

SENATE RESOLUTION 1998-8690

By Senators Oke, Franklin, Fraser, Kohl and Rasmussen

WHEREAS, One of four high school seniors in Washington are current smokers; and WHEREAS, Three thousand young people start smoking every day in the United States, one third of whom will eventually die of tobacco-related illnesses; and

WHEREAS, Advertising and peer pressure are strong motivating factors in a teen's decision to start using tobacco; and

WHEREAS, Teens all across Washington are involved in programs and activities such as youth coalitions, peer education, and the American Cancer Society's Youth Speak Out!; and

WHEREAS, These programs are designed to prepare teens to educate younger teens and preteens about the dangers of tobacco use; and

WHEREAS, Teens are speaking out in support of stronger policies to restrict tobacco access and exposure by minors; and

WHEREAS, Youths have opportunities to speak out against tobacco through programs sponsored by local health departments, the American Lung Association, the American Cancer Society, and Washington DOC;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate recognizes teens involved in anti-tobacco programs designed to keep tobacco away from minors and eliminate exposure to second-hand smoke; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate recognizes the American Cancer Society's Speak Out! where teens from across the state advocate for stronger state laws restricting access and exposure to tobacco by minors; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of the resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Astrid Berg, American Lung Association of Washington; Steve Bowman, Washington State Department of Health; Nancy Golosman, Washington DOC; Willie Stewart, Chairman of the Board, American Cancer Society, Western Pacific Division; Ann Marie Pomerinke, Chief Executive Officer, American Cancer Society, Western Pacific Division; David Harrelson, Program Manager for Tobacco Control, American Cancer Society, Western Pacific Division; and Attorney General Christine Gregoire.

I, Mike O'Connell, Secretary of the Senate, do hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of Senate Resolution 1998-8690, adopted by the Senate January 30, 1998.
