By Representative

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. (1) The legislature makes the following findings:

(a) The effective management of high-risk sex offenders requires a comprehensive approach that includes appropriate sentencing for sex offenses and a plan to address both the immediate and long-term need to protect the public and meet constitutional requirements.

(b) The individualized treatment required for constitutional civil commitment includes the realistic possibility of release to a less restrictive alternative in appropriate cases.

(c) Some high-risk sex offenders are most appropriately managed through an indeterminate sentencing structure in which they will be supervised and can be retained in or returned to a state correctional institution until the statutory maximum sentence has expired. The state does not currently have an indeterminate sentencing structure. Consequently, the state must make changes to its sentencing structure to effectively manage these high-risk sex offenders.

(2) Therefore, the legislature intends to:

(a) Maximize public safety and enhance the potential for successful treatment of sexually violent predators through the tightly managed use of less restrictive alternatives;

(b) Ensure the prompt siting and timely operation of a secure community transition facility on McNeil Island, and ensure the continued progress toward the construction and operation of the total confinement facility already planned for McNeil Island, to further the treatment and management of persons civilly committed under chapter 71.09 RCW;

(c) Provide guidance for the equitable distribution and siting of secure community transition facilities for persons ordered conditionally released to less restrictive alternatives under chapter 71.09 RCW; and

(d) Manage high-risk sex offenders to the greatest extent possible through the criminal justice system by establishing an indeterminate sentencing structure for those offenders who present a high risk to the community, based on their sex offense history.

Sec. 102. RCW 71.09.020 and 2001 c 286 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

~~(1) ("Sexually violent predator" means any person who has been convicted of or charged with a crime of sexual violence and who suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder which makes the person likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility.~~

PART II

SITING AND OPERATION OF SECURE COMMUNITY TRANSITION FACILITIES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary is authorized to site, construct, occupy, and operate a secure community transition facility on McNeil Island for persons authorized to petition for court-ordered conditional release under RCW 71.09.090(1) and a special commitment center on McNeil Island with up to four hundred four beds as a total confinement facility under this chapter, subject to appropriated funding for those purposes. The secure community transition facility shall be authorized for the number of beds needed to ensure compliance with the orders of the superior courts under this chapter and the federal district court for the western district of Washington, but in no case more than fifteen occupied beds.

(2) Notwithstanding RCW 36.70A.103 or any other law, this statute preempts and supersedes local plans, development regulations, permitting requirements, inspection requirements, and other laws as necessary to enable the secretary to site, construct, occupy, and operate a secure community transition facility on McNeil Island and a total confinement facility on McNeil Island.

(3) To the greatest extent possible, until June 30, 2003, persons who were not civilly committed from the county in which the secure community transition facility established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section is located may not be conditionally released to a setting less restrictive than that facility in that county.

(4) As of the effective date of this section, the state shall immediately cease any efforts in effect on such date to site secure community transition facilities, other than the facility authorized by subsection (1) of this section, and shall instead site such facilities according to the requirements of subsections (5) and (6) of this section.

(5) The department shall determine, in consultation with the attorney general, whether additional secure community transition facilities, other than the facility authorized pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, are necessary. If additional facilities are necessary, the department shall prepare a projected list of counties in which the facilities need to be sited over the next six years, and every six years thereafter, and transmit that list to the office of financial management. In preparing this list, the department shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) No additional secure community transition facilities may be sited in the county where the special commitment center is located until after June 30, 2008.

(b) The total number of secure community transition facility beds sited between the effective date of this section and June 30, 2008, in each county may be no greater than the total number of persons civilly committed from that county who were residents of the special commitment center on April 1, 2001. The total number of secure community transition facility beds sited between July 1, 2008, and June 30, 2015, in each county may be no greater than the total number of persons civilly committed from that county who were residents of the special commitment center on July 1, 2008.

(c) The department shall, in consultation with the joint select committee established pursuant to section 219 of this act and consistent with the requirements of section 210 of this act, provide for the equitable distribution of secure community transition facilities among counties. The department shall base this equitable distribution on the following factors and give weight to each in accordance with the order of priority listed below:

(i) The total number of persons civilly committed from each county who were residents of the special commitment center on April 1, 2001, per one thousand persons residing in the county;

(ii) The number of state hospital beds for mentally ill persons and secure community transition facility beds operated by the department of social and health services, and the number of correctional institution, work release, and other criminal justice facility beds owned or operated by, or operated under contract with, the department of corrections, located in each county per one thousand persons residing in the county;

(iii) The number of projected secure community transition facility beds operated by the department of social and health services, and the number of projected correctional institution, work release, and other criminal justice facility beds owned or operated by, or operated under contract with, the department of corrections located in each county per one thousand persons residing in the county; and

(iv) The number of registered sex offenders classified as level II or level III and the number of sex offenders registered as homeless per one thousand persons residing in the county.

(6) In identifying potential sites within a county for the location of a secure community transition facility, the department shall work with local governments to provide for the equitable distribution of such facilities in jurisdictions and neighborhoods within the county. The department and local governments shall base this equitable distribution on the following factors and give weight to each in accordance with the order of priority listed below:

(a) The number of state hospital beds for mentally ill persons and secure community transition facility beds operated by the department of social and health services, and the number of correctional institution, work release, or other criminal justice facility beds owned or operated by, or operated under contract with, the department of corrections, located in each jurisdiction or neighborhood per one thousand persons residing in the jurisdiction or neighborhood;

(b) The number of projected secure community transition facility beds operated by the department of social and health services, and the number of projected correctional institution, work release, or other criminal justice facility beds owned or operated by, or operated under contract with, the department of corrections located in each jurisdiction or neighborhood per one thousand persons residing in the jurisdiction or neighborhood; and

(c) The number of registered sex offenders classified as level II or level III and the number of sex offenders registered as homeless in the jurisdiction or neighborhood per one thousand persons residing in the jurisdiction or neighborhood.

(7) For the purposes of subsections (3), (5), and (6) of this section, a person is civilly committed from a particular county if the petition for civil commitment with respect to the person was filed in that county.

(8) For the purposes of subsections (5) and (6) of this section:

(a) "Equitable distribution" means siting or locating secure community transition facilities in a manner that will not cause a disproportionate grouping of similar facilities either in any one county, or in any one jurisdiction or community within a county, as relevant; and

(b) "Jurisdiction" means a city, town, or unincorporated area of a county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary is authorized to operate a correctional facility on McNeil Island for the confinement of sex offenders and other offenders sentenced by the courts, and to make necessary repairs, renovations, additions, and improvements to state property for that purpose, notwithstanding any local comprehensive plans, development regulations, permitting requirements, or other local laws. Operation of the correctional facility and other state facilities authorized by this section and other law includes access to adequate docking facilities on state-owned tidelands at the town of Steilacoom.

Sec. 203. RCW 36.70A.103 and 1991 sp.s. c 32 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

State agencies shall comply with the local comprehensive plans and development regulations and amendments thereto adopted pursuant to this chapter except as otherwise provided in sections 201 (1) and (2) and 202 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. Beginning on the effective date of this section, the state shall immediately enter into negotiations for a mitigation agreement with: (1) The county in which the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act is located; (2) each community in which the persons from that facility will reside or regularly spend time in pursuant to court orders for regular work or education, or to receive social services, or will regularly be transported through to reach those other communities; and (3) other impacted parties. The negotiations must be toward an agreement that will provide state funding, as appropriated for this purpose, in an amount adequate to mitigate anticipated or realized increased costs resulting from any increased risks to public safety brought about by the presence of sexually violent predators in those communities due to the siting of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act. This section expires June 30, 2003.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall make reasonable efforts to distribute the impact of the employment, education, and social services needs of the residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act among the adjoining counties and not to concentrate the residents' use of resources in any one community.

(2) The department shall develop policies to ensure that placement of persons eligible in the future for conditional release to a setting less restrictive than the facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act will be equitably distributed among the counties and within jurisdictions in the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. The department of social and health services shall, by August 1, 2001, and prior to operating the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, hold at least three public hearings in the affected communities within the county where the facility is located.

The purpose of the public hearings is to seek input from county and city officials, local law enforcement officials, and the public regarding operations and security measures needed to adequately protect the community from any increased risk to public safety brought about by the presence of persons conditionally released from the special commitment center in these communities due to the siting of the facility. The department shall ensure that persons have a full opportunity to speak to the issues to be addressed during each hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. The secretary of social and health services shall coordinate with the secretary of corrections and the appropriate local or state law enforcement agency or agencies to establish a twenty-four-hour law enforcement presence on McNeil Island before any person is admitted to the secure community transition facility established under section 201(1) of this act. Law enforcement shall coordinate with the emergency response team for McNeil Island to provide planning and coordination in the event of an escape from the special commitment center or the secure community transition facility.

