3 29.15.120, 29.18.150, 29.15.170, 29.15.190, and 29.15.200; and 4 providing an effective date.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6 Sec. 1. RCW 29.13.070 and 1977 ex.s. c 361 s 29 are each amended
7 to read as follows:

8 Nominating primaries for general elections to be held in November 9 shall be held at the regular polling places in each precinct on the 10 ((third)) second Tuesday of the preceding ((September or on the seventh
11 Tuesday immediately preceding such general election, whichever occurs 12 first)) August.

13 Sec. 2. RCW 29.24.020 and 1989 c 215 s 2 are each amended to read
14 as follows:

15 Any nomination of a candidate for partisan public office by other 16 than a major political party shall only be made either: (1) In a 17 convention held not earlier than the ((last)) third Saturday in 18 ((June)) May and not later than the ((first)) fourth Saturday in

1 ((July)) May or during any of the seven days immediately preceding the 2 first day for filing declarations of candidacy as fixed in accordance 3 with RCW 29.68.080; or (2) as provided by RCW ((29.51.170)) 29.62.180.
4 A minor political party may hold more than one convention but in no
5 case shall any such party nominate more than one candidate for any one 6 partisan public office or position. For the purpose of nominating 7 candidates for the offices of president and vice-president, United 8 States senator, or a state-wide office, a minor party or independent 9 candidate holding multiple conventions may add together the number of 10 signatures of different individuals from each convention obtained in 11 support of the candidate or candidates in order to obtain the number 12 required by RCW 29.24.030. For all other offices for which nominations 13 are made, signatures of the requisite number of registered voters must 14 be obtained at a single convention.

15 Sec. 3. RCW 29.24.035 and 1989 c 215 s 5 are each amended to read
16 as follows:

17 A nominating petition submitted under this chapter shall clearly 18 identify the name of the minor party or independent candidate
19 convention as it appears on the certificate of nomination as required
20 by RCW ((29.24.030(3))) 29.24.040(3). The petition shall also contain 21 a statement that the person signing the petition is a registered voter
22 of the state of Washington and shall have a space for the voter to sign
23 his or her name and to print his or her name and address. No person 24 may sign more than one nominating petition under this chapter for an 25 office for a primary or election.

26 Sec. 4. RCW 29.15.020 and 1990 c 59 s 81 are each amended to read
27 as follows:

28 (1) Except where otherwise provided by this title, declarations of 29 candidacy for the following offices shall be filed with the filing 30 officer during the regular filing period, which is during regular 31 business hours ((with the filing officer no earlier than)) for five 32 days beginning on the ((fourth)) second Monday in ((July and no later 33 than)) June and ending on the following Friday in the year in which the 34 office is scheduled to be voted upon:

35 ((+1)) (a) Offices that are scheduled to be voted upon for full 36 terms or both full terms and short terms at, or in conjunction with, a 37 state general election; and

1       (~~(2)~~) (b) Offices where a vacancy, other than a short term,
2 exists that has not been filled by election and for which an election
3 to fill the vacancy is required in conjunction with the next state 4 general election.

5       (2) If an eligible person has not filed a declaration of candidacy
6 for a nonpartisan office during the regular filing period, the filing 7 officer shall open a special filing period for declarations of 8 candidacy for that office. This special filing period must be held 9 during regular business hours for three consecutive days beginning on 10 the first Monday after the close of the regular filing period and 11 ending on the following Wednesday. If an eligible person has not filed 12 for the nonpartisan office during this special filing period, the 13 election is lapsed under RCW 29.15.200.

14       (3) If an eligible person has not filed a declaration of candidacy 15 as a member of a major political party for a partisan office during the 16 regular filing period, the filing officer shall open a special filing 17 period for declarations of candidacy as a member of that major 18 political party for that office. This special filing period must be 19 held during regular business hours for three consecutive days beginning 20 on the first Monday after the close of the regular filing period and 21 ending on the following Wednesday. If an eligible person has not filed
22 as a candidate of that major political party for that partisan office 23 during this special filing period, the major political party may select 24 and certify a nominee under RCW 29.18.150.

25       (4) Notice of a special filing period must be given by notifying 26 press, radio, and television in the county and by such other means as 27 provided by law.

28       (5) This section supersedes all other statutes that provide for a 29 different filing period for these offices.

30       Sec. 5. RCW 29.15.120 and 1994 c 223 s 6 are each amended to read
31 as follows:

32       A candidate who filed for office during the regular filing period 33 may withdraw his or her declaration of candidacy at any time before the 34 close of regular business hours on (~~the Thursday following~~) the last 35 day (~~for candidates to file~~) of the special filing period under RCW 36 29.15.020 by filing, with the officer with whom the declaration of 38 printed on the ballot. (~~There shall be no withdrawal period for~~

1 ~~declarations of candidacy filed during special filing periods held~~
2 ~~under this title.))~~ The filing officer may permit the withdrawal of a 3 filing for the office of precinct committee officer at the request of 4 the candidate at any time if no absentee ballots have been issued for 5 that office and the general election ballots for that precinct have not 6 been printed. The filing officer may permit the withdrawal of a filing 7 for any elected office of a city, town, or special district at the 8 request of the candidate at any time before a primary if the primary 9 ballots for that city, town, or special district have not been ordered.
10 No filing fee may be refunded to any candidate who withdraws under this 11 section. Notice of the deadline for withdrawal of candidacy and that 12 the filing fee is not refundable shall be given to each candidate at 13 the time he or she files.

14 Sec. 6. RCW 29.18.150 and 1990 c 59 s 102 are each amended to read
15 as follows:

17 ~~((be))~~ is vacant because no person has filed for nomination as the 18 candidate of that major political party, after the last day allowed for 19 candidates to withdraw as provided by RCW 29.15.120, ~~((and if the~~ 20 ~~vacancy is for a state or county office to be voted on solely by the~~ 21 ~~electors of a single county,))~~ the county central committee of the 22 major political party may select and certify a candidate to fill the 25 state central committee of the major political party may select and 26 certify a candidate to fill the vacancy~~((?))~~ if the vacancy is for any 27 other office.

28 The certificate must set forth the cause of the vacancy, the name
29 of the person nominated, the office for which he or she is nominated, 30 and other pertinent information required in an ordinary certificate of 31 nomination and be filed in the proper office no later than the first

18 shall appear on the ballot as if made during the earlier regular or 19 special filing period.
