- NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 65.04 RCW 4 to read as follows:
- If an instrument presented for recording does not contain the information required by section 2(1)(a) through (e) of this act, the person preparing the instrument for recording shall prepare a cover
- 8 sheet that contains the required information. The cover sheet shall be
- 9 attached to the instrument and shall be recorded as a part of the
- 10 instrument. An additional page fee as determined under RCW 36.18.010
- 11 shall be collected for recording of the cover sheet. Any errors in the
- 12 cover sheet shall not affect the transactions contained in the
- 13 instrument itself. The cover sheet need not be separately signed or
- 14 acknowledged. The cover sheet information shall be used to generate
- 15 the auditor's grantor/grantee index, however, the names and legal
- 16 description in the instrument itself will determine the legal chain of
- 17 title. The cover sheet shall be substantially the following form:

- 15 Sec. 4. RCW 65.04.050 and 1991 c 26 s 6 are each amended to read 16 as follows:
- Every auditor or recording officer must keep a general index, 17 18 direct and inverted. The index may be either printed on paper or 19 produced on microfilm or microfiche, or it can be created from a computerized data base and displayed on a video display terminal. Any 20 reference to a prior record location number may be entered in the 21 remarks column. Any property legal description contained in the 22 instrument must be entered in the description of property column of the 23 24 general index. The direct index shall be divided into ((seven)) eight columns, and with heads to the respective columns, as follows: Date of 25 reception, grantor, grantee, nature of instrument, volume and page 26 27 where recorded and/or the auditor's file number, remarks, description 28 of property, assessor's property tax parcel or account number. 29 auditor or recording officer shall correctly enter in such index every instrument concerning or affecting real estate which by law is required 30 31 to be recorded, the names of grantors being in alphabetical order. The

p. 5 HB 2414.PL

inverted index shall also be divided into ((seven)) eight columns, 1 precisely similar, except that "grantee" shall occupy the second column 2 and "grantor" the third, the names of grantees being in alphabetical 3 4 The auditor or recording officer may combine the direct and indirect indexes into a single index if it contains all the information 5 required to be contained in the separate direct and indirect indexes 6 7 and the names of all grantors and grantees can be found by a person 8 searching the combined index. For the purposes of this chapter, the 9 term "grantor" means any person conveying or encumbering the title to 10 any property, or any person against whom any lis pendens, judgment, notice of lien, order of sale, execution, writ of attachment, or claims 11 of separate or community property shall be placed on record. 12 auditor or recording officer shall also enter in the general index, the 13 name of the party or parties platting a town, village, or addition in 14 15 the column prescribed for "grantors," describing the grantee in such 16 case as "the public." However, the auditor or recording officer shall 17 not receive or record any such plat or map until it has been approved by the mayor and common council of the municipality in which the 18 19 property so platted is situated, or if the property be not situated within any municipal corporation, then the plat must be first approved 20 by the county legislative authority. The auditor or recording officer 21 shall not receive for record any plat, map, or subdivision of land 22 bearing a name the same or similar to the name of any map or plat 23 24 already on record in the office. The auditor or recording officer may establish a name reservation system to preclude the possibility of 25 26 duplication of names.

27 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act shall take effect January 1, 1997.