In addition, or if no law enforcement agency will provide a law enforcement presence on the island, not more than ten correctional employees, as selected by the secretary of corrections, who are members of the emergency response team for the McNeil Island correctional facility, shall have the powers and duties of a general authority peace officer while acting in a law enforcement capacity. If there is no law enforcement agency to provide the law enforcement presence, those correctional employees selected as peace officers shall provide a twenty-four-hour presence and shall not have correctional duties at the correctional facility in addition to the emergency response team while acting in a law enforcement capacity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) By July 1, 2001, the department must provide the appropriate committees of the legislature with a transportation plan to address the issues of coordinating the movement of residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act between McNeil Island and the mainland with the movement of others who must use the same docks or equipment within the funds appropriated for this purpose.

(2) If the department does not provide a separate vessel for transporting residents of the secure community transition facility established in section 201(1) of this act between McNeil Island and the mainland, the plan shall include at least the following components:

(a) The residents shall be separated from minors and vulnerable adults, except vulnerable adults who have been found to be sexually violent predators.

(b) The residents shall not be transported during times when children are normally coming to and from the mainland for school.

(3) The department shall designate a separate waiting area at the points of debarkation, and residents shall be required to remain in this area while awaiting transportation.

(4) The department shall provide law enforcement agencies in the counties and cities in which residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act regularly participate in employment, education, or social services, or through which these persons are regularly transported, with a copy of the court's order of conditional release with respect to these persons. The department shall also provide these law enforcement agencies with a general plan of each resident's planned activities in the community, and update these plans as needed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

When considering whether a person civilly committed under this chapter and conditionally released to a secure community transition facility is appropriate for release to a placement that is less restrictive than that facility, the court shall consider whether the person has progressed in treatment to the point that a significant change in the person's routine, including but not limited to a change of employment, education, residence, or sex offender treatment provider will not cause the person to regress to the point that the person presents a greater risk to the community than can reasonably be addressed in the proposed placement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 210. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except with respect to the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, a secure community transition facility shall meet the following minimum siting requirements:

(a) The location of the secure community transition facility shall enable:

(i) An average response time of five minutes or less by law enforcement officers who are qualified and designated to perform security response functions relative to the facility; and

(ii) An average response time by fire safety and emergency medical personnel that is comparable to the average of the local community.

(b) In no case shall a secure community transition facility be located adjacent to, immediately across a street or parking lot from, or within the line of sight of a risk potential activity or facility in existence at the time a site is listed for consideration. "Within the line of sight" means that it is possible to reasonably visually distinguish and recognize individuals.

(2) The secretary shall adopt rules that, at a minimum:

(a) Include the requirements set out in subsection (1) of this section;

(b) Give great weight to sites that are the farthest removed from any risk potential activity;

(c) Provide that the requirements of sections 211 and 212 of this act can be met with respect to any site chosen; and

(d) Include criteria to be considered in evaluating the appropriateness of a potential site for a secure community transition facility. At a minimum, the criteria shall include:

(i) Whether limited visibility between the facility and adjacent properties can be achieved, upon request of an adjacent property owner, prior to placement of any person;

(ii) The distance from, and number of, risk potential activities and facilities;

(iii) Reasonable proximity to available qualified medical, mental health, sex offender, and chemical dependency treatment providers and facilities. For purposes of this section the "availability" of qualified treatment providers is based upon an analysis of provider qualifications and willingness to provide services, average commute time, and cost of services;

(iv) Suitability of the location for programming, staffing, and support considerations; and

(v) Reasonable proximity to employment, educational, vocational, and other treatment plan components.

(3) In making a decision regarding a site, the secretary shall give priority to public safety and security considerations. Any analysis related to a decision to site a facility at a particular location shall be made available at the public hearings prescribed in section 214 of this act.

(4) Final regulations implementing this section may not be adopted prior to March 31, 2002.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Security systems for all secure community transition facilities shall meet the following minimum qualifications:

(a) The security panel must be a commercial grade panel with tamper-proof switches and a key-lock to prevent unauthorized access.

(b) There must be an emergency electrical supply system which shall include a battery back-up system and a generator.

(c) The system must include personal panic devices for all staff.

(d) The security system must be capable of being monitored and signaled either by telephone through either a land or cellular telephone system or by private radio network in the event of a total dial-tone failure or through equivalent technologies.

(e) The department shall issue photo-identification badges to all staff which must be worn at all times.

(2) Security systems for secure community transition facilities designed to house more than six residents shall also include a fence and provide the maximum protection appropriate in a civil facility for persons in less than total confinement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 212. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Secure community transition facilities shall meet the following minimum staffing requirements:

(a) At any time the census of a facility is six or fewer residents, the facility shall maintain a minimum staffing ratio of one staff per resident during normal waking hours and two awake staff per three residents during normal sleeping hours.

(b) At any time the census of a facility is six or fewer residents, all staff shall be classified as residential rehabilitation counselor II or have a classification that indicates a higher level of skill, experience, and training.

(c) Before being assigned to a facility, all staff shall have training in sex offender issues, self-defense, and crisis de-escalation skills in addition to departmental orientation and, as appropriate, management training. All staff with resident treatment or care duties must participate in ongoing in-service training.

(d) All staff must pass a departmental background check and the check is not subject to the limitations in chapter 9.96A RCW. A person who has been convicted of a felony, or any sex offense, may not be employed at the secure community transition facility or be approved as an escort for a resident of the facility.

(2) With respect to the facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, the department shall, no later than December 1, 2001, provide a staffing plan to the appropriate committees of the legislature that will cover the growth of that facility to its full capacity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 213. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Unless otherwise ordered by the court:

(a) Residents of a secure community transition facility shall wear electronic monitoring devices at all times. To the extent that electronic monitoring devices that employ global positioning system technology are available and funds for this purpose are appropriated by the legislature, the department shall use these devices.

(b) At least one staff member, or other court-authorized and department-approved person must escort each resident when the resident leaves the secure community transition facility for appointments, employment, or other approved activities. Escorting persons must supervise the resident closely and maintain close proximity to the resident. The escort must immediately notify the department of any serious violation, as defined in section 216 of this act, by the resident and must immediately notify law enforcement of any violation of law by the resident. The escort may not be a relative of the resident.

(2) Staff members of the special commitment center and any other total confinement facility and any secure community transition facility must be trained in self-defense and appropriate crisis responses including incident de-escalation. Prior to escorting a person outside of a facility, staff members must also have training in the offense pattern of the offender they are escorting.

(3) Any escort must carry a cellular telephone or a similar device at all times when escorting a resident of a secure community transition facility.

(4) The department shall require training in offender pattern, self-defense, and incident response for all court-authorized escorts who are not employed by the department or the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 214. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the department operates, or the secretary enters into a contract to operate, a secure community transition facility except the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, the secure community transition facility may be operated only after the public notification and opportunities for review and comment as required by this section.

(2) The secretary shall establish a process for early and continuous public participation in establishing or relocating secure community transition facilities. The process shall include, at a minimum, public meetings in the local communities affected, as well as opportunities for written and oral comments, in the following manner:

(a) If there are more than three sites initially selected as potential locations and the selection process by the secretary or a service provider reduces the number of possible sites for a secure community transition facility to no fewer than three, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall notify the public of the possible siting and hold at least two public hearings in each community where a secure community transition facility may be sited. The public hearings shall be conducted not less than forty-five days before a final selection is made.

(b) When the secretary or service provider has determined the secure community transition facility's location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall hold at least one additional public hearing in the community where the secure community transition facility will be sited.

(c) When the secretary has entered negotiations with a service provider and only one site is under consideration, then at least two public hearings shall be held.

(d) To provide adequate notice of, and opportunity for interested persons to comment on, a proposed location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall provide at least fourteen days' advance notice of the meeting to all newspapers of general circulation in the community, all radio and television stations generally available to persons in the community, any school district in which the secure community transition facility would be sited or whose boundary is within two miles of a proposed secure community transition facility, any library district in which the secure community transition facility would be sited, local business or fraternal organizations that request notification from the secretary or agency, and any person or property owner within a one-half mile radius of the proposed secure community transition facility. Before initiating this process, the department of social and health services shall contact local government planning agencies in the communities containing the proposed secure community transition facility. The department of social and health services shall coordinate with local government agencies to ensure that opportunities are provided for effective citizen input and to reduce the duplication of notice and meetings.

(3) If local government land use regulations require that a special use or conditional use permit be submitted and approved before a secure community transition facility can be sited, and the process for obtaining such a permit includes public notice and hearing requirements similar to those required under this section, the requirements of this section shall not apply to the extent they would duplicate requirements under the local land use regulations.

(4) This section applies only to secure community transition facilities sited after the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 215. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall develop a process with local governments that allows each community in which a secure community transition facility is located to establish operational advisory boards of at least seven persons for the secure community transition facilities. The department may conduct community awareness activities to publicize this opportunity. The operational advisory boards developed under this section shall be implemented following the decision to locate a secure community transition facility in a particular community.

(2) The operational advisory boards may review and make recommendations regarding the security and operations of the secure community transition facility and conditions or modifications necessary with relation to any person who the secretary proposes to place in the secure community transition facility.

(3) The facility management must consider the recommendations of the community advisory boards. Where the facility management does not implement an operational advisory board recommendation, the management must provide a written response to the operational advisory board stating its reasons for its decision not to implement the recommendation.

