

WAC 106-172-733 Limitations on access to education records.

Central Washington University shall not make available to a student the following types of materials:

(1) Financial records and statements provided by parents "or any information contained therein."

(2) Confidential letters and statements of recommendation or evaluation which were provided to the university, with written assurance of a "documented understanding of confidentiality," prior to January 1, 1975, provided such letters or statements are not used for purposes other than those for which they were specifically intended.

(3) Post-1974 confidential recommendations involving possible admission, employment, or honor, but only if the student has signed a waiver of the right to inspect them. Such a waiver shall apply to recommendations only if:

(a) The student is upon request, notified of the names of all persons making confidential recommendations; and

(b) Such recommendations are used solely for the purpose for which they were specifically intended.
