the sixty-day or thirty-day advance notice requirement of RCW 74.46.280 in writing.

(3) Management fees are allowable only for necessary, nonduplicative services that are of the nature and magnitude that prudent and cost-conscious management would pay. Costs of services, facilities, supplies and employees furnished by the management company are subject to RCW 74.46.220.

(4) Allowable fees for all general management services of any kind referenced in this section, including corporate or business entity management and management fees not allocated to specific services, are subject to any applicable cost center limit established in chapter 74.46 RCW.

(5) Central office costs, owner's compensation, and other fees or compensation, including joint facility costs, for general administrative and management services, including management expense not allocated to specific services, shall be subject to any cost center limit established by chapter 74.46 RCW.

(6) Necessary travel and housing expenses of nonresident staff working at a contractor's nursing facility shall be considered allowable costs if the visit does not exceed three weeks.

(7) Bonuses paid to employees at a contractor's nursing facility or management company shall be considered compensation.

WAC 388-96-536 Does the department limit the allowable compensation for an owner or relative of an owner? (1) The department shall limit total compensation of an owner or relative of an owner to ordinary compensation for necessary services actually performed.

(a) Compensation is ordinary if it is the amount usually paid for comparable services in a comparable facility to an unrelated employee, and does not exceed any applicable limit set out in chapter 74.46 RCW.

(b) A service is necessary if it is related to patient care and would have had to be performed by another person if the owner or relative had not done it.

(2) If the service provided would require licensed staff, e.g., RN, then the same license standard must be met when performed by an owner, relative or other administrative personnel.

WAC 388-96-540 Will the department allow the cost of an administrator-in-training? (1) The department shall not allow costs of an administrator-in-training for the purpose of setting the operations component prospective payment rate allocation.

(2) The department shall pay the costs of an approved administrator-in-training program by an add-on to the current prospective payment rate, unless the operations cost center is at or above the median cost limit for the facility's peer group reduced or increased under chapter 74.46 RCW.

(3) To obtain a rate add-on, the contractor shall submit a request for an add-on to its current prospective rate together with necessary documentation which shall include:

(a) A copy of the department of licensing approval of the administrator-in-training program, and

(b) A schedule indicating the commencement date, expected termination date, salary or wage, hours, and costs of benefits. The contractor shall notify the department, at least thirty days in advance, of the actual termination date of the administrator-in-training program. Upon termination of the program, the department shall reduce the current prospective rate by an amount corresponding to the rate add-on.

(4) If the contractor does not use the administrator-in-training funds for the purpose for which they were granted, the department shall immediately recoup the misspent or unused funds.

WAC 388-96-542 Home office or central office. (1) The department shall audit the home office or central office whenever a nursing facility receiving such services is audited.

(2)(a) Assets used in the provision of services by or to a nursing facility, but not located on the premises of the nursing facility, shall not be included in net invested funds or in the calculation of property payment for the nursing facility.

(b) The nursing facility may allocate depreciation, interest expense, and operating lease expense for the home office, central office, and other off-premises assets to the cost of the services provided to or by the nursing facility on a reasonable statistical basis approved by the department.

(2009 Ed.)

(c) The allocated costs of (b) of this subsection may be included in the cost of services in such cost centers where such services and related costs are appropriately reported.

(3) Home office or central office costs must be allocated and reported in conformity with the department-approved JCAD methodology as required by WAC 388-96-534.

(4) Home office or central office costs are subject to the limitation specified in RCW 74.46.410.

WAC 388-96-553 Capitalization. The following costs shall be capitalized:

(1) Expenditures for depreciable assets with historical cost in excess of seven hundred fifty dollars per unit and a useful life of more than one year from the date of purchase;

(2) Expenditures and costs for depreciable assets with historical cost of seven hundred fifty dollars or less per unit if either:

(a) The depreciable asset was acquired in a group purchase where the total cost exceeded seven hundred fifty dollars; or

(b) The depreciable asset was part of the initial equipment or stock of the nursing home; and

(3) Expenditures for any change, including repairs with a cost in excess of seven hundred fifty dollars that increases the useful life of the depreciable asset by two years or more.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.310, [74.46.]320 and [74.46.]330. 97-17-040, § 388-96-553, filed 8/14/97, effective 9/14/97. WAC 388-96-554 Expensing. The following costs shall be expensed:

(1) Expenditures for depreciable assets with historical cost of seven hundred fifty dollars or less per unit or a useful life of one year or less from the date of purchase.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply if:

(a) The depreciable asset was acquired in a group purchase where the total cost exceeded seven hundred fifty dollars; or

(b) The depreciable asset was part of the initial equipment or stock of the nursing home.

(3) Expenditures for and costs of building and other real property items, components and improvements, whether for leased or owner-operated facilities, of seven hundred and fifty dollars or less.

(4) Expenditures for and costs of repairs necessary to maintain the useful life of equipment, including furniture and furnishings, and real property items, components or improvements which do not increase the useful life of the asset by two years or more. If a repair is to the interior or exterior of the structure, the term "asset" shall refer to the structure.

(5) Remaining undepreciated cost of equipment, including furniture or furnishings or real property items, components, or improvements which are retired and not replaced, provided such cost shall be offset by any proceeds or compensations received for such assets, and such cost shall be expensed only if the contractor has made a reasonable effort to recover at least the outstanding book value of such assets. If a retired asset is replaced, WAC 388-96-572(3) shall apply and the replacement or renewal shall be capitalized if required by WAC 388-96-553.

WAC 388-96-559 Cost basis of land and depreciation base. (1) For all partial or whole rate periods after December 31, 1984 unless otherwise provided or limited by this chapter or by this section, chapter 388-96 WAC or chapter 74.46 RCW, the total depreciation base of depreciable assets and the cost basis of land shall be the lowest of:

(a) The contractor's appraisal, if any;

(b) The department's appraisal obtained through the department of general administration of the state of Washington, if any; or

(c) The historical purchase cost of the contractor, or lessor if the assets are leased by the contractor, in acquiring ownership of the asset in an arm's-length transaction, and preparing the asset for use, less goodwill, and less accumulated depreciation, if applicable, incurred during periods the assets have been used in or as a facility by any and all contractors. Such accumulated depreciation is to be measured in accordance with WAC 388-96-561, 388-96-565, chapter 388-96 WAC, and chapter 74.46 RCW. Where the straight-line or sum-of-the-years digits method of depreciation is used the contractor:

(i) May deduct salvage values from historical costs for each cloth based item, e.g., mattresses, linen, and draperies; and

(ii) Shall deduct salvage values from historical costs of at least:

(A) Five percent of the historical value for each noncloth item included in moveable equipment; and

(B) Twenty-five percent of the historical value for each vehicle.

(2) Unless otherwise provided or limited by this chapter or by chapter 74.46 RCW, the department shall, in determining the total depreciation base of a depreciable real or personal asset owned or leased by the contractor, deduct depreciation relating to all periods subsequent to the more recent of:

(a) The date such asset was first used in the medical care program; or

(b) The most recent date such asset was acquired in an arm's-length purchase transaction which the department is required to recognize for medicaid cost reimbursement purposes.

No depreciation shall be deducted for periods such asset was not used in the medical care program or was not used to provide nursing care.

(3) The department may have the fair market value of the asset at the time of purchase established by appraisal through the department of general administration of the state of Washington if:

(a) The department challenges the historical cost of an asset; or

[Title 388 WAC—p. 535]

(b) The contractor cannot or will not provide the historical cost of a leased asset and the department is unable to determine such historical cost from its own records or from any other source.

The contractor may allocate or reallocate values among land, building, improvements, and equipment in accordance with the department's appraisal.

If an appraisal is conducted, the depreciation base of the asset and cost basis of land will not exceed the fair market value of the asset. An appraisal conducted by or through the department of general administration shall be final unless the appraisal is shown to be arbitrary and capricious.

(4) If the land and depreciable assets of a newly constructed nursing facility were never used in or as a nursing facility before being purchased from the builder, the cost basis and the depreciation base shall be the lesser of:

(a) Documented actual cost of the builder; or

(b) The approved amount of the certificate of need issued to the builder.

When the builder is unable or unwilling to document its costs, the cost basis and the depreciation base shall be the approved amount of the certificate of need.

(5) For leased assets, the department may examine documentation in its files or otherwise obtainable from any source to determine:

(a) The lessor's purchase acquisition date; or

(b) The lessor's historical cost at the time of the last arm's-length purchase transaction.

If the department is unable to determine the lessor's acquisition date by review of its records or other records, the department, in determining fair market value as of such date, may use the construction date of the facility, as found in the state fire marshal's records or other records, as the lessor's purchase acquisition date of leased assets.

(6) For all rate periods past or future, where depreciable assets or land are acquired from a related organization, the contractor's depreciation base and land cost basis shall not exceed the base and basis the related organization had or would have had under a contract with the department.

(7) If a contractor cannot or will not provide the lessor's purchase acquisition cost of assets leased by the contractor and the department is unable to determine historical purchase cost from another source, the appraised asset value of land, building, or equipment, determined by or through the department of general administration shall be adjusted, if necessary, by the department using the Marshall and Swift Valuation Guide to reflect the value at the lessor's acquisition date. If an appraisal has been prepared for leased assets and the assets subsequently sell in the first arm's-length transaction since January 1, 1980, under subsection (9) of this section, the Marshall and Swift Valuation Guide will be used to adjust, if necessary, the asset value determined by the appraisal to the sale date. If the assets are located in a city for which the Marshall and Swift Valuation Guide publishes a specific index, or if the assets are located in a county containing that city, the city-specific index shall be used to adjust the appraised value of the asset. If the assets are located in a city or county for which a specific index is not calculated, the Western District Index calculated by Marshall and Swift shall be used.

(8) For new or replacement building construction or for substantial building additions requiring the acquisition of land and which commenced to operate on or after July 1, 1997, the department shall determine allowable land costs of the additional land acquired for the new or replacement construction or for substantial building additions to be the lesser of:

(a) The contractor's or lessor's actual cost per square foot; or

(b) The square foot land value as established by an appraisal that meets the latest publication of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) and the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 (FIRREA). The department shall obtain a USPAP appraisal that meets FIRREA first from:

(i) An arms'-length lender that has accepted the ordered appraisal; or

(ii) If the department is unable to obtain from the arms'-length lender a lender-approved appraisal meeting USPAP and FIRREA standards or if the contractor or lessor is unable or unwilling to provide or cause to be provided a lender-approved appraisal meeting USPAP and FIRREA standards, then:

(A) The department shall order such an appraisal; and

(B) The contractor shall immediately reimburse the department for the costs incurred in obtaining the USPAP and FIRREA appraisal.

(9) Except as provided for in subsection (8) of this section, for all rates effective on or after January 1, 1985, if depreciable assets or land are acquired by purchase which were used in the medical care program on or after January 1, 1980, the depreciation base or cost basis of such assets shall not exceed the net book value existing at the time of such acquisition or which would have existed had the assets continued in use under the previous medicaid contract with the department; except that depreciation shall not be accumulated for periods during which such assets were not used in the medical care program or were not in use in or as a nursing care facility.

(10)(a) Subsection (9) of this section shall not apply to the most recent arm's-length purchase acquisition if it occurs ten years or more after the previous arm's-length transfer of ownership nor shall subsection (9) of this section apply to the first arm's-length purchase acquisition of assets occurring on or after January 1, 1980, for facilities participating in the medicaid program before January 1, 1980. The depreciation base or cost basis for such acquisitions shall not exceed the lesser of the fair market value as of the date of purchase of the assets determined by an appraisal conducted by or through the department of general administration or the owner's acquisition cost of each asset, land, building, or equipment. An appraisal conducted by or through the department of general administration shall be final unless the appraisal is shown to be arbitrary and capricious. Should a contractor request a revaluation of an asset, the contractor must document ten years have passed since the most recent arm's-length transfer of ownership. As mandated by Section 2314 of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 (P.L. 98-369) and state statutory amendments, and under RCW 74.46.840, for all partial or whole rate periods after July 17, 1984, this subsection is inoperative for any transfer of ownership of any asset, including land and all depreciable or nondepreciable assets, occurring on or after July 18, 1984, leaving subsection (9) of this section to apply without exception to acquisitions occurring on or after July 18, 1984, except as provided in subsections (10)(b) and (11) of this section.

(b) For all rates after July 17, 1984, subsection (8)(a) shall apply, however, to transfers of ownership of assets:

(i) Occurring before January 1, 1985, if the costs of such assets have never been reimbursed under medicaid cost reimbursement on an owner-operated basis or as a related party lease; or

(ii) Under written and enforceable purchase and sale agreements dated before July 18, 1984, which are documented and submitted to the department before January 1, 1988.

(c) For purposes of medicaid cost reimbursement under this chapter, an otherwise enforceable agreement to purchase a nursing home dated before July 18, 1984, shall be considered enforceable even though the agreement contains:

(i) No legal description of the real property involved; or

(ii) An inaccurate legal description, notwithstanding the statute of frauds or any other provision of law.

(11)(a) In the case of land or depreciable assets leased by the same contractor since January 1, 1980, in an arm's-length lease, and purchased by the lessee/contractor, the lessee/contractor shall have the option to have the:

(i) Provisions of subsection (10) of this section apply to the purchase; or

(ii) Component rate allocations for property and financing allowance calculated under the provisions of chapter 74.46 RCW. Component rate allocations will be based upon provisions of the lease in existence on the date of the purchase, but only if the purchase date meets the criteria of RCW 74.46.360 (6)(c)(ii)(A) through (D).

(b) The lessee/contractor may select the option in subsection (11)(a)(ii) of this section only when the purchase date meets one of the following criteria. The purchase date is:

(i) After the lessor has declared bankruptcy or has defaulted in any loan or mortgage held against the leased property;

(ii) Within one year of the lease expiration or renewal date contained in the lease;

(iii) After a rate setting for the facility in which the reimbursement rate set, under this chapter and under chapter 74.46 RCW, no longer is equal to or greater than the actual cost of the lease; or

(iv) Within one year of any purchase option in existence on January 1, 1988.

(12) For purposes of establishing the property and financing allowance component rate allocations, the value of leased equipment, if unknown by the contractor, may be estimated by the department using previous department of general administration appraisals as a data base. The estimated value may be adjusted using the Marshall and Swift Valuation Guide to reflect the value of the asset at the lessor's purchase acquisition date.

WAC 388-96-561 Cost basis of land and depreciation base—Donated or inherited assets. (1) The cost basis or depreciation base of land or depreciable assets, either donated[,] or received through testate or intestate distribution, will be the lesser of:

(a) Fair market value at the date of donation or death, less goodwill, provided the estimated salvage value shall be deducted from fair market value where the straight-line or sum-of-the-years digits method of depreciation is used; or

(b) The historical cost of the owner last contracting with the department, if any.

(2) When the donation or distribution is between related organizations, the base shall be the lesser of:

(a) Fair market value, less goodwill and, where appropriate, salvage value; or

(b) The depreciation base or cost basis the related organization had or would have had for the asset under a contract with the department.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, for all rates after July 17, 1984, neither the depreciation base of depreciable assets nor the cost basis of land shall increase for reimbursement purposes if the asset is donated or acquired through testate or intestate distribution on or after July 18, 1984, the enactment date of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984.

WAC 388-96-565 Lives. (1) Except for new buildings replacement buildings, major remodels and major repair projects as defined in subsection (5) of this section, to compute allowable depreciation, the contractor must use lives reflecting the estimated actual useful life of the assets (e.g., land improvements, buildings, including major remodels and major repair projects, equipment, leasehold improvements, etc.). (2) To compute allowable depreciation for major remodels and major repair projects as defined in subsection (5) of this section that began operating:

(a) Before July 1, 1997, the contractor must use the shortest lives in the most recently published lives for construction classes as defined and described in the Marshall Valuation Service published by the Marshall Swift Publication Company; or

[Title 388 WAC—p. 537]

(b) After July 1, 1997, the contractor must use the shortest lives of the guideline lives in the most current edition of Estimated Useful Lives of Depreciable Hospital Assets published by American Hospital Publishing, Inc.

(3) To compute allowable depreciation for new buildings and replacement buildings as defined in subsection (5) of this section that:

(a) Began operating before July 1, 1997, the contractor must use the construction classes as defined and described in Marshall Valuation Service published by the Marshall Swift Publication Company; provided that, thirty years is the shortest life that may be used;

(b) Began operating on or after July 1, 1997, the contractor must use the most current edition of Estimated Useful Lives of Depreciable Hospital Assets published by American Hospital Publishing, Inc.; provided that, thirty years is shortest life that may be used; and

(c) Received certificate of need approval or certificate of need exemptions under chapter 70.38 RCW on or after July 1, 1999, the contractor must use the most current edition of Estimated Useful Lives of Depreciable Assets published by American Hospital Publishing, Inc.; provided that, forty years is the shortest life that may be used.

(4) To compute allowable depreciation, the contractor must:

(a) Measure lives from the most recent of either the date on which the assets were first used in the medical care program or the last date of purchase of the asset through an arm's-length acquisition; and

(b) Extend lives to reflect periods, if any, during which assets were not used in a nursing facility or as a nursing facility.

(5) New buildings, replacement buildings, major remodels, and major repair projects are those projects that meet or exceed the expenditure minimum established by the department of health pursuant to chapter 70.38 RCW.

(6) Contractors shall depreciate building improvements other than major remodels and major repairs defined in subsection (5) of this section over the remaining useful life of the building, as modified by the improvement, but not less than fifteen years.

(7) Improvements to leased property which are the responsibility of the contractor under the terms of the lease shall be depreciated over the useful life of the improvement in accordance with American Hospital Association guidelines.

(8) A contractor may change the estimate of an asset's useful life to a longer life for purposes of depreciation.

(9) For new or replacement building construction or for major renovations receiving certificate of need approval or exemption under chapter 70.38 RCW on or after July 1, 1999, the department will depreciate fixed equipment the same number of years as the life of the building to which it is affixed.

WAC 388-96-572 Handling of gains and losses upon retirement of depreciable assets—Other periods. (1) This section shall apply in the place of WAC 388-96-571 effective January 1, 1981, for purposes of settlement for settlement periods subsequent to that date, and for purposes of setting rates for rate periods beginning July 1, 1982, and subsequently.

(2) A gain or loss on the retirement of an asset shall be the difference between the remaining undepreciated base and any proceeds received for, or to compensate for loss of, the asset.

(3) If the retired asset is replaced, the gain or loss shall be applied against or added to the cost of the replacement asset, provided that a loss will only be so applied if the contractor has made a reasonable effort to recover at least the outstanding book value of the asset.

(4) If the retired asset is not replaced, any gain shall be offset against property expense for the period during which it is retired and any loss shall be expensed subject to the provisions of WAC 388-96-554.

WAC 388-96-580 Operating leases of office equipment. (1) Rental costs of office equipment under arm's-length operating leases shall be allowable to the extent such costs are necessary, ordinary, and related to patient care.

(2) The department shall pay office equipment rental costs in the operations component rate allocation. Office equipment may include items typically used in administrative or clerical functions such as telephones, copy machines, desks and chairs, calculators and adding machines, file cabinets, typewriters, and computers.

(3) The department shall not pay for depreciation of leased office equipment.

