Background: Under current law, fishers who turn in a steelhead catch record card within a specified time period receive a $5 rebate on certain fishing and hunting licenses. The $5 rebate can be applied to certain license or tag purchases that are made on the day the catch record card is turned in.

Legislation enacted in 1994 established a steelhead fishing license. The license is administered on a calendar-year basis. Steelhead catch record cards are administered from May to April, which corresponds to the timing of the summer and winter steelhead runs. Due to reporting and allocation needs, the agency decided to leave the catch record under the May-April administrative cycle. As a result of having different administrative cycles for steelhead licenses and catch record cards, a steelhead fisher who turns in a catch record will generally not be able to take advantage of the $5 dollar rebate.

Persons who fished for steelhead in 1994 were required to purchase catch record cards. The fee for the card was $18. In January 1995, steelhead fishers were required to purchase the newly created steelhead fishing license. The fee for the license is $18. A number of steelhead fishers have expressed concern that they were being charged twice for the months of January through April.

Summary of Bill: The department must issue a $5 credit toward the following year's steelhead fishing license to a person who returns a steelhead catch record card.

Persons who purchased a 1995 steelhead fishing license are eligible to receive a one-time $6 credit toward the purchase of a 1997 steelhead fishing license. Persons who purchased a 1995 juvenile steelhead fishing license are eligible to receive a one-time $2 credit toward the purchase of the appropriate steelhead fishing license. To receive a credit, a person must return a 1995 steelhead fishing license to the department or sign an affidavit stating that the person did purchase a 1995 steelhead fishing license.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: The one-time credits should be handled by the department, not the vendors.

Testimony Against: Many steelhead fishers paid double license fees from January 1995 to April 1995. The department should provide a rebate to these persons.

Testified: Ed Manary, Department of Fish and Wildlife (pro); and John D. Kelly, King County Outdoor Sports Council (con).
