Brief History:

Committee Activity:

Government Operations: 2/22/95, 2/28/95 [DPS].

Floor Activity:

Passed House: 3/13/95, 60-36.

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS

Majority Report: The substitute bill be substituted therefor and the substitute bill do pass. Signed by 9 members: Representatives Reams, Chairman; Goldsmith, Vice Chairman; L. Thomas, Vice Chairman; Hargrove; Honeyford; Hymes; Mulliken; D. Schmidt and Van Luven.

Minority Report: Do not pass. Signed by 6 members: Representatives Rust, Ranking Minority Member; Scott, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Chopp; R. Fisher; Sommers and Wolfe.

Staff: Bill Lynch (786-7092).

Background: All real property that belongs exclusively to the state or any municipal corporation is exempt from real property taxes.

Summary of Bill: Except where deed restrictions or other restrictions preclude the sale of publicly owned real property, including trust lands, state agencies must inventory publicly owned property that is not in active or planned use and offer this property for sale at fair market value to individuals and private entities so that the property will be placed on the property tax rolls and put to productive uses. State agencies are defined to include every state board, commission, department, office, or institution of higher education.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not Requested.

Effective Date of Bill: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: Land that is not necessary to meet a government purpose should be disposed of by the government and put on the tax rolls.

Testimony Against: It is not clear whether this bill applies to property used for recreational needs. Ports acquire industrial land and preserve it for industrial purposes.

Testified: Representative McMahan, prime sponsor; Larry Fairleigh, State Parks; and Pat Jones, Washington Public Ports Association.