WAC 388-96-585 Unallowable costs. (1) The department shall not allow costs if not documented, necessary, ordinary, and related to the provision of care services to authorized patients. Unallowable costs listed in subsection (2) of this section represent a partial summary of such costs, in addition to those unallowable under chapter 74.46 RCW and this chapter.

(2) The department shall include, but not limit, unallowable costs to the following:

(a) Costs in excess of limits or violating principles set forth in this chapter;

(b) Costs resulting from transactions or the application of accounting methods circumventing principles set forth in this chapter;

(c) Bad debts. Beginning July 1, 1983, the department shall allow bad debts of Title XIX recipients only if:

(i) The debt is related to covered services;

(ii) It arises from the recipient's required contribution toward the cost of care;

(iii) The provider can establish reasonable collection efforts were made;

(iv) The debt was actually uncollectible when claimed as worthless; and

(v) Sound business judgment established there was no likelihood of recovery at any time in the future.

Reasonable collection efforts shall consist of at least three documented attempts by the contractor to obtain payment demonstrating that the effort devoted to collecting the bad debts of Title XIX recipients is the same devoted by the contractor to collect the bad debts of non-Title XIX recipients;

(d) Any portion of trade association dues attributable to legal and consultant fees and costs in connection with lawsuits or other legal action against the department shall be unallowable;

(e) Legal and consultant fees in connection with a fair hearing against the department relating to those issues where:

(i) A final administrative decision is rendered in favor of the department or where otherwise the determination of the department stands at the termination of administrative review; or

(ii) In connection with a fair hearing, a final administrative decision has not been rendered; or

(iii) In connection with a fair hearing, related costs are not reported as unallowable and identified by fair hearing docket number in the period they are incurred if no final administrative decision has been rendered at the end of the report period; or

(iv) In connection with a fair hearing, related costs are not reported as allowable, identified by docket number, and prorated by the number of issues decided favorably to a contractor in the period a final administrative decision is rendered;

(f) All interest costs not specifically allowed in this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW; and

(g) Increased costs resulting from a series of transactions between the same parties and involving the same assets, e.g., sale and lease back, successive sales or leases of a single facility or piece of equipment.

WAC 388-96-704 Prospective payment rates. The department, as provided in chapter 74.46 RCW and this chapter, shall determine, adjust, or update prospective medicaid payment rates for nursing facility services provided to medical care recipients. Each rate, subject to the principles of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW, represents a nursing facility's maximum compensation for one resident day of care provided a medical care recipient determined by the department to both require and be eligible to receive nursing facility care.

WAC 388-96-708 Reinstatement of beds previously removed from service under chapter 70.38 RCW—Effect on prospective payment rate. (1) After removing beds from service (banked) under the provisions of chapter 70.38 RCW, the contractor may bring back into service beds that were previously banked.

(2) When the contractor returns to service beds banked under the provisions of chapter 70.38 RCW, the department will recalculate the contractor's prospective medicaid payment rate allocations using the greater of actual days from the cost report period on which the rate is based or days calculated by multiplying the new number of licensed beds times the appropriate minimum occupancy pursuant to chapter 74.46 RCW times the number of calendar days in the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based.

(3) The effective date of the recalculated prospective rate for beds returned to service shall be the first of the month:

(a) In which the banked beds returned to service when the beds are returned to service on the first of the month; or

(b) Following the month in which the banked beds returned to service when the beds are returned to service after the first of the month.

(4) The recalculated prospective payment rate shall comply with all the provisions of rate setting contained in chapter 74.46 RCW or in this chapter, including all lids and maximums unless otherwise specified in this section.

(5) The recalculated prospective medicaid payment rate shall be subject to adjustment if required by RCW 74.46.421.

(6) After the department recalculates the contractor's prospective medicaid component rate allocations using the increased number of licensed beds, the department will use the increased number of licensed beds in all post unbanking rate settings, until under chapter 74.46 RCW and/or this chapter, the post unbanking number of licensed beds changes.

WAC 388-96-709 Prospective rate revisions—Reduction in licensed beds. (1) The department will recalculate a contractor's prospective medicaid payment rate when the contractor reduces the number of its licensed beds and:

(a) Provides a copy of the new bed license and documentation of the number of beds sold, exchanged or otherwise placed out of service, along with the name of the contractor that received the beds, if any; and

(b) Requests a rate revision.

(2) For facilities other than essential community providers which bank beds under chapter 70.38 RCW, after May 25, 2001, medicaid rates shall be revised upward, in accordance with department rules, in direct care, therapy care, support services, and variable return components only, by using the facility's decreased licensed bed capacity to recalculate minimum occupancy for rate setting. No rate upward revision shall be made to operations, property, or financing allowance.

(3) The requested revised prospective medicaid payment rate will be effective the first of the month:

(a) The new license is effective when the new license is effective the first day of the month; or

(b) Following the month the new license is effective when the new license is effective after the first day of the month it is issued.

(4) The department will recalculate a nursing facility's prospective medicaid payment rate allocations using the greater of actual days from the cost report period on which the rate is based or days calculated by multiplying the new number of licensed beds times the appropriate minimum occupancy pursuant to chapter 74.46 RCW times the number of calendar days in the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based.

(5) The revised prospective medicaid payment rate will comply with all the provisions of rate setting contained in chapter 74.46 RCW and in this chapter, including all lids and maximums, unless otherwise specified in this section.

(6) After the department recalculates the contractor's prospective medicaid component rate allocations using the decreased number of licensed beds, the department will use the decreased number of licensed beds in all post banking rate settings, until under chapter 74.46 RCW and/or this chapter, the post banking number of licensed beds changes.

WAC 388-96-710 Prospective payment rate for new contractors. (1) The department will establish an initial prospective medicaid payment rate for a new contractor as defined under WAC 388-96-026 within sixty days following the new contractor's application and approval for a license to operate the facility under chapter 18.51 RCW. The rate will take effect as of the effective date of the contract, except as provided in this section, and will comply with all the provisions of rate setting contained in chapter 74.46 RCW and in this chapter, including all lids and maximums set forth.

(2) Except for quarterly updates per RCW 74.46.501 (7)(c), the rate established for a new contractor as defined in WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a) or (b) will remain in effect for the nursing facility until the rate can be reset effective July 1 using the first cost report for that facility under the new contractor's operation containing at least six months' data from the prior calendar year, regardless of whether reported costs for facilities operated by other contractors for the prior calendar year in question will be used to cost rebase their July 1 rates. The new contractor's rate thereafter will be cost rebased only as provided in this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(3) To set the initial prospective medicaid payment rate for a new contractor as defined in WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a) and (b), the department will:

(a) Determine whether the new contractor nursing facility belongs to the metropolitan statistical area (MSA) peer group or the non-MSA peer group using the latest information received from the office of management and budget or the appropriate federal agency;

(b) Select all nursing facilities from the department's records of all the current medicaid nursing facilities in the new contractor's peer group with the same bed capacity plus or minus ten beds. If the selection does not result in at least seven facilities, then the department will increase the bed capacity by plus or minus five bed increments until a sample of at least seven nursing facilities is obtained;

(c) Based on the information for the nursing facilities selected under subsection (3)(b) of this section and available to the department on the day the new contractor began participating in the medicaid payment rate system at the facility, rank from the highest to the lowest the component rate allocation in direct care, therapy care, support services, and operations cost centers and based on this ranking:

(i) Determine the middle of the ranking and then identify the rate immediately above the median for each cost center identified in subsection (3)(c) of this section. The rate immediately above the median will be known as the "selected rate" for each cost center;

(ii) Set the new contractor's nursing facility component rate allocation for therapy care, support services, and operations at the "selected rate";

(iii) Set the direct care rate using data from the direct care "selected" rate facility identified in (c) of this subsection as follows:

(A) The cost per case mix unit will be the rate base allowable case mixed direct care cost per patient day for the direct care "selected" rate facility, whether or not that facility is held harmless under WAC 388-96-728 and 388-96-729, divided by the facility average case mix index per WAC 388-96-741;

(B) The cost per case mix unit determined under (c)(iii)(A) of this subsection will be multiplied by the medic-aid average case mix index per WAC 388-96-740. The product will be the new contractors direct care rate under case mix; and

(C) The department will not apply RCW 74.46.506 (5)(k) to any direct care rate established under subsection (5)(e) or (f) of this section. When the department establishes a new contractor's direct care rate under subsection (5)(e) or (f) of this section, the new contractor is not eligible to be paid by a "hold harmless" rate as determined under RCW 74.46-506 (5)(k);

(iv) Set the property rate in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW; and

(v) Set the financing allowance and variable return component rate allocations in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW. In computing the variable return component rate allocation, the department will use for direct care, therapy care, support services and operations rate allocations those set pursuant to subsection (3)(c)(i), (ii) and (iii) of this section.

(d) Any subsequent revisions to the rate component allocations of the sample members will not impact a "selected rate" component allocation of the initial prospective rate established for the new contractor under this subsection.

(4) For the WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a) or (b) new contractor, the department will establish rate component allocations for:

(a) Direct care, therapy care, support services and operations based on the "selected rates" as determined under subsection (3)(c) of this section that are in effect on the date the new contractor began participating in the program;

(b) Property in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW using for the new contractor as defined under:

(i) WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a), information from the certificate of need; or

(ii) WAC 388-96-026 (1)(b), information provided by the new contractor within ten days of the date the department requests the information in writing. If the contractor as defined under WAC 388-96-026 (1)(b), has not provided the requested information within ten days of the date requested, then the property rate will be zero. The property rate will remain zero until the information is received;

(c) Variable return in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW using the "selected rates" established under subsection (3)(c) of this section that are in effect on the date the new contractor began participating in the program; and

(d) Financing allowance using for the new contractor as defined under:

(i) WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a), information from the certificate of need; or

(ii) WAC 388-96-026 (1)(b), information provided by the new contractor within ten days of the date the department requests the information in writing. If the contractor as defined under WAC 388-96-026 (1)(b), has not provided the requested information within ten days of the date requested, then the net book value of allowable assets will be zero. The financing allowance rate component allocation will remain zero until the information is received.

(5) The initial prospective payment rate for a new contractor as defined under WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a) or (b) will be established under subsections (3) and (4) of this section. If the WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a) or (b) contractor's initial rate is set:

(a) Between July 1, 2000 and June 30, 2001, the department will set the new contractor's rates for:

(i) July 1, 2001 using the July 1, 2001 rates for direct care, therapy care, support services, and operations of the sample facilities used to set the initial rate under subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

(A) Property and financing allowance component rates will remain the same as set for the initial rate.

(B) Variable return component rate using the rates determined under subsection (5)(a)(i) of this section;

(ii) July 1, 2002 rate using 2001 cost report data; and

(iii) All July 1 rates following July 1, 2002 in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW;

(b) Between July 1, 2001, and June 30, 2002, the department will set the new contractor's rates for:

(i) July 1, 2002 using July 1, 2002 rates for direct care, therapy care, support services, and operation of the sample facilities used to set the initial rate under subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

(A) Property and financing allowance component rates will remain the same as set for the initial rate.

(B) Variable return component rate using the rates determined under subsection (5)(b)(i) of this section;

(ii) July 1, 2003 rate by rebasing using 2002 cost report data in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW; and

(iii) All July 1 rates following July 1, 2003 in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW; or

(c) Between July 1, 2002, and June 30, 2003, the department will set the contractor's rates for:

(i) July 1, 2003 using July 1, 2003 rates for direct care, therapy care, support services, and operation of the sample facilities used to set the initial rate under subsection (3) and (4) of this section.

(A) Property and financing allowance component rates will remain the same as set for the initial rate.

(B) Variable return component rate using the rates determined under subsection (5)(c)(i) of this section;

(ii) July 1, 2004 by rebasing using 2003 cost report data; and

(iii) All July 1 rates following July 1, 2004 in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(6) For the WAC 388-96-026 (1)(c) new contractor, the initial prospective payment rate will be the last prospective payment rate the department paid to the medicaid contractor operating the nursing facility immediately prior to the effective date of the new medicaid contract or assignment. If the WAC 388-96-026 (1)(c) contractor's initial rate is set:

(a) Between October 1, 1998 and June 30, 1999, the department will not rebase the contractor's rate for:

(i) July 1, 1999; and

(ii) July 1, 2000;

(b) Between July 1, 1999 and June 30, 2000, the department will for:

(i) July 1, 2000 not rebase the new contractor's rate;

(ii) July 1, 2001 rebase the new contractor's rate using twelve months of cost report data derived from the old contractor's and the new contractor's 1999 cost reports; and

(iii) July 1, 2002 not rebase the new contractor's rate; and

(iv) July 1, 2003 not rebase the new contractor's rate;

(c) Between July 1, 2000 and June 30, 2001, the department will for:

(i) July 1, 2001 rebase the new contractor's rate using the old contractor's 1999 twelve month cost report;

(ii) July 1, 2002 not rebase the new contractor's rate;

(iii) July 1, 2003 not rebase the new contractor's rate; or

(d) Between July 1, 2001 and June 30, 2002, the department will for:

(i) July 1, 2002 not rebase the new contractor's rate;

(ii) July 1, 2003 not rebase the new contractor's rate; and

(iii) July 1, 2004 rebase the new contractor's rate using the new contractor's 2002 cost report containing at least six month's data.

(7) A prospective payment rate set for all new contractors will be subject to adjustments for economic trends and conditions as authorized and provided in this chapter and in chapter 74.46 RCW.

(8) For a WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a), (b) or (c) new contractor, the medicaid case mix index and facility average case mix index will be determined in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 542]

WAC 388-96-713 Rate determination. (1) Each nursing facility's medicaid payment rate for services provided to medical care recipients will be determined, adjusted and updated prospectively as provided in this chapter and in chapter 74.46 RCW. The department will calculate any limit, lid, and/or median only when it rebases each nursing facility's July 1 medicaid payment rate in accordance with chapter 74.46 RCW and this chapter.

(2) If the contractor participated in the program for less than six months of the prior calendar year, its rates will be determined by procedures set forth in WAC 388-96-710.

(3) Contractors submitting correct and complete cost reports by March 31st, shall be notified of their rates by July 1st, unless circumstances beyond the control of the department interfere.

(4) In setting rates, the department will use the greater of actual days from the cost report period on which the rate is based or days calculated at minimum occupancy pursuant to chapter 74.46 RCW.

(5) Adjusted cost report data from 1999 shall be used for July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2005 direct care, therapy care, support services, and operations component rate allocations.

WAC 388-96-718 Public process for determination of rates. (1) The purpose of this section is to describe the manner in which the department will comply with the federal Balanced Budget Act of 1997, Section 4711 (a)(1), codified at 42 U.S.C. 1396a (a)(13)(A).

(2) For all material changes to the methodology for determining nursing facility medicaid payment rates occurring after October 1, 1997, and requiring a Title XIX state plan amendment to be submitted to and approved by the Health Care Financing Administration under applicable federal laws, the department shall follow the following public process:

(a) The proposed estimated initial payment rates, the proposed new methodologies for determining the payment rates, and the underlying justifications shall be published. Publication shall be:

(i) In the Washington State Register; or

(ii) In the Seattle Times and Spokane Spokesman Review newspapers.

(b) The department shall maintain and update as needed a mailing list of all individuals and organizations wishing to receive notice of changes to the nursing facility medicaid payment rate methodology, and all materials submitted for publication shall be sent postage prepaid by regular mail to such individuals and organizations. Individuals and organizations wishing to receive notice shall notify the department in writing.

(2009 Ed.)

(c) Nursing facility contractors, their associations, nursing facility medicaid beneficiaries, representatives of contractors or beneficiaries, and other concerned members of the public shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the proposed estimated rates, methodologies and justifications. The period allowed for review and comment shall not be less than fourteen calendar days after the date of the Washington State Register containing the published material or the date the published material has appeared in both the Seattle Times and the Spokane Spokesman Review.

(d) If, after receiving and considering all comments, the department decides to move ahead with any change to its nursing facility medicaid payment rate methodology, it shall adopt needed further changes in response to comments, if any, and shall publish the final estimated initial rates, final rate determination methodologies and justifications. Publication shall be:

(i) In the Washington State Register; or

(ii) In the Seattle Times and Spokane Spokesman Review newspapers.

(e) Unless an earlier effective date is required by state or federal law, implementation of final changes in methodologies and commencement of the new rates shall not occur until final publication has occurred in the Register or in both designated newspapers. The department shall not be authorized to delay implementation of, or to alter, ignore or violate requirements of, state or federal laws in response to public process comments.

(f) Publication of proposed estimated initial payment rates and final estimated initial payment rates shall be deemed complete once the department has published:

(i) The statewide average proposed estimated initial payment rate weighted by adjusted medicaid resident days for all medicaid facilities from the most recent cost report year, including the change from the existing statewide average payment rate weighted by adjusted medicaid resident days for all medicaid facilities from the most recent cost report year; and

(ii) The statewide average final estimated initial payment rate weighted by adjusted medicaid resident days for all medicaid facilities from the most recent cost report year, including the change from the existing statewide average payment rate weighted by adjusted medicaid resident days for all medicaid facilities from the most recent cost report year.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the department from commencing or completing the public process authorized by this section even though the proposed changes to the methodology for determining nursing facility medicaid payment rates are awaiting federal approval, or are the subject of pending legislative, gubernatorial or rule-making action and are yet to be finalized in statute and/or regulation.

(4)(a) Neither a contractor nor any other interested person or organization shall challenge, in any administrative appeals or exception procedure established in rule by the department under the provisions of chapter 74.46 RCW, the adequacy or validity of the public process followed by the department in proposing or implementing a change to the payment rate methodology, regardless of whether the challenge is brought to obtain a ruling on the merits or simply to make a record for subsequent judicial or other review. Such challenges shall be pursued only in courts of proper jurisdiction as may be provided by law.

(b) Any challenge to the public process followed by the department that is brought in the course of an administrative appeals or exception procedure shall be dismissed by the department or presiding officer, with prejudice to further administrative review and record-making, but without prejudice to judicial or other review as may be provided by law.

(5) The public process required and authorized by this section shall not apply to any change in the payment rate methodology that does not require a Title XIX state plan amendment under applicable federal laws, including but not limited to:

(a) Prospective or retrospective changes to nursing facility payment rates or to methodologies for establishing such rates ordered by a court or administrative tribunal, after exhaustion of all appeals by either party as may be authorized by law, or the expiration of time to appeal; or

(b) Changes to nursing facility payment rates for one or more facilities resulting from the application of authorized payment rate methodologies, principles or adjustments, including but not limited to: Partial or phased-in termination or implementation of rate methodologies; scheduled cost rebasing; quarterly or other updates to reflect changes in case mix or other private or public source data used to establish rates; adjustments for inflation or economic trends and conditions; rate funding for capital improvements or new requirements imposed by the department; changes to resident-specific or exceptional care rates; and changes to correct errors or omissions by the contractor or the department.

WAC 388-96-723 Comparison of the statewide weighted average payment rate for all nursing facilities with the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act. (1) On a quarterly basis, the department will compare the statewide weighted average payment rate for all nursing facilities with the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act.

(2) To determine the statewide weighted average payment rate, the department will use total billed medicaid days incurred in the calendar year immediately preceding the current fiscal year for the purpose of weighting the July 1 nursing facilities' rates that have been adjusted, or updated pursuant to chapter 74.46 RCW and this chapter.