(4) The operational advisory boards, their members, and any agency represented by a member shall not be liable in any cause of action as a result of its recommendations unless the advisory board acts with gross negligence or bad faith in making a recommendation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 216. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall adopt a violation reporting policy for persons conditionally released to less restrictive alternative placements. The policy shall require written documentation by the department and service providers of all violations of conditions set by the department, the department of corrections, or the court and establish criteria for returning a violator to the special commitment center or a secure community transition facility with a higher degree of security. Any conditionally released person who commits a serious violation of conditions shall be returned to the special commitment center, unless arrested by a law enforcement officer, and the court shall be notified immediately and shall initiate proceedings under RCW 71.09.098 to revoke or modify the less restrictive alternative placement. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the department to return a person to the special commitment center based on a violation that is not a serious violation as defined in this section. For the purposes of this section, "serious violation" includes but is not limited to:

- (a) The commission of any criminal offense;
- (b) Any unlawful use or possession of a controlled substance; and
- (c) Any violation of conditions targeted to address the person's documented pattern of offense that increases the risk to public safety.

(2) When a person is conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative under this chapter and is under the supervision of the department of corrections, notice of any violation of the person's conditions of release must also be made to the department of corrections.

(3) Whenever the secretary contracts with a service provider to operate a secure community transition facility, the contract shall include a requirement that the service provider must report to the department of social and health services any known violation of conditions committed by any resident of the secure community transition facility.

(4) The secretary shall document in writing all violations, penalties, actions by the department of social and health services to remove persons from a secure community transition facility, and contract terminations. The secretary shall compile this information and submit it to the appropriate committees of the legislature on an annual basis. The secretary shall give great weight to a service provider's record of violations, penalties, actions by the department of social and health services or the department of corrections to remove persons from a secure community transition facility, and contract terminations in determining whether to execute, renew, or renegotiate a contract with a service provider.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 217. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

A conditional release from a total confinement facility to a less restrictive alternative is a release that subjects the conditionally released person to the registration requirements specified in RCW 9A.44.130 and to community notification under RCW 4.24.550.

When a person is conditionally released to the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, the sheriff must provide each household on McNeil Island with the community notification information provided for under RCW 4.24.550.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 218. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

An employer who hires a person conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative must notify all other employees of the conditionally released person's status. Notification for conditionally released persons who enroll in institutions of higher education shall be made pursuant to the provisions of RCW 9A.44.130 related to sex offenders enrolled in institutions of higher education and RCW 4.24.550. This section applies only to conditionally released persons whose court-approved treatment plan includes permission or a requirement for the person to obtain education or employment and to employment positions or educational programs that meet the requirements of the court-approved treatment plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 219. (1) A joint select committee on the equitable distribution of secure community transition facilities is established.

(2) The joint select committee shall consist of the following persons:

(a) Two members from each of the two largest caucuses of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate, at least one member being a member of the senate human services and corrections committee;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 220. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this act shall operate to restrict a court's authority to make less restrictive alternative placements to a committed person's individual residence or to a setting less restrictive than a secure community transition facility. A court-ordered less restrictive alternative placement to a committed person's individual residence is not a less restrictive alternative placement to a secure community transition facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 221. The legislature finds that the state needs an increasing number of certified sex offender treatment providers to treat sexually violent predators and meet the state's commitment to long-term treatment, help reduce recidivism, and more adequately provide for the community. The legislature recognizes that these treatment providers offer a valuable service to the people of Washington and may experience difficulty maintaining adequate liability protection given the inherent uncertainties of providing treatment to sexually violent predators. The legislature intends to provide very limited immunity, for instances of simple negligence only, to certified sex offender treatment providers for their treatment decisions involving sexually violent predators released to a less restrictive alternative under chapter 71.09 RCW.

Sec. 222. RCW 18.155.020 and 2000 c 171 s 33 and 2000 c 28 s 38 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) No person shall represent himself or herself as a certified sex offender treatment provider without first applying for and receiving a certificate pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Only a certified sex offender treatment provider may perform or provide the following services:

(a) Evaluations conducted for the purposes of and pursuant to RCW 9.94A.670 and 13.40.160;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 224. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

(c) The certified sex offender treatment provider's act or omission did not constitute gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct.

(2) Nothing in this section affects the certified sex offender treatment provider's civil liability for damages caused by the certified sex offender treatment provider's breach of any duty to warn or protect imposed by law.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the state's civil liability for damages for injuries or death of another caused by a sexually violent predator or level III sex offender.

(4) Nothing in this section affects any statutory or court-ordered requirements of the certified sex offender treatment provider to report any known violations of conditions by the sexually violent predator or level III sex offender. A treatment provider approved by the department of social and health services under (c) of this subsection, who is not certified by the department of health, shall consult with a certified provider during the person's period of treatment to ensure compliance with the rules adopted by the department of health. The frequency and content of the consultation shall be based on the recommendation of the certified provider.

(2) A treatment provider, whether or not he or she is employed or approved by the department of social and health services under subsection (1) of this section or otherwise certified, may not perform or provide treatment of sexually violent predators under this section if the treatment provider has been:

(a) Convicted of a sex offense, as defined in RCW 9.94A.030;

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under (a) or (b) of this subsection.

~~((45))~~ (46) "Work crew" means a program of partial confinement consisting of civic improvement tasks for the benefit of the community that complies with RCW 9.94A.135.

~~((46))~~ (47) "Work ethic camp" means an alternative incarceration program as provided in RCW 9.94A.137 designed to reduce recidivism and lower the cost of corrections by requiring offenders to complete a comprehensive array of real-world job and vocational experiences, character-building work ethics training, life management skills development, substance abuse rehabilitation, counseling, literacy training, and basic adult education.

~~((47))~~ (48) "Work release" means a program of partial confinement available to offenders who are employed or engaged as a student in a regular course of study at school.

Sec. 302. RCW 9.94A.715 and 2001 c 10 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a court sentences a person to the custody of the department for a sex offense not sentenced under section 303 of this act, a violent offense, any crime against persons under RCW 9.94A.440(2), or a felony offense under chapter 69.50 or 69.52 RCW, committed on or after July 1, 2000, the court shall in addition to the other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to community custody for the community custody range established under RCW 9.94A.040 or up to the period of earned release awarded pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2), whichever is longer. The community custody shall begin: (a) Upon completion of the term of confinement; (b) at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2); or (c) with regard to offenders sentenced under RCW 9.94A.660, upon failure to complete or administrative termination from the special drug offender sentencing alternative program.

(2)(a) Unless a condition is waived by the court, the conditions of community custody shall include those provided for in RCW 9.94A.700(4). The conditions may also include those provided for in RCW 9.94A.700(5). The court may also order the offender to participate in rehabilitative programs or otherwise perform affirmative conduct reasonably related to the circumstances of the offense, the offender's risk of reoffending, or the safety of the community, and the department shall enforce such conditions pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

(b) As part of any sentence that includes a term of community custody imposed under this subsection, the court shall also require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the department under RCW 9.94A.720. The department shall assess the offender's risk of reoffense and may establish and modify additional conditions of the offender's community custody based upon the risk to community safety. In addition, the department may require the offender to participate in rehabilitative programs, or otherwise perform affirmative conduct, and to obey all laws.

(c) The department may not impose conditions that are contrary to those ordered by the court and may not contravene or decrease court imposed conditions. The department shall notify the offender in writing of any such conditions or modifications. In setting, modifying, and enforcing conditions of community custody, the department shall be deemed to be performing a quasi-judicial function.

(3) If an offender violates conditions imposed by the court or the department pursuant to this section during community custody, the department may transfer the offender to a more restrictive confinement status and impose other available sanctions as provided in RCW 9.94A.205 and 9.94A.207.

(4) Except for terms of community custody under RCW 9.94A.670, the department shall discharge the offender from community custody on a date determined by the department, which the department may modify, based on risk and performance of the offender, within the range or at the end of the period of earned release, whichever is later.

(5) At any time prior to the completion or termination of a sex offender's term of community custody, if the court finds that public safety would be enhanced, the court may impose and enforce an order extending any or all of the conditions imposed pursuant to this section for a period up to the maximum allowable sentence for the crime as it is classified in chapter 9A.20 RCW, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community custody. If a violation of a condition extended under this subsection occurs after the expiration of the offender's term of community custody, it shall be deemed a violation of the sentence for the purposes of RCW 9.94A.195 and may be punishable as contempt of court as provided for in RCW 7.21.040. If the court extends a condition beyond the expiration of the term of community custody, the department is not responsible for supervision of the offender's compliance with the condition.

(6) Within the funds available for community custody, the department shall determine conditions and duration of community custody on the basis of risk to community safety, and shall supervise offenders during community custody on the basis of risk to community safety and conditions imposed by the court. The secretary shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this subsection.

