BOARD OF TRUSTEES
COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 18

EMERGENCY RESOLUTION NO. 71-3

WHEREAS, pursuant to RCW 28B.50.140 (14), the Board of Trustees of Community College District No. 18 may by written order delegate to the President of Big Bend Community College, or his designee, any power vested in such Board,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Trustees of Community College District No. 18:

That the President of Big Bend Community College, or his designee, shall for winter and spring quarters of the 1970-71 academic year be delegated the power that the Board of Trustees holds as "appointing authority" under the terms of the Tenure Regulations for Community College District No. 18, WAC 132R-16, and that the Board hereby adopts as an Emergency Amendment to WAC 132R-16, the attached Amendment to WAC 132R-16-020 (1).

ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of Community College District No. 18 on the 2nd day of March, 1971, with a quorum of such Board members duly present after notice of such meeting had been duly given as required by law.

WAC 132R-16-020 DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter of WAC 132R-16, the following terms and definitions shall mean:

(1) "Appointing Authority" shall mean the board of trustees of Community College District No. 18, provided that at any time the Board of Trustees may by proper Resolution, delegate its authority as the "appointing authority" to the President of Big Bend Community College, or his designee.

(2) "Review Committee" shall mean a committee composed of the probationer's faculty peers and the administrative staff of the college, providing that the majority of the committee shall consist of the probationer's faculty peers appointed pursuant to WAC 132R-16-030.

(3) "President" shall mean the chief administrative officer of the college, or of any subsequent community college hereafter established within Community College District No. 18 or, in his absence, the acting chief administrative officer.

(4) "College" shall mean Big Bend Community College and any subsequent community college hereafter established within Community College District No. 18

(5) "Regular College Year" shall mean a faculty appointment inclusive of consecutive fall, winter and spring quarters.

(6) "Full-time employment" shall mean any faculty appointee who meets the base requirements for initial placement at full salary on the current salary schedule for a regular college year

(7) The definitions of "tenure", "faculty appointment", "probationary faculty appointment", "probationer" and "administrative appointment" shall be the same as are contained within section 33, chapter 283, Laws of 1969, Extraordinary Session as now law or hereafter amended.
