HOUSE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY

Majority Report: Do pass. Signed by 12 members: Representatives Carrell, Republican Co-Chair; Constantine, Democratic Co-Chair; Hurst, Democratic Vice Chair; Lambert, Republican Vice Chair; Cox; Dickerson; Esser; Kastama; Lantz; Lovick; McDonald and Schindler.

Staff: Jim Morishima (786-7191).

Background:

A person who in good faith communicates a complaint or information to any federal, state, or local governmental agency is immune from civil liability for any claim relating to that communication. However, there is no comparable immunity for communications made to a non-governmental, self-regulatory agency, even if the agency's authority has been delegated by a governmental entity and the governmental entity has oversight over the agency.

One such self-regulatory agency is the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD). All securities professionals and firms must register with the NASD. The NASD operates under authority delegated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is subject to the oversight of the SEC.

Summary of Bill:

A person who in good faith communicates a complaint or information to any self-regulatory agency is immune from civil liability for any claim relating to that communication if:

- the self-regulatory agency regulates persons involved in the securities or futures business;
  - the self-regulatory agency has been delegated its authority by a federal, state, or local government agency; and
  - the self-regulatory agency is subject to the oversight of the delegating agency.
