By Representatives Dickerson, Grant, Dunshee, Chase, Edwards, Kagi, Dunn, Wood and Pflug

Read first time 01/16/2002. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

1 AN ACT Relating to civil forfeitures of property; amending RCW 2 69.50.505; and adding a new section to chapter 10.105 RCW.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 10.105 RCW 5 to read as follows:

6 (1) No judgment of forfeiture of property in a civil forfeiture 7 proceeding by the state or any of its political subdivisions shall be allowed or entered until and unless the owner of the property is 8 9 convicted of a crime in Washington or another jurisdiction and the 10 property is found by clear and convincing evidence to have been instrumental in committing or facilitating the crime or to be proceeds 11 12 of that crime. The value of the property forfeited under the 13 provisions of this subsection shall be substantially proportional to 14 the specific conduct for which the owner of the property has been 15 convicted. For purposes of this section, "property" means any interest 16 in anything of value, including the whole of any lot or tract of land 17 and tangible and intangible personal property, including currency, instruments or securities or any other kind of privilege, interest, 18 claim, or right whether due or to become due. Nothing in this section prohibits a person from voluntarily giving a judgment of forfeiture.

(2) In a civil forfeiture proceeding if a financial institution 3 4 claiming an interest in the property demonstrates that it holds an 5 interest, its interest shall not be subject to forfeiture. In a civil forfeiture proceeding if a person claiming an interest in the property, 6 other than a financial institution or a defendant who has been charged 7 with or convicted of a crime involving that property, demonstrates that 8 9 the person has an interest in the property, that person's interest 10 shall not be subject to forfeiture unless:

(a) The forfeiting agency proves by clear and convincing evidence that the person took the property or the interest with the intent to defeat the forfeiture; or

(b) A conviction under subsection (1) of this section is laterobtained against the person.

16 (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this 17 section, if, following notice to all persons known to have an interest or who may have an interest, no person claims an interest in the seized 18 19 property or if the property is contraband, a judgment of forfeiture may 20 be allowed and entered without a criminal conviction. For purposes of this subsection, "contraband" means personal property, articles, or 21 22 things, including but not limited to controlled substances or drug 23 paraphernalia, that a person is prohibited by Washington statute or local ordinance from producing, obtaining, or possessing. 24

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the temporary seizure of property for evidentiary, forfeiture, or protective purposes, or to alter the power of the governor to remit fines or forfeitures under Article III, section 11 of the Washington Constitution.

30 (5) Any sale of forfeited property shall be conducted in a 31 commercially reasonable manner. Property or proceeds forfeited under 32 subsection (1), (3), or (6) of this section shall be distributed or 33 applied in the following order:

34 (a) To the satisfaction of any foreclosed liens, security35 interests, and contracts in the order of their priority;

36 (b) To the state or any of its political subdivisions for actual 37 and reasonable expenses related to the costs of the forfeiture 38 proceeding, including attorney fees, storage, maintenance, management, 39 and disposition of the property incurred in connection with the sale of any forfeited property in an amount not to exceed twenty-five percent of the total proceeds in any single forfeiture;

3 (c) To the state or any of its political subdivisions to be used 4 exclusively for drug treatment, unless another disposition is specially 5 provided by law.

6 (6) The state of Washington or any of its political subdivisions 7 shall take all necessary steps to obtain shared property or proceeds 8 from the United States department of justice resulting from a 9 forfeiture. Any property or proceeds received from the United States 10 department of justice by the state of Washington or any of its 11 political subdivisions shall be applied as provided in subsection (5) 12 of this section.

(7) Neither the state of Washington, its political subdivisions, nor any forfeiting agency shall transfer forfeiture proceedings to the federal government unless a state court has affirmatively found that: (a) The activity giving rise to the forfeiture is interstate in nature and sufficiently complex to justify the transfer;

(b) The seized property may only be forfeited under federal law; or
(c) Pursuing forfeiture under state law would unduly burden the state forfeiting agencies.

(8) All forfeiting agencies shall report the nature and disposition 21 of all property and proceeds seized for forfeiture or forfeited to the 22 asset forfeiture oversight committee, hereby created. The members of 23 24 the committee shall be appointed by the governor. The committee shall 25 be operated independent of any forfeiting agency. The committee shall 26 generate and make available to the public an annual report of the information collected. The committee shall also make recommendations 27 to ensure that asset forfeiture proceedings are handled in a manner 28 29 that is fair to innocent property owners and interest holders.

30 Sec. 2. RCW 69.50.505 and 2001 c 168 s 1 are each amended to read 31 as follows:

In such a case, the intent of the offender shall be determined by the preponderance of the 36 37 evidence, including the offender's prior criminal history, the amount of marijuana possessed by the offender, the sophistication of the 38

1 activity or equipment used by the offender, and other evidence which 2 demonstrates the offender's intent to engage in commercial activity; 3 (iv) The unlawful sale of marijuana or a legend drug shall not 4 result in the forfeiture of real property unless the sale was forty 5 grams or more in the case of marijuana or one hundred dollars or more 6 in the case of a legend drug, and a substantial nexus exists between 7 the unlawful sale and the real property; and

8 (v) A forfeiture of real property encumbered by a bona fide 9 security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if 10 the secured party, at the time the security interest was created, 11 neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission.

