Sponsor(s): Senate Committee on Law & Justice (originally sponsored by Senators Quigley, Smith and Goings)

Brief Description: Increasing penalties for public disclosure violations.

SB 6667-S.E - DIGEST

(AS OF SENATE 2ND READING 2/9/96)

Prescribes that, upon failure to pay within ninety days a civil penalty, the court may impose a penalty for late payment of up to one hundred percent of the underlying penalty.

Declares that a person who has not complied with a court order under this section is not qualified to appear on a ballot, as provided in RCW 29.15.025.

Provides that a person who has not complied with a court order entered under this section is prohibited from registering as a lobbyist, receiving compensation as a lobbyist, and making expenditures for lobbying expenses.

Provides that a political committee that has not complied with a court order, or a committee that has an officer who has not complied with such an order, may not solicit or accept contributions, or make expenditures, until the committee or officer has complied with the order.

Directs the PDC to maintain a list of persons not in compliance with court orders issued for violation of campaign finance laws.