(7) By the close of the next business day after receiving notice of a condition imposed or modified by the department, an offender may request an administrative review under rules adopted by the department. The condition shall remain in effect unless the reviewing officer finds that it is not reasonably related to any of the following: (a) The crime of conviction; (b) the offender's risk of reoffending; or (c) the safety of the community.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 303. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

(1) An offender who is not a persistent offender shall be sentenced under this section if the offender:

(a) Is convicted of:

(i) Rape in the first degree, rape in the second degree, rape of a child in the first degree, child molestation in the first degree, rape of a child in the second degree, or indecent liberties by forcible compulsion;

(ii) Any of the following offenses with a finding of sexual motivation: Murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, homicide by abuse, kidnapping in the first degree, kidnapping in the second degree, assault in the first degree, assault in the second degree, assault of a child in the first degree, or burglary in the first degree; or

(iii) An attempt to commit any crime listed in this subsection committed on or after the effective date of this section; or

(b) Has a prior conviction for an offense listed in RCW 9.94A.030(32)(b), and is convicted of any sex offense which was committed after the effective date of this section.

For purposes of this subsection (1)(b), failure to register is not a sex offense.

(2) Upon a finding that the offender is subject to sentencing under this section, the court shall impose a sentence to a maximum term consisting of the statutory maximum sentence for the offense and a minimum term either within the standard sentence range for the offense, or outside the standard sentence range pursuant to RCW 9.94A.390, if the offender is otherwise eligible for such a sentence.

(3) A person sentenced under subsection (2) of this section shall serve the sentence in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state.

(4) When a court sentences a person to the custody of the department under this section, the court shall, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to community custody under the supervision of the department and the authority of the board for any period of time the person is released from total confinement before the expiration of the maximum sentence.

(5)(a) Unless a condition is waived by the court, the conditions of community custody shall include those provided for in RCW 9.94A.700(4). The conditions may also include those provided for in RCW 9.94A.700(5). The court may also order the offender to participate in rehabilitative programs or otherwise perform affirmative conduct reasonably related to the circumstances of the offense, the offender's risk of reoffending, or the safety of the community, and the department and the board shall enforce such conditions pursuant to sections 304, 307, and 308 of this act.

(b) As part of any sentence under this section, the court shall also require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the board under sections 304 and 306 through 309 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 304. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

(1) When an offender is sentenced under section 303 of this act, the department shall assess the offender's risk of recidivism and shall recommend to the board any additional or modified conditions of the offender's community custody based upon the risk to community safety. In addition, the department shall make a recommendation with regard to, and the board may require the offender to participate in, rehabilitative programs, or otherwise perform affirmative conduct, and obey all laws. The board must consider and may impose department-recommended conditions.

(2) The department may not recommend and the board may not impose conditions that are contrary to those ordered by the court and may not contravene or decrease court-imposed conditions. The board shall notify the offender in writing of any such conditions or modifications.

(3) In setting, modifying, and enforcing conditions of community custody, the department shall be deemed to be performing a quasi-judicial function.

(4) If an offender violates conditions imposed by the court, the department, or the board during community custody, the board or the department may transfer the offender to a more restrictive confinement status and impose other available sanctions as provided in section 309 of this act.

(5) By the close of the next business day, after receiving notice of a condition imposed by the board or the department, an offender may request an administrative hearing under rules adopted by the board. The condition shall remain in effect unless the hearing examiner finds that it is not reasonably related to any of the following:

- (a) The crime of conviction;
- (b) The offender's risk of reoffending; or
- (c) The safety of the community.

(6) An offender released by the board under section 306 of this act shall be subject to the supervision of the department until the expiration of the maximum term of the sentence. The department shall monitor the offender's compliance with conditions of community custody imposed by the court, department, or board, and promptly report any violations to the board. Any violation of conditions of community custody established or modified by the board shall be subject to the provisions of sections 307 through 310 of this act.

(7) If the department finds that an emergency exists requiring the immediate imposition of conditions of release in addition to those set by the board under section 306 of this act and subsection (1) of this section in order to prevent the offender from committing a crime, the department may impose additional conditions. The department may not impose conditions that are contrary to those set by the board or the court and may not contravene or decrease court-imposed or board-imposed conditions. Conditions imposed under this subsection shall take effect immediately after notice to the offender by personal service, but shall not remain in effect longer than seven working days unless approved by the board under subsection (1) of this section within seven working days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 305. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall provide offenders sentenced under section 303 of this act with the opportunity for sex offender treatment during incarceration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 306. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1)(a) Before the expiration of the minimum term, as part of the end of sentence review process under RCW 72.09.340, 72.09.345, and where appropriate, 72.09.370, the department shall conduct, and the offender shall participate in, an examination of the offender, incorporating methodologies that are recognized by experts in the prediction of sexual dangerousness, and including a prediction of the probability that the offender will engage in sex offenses if released.

(b) The board may contract for an additional, independent examination, subject to the standards in this section.

(2) The board shall impose the conditions and instructions provided for in RCW 9.94A.720. The board shall consider the department's recommendations and may impose conditions in addition to those recommended by the department. The board may impose or modify conditions of community custody following notice to the offender.

(3) No later than ninety days before expiration of the minimum term, but after the board receives the results from the end of sentence review process and the recommendations for additional or modified conditions of community custody from the department, the board shall conduct a hearing to determine whether it is more likely than not that the offender will engage in sex offenses if released on conditions to be set by the board. The board may consider an offender's failure to participate in an evaluation under subsection (1) of this section in determining whether to release the offender. The board shall order the offender released, under such affirmative and other conditions as the board determines appropriate, unless the board determines by a preponderance of the evidence that, despite such conditions, it is more likely than not that the offender will commit sex offenses if released. If the board does not order the offender released, the board shall establish a new minimum term, not to exceed an additional two years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the board or a community corrections officer of this state has reason to believe an offender released under section 306 of this act has violated a condition of community custody or the laws of this state, any community corrections officer may arrest or cause the arrest and detention of the offender pending a determination by the board whether sanctions should be imposed or the offender's community custody should be revoked. The community corrections officer shall report all facts and circumstances surrounding the alleged violation to the board, with recommendations.

(2) If the board or the department causes the arrest or detention of an offender for a violation that does not amount to a new crime and the offender is arrested or detained by local law enforcement or in a local jail, the board or department, whichever caused the arrest or detention, shall be financially responsible for local costs. Jail bed costs shall be allocated at the rate established under RCW 9.94A.207(3).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 308. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

Any offender released under section 306 of this act who is arrested and detained in physical custody by the authority of a community corrections officer, or upon the written order of the board, shall not be released from custody on bail or personal recognizance, except upon approval of the board and the issuance by the board of an order reinstating the offender's release on the same or modified conditions. All chiefs of police, marshals of cities and towns, sheriffs of counties, and all police, prison, and peace officers and constables shall execute any such order in the same manner as any ordinary criminal process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 309. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If an offender released by the board under section 306 of this act violates any condition or requirement of community custody, the board may transfer the offender to a more restrictive confinement status to serve up to the remaining portion of the sentence, less credit for any period actually spent in community custody or in detention awaiting disposition of an alleged violation and subject to the limitations of subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Following the hearing specified in subsection (3) of this section, the board may impose sanctions such as work release, home detention with electronic monitoring, work crew, community service, inpatient treatment, daily reporting, curfew, educational or counseling sessions, supervision enhanced through electronic monitoring, or any other sanctions available in the community, or may suspend or revoke the release to community custody whenever an offender released by the board under section 306 of this act violates any condition or requirement of community custody.

(3) If an offender released by the board under section 306 of this act is accused of violating any condition or requirement of community custody, he or she is entitled to a hearing before the board prior to the imposition of sanctions. The hearing shall be considered as offender disciplinary proceedings and shall not be subject to chapter 34.05 RCW. The board shall develop hearing procedures and a structure of graduated sanctions consistent with the hearing procedures and graduated sanctions developed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.205. The board may suspend the offender's release to community custody and confine the offender in a correctional institution owned, operated by, or operated under contract with the state prior to the hearing unless the offender has been arrested and confined for a new criminal offense.

(4) The hearing procedures required under subsection (3) of this section shall be developed by rule and include the following:

(a) Hearings shall be conducted by members of the board unless the board enters into an agreement with the department to use the hearing officers established under RCW 9.94A.205;

(b) The board shall provide the offender with written notice of the violation, the evidence relied upon, and the reasons the particular sanction was imposed. The notice shall include a statement of the rights specified in this subsection, and the offender's right to file a personal restraint petition under court rules after the final decision of the board;

(c) The hearing shall be held unless waived by the offender, and shall be electronically recorded. For offenders not in total confinement, the hearing shall be held within fifteen working days, but not less than twenty-four hours after notice of the violation. For offenders in total confinement, the hearing shall be held within five working days, but not less than twenty-four hours after notice of the violation;

(d) The offender shall have the right to: (i) Be present at the hearing; (ii) have the assistance of a person qualified to assist the offender in the hearing, appointed by the hearing examiner if the offender has a language or communications barrier; (iii) testify or remain silent; (iv) call witnesses and present documentary evidence; (v) question witnesses who appear and testify; and (vi) be represented by counsel if revocation of the release to community custody is a possible sanction for the violation; and

(e) The sanction shall take effect if affirmed by the hearing examiner. Within seven days after the hearing examiner's decision, the offender may appeal the decision to a panel of three reviewing examiners designated by the chair of the board or by the chair's designee. The sanction shall be reversed or modified if a majority of the panel finds that the sanction was not reasonably related to any of the following: (i) The crime of conviction; (ii) the violation committed; (iii) the offender's risk of reoffending; or (iv) the safety of the community.