WAC 388-96-725 RCW 74.46.421 rate reduction—A nursing facility's rates. (1) The department will not reverse any rate reductions taken in accordance with RCW 74.46.-421.

(2) If after a reduction a nursing facility is eligible to receive an increase in a component rate for some unrelated change (e.g., a change in the medicaid case mix index causes the direct care rate to increase), the department will apply the increase to the rate reduced by application of RCW 74.46.-421.

(3) Reductions made under RCW 74.46.421 are cumulative. The department will reduce the component rates for all nursing facilities without reversing any previous reductions.

WAC 388-96-726 RCW 74.46.421 nursing facility component rates below the statewide weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act. (1) Even if an individual nursing facility's component rates are below the statewide weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act, the department will reduce the nursing facility's rates as required under RCW 74.46.421.

(2) The department will not exempt any nursing facility from a component rates reduction required by RCW 74.46.-421 for any circumstance, e.g., billed medicaid days, under-spending of the biennial appropriation for nursing facility rates, etc.

WAC 388-96-730 Methodology for reducing a nursing facility's medicaid payment rate in order to reduce the statewide weighted average nursing facility medicaid payment rate to equal or be less than the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act. (1) The department will determine a percentage reduction factor (PRF) that, when applied to all nursing facilities' rates will result in a statewide weighted average payment rate that is equal to or less than the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 544]

(2) By applying various percentages to the rates for all nursing facilities, the department will identify a percentage that reduces the statewide weighted average payment rate equal to or less than the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act.

(3) The percentage identified in subsection (2) of this section will be the PRF. To reduce the statewide average payment rate to less than or equal to the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act, the department will apply the PRF equally to all rate component allocations of each nursing facility's rate.

WAC 388-96-738 What default case mix group and weight must the department use for case mix grouping when there is no minimum data set resident assessment for a nursing facility resident? (1) When a resident:

(a) Dies before the facility completes the resident's initial assessment, the department must assign the assessment to the special care case mix group - SSB. The department must use the case mix weight assigned to the special care case mix group - SSB;

(b) Is discharged to an acute care facility before the nursing facility completes the resident's initial assessment, the department must assign the assessment to the special care case mix group - SSB. The department must use the case mix weight assigned to the special care case mix group - SSB; or

(c) Is discharged for a reason other than those noted above before the facility completes the resident's initial assessment, the department must assign the assessment to the case mix group BC1 with a case mix weight of 1.000.

(2) If the resident assessment is untimely as defined in RCW 74.46.501 and as defined by federal regulations, then the department must assign the case to the default case mix group of BC1 which has a case mix weight of 1.000.

WAC 388-96-740 Medicaid case mix index—When a facility does not meet the ninety percent minimum data set (MDS) threshold as identified in RCW 74.46.501. (1) When the department certifies a nursing facility as medicaid, which was not previously certified as medicaid in or after the quarter that will serve as the basis for the facility's medicaid case mix index, then the department will use the industry average medicaid case mix index for the quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501 (7)(c) as the facility's medicaid average case mix index.

(2) If the nursing facility does not meet the ninety percent MDS threshold for any other reason, then the department will use one as the medicaid case mix index.

WAC 388-96-741 When the nursing facility does not have facility average case mix indexes for the four quarters specified in RCW 74.46.501 (7)(b) for determining the cost per case mix unit, what will the department use to determine the nursing facility's cost per case mix unit? If the nursing facility:

(1) Is newly medicaid certified after the four quarters specified in RCW 74.46.501 (7)(b), then the department must use the industry average case mix index for those four quarters as the facility's average case mix index.

(2) Existed during at least one of the four quarters and met the ninety percent threshold for at least one of the four quarters specified in RCW 74.46.501 (7)(b), then the department must use the facility's average case mix index for the quarter(s) that the facility met the ninety percent threshold.

(3) Existed during at least one of the four quarters and did not meet the ninety percent threshold for any of the four quarters, then the department must use the industry average case mix index as the facility's average case mix index.

WAC 388-96-742 Licensed beds to compute the ninety percent minimum data set (MDS) threshold rather than a nursing facility's quarterly average census. The department will use the number of licensed beds to compute the ninety percent threshold of MDS data when:

(1) The reported census as a result of errors exceeds the number of current licensed beds; or

(2) There is a significant discrepancy between the reported census and the number of current licensed beds. A significant discrepancy exists when the census is fifty percent or less of the number of licensed beds.

WAC 388-96-744 How will the department set the therapy care rate and determine the median cost limit per unit of therapy? (1) For a nursing facility that does not report units of therapy for the applicable cost report year, the department will set its nursing facility therapy care rate at $0.00 until units of therapy are submitted.

(2) After the nursing facility reports its units of therapy, the department will pay the nursing facility a rate beginning the effective date of the rate year, e.g., July 1.

(3) In a rebase year the nursing facility's units of therapy must be reported in the cost report used to rebase the rate. If reported later than the cost report due date, the department shall exclude the nursing facility's therapy costs from the array of costs use to set the median cost limit per unit of therapy.

WAC 388-96-746 How much therapy consultant expense for each therapy type will the department allow to be added to the total allowable one-on-one therapy expense? (1) The department will multiply the actual patient days when greater than eighty-five percent or patient days at eighty-five percent occupancy by both:

(a) A nursing facility's adjusted therapy consulting costs per patient day; and

(b) The median adjusted therapy consulting cost plus ten percent.

The lesser of (a) or (b) of this subsection will be reasonable therapy consulting costs that the department shall add to the total allowable one-on-one therapy expense used to calculate the therapy care rate.

(2) To determine the median adjusted therapy consulting cost per type of therapy, the department shall:

(a) Divide medicaid nursing facilities in the state into two peer groups:

(i) Those facilities located within a metropolitan statistical area; and

(ii) Those not located in a metropolitan statistical area. Metropolitan statistical areas and nonmetropolitan statistical areas shall be as determined by the United States Office of Management and Budget or other applicable federal office.

(b) Array the facilities in each peer group from highest to lowest based on their therapy consulting cost per patient day for each type of therapy.

(c) Determine the median total cost for therapy consulting per patient day costs by MSA and non-MSA peer group and add ten percent to that median cost.

WAC 388-96-747 Constructed, remodeled or expanded facilities. (1) When a facility is constructed, remodeled, or expanded after obtaining a certificate of need or exemption from the requirements for certificate of need for the replacement of existing nursing home beds pursuant to RCW 70.38.115 (13)(a), the department shall determine actual and allocated allowable land cost and building construction cost. Payment for such allowable costs, determined pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall not exceed the maximums set forth in this subsection and in subsections (2) and (7) of this section. The department shall determine construction class and types through examination of building plans submitted to the department and/or on-site inspections. The department shall use definitions and criteria contained in the Marshall and Swift Valuation Service published by the Marshall and Swift Publication Company. Buildings of excellent quality construction shall be considered to be of good quality, without adjustment, for the purpose of applying these maximums.

(2) Construction costs shall be final labor, material, and service costs to the owner or owners and shall include:

- (a) Architect's fees;
- (b) Engineers' fees (including plans, plan check and building permit, and survey to establish building lines and grades);
- (c) Interest on building funds during period of construction and processing fee or service charge;
- (d) Sales tax on labor and materials;
- (e) Site preparation (including excavation for foundation and backfill);
- (f) Utilities from structure to lot line;
- (g) Contractors' overhead and profit (including job supervision, workmen's compensation, fire and liability insurance, unemployment insurance, etc.);
- (h) Allocations of costs which increase the net book value of the project for purposes of medicaid payment;
- (i) Other items included by the Marshall and Swift Valuation Service when deriving the calculator method costs.

(3) The department shall allow such construction costs, at the lower of actual costs or the maximums derived from the sum of the basic construction cost limit plus the common use area limit which corresponds to the type, class and number of total nursing home beds for the new construction, remodel or expansion. The maximum limits shall be calculated using the most current cost criteria contained in the Marshall and Swift Valuation Service and shall be adjusted forward to the mid-point date between award of the construction contract and completion of construction.

(4) When some or all of a nursing facility's common-use areas are situated in a basement, the department shall exclude some or all of the per-bed allowance for common-use areas to derive the construction cost lid for the facility. The amount excluded will be equal to the ratio of basement common-use areas to all common-use areas in the facility times the common-use area limits determined in accordance with subsection (3) of this section. In lieu of the excluded amount, the department shall add an amount calculated using the calculator method guidelines for basements in nursing homes published in the Marshall and Swift Valuation Service.

(5) Subject to provisions regarding allowable land contained in this chapter, allowable costs for land shall be the lesser of:

- (a) Actual cost per square foot, including allocations;
- (b) The average per square foot land value of the ten nearest urban or rural nursing facilities at the time of purchase of the land in question. The average land value sample shall reflect either all urban or all rural facilities depending upon the classification of urban or rural for the facility in question. The values used to derive the average shall be the assessed land values which have been calculated for the purpose of county tax assessments; or

(c) Land value for new or replacement building construction or substantial building additions requiring the acquisition of land that commenced to operate on or after July 1, 1997, determined in accordance with RCW 74.46.360 (2) and (3).

(6) If allowable costs for construction or land are determined to be less than actual costs pursuant to subsections (1) and (7) of this section, the department may increase the amount if the owner or contractor is able to show unusual or unique circumstances having substantially impacted the costs of construction or land. Actual costs shall be allowed to the extent they resulted from such circumstances up to a maximum of ten percent above levels determined under subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this section for construction or land. An adjustment under this subsection shall be granted only if requested by the contractor. The contractor shall submit documentation of the unusual circumstances and an analysis of its financial impact with the request.

(7) If a capitalized addition or retirement of an asset will result in an increased licensed bed capacity during the calendar year following the capitalized addition or replacement, the department shall use the facility's anticipated resident occupancy level subsequent to the increase in licensed bed capacity as long as the occupancy for the increased number of beds is at or above eighty-five percent. Subject to the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW, in no case shall the department use less than eighty-five percent occupancy of the facility's increased licensed bed capacity. If a capitalized addition, replacement, or retirement results in a decreased licensed bed capacity, WAC 388-96-709 will apply.

WAC 388-96-748 Financing allowance component rate allocation. (1) Beginning July 1, 1999, for each medicaid nursing facility, the department will establish a financing allowance component rate allocation. The financing allowance component rate allocation will be rebased annually, effective July 1st, in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(2) The department will determine the financing allowance component rate allocation by:

- (a) Multiplying the net invested funds of each nursing facility by the applicable factor identified in subsection (3) of this section; and
- (b) Dividing the sum of the products by the greater of:
 - (i) A nursing facility's total resident days from the most recent cost report period; or
 - (ii) Resident days calculated on eighty-five percent facility occupancy.

(3)(a) The multiplication factor required by subsection (2) (a) of this section is determined by the acquisition date of the tangible fixed asset(s). For each nursing facility, the department will multiply the net invested funds for assets acquired:

- (i) Before May 17, 1999 by a factor of .10; and/or
- (ii) On or after May 17, 1999 by a factor of .085.

(b) The department will apply the factor of .10 to the net invested funds pertaining to new construction or major renovations:

- (i) That received certificate of need approval before May 17, 1999;
- (ii) That received an exemption from certificate of need requirements under chapter 70.38 RCW before May 17, 1999; or
- (iii) For which the nursing facility submitted working drawings to the department of health for construction review before May 17, 1999.

(c) For a new contractor as defined under WAC 388-96-026 (1)(c), assets acquired from the former contractor will retain their initial acquisition dates when determining the new contractor's financing allowance under this section.

WAC 388-96-749 Variable return—Quartiles and percentages. (1) When the department rebases each nursing facility's July 1 medicaid payment rate in accordance with chapter 74.46 RCW and this chapter, it applies RCW 74.46-433 to set the variable return (VR) quartiles and assigns the designated percentage to the quartile.

(2) Following a July 1 rebasing of all component rates, the department will not adjust the quartiles or the percentages assigned to them for any reason, including but not limited to reversal of cost report adjustments by administrative review conferences, fair hearings, and/or judicial reviews until the next July 1 rebasing of all component rates.

WAC 388-96-760 Upper limits to the payment rate. The average payment rate for the cost report year shall not exceed the contractor's average customary charges to the general public for the services covered by the payment rate for the same time period. The department will pay public facilities rendering such services free of charge or at a nominal charge according to the methods and standards set out in this chapter. The contractor shall provide as part of the annual cost report a statement of the average charges for the cost report year for services covered by the payment rate and supporting computations and documentation. The contractor shall immediately inform the department if its payment rate does exceed customary charges for comparable services. If necessary, the department will adjust the payment rate in accordance with RCW 74.46.531.

WAC 388-96-762 Allowable land. (1) Beginning January 1, 1985, land associated with a nursing facility which is eligible for inclusion in net invested funds shall not exceed two acres for facilities located in a Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA), as defined and determined by the United States Office of Management and Budget or other applicable federal office, and three acres for nursing facilities located outside such an area.

(2) The department may grant an exception to these limits if a contractor presents documentation deemed adequate by the department establishing a larger area of land is directly related to patient care. Requests for exceptions and any exceptions granted must be in writing.

(3) Requests for exceptions may be granted in the following cases:

- (a) The area occupied by the nursing home building exceeds the allowable land area specified in subsection (1) of this section;
- (b) The land is used directly in the provision of patient care;
- (c) The land is maintained;
- (d) The land is not subdivided or eligible for subdivision;
- (e) The land is zoned for nursing home or similar use; and
- (f) Other reasons exist which are deemed sufficient by the department.

WAC 388-96-766 Notification. (1) The department will notify each contractor in writing of its prospective medicaid payment rate allocation. Unless otherwise specified at the time it is issued, the medicaid payment rate allocation and/or component rate allocation(s) will be effective from the first day of the month in which it (they) is (are) issued. When the department amends a medicaid payment rate allocation and/or component rate allocation(s) as the result of an appeal in accordance with WAC 388-96-904, the amended rate will have the same effective date as the appealed rate.

(2) If a total medicaid component payment rate allocation and/or rate allocation(s) is (are) adjusted, updated or amended after the calendar year in which the adjustment or update was effective, then the department will account for any amounts owed through the settlement process.

(3)(a) The department shall deem the contractor to have received the department's notice five calendar days after the date of the notification letter, unless proof of the date of receipt of the department's notification letter exists, in which case the actual date of receipt shall be used. Proof of date of

WAC 388-96-771 Receivership. (1) If the nursing home is providing care to recipients of state medical assistance, the receiver shall:

- (a) Become the medicaid contractor for the duration of the receivership period;
- (b) Assume all reporting responsibilities for new contractors;
- (c) Assume all other responsibilities for new contractors set forth in this chapter; and
- (d) Be responsible for the refund of medicaid rate payments in excess of costs during the period of receivership.

(2) In establishing the prospective rate during receivership the department shall consider:

- (a) Compensation, if any, ordered by the court for the receiver. Such compensation may already be available to the receiver through the rate as follows:
 - (i) Financing allowance and variable return component rate allocations, or
 - (ii) The administrator's salary in the case of facilities where the receiver is also the administrator.

If these existing sources of compensation are less than what was ordered by the court, additional costs may be allowed in the rate up to the compensation amount ordered by the court.

(b) Start up costs and costs of repairs, replacements, and additional staff needed for patient health, security, and welfare. To the extent such costs can be covered through the financing allowance and the variable return component rate allocations, no additional moneys will be added to the rate;

(c) Any other allowable costs as set forth in this chapter.

(3)(a) Upon order of the court, the department shall provide emergency or transitional financial assistance to a receiver not to exceed thirty thousand dollars.

(b) The department shall recover any emergency or transitional expenditure made by the department on behalf of a nursing home not certified to participate in the medicaid Title XIX program from revenue generated by the facility which is not obligated to the operation of the facility.

(c) In order to help recover an emergency or transitional expenditure, regardless of whether the facility is certified to participate in the medicaid Title XIX program or not, the department may:

- (i) File an action against the former licensee or owner at the time the expenditure is made to recover such expenditure; or
- (ii) File a lien on the facility or on the proceeds of the sale of the facility.

(4) If recommendations on receiver's compensation are solicited from the department by the court, the department shall consider the following:

- (a) The range of compensation for nursing home managers;
- (b) Experience and training of the receiver;
- (c) The size, location, and current condition of the facility;
- (d) Any additional factors deemed appropriate by the department.

(5) When the receivership terminates, the department may revise the nursing home's medicaid reimbursement. The medicaid reimbursement rate for:

- (a) The former owner or licensee shall be what it was before receivership, unless the former owner or licensee requests prospective rate revisions from the department as set forth in this chapter; and
- (b) Licensed replacement operators shall be determined consistent with rules governing prospective reimbursement rates for new contractors as set forth in this chapter.

WAC 388-96-776 Add-ons to the property and financing allowance payment rate—Capital improvements. (1) For new or replacement building construction or major renovation projects begun after July 1, 2001, the contractor must have a certificate of capital authorization (CCA) issued pursuant to WAC 388-96-783 and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(2)(a) Beginning July 1, 2001, the department shall grant an add-on to a prospective payment rate for capitalized improvements done under RCW 74.46.431(12) for all new or replacement building construction or major renovation projects; provided, the department granted the contractor a certificate of capital authorization (CCA) pursuant to WAC 388-96-783 for the fiscal year in which the contractor will complete the project and the net rate effect is ten cents per patient day or greater.

(b) Rate add-on requests filed with the department or approved by the certificate of need unit of the department of health for projects commencing before July 1, 2001 and finishing after July 1, 2001, are not subject to CCA requirements set forth in this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(3) The department may grant a rate add-on to a payment rate for capital improvements not requiring a CON and a CCA per subsections (1) and (2) of this section. However, the capital improvement must have a net rate effect of ten cents per patient day or greater.

(4) Rate add-ons for all construction and renovation projects granted pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall be limited to the total legislative authorization for capital construction and renovation projects for the fiscal year (FY) of the biennium in which the construction or renovation project will be completed. Rate add-ons are subject to the provisions of RCW 74.46.421.

(5) When physical plant improvements made under subsection (1) or (2) of this section are completed in phases, the department shall:

(a) Grant a rate add-on in accordance with subsection (6) of this section for any addition, replacement or improvement when each phase is completed and certified for occupancy for the purpose for which it was intended;

(b) Limit the rate add-on to the actual cost of the depreciable tangible assets meeting the criteria of RCW 74.46.330;

(c) Add-on construction fees as defined in WAC 388-96-747 and other capitalized allowable fees and costs for the completed phase of the project; and

(d) Make the effective date for the rate add-on for the completed phase the quarterly rate change immediately following the completion and certification for occupancy of the phase. When the date of the written request for a phase add-on rate falls after the first quarter immediately following the completion and certification for occupancy of the phase, the department will issue the rate add-on retroactive to the first of the quarter in which the department received a complete written request.

(6) When the construction class of any portion of a newly constructed building will improve as the result of any addition, replacement or improvement occurring in a later, but not yet completed and fully utilized phase of the project, the most appropriate construction class, as applicable to that completed and fully utilized phase, will be assigned for purposes of calculating the rate add-on. The department shall not revise the rate add-on retroactively after completion of the portion of the project that provides the improved construction class. Rather, the department shall calculate a new rate add-on when the improved construction class phase is completed and fully utilized and the rate add-on will be effective in accordance with subsection (7) of this section using the date the class was improved.

