

HOUSE BILL REPORT

HB 1902

As Reported By House Committee On:

Law & Justice

Title: An act relating to offenses involving the taking of a motor vehicle.

Brief Description: Increasing penalties for offenses involving the taking of a motor vehicle.

Sponsors: Representatives Cody, Carrell, Conway, Sheahan, Kenney, Costa, Lantz, Lambert, Sherstad, Thompson and Blalock.

Brief History:

Committee Activity:

Law & Justice: 2/5/98 [DP].

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON LAW & JUSTICE

Majority Report: Do pass. Signed by 13 members: Representatives Sheahan, Chairman; McDonald, Vice Chairman; Sterk, Vice Chairman; Costa, Ranking Minority Member; Constantine, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Carrell; Cody; Kenney; Lambert; Lantz; Mulliken; Robertson and Sherstad.

Staff: Bill Perry (786-7123).

Background: Theft involves taking the property of another with the intent to deprive the owner of that property. Degrees of theft generally vary with the value of the property stolen.

First-degree theft involves theft of property worth more than $1,500, including any motor vehicle worth more than that amount. First-degree theft is a class B felony. Second-degree theft generally involves theft of property worth more than $250 (but not more than $1,500). Theft of any motor vehicle worth less than $1,500, however, is second-degree theft. Second-degree theft is a class C felony. First-degree theft is a level II offense under the Sentencing Reform Act (SRA), which means the presumptive sentence range for a first-time offender is zero to 90 days in jail. Second-degree theft is a level I offense, which means that the presumptive sentence for a first-time offender is zero to 60 days.

Taking a motor vehicle without permission, sometimes referred to as joy riding, or riding in a vehicle knowing it was taken without permission, is also a crime. To prove this crime it is not necessary to show that the defendant intended to deprive the owner of the vehicle, and the value of the vehicle is immaterial. Taking a motor vehicle without permission is a class C felony ranked at level I under the SRA.

Summary of Bill: The new crime of theft of a motor vehicle is created as a class B, level II felony. The crime applies to the theft of a motor vehicle of any value. The second-degree theft statute is amended to remove references to theft of a motor vehicle.

The crime of taking a motor vehicle without permission is raised from level I to level II under the SRA.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: None.

Testimony Against: None.

Testified: None.