23 their owner by depositing into court a cash bond equal to the value of 24 the seized articles but not more than twenty-five thousand dollars.
25 The cash bond is subject to forfeiture to the state in lieu of the 26 seized article.

27 (2)(a) In the event of a seizure of an article under subsection (1)
28 of this section, proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced
29 by the seizure. Within fifteen days following the seizure, the seizing

13 owner or person claiming lawful right of possession of the articles 14 seized. The department shall promptly return the seized articles to 15 the claimant upon a determination by the director or the director's 16 designee, an administrative law judge, or a court that the claimant is 17 the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession of the 18 articles seized, and that the seized articles were improperly seized.

22 committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent.

23 (ii) A forfeiture of a conveyance encumbered by a perfected 24 security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if 25 the secured party neither had knowledge nor consented to the act or 26 omission.

27 (e) When seized property is forfeited under this section the 28 department may retain it for official use unless the property is