(7) The contractor requesting a rate add-on under subsection (1), (2) or (3) of this section shall submit a written request to the department separate from all other requests and inquiries of the department, e.g., WAC 388-96-904 (1) and (5). A complete written request shall include the following:

(a) A copy of documentation requiring completion of the addition or replacements to maintain licensure or certification for adjustments requested under subsection (1) of this section;

(b) A copy of the new bed license, whether the number of licensed beds increases or decreases, if applicable;

(c) All documentation, e.g., copies of paid invoices showing actual final cost of assets and/or service, e.g., labor purchased as part of the capitalized addition or replacements;

(d) Certification showing the completion date of the capitalized additions or replacements and the date the assets were placed in service per RCW 74.46.360;

(e) A properly completed depreciation schedule for the capitalized additions or replacement as provided in this chapter; and

(f) When the rate increase is requested pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, a written justification for granting the rate increase.

(8) For rate add-on requests for projects not completed in phases that are approved pursuant to subsection (7) of this section and the written request is received:

(a) Within sixty calendar days following the completion and certification of occupancy of the new or replacement construction, major renovation, or the acquisition and installation (if applicable) of a capital improvement made under subsection (3) of this section, the effective date of the rate add-on will be the first of the month following the month in which the project was completed and certified for occupancy or acquired and installed; or

(b) More than sixty days following the completion and certification for occupancy of the new or replacement construction, major renovation project, or the acquisition and installation (if applicable) of a capital improvement made under subsection (3) of this section, the effective date of the rate add-on will be the first of the month following the month in which the written request was received.

(9) If the initial written request is incomplete, the department will notify the contractor of the documentation and information required. The contractor shall submit the requested information within fifteen calendar days from the date the contractor receives the notice to provide the information. If the contractor fails to complete the add-on request by providing all the requested documentation and information within the fifteen calendar days from the date of receipt of notification, the department shall deny the request for failure to complete.

(10) If, after the denial for failure to complete, the contractor submits another written request for a rate add-on for the same project the date of receipt for the purpose of applying subsection (8) of this section will depend upon whether the subsequent request for the same project is complete, i.e., the department does not have to request additional documentation and information in order to make a determination. If a subsequent request for funding of the same project is:

(a) Complete, then the date of the first request may be used when applying subsection (8) of this section; or

(b) Incomplete, then the date of the subsequent request must be used when applying subsection (8) of this section even though the physical plant improvements may be completed and fully utilized prior to that date.

(11) The department shall respond, in writing, not later than sixty calendar days after receipt of a complete request.

(12) If the contractor does not use the funds for the purpose for which they were granted, the department immediately shall have the right to recoup the misspent or unused funds.

(13) When any physical plant improvements made under subsection (1) or (2) of this section result in a change in licensed beds, any rate add-on granted will be subject to the provisions regarding the number of licensed beds, patient days, occupancy, etc., included in this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(14) Effective July 1, 2002, except for essential community providers, the medicaid share of nursing facility new construction or refurbishing projects shall be based upon a minimum facility occupancy of ninety percent for the operations, property, and financing allowance component rate allocations. For essential community providers, the medicaid share of nursing facility new construction or refurbishing project will be based upon a minimum facility occupancy of eighty-five percent for operations, property, and financing allowance component rate allocations.

(15) When a capitalized addition or replacement results in an increased licensed bed capacity during the calendar year following the capitalized addition or replacement:

(a) The department shall determine a nursing facility's prospective medicaid:

(i) Property payment rate allocation by dividing the property costs using the greater of actual days from the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based or days calculated by multiplying the new number of licensed beds times ninety percent times the number of calendar days in the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based. For essential community providers, the department shall use eighty-five percent to calculate days to compare with actual days; and

(ii) Financing allowance payment rate allocation by multiplying the net invested funds by the applicable factor in WAC 388-96-748(3) and dividing by the greater of the facility's actual days from the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based or on days calculated by multiplying the new number of licensed beds times ninety percent occupancy times the calendar days in the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based. For essential community providers, the department shall use eighty-five percent occupancy to calculate days to compare to actual days.

WAC 388-96-777 Add-ons to the prospective rate—Initiated by the department. (1) The department shall initiate all rate add-ons granted under this section. Contractors may not request and be approved a rate add-on under this section.

(2) Rate add-ons the department grants under the authority of this section shall be for costs to implement:

(a) Program changes that the director of residential care services, aging and adult services administration determines a rate add-on is necessary to accomplish the purpose of the change and announces same in a written directive to the chief of the office of rates management; or

(b) Changes in either the state or federal statutes or regulations or directives that the director of management services, aging and adult services administration determines requires a rate add-on to implement and directs in writing the chief of the office of rates management to implement.

(3) Changes made under this section are subject to review under WAC 388-96-901 and 388-96-904; provided, the issue is not whether a rate add-on should have been granted.

(4) If the contractor does not use the funds for the purpose for which they were granted, the department shall immediately recoup the misspent or unused funds.

WAC 388-96-781 Exceptional direct care component rate allocation—Covered medicaid residents. A nursing facility (NF) may receive an increase in its direct care component rate allocation for providing exceptional care to a medicaid resident who:

(1) Receives specialized services to meet chronic complex medical conditions and neurodevelopment needs of medically fragile children; and

(2) Resides in a NF where all residents are under age twenty-one with at least fifty percent of the residents entering the facility before the age of fourteen.

WAC 388-96-782 Exceptional therapy care and exceptional direct care—Payment. For WAC 388-96-781 residents, the department will pay the resident's total rate in effect on December 31, 1999, inflated by the industry weighted average economic trends and conditions adjustment factor.

WAC 388-96-783 Certificate of capital authorization (CCA). (1)(a) A certificate of capital authorization (CCA) is a certification from the department for an allocation from the biennial capital financing authorization for a nursing facility's new or replacement building construction, or major renovation project, receiving a certificate of need (CON) or a CON exemption from the department of health under chapter 70.38 RCW and chapter 246-310 WAC after July 1, 2001.

(b) Issuance of a CCA as required by this regulation and by chapter 74.46 RCW is necessary before:

(i) Any depreciation resulting from the capitalized addition is included in a facility's property component rate allocation, including both determinations under RCW 74.46.435 and property rate add-ons done pursuant to WAC 388-96-776; and/or

(ii) Any net invested funds associated with the capitalized addition are included in the calculation of the facility's financing allowance rate allocation, including both determinations under RCW 74.46.437 and financing allowance rate add-ons done pursuant to WAC 388-96-776.

(2) To apply for a CCA, a contractor must submit a written application to the nursing home rates section of the office of rates management (ORM) within the department. The application must be entirely separate from, and not included with, any other request or communication. The application must include:

(a) A description of the proposed new or replacement construction or major renovation;

(b) A copy of the CON approval, or the determination of CON exception issued by the department of health for the construction or renovation;

(c) The amount of money for which the CCA is being requested; this will presumably be the same amount as included in the CON approval or exception, but may be different where good cause is shown;

(d) The name of the general contractor who will build the construction or renovation; and

(e) The anticipated starting and completion dates of the construction or renovation.

(3) Completed applications for CCAs will be reviewed in the order received. An application will be deemed completed as of the date when all required information has been received by ORM. Within ninety days of the receipt of an application, ORM will either reject it as incomplete, or act upon it. If more than one CCA application is received on the same date, priority will first be given to an application from an essential community provider and then to an application in relation to the facility which has gone the longest from its last major renovation or building project.

(4) ORM will accept applications and issue CCAs for each state fiscal year for which the legislature has enacted authorization in the biennial appropriations act as provided by RCW 74.46.807, subject to the limits of such authorization. CCAs for a fiscal year will be issued until the remaining capital authorization for that year is insufficient to cover any more applications made for that year. An application denied because that year's authorization has been depleted may be resubmitted for a later year, and will be given priority for the remaining amounts of capital authorization in the later year, after CCAs already issued for that year. The state fiscal year runs from July 1 of one calendar year to June 30 of the following calendar year, and is designated by the second calendar year. For example, state fiscal year 2004 (SFY04) runs from July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004.

(5)(a) When a CCA has been issued, the contractor must act to complete the construction or renovation in a timely manner, consistent with the estimates included in the application. The construction or renovation must be completed and ready for occupancy no later than the last day of the state fiscal year for which the CCA is issued. "Ready for occupancy" means that all federal, state, and local permits for occupancy of the buildings by residents have been issued.

(b) The contractor must send the department ORM a copy of each progress report submitted to the certificate of need section of the department of health under WAC 246-310-590, or a regulation adopted as a successor thereto, at the same time the progress report is filed with the department of health.

(c) Based upon the application for the CCA and the progress reports filed with the department of health by the contractor, ORM will set deadlines for progress of the project toward completion. ORM may withdraw a CCA if its holder does not comply with those deadlines in a good faith manner. A contractor that fails to meet a progress deadline due to its own action or inaction shall be considered not to have acted in a good faith manner.

(d) If a CCA is withdrawn by ORM, or if the construction or renovation is not ready for occupancy by the last day of the fiscal year for which the CCA was issued, the value of the construction or renovation will not be included in the facility's property component or financing allowance rate allocations, as provided in subsection (1)(b) of this section. To include the value of the construction or renovation in the facility's property component or financing allowance rate allocations, the contractor must seek and obtain another CCA.

(6)(a) Although they are related, the CON and CCA processes are separate. When a CON requires amendment under department of health requirements, the contractor must notify ORM. The previously issued CCA will stay in effect. When the amended CON is issued in an amount greater than the original CON, the contractor must submit a new CCA application to ORM covering only the difference between the original and amended CONs. This supplemental CCA application may reference the original CCA application to the greatest extent possible, to expedite its filing and review.

(b) The department of health allows the dollar amount of a CON to be exceeded by the greater of twelve percent or fifty thousand dollars without requiring an amendment to the CON. This excess is not automatically reflected in the corresponding CCA. Any increase in the amount requires an application for a new CCA.

(c) ORM will review the new CCA application based on the estimated date of occupancy and the authorization remaining for the relevant state fiscal year. If there is insufficient authorization remaining in that fiscal year to fund the project, ORM will deny the application in whole or in part.

(d) If a contractor's application for a CCA is denied pursuant to subsection (c) above, the contractor may resubmit it for a later state fiscal year and the application will be given priority as described in subsection (4) of this section.

(7) If ORM withdraws a CCA previously issued, the amount of that authorization shall be restored to the total capital authorization available for the state fiscal year against which the CCA was issued.

(8) An application for a CCA may be considered on an emergency basis. If the application is approved and a sufficient amount of authorization remains for the relevant fiscal year, the CCA may be issued without regard to the priority of the application. Only an application made in relation to a major renovation project may be considered on an emergency basis, and then only if it must be completed as soon as possible to:

(a) Retain a facility's license or certification provided the net rate effect is ten cents per patient day or greater;

- (b) Protect the health or safety of the facility's residents;
or
(c) Avoid closure if the facility is an essential community provider.

WAC 388-96-802 May the nursing facility (NF) contractor bill the department for a medicaid resident's day of death, discharge, or transfer from the NF? No, the NF contractor may bill the department for the first day of a medicaid resident's stay but not the last day.

WAC 388-96-803 When a nursing facility (NF) contractor becomes aware of a change in the medicaid resident's income and/or resources, must he or she report it? Yes, within seventy-two hours of becoming aware of a change in the medicaid resident's income and/or resources, the NF contractor will report the change in writing to the home and community services office serving the area in which the NF is located. When reporting the change, the NF contractor will include copies of any available documentation of the change in the medicaid resident's income and/or resources.

WAC 388-96-901 Disputes. (1) If a contractor wishes to contest the way in which the department applied a statute or department rule to the contractor's circumstances, the contractor shall pursue the administrative review process prescribed in WAC 388-96-904.

(a) Adverse actions taken under the authority of this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW subject to administrative review under WAC 388-96-904 include but are not limited to:

- (i) Determining a nursing facility payment rate;
- (ii) Calculating a nursing facility settlement;
- (iii) Imposing a civil fine on the nursing facility;
- (iv) Suspending payment to a nursing facility; or
- (v) Refusing to contract with a nursing facility.

(b) Adverse actions taken under the authority of this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW not subject to administrative review under WAC 388-96-904 include but are not limited to:

- (i) Actions taken under the authority of RCW 74.46.421 and sections of this chapter implementing RCW 74.46.421;
- (ii) Case mix accuracy review of minimum data set (MDS) nursing facility resident assessments, which shall be limited to separate administrative review under the provisions of WAC 388-96-905;
- (iii) Quarterly rate updates to reflect changes in a facility's resident case mix including contractor errors made in the MDSs used to update the facility's resident case mix;
- (iv) Exceptional direct care program codified at WAC 388-96-781; and
- (v) Actions taken under WAC 388-96-218 (2)(c).

(2) The administrative review process prescribed in WAC 388-96-904 shall not be used to contest or review unrelated or ancillary department actions, whether review is sought to obtain a ruling on the merits of a claim or to make a record for subsequent judicial review or other purpose. If an issue is raised that is not subject to review under WAC 388-96-904, the presiding officer shall dismiss such issue with prejudice to further review under the provisions of WAC 388-96-904, but without prejudice to other administrative or judicial review as may be provided by law. Unrelated or ancillary actions not eligible for administrative review under WAC 388-96-904 include but are not limited to:

(a) Challenges to the adequacy or validity of the public process followed by department in proposing or making a change to the nursing facility medicaid payment rate methodology, as required by 42 U.S.C. 1396a (a)(13)(A) and WAC 388-96-718;

(b) Challenges to the nursing facility medicaid payment system that are based in whole or in part on federal laws, regulations, or policies;

(c) Challenges to a contractor's rate that are based in whole or in part on federal laws, regulations, or policies;

(d) Challenges to the legal validity of a statute or regulation; and

(e) Actions of the department affecting a medicaid beneficiary or provider that were not commenced by the office of rates management, aging and disability services administration, for example, entitlement to or payment for durable medical equipment or other services.

(3) If a contractor wishes to challenge the legal validity of a statute or regulation relating to the nursing facility medicaid payment system, or wishes to bring a challenge based in whole or in part on federal law, it must bring such action de novo in a court of proper jurisdiction as may be provided by law.

WAC 388-96-904 Administrative review—Adjudicative proceeding. (1) Contractors seeking to appeal or take exception to an action or determination of the department, under authority of this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW, relating to the contractor's payment rate, audit or settlement, or otherwise affecting the level of payment to the contractor, or seeking to appeal or take exception to any other adverse action taken under authority of this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW eligible for administrative review under this section, shall request an administrative review conference in writing within twenty-eight calendar days after receiving notice of the department's action or determination. The department shall deem the contractor to have received the department's notice five calendar days after the date of the notification letter, unless proof of the date of receipt of the department's notification letter exists, in which case the actual date of receipt shall be used to determine timeliness of the contractor's request for an administrative review conference. The contractor's request for administrative review shall:

(a) Be signed by the contractor or by a partner, officer, or authorized employee of the contractor;

(b) State the particular issues raised; and

(c) Include all necessary supporting documentation or other information.

(2) After receiving a request for administrative review conference that meets the criteria in subsection (1) of this section, the department shall schedule an administrative review conference. The conference may be conducted by telephone.

(3) At least fourteen calendar days prior to the scheduled date of the administrative review conference, the contractor must supply any additional or supporting documentation or information upon which the contractor intends to rely in presenting its case. In addition, the department may request at any time prior to issuing a determination any documentation or information needed to decide the issues raised, and the contractor must comply with such a request within fourteen calendar days after it is received. The department may extend this period up to fourteen additional calendar days for good cause shown if the contractor requests an extension in writing received by the department before expiration of the initial fourteen-day period. The department shall dismiss issues that cannot be decided or resolved due to a contractor's failure to provide requested documentation or information within the required period.

(4) The department shall, within sixty calendar days after conclusion of the conference, render a determination in writing addressing the issues raised. If the department is waiting for additional documentation or information promised by or requested from the contractor pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, the sixty-day period shall not commence until the department's receipt of such documentation or information or until expiration of the time allowed to provide it. The determination letter shall include a notice of dismissal of all issues which cannot be decided due to a contractor's failure to provide documentation or information promised or requested.

(5) A contractor seeking further review of a determination issued pursuant to subsection (4) of this section shall apply for an adjudicative proceeding, in writing, signed by one of the individuals authorized by subsection (1) of this section, within twenty-eight calendar days after receiving the department's administrative review conference determination letter. A review judge or other presiding officer employed by the department's board of appeals shall conduct the adjudicative proceeding.

The department shall deem the contractor to have received the department's determination five calendar days after the date of the administrative review determination letter, unless proof of the date of receipt of the letter exists, in which case the actual date of receipt shall be used to determine timeliness of the contractor's application for an adjudicative proceeding. The contractor shall attach to its application for an adjudicative proceeding the department's administrative review conference determination letter. A contractor's application for an adjudicative proceeding shall be addressed to the department's board of appeals.

(6) Except as authorized by subsection (7) of this section, the scope of an adjudicative proceeding shall be limited to the issues specifically raised by the contractor at the administrative review conference and addressed on the merits in the department's administrative review conference determination letter. The contractor shall be deemed to have waived all issues or claims that could have been raised by the contractor relating to the challenged determination or action, but which were not pursued at the conference and not addressed in the department's administrative review conference determination letter. In its request for an adjudicative proceeding or as soon as practicable, the contractor must specify its issues.

(7) If the contractor wishes to have further review of any issue not addressed on its merits, but instead dismissed in the department's administrative review conference determination letter, for failure to supply needed, promised, or requested additional information or documentation, or because the department has concluded the request was untimely or otherwise procedurally defective, the issue shall be considered by the presiding officer for the purpose of upholding the department's dismissal, reinstating the issue and remanding for further agency staff action, or reinstating the issue and rendering a decision on the merits.

(8) An adjudicative proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with this chapter, chapter 388-02 WAC and chapter 34.05 RCW. In the event of a conflict between hearing requirements in chapter 74.46 RCW and chapter 388-96 WAC specific to the nursing facility medicaid payment system and general hearing requirements in chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC, the specific requirements of chapter 74.46 RCW and chapter 388-96 WAC shall prevail. The presiding officer assigned by the department's board of appeals to conduct an adjudicative proceeding and who conducts the proceeding shall render the final agency decision.

(9) At the time an adjudicative proceeding is being scheduled for a future time and date certain, or at any appropriate stage of the prehearing process, the presiding officer shall have authority, upon the motion of either party or the presiding officer's own motion, to compel either party to identify specific issues remaining to be litigated.

(10) If the presiding officer determines there is no material issue(s) of fact to be resolved in a case, the presiding officer shall have authority, upon the motion of either party or the presiding officer's own motion, to decide the issue(s) presented without convening or conducting an in-person evidentiary hearing. In such a case, the decision may be reached on documentation admitted to the record, party admissions, written or oral stipulation(s) of facts, and written or oral argument.

