Background: The Criminal Justice Training Commission was established in 1974 for the primary purpose of providing basic law enforcement training, corrections training, and educational programs for criminal justice personnel, including commissioned officers, corrections officers, fire marshals, and prosecuting attorneys.

Corrections officers are currently required to attend 160 hours of training in basic skills.

Summary of Bill: The Board on Correctional Training Standards and Education is established to monitor and evaluate training and education programs for correctional personnel. The board is to make recommendations to the Criminal Justice Training Commission concerning: (1) the training and education needs of correctional personnel; (2) standards for the training and education of correctional personnel; (3) minimum curriculum standards for all training and education programs conducted for correctional personnel; (4) standards for instructors of training and education programs for correctional personnel; (5) alternative, innovative, and interdisciplinary training and education programs for correctional personnel; and (6) the approval of training and education programs for correctional personnel.

The correctional board consists of 14 members:

- three members from the state correctional system;
- three members from county correctional systems;

- two members from the juvenile corrections or probation system (one at the state level and one at the county level);
- two members who are employed in community corrections;
- one member representing community colleges and one member representing four-year colleges; and
- two members with experience and interest in correctional training standards and education.

The board must report to the commission at the end of each fiscal year regarding the effectiveness of training and education programs for correctional personnel. The members of the board are appointed for six-year term limits and are eligible to receive reimbursement for their travel expenses to attend board meetings.

Every two years the commission must submit an evaluation of its training program to the Legislature.
