

SENATE RESOLUTION
8766

By Senators Gardner, Haugen, Spanel, Rasmussen and Fraser

WHEREAS, Dan Snow's commitment to public transportation began thirty years ago when he became a bus driver; and

WHEREAS, In 1980, Snow became operations director at Intercity Transit, where he stayed for eight years; and

WHEREAS, In 1987, Snow started Island Transit, providing vision and leadership as the organization's first general manager; and

WHEREAS, In October of 1991, Dan Snow became the Executive Director of the Washington State Transit Association, nonprofit corporation representing all twenty-five transit systems in the state and Washington State Ferries; and

WHEREAS, With the Washington State Transit Association, Snow has worked on numerous projects and served on several committees, representing minority viewpoints with good humor and without bias; and

WHEREAS, His accomplishments have caused his colleagues to regard him in high esteem and with warm affection; and

WHEREAS, Snow's personal integrity, advocacy and sense of values have served the public transportation industry and the people of this state well;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate honor Dan Snow for his commitment to public transportation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Dan Snow, Executive Director of the Washington State Transit Association.

I, Tony M. Cook, Secretary of the Senate, do hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of Senate Resolution 8766, adopted by the Senate March 13, 2002.

TONY M. COOK