(11) The board of appeals shall issue an order dismissing an adjudicative proceeding requested under subsection (5) of this section, unless within two hundred seventy calendar days after the board of appeals receives the application for an adjudicative proceeding:

(a) All issues have been resolved by a written settlement agreement between the contractor and the department signed by both and filed with the board of appeals; or

(b) An adjudicative proceeding has been held for all issues not resolved and the evidentiary record, including all rebuttal evidence and post-hearing or other briefing, is closed.

This time limit may be extended one time thirty additional calendar days for good cause shown upon the motion of either party made prior to the expiration of the initial two hundred seventy day period. It shall be the responsibility of the contractor to request that hearings be scheduled and ensure that settlement agreements are signed and filed with the board of appeals in order to comply with the time limit set forth in this subsection.

(12) Any party dissatisfied with a decision or an order of dismissal of the board of appeals may file a petition for reconsideration within ten calendar days after the decision or order of dismissal is served on such party. The petition shall state the specific grounds upon which relief is sought. The time for seeking reconsideration may be extended by the presiding officer for good cause upon motion of either party. The presiding officer shall rule on a petition for reconsideration and may seek additional argument, briefing, testimony, or other evidence if deemed necessary. Filing a petition for reconsideration shall not be a requisite for seeking judicial review; however, if a petition is filed by either party, the agency decision shall not be deemed final until a ruling is made by the presiding officer.

(13) A contractor dissatisfied with a decision or an order of dismissal of the board of appeals may file a petition for judicial review pursuant to RCW 34.05.570(3) or other applicable authority.

WAC 388-96-905 Case mix accuracy review of MDS nursing facility resident assessments. (1) The department shall perform periodic nursing facility on-site accuracy reviews of minimum data set (MDS) assessments of nursing facility residents, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of facility case mix data used to establish and update medicaid payment rates, and for other purposes the department may deem appropriate.

(2) Contractors, their representatives, and authorized nursing facility personnel may ask questions and raise concerns with the quality assurance nurse (QAN) or other designated department representative at the time a case mix accuracy review is conducted. Contractors, their representatives and authorized nursing facility personnel should attempt to resolve any differences and provide additional documentation, information or clarification prior to the case mix accuracy review exit conference.

(3) Upon completing a case mix accuracy review, the QAN shall hold an exit conference to inform the facility of the QAN's observations and preliminary findings. MDS inaccuracies, if any, will be identified and the findings that substantiate these inaccuracies shall be described.

(4) Within five working days after the case mix accuracy review exit conference is held, the nursing facility district manager (DM) for the facility's district shall send the case mix accuracy review decision letter to the nursing facility administrator at the facility address. The case mix accuracy review decision letter shall be sent certified mail, return receipt requested, shall describe in detail the QAN's findings, and shall identify the:

- (a) Resident assessments that were reviewed;
- (b) RUG-III or other applicable case mix grouping that was determined for the resident assessments reviewed;
- (c) Changes in assigned classification, if any, that were made for residents whose assessments were reviewed;
- (d) Right of the contractor to appeal any disagreement with the case mix accuracy review decision to the department's case mix accuracy review administrator or his or her delegate:
 - (i) Where to send an appeal request; and
 - (ii) The time limit for requesting an appeal.

(5) If the contractor intends to appeal the DM's case mix accuracy review decision letter, the appeal request must be in writing and mailed to the department's case mix accuracy administrator within ten calendar days after receipt of the case mix accuracy review decision letter. The appeal request letter shall:

- (a) Be signed by the contractor or by a partner, officer, or authorized employee of the contractor;
- (b) State the particular issue(s) raised, including any explanation or basis for disagreeing with the department's findings or actions.

(6) Prior to the informal administrative hearing, the case mix accuracy review administrator shall have no involvement in the case mix accuracy review decision.

(7) Upon receiving a timely appeal request, the administrator shall review any documentation and information submitted with the request, and contact the contractor by telephone to schedule an informal administrative hearing. The purpose of this informal hearing is to give the contractor one opportunity to present information which might warrant modification or deletion of resident-specific accuracy findings resulting from the case mix accuracy review. The scope of the informal administrative hearing shall be limited to clinical issues of resident need and assessment. Nonclinical issues beyond the scope of appeal include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Any remedies or negative actions imposed by the department to rectify practices or inaccuracies;
- (b) Alleged inconsistencies in the accuracy review process;
- (c) Challenges to the authority or adequacy of the case mix accuracy review process; and
- (d) Payment rate issues or other adverse actions subject to review under WAC 388-96-904.

(8) On or before the informal hearing date, the contractor must submit all necessary supporting documentation or other information to the case mix accuracy review administrator. The administrator may request additional information or documentation from the contractor at any time before issuing the final, informal hearing decision. The contractor shall provide all information or documentation within the time limits established by this section, or by the administrator. In the event that the contractor fails to submit the required documentation for a claim or issue within the specified time limits, the accuracy review administrator shall dismiss the claim or issue with prejudice.

(9) The informal case mix accuracy review administrative hearing shall be conducted in person, unless both the contractor and the department agree that it can be conducted by telephone.

(10) Within ten days after the informal administrative hearing or within ten days after receipt of any additional information or documentation requested, whichever is later, the case mix accuracy review administrator shall send the appeal decision in writing to the nursing facility administrator at the facility address. The appeal decision letter shall be sent regular mail and shall:

(a) Be the final agency decision of the department;

(b) Be based on the independent judgment of the case mix accuracy review administrator who conducted the informal administrative hearing and reviewed all information and documentation; and

(c) Recite the right of the contractor to seek judicial review under the state's Administrative Procedure Act (chapter 34.05 RCW).

(11) A contractor dissatisfied with the final agency decision issued by the case mix accuracy review administrator may file a petition for judicial review pursuant to RCW 34.05.570(3) or other applicable authority.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.780 as amended by 1998 c 322 § 41 and RCW 74.46.800. 98-20-023, § 388-96-905, filed 9/25/98, effective 10/1/98.]

SUBCHAPTER I

RESIDENT RIGHTS, CARE AND RELATED SERVICES

Definitions

WAC 388-97-0001 Definitions. "Abandonment" means action or inaction by an individual or entity with a duty of care for a vulnerable adult that leaves the vulnerable individual without the means or ability to obtain necessary food, clothing, shelter, or health care.

"Abuse" means the willful action or inaction that inflicts injury, unreasonable confinement, intimidation, or punishment of a vulnerable adult. In instances of abuse of a vulnerable adult who is unable to express or demonstrate physical harm, pain or mental anguish, the abuse is presumed to cause physical harm, pain, or mental anguish. Abuse includes sexual abuse, mental abuse, physical abuse, and exploitation of a vulnerable adult, which have the following meanings:

(1) "Mental abuse" means any willful action or inaction of mental or verbal abuse. Mental abuse includes, but is not limited to, coercion, harassment, inappropriately isolating a resident from family, friends, or regular activity, and verbal assault that includes ridiculing, intimidating, yelling, or swearing.

(2) "Physical abuse" means the willful action of inflicting bodily injury or physical mistreatment. Physical abuse includes, but is not limited to, striking with or without an object, slapping, pinching, choking, kicking, shoving, prodding, or restraints including chemical restraints, unless the restraint is consistent with licensing requirements.

(3) "Sexual abuse" means any form of nonconsensual, sexual contact, including, but not limited to, unwanted or inappropriate touching, rape, sodomy, sexual coercion, sexually explicit photographing, and sexual harassment. Sexual abuse includes any sexual contact between a staff person and a resident, whether or not it is consensual.

(4) "Exploitation" means an act of forcing, compelling, or exerting undue influence over a resident causing the resident to act in a way that is inconsistent with relevant past behavior, or causing the resident to perform services for the benefit of another.

"Administrative hearing" is a formal hearing proceeding before a state administrative law judge that gives:

(1) A licensee an opportunity to be heard in disputes about licensing actions, including the imposition of remedies, taken by the department; or

(2) An individual an opportunity to appeal a finding of abandonment, abuse, neglect, financial exploitation of a resident, or misappropriation of a resident's funds.

"Administrative law judge (ALJ)" means an impartial decision-maker who presides over an administrative hearing. ALJs are employed by the office of administrative hearings (OAH), which is a separate state agency. ALJs are not DSHS employees or DSHS representatives.

"Administrator" means a nursing home administrator, licensed under chapter 18.52 RCW, who must be in active administrative charge of the nursing home, as that term is defined in the board of nursing home administrator's regulations.

"Advanced registered nurse practitioner (ARNP)" means an individual who is licensed to practice as an advanced registered nurse practitioner under chapter 18.79 RCW.

"Applicant" means an individual, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity seeking a license to operate a nursing home.

"ASHRAE" means the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating, and Air Conditioning Engineers, Inc.

"Attending physician" means the doctor responsible for a particular individual's total medical care.

"Berm" means a bank of earth piled against a wall.

"Chemical restraint" means a psychopharmacologic drug that is used for discipline or convenience and is not required to treat the resident's medical symptoms.

"Civil fine" is a civil monetary penalty assessed against a nursing home as authorized by chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW. There are two types of civil fines, "per day" and "per instance."

(1) "Per day fine" means a fine imposed for each day that a nursing home is out of compliance with a specific requirement. Per day fines are assessed in accordance with WAC 388-97-4580 (1); and

(2) "Per instance fine" means a fine imposed for the occurrence of a deficiency.

"Condition on a license" means that the department has imposed certain requirements on a license and the licensee cannot operate the nursing home unless the requirements are observed.

"Deficiency" is a nursing home's failed practice, action or inaction that violates any or all of the following:

(1) Requirements of chapters 18.51 or 74.42 RCW, or the requirements of this chapter; and

(2) In the case of a medicare and medicaid contractor, participation requirements under Title XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act and federal medicare and medicaid regulations.

"Deficiency citation" or "cited deficiency" means written documentation by the department that describes a nursing home's deficiency(ies); the requirement that the deficiency(ies) violates; and the reasons for the determination of noncompliance.

"Deficient facility practice" or "failed facility practice" means the nursing home action(s), error(s), or lack of action(s) that provide the basis for the deficiency.

"Dementia care" means a therapeutic modality or modalities designed specifically for the care of persons with dementia.

"Denial of payment for new admissions" is an action imposed on a nursing home (facility) by the department that prohibits payment for new medicaid admissions to the nursing home after a specified date. Nursing homes certified to provide medicare and medicaid services may also be subjected to a denial of payment for new admissions by the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

"Department" means the state department of social and health services (DSHS).

"Department on-site monitoring" means an optional remedy of on-site visits to a nursing home by department staff according to department guidelines for the purpose of monitoring resident care or services or both.

"Dietitian" means a qualified dietitian. A qualified dietitian is one who is registered by the American Dietetic Association or certified by the state of Washington.

"Disclosure statement" means a signed statement by an individual in accordance with the requirements under RCW 43.43.834. The statement should include a disclosure of whether or not the individual has been convicted of certain crimes or has been found by any court, state licensing board, disciplinary board, or protection proceeding to have neglected, sexually abused, financially exploited, or physically abused any minor or adult individual.

"Drug" means a substance:

(1) Recognized as a drug in the official United States Pharmacopoeia, Official Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, Official National Formulary, or any supplement to any of them; or

(2) Intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease.

"Drug facility" means a room or area designed and equipped for drug storage and the preparation of drugs for administration.

"Emergency closure" is an order by the department to immediately close a nursing home.

"Emergency transfer" means immediate transfer of residents from a nursing home to safe settings.

"Entity" means any type of firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or joint stock association.

"Financial exploitation" means the illegal or improper use of the property, income, resources, or trust funds of the vulnerable adult by any individual for his or her profit or advantage.

"Habilitative services" means the planned interventions and procedures which constitute a continuing and comprehensive effort to teach an individual previously undeveloped skills.

"Highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being" means providing each resident with the necessary individualized care and services to assist the resident to achieve or maintain the highest possible health, functional and independence level in accordance with the resident's comprehensive assessment and plan of care. Care and services provided by the nursing home must be consistent with all requirements in this chapter, chapters 74.42 and 18.51 RCW, and the resident's informed choices. For medicaid and medicare residents, care and services must also be consistent with Title XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act and federal medicare and medicaid regulations.

"Informal department review" is a dispute resolution process that provides an opportunity for the licensee or administrator to informally present information to a department representative about disputed, cited deficiencies. Refer to WAC 388-97-4420.

"Inspection" or "survey" means the process by which department staff evaluates the nursing home licensee's compliance with applicable statutes and regulations.

"Intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded (ICF/MR)" means an institution certified under chapter 42 C.F.R., Part 483, Subpart I, and licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW.

"Pharmacy" means a place licensed under chapter 18.64 RCW where the practice of pharmacy is conducted.

"Physical restraint" means any manual method or physical or mechanical device, material, or equipment attached or adjacent to the resident's body that the resident cannot remove easily, and which restricts freedom of movement or access to the resident's body.

"Physician's assistant (PA)" means a physician's assistant as defined under chapter 18.57A or 18.71A RCW or successor laws.

"Plan of correction" is a nursing home's written response to cited deficiencies that explains how it will correct the deficiencies and how it will prevent their recurrence.

"Reasonable accommodation" and "reasonably accommodate" has the meaning given in federal and state antidiscrimination laws and regulations. For the purpose of this chapter:

(1) Reasonable accommodation means that the nursing home must:

(a) Not impose admission criteria that excludes individuals unless the criteria is necessary for the provision of nursing home services;

(b) Make reasonable modification to its policies, practices or procedures if the modifications are necessary to accommodate the needs of the resident;

(c) Provide additional aids and services to the resident.

(2) Reasonable accommodations are not required if:

(a) The resident or individual applying for admission presents a significant risk to the health or safety of others that cannot be eliminated by the reasonable accommodation;

(b) The reasonable accommodations would fundamentally alter the nature of the services provided by the nursing home; or

(c) The reasonable accommodations would cause an undue burden, meaning a significant financial or administrative burden.

"Receivership" is established by a court action and results in the removal of a nursing home's current licensee and the appointment of a substitute licensee to temporarily operate the nursing home.

"Recurring deficiency" means a deficiency that was cited by the department, corrected by the nursing home, and then cited again within fifteen months of the initial deficiency citation.

"Registered nurse" means an individual licensed to practice as a registered nurse under chapter 18.79 RCW.

"Rehabilitative services" means the planned interventions and procedures which constitute a continuing and comprehensive effort to restore an individual to the individual's former functional and environmental status, or alternatively, to maintain or maximize remaining function.

"Resident" generally means an individual residing in a nursing home. Except as specified elsewhere in this chapter, for decision-making purposes, the term "resident" includes the resident's surrogate decision maker acting under state law. The term resident excludes outpatients and individuals receiving adult day or night care, or respite care.

Admission, Transfer and Discharge

WAC 388-97-0020 Nursing facility care. The nursing facility must provide items, care, and services in accordance with this chapter and with federal regulations under 42 C.F.R. § 483.1 through 483.206, or successor laws, and other applicable federal requirements.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0020, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0040 Discrimination prohibited. (1) A nursing facility must establish and maintain identical policies and practices regarding transfer, discharge, and the provision of services covered under the state medicaid plan for all individuals regardless of source of payment.

(2) A nursing facility must not require or request:

- (a) Residents or potential residents to waive their rights to medicare or medicaid;
- (b) Oral or written assurance that residents or potential residents are not eligible for, or will not apply for medicare or medicaid benefits; and

(c) A third party guarantee of payment to the facility as a condition of admission or expedited admission, or continued stay in the facility. However, the facility may require an individual who has legal access to a resident's income or resources available to pay for facility care to sign a contract, without incurring personal financial liability, to provide facility payment from the resident's income or resources.

(3) A nursing facility must inform, in writing, a prospective resident, and where applicable, the resident's representative, before or at the time of admission, that a third party may not be required or requested to personally guarantee payment to the nursing home, as specified in subsection (2)(c) of this section.

(4) A nursing facility must readmit a resident, who has been hospitalized or on therapeutic leave, immediately to the first available bed in a semiprivate room if the resident:

- (a) Requires the services provided by the facility; and
- (b) Is eligible for medicaid nursing facility services.

(5) A nursing facility must not:

- (a) Deny or delay admission or readmission of an individual to the facility because of the individual's status as a medicaid recipient;
- (b) Transfer a resident, except from a single room to another room within the facility, because of the resident's status as a medicaid recipient;
- (c) Discharge a resident from a facility because of the resident's status as a medicaid recipient; or
- (d) Charge medicaid recipients any amounts in excess of the medicaid rate from the date of eligibility, except for any supplementation that may be permitted by department regulation.

(6) A nursing facility must maintain only one list of names of individuals seeking admission to the facility, which is ordered by the date of request for admission, and must:

- (a) Offer admission to individuals in the order they appear on the list, except as provided in subsection (7), as long as the facility can meet the needs of the individual with available staff or through the provision of reasonable accommodations required by state or federal laws;
- (b) Retain the list of individuals seeking admission for one year from the month admission was requested; and
- (c) Offer admission to the portions of the facility certified under medicare and medicaid without discrimination against persons eligible for medicaid, except as provided in subsection (7).

(7) A nursing facility is permitted to give preferential admission to individuals who seek admission from a boarding home, licensed under chapter 18.20 RCW, or from independent retirement housing, if:

- (a) The nursing facility is owned by the same entity that owns the boarding home or independent housing; and
- (b) They are located within the same proximate geographic area; and

(c) The purpose of the preferential admission is to allow continued provision of culturally or faith-based services, or services provided by a continuing care retirement community as defined in RCW 74.38.025.

(8) A nursing facility must develop and implement written policies and procedures to ensure nondiscrimination in accordance with this section and RCW 74.42.055.

WAC 388-97-0080 Discharge planning. (1) A resident has the right to attain or maintain the highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being, and to reside in the most independent setting. Therefore, the nursing home must:

(a) Utilize a formal resident discharge planning system with identical policies and practices for all residents regardless of source of payment;

(b) Inform the resident or resident's representative in writing of the nursing home's discharge planning system when the resident is admitted or as soon as practical after the resident's admission, including:

(i) Specific resources available to assist the resident in locating a lesser care setting;

(ii) The name of the nursing home's discharge coordinator(s);

(iii) In the case of a medicaid certified nursing facility, the address and telephone number for the department's local home and community services office; and

(iv) In the case of a resident identified through pre-admission screening and resident review (PASRR) as having a developmental disability or mental illness, the address and telephone number for the division of developmental disabilities or the mental health PASRR contractor.

(2) The nursing home must prepare a detailed, written transfer or discharge plan for each resident determined to have potential for transfer or discharge within the next three months. The nursing home must:

(a) Develop and implement the plan with the active participation of the resident and, where appropriate, the resident's representative;

(b) In the case of a medicaid resident, coordinate the plan with the department's home and community services staff;

(c) In the case of a resident identified through PASRR as having a developmental disability or mental illness, coordinate the plan with the division of developmental disabilities or the mental health PASRR contractor;

(d) Ensure the plan is an integral part of the resident's comprehensive plan of care and, as such, includes measurable objectives and timetables for completion;

(e) Incorporate in the plan relevant factors to include, but not be limited to the:

(i) Resident's preferences;

(ii) Support system;

(iii) Assessments and plan of care; and

(iv) Availability of appropriate resources to match the resident's preferences and needs.

(f) Identify in the plan specific options for more independent placement; and

(g) Provide in the plan for the resident's continuity of care, and to reduce potential transfer trauma, including, but not limited to, pretransfer visit to the new location whenever possible.

