Brief Title: Changing the minimum length of the school year if disaster circumstances exist.

HB 1842 - DIGEST

(SUBSTITUTED FOR - SEE 1ST SUB)

Declares that a school's program may consist of less than the minimum one hundred eighty day school year if the school is closed due to declaration by the governor that the county in which the school is located is a disaster area. The school year shall be one hundred eighty days minus the number of days, in excess of five, that the school is closed due to the disaster.
