

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2000-4747, by Representatives Delvin, Romero, Thomas, Wensman and Hankins

WHEREAS, The Distributive Education Clubs of America, or DECA, an association of marketing students, is a student-centered organization whose program of leadership and personal development is designed specifically for students enrolled in marketing education programs, and is a cocurricular organization that serves as an important extension of classroom instruction; and

WHEREAS, DECA is the only student organization operating in all fifty states, the United States Territories, and Canada that attracts individuals to productive careers in marketing, management, and entrepreneurship; and

WHEREAS, DECA members understand the importance of the DECA Diamond, which includes leadership development, social intelligence, vocational understanding, and civic consciousness. DECA participants are leaders preparing for employment and community involvement; and

WHEREAS, DECA involves about eleven thousand students state-wide in skill-based educational programs, including classroom instruction, work-based learning, and community service; and

WHEREAS, DECA and Marketing Education supports the economy by preparing students for the workplace, improving employment opportunities for Washingtonians, and building students' self-esteem and confidence;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the week of February 13, 2000, as "National DECA Week"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Co-Chief Clerks of the House of Representatives to each high school student listed in this resolution who is a graduating senior and has completed three hundred sixty or more hours in the DECA program; and
