
HOUSE BILL 1117

State of Washington 57th Legislature 2001 Regular Session

By Representatives Carrell, Lantz, Lambert, O'Brien, Lovick and Hunt

Read first time . Referred to Committee on .

1 AN ACT Relating to enforcement of court-ordered restitution
2 obligations; and adding a new section to chapter 3.66 RCW.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 3.66 RCW
5 to read as follows:

6 All court-ordered restitution obligations that are ordered as a
7 result of a conviction for a criminal offense in a court of limited
8 jurisdiction may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment in a 9 civil action by the party or entity to whom the legal financial 10 obligation is owed. The judgment and sentence must identify the party 11 or entity to whom restitution is owed so that the state, party, or 12 entity may enforce the judgment.

13 All court-ordered restitution obligations may be enforced at any 14 time during the ten-year period following the offender's release from 15 total confinement or within ten years of entry of the judgment and 16 sentence, whichever period is longer. Prior to the expiration of the 17 initial ten-year period, the court may extend the criminal judgment an 18 additional ten years for payment of court-ordered financial 19 obligations.

1 The party or entity to whom the court-ordered restitution
2 obligation is owed may utilize any other remedies available to the 3 party or entity to collect the court-ordered financial obligation.

4 Nothing in this section may be construed to deprive the court of 5 the authority to determine whether the offender's failure to pay the 6 legal financial obligation constitutes a violation of a condition of 7 probation or to impose a sanction upon the offender if such a violation 8 is found.
