

2802

Sponsor(s): Representatives Lambert, Campbell, Carrell, Benson, Schindler, Cox, Boldt, Mulliken, Delvin, Koster and Wood

Brief Description: Declaring that the legislature believes judges and judicial candidates have a right to freely express their beliefs and opinions.

HB 2802 - DIGEST

Declares that judges and judicial candidates have a right to freely express and incorporate their beliefs and opinions in any statement made regarding any campaign or potential campaign for judicial office or any issue pertaining thereto without legal or professional retribution, negative consequence, or penalty to the standing, evaluation, or privilege of the judge or the judicial candidate.