State of Washington

55th Legislature

1997 Regular Session

By Representatives Pennington, Appelwick, D. Schmidt, Mulliken, O'Brien, Dunshee, Kenney, B. Thomas, Anderson, Wensman, Lantz, Dickerson, Murray, Linville, Dunn and Mason; by request of Legislative Ethics Board

Read first time 01/20/97. Referred to Committee on Government Administration.

1 AN ACT Relating to elected officials' guest editorials or columns
2 in newspapers; and amending RCW 42.52.180.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 42.52.180 and 1995 c 397 s 30 are each amended to read 5 as follows:

6 (1) No state officer or state employee may use or authorize the use 7 of facilities of an agency, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of 8 assisting a campaign for election of a person to an office or for the 9 promotion of or opposition to a ballot proposition. Knowing 10 acquiescence by a person with authority to direct, control, or 11 influence the actions of the state officer or state employee using 12 public resources in violation of this section constitutes a violation
13 of this section. Facilities of an agency include, but are not limited 14 to, use of stationery, postage, machines, and equipment, use of state 15 employees of the agency during working hours, vehicles, office space, 16 publications of the agency, and clientele lists of persons served by 17 the agency.

18 (2) This section shall not apply to the following activities:

1 (a) Action taken at an open public meeting by members of an elected
2 legislative body to express a collective decision, or to actually vote
3 upon a motion, proposal, resolution, order, or ordinance, or to support 4 or oppose a ballot proposition as long as (i) required notice of the 5 meeting includes the title and number of the ballot proposition, and 6 (ii) members of the legislative body or members of the public are 7 afforded an approximately equal opportunity for the expression of an 8 opposing view;

9 (b) A statement by an elected official in support of or in 10 opposition to any ballot proposition at an open press conference or in 11 response to a specific inquiry. For the purposes of this subsection, 12 it is not a violation of this section for an elected official to 13 respond to an inquiry regarding a ballot proposition, to make 14 incidental remarks concerning a ballot proposition in an official 15 communication, or otherwise comment on a ballot proposition without an 16 actual, measurable expenditure of public funds. The ethics boards
17 shall adopt by rule a definition of measurable expenditure;

18 (c) Activities that are part of the normal and regular conduct of 19 the office or agency; ((and))

20 (d) De minimis use of public facilities by state-wide elected 21 officials and legislators incidental to the preparation or delivery of 22 permissible communications, including written and verbal communications 23 initiated by them of their views on ballot propositions that 24 foreseeably may affect a matter that falls within their constitutional 25 or statutory responsibilities; and

26 (e) If invited by a newspaper's editorial board or other person or 27 organization controlling the newspaper's editorial pages, an elected 28 official's preparing and sending to such board, person, or organization 29 a guest editorial or column, to appear under the official's name and 30 official title, that deals with a subject included in a ballot
31 proposition over which subject the official has constitutional or 32 statutory jurisdiction or authority. The fact that the official in 33 such editorial or column argues for or against the proposition, or 34 urges voters to vote for or against it, does not render the editorial 35 or column, or the activities of preparing and sending it, outside this 36 subsection (2)(e).

1 (3) As to state officers and employees, this section operates to 2 the exclusion of RCW 42.17.130.
