

HB 3275 - DIGEST

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 2/13/06)

Expedites applications for projects to store one hundred acre feet or less of water that demonstrate substantial late-season flow and habitat improvement for resident or anadromous fish by eliminating the diversion of water from the natural course of a stream or river during its base flow period.