HOUSE BILL 1069

---

State of Washington

57th Legislature

2001 Regular Session

By Representatives Campbell, Cody and Edwards; by request of Department of Health

Read first time 01/15/2001. Referred to Committee on Health Care.

1 AN ACT Relating to the health professions' use of pro tem board
2 members; and amending RCW 18.130.060.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 Sec. 1. RCW 18.130.060 and 1995 c 336 s 5 are each amended to read 5 as follows:

6 In addition to the authority specified in RCW 18.130.050, the 7 secretary has the following additional authority:

8 (1) To employ such investigative, administrative, and clerical
9 staff as necessary for the enforcement of this chapter;

10 (2) Upon the request of a board, to appoint (~~not more than three~~ 11 ~~pro tem members for the purpose of participating as members of one or~~ 12 ~~more committees of the board in connection with~~) pro tem members to 13 participate as members of a panel of the board in connection with 14 proceedings specifically identified in the request. Individuals so 15 appointed must meet the same minimum qualifications as regular members
16 of the board. Pro tem members appointed for matters under this chapter 17 are appointed for a term of no more than one year. No pro tem member 18 may serve more than four one-year terms. While serving as board 19 members pro tem, persons so appointed have all the powers, duties, and

1 immunities, and are entitled to the emoluments, including travel
2 expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, of regular 3 members of the board. The chairperson of a (~~committee~~) panel shall 4 be a regular member of the board appointed by the board chairperson.
5 (~~Committees~~) Panels have authority to act as directed by the board 6 with respect to all matters concerning the review, investigation, and 7 adjudication of all complaints, allegations, charges, and matters
8 subject to the jurisdiction of the board. The authority to act through 9 (~~committees~~) panels does not restrict the authority of the board to 10 act as a single body at any phase of proceedings within the board's 11 jurisdiction. Board (~~committees~~) panels may make interim orders and 12 issue final decisions with respect to matters and cases delegated to 13 the (~~committee~~) panel by the board. Final decisions may be appealed 14 as provided in chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act;

15 (3) To establish fees to be paid for witnesses, expert witnesses, 16 and consultants used in any investigation and to establish fees to 17 witnesses in any agency adjudicative proceeding as authorized by RCW 18 34.05.446;

19 (4) To conduct investigations and practice reviews at the direction
20 of the disciplining authority and to issue subpoenas, administer oaths, 21 and take depositions in the course of conducting those investigations 22 and practice reviews at the direction of the disciplining authority;

23 (5) To have the health professions regulatory program establish a 24 system to recruit potential public members, to review the 25 qualifications of such potential members, and to provide orientation to 26 those public members appointed pursuant to law by the governor or the 27 secretary to the boards and commissions specified in RCW 28 18.130.040(2)(b), and to the advisory committees and councils for 29 professions specified in RCW 18.130.040(2)(a).
