It shall be unlawful for any person to hunt or take migratory waterfowl or migratory game birds by the aid or use, directly or indirectly, of shelled, shucked, or unshucked corn, or of wheat or other grain, salt or other feed that has been so deposited, distributed, or scattered as to constitute for such birds a lure, attraction or enticement to, on, or over the area, where hunters are attempting to take them. Provided, however, such birds may be taken over properly shocked corn and standing crops of corn, wheat or other grain or feed, and grains found scattered solely as a result of agricultural harvesting; and it shall be unlawful to hunt migratory waterfowl by the use, directly or indirectly, of live duck or goose decoys, or by the use or aid of electrical or mechanical recordings or reproductions of bird calls or sounds, or recorded imitations of such calls or sounds.

No person shall shoot at or kill any game birds or game animals from any vehicle, air craft, or from any boat propelled by motor unless the motor of such boat has been completely shut off and its progress therefrom has ceased.

No person shall use any vehicle, air craft, or motor propelled boat for the purpose of pursuing, concentrating, stirring up, rallying, or disturbing any game animals or game birds.

The foregoing Temporary Regulation No. 293 shall be forthwith entered and recorded in the minutes of the Commission and published at Olympia, Thurston County, Washington, as provided by law, for one issue.

Dated at Ocean Shores, Washington, this 18th day of August, 1969.