(5) For purposes of this section, no finding of a violation of conditions may be based on unconfirmed or unconfirmable allegations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 310. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

In the event the board suspends release status of an offender released under section 306 of this act by reason of an alleged violation of a condition of release, or pending disposition of a new criminal charge, the board may nullify the suspension order and reinstate release under previous conditions or any new conditions the board determines advisable. Before the board may nullify a suspension order and reinstate release, it shall determine that the best interests of society and the offender shall be served by such reinstatement rather than return to confinement.

Sec. 311. RCW 9.94A.060 and 1996 c 232 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission consists of twenty voting members, one of whom the governor shall designate as chairperson. With the exception of ex officio voting members, the voting members of the commission shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate.

(2) The voting membership consists of the following:

(a) The head of the state agency having general responsibility for adult correction programs, as an ex officio member;

(b) The director of financial management or designee, as an ex officio member;

(j) One person who is an elected official of a county government, other than a prosecuting attorney or sheriff;

(k) One person who is an elected official of a city government;

(l) One person who is an administrator of juvenile court services.

In making the appointments, the governor shall endeavor to assure that the commission membership includes adequate representation and expertise relating to both the adult criminal justice system and the juvenile justice system. In making the appointments, the governor shall seek the recommendations of Washington prosecutors in respect to the prosecuting attorney members, of the Washington state bar association in respect to the defense attorney members, of the association of superior court judges in respect to the members who are judges, of the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs in respect to the member who is a law enforcement officer, of the Washington state association of counties in respect to the member who is a county official, of the association of Washington cities in respect to the member who is a city official, of the office of crime victims advocacy and other organizations of crime victims in respect to the member who is a victim of crime or a crime victims' advocate, and of the Washington association of juvenile court administrators in respect to the member who is an administrator of juvenile court services.

(3)(a) All voting members of the commission, except ex officio voting members, shall serve terms of three years and until their successors are appointed and confirmed.

(b) The governor shall stagger the terms of the members appointed under subsection (2)(j), (k), and (l) of this section by appointing one of them for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, and one for a term of three years.

(4) The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate may each appoint two nonvoting members to the commission, one from each of the two largest caucuses in each house. The members so appointed shall serve two-year terms, or until they cease to be members of the house from which they were appointed, whichever occurs first.

(5) The members of the commission shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Legislative members shall be reimbursed by their respective houses as provided under RCW 44.04.120(~~(, as now existing or hereafter amended)~~). Members shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250.

Sec. 312. RCW 9.94A.120 and 2001 c 10 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this chapter.

(2)(a) The court shall impose a sentence as provided in the following sections and as applicable in the case:

(i) Unless another term of confinement applies, the court shall impose a sentence within the standard sentence range established in RCW 9.94A.310;

- (ii) RCW 9.94A.700 and 9.94A.705, relating to community placement;
- (iii) RCW 9.94A.710 and 9.94A.715, relating to community custody;
- (iv) RCW 9.94A.383, relating to community custody for offenders whose term of confinement is one year or less;
- (v) RCW 9.94A.560, relating to persistent offenders;
- (vi) RCW 9.94A.590, relating to mandatory minimum terms;
- (vii) RCW 9.94A.650, relating to the first-time offender waiver;
- (viii) RCW 9.94A.660, relating to the drug offender sentencing alternative;
- (ix) RCW 9.94A.670, relating to the special sex offender sentencing alternative;
- (x) Section 303 of this act, relating to certain sex offenses;
- (xi) RCW 9.94A.390, relating to exceptional sentences;
- ~~((xi))~~ (xii) RCW 9.94A.400, relating to consecutive and concurrent sentences.

(b) If a standard sentence range has not been established for the offender's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement; community service work; until July 1, 2000, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year and on and after July 1, 2000, a term of community custody not to exceed one year, subject to conditions and sanctions as authorized in RCW 9.94A.710 (2) and (3); and/or other legal financial obligations. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds reasons justifying an exceptional sentence as provided in RCW 9.94A.390.

(3) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(4) If a sentence imposed includes payment of a legal financial obligation, it shall be imposed as provided in RCW 9.94A.140, 9.94A.142, and 9.94A.145.

(5) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(4) and 9.94A.142(4), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision, community placement, or community custody which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(6) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(7) The court shall order restitution as provided in RCW 9.94A.140 and 9.94A.142.

(8) As a part of any sentence, the court may impose and enforce crime-related prohibitions and affirmative conditions as provided in this chapter.

(9) The court may order an offender whose sentence includes community placement or community supervision to undergo a mental status evaluation and to participate in available outpatient mental health treatment, if the court finds that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the offender is a mentally ill person as defined in RCW 71.24.025, and that this condition is likely to have influenced the offense. An order requiring mental status evaluation or treatment must be based on a presentence report and, if applicable, mental status evaluations that have been filed with the court to determine the offender's competency or eligibility for a defense of insanity. The court may order additional evaluations at a later date if deemed appropriate.

(10) In any sentence of partial confinement, the court may require the offender to serve the partial confinement in work release, in a program of home detention, on work crew, or in a combined program of work crew and home detention.

(11) In sentencing an offender convicted of a crime of domestic violence, as defined in RCW 10.99.020, if the offender has a minor child, or if the victim of the offense for which the offender was convicted has a minor child, the court may, as part of any term of community supervision, community placement, or community custody, order the offender to participate in a domestic violence perpetrator program approved under RCW 26.50.150.

Sec. 313. RCW 9.94A.190 and 2000 c 28 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided in subsection (3) or (5) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county, or if home detention or work crew has been ordered by the court, in the residence of either the offender or a member of the offender's immediate family.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a sentence imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.660 which has a standard sentence range of over one year, regardless of length, shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state.

(5) Sentences imposed pursuant to section 303 of this act shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state.

Sec. 314. RCW 9.94A.390 and 2000 c 28 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for an offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence. Whenever a sentence outside the standard sentence range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard sentence range shall be a determinate sentence unless it is imposed on an offender sentenced under section 303 of this act. An exceptional sentence imposed on an offender sentenced under section 303 of this act shall be to a minimum term set by the court and a maximum term equal to the statutory maximum sentence for the offense of conviction under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard sentence range should be imposed, the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400 (1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in this section, and may be appealed by the offender or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210 (2) through (6).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence. The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

(a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

(b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

(c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

(d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

(e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his or her conduct, or to conform his or her conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired. Voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded.

(f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

(g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(h) The defendant or the defendant's children suffered a continuing pattern of physical or sexual abuse by the victim of the offense and the offense is a response to that abuse.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

(a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

(b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

(c) The current offense was a violent offense, and the defendant knew that the victim of the current offense was pregnant.

(d) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

(i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

(ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

(iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time; or

(iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

(e) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify a current offense as a major VUCSA:

(i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so;

(ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use;

(iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties;

(iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy;

(v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning, occurred over a lengthy period of time, or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

(vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional).

(f) The current offense included a finding of sexual motivation pursuant to RCW 9.94A.127.

(g) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of sexual abuse of the same victim under the age of eighteen years manifested by multiple incidents over a prolonged period of time.

(ii) The offense occurred within sight or sound of the victim's or the offender's minor children under the age of eighteen years; or

(iii) The offender's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty or intimidation of the victim.

(i) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(j) The defendant's prior unscored misdemeanor or prior unscored foreign criminal history results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(k) The offense resulted in the pregnancy of a child victim of rape.

(l) The defendant knew that the victim of the current offense was a youth who was not residing with a legal custodian and the defendant established or promoted the relationship for the primary purpose of victimization.

Sec. 315. RCW 9.94A.590 and 2000 c 28 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified under RCW 9.94A.390:

(a) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years.

(b) An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree or assault of a child in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years.

(c) An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years.

(d) An offender convicted of the crime of sexually violent predator escape shall be sentenced to a minimum term of total confinement not less than sixty months.

(2) During such minimum terms of total confinement, no offender subject to the provisions of this section is eligible for community custody, earned release time, furlough, home detention, partial confinement, work crew, work release, or any other form of early release authorized under RCW 9.94A.150, or any other form of authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility while not in the direct custody of a corrections officer. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply: (a) In the case of an offender in need of emergency medical treatment; (b) for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility in the case of an offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree; or (c) for an extraordinary medical placement when authorized under RCW 9.94A.150(4).

Sec. 316. RCW 9.94A.670 and 2000 c 28 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this subsection apply to this section only.

(a) "Sex offender treatment provider" or "treatment provider" means a certified sex offender treatment provider as defined in RCW 18.155.020.

(b) "Victim" means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a result of the crime charged. "Victim" also means a parent or guardian of a victim who is a minor child unless the parent or guardian is the perpetrator of the offense.