(b) Real or personal property subject to forfeiture under this 12 13 chapter may be seized by any board inspector or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having 14 15 jurisdiction over the property. Seizure of real property shall include 16 the filing of a lis pendens by the seizing agency. Real property 17 seized under this section shall not be transferred or otherwise conveyed until ninety days after seizure or until a judgment of 18 19 forfeiture is entered, whichever is later: PROVIDED, That real 20 property seized under this section may be transferred or conveyed to any person or entity who acquires title by foreclosure or deed in lieu 21 of foreclosure of a security interest. Seizure of personal property 22 23 without process may be made if:

(1) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search any person having any known right or interest therein, including any 1 2 community property interest, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. Service of notice of seizure of real property 3 4 shall be made according to the rules of civil procedure. However, the state may not obtain a default judgment with respect to real property 5 against a party who is served by substituted service absent an 6 7 affidavit stating that a good faith effort has been made to ascertain 8 if the defaulted party is incarcerated within the state, and that there 9 is no present basis to believe that the party is incarcerated within 10 the state. Notice of seizure in the case of property subject to a security interest that has been perfected by filing a financing 11 statement in accordance with chapter 62A.9A RCW, or a certificate of 12 13 title, shall be made by service upon the secured party or the secured party's assignee at the address shown on the financing statement or the 14 The notice of seizure in other cases may be 15 certificate of title. 16 served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not 17 limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the 18 19 fifteen day period following the seizure.

20 (d) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of 21 items specified in subsection (a)(4), (a)(7), or (a)(8) of this section 22 23 within forty-five days of the seizure in the case of personal property 24 and ninety days in the case of real property, the item seized shall be 25 deemed forfeited. The community property interest in real property of 26 a person whose spouse committed a violation giving rise to seizure of 27 the real property may not be forfeited if the person did not participate in the violation. 28

29 (e) If any person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in 30 writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), (a)(4), (a)(5), (a)(6), 31 (a)(7), or (a)(8) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure 32 33 in the case of personal property and ninety days in the case of real property, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable 34 35 opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or the 36 37 chief law enforcement officer's designee, except where the seizing agency is a state agency as defined in RCW 34.12.020(4), the hearing 38 39 shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW, 1 2 except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction. Removal of any matter involving 3 personal property may only be accomplished according to the rules of 4 5 civil procedure. The person seeking removal of the matter must serve state, county, political subdivision, 6 process against the or 7 municipality that operates the seizing agency, and any other party of 8 interest, in accordance with RCW 4.28.080 or 4.92.020, within forty-9 five days after the person seeking removal has notified the seizing law 10 enforcement agency of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession. The court to which the matter is to be removed shall be 11 the district court when the aggregate value of personal property is 12 within the jurisdictional limit set forth in RCW 3.66.020. A hearing 13 before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 14 15 34 RCW. In all cases, the burden of proof is upon the law enforcement agency to establish, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the 16 property is subject to forfeiture. 17 18 The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the 19 article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the 20 administrative law judge or court that the claimant is the present 21 lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of items 22 specified in subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), (a)(4), (a)(5), (a)(6), (a)(7), 23 or (a)(8) of this section.

(f) In any proceeding to forfeit property under this title, where the claimant substantially prevails, the claimant is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees reasonably incurred by the claimant. In addition, in a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party is entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

30 (g) When property is forfeited under this chapter the board or 31 seizing law enforcement agency may:

(1) Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release such property to such agency for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter;

35 (2) Sell that which is not required to be destroyed by law and36 which is not harmful to the public;

37 (3) Request the appropriate sheriff or director of public safety to 38 take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in 39 accordance with law; or

1 (4) Forward it to the drug enforcement administration for 2 disposition.

3 (h)(1) When property is forfeited, the seizing agency shall keep a 4 record indicating the identity of the prior owner, if known, a 5 description of the property, the disposition of the property, the value 6 of the property at the time of seizure, and the amount of proceeds 7 realized from disposition of the property.

8 (2) Each seizing agency shall retain records of forfeited property9 for at least seven years.

10 (3) Each seizing agency shall file a report including a copy of the 11 records of forfeited property with the state treasurer each calendar 12 quarter.

13 (4) The quarterly report need not include a record of forfeited 14 property that is still being held for use as evidence during the 15 investigation or prosecution of a case or during the appeal from a 16 conviction.

(i)(1) By January 31st of each year, each seizing agency shall remit to the state treasurer an amount equal to ten percent of the net proceeds of any property forfeited during the preceding calendar year. Money remitted shall be deposited in the violence reduction and drug enforcement account under RCW 69.50.520.

