Background: The Basic Health Plan (BHP) was created in 1987 as a state-administered program that allows state residents to enroll in one of several privately administered managed care health plans, all offering the same schedule of basic health services. The plan is administered by the State Health Care Authority (HCA) on a subsidized and nonsubsidized basis. Presently, there are 126,500 subsidized BHP enrollees, with roughly 69,000 interested persons on a waiting list; there are also 18,400 nonsubsidized enrollees. The BHP schedule of benefits must include "physician services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, prescription drugs and medications, and other services that may be necessary for basic health care. . . ." Consistent with agency appropriation, the HCA administrator has added limited ". . . chemical dependency services, mental health services and organ transplant services. . ." to the schedule.

To be eligible for the subsidized BHP, one must be ineligible for Medicare, have gross family income at the time of enrollment that does not exceed twice the federal poverty level, and reside in an area of the state served by a managed health care system participating in the plan.

Presently, there is no minimal period of residency required prior to BHP eligibility.

Summary of Bill: To be eligible for the subsidized BHP a person must have resided for at least 11 months in an area of the state served by a managed health care system participating in the plan; however, seasonal workers, as defined by rule, are exempt from this requirement.
