

WAC 296-125-0740 What are the consequences of submitting an incomplete special variance request form? (1) An incomplete special variance request form submitted to the department is:

(a) Invalid; and

(b) A violation of this chapter; and

(c) Cause for a school district, an individual private school or an employer to be dropped from the special variance program.

(2) When the department receives an incomplete special variance request form, it must give written notification to the school district or private school that its enrollment in the special variance program is being revoked.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 49.12.121. WSR 99-02-041, § 296-125-0740, filed 12/31/98, effective 1/31/99.]