HOUSE COMMITTEE ON LAW & JUSTICE

Majority Report: Do pass. Signed by 13 members: Representatives Sheahan, Chairman; McDonald, Vice Chairman; Sterk, Vice Chairman; Costa, Ranking Minority Member; Constantine, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Carrell; Cody; Kenney; Lambert; Lantz; Radcliff; Sherstad and Skinner.

Staff: Bill Perry (786-7123).

Background: The Legislature has explicitly recognized not only the impact of crime on victims, survivors of victims, and witnesses of crime, but also the civic and moral duty of those individuals to fully and voluntarily cooperate with law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies.

The crime victims law provides, among other things, that there must be a reasonable effort to ensure the right of a victim of a violent or sex crime to have an advocate present at any prosecutorial or defense interview with the victim. A crime victim advocate is an advocate trained by a crime victim advocacy program.

The right to have an advocate present applies if the presiding judge determines that it is practical and would not cause an unnecessary delay in the investigation or prosecution of the case. The role of the advocate is to provide emotional support to the victim.

Summary of Bill: The proceedings at which a crime victim advocate's presence may be allowed are expanded to include any judicial proceeding related to criminal acts committed against the victim, not just interviews with the victim.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: Crime victims deserve the right to have an advocate present at judicial proceedings. An advocate can provide important emotional support to a victim during painful and traumatic proceedings. Moreover, if victims are not allowed to attend proceedings because of their status as witnesses under subpoena, the victims should be able to have advocates attend for them. The bill ensures the right to have a supportive person in court with or on behalf of a crime victim.

Testimony Against: None.

Testified: Representative Robertson, prime sponsor; Jeanne Owens, Donna Emerson, and Michelle Brough, Violent Crime Victim Services (pro); and Courtney May, Washington Coalition of Crime Victim Advocates (pro).
