ORDER NO. 815

Supersedes Order No. 420

Effective July 1, 1960

SCHEDULE OF FEES AND CHARGES PERTAINING TO HOP CERTIFICATION ANALYSIS

I, Joe Dwyer, Director of Agriculture, State of Washington, after public notice and hearing held at Yakima, Washington on May 3, 1960, by virtue of authority vested in me under Chapter 22.08, Revised Code of Washington, do hereby supersede Order No. 420 to read as follows:

Regulation 1. Fees

Section 1. Lot Inspection

30¢ per bale in each lot, minimum charge shall be $5.00.

Section 2. Sample Inspection

$3.00 per unofficial sample submitted.

Section 3. Review Inspection

20¢ per bale in each lot, minimum charge $2.00.

Section 4. Review Inspection of Submitted Sample

$2.00 per unofficial sample.

Section 5. Appeal Inspection

Charges for appeal inspections will be made by the Grain Division, Pacific Coast Headquarters, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Portland, Oregon, and payment for appeal inspections should be made to them.

Section 6. Extra Copies

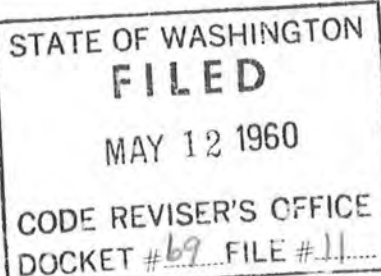

A charge of 50¢ per set will be made for typing extra copies of a certificate when requested by the original applicant or other financially interested party.

Section 7. Extra Time Charges

If through no fault of the inspection service, lots of hops cannot be sampled at time such sampling has been requested by the applicant and there is an undue delay in making lot of hops available for sampling, a charge of $2.75 per hour will be made, time to be computed from departure of sampler or inspector from his base of operation until time of his return to said base.

Section 8. Mileage

If trips are made on calls for sampling hops and hops are not available for sampling, a charge of 8¢ per mile in addition to a time charge will be made.

SCHEDULE OF FEES AND CHARGES PERTAINING TO HOP CERTIFICATION ANALYSIS

Regulation 2. Accessibility for Sampling

Section 1. To be considered available for sampling and certification it is necessary that each and every bale in the lot of hops be readily accessible so that each bale may be properly stenciled and samples drawn from those bales selected by the sampler or inspector.

Make all checks payable to the State Department of Agriculture.

No service will be given on Thanksgiving, Christmas or New Year's Day.
