16 of the United States. When the statement includes a request for 17 confidentiality or a refusal to consent to the disclosure of 18 identifying information, a prominent notice stating substantially the 19 following shall also be placed at the front of the file: "AT THE 20 REQUEST OF THE ADOPTEE, ALL RECORDS AND IDENTIFYING INFORMATION
21 RELATING TO THIS ADOPTION SHALL REMAIN CONFIDENTIAL AND SHALL NOT BE 22 DISCLOSED OR RELEASED WITHOUT A COURT ORDER SO DIRECTING."

23 (3) An adopted person who files a certified statement under 24 subsection (1) of this section may subsequently file another certified 25 statement requesting to rescind or amend the prior certified statement.

26 Sec. 3. RCW 26.33.330 and 1990 c 145 s 3 are each amended to read
27 as follows:

28 (1) All records of any proceeding under this chapter shall be 33 with the department of health as provided in section 2 of this act.

34 (2) The state registrar of vital statistics may charge a reasonable 35 fee for the review of any of its sealed records.

36 Sec. 4. RCW 26.33.343 and 1990 c 145 s 1 are each amended to read
37 as follows:

1 (1) An adopted person over the age of twenty-one years, or under 2 twenty-one with the permission of the adoptive parent, or a birth
3 parent or member of the birth parent's family after the adoptee has 4 reached the age of twenty-one may petition the court to appoint a
5 confidential intermediary. A petition under this section shall state
6 whether a certified statement is on file with the department of health 7 as provided for in section 2 of this act and shall also state the 8 intent of the adoptee as set forth in any such statement. The 9 intermediary shall search for and discreetly contact the birth parent 10 or adopted person, or if they are not alive or cannot be located within 11 one year, the intermediary may attempt to locate members of the birth
12 parent or adopted person's family. These family members shall be 13 limited to the natural grandparents of the adult adoptee, a brother or 14 sister of a natural parent, or the child of a natural parent. The 15 court, for good cause shown, may allow a relative more distant in 16 degree to petition for disclosure.

17 (2)(a) Confidential intermediaries appointed under this section 18 shall complete training provided by a licensed adoption service or 19 another court-approved entity and file an oath of confidentiality and 20 a certificate of completion of training with the superior court of 21 every county in which they serve as intermediaries. The court may 22 dismiss an intermediary if the intermediary engages in conduct which 23 violates professional or ethical standards.

24 (b) The confidential intermediary shall sign a statement of 25 confidentiality substantially as follows:

26 I,, signing under penalty of contempt of court, state:
27 "As a condition of appointment as a confidential intermediary, I affirm 28 that, when adoption records are opened to me:

29 I will not disclose to the petitioner, directly or indirectly, any 30 identifying information in the records without further order from the 31 court.

32 I will conduct a diligent search for the person being sought and 33 make a discreet and confidential inquiry as to whether that person will 34 consent to being put in contact with the petitioner, and I will report 35 back to the court the results of my search and inquiry.

36 If the person sought consents to be put in contact with the 37 petitioner, I will attempt to obtain a dated, written consent from the 38 person, and attach the original of the consent to my report to the

1 court. If the person sought does not consent to the disclosure of his 2 or her identity, I shall report the refusal of consent to the court.

3 I will not make any charge or accept any compensation for my 4 services except as approved by the court, or as reimbursement from the 5 petitioner for actual expenses incurred in conducting the search.
6 These expenses will be listed in my report to the court.

7 I recognize that unauthorized release of confidential information 8 may subject me to civil liability under state law, and subjects me to 9 being found in contempt of court."

10 /s/ _____ date _____

11 (c) The confidential intermediary shall be entitled to 12 reimbursement from the petitioner for actual expenses in conducting the 13 search. The court may authorize a reasonable fee in addition to these 14 expenses.

15 (3) If the confidential intermediary is unable to locate the person 16 being sought within one year, the confidential intermediary shall make 17 a recommendation to the court as to whether or not a further search is 18 warranted, and the reasons for this recommendation.

19 (4) In the case of a petition filed on behalf of a natural parent
20 or other blood relative of the adoptee, written consent of any living 21 adoptive parent shall be obtained prior to contact with the adoptee if 22 the adoptee:

23 (a) Is less than twenty-five years of age and is residing with the 24 adoptive parent; or

25 (b) Is less than twenty-five years of age and is a dependent of the 26 adoptive parent.

27 (5) If the confidential intermediary locates the person being 28 sought, a discreet and confidential inquiry shall be made as to whether 29 or not that person will consent to having his or her present identity
30 disclosed to the petitioner. The identity of the petitioner shall not 31 be disclosed to the party being sought. If the party being sought
32 consents to the disclosure of his or her identity, the confidential
33 intermediary shall obtain the consent in writing and shall include the 34 original of the consent in the report filed with the court. If the 35 party being sought refuses disclosure of his or her identity, the 36 confidential intermediary shall report the refusal to the court and 37 shall refrain from further and subsequent inquiry without judicial 38 approval.

1 (6)(a) If the confidential intermediary obtains from the person
2 being sought written consent for disclosure of his or her identity to 3 the petitioner, the court may then order that the name and other
4 identifying information of that person be released to the petitioner.

5 (b) If the person being sought is deceased, the court may order
6 disclosure of the identity of the deceased to the petitioner.

7 (c) If the confidential intermediary is unable to contact the 8 person being sought within one year, the court may order that the 9 search be continued for a specified time or be terminated.
