Providing incentives for improved job training and placement services.

Finds that assisting recipients of the WorkFirst program and other individuals who are seeking jobs with job training and job placement services is critical to supporting the self-sufficiency of families as well as the economic well-being of the state. Job training and placement services are currently offered through multiple agencies and programs, each with their own eligibility requirements and funding sources.

Declares an intent to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of job training and placement services for recipients of the WorkFirst program and other individuals who are seeking jobs by integrating the delivery of those services in communities across the state.

Requires the board to include in its planning requirements for local work force investment boards a requirement that local work force investment boards specify how the job training and placement services under P.L. 105-220, or its successor, and the job training and placement services provided through the WorkFirst program are to be integrated.

Establishes an incentive program in the governor's office for integrating the delivery of job training and placement services for recipients of the WorkFirst program and other individuals who are seeking jobs.

HB 1834 by Representatives McIntire, Anderson, Kessler, Conway, Fromhold, Clements, Kagi, Linville, Jarrett, Hunter, Tom and Hinkle

Using performance measures for budgeting decisions.

Finds that although state agencies have established missions, goals, and objectives to aid in self-assessment and budget development, this process requires further priority setting. First, state agencies must provide policymakers with focus on the agencies' priority performance measures. Second, legislators require the opportunity to review agencies' proposed priority performance measures in light of the state's priorities and the statutory purposes and policy goals of the programs. Third, legislative and executive policymakers require quantifiable, objective data that are measurable over time in order to gauge whether progress is being made toward agencies' goals. Specifically, budget managers and the legislature must have the data to move toward better statewide results that produce the intended public benefit.

Declares that, by compiling reliable data on valid performance measures for the state's policy priorities, legislative and executive policymakers will be able to make better budgeting decisions.

Provides that, after the office of financial management submits proposed priority performance measures to the legislative fiscal committees under RCW 43.88.030, the proposed priority performance measures are subject to legislative review as provided in this act.

(1) Upon receipt of the governor's proposed priority performance measures, the legislative fiscal committees shall distribute the measures among the appropriate legislative committees for those committees' review.

(2) The legislative committees shall review the proposed priority performance measures for policy and program priority, measurability, specificity, objectivity, and conformance with statutes and legislative intent.

(3) The legislative committees shall recommend any revisions to the proposed priority performance measures to the legislative fiscal committees. The legislative fiscal committees must consider the proposed revisions and may adopt different or additional revisions, based on the state's policy and program priorities and fiscal constraints.

(4) The house of representatives and the senate shall adopt the priority performance measures prior to executive action on omnibus operating and transportation appropriations legislation in the respective bodies.

(5) The legislature shall adopt final priority performance measures by concurrent resolution.

Provides that the joint legislative evaluation and accountability program committee, in consultation with the joint legislative audit and review committee, shall compile, validate, and create a data base of historical information on priority performance measures established under RCW 43.88.090(3).

Provides that the office of financial management shall compile data on agencies' progress toward meeting priority performance measures. The office of financial management shall report the data to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on a semiannual basis.

However, the limit may be increased for such a program cost shift only if: (1) The legislature requires the deposit in the general fund of an ongoing revenue source that would otherwise be deposited in the fund or account that previously supported the program, in an amount equal to the cost of the program shifted; and Finds that the safety of the highways of this state is materially affected by the degree of compliance with state laws and local ordinances relating to the operation of motor vehicles. Drivers who commit traffic violations, ignore notices from courts, and fail to resolve notices of traffic infraction and citations all show their disrespect for traffic laws that exist to ensure safety on the highways.

Declares that an essential mechanism for ensuring that drivers comply with the traffic laws of this state is the swift and certain suspension of the driving privileges of a driver who fails to respond to a notice of traffic infraction, fails to appear at a requested hearing, violates a written promise to appear in court, fails to pay a fine or monetary penalty imposed as the result of a traffic violation, or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of a notice of traffic infraction or citation.

Finds that large numbers of drivers who fail to fulfill their obligations to respond and comply with notices of traffic infraction and citations, or otherwise fail to fulfill obligations of similar import, creates a significant threat to public safety.

Declares therefore, there is a compelling state interest in having a mechanism to withhold driving privileges which also provides necessary due process protections as economically and expeditiously as possible.

