HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

Majority Report: Do pass. Signed by 10 members: Representatives B. Thomas, Chairman; Carrell, Vice Chairman; Boldt, Vice Chairman; Morris, Ranking Minority Member; Dickerson, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Hymes; Mulliken; Schoesler; Sheldon and Van Luven.

Staff: Bob Longman (786-7139).

Background: Some senior citizens and persons retired due to disability are entitled to property tax relief in the form of exemptions and deferrals of taxes on their principal residences. To qualify, a person must be 61 in the year of application or retired from employment because of a physical disability, own his or her principal residence, and have a disposable income of less than $28,000 a year. Persons meeting these criteria are entitled to partial property tax exemptions and a valuation freeze.

Disposable income is defined as the sum of federally defined adjusted gross income and the following, if not already included: capital gains, deductions for loss, depreciation, pensions and annuities, military pay and benefits, veterans benefits, Social Security and federal railroad retirement benefits, dividends, and interest income. Payments for the care of either spouse received in the home or in a nursing home and payments for prescription drugs are deducted in determining disposable income.

Partial exemptions for senior citizens and persons retired due to disability are provided according to the following table:

- If the income is $18,001 to $28,000, all excess levies are exempted.
- If the income level is $15,001 to $18,000, all excess levies and regular levies on the greater of $30,000 or 30 percent valuation ($50,000 valuation maximum) are exempted.
- If the income level is $15,000 or less, all excess levies and regular levies on the greater of $34,000 or 50 percent valuation are exempted.

In addition to the partial exemptions listed above, the valuation of the residence of an eligible senior citizen or disabled person is frozen at the market value of the residence on the later of January 1, 1995, or January 1 of the year the person first qualified for the program.

Summary of Bill: The property tax valuation for eligible senior citizens and persons retired due to disability is frozen based upon the assessed value, rather than the true and fair value, of the residence. The bill clarifies that the January 1 date for the value freeze means January 1 of the assessment year in which a person qualifies.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Requested on January 16, 1996.

Effective Date: The bill contains an emergency clause and takes effect immediately.

Testimony For: This bill is just a technical fix of last year's legislation. It will help assessors implement the law in the manner the Legislature intended.

Testimony Against: None.

Testified: Paul Easter, Grays Harbor Assessor; and Fred Saeger, Washington Association of County Officials.