(2) An offender is eligible for the special sex offender sentencing alternative if:

(a) The offender has been convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.050 or a sex offense that is also a serious violent offense;

(b) The offender has no prior convictions for a sex offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030 or any other felony sex offenses in this or any other state; and

(c) The offender's standard sentence range for the offense includes the possibility of confinement for less than eleven years.

(3) If the court finds the offender is eligible for this alternative, the court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the offender, may order an examination to determine whether the offender is amenable to treatment.

(a) The report of the examination shall include at a minimum the following:

(i) The offender's version of the facts and the official version of the facts;

(ii) The offender's offense history;

(iii) An assessment of problems in addition to alleged deviant behaviors;

(iv) The offender's social and employment situation; and

(v) Other evaluation measures used.

The report shall set forth the sources of the examiner's information.

(b) The examiner shall assess and report regarding the offender's amenability to treatment and relative risk to the community. A proposed treatment plan shall be provided and shall include, at a minimum:

(i) Frequency and type of contact between offender and therapist;

(ii) Specific issues to be addressed in the treatment and description of planned treatment modalities;

(iii) Monitoring plans, including any requirements regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring by family members and others;

(iv) Anticipated length of treatment; and

(v) Recommended crime-related prohibitions.

(c) The court on its own motion may order, or on a motion by the state shall order, a second examination regarding the offender's amenability to treatment. The examiner shall be selected by the party making the motion. The offender shall pay the cost of any second examination ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost.

(4) After receipt of the reports, the court shall consider whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this alternative and consider the victim's opinion whether the offender should receive a treatment disposition under this section. If the court determines that this alternative is appropriate, the court shall then impose a sentence or, pursuant to section 303 of this act, a minimum term of sentence, within the standard sentence range. If the sentence imposed is less (~~then~~ [~~than~~]) than eleven years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and impose the following conditions of suspension:

(a) The court shall place the offender on community custody for the length of the suspended sentence, the length of the maximum term imposed pursuant to section 303 of this act, or three years, whichever is greater, and require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the department under RCW 9.94A.720.

(b) The court shall order treatment for any period up to three years in duration. The court, in its discretion, shall order outpatient sex offender treatment or inpatient sex offender treatment, if available. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment. The offender shall not change sex offender treatment providers or treatment conditions without first notifying the prosecutor, the community corrections officer, and the court. If any party or the court objects to a proposed change, the offender shall not change providers or conditions without court approval after a hearing.

(5) As conditions of the suspended sentence, the court may impose one or more of the following:

(a) Up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense;

(b) Crime-related prohibitions;

(c) Require the offender to devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(f) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030;

(g) Perform community service work; or

(h) Reimburse the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

(6) At the time of sentencing, the court shall set a treatment termination hearing for three months prior to the anticipated date for completion of treatment.

(7) The sex offender treatment provider shall submit quarterly reports on the offender's progress in treatment to the court and the parties. The report shall reference the treatment plan and include at a minimum the following: Dates of attendance, offender's compliance with requirements, treatment activities, the offender's relative progress in treatment, and any other material specified by the court at sentencing.

(8) Prior to the treatment termination hearing, the treatment provider and community corrections officer shall submit written reports to the court and parties regarding the offender's compliance with treatment and monitoring requirements, and recommendations regarding termination from treatment, including proposed community custody conditions. Either party may request, and the court may order, another evaluation regarding the advisability of termination from treatment. The offender shall pay the cost of any additional evaluation ordered unless the court finds the offender to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost. At the treatment termination hearing the court may: (a) Modify conditions of community custody, and either (b) terminate treatment, or (c) extend treatment for up to the remaining period of community custody.

(9) If a violation of conditions occurs during community custody, the department shall either impose sanctions as provided for in RCW 9.94A.205(2)(a) or refer the violation to the court and recommend revocation of the suspended sentence as provided for in subsections (6) and (8) of this section.

(10) The court may revoke the suspended sentence at any time during the period of community custody and order execution of the sentence if: (a) The offender violates the conditions of the suspended sentence, or (b) the court finds that the offender is failing to make satisfactory progress in treatment. All confinement time served during the period of community custody shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(11) Examinations and treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection shall only be conducted by sex offender treatment providers certified by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW unless the court finds that:

(a) The offender has already moved to another state or plans to move to another state for reasons other than circumventing the certification requirements; or

(b)(i) No certified providers are available for treatment within a reasonable geographical distance of the offender's home; and

(ii) The evaluation and treatment plan comply with this section and the rules adopted by the department of health.

(12) If the offender is less than eighteen years of age when the charge is filed, the state shall pay for the cost of initial evaluation and treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 317. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) "Board" means the indeterminate sentence review board.

(2) "Community custody" means that portion of an offender's sentence subject to controls including crime-related prohibitions and affirmative conditions from the court, the board, or the department of corrections based on risk to community safety, that is served under supervision in the community, and which may be modified or revoked for violations of release conditions.

(3) "Crime-related prohibition" has the meaning defined in RCW 9.94A.030.

(4) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(5) "Parole" means that portion of a person's sentence for a crime committed before July 1, 1984, served on conditional release in the community subject to board controls and revocation and under supervision of the department.

(6) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of corrections or his or her designee.

Sec. 318. RCW 9.95.005 and 1986 c 224 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall meet at ~~((the penitentiary and the reformatory))~~ major state correctional institutions at such times as may be necessary for a full and complete study of the cases of all convicted persons whose durations of confinement are to be determined by it ~~((or))~~; whose community custody supervision is under the board's authority; or whose applications for parole come before it. Other times and places of meetings may also be fixed by the board.

The superintendents of the different institutions shall provide suitable quarters for the board and assistants while in the discharge of their duties.

Sec. 319. RCW 9.95.010 and 1955 c 133 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person, whose crime was committed before July 1, 1984, is convicted of any felony, except treason, murder in the first degree, or carnal knowledge of a child under ten years, and a new trial is not granted, the court shall sentence such person to the penitentiary, or, if the law allows and the court sees fit to exercise such discretion, to the reformatory, and shall fix the maximum term of such person's sentence only.

The maximum term to be fixed by the court shall be the maximum provided by law for the crime of which such person was convicted, if the law provides for a maximum term. If the law does not provide a maximum term for the crime of which such person was convicted the court shall fix such maximum term, which may be for any number of years up to and including life imprisonment but in any case where the maximum term is fixed by the court it shall be fixed at not less than twenty years.

Sec. 320. RCW 9.95.011 and 1993 c 144 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the court commits a convicted person to the department of corrections on or after July 1, 1986, for an offense committed before July 1, 1984, the court shall, at the time of sentencing or revocation of probation, fix the minimum term. The term so fixed shall not exceed the maximum sentence provided by law for the offense of which the person is convicted.

The court shall attempt to set the minimum term reasonably consistent with the purposes, standards, and sentencing ranges adopted under RCW 9.94A.040, but the court is subject to the same limitations as those placed on the board under RCW 9.92.090, 9.95.040 (1) through (4), 9.95.115, 9A.32.040, 9A.44.045, and chapter 69.50 RCW. The court's minimum term decision is subject to review to the same extent as a minimum term decision by the parole board before July 1, 1986.

Thereafter, the expiration of the minimum term set by the court minus any time credits earned under RCW 9.95.070 and 9.95.110 constitutes the parole eligibility review date, at which time the board may consider the convicted person for parole under RCW 9.95.100 and 9.95.110 and chapter 72.04A RCW. Nothing in this section affects the board's authority to reduce or increase the minimum term, once set by the court, under RCW 9.95.040, 9.95.052, 9.95.055, 9.95.070, 9.95.080, 9.95.100, 9.95.115, 9.95.125, or 9.95.047.

(2) Not less than ninety days prior to the expiration of the minimum term of a person sentenced under section 303 of this act, for a sex offense committed on or after July 1, 2001, less any time credits permitted by statute, the board shall review the person for conditional release to community custody as provided in section 306 of this act. If the board does not release the person, it shall set a new minimum term not to exceed an additional two years. The board shall review the person again not less than ninety days prior to the expiration of the new minimum term.

Sec. 321. RCW 9.95.017 and 1986 c 224 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall cause to be prepared criteria for duration of confinement, release on parole, and length of parole for persons committed to prison for crimes committed before July 1, 1984.

The proposed criteria should take into consideration RCW 9.95.009(2). Before submission to the governor, the board shall solicit comments and review on their proposed criteria for parole release. These proposed criteria shall be submitted for consideration by the 1987 legislature.

(2) Persons committed to the department of corrections and who are under the authority of the board for crimes committed on or after July

1, 2001, are subject to the provisions for duration of confinement, release to community custody, and length of community custody established in sections 303 through 310 of this act.

Sec. 322. RCW 9.95.020 and 1955 c 133 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sentence of a person so convicted is not suspended by the court, the superintendent of (~~the penitentiary or the superintendent of the reformatory~~) a major state correctional institution shall receive such person, if committed to his or her institution, and imprison (~~him~~) the person until released under the provisions of this chapter, under section 306 of this act, upon the completion of the statutory maximum sentence, or through the action of the governor.