Finds that this compelling state interest can best be served by having any necessary administrative review conducted by the department of licensing in a manner that provides due process, while maximizing the use of documentary evidence to simplify and expedite those proceedings.

Provides that, beginning in 2006, and, to avoid duplication, coordinated with any audit that may be conducted under RCW 43.09.310, the state auditor shall conduct annual audits of the state fund. HB 1859 by Representatives Lantz, Cody, Schual-Berke, Morrell, Kirby, Springer, Miloscia and Kilmer

Creating the Washington birth-related injury compensation association.

Finds that: (1) Physicians and advanced registered nurse practitioners practicing obstetrics are high-risk medical specialists for whom malpractice insurance premiums are very costly, and recent increases in such premiums have been greater for such physicians than for other physicians.

(2) Because obstetric services are essential and the state of Washington currently pays for almost half of the births in the state through its medical assistance programs, it is incumbent upon the legislature to provide a plan designed to result in the stabilization and reduction of malpractice insurance premiums for providers of obstetric services in Washington.

(3) The costs of birth-related injury claims are particularly high and warrant the establishment of a limited system of compensation irrespective of fault. The issue of whether such claims are covered by this chapter must be determined exclusively in an administrative proceeding.

Declares an intent to provide compensation, on a no-fault basis, for a limited class of birth-related injuries that result in high costs for custodial care and rehabilitation. This plan applies only to birth-related injuries.

Establishes the Washington birth-related injury compensation plan for the purpose of providing compensation, irrespective of fault, for birth-related injury claims. The plan applies to births occurring on or after January 1, 2007, and is administered by the Washington birth-related injury compensation association.

Declares that the rights and remedies granted by this plan on account of a birth-related injury that is covered by this act are exclusive and preclude all other rights and remedies at common law or otherwise of the claimant arising out of or related to a medical negligence claim with respect to the injury against any person or entity directly involved in the labor, delivery, or immediate postdelivery resuscitation during which the injury occurs.

Declares that a civil action is not foreclosed under this act when: (1) There is a preponderance of the evidence showing that the acts or omissions of the hospital, childbirth center, physician, or advanced registered nurse practitioner were made in bad faith or with malicious purpose or willful or wanton disregard of human rights, safety, or property; and

(2) The suit is filed prior to and in lieu of payment of an award under this act.

Where there are multiple parties on a side and the parties cannot agree as to which independent experts will be called on an issue, the court, upon a showing of good cause, shall allow additional experts on an issue to be called as the court deems appropriate.

Requires that in an action under chapter 7.70 RCW, all parties shall submit a pretrial expert report pursuant to time frames provided in court rules. The expert report must disclose the identity of all expert witnesses and state the nature of the opinions the expert witnesses will present as testimony at trial. Further depositions of these expert witnesses is prohibited.

Restricting use of highly toxic pesticides.

Declares that the purpose of this act is to protect Washington farm workers from highly toxic pesticides in the workplace.

(2) There are less toxic substitutes for many highly toxic pesticides;

(3) Principles of workplace safety support the substitution of less toxic materials or alternative practices, where available, in order to protect workers from exposure to highly toxic substances; and

(4) Principles of workplace safety should be applied to the handling and dispersed use of highly toxic pesticides by requiring substitution of less toxic substances or alternative practices, where available, and by promoting the development of alternative substances or practices in cases where they are not currently available.

Providing lien authority to the department of ecology to facilitate the recovery of remedial action costs under the model toxics control act.

Declares that it is in the public interest for the department to recover remedial action costs incurred in discharging its responsibility under this chapter, as these recovered funds can then be applied to the cleanup of other facilities. Thus, in addition to other cost-recovery mechanisms provided under chapter 70.105D RCW, this act is intended to facilitate the recovery of state funds spent on remedial actions by providing the department with lien authority. This will also prevent a facility owner or mortgagee from gaining a financial windfall from increased land value resulting from department-conducted remedial actions at the expense of the state taxpayers.

Provides that, if the state of Washington incurs remedial action costs relating to a remedial action of real property, and those remedial action costs are unrecovered by the state of Washington, the department may file a lien against that real property.