(3) For a resident whose transfer or discharge is not anticipated in the next three months, the nursing home must:

(a) Document the specific reasons transfer or discharge is not anticipated in that time frame; and

(b) Review the resident's potential for transfer or discharge at the time of the quarterly comprehensive plan of care review. If the reasons documented under subsection (3)(a) of this section are unchanged, no additional documentation of reasons is necessary at the time of plan of care review.

(4) The nursing home must initiate discharge planning on residents described in subsection (3) of this section:

(a) At the request of the resident or the resident's representative; and

(b) When there is a change in the resident's situation or status which indicates a potential for transfer or discharge within the next three months.

(5) Each resident has the right to request transfer or discharge and to choose a new location. If the resident chooses to leave, the nursing home must assist with and coordinate the resident's transfer or discharge. The medicaid resident, resident's representative, or nursing facility may request assistance from the department's home and community services or, where applicable, the division of developmental disabilities or mental health in the transfer or discharge planning and implementation process.

(6) The nursing home must coordinate all resident transfers and discharges with the resident, the resident's representative and any other involved individual or entity.

(7) When a nursing home anticipates discharge, a resident must have a discharge summary that includes:

(a) A recapitulation of the resident's stay;

(b) A final summary of the resident's status to include items in WAC 388-97-1000(1), at the time of discharge that is available for release to authorized individuals and agencies, with the consent of the resident or and surrogate decision maker; and

(c) A postdischarge plan of care that is developed with the participation of the resident and his or her family, which will assist the resident to adjust to his or her new living environment.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0080, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0100 Utilization review. (1) To assure appropriate use of medicaid services, the nursing facility must determine whether each medicaid resident's health has improved sufficiently so the resident no longer needs nursing facility care.

(a) The nursing facility must base its determination on:

(i) An accurate, comprehensive assessment process; and

(ii) Documentation by the resident's physician.

(b) The nursing facility must not make this determination for residents the department is responsible to assess under WAC 388-97-1960.

(2) When the nursing facility determines a resident no longer needs nursing facility care under subsection (1) of this section, the nursing facility must initiate transfer or discharge in accordance with WAC 388-97-0120, 388-97-0140, and 42 C.F.R. § 483.12, or successor laws, unless the resident voluntarily chooses to transfer or discharge.

(3) When a nursing facility initiates a transfer or discharge of a medicaid recipient under subsection (2) of this section:

(a) The resident will be ineligible for medicaid nursing facility payment:

(i) Thirty days after the receipt of written notice of transfer or discharge; or

(ii) If the resident appeals the facility determination, thirty days after the final order is entered upholding the nursing home's decision to transfer or discharge a resident.

(b) The department's home and community services may grant extension of a resident's medicaid nursing facility payment after the time specified in subsection (3)(a) of this section, when the department's home and community services staff determine:

(i) The nursing facility is making a good faith effort to relocate the resident; and

(ii) A location appropriate to the resident's medical and other needs is not available.

(4) Department designees may review any assessment or determination made by a nursing facility of a resident's need for nursing facility care.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0100, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0120 Individual transfer and discharge rights and procedures. (1) The skilled nursing facility and nursing facility must comply with all of the requirements of 42 C.F.R. § 483.10 and § 483.12, and RCW 74.42.450, or successor laws, and the nursing home must comply with all of the requirements of RCW 74.42.450 (1) through (4) and (7), or successor laws, including the following provisions and must not transfer or discharge any resident unless:

(a) At the resident's request;

(b) The transfer or discharge is necessary for the resident's welfare and the resident's needs cannot be met in the facility;

(c) The transfer or discharge is appropriate because the resident's health has improved enough so the resident no longer needs the services provided by the facility;

(d) The safety of individuals in the facility is endangered;

(e) The health of individuals in the facility would otherwise be endangered; or

(f) The resident has failed, after reasonable and appropriate notice, to pay for a stay at the facility.

(2) The following notice requirements apply if a nursing home/facility initiates the transfer or discharge of a resident. The notice must:

(a) Include all information required by 42 C.F.R. § 483.12 when given in a nursing facility;

(b) Be in writing, in language the resident understands;

(c) Be given to the resident, the resident's surrogate decision maker, if any, the resident's family and to the department;

(d) Be provided thirty days in advance of a transfer or discharge initiated by the nursing facility, except that the notice may be given as soon as practicable when the facility cannot meet the resident's urgent medical needs, or under the conditions described in (1)(c), (d), and (e) of this section; and

(e) Be provided fifteen days in advance of a transfer or discharge initiated by the nursing home, unless the transfer is an emergency.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 572]

(3) The nursing home must:

(a) Provide sufficient preparation and orientation to the resident to ensure safe and orderly transfer or discharge from the nursing home;

(b) Attempt to avoid the transfer or discharge of a resident from the nursing home through the use of reasonable accommodations unless agreed to by the resident and the requirements of WAC 388-97-0080 are met; and

(c) Develop and implement a bed-hold policy. This policy must be consistent with any bed-hold policy that the department develops.

(4) The nursing home must provide the bed-hold policy, in written format, to the resident, and a family member, before the resident is transferred or goes on therapeutic leave. At a minimum the policy must state:

(a) The number of days, if any, the nursing home will hold a resident's bed pending return from hospitalization or social/therapeutic leave;

(b) That a medicaid eligible resident, whose hospitalization or social/therapeutic leave exceeds the maximum number of bed-hold days will be readmitted to the first available semi-private bed, provided the resident needs nursing facility services. Social/therapeutic leave is defined under WAC 388-97-0001. The number of days of social/therapeutic leave allowed for medicaid residents and the authorization process is found under WAC 388-97-0160; and

(c) That a medicaid eligible resident may be charged if he or she requests that a specific bed be held, but may not be charged a bed-hold fee for the right to return to the first available bed in a semi-private room.

(5) The nursing facility must send a copy of the federally required transfer or discharge notice to:

(a) The department's home and community services when the nursing home has determined under WAC 388-97-0100, that the medicaid resident's health has improved sufficiently so that the resident no longer needs the services provided by the facility; and

(b) The department's designated local office when the transfer or discharge is for any of the following reasons:

(i) The resident's needs cannot be met in the facility;

(ii) The health or safety of individuals in the facility is endangered; or

(iii) The resident has failed to pay for, or to have paid under medicare or medicaid, a stay at the facility.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0120, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0140 Transfer and discharge appeals for resident in medicare or medicaid certified facilities.

(1) A skilled nursing facility and a nursing facility that initiates transfer or discharge of any resident, regardless of payor status, must:

(a) Provide the required written notice of transfer or discharge to the resident and, if known or appropriate, to a family member or the resident's representative;

(b) Attach a department-designated hearing request form to the transfer or discharge notice;

(c) Inform the resident in writing, in a language and manner the resident can understand, that:

(2009 Ed.)

(i) An appeal request may be made any time up to ninety days from the date the resident receives the notice of transfer or discharge; and

(ii) Transfer or discharge will be suspended when an appeal request is received by the office of administrative hearings on or before the date the resident actually transfers or discharges; and

(iii) The nursing home will assist the resident in requesting a hearing to appeal the transfer or discharge decision.

(2) A skilled nursing facility or nursing facility must suspend transfer or discharge pending the outcome of the hearing when the resident's appeal is received by the office of administrative hearings on or before the date of the transfer or discharge set forth in the written transfer or discharge notice, or before the resident is actually transferred or discharged.

(3) The resident is entitled to appeal the skilled nursing facility or nursing facility's transfer or discharge decision. The appeals process is set forth in chapter 388-02 WAC and this chapter. In such appeals, the following will apply:

(a) In the event of a conflict between a provision in this chapter and a provision in chapter 388-02 WAC, the provision in this chapter will prevail;

(b) The resident must be the appellant and the skilled nursing facility or the nursing facility will be the respondent;

(c) The department must be notified of the appeal and may choose whether to participate in the proceedings. If the department chooses to participate, its role is to represent the state's interest in assuring that skilled nursing facility and nursing facility transfer and discharge actions comply substantively and procedurally with the law and with federal requirements necessary for federal funds;

(d) If a medicare certified or medicaid certified facility's decision to transfer or discharge a resident is not upheld, and the resident has been relocated, the resident has the right to readmission immediately upon the first available bed in a semi-private room if the resident requires and is eligible for the services provided by a nursing facility or skilled nursing facility;

(e) Any review of the administrative law judge's initial decision shall be conducted under WAC 388-02-0600(1).

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52, 08-20-062, § 388-97-0140, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0160 Discharge or leave of a nursing facility resident. (1) A nursing facility must send immediate written notification of the date of discharge or death of a medicaid resident to the department's local home and community service office.

(2) The nursing facility must:

(a) Notify the department of nursing facility discharge and readmission for all medicaid recipients admitted as hospital inpatients; and

(b) Document in the resident's clinical record all social/therapeutic leave exceeding twenty-four hours.

(3) The department will pay the nursing facility for a medicaid resident's social/therapeutic leave not to exceed a total of eighteen days per calendar year per resident.

(4) The department's home and community services may authorize social/therapeutic leave exceeding eighteen days per calendar year per resident when requested by the nursing facility or by the resident. In the absence of prior authorization from the department's home and community services, the department will not make payment to a nursing facility for leave days exceeding eighteen per calendar year per resident.

(5) An individual who is on social/therapeutic leave retains the status of a nursing facility resident.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52, 08-20-062, § 388-97-0160, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

Resident Rights

WAC 388-97-0180 Resident rights. (1) The nursing home must meet the resident rights requirements of this section and those in the rest of the chapter.

(2) The resident has a right to a dignified existence, self-determination, and communication with, and access to individuals and services inside and outside the nursing home.

(3) A nursing home must promote and protect the rights of each resident, including those with limited cognition or other barriers that limit the exercise of rights.

(4) The resident has the right to:

(a) Exercise his or her rights as a resident of the nursing home and as a citizen or resident of the United States. Refer to WAC 388-97-0240;

(b) Be free of interference, coercion, discrimination, and reprisal from the nursing home in exercising his or her rights; and

(c) Not be asked or required to sign any contract or agreement that includes provisions to waive:

(i) Any resident right set forth in this chapter or in the applicable licensing or certification laws; or

(ii) Any potential liability for personal injury or losses of personal property.

(5) The nursing home must take steps to safeguard residents and their personal property from foreseeable risks of injury or loss.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52, 08-20-062, § 388-97-0180, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0200 Free choice. The resident has the right to:

(1) Choose a personal attending physician.

(2) Be fully informed in advance about care and treatment and of any changes in that care or treatment that may affect the resident's well-being.

(3) Participate in planning care and treatment or changes in care and treatment.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52, 08-20-062, § 388-97-0200, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0220 Statute implemented in resident decision making, informed consent, and advance directives. WAC 388-97-0240, 388-97-0260, and 388-97-0280 implement the federal Patient Self-Determination Act and clarify requirements under chapters 11.94, 7.70, 70.122, 11.88 and 11.92 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52, 08-20-062, § 388-97-0220, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0240 Resident decision making. (1) At the time of admission, or not later than the completion of the initial comprehensive resident assessment, the nursing home must determine if the resident:

(a) Has appointed another individual to make his or her health care, financial, or other decisions;

(b) Has created any advance directive or other legal documents that will establish a surrogate decision maker in the future; and

(c) Is not making his or her own decisions, and identify who has the authority for surrogate decision making, and the scope of the surrogate decision maker's authority.

(2) The nursing home must review the requirements of (1) of this section when the resident's condition warrants the review or when there is a significant change in the resident's condition.

(3) In fulfilling its duty to determine who, if anyone, is authorized to make decisions for the resident, the nursing home must:

(a) Obtain copies of the legal documents that establish the surrogate decision maker's authority to act; and

(b) Document in the resident's clinical record:

(i) The name, address, and telephone number of the individual who has legal authority for substitute decision making;

(ii) The type of decision making authority such individual has; and

(iii) Where copies of the legal documents are located at the facility.

(4) In accordance with state law or at the request of the resident, the resident's surrogate decision maker is, in the case of:

(a) A capacitated resident, the individual authorized by the resident to make decisions on the resident's behalf;

(b) A resident adjudicated by a court of law to be incapacitated, the court appointed guardian; and

(c) A resident who has been determined to be incapacitated, but is not adjudicated incapacitated established through:

(i) A legal document, such as a durable power of attorney for health care; or

(ii) Authority for substitute decision making granted by state law, including RCW 7.70.065.

(5) Determination of an individual's incapacity must be a process according to state law not a medical diagnosis only and be based on:

(a) Demonstrated inability in decision making over time that creates a significant risk of personal harm;

(b) A court order; or

(c) The criteria contained in a legal document, such as durable power of attorney for health care.

(6) The nursing home must promote the resident's right to exercise decision making and self-determination to the fullest extent possible, taking into consideration his or her ability to understand and respond. Therefore, the nursing home must presume that the resident is the resident's own decision maker unless:

(a) A court has established a full guardianship of the individual;

(b) The capacitated resident has clearly and voluntarily appointed a surrogate decision maker;

(c) A surrogate is established by a legal document such as a durable power of attorney for health care; or

(d) The facility determines that the resident is an incapacitated individual according to RCW 11.88.010 and (5)(a) of this section.

(7) The nursing home must honor the exercise of the resident's rights by the surrogate decision maker as long as the surrogate acts in accordance with this section and with state and federal law which govern his or her appointment.

(8) If a surrogate decision maker exercises a resident's rights, the nursing home must take into consideration the resident's ability to understand and respond and must:

(a) Inform the resident that a surrogate decision maker has been consulted;

(b) Provide the resident with the information and opportunity to participate in all decision making to the maximum extent possible; and

(c) Recognize that involvement of a surrogate decision maker does not lessen the nursing home's duty to:

(i) Protect the resident's rights; and

(ii) Comply with state and federal laws.

(9) The nursing home must:

(a) Regularly review any determination of incapacity based on (4)(b) and (c) of this section;

(b) Except for residents with a guardian, cease to rely upon the surrogate decision maker to exercise the resident's rights, if the resident regains capacity, unless so designated by the resident or by court order; and

(c) In the case of a guardian notify the court of jurisdiction in writing if:

(i) The resident regains capacity;

(ii) The guardian is not respecting or promoting the resident's rights;

(iii) The guardianship should be modified; or

(iv) A different guardian needs to be appointed.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0240, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0260 Informed consent. (1) The nursing home must ensure that the informed consent process is followed with:

(a) The resident to the maximum extent possible, taking into consideration his or her ability to understand and respond; and

(b) The surrogate decision maker when the resident is determined to be incapacitated as established through the provision of a legal document such as durable power of attorney for health care, a court proceeding, or as authorized by state law, including RCW 7.70.065. The surrogate decision maker must:

(i) First determine if the resident would consent or refuse the proposed or alternative treatment;

(ii) Discuss determination of consent or refusal with the resident whenever possible; and

(iii) When a determination of the resident's consent or refusal of treatment cannot be made, make the decision in the best interest of the resident.

(2) The informed consent process must include, in words and language that the resident, or if applicable the resident's surrogate decision maker, understands, a description of:

(a) The nature and character of the proposed treatment;

(b) The anticipated results of the proposed treatment;
 (c) The recognized possible alternative forms of treatment;

(d) The recognized serious possible risks, complications, and anticipated benefits involved in the treatment and in the recognized possible alternative forms of treatment including nontreatment; and

(e) The right of the resident to choose not to be informed.

(3) To ensure informed consent or refusal by a resident, or if applicable the resident's surrogate decision maker, regarding plan or care options, the nursing home must:

(a) Provide the informed consent process to the resident in a neutral manner and in a language, words, and manner the resident can understand;

(b) Inform the resident of the right to consent to or refuse care and service options at the time of resident assessment and plan of care development (see WAC 388-97-1000 and 388-97-1020 and with condition changes, as necessary to ensure that the resident's wishes are known);

(c) Inform the resident at the time of initial plan of care decisions and periodically of the right to change his or her mind about an earlier consent or refusal decision;

(d) Ensure that evidence of informed consent or refusal is consistent with WAC 388-97-1000 and 388-97-1020; and

(e) Where appropriate, include evidence of resident's choice not to be informed as required in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

WAC 388-97-0280 Advance directives. (1) "Advance directive" as used in this chapter means any document indicating a resident's choice with regard to a specific service, treatment, medication or medical procedure option that may be implemented in the future such as power of attorney, health care directive, limited or restricted treatment cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), do not resuscitate (DNR), and organ tissue donation.

(2) The nursing home must carry out the provisions of this section in accordance with the applicable provisions of WAC 388-97-0240 and 388-97-0260, and with state law.

(3) The nursing home must:

(a) Document in the clinical record whether or not the resident has an advance directive;

(b) Not request or require the resident to have any advance directives and not condition the provision of care or otherwise discriminate against a resident on the basis of whether or not the resident has executed an advance directive;

(c) In a language and words the resident understands, inform the resident in writing and orally at the time of admission, and thereafter as necessary to ensure the resident's right to make informed choices, about:

(i) The right to make health care decisions, including the right to change his or her mind regarding previous decisions;

(ii) Nursing home policies and procedures concerning implementation of advance directives, including how the nursing home implements emergency responses; and

(d) Review and update as needed the resident advance directive information:

(i) At the resident's request;

(2009 Ed.)

(ii) When the resident's condition warrants review; and
 (iii) When there is a significant change in the resident's condition.

(4) When the nursing home becomes aware that a resident's health care directive is in conflict with facility practices and policies which are consistent with state and federal law, the nursing home must:

(a) Inform the resident of the existence of any nursing home practice or policy which would preclude implementing the health care directive;

(b) Provide the resident with written policies and procedures that explain under what circumstances a resident's health care directive will or will not be implemented by the nursing home;

(c) Meet with the resident to discuss the conflict; and

(d) Determine, in light of the conflicting practice or policy, whether the resident chooses to remain at the nursing home:

(i) If the resident chooses to remain in the nursing home, develop with the resident a plan in accordance with chapter 70.122 RCW to implement the resident's wishes. The nursing home may need to actively participate in ensuring the execution of the plan, including moving the resident at the time of implementation to a care setting that will implement the resident's wishes. Attach the plan to the resident's directive in the resident's clinical record; or

(ii) If, after recognizing the conflict between the resident's wishes and nursing home practice or policy the resident chooses to seek other long-term care services, or another physician who will implement the directive, the nursing home must assist the resident in locating other appropriate services.

(5) If a terminally ill resident, in accordance with state law, wishes to die at home, the nursing home must:

(a) Use the informed consent process as described in WAC 388-97-0260, and explain to the resident the risks associated with discharge; and

(b) Discharge the resident as soon as reasonably possible.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0280, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0300 Notice of rights and services. (1) The nursing home must provide the resident, before admission, or at the time of admission in the case of an emergency, and as changes occur during the resident's stay, both orally and in writing and in language and words that the resident understands, with the following information:

(a) All rules and regulations governing resident conduct, resident's rights and responsibilities during the stay in the nursing home;

(b) Advanced directives, and of any nursing home policy or practice that might conflict with the resident's advance directive if made;

(c) Advance notice of transfer requirements, consistent with RCW 70.129.110;

(d) Advance notice of deposits and refunds, consistent with RCW 70.129.150; and

(e) Items, services and activities available in the nursing home and of charges for those services, including any charges for services not covered under medicare or medicaid or by the home's per diem rate.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 575]

(2) The resident has the right:

(a) Upon an oral or written request, to access all records pertaining to the resident including clinical records within twenty-four hours; and

(b) After receipt of his or her records for inspection, to purchase at a cost not to exceed twenty-five cents a page, photocopies of the records or any portions of them upon request and two working days advance notice to the nursing home. For the purposes of this chapter, "working days" means Monday through Friday, except for legal holidays.