(2) The net proceeds of forfeited property is the value of the forfeitable interest in the property after deducting the cost of satisfying any bona fide security interest to which the property is subject at the time of seizure; and in the case of sold property, after deducting the cost of sale, including reasonable fees or commissions paid to independent selling agents, and the cost of any valid landlord's claim for damages under subsection (o) of this section.

29 (3) The value of sold forfeited property is the sale price. The 30 value of retained forfeited property is the fair market value of the property at the time of seizure, determined when possible by reference 31 to an applicable commonly used index, such as the index used by the 32 department of licensing for valuation of motor vehicles. A seizing 33 34 agency may use, but need not use, an independent qualified appraiser to 35 determine the value of retained property. If an appraiser is used, the value of the property appraised is net of the cost of the appraisal. 36 37 The value of destroyed property and retained firearms or illegal property is zero. 38

(j) Forfeited property and ((net)) proceeds ((not required to be paid to the state treasurer shall be retained by the seizing law enforcement agency exclusively for the expansion and improvement of controlled substances related law enforcement activity. Money retained under this section may not be used to supplant preexisting funding sources)) shall be disposed of or distributed as specified in section 1 of this act.

8 (k) Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V 9 that are possessed, transferred, sold, or offered for sale in violation 10 of this chapter are contraband and shall be seized and summarily 11 forfeited to the state. Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, 12 II, III, IV, and V, which are seized or come into the possession of the 13 board, the owners of which are unknown, are contraband and shall be 14 summarily forfeited to the board.

(1) Species of plants from which controlled substances in Schedules I and II may be derived which have been planted or cultivated in violation of this chapter, or of which the owners or cultivators are unknown, or which are wild growths, may be seized and summarily forfeited to the board.

(m) The failure, upon demand by a board inspector or law enforcement officer, of the person in occupancy or in control of land or premises upon which the species of plants are growing or being stored to produce an appropriate registration or proof that he is the holder thereof constitutes authority for the seizure and forfeiture of the plants.

(n) Upon the entry of an order of forfeiture of real property, the court shall forward a copy of the order to the assessor of the county in which the property is located. Orders for the forfeiture of real property shall be entered by the superior court, subject to court rules. Such an order shall be filed by the seizing agency in the county auditor's records in the county in which the real property is located.

(o) A landlord may assert a claim against proceeds from the sale of assets seized and forfeited under subsection (g)(2) of this section, only if:

(1) A law enforcement officer, while acting in his or her official capacity, directly caused damage to the complaining landlord's property while executing a search of a tenant's residence; and

1 (2) The landlord has applied any funds remaining in the tenant's 2 deposit, to which the landlord has a right under chapter 59.18 RCW, to 3 cover the damage directly caused by a law enforcement officer prior to 4 asserting a claim under the provisions of this section;

5 (i) Only if the funds applied under (2) of this subsection are 6 insufficient to satisfy the damage directly caused by a law enforcement 7 officer, may the landlord seek compensation for the damage by filing a 8 claim against the governmental entity under whose authority the law 9 enforcement agency operates within thirty days after the search;

10 (ii) Only if the governmental entity denies or fails to respond to the landlord's claim within sixty days of the date of filing, may the 11 landlord collect damages under this subsection by filing within thirty 12 13 days of denial or the expiration of the sixty-day period, whichever occurs first, a claim with the seizing law enforcement agency. 14 The 15 seizing law enforcement agency must notify the landlord of the status 16 of the claim by the end of the thirty-day period. Nothing in this 17 section requires the claim to be paid by the end of the sixty-day or thirty-day period. 18

19 (3) For any claim filed under (2) of this subsection, the law 20 enforcement agency shall pay the claim unless the agency provides 21 substantial proof that the landlord either:

(i) Knew or consented to actions of the tenant in violation of thischapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW; or

(ii) Failed to respond to a notification of the illegal activity, provided by a law enforcement agency under RCW 59.18.075, within seven days of receipt of notification of the illegal activity.

(p) The landlord's claim for damages under subsection (o) of this section may not include a claim for loss of business and is limited to:
(1) Damage to tangible property and clean-up costs;

30 (2) The lesser of the cost of repair or fair market value of the31 damage directly caused by a law enforcement officer;

32 (3) The proceeds from the sale of the specific tenant's property33 seized and forfeited under subsection (g)(2) of this section; and

(4) The proceeds available after the seizing law enforcement agency satisfies any bona fide security interest in the tenant's property and costs related to sale of the tenant's property as provided by subsection (i)(2) of this section.

(q) Subsections (o) and (p) of this section do not limit any otherrights a landlord may have against a tenant to collect for damages.

However, if a law enforcement agency satisfies a landlord's claim under subsection (o) of this section, the rights the landlord has against the tenant for damages directly caused by a law enforcement officer under the terms of the landlord and tenant's contract are subrogated to the law enforcement agency.

6 (r) Civil forfeitures of property under this section are subject to 7 section 1 of this act, and in case of conflict between section 1 of 8 this act and this section, section 1 of this act shall control.

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its 10 application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the 11 remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other 12 persons or circumstances is not affected.
