HUNTING RESTRICTION: During any open season for elk, it shall be unlawful to hunt any wild animals or wild birds with a rifle or shotgun with slugs therein, in those areas where elk may reasonably be expected, EXCEPT this regulation shall not be effective on November 2 to 5, 1968, when deer and elk seasons overlap; PROVIDED that this regulation shall not apply to those persons who have in their possession a valid supplemental elk tag and other permits required by law to hunt elk.

CONTROLLED ELK HUNTING SEASONS:

It shall be lawful for any person who is the holder of a controlled hunt permit, issued under the provisions of this regulation, to hunt elk of either sex in the controlled hunt area for which the permit has been issued, PROVIDED: That all permittees must have in possession a 1968 hunting license and a 1968 elk tag.

Anyone wishing to apply for a controlled elk hunt must apply on the application card provided on the elk tag and fill in the following information.

- (1) Name and address of applicant.
- (2) Designate unit number or area and county in which the applicant desires to hunt.
- (3) Number of applicant's 1968 hunting license.

Controlled hunt applications may only be used by the person to whom the corresponding hunting permit was issued.

Only one person may make application for a controlled elk hunt on each application form.

Two persons may be drawn together for a controlled elk hunt. Those wishing to do so MUST secure a partnership (double) application form from any license dealer and apply for the desired area in accordance with instructions printed on the back of this card.

Any person whose name is entered on more than one application for any controlled elk hunt will be eliminated entirely from all elk drawings.

Bag Limit: One (1) elk of either sex per controlled hunt permittee.

Applications for controlled elk hunts must be received not later than 4:30 p.m., Daylight Saving Time, on September 19, 1968, at the Department of Game Office, 600 North Capitol Way, Olympia, Washington, or any Department of Game Regional Office.

CONTROLLED HUNT REGULATIONS APPLYING TO DEER AND ELK:

Applications received by the Department of Game which do not comply with the aforesaid requirements and those which are received after the closing date for these drawings will not be eligible to be drawn.

Persons whose names are drawn will receive special hunting permits by mail from the Department of Game.

Permits are not transferable.

The Director of Game shall designate two resident citizens of each county in which the drawings are held, who shall draw applications equal to the number of permits specified to be issued for each area shown in this regulation.

The applications drawn for each area will entitle the holders to a special hunting permit. Immediately after the drawings, the above persons shall sign an affidavit in duplicate before a notary public giving the number of cards they verified by count, also including the numbers of the cards they drew. One copy of the affidavit shall be filed with the auditor of each county where drawings are made, and the State of Washington Department of Game shall be furnished with a copy together with all cards used in the drawing.

USE OF DOGS PROHIBITED: It shall be unlawful for any person to hunt or pursue any wild animal with the aid of a dog in any area of the state during the time when deer or elk are being lawfully hunted in such area.

BIG GAME BAG LIMITS: One deer and one elk is the legal limit per hunter during the 1968 hunting seasons.

TRANSPORTATION: Big game with head; the head of each deer and elk killed shall remain with the carcass thereof while in transportation.