(3) The resident has the right to:

(a) Be fully informed in words and language that he or she can understand of his or her total health status, including, but not limited to, his or her medical condition;

(b) Accept or refuse treatment; and

(c) Refuse to participate in experimental research.

(4) The nursing home must inform each resident:

(a) Who is entitled to medicaid benefits, in writing, prior to the time of admission to the nursing facility or, when the resident becomes eligible for medicaid of the items, services and activities:

(i) That are included in nursing facility services under the medicaid state plan and for which the resident may not be charged; and

(ii) That the nursing home offers and for which the resident may be charged, and the amount of charges for those services.

(b) That deposits, admission fees and prepayment of charges cannot be solicited or accepted from medicare or medicaid eligible residents; and

(c) That minimum stay requirements cannot be imposed on medicare or medicaid eligible residents.

(5) The nursing home must, except for emergencies, inform each resident in writing, thirty days in advance before changes are made to the availability or charges for items, services or activities specified in section (4)(a)(i) and (ii), or before changes to the nursing home rules.

(6) The private pay resident has the right to the following, regarding fee disclosure-deposits:

(a) Prior to admission, a nursing home that requires payment of an admission fee, deposit, or a minimum stay fee, by or on behalf of an individual seeking admission to the nursing home, must provide the individual:

(i) Full disclosure in writing in a language the potential resident or his representative understands:

(A) Of the nursing home's schedule of charges for items, services, and activities provided by the nursing home; and

(B) Of what portion of the deposits, admissions fees, pre-paid charges or minimum stay fee will be refunded to the resident if the resident leaves the nursing home.

(ii) The amount of any admission fees, deposits, or minimum stay fees.

(iii) If the nursing home does not provide these disclosures, the nursing home must not keep deposits, admission fees, prepaid charges or minimum stay fees.

(b) If a resident dies or is hospitalized or is transferred and does not return to the nursing home, the nursing home:

(i) Must refund any deposit or charges already paid, less the home's per diem rate, for the days the resident actually resided or reserved or retained a bed in the nursing home, regardless of any minimum stay or discharge notice requirements; except that

(ii) The nursing home may retain an additional amount to cover its reasonable, actual expenses incurred as a result of a private pay resident's move, not to exceed five days per diem charges, unless the resident has given advance notice in compliance with the admission agreement.

(c) The nursing home must refund any and all refunds due the resident within thirty days from the resident's date of discharge from the nursing home; and

(d) Where the nursing home requires the execution of an admission contract by or on behalf of an individual seeking admission to the nursing home, the terms of the contract must be consistent with the requirements of this section.

(7) The nursing home must furnish a written description of legal rights which includes:

(a) A description of the manner of protecting personal funds, under WAC 388-97-0340;

(b) In the case of a nursing facility only, a description of the requirements and procedures for establishing eligibility for medicaid, including the right to request an assessment which determines the extent of a couple's nonexempt resources at the time of institutionalization and attributes to the community spouse an equitable share of resources which cannot be considered available for payment toward the cost of the institutionalized spouse's medical care in his or her process of spending down to medicaid eligibility levels;

(c) A posting of names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all relevant state client advocacy groups such as the state survey and certification agency, the state licensure office, the state ombudsman program, the protection and advocacy network, and the medicaid fraud control unit; and

(d) A statement that the resident may file a complaint with the state survey and certification agency concerning resident abandonment, abuse, neglect, financial exploitation, and misappropriation of resident property in the nursing home.

(8) The nursing home must:

(a) Inform each resident of the name, and specialty of the physician responsible for his or her care; and

(b) Provide a way for each resident to contact his or her physician.

(9) The skilled nursing facility and nursing facility must prominently display in the facility written information, and provide to residents and individuals applying for admission oral and written information, about how to apply for and use medicare and medicaid benefits, and how to receive refunds for previous payments covered by such benefits.

(10) The written information provided by the nursing home pursuant to this section, and the terms of any admission contract executed between the nursing home and an individual seeking admission to the nursing home, must be consistent with the requirements of chapters 74.42 and 18.51 RCW and, in addition, for facilities certified under medicare or medicaid, with the applicable federal requirements.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52, 08-20-062, § 388-97-0300, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0320 Notification of changes. (1) A nursing home must immediately inform the resident, consult with the resident's physician, and if known, notify the resident's surrogate decision maker, and when appropriate, with resident consent, interested family member(s) when there is:

(a) An accident involving the resident which results in injury and has the potential for requiring physician intervention;

(b) A significant change in the resident's physical, mental, or psychosocial status (i.e., a deterioration in health, mental, or psychological status in either life-threatening conditions or clinical complications); refer to WAC 388-97-0240;

(c) A need to alter treatment significantly (i.e., a need to discontinue an existing form of treatment due to adverse consequences, or to commence a new form of treatment); or

(d) A decision to transfer or discharge the resident from the facility.

(2) The nursing home must also promptly notify the resident and, if known, the resident's surrogate decision maker, and when appropriate, with the resident's consent, interested family member(s) when there is:

(a) A change in room or roommate assignment, refer to the timing requirements in WAC 388-97-0580; or

(b) A change in resident rights under federal or state law or regulations as specified in WAC 388-97-0300.

(3) The nursing home must record and periodically update the address and phone number of the resident's legal surrogate decision maker and interested family member(s).

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0320, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0340 Protection of resident funds. (1) The resident has the right to manage his or her financial affairs and the nursing home may not require residents to deposit their personal funds with the nursing home.

(2) Upon written authorization of a resident, the nursing home must hold, safeguard, manage and account for the personal funds of the resident deposited with the nursing home.

(3) The nursing home must establish and maintain a system that assures a full, complete and separate accounting, according to generally accepted accounting principles, of each resident's personal funds entrusted to the nursing home on the resident's behalf and must:

(a) Deposit any resident's personal funds in excess of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars for medicare residents, in an interest-bearing resident personal fund account or accounts, separate from any nursing home operating accounts, and credit all interest earned to the account;

(b) Keep personal funds under fifty dollars, one hundred dollars for medicare residents, in a noninterest-bearing account or petty cash fund maintained for residents; and

(c) Make the individual financial record available to the resident or his or her surrogate decision maker through quarterly statements and on request.

(4) The nursing facility must notify each resident that receives medicaid benefits:

(a) When the amount in the resident's account reaches two hundred dollars less than the SSI resource limit for one individual; and

(b) That if the amount in the account, in addition to the value of the resident's other nonexempt resources, reaches the

SSI resource limit for one individual, the resident may lose eligibility for medicaid or SSI.

(5) The nursing home must convey the resident's funds, and a final accounting of those funds, to the resident or to the individual or jurisdiction administering the resident's estate, within thirty days of the discharge, transfer or death of any resident with a personal fund deposited with the nursing home. The funds of a deceased medicaid resident must be sent to the state of Washington, department of social and health services, office of financial recovery.

(6) The nursing facility must purchase a surety bond, or an approved alternative, to assure security of personal funds of residents deposited with the facility.

(7) Medicare certified and medicaid certified facilities may not impose a charge against a resident's personal funds for any item or service for which payment is made under medicaid or medicare as described in 42 C.F.R. § 483.10 (c)(8).

(8) Medicare certified and medicaid certified nursing facilities must:

(a) Not charge a resident (or the resident's representative) for any item or service not requested by the resident;

(b) Not require a resident, or the resident's representative, to request any item or service as a condition of admission or continued stay; and

(c) Inform the resident, or the resident's representative, requesting an item or services for which a charge will be made that there will be a charge for the item or service and what the charge will be.

(9) When a resident's financial eligibility for nursing facility services is established by the department, the facility must refund to the resident:

(a) Any deposit that was required prior to eligibility; and

(b) Any payments for services that will be covered retroactively by medicaid.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0340, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0360 Privacy and confidentiality. (1) The resident has the right to personal privacy and confidentiality of his or her personal and clinical records. Personal privacy includes:

(a) Accommodations;

(b) Medical treatment;

(c) Written and telephone communications;

(d) Personal care;

(e) Visits; and

(f) Meetings with family and resident groups.

(2) The resident may approve or refuse the release of personal and clinical records to any individual outside the nursing home, unless the resident has been adjudged incapacitated according to state law.

(3) The resident's right to refuse release of personal and clinical records does not apply when:

(a) The resident is transferred to another health care institution; or

(b) Record release is required by law.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0360, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0380 Electronic monitoring equipment—Audio monitoring and video monitoring. (1) Except as provided in this section or in WAC 388-97-0400, the nursing home must not use the following in the facility or on the premises:

- (a) Audio monitoring equipment; or
 - (b) Video monitoring equipment if it includes an audio component.
- (2) The nursing home may video monitor and video record activities in the facility or on the premises, without an audio component, only in the following areas:
- (a) Entrances and exits as long as the cameras are:
 - (i) Focused only on the entrance or exit doorways; and
 - (ii) Not focused on areas where residents gather.
 - (b) Areas used exclusively by staff persons such as, medication preparation and storage areas or food preparation areas, if residents do not go into these areas;
 - (c) Outdoor areas not commonly used by residents, such as, but not limited to, delivery areas; and
 - (d) Designated smoking areas, subject to the following conditions:
 - (i) Residents have been assessed as needing supervision for smoking;
 - (ii) A staff person watches the video monitor at any time the area is used by such residents;
 - (iii) The video camera is clearly visible;
 - (iv) The video monitor is not viewable by general public; and
 - (v) The facility notifies all residents in writing of the use of video monitoring equipment.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0380, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0400 Electronic monitoring equipment—Resident requested use. (1) The nursing home must not use audio or video monitoring equipment to monitor any resident unless:

- (a) The resident has requested the monitoring; and
 - (b) The monitoring is only used in the sleeping room of the resident who requested the monitoring.
- (2) If the resident requests audio or video monitoring, before any electronic monitoring occurs, the nursing home must ensure:
- (a) That the electronic monitoring does not violate chapter 9.73 RCW;
 - (b) The resident has identified a threat to the resident's health, safety or personal property;
 - (c) The resident's roommate has provided written consent to electronic monitoring, if the resident has a roommate; and
 - (d) The resident and the nursing home have agreed upon a specific duration for the electronic monitoring and the agreement is documented in writing.
- (3) The nursing home must:
- (a) Reevaluate the need for the electronic monitoring with the resident at least quarterly; and
 - (b) Have each re-evaluation in writing, signed and dated by the resident.
- (4) The nursing home must immediately stop electronic monitoring if the:
- (a) Resident no longer wants electronic monitoring;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 578]

(b) Roommate objects or withdraws the consent to the electronic monitoring; or

(c) The resident becomes unable to give consent.

(5) For the purposes of consenting to video electronic monitoring without an audio component, the term "resident" includes the resident's surrogate decision maker.

(6) For purpose of consenting to any audio electronic monitoring, the term "resident" includes:

(a) The individual residing in the nursing home; or

(b) The resident's court-appointed guardian or attorney-in-fact who has obtained a court order specifically authorizing the court-appointed guardian or attorney-in-fact to consent to audio electronic monitoring of the resident.

(7) If a resident's decision maker consents to audio electronic monitoring as specified in (6) above, the nursing home must maintain a copy of the court order authorizing such consent in the resident's record.

WAC 388-97-0420 Work. The resident has the right to:

- (1) Refuse to perform services for the nursing home; and
- (2) Perform services for the nursing home, if he or she chooses, when:
 - (a) The facility has documented the need or desire for work in the plan of care;
 - (b) The plan specifies the nature of the services performed and whether the services are voluntary or paid;
 - (c) Compensation for paid services is at or above prevailing rates; and
 - (d) The resident agrees to the work arrangement described in the plan of care.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0420, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0440 Self-administration of drugs. A resident may self-administer drugs if the interdisciplinary team has determined that this practice is safe.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0440, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0460 Grievance rights. A resident has the right to:

- (1) Voice grievances without discrimination or reprisal. Grievances include those with respect to treatment which has been furnished as well as that which has not been furnished.
- (2) Prompt efforts by the nursing home to resolve voiced grievances, including those with respect to the behavior of other residents.
- (3) File a complaint, contact, or provide information to the department, the long-term care ombudsman, the attorney general's office, and law enforcement agencies without interference, discrimination, or reprisal. All forms of retaliatory treatment are prohibited, including those listed in chapter 74.39A RCW.
- (4) Receive information from agencies acting as client advocates, and be afforded the opportunity to contact these agencies.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0460, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0480 Examination of survey results. (1)

The resident has the right to examine the results of:

(a) The most recent survey of the nursing home conducted by federal and state surveyors;

(b) Surveys related to any current or subsequent complaint investigation; and

(c) Any required accompanying plan of correction, completed or not.

(2) Upon receipt of any deficiency citation report, the nursing home must publicly post a notice:

(a) That the results of the survey or complaint investigation, or both, are available regardless of whether the plan of correction is completed or not; and

(b) Of the location of the deficiency citation reports.

(3) For a report posted prior to the plan of correction being completed, the nursing home may attach an accompanying notice that explains the purpose and status of the plan of correction, informal dispute review, administrative hearing and other relevant information.

(4) Upon receipt of any citation report, the nursing home must publicly post a copy of the most recent full survey and all subsequent complaint investigation deficiency citation reports, including the completed plans of correction, when one is required.

(5) The notices and any survey reports must be available for viewing or examination in a place or places:

(a) Readily accessible to residents, which does not require staff interventions to access; and

(b) In plain view of the nursing home residents, including individuals visiting those residents, and individuals who inquire about placement in the nursing home.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0480, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0500 Resident mail. The resident has the right and the nursing home must provide immediate access to any resident by the following:

(1) Send and promptly receive mail that is unopened; and

(2) Have access to stationary, postage and writing implements at the resident's own expense.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0500, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0520 Access and visitation rights. (1)

The resident has the right and the nursing home must provide immediate access to any resident by the following:

(a) For medicare and medicaid residents any representative of the U.S. department of health and human services (DHHS);

(b) Any representative of the state;

(c) The resident's personal physician;

(d) Any representative of the state long term care ombudsman program (established under section 307 (a)(12) of the Older American's Act of 1965);

(e) Any representative of the Washington protection and advocacy system, or any other agency (established under part c of the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act);

(f) Any representative of the Washington protection and advocacy system, or any agency (established under the Protection and Advocacy for Mentally Ill Individuals Act);

(2009 Ed.)

(g) Subject to the resident's right to deny or withdraw consent at any time, immediate family or other relatives of the resident; and

(h) Subject to reasonable restrictions and the resident's right to deny or withdraw consent at any time, others who are visiting with the consent of the resident.

(2) The nursing home must provide reasonable access to any resident by any entity or individual that provides health, social, legal, or other services to the resident, subject to the resident's right to deny or withdraw consent at any time.

(3) The nursing home must allow representatives of the state ombudsman, described in subsection (1)(d) of this section, to examine a resident's clinical records with the permission of the resident or the resident's surrogate decision maker, and consistent with state law. The ombudsman may also, under federal and state law, access resident's records when the resident is incapacitated and has no surrogate decision maker, and may access records over the objection of a surrogate decision maker if access is authorized by the state ombudsman pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 3058g(b) and RCW 43.190.065.

WAC 388-97-0540 Telephone. The resident has the right to have twenty-four hour access to a telephone which:

(1) Provides auditory privacy;

(2) Is accessible to an individual with a disability and accommodates an individual with sensory impairment; and

(3) Does not include the use of telephones in staff offices and at the nurses station(s).

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0540, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0560 Personal property. (1) The resident has the right, unless to do so would infringe upon the rights or health and safety of other residents, to:

(a) Retain and use personal possessions, including some furnishings, and appropriate clothing, as space permits;

(b) Provide his or her own bed and other furniture, if desired and space permits; and

(c) Not be required to keep personal property locked in the facility office, safe, or similar arrangement.

(2) The nursing home must:

(a) Not request or require residents to sign waivers of potential liability for losses of personal property; and

(b) Have a system in place to safeguard personal property within the nursing home that protects the personal property and yet allows the resident to use his or her property.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0560, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0580 Roommates/rooms. (1) A resident has the right to:

(a) Share a room with his or her spouse when married residents live in the same facility and both spouses consent to the arrangement; and

(b) Receive three days notice of change in room or roommate except:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 579]

(i) For room changes: The move is at the resident's request; and

(ii) For room or roommate changes: A longer or shorter notice is required to protect the health or safety of the resident or another resident; or an admission to the facility is necessary, and the resident is informed in advance. The nursing home must recognize that the change may be traumatic for the resident and take steps to lessen the trauma.

(2) The nursing home must make reasonable efforts to accommodate residents wanting to share the same room.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0580, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0600 Refusal of certain transfers. In dually certified facilities all beds are medicaid certified. Therefore the beds in a certified distinct part for medicare are also nursing facility beds for medicaid.

(1) Each resident has the right to refuse a transfer to another room within the facility, if the purpose of the transfer is to relocate:

(a) A resident from the medicare distinct part of the facility to a part of the facility that is not a medicare distinct part; or

(b) A resident from the part of the facility that is not a medicare distinct part to the medicare distinct part of the facility.

(2) A resident's exercise of the right to refuse transfer under subsection (1)(a) of this section does not affect the individual's eligibility or entitlement to medicare or medicaid benefits.

(3) The skilled nursing facility or nursing facility must inform residents of their rights under subsection (1) and (2) of this section at the time of the proposed transfer or relocation.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0600, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0620 Chemical and physical restraints.

(1) The resident has the right to be free from any physical or chemical restraint imposed for purposes of:

(a) Discipline or convenience, and not required to treat the resident's medical symptoms; or

(b) Preventing or limiting independent mobility or activity.

(2) The nursing home must develop and implement written policies and procedures governing:

(a) The emergency use of restraints;

(b) The use of chemical and physical restraints, required for the treatment of the resident's medical symptoms, not for discipline or convenience;

(c) The personnel authorized to administer restraints in an emergency; and

(d) Monitoring and controlling the use of restraints.

(3) Physical restraints may be used in an emergency only when:

(a) It has been assessed as necessary to prevent a resident from inflicting injury to self or to others;

(b) The restraint is the least restrictive form of restraint possible;

(c) A physician's order is obtained:

(i) Within twenty-four hours; and

(ii) The order includes treatments to assist in resolving the emergency situation and eliminating the need for the restraint.

(d) The resident is released from the restraint as soon as the emergency no longer exists.

(4) In certain situations, chemical or physical restraints may be necessary for residents with acute or chronic mental or physical impairments. When chemical or physical restraints are used the nursing home must ensure that:

(a) The use of the restraint is related to a specific medical need or problem identified through a multidisciplinary assessment;

(b) The informed consent process is followed as described under WAC 388-97-0260; and

(c) The resident's plan of care provides approaches to reduce or eliminate the use of the restraint, where possible.

