13 In making a determination of whether there is a likelihood of

18 this chapter or its equivalent provisions under the laws of another
19 state which were based on a likelihood of serious harm. The existence

21 equivalent shall not be the sole basis for determining whether a person 22 presents a likelihood of serious harm.

23 For the purposes of this section "recent" refers to the period of 24 time not exceeding three years prior to the current hearing.

25 Sec. 7. RCW 71.05.320 and 1997 c 112 s 26 are each amended to read
26 as follows:

27 (1) If the court or jury finds that grounds set forth in RCW
28 71.05.280 have been proven and that the best interests of the person or 29 others will not be served by a less restrictive treatment which is an 30 alternative to detention, the court shall remand him or her to the 31 custody of the department or to a facility certified for ninety day
32 treatment by the department for a further period of intensive treatment 33 not to exceed ninety days from the date of judgment: PROVIDED, That if 34 the grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280(3) are the basis of commitment, 35 then the period of treatment may be up to but not exceed one hundred 36 eighty days from the date of judgment in a facility certified for one
37 hundred eighty day treatment by the department. If the committed

1 person is developmentally disabled and has been determined incompetent
2 pursuant to RCW 10.77.090(~~(+3))~~ (4), and the best interests of the 3 person or others will not be served by a less-restrictive treatment
4 which is an alternative to detention, the court shall remand him or her 5 to the custody of the department or to a facility certified for one 6 hundred eighty-day treatment by the department. When appropriate and 7 subject to available funds, treatment and training of such persons must 8 be provided in a program specifically reserved for the treatment and 9 training of developmentally disabled persons. A person so committed 10 shall receive habilitation services pursuant to an individualized 11 service plan specifically developed to treat the behavior which was the 12 subject of the criminal proceedings. The treatment program shall be 13 administered by developmental disabilities professionals and others
14 trained specifically in the needs of developmentally disabled persons.
15 The department may limit admissions to this specialized program in 16 order to ensure that expenditures for services do not exceed amounts 17 appropriated by the legislature and allocated by the department for 18 such services. The department may establish admission priorities in 19 the event that the number of eligible persons exceeds the limits set by 20 the department. An order for treatment less restrictive than 21 involuntary detention may include conditions, and if such conditions 22 are not adhered to, the designated mental health professional or 23 developmental disabilities professional may order the person
24 apprehended under the terms and conditions of RCW 71.05.340.

25 If the court or jury finds that grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280
26 have been proven, but finds that treatment less restrictive than 27 detention will be in the best interest of the person or others, then 28 the court shall remand him or her to the custody of the department or 29 to a facility certified for ninety day treatment by the department or 30 to a less restrictive alternative for a further period of less 31 restrictive treatment not to exceed ninety days from the date of 32 judgment: PROVIDED, That if the grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280(3) 33 are the basis of commitment, then the period of treatment may be up to 34 but not exceed one hundred eighty days from the date of judgment.

35 (2) The person shall be released from involuntary treatment at the 36 expiration of the period of commitment imposed under subsection (1) of 37 this section unless the superintendent or professional person in charge 38 of the facility in which he or she is confined, or in the event of a 39 less restrictive alternative, the designated mental health professional

1 or developmental disabilities professional, files a new petition for 2 involuntary treatment on the grounds that the committed person;

3 (a) During the current period of court ordered treatment: (i) Has 4 threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm upon the person of 5 another, or substantial damage upon the property of another, and (ii)
6 as a result of mental disorder or developmental disability presents a 7 likelihood of serious harm; or

8 (b) Was taken into custody as a result of conduct in which he or 9 she attempted or inflicted serious physical harm upon the person of 10 another, and continues to present, as a result of mental disorder or 11 developmental disability a likelihood of serious harm; or

12 (c) Is in custody pursuant to RCW 71.05.280(3) and as a result of 13 mental disorder or developmental disability presents a substantial
14 likelihood of repeating similar acts considering the charged criminal 15 behavior, life history, progress in treatment, and the public safety; 16 or

17 (d) Continues to be gravely disabled.

18 If the conduct required to be proven in (b) and (c) of this 19 subsection was found by a judge or jury in a prior trial under this 20 chapter, it shall not be necessary to reprove that element. Such new 21 petition for involuntary treatment shall be filed and heard in the 22 superior court of the county of the facility which is filing the new 23 petition for involuntary treatment unless good cause is shown for a 24 change of venue. The cost of the proceedings shall be borne by the 25 state.

26 The hearing shall be held as provided in RCW 71.05.310, and if the 27 court or jury finds that the grounds for additional confinement as set 28 forth in this subsection are present, the court may order the committed 29 person returned for an additional period of treatment not to exceed one 30 hundred eighty days from the date of judgment. At the end of the one 31 hundred eighty day period of commitment, the committed person shall be 32 released unless a petition for another one hundred eighty day period of 33 continued treatment is filed and heard in the same manner as provided 34 in this subsection. Successive one hundred eighty day commitments are 35 permissible on the same grounds and pursuant to the same procedures as 36 the original one hundred eighty day commitment.

37 (3) No person committed as provided in this section may be detained 38 unless a valid order of commitment is in effect. No order of 39 commitment can exceed one hundred eighty days in length.

1 Sec. 8. RCW 71.05.425 and 1994 c 129 s 9 are each amended to read
2 as follows:

4 earliest possible date, and in no event later than thirty days before
5 conditional release, final discharge, authorized leave under RCW

31 this chapter.

32 (c) The thirty-day notice requirements contained in this subsection
33 shall not apply to emergency medical furloughs.

35 will not require any extension of the release date in the event the 36 release plan changes after notification.

37 (2) If a person committed under RCW 71.05.280(3) or 71.05.320(2)(c)

5 the witnesses and the victim of the sex, violent, or felony harassment
6 offense that was dismissed pursuant to RCW 10.77.090(~~(+3)~~) (4)
