State of Washington

54th Legislature

1995 Regular Session

By Senators Haugen, Winsley, Drew, Sheldon, Heavey, McCaslin, Rasmussen, Wood, Franklin, Loveland, McAuliffe, Oke, Gaspard, Deccio, Bauer, Moyer, Owen, Palmer and Hochstatter

Read first time 01/17/95. Referred to Committee on Government Operations.

1 AN ACT Relating to the creation of an ombudsman office for private
2 property rights; adding a new chapter to Title 34 RCW; providing an
3 expiration date; and declaring an emergency.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature intends to establish an
6 ombudsman for private property rights to advise private property owners
7 of their rights and interests in proceedings involving governmental
8 action.

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires
10 otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this 11 chapter.

12 (1) "Constitutional taking" or "taking" means that due to a
13 governmental action or proposed governmental action private property is 14 or will be taken and compensation to the owner of that property is 15 required by either:

16 (a) The fifth or fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the
17 United States; or

18 (b) Article 1, section 16 of the state Constitution.

1 (2)(a) "Governmental action" or "action" means action by a state
2 agency consisting of:

3 (i) Proposed rules and emergency rules that if adopted and enforced
4 may limit the use of private property;

5 (ii) Proposed or implemented licensing or permitting conditions,
6 requirements, or limitations to the use of private property; or

7 (iii) Required dedications or exactions from owners of private
8 property.

9 (b) "Governmental action" or "action" does not include:

10 (i) Activity in which the power of eminent domain is formally
11 exercised;

12 (ii) Repealing rules to discontinue governmental programs or 13 amending rules in a manner that lessens interference with the use of 14 private property;

15 (iii) Law enforcement activity involving seizure or forfeiture of 16 private property for violations of law or as evidence in criminal
17 proceedings; or

18 (iv) Orders that are authorized by statute, that are issued by a
19 state agency or a court of law and that are issued as the result of a 20 violation of state law.

21 (3) "Private property" means any real or personal property in this 22 state that is protected by either:

23 (a) The fifth or fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the 24 United States; or

25 (b) Article 1, section 16 of the state Constitution.

26 (4) "Small business" means a corporation, partnership, limited
27 liability company, sole proprietorship, or individual operating a
28 business for profit with not more than one hundred employees, including 29 employees employed in any subsidiary or affiliated corporation.

30 (5) "State agency" means an officer or unit of the executive branch
31 of state government that is authorized by law to adopt rules. "State
32 agency" does not include the legislative or judicial branches of state
33 government.

34 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) An ombudsman office is established in 35 the office of administrative hearings to represent the interests of 36 private property owners in proceedings involving governmental action.

37 (2) The chief administrative law judge shall appoint the ombudsman
38 who serves at the pleasure of the chief administrative law judge.

1 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The ombudsman may:

2 (a) Research, study, and analyze issues that involve or relate to
3 or that may involve constitutional takings;

4 (b) Advise private property owners on issues involving or related
5 to constitutional takings;

6 (c) Employ and terminate employees, or contract for special
7 services, as necessary to implement this chapter, including legal 8 counsel and other professional and administrative staff; and

9 (d) Conduct investigations and inquiries and assemble evidence.

10 (2) The ombudsman shall:

11 (a) Advise record title owners of residential, noncommercial, small
12 business, and agricultural properties;

13 (b) Receive complaints and inquiries from private property owners
14 regarding constitutional takings; and

15 (c) Within thirty days after the end of each calendar quarter,
16 submit a report to the governor, president of the senate, and the 17 speaker of the house of representatives describing the activities and 18 accomplishments of the office.

19 (3) The ombudsman's office shall record all contacts by private 20 property owners with regard to alleged constitutional takings to 21 determine general concerns of private property owners. The office may 22 advise private property owners of the services available from other
23 governmental and private agencies that may be of further assistance.

24 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act shall expire July 1, 2000.

25 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act constitute 26 a new chapter in Title 34 RCW.

27 NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate 28 preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the 29 state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take 30 effect immediately.
