A consent to adoption may be revoked within one year of approval if it was obtained through fraud or duress.

Summary of Bill: Notice of adoption proceedings will be provided to the parent or alleged father by first class and registered mail. If the address is unknown, publication will be made in the city or town of the last known whereabouts within the United States and its territories or, if the address and whereabouts are unknown, in the city or town where the adoption proceeding is taking place. The ability of any person to challenge an adoption decree is restricted to instances of fraud or duress.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.
