

2669

Sponsor(s): Representatives Mulliken, Johnson, Talcott, Boldt, Koster, Smith, McDonald, McCune, Sherstad, Sheahan and Bush

Brief Title: Requiring parental consent for certain nonacademic subjects.

HB 2669 - DIGEST

Requires schools desiring to provide instruction in nonacademic subject matter regarding suicide, euthanasia, or human sexuality issues dealing with sex education, sexually transmitted diseases, contraception, or sexual orientation, to provide such instruction as an independent unit within a curriculum offering.

Requires all independent units offered to be elective and requires prior parental written consent before a student participates in the unit offering.