Brief Title: Limiting the liability of a current or former employer who provides information about a current or former employee's work record to a prospective employer.

HB 1754 - DIGEST

Declares that an employer who discloses information about a former or current employee to a prospective employer is presumed to be acting in good faith and is immune from civil liability for such disclosure or its consequences if the disclosed information relates to:

- (1) The employee's ability to perform his or her job;
- (2) the diligence, skill or reliability with which the employee carried out the duties of his or her job; or
- (3) any illegal or wrongful act committed by the employee.
