HOUSE COMMITTEE ON NATURAL RESOURCES, ECOLOGY & PARKS

Sullivan, Chair; Upthegrove, Vice Chair; Buck, Ranking Minority Member; Kretz, Assistant Ranking Minority Member; Blake, DeBolt, Dickerson, Eickmeyer, Hunt, Orcutt and Williams.

Background:

The Parks and Recreation Commission (Commission) is responsible for the care and supervision of the State Parks system. The Washington State Patrol conducts background checks and fingerprinting for certain entities that hire persons for positions involving unsupervised access to children and vulnerable adults. The Commission does not have the express authority to require a record check or fingerprinting of prospective employees, volunteers, or contractors under these circumstances.

Summary of Substitute Bill:

The Commission is required to adopt rules that may require a criminal history record information search of job applicants, volunteers, and independent contractors who will work with children or vulnerable adults, or who will be responsible for collecting or disbursing money or processing credit card transactions. The background check will be conducted through the Washington State Patrol criminal identification system and may include a national check from the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Permanent employees of the commission who are employed upon the effective date of this legislation are exempt from the requirement.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: State Parks needs to do background checks due to the number of contractors, volunteers, and employees that work around children in the parks and environmental learning centers. Similar legislation has passed the House of Representatives in 2001 and 2003. State Parks employees handle money from the fees it charges, and this is a preventative measure and good public policy.

Testimony Against: None.

Persons Testifying: Representative O'Brien, prime sponsor; and Fred Romero and Rita Cooper, State Parks and Recreation Commission.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: None.