Sec. 323. RCW 9.95.032 and 1984 c 114 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Such statement shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and approved by the judge by whom the judgment was rendered and shall be delivered to the sheriff, traveling guard, department of corrections personnel, or other officer executing the sentence, and a copy of such statement shall be furnished to the defendant or his or her attorney. Such officer shall deliver the statement, at the time of the prisoner's commitment, to the superintendent of the institution to which such prisoner has been (~~sentenced and~~) committed. The superintendent shall make such statement available for use by the board (~~of prison terms and paroles~~)).

Sec. 324. RCW 9.95.052 and 1986 c 224 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time after the board (or the court after July 1, 1986) has determined the minimum term of confinement of any person subject to confinement in a state correctional institution for a crime committed before July 1, 1984, the board may request the superintendent of such correctional institution to conduct a full review of such person's prospects for rehabilitation and report to the board the facts of such review and the resulting findings. Upon the basis of such report and such other information and investigation that the board deems appropriate, the board may redetermine and refix such convicted person's minimum term of confinement whether the term was set by the board or the court.

The board shall not reduce a person's minimum term of confinement unless the board has received from the department of corrections all institutional conduct reports relating to the person.

Sec. 325. RCW 9.95.055 and 1992 c 7 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:

The indeterminate sentence review board is hereby granted authority, in the event of a declaration by the governor that a war emergency exists, including a general mobilization, and for the duration thereof only, to reduce downward the minimum term, as set by the board, of any inmate under the jurisdiction of the board confined in a state correctional facility, who will be accepted by and inducted into the armed services: PROVIDED, That a reduction downward shall not be made under this section for those inmates who are confined for treason, murder in the first degree or carnal knowledge of a female child under ten years: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no such inmate shall be released under this section who is ~~((found to be a sexual psychopath under the provisions of and as defined by chapter 71.12 RCW))~~ being considered for civil commitment as a sexually violent predator under chapter 71.09 RCW or was sentenced under section 303 of this act for a crime committed on or after July 1, 2001.

Sec. 326. RCW 9.95.064 and 1989 c 276 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In order to minimize the trauma to the victim, the court may attach conditions on release of ~~((a defendant))~~ an offender under RCW 9.95.062, convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, regarding the whereabouts of the defendant, contact with the victim, or other conditions.

(2) Offenders released under section 306 of this act are subject to crime-related prohibitions and affirmative conditions established by the court, the department of corrections, or the board pursuant to RCW 9.94A.715 and sections 303 through 310 of this act.

Sec. 327. RCW 9.95.070 and 1999 c 143 s 19 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every prisoner, convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, who has a favorable record of conduct at the penitentiary or the reformatory, and who performs in a faithful, diligent, industrious, orderly and peaceable manner the work, duties, and tasks assigned to him or her to the satisfaction of the superintendent of the penitentiary or reformatory, and in whose behalf the superintendent of the penitentiary or reformatory files a report certifying that his or her conduct and work have been meritorious and recommending allowance of time credits to him or her, shall upon, but not until, the adoption of such recommendation by the indeterminate sentence review board, be allowed time credit reductions from the term of imprisonment fixed by the board.

(2) Offenders sentenced under section 303 of this act for a crime committed on or after July 1, 2001, are subject to the earned release provisions for sex offenders established in RCW 9.94A.150.

Sec. 328. RCW 9.95.080 and 1992 c 7 s 26 are each amended to read as follows:

In case any (~~convicted~~) person convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, and under the jurisdiction of the indeterminate sentence review board undergoing sentence in a state correctional (~~facility~~) institution commits any infractions of the rules and regulations of the institution, the board may revoke any order theretofore made determining the length of time such convicted person shall be imprisoned, including the forfeiture of all or a portion of credits earned or to be earned, pursuant to the provisions of RCW 9.95.110, and make a new order determining the length of time the person shall serve, not exceeding the maximum penalty provided by law for the crime for which the person was convicted, or the maximum fixed by the court. Such revocation and redetermination shall not be had except upon a hearing before the indeterminate sentence review board. At such hearing the convicted person shall be present and entitled to be heard and may present evidence and witnesses in his or her behalf.

Sec. 329. RCW 9.95.090 and 1999 c 143 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall require of every able bodied (~~convicted person imprisoned in the penitentiary or the reformatory~~) offender confined in a state correctional institution for a crime committed before July

1, 1984, as many hours of faithful labor in each and every day during his or her term of imprisonment as shall be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the institution in which he or she is confined.

(2) Offenders sentenced under section 303 of this act for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2001, shall perform work or other programming as required by the department of corrections during their term of confinement.

Sec. 330. RCW 9.95.100 and 1955 c 133 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

Any (~~convicted~~) person convicted of a felony committed before July 1, 1984, and undergoing sentence in (~~the penitentiary or the reformatory~~) a state correctional institution, not sooner released under the provisions of this chapter, shall, in accordance with the provisions of law, be discharged from custody on serving the maximum punishment provided by law for the offense of which such person was convicted, or the maximum term fixed by the court where the law does not provide for a maximum term. The board shall not, however, until his or her maximum term expires, release a prisoner, unless in its opinion his or her rehabilitation has been complete and he or she is a fit subject for release.

Sec. 331. RCW 9.95.110 and 1999 c 143 s 21 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board may permit (~~a convicted person~~) an offender convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, to leave the buildings and enclosures of (~~the penitentiary or the reformatory~~) a state correctional institution on parole, after such convicted person has served the period of confinement fixed for him or her by the board, less time credits for good behavior and diligence in work: PROVIDED, That in no case shall an inmate be credited with more than one-third of his or her sentence as fixed by the board.

The board may establish rules and regulations under which (~~a convicted person~~) an offender may be allowed to leave the confines of (~~the penitentiary or the reformatory~~) a state correctional institution on parole, and may return such person to the confines of the institution from which he or she was paroled, at its discretion.

(2) The board may permit an offender convicted of a crime committed on or after July 1, 2001, and sentenced under section 303 of this act, to leave a state correctional institution on community custody according to the provisions of sections 303 through 310 of this act. The person may be returned to the institution following a violation of his or her conditions of release to community custody pursuant to the hearing provisions of section 309 of this act.

Sec. 332. RCW 9.95.115 and 1989 c 259 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The indeterminate sentence review board is hereby granted authority to parole any person sentenced to the custody of the department of corrections, under a mandatory life sentence for a crime committed (~~((prior to))~~ before July 1, 1984, except those persons sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. No such person shall be granted parole unless the person has been continuously confined therein for a period of twenty consecutive years less earned good time: PROVIDED, That no such person shall be released under parole who is (~~((found to be a sexual psychopath under the provisions of and as defined by chapter 71.06 RCW))~~ subject to civil commitment as a sexually violent predator under chapter 71.09 RCW.

Sec. 333. RCW 9.95.120 and 1999 c 143 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the board or a (~~((probation and parole))~~ community corrections officer of this state has reason to believe a (~~((convicted))~~ person convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, has breached a condition of his or her parole or violated the law of any state where he or she may then be or the rules and regulations of the board, any (~~((probation and parole))~~ community corrections officer of this state may arrest or cause the arrest and detention and suspension of parole of such convicted person pending a determination by the board whether the parole of such convicted person shall be revoked. All facts and circumstances surrounding the violation by such convicted person shall be reported to the board by the (~~((probation and parole))~~ community corrections officer, with recommendations. The board, after consultation with the secretary of corrections, shall make all rules and regulations concerning procedural matters, which shall include the time when state (~~((probation and parole))~~ community corrections officers shall file with the board reports required by this section, procedures pertaining thereto and the filing of such information as may be necessary to enable the board to perform its functions under this section. On the basis of the report by the (~~probation and parole~~) community corrections officer, or at any time upon its own discretion, the board may revise or modify the conditions of parole or order the suspension of parole by the issuance of a written order bearing its seal, which order shall be sufficient warrant for all peace officers to take into custody any convicted person who may be on parole and retain such person in their custody until arrangements can be made by the board for his or her return to a state correctional institution for convicted felons. Any such revision or modification of the conditions of parole or the order suspending parole shall be personally served upon the parolee.

Any parolee arrested and detained in physical custody by the authority of a state (~~probation and parole~~) community corrections officer, or upon the written order of the board, shall not be released from custody on bail or personal recognizance, except upon approval of the board and the issuance by the board of an order of reinstatement on parole on the same or modified conditions of parole.

All chiefs of police, marshals of cities and towns, sheriffs of counties, and all police, prison, and peace officers and constables shall execute any such order in the same manner as any ordinary criminal process.

Whenever a paroled prisoner is accused of a violation of his or her parole, other than the commission of, and conviction for, a felony or misdemeanor under the laws of this state or the laws of any state where he or she may then be, he or she shall be entitled to a fair and impartial hearing of such charges within thirty days from the time that he or she is served with charges of the violation of conditions of (~~his~~) parole after his or her arrest and detention. The hearing shall be held before one or more members of the board at a place or places, within this state, reasonably near the site of the alleged violation or violations of parole.