(5) The nursing home must ensure that any resident physically restrained is released:

(a) At intervals not to exceed two hours; and

(b) For periods long enough to provide for ambulation, exercise, elimination, food and fluid intake, and socialization as independently as possible.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0620, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0640 Prevention of abuse. (1) Each resident has the right to be free from verbal, sexual, physical and mental abuse, corporal punishment, and involuntary seclusion.

(2) The nursing home must develop and implement written policies and procedures that:

(a) Prohibit abandonment, abuse, and neglect of residents, financial exploitation, and misappropriation of resident property; and

(b) Require staff to report possible abuse, and other related incidents, as required by chapter 74.34 RCW, and for skilled nursing facilities and nursing facilities as required by 42 C.F.R. § 483.13.

(3) The nursing home must not allow staff to:

(a) Engage in verbal, mental, sexual, or physical abuse;

(b) Use corporal punishment;

(c) Involuntarily seclude, abandon, neglect, or financially exploit residents; or

(d) Misappropriate resident property.

(4) The nursing home must report any information it has about an action taken by a court of law against an employee to the department's complaint resolution unit and the appropriate department of health licensing authority, if that action would disqualify the individual from employment as described in RCW 43.43.842.

(5) The nursing home must ensure that all allegations involving abandonment, abuse, neglect, financial exploitation, or misappropriation of resident property, including injuries of unknown origin, are reported immediately to the department, other applicable officials, and the administrator of the facility. The nursing home must:

(a) Ensure that the reports are made through established procedures in accordance with state law including chapter 74.34 RCW, and guidelines developed by the department; and

(b) Not have any policy or procedure that interferes with the requirement of chapter 74.34 RCW that employees and other mandatory reporters file reports directly with the department, and also with law enforcement, if they suspect sexual or physical assault has occurred.

(6) The nursing home must:

(a) Have evidence that all alleged violations are thoroughly investigated;

(b) Prevent further potential abandonment, abuse, neglect, financial exploitation, or misappropriation of resident property while the investigation is in progress; and

(c) Report the results of all investigations to the administrator or his designated representative and to other officials in accordance with state law and established procedures (including the state survey and certification agency) within five working days of the incident, and if the alleged violation is verified appropriate action must be taken.

(7) When a mandated reporter has:

(a) Reasonable cause to believe that a vulnerable adult has been abandoned, abused, neglected, financially exploited, or a resident's property has been misappropriated, the individual mandatory reporter must immediately report the incident to the department's aging and disability services administration (ADSA);

(b) Reason to suspect that a vulnerable adult has been sexually or physically assaulted, the individual mandatory reporter must:

(i) Immediately report the incident to the department's aging and disability services administration (ADSA);

(ii) Notify local law enforcement in accordance with the provisions of chapter 74.34 RCW.

(8) Under RCW 74.34.053, it is:

(a) A gross misdemeanor for a mandated reporter knowingly to fail to report as required under this section; and

(b) A misdemeanor for a person to intentionally, maliciously, or in bad faith make a false report of alleged abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect of a vulnerable adult.

(9) The nursing home must not employ individuals who are disqualified under the requirements of WAC 388-97-1820.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0640, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0660 Resident protection program definition. As used in WAC 388-97-0680 through 388-97-0840, the term "individual," means anyone, used by the nursing home to provide services to residents who is alleged to have abandoned, abused, neglected, misappropriated property of a resident or financially exploited a resident. "Individual" includes, but is not limited to, employees, contractors, and volunteers.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0660, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0680 Investigation of mandated reports. (1) The department will review all allegations of resident abandonment, abuse, neglect, or financial exploitation, or misappropriation of resident property, as those terms are defined in this chapter, RCW 74.34.020 or 42 C.F.R. 488.-301.

(2009 Ed.)

(2) If, after the review of an allegation, the department concludes that there is reason to believe that an individual has abandoned, abused, neglected, or financially exploited a resident, or has misappropriated a resident's property, then the department will initiate an investigation.

(3) The department's investigation may include, but is not limited to:

(a) The review of facility and state agency records;

(b) Interviews with anyone who may have relevant information about the allegation; and

(c) The collection of any evidence deemed necessary by the investigator.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0680, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0700 Preliminary finding. If, after review of the results of the investigation, the department determines that an individual has abandoned, abused, neglected, or financially exploited a resident, or has misappropriated a resident's property, the department will make a preliminary finding to that effect. However, a preliminary finding of neglect will not be made if the individual demonstrates that the neglect was caused by factors beyond the control of the individual.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0700, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0720 Notification of preliminary finding. (1) Within ten working days of making a preliminary finding, the department will send notice of the finding:

(a) To the individual by first class and certified mail, return receipt requested. The department may choose to substitute personal service for certified mail;

(b) To the current administrator of the facility where the incident occurred; and

(c) To the appropriate licensing agency.

(2) The notice will include the following information:

(a) A description of the allegation;

(b) The date and time of the incident, if known;

(c) That the individual may appeal the preliminary finding;

(d) That the preliminary finding will become final unless the individual makes a written request for a hearing within thirty days of the date of the notice; and

(e) That if the finding becomes final, it will be reported to the department's registry and the appropriate licensing authority.

(3) In a manner consistent with confidentiality requirements concerning the resident, witnesses, and the reporter, the department may also provide notification of a preliminary finding to:

(a) Other divisions within the department;

(b) The agency, program or employer with which the individual was associated including the current employer, if known;

(c) Law enforcement; and

(d) Other entities as authorized by law and this chapter including investigative authorities consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0720, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0740 Disputing a preliminary finding.

(1) The individual may request an administrative hearing to challenge a preliminary finding made by the department.

(2) The request must be made in writing to the office of administrative hearings.

(3) The office of administrative hearings must receive the individual's written request for an administrative hearing within thirty calendar days of the date of the notice of the preliminary finding; except under the circumstances described in subsection (4).

(4) If, an individual requests a hearing within one hundred eighty days of the date of the notice of the preliminary finding and the individual can demonstrate good cause for failing to request a hearing within thirty days, the office of administrative hearings may grant the request. Under these circumstances, the finding against the individual will remain on the department's registry pending the outcome of the hearing.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0740, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0760 Hearing procedures to dispute preliminary finding. Upon receipt of a written request for a hearing from an individual, the office of administrative hearings will schedule a hearing, taking into account the following requirements:

(1) The hearing decision must be issued within one hundred twenty days of the date the office of administrative hearings receives a hearing request; except as provided in subsection (6);

(2) Neither the department nor the individual can waive the one hundred twenty day requirement;

(3) The hearing will be conducted at a reasonable time and at a place that is convenient for the individual;

(4) The hearing, and any subsequent appeals, will be governed by this chapter, chapter 34.05 RCW, and chapter 388-02 WAC, or its successor regulations;

(5) A continuance may be granted for good cause upon the request of any party, as long as the hearing decision can still be issued within one hundred twenty days of the date of the receipt of the appeal; except under the circumstances described in subsection 6;

(6) If the administrative law judge finds that extenuating circumstances exist that will make it impossible to render a decision within one hundred twenty days, the administrative law judge may extend the one hundred twenty-day requirement by a maximum of sixty days; and

(7) To comply with the time limits described in this section, the individual must be available for the hearing and other preliminary matters. If the decision is not rendered within the time limit described in subsection (1), or if appropriate under subsection (6), the administrative law judge shall issue an order dismissing the appeal and the preliminary finding will become final.

WAC 388-97-0780 Finalizing the preliminary finding. (1) The preliminary finding becomes a final finding when:

(a) The department notifies the individual of a preliminary finding and the individual does not ask for an administrative hearing within the timeframe provided under WAC 388-97-0740;

(b) The individual requested an administrative hearing to appeal the preliminary finding and the administrative law judge:

(i) Dismisses the appeal following withdrawal of the appeal or default;

(ii) Dismisses the appeal for failure to comply with the time limits under WAC 388-97-0760; or

(iii) Issues an initial order upholding the finding; or

(c) The board of appeals reverses an administrative law judge's initial order and issues a final order upholding the preliminary finding.

(2) A final finding is permanent, except under the circumstances described in (3).

(3) A final finding may be removed from the department's registry and, as appropriate, any other department lists under the following circumstances:

(a) The department determines the finding was made in error;

(b) The finding is rescinded following judicial review;

(c) At least one year after a single finding of neglect has been finalized, the department may remove the finding of neglect from the department's registry or department lists based upon a written petition by the individual and in accordance with requirements of federal law, 42 U.S.C. 1396r(g)(1)(D); or

(d) The department is notified of the individual's death.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0780, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0800 Reporting final findings. The department will report a final finding of abandonment, abuse, neglect, financial exploitation of a resident, and misappropriation of resident property within ten working days to the following:

(1) The individual;

(2) The current administrator of the facility in which the incident occurred;

(3) The administrator of the facility that currently employs the individual, if known;

(4) The department's registry;

(5) The appropriate licensing authority; and

(6) Any other lists maintained by a state or federal agency as appropriate.

WAC 388-97-0820 Appeal of administrative law judge's initial order or finding. (1) If the individual or the department disagrees with the administrative law judge's decision, either party may appeal this decision by filing a petition for review with the department's board of appeals as provided under chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

(2) If the individual appeals the administrative law judge's decision, the finding will remain on the department's registry or other lists.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0820, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0840 Disclosure of investigative and finding information. (1) Information obtained during the investigation into allegations of abandonment, abuse, neglect, misappropriation of property, or financial exploitation of a resident, and any documents generated by the department will be maintained and disseminated with regard for the privacy of the resident and any reporting individuals and in accordance with laws and regulations regarding confidentiality and privacy.

(2) Confidential information about resident and mandated reporters provided to the individual by the department must be kept confidential and may only be used by the individual to challenge findings through the appeals process.

(3) Confidential information such as the name and other personal identifying information of the reporter, witnesses, or the resident will be redacted from the documents unless release of that information is consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW and other applicable state and federal laws.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0840, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

Quality of Life

WAC 388-97-0860 Resident dignity and accommodation of needs. (1) Dignity. The nursing home must ensure that:

(a) Resident care is provided in a manner to enhance each resident's dignity, and to respect and recognize his or her individuality; and

(b) Each resident's personal care needs are provided in a private area free from exposure to individuals not involved in providing the care.

(2) Accommodation of needs. Each resident has the right to reasonable accommodation of personal needs and preferences, except when the health or safety of the individual or other residents would be endangered.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0860, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0880 Environment. The nursing home must provide and maintain:

(1) A safe, clean, comfortable, and homelike environment, allowing the resident to use his or her personal belongings to the extent possible;

(2) Housekeeping and maintenance services necessary to maintain a sanitary, orderly, and comfortable interior;

(3) Comfortable and safe temperature levels:

(a) Facilities licensed after October 1, 1990 must maintain a temperature range of seventy-one to eighty-one degrees Fahrenheit; and

(b) Regardless of external weather conditions, all nursing homes must develop and implement procedures and processes to maintain a temperature level that is comfortable and safe for residents;

(4) Comfortable sound levels, to include:

(a) Minimizing the use of the public address system to ensure each use is in the best interest of the residents; and

(2009 Ed.)

(b) Taking reasonable precautions with noisy services so as not to disturb residents, particularly during their sleeping time; and

(5) Lighting suitable for any task the resident chooses to do, and any task the staff must do.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0880, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0900 Self determination and participation. The resident has the right to:

(1) Choose activities, schedules, and health care consistent with his or her interests, assessments, and plan of care;

(2) Interact with members of the community both inside and outside the nursing home;

(3) Make choices about aspects of his or her life in the facility that are significant to the resident; and

(4) Participate in social, religious, and community activities that do not interfere with the rights of other residents in the nursing home.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0900, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0920 Participation in resident and family groups. (1) A resident has the right to organize and participate in resident groups in the nursing home.

(2) The nursing home must provide a resident or family group, if one exists, with private space.

(3) Staff or visitors may attend meetings only at the group's invitation.

(4) The nursing home must provide a designated staff individual responsible for providing assistance and responding to written requests that result from group meetings.

(5) When a resident or family group exists, the nursing home must listen to the views and act upon the grievances and recommendations of residents and families concerning proposed policy and operational decisions affecting resident care and life in the nursing home.

(6) A resident's family has the right to meet in the nursing home with the families of other residents in the facility.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0920, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0940 Activities. The nursing home must:

(1) Provide for an ongoing program of activities designed to meet, in accordance with the comprehensive assessment, the interests and the physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being of each resident;

(2) Provide activities meaningful to the residents at various times throughout every day and evening based on each resident's need and preference; and

(3) Ensure that the activities program is directed by a qualified professional who:

(a) Is a qualified therapeutic recreation specialist or an activities professional who is eligible for certification as a therapeutic recreation specialist or as an activities professional by a recognized accrediting body on or after October 1, 1990; or

(b) Has two years of experience in a social or recreational program within the last five years, one of which was full-time in a patient activities program in a health care setting; or

(c) Is a qualified occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0940, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0960 Social services. The nursing home must:

(1) Provide medically related social services to attain or maintain the highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being of each resident; and

(2) Employ a qualified social worker on a full-time basis if the nursing home has more than one hundred twenty beds. A qualified social worker is an individual with:

(a) A bachelor's degree in social work or a bachelor's degree in a human services field including but not limited to sociology, special education, rehabilitation counseling, and psychology; and

(b) One year of supervised social work experience in a health care setting working directly with patients or residents.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-0960, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-0980 Pets. (1) Each resident must have a reasonable opportunity to have regular contact with animals, if desired.

(2) The nursing home must:

(a) Consider the recommendations of nursing home residents, resident councils, and staff;

(b) Determine how to provide residents access to animals;

(c) Determine the type and number of animals available in the facility, which the facility can safely manage. Such animals should include only those customarily considered domestic pets;

(d) Ensure that any resident's rights, preferences, and medical needs are not compromised by the presence of an animal; and

(e) Ensure any animal visiting or living on the premises has a suitable temperament, is healthy, and otherwise poses no significant health or safety risks to residents, staff, or visitors.

(3) Animals living on the nursing home premises must:

(a) Have regular examinations and immunizations, appropriate for the species, by a veterinarian licensed in Washington state; and

(b) Be veterinarian certified to be free of diseases transmittable to humans.

(4) Pets must be restricted from:

(a) Central food preparation areas; and

(b) Residents who object to the presence of pets.

Resident Assessment and Plan of Care

WAC 388-97-1000 Resident assessment. (1) The nursing home must:

(a) Provide resident care based on a systematic, comprehensive, interdisciplinary assessment, and care planning process in which the resident participates, to the fullest extent possible;

(b) Conduct initially and periodically a comprehensive, accurate, standardized, reproducible assessment of each resident's functional capacity;

(c) At the time each resident is admitted:

(i) Have physician's orders for the resident's immediate care; and

(ii) Ensure that the resident's immediate care needs are identified in an admission assessment.

(d) Ensure that the comprehensive assessment of a resident's needs describes the resident's capability to perform daily life functions and significant impairments in functional capacity.

(2) The comprehensive assessment must include at least the following information:

(a) Identification and demographic information;

(b) Customary routine;

(c) Cognitive patterns;

(d) Communication;

(e) Vision;

(f) Mood and behavior patterns;

(g) Psychosocial well-being;

(h) Physical functioning and structural problems;

(i) Continence;

(j) Disease diagnosis and health conditions;

(k) Dental and nutritional status;

(l) Skin conditions;

(m) Activity pursuit;

(n) Medications;

(o) Special treatments and procedures;

(p) Discharge potential;

(q) Documentation of summary information regarding the assessment performed; and

(r) Documentation of participation in assessment.

(3) The nursing home must conduct comprehensive assessments:

(a) No later than fourteen days after the date of admission;

(b) Promptly after a significant change in the resident's physical or mental condition; and

(c) In no case less often than once every twelve months.

(4) The nursing home must ensure that:

(a) Each resident is assessed no less than once every three months, and as appropriate, the resident's assessment is revised to assure the continued accuracy of the assessment; and

(b) The results of the assessment are used to develop, review and revise the resident's comprehensive plan of care under WAC 388-97-1020.

(5) The skilled nursing facility and nursing facility must:

(a) For the required assessment, complete the state approved resident assessment instrument (RAI) for each resident in accordance with federal requirements;

(b) Place copies of the completed state approved RAI in each resident's clinical record, unless all charting is computerized;

(c) Maintain all copies of resident assessments completed within the resident's active clinical record for fifteen months;

- (d) Assess each resident not less than every three months, using the state approved assessment instrument; and
- (e) Transmit all state and federally required RAI information for each resident to the department:
 - (i) In a manner approved by the department;
 - (ii) Within ten days of completion of any RAI required under this subsection; and
 - (iii) Within ten days of discharging or readmitting a resident.

[Statutory Authority: Chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW and 42 C.F.R. 489.52. 08-20-062, § 388-97-1000, filed 9/24/08, effective 11/1/08.]

WAC 388-97-1020 Comprehensive plan of care. (1)

The nursing home must develop a comprehensive plan of care for each resident that includes measurable objectives and timetables to meet a resident's medical, nursing and mental and psychosocial needs that are identified in the comprehensive assessment.

- (2) The comprehensive plan of care must:
 - (a) Describe the services that are to be furnished to attain or maintain the resident's highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being as required under WAC 388-97-1060;
 - (b) Describe any services that would otherwise be required, but are not provided due to the resident's exercise of rights, including the right to refuse treatment (refer to WAC 388-97-0300 and 388-97-0260);
 - (c) Be developed within seven days after completion of the comprehensive assessment;
 - (d) Be prepared by an interdisciplinary team that includes the attending physician, a registered nurse with responsibility for the resident, and other appropriate staff in disciplines as determined by the residents needs;
 - (e) Consist of an ongoing process which includes a meeting if desired by the resident or the resident's representative; and
 - (f) Include the ongoing participation of the resident to the fullest extent possible, the resident's family or the resident's surrogate decision maker.
- (3) The nursing home must implement a plan of care to meet the immediate needs of newly admitted residents, prior to the completion of the comprehensive assessment and plan of care.
 - (4) The nursing home must:
 - (a) Follow the informed consent process with the resident as specified in WAC 388-97-0260, regarding the interdisciplinary team's plan of care recommendations;
 - (b) Respect the resident's right to decide plan of care goals and treatment choices, including acceptance or refusal of plan of care recommendations;
 - (c) Include in the interdisciplinary plan of care process:
 - (i) Staff members requested by the resident; and
 - (ii) Direct care staff who work most closely with the resident.
 - (d) Respect the resident's wishes regarding which individuals, if any, the resident wants to take part in resident plan of care functions;
 - (e) Provide reasonable advance notice to and reasonably accommodate the resident family members or other individuals the resident wishes to have attend, when scheduling plan of care meeting times; and

(2009 Ed.)

- (f) Where for practical reasons any individuals significant to the plan of care process, including the resident, are unable to attend plan of care meetings, provide a method for such individuals to give timely input and recommendations.

(5) The nursing home must ensure that each comprehensive plan of care:

- (a) Designates the discipline of the individuals responsible for carrying out the program; and
- (b) Is reviewed at least quarterly by qualified staff, as part of the ongoing process of monitoring the resident's needs and preferences.