In the event that the board suspends a parole by reason of an alleged parole violation or in the event that a parole is suspended pending the disposition of a new criminal charge, the board shall have the power to nullify the order of suspension and reinstate the individual to parole under previous conditions or any new conditions that the board may determine advisable. Before the board shall nullify an order of suspension and reinstate a parole they shall have determined that the best interests of society and the individual shall best be served by such reinstatement rather than a return to a penal institution.

Sec. 334. RCW 9.95.121 and 1981 c 136 s 38 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For offenders convicted of crimes committed before July 1, 1984, within fifteen days from the date of notice to the department of corrections of the arrest and detention of the alleged parole violator, he or she shall be personally served by a state (~~probation and parole~~) community corrections officer with a copy of the factual allegations of the violation of the conditions of parole, and, at the same time shall be advised of his or her right to an on-site parole revocation hearing and of his or her rights and privileges as provided in RCW 9.95.120 through 9.95.126. The alleged parole violator, after service of the allegations of violations of the conditions of parole and the advice of rights may waive the on-site parole revocation hearing as provided in RCW 9.95.120, and admit one or more of the alleged violations of the conditions of parole. If the board accepts the waiver it shall either, (1) reinstate the parolee on parole under the same or modified conditions, or (2) revoke the parole of the parolee and enter an order of parole revocation and return to state custody. A determination of a new minimum sentence shall be made within thirty days of return to state custody which shall not exceed the maximum sentence as provided by law for the crime of which the parolee was originally convicted or the maximum fixed by the court.

If the waiver made by the parolee is rejected by the board it shall hold an on-site parole revocation hearing under the provisions of RCW 9.95.120 through 9.95.126.

(2) Offenders sentenced under section 303 of this act are subject to the violation hearing process established in section 309 of this act.

Sec. 335. RCW 9.95.122 and 1999 c 143 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At any on-site parole revocation hearing for a person convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, the alleged parole violator shall be entitled to be represented by an attorney of his or her own choosing and at his or her own expense, except, upon the presentation

Sec. 360. RCW 72.09.370 and 1999 c 214 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall identify offenders in confinement or partial confinement who: (a) Are reasonably believed to be dangerous to themselves or others; and (b) have a mental disorder. In determining an offender's dangerousness, the secretary shall consider behavior known to the department and factors, based on research, that are linked to an increased risk for dangerousness of mentally ill offenders and shall include consideration of an offender's chemical dependency or abuse.

(2) Prior to release of an offender identified under this section, a team consisting of representatives of the department of corrections, the division of mental health, and, as necessary, the indeterminate sentence review board, other divisions or administrations within the department of social and health services, specifically including the division of alcohol and substance abuse and the division of developmental disabilities, the appropriate regional support network, and the providers, as appropriate, shall develop a plan, as determined necessary by the team, for delivery of treatment and support services to the offender upon release. The team may include a school district representative for offenders under the age of twenty-one. The team shall consult with the offender's counsel, if any, and, as appropriate, the offender's family and community. The team shall notify the crime victim/witness program, which shall provide notice to all people registered to receive notice under RCW 9.94A.155 of the proposed release plan developed by the team. Victims, witnesses, and other interested people notified by the department may provide information and comments to the department on potential safety risk to specific individuals or classes of individuals posed by the specific offender. The team may recommend: (a) That the offender be evaluated by the county designated mental health professional, as defined in chapter 71.05 RCW; (b) department-supervised community treatment; or (c) voluntary community mental health or chemical dependency or abuse treatment.

(3) Prior to release of an offender identified under this section, the team shall determine whether or not an evaluation by a county designated mental health professional is needed. If an evaluation is recommended, the supporting documentation shall be immediately forwarded to the appropriate county designated mental health professional. The supporting documentation shall include the offender's criminal history, history of judicially required or administratively ordered involuntary antipsychotic medication while in confinement, and any known history of involuntary civil commitment.

(4) If an evaluation by a county designated mental health professional is recommended by the team, such evaluation shall occur not more than ten days, nor less than five days, prior to release.

(5) A second evaluation by a county designated mental health professional shall occur on the day of release if requested by the team, based upon new information or a change in the offender's mental condition, and the initial evaluation did not result in an emergency detention or a summons under chapter 71.05 RCW.

(6) If the county designated mental health professional determines an emergency detention under chapter 71.05 RCW is necessary, the department shall release the offender only to a state hospital or to a consenting evaluation and treatment facility. The department shall arrange transportation of the offender to the hospital or facility.

(7) If the county designated mental health professional believes that a less restrictive alternative treatment is appropriate, he or she shall seek a summons, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 71.05 RCW, to require the offender to appear at an evaluation and treatment facility. If a summons is issued, the offender shall remain within the corrections facility until completion of his or her term of confinement and be transported, by corrections personnel on the day of completion, directly to the identified evaluation and treatment facility.

(8) The secretary shall adopt rules to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 361. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

The indeterminate sentence review board, in fulfilling its duties under the provisions of this act, shall be considered a parole board as that concept was treated in law under the state's indeterminate sentencing statutes.

PART IV TECHNICAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) RCW 9.95.0011 (Indeterminate sentence review board--Report--Recommendation of governor) and 1997 c 350 s 1, 1989 c 259 s 4, & 1986 c 224 s 12; and

(2) RCW 9.95.145 (Sex offenders--Release of information--Classification of offenders) and 1997 c 364 s 5 & 1990 c 3 s 127.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. The secretary of corrections, the secretary of social and health services, and the indeterminate sentence review board may adopt rules to implement this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 403. (1) Sections 301 through 361 of this act shall not affect the validity of any sentence imposed under any other law for any offense committed before, on, or after the effective date of this section.

(2) Sections 301 through 361 of this act shall apply to offenses committed on or after the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 404. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 405. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect July 1, 2001, except for sections 101 through 225 of this act which take effect immediately."

Correct the title.

EFFECT: (1) Reduces the total number of beds authorized for the McNeil Island secure community transition facility (SCTF) to fifteen.

(2) Requires the DSHS to cease its current efforts to site additional SCTFs and instead use the following process in siting future facilities: If the DSHS and the attorney general determine that future SCTFs are needed, the DSHS must prepare a projected list of counties where the facilities need to be sited over the next six years, and every six years thereafter. The DSHS must provide for the equitable distribution of these facilities among and within counties after consulting with the joint select committee and local governments. No additional SCTFs may be sited in Pierce County until after June 30, 2008. The total number of beds sited between the effective date of the act and June 30, 2008, in a county cannot exceed the number of persons civilly committed from that county as of April 2001. The same rule is repeated for 2008-2015, with the cap calculated based on the number of persons civilly committed as of July 1, 2008. The equitable distribution is to be based on an analysis of the number of persons civilly committed from each county as of April 1, 2001, per thousand residents of the county; the number of existing and projected state mental hospital, SCTF, and correctional facility beds in each county per thousand residents of the county; and the number of registered level II, III, and homeless sex offenders per thousand residents of the county.

(3) Limits subsequent placement of residents from the McNeil Island SCTF into Pierce County until June 30, 2003.

(4) Requires the mitigation agreement negotiations for the McNeil Island SCTF to include other impacted parties. Mitigation is for increased risks to public safety as a result of the facility.

(5) Deletes the incentive grant program for employers and educational institutions who hire or enroll residents of the SCTF.

(6) Requires the DSHS to provide local law enforcement with a general plan of the SCTF residents' planned activities in the community.

(7) Sets forth siting requirements and criteria for future SCTFs to include an average response time of five minutes or less by local law enforcement and a prohibition on placing a facility adjacent to, across a street or parking lot from, or with the line of sight of a risk potential activity.

(8) Prohibits a felon, or a person convicted of any sex offense, from working at the secure community transition facility or serving as an escort to a resident of the facility. Prohibits a relative of a resident of the secure community transition facility from serving as his or her escort.

(9) Requires escorts to immediately report violations of release conditions and/or violations of law. Requires the DSHS to submit a record of all violations, penalties, actions taken, and contract terminations to the legislature on an annual basis.

(10) Deletes the schedule of monetary penalties for contractors operating SCTFs.

(11) Requires the joint select committee to review and make recommendations regarding factors for the equitable distribution of SCTFs, siting and operation criteria, security measures, and a method for determining mitigation for future SCTFs.

(12) Requires that treatment of conditionally released sexually violent predators be conducted by certified treatment providers, unless specified exceptions apply. Prohibits a sex offender treatment provider from treating sexually violent predators if he or she has been convicted of a sex offense, or restricted from practice as a health care professional. Provides that a certified sex offender treatment provider is not liable for damages caused by a sexually violent predator or level III sex offender he or she is treating if the provider acted within the course of his or her duties and his or her actions did not constitute gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. Requires certified sex offender treatment providers to report expressions of intent to harm or other predatory behavior.

(13) Deletes the predatory findings required with respect to certain crimes for sentencing under the new indeterminate sentencing scheme.

(14) Clarifies that an offender sentenced under the new indeterminate sentencing scheme could be eligible for SSOSA (Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative) and would receive a community custody term equal to the length of the maximum term of his or her suspended sentence.
